22 Rouse yourself, God, and defend your cause!
Remember that godless people laugh at you all day long 23 Don't forget the angry shouts of your enemies,
the continuous noise made by your foes

God the Judge[e]

75 We give thanks to you, O God, we give thanks to you!
We proclaim how great you are and tell of[f] the wonderful things you have done

2 "I have set a time for judgement," says
God,
"and I will judge with fairness 3 Though every living creature tremble and the earth itself be shaken, I will keep its foundations firm 4 I tell the wicked not to be arrogant, 5 I tell them to stop their boasting"

6 Judgement does not come from the east or from the west, from the north or from the south,[g] 7 it is God who is the judge, condemning some and acquitting others
8 The LORD holds a cup in his hand, filled with the strong wine of his anger
He pours it out, and all the wicked drink
it,
they drink it down to the last drop 9 But I will never stop speaking of the God of Jacob or singing praises to him 10 He will break the power of the wicked, but the power of the righteous will be increased

God the Victor[h]

76 God is known in Judah, his name is honoured in Israel 2 He has his home in Jerusalem, he lives on Mount Zion 3 There he broke the arrows of the enemy, their shields and swords, yes, all their weapons

4 How glorious you are, O God!
How majestic, as you return from the mountains where you defeated your foes 5 Their brave soldiers have been stripped of all they had and now are sleeping the sleep of death, all their strength and skill was useless 6 When you threatened them, O God of Jacob, the horses and their riders fell dead

7 But you, LORD, are feared by all No one can stand in your presence when you are angry 8 You made your judgement known from heaven, the world was afraid and kept silent, 9 when you rose up to pronounce judgement, to save all the oppressed on earth 10 Men's anger only results in more praise for you, those who survive the wars will keep your festivals [i]

11 Give the LORD your God what you promised him, bring gifts to him, all you nearby nations God makes men fear him, 12 he humbles proud princes and terrifies great kings

Comfort in Time of Distress[j]

77 I cry aloud to God, I cry aloud, and he hears me 2 In times of trouble I pray to the Lord, all night long I lift my hands in prayer, but I cannot find comfort 3 When I think of God, I sigh, when I meditate, I feel discouraged 4 He keeps me awake all night, I am so worried that I cannot speak 5 I think of days gone by and remember years of long ago 6 I spend the night in deep thought,[k] I meditate, and this is what I ask myself 7 "Will the Lord always reject us?
Will he never again be pleased with us?
8 Has he stopped loving us?
Does his promise no longer stand?
9 Has God forgotten to be merciful?
Has anger taken the place of his compassion?" 10 Then I said, "What hurts me most is this—that God is no longer powerful"[l]

11 I will remember your great deeds, LORD, I will recall the wonders you did in the past 12 I will think about all that you have done, I will meditate on all your mighty acts

13 Everything you do, O God, is holy No god is as great as you 14 You are the God who works miracles, you showed your might among the nations 15 By your power you saved your people, the descendants of Jacob and of Joseph 16 When the waters saw you, O God, they were afraid, and the depths of the sea trembled 17 The clouds poured down rain, thunder crashed from the sky, and lightning flashed in all directions 18 The crash of your thunder rolled out, and flashes of lightning lit up the world, the earth trembled and shook 19 You walked through the waves, you crossed the deep sea, but your footprints could not be seen 20 You led your people like a shepherd, with Moses and Aaron in charge

[l] Verse 10 in Hebrew is unclear [m] HEBREW TITLE A poem by Asaph

2 I am going to use wise sayings and explain mysteries from the past, 3 things we have heard and known, things that our fathers told us 4 We will not keep them from our children, we will tell the next generation about the LORD's power and his great deeds and the wonderful things he has done

5 He gave laws to the people of Israel and commandments to the descendants of Jacob He instructed our ancestors to teach his laws to their children, 6 so that the next generation might learn them
and in turn should tell their children 7 In this way they also would put their trust in God
and not forget what he has done, but always obey his commandments 8 They would not be like their ancestors, a rebellious and disobedient people, whose trust in God was never firm and who did not remain faithful to him

9 The Ephraimites, armed with bows and arrows, ran away on the day of battle 10 They did not keep their covenant with God,
they refused to obey his law 11 They forgot what he had done, the miracles they had seen him perform 12 While their ancestors watched, God performed miracles in the plain of Zoan in the land of Egypt
13 He divided the sea and took them through it, he made the waters stand like walls 14 By day he led them with a cloud and all night long with the light of a fire 15 He split rocks open in the desert and gave them water from the depths 16 He caused a stream to come out of the rock and made water flow like a river 17 But they continued to sin against God, and in the desert they rebelled against the Most High 18 They deliberately put God to the test by demanding the food they wanted 19 They spoke against God and said, "Can God supply food in the desert?

20 It is true that he struck the rock, and water flowed out in a torrent, but can he also provide us with bread and give his people meat?"

21 And so the LORD was angry when he heard them, he attacked his people with fire, and his anger against them grew, 22 because they had no faith in him and did not believe that he would save
23 But he spoke to the sky above and commanded its doors to open, 24 he gave them grain from heaven, by sending down manna for them to eat 25 So they ate the food of angels, and God gave them all they wanted 26 He also caused the east wind to blow, and by his power he stirred up the south wind, 27 and to his people he sent down birds, as many as the grains of sand on the shore, 28 they fell in the middle of the camp all round the tents 29 So the people ate and were satisfied; God gave them what they wanted 30 But they had not yet satisfied their craving and were still eating, 31 when God became angry with them and killed their strongest men, the best young men of Israel

32 In spite of all this the people kept sinning, in spite of his miracles they did not trust him 33 So he ended their days like a breath and their lives with sudden disaster 34 Whenever he killed some of them, the rest would turn to him, they would repent and pray earnestly to him 35 They remembered that God was their protector, that the Almighty came to their aid 36 But their words were all lies, nothing they said was sincere 37 They were not loyal to him, 78 2 Mt 13 35 78 12 Ex 7 8—12 32 78 13 Ex 14 21-22 78 14 Ex 13 21-22

78.24 Jn 6 31

they were not faithful to their covenant with him

38 But God was merciful to his people He forgave their sin and did not destroy them Many times he held back his anger and restrained his fury 39 He remembered that they were only mortal beings, like a wind that blows by and is gone

40 How often they rebelled against him in the desert,
how many times they made him sad!
41 Again and again they put God to the test and brought pain to the Holy God of Israel
42 They forgot his great power and the day when he saved them from their enemies 43 and performed his mighty acts and miracles
44 He turned the rivers into blood, and the Egyptians had no water to
45 He sent flies among them, that tormented them, and frogs that ruined their land 46 He sent locusts to eat their crops and to destroy their fields 47 He killed their grapevines with hail and their fig-trees with frost 48 He killed their cattle with hail and their flocks with lightning [n] 49 He caused them great distress by pouring out his anger and fierce rage,
which came as messengers of death 50 He did not restrain his anger or spare their lives, but killed them with a plague 51 He killed the first-born sons of all the families of Egypt

52 Then he led his people out like a shepherd and guided them through the desert 53 He led them safely, and they were not afraid, but the sea came rolling over their
enemies
54 He brought them to his holy land, to the mountains which he himself conquered 55 He drove out the inhabitants as his people advanced, he divided their land among the tribes of Israel
and gave their homes to his people

56 But they rebelled against Almighty
and put him to the test They did not obey his commandments, 57 but were rebellious and disloyal like their fathers, unreliable as a crooked arrow 58 They angered him with their heathen places of worship, and with their idols they made him furious.
59 God was angry when he saw it, so he rejected his people completely 60 He abandoned his tent in Shiloh, [o] the home where he had lived among us 61 He allowed our enemies to capture the Covenant Box,
the symbol of his power and glory 62 He was angry with his own people and let them be killed by their
enemies
63 Young men were killed in war, and young women had no one to marry 64 Priests died by violence, and their widows were not allowed to mourn.

65 At last the Lord woke up as though from sleep, he was like a strong man excited by wine 66 He drove his enemies back in lasting and shameful defeat 67 But he rejected the descendants of Joseph;
he did not select the tribe of Ephraim 68 Instead he chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion, which he dearly loves 69 There he built his Temple like his home in heaven, he made it firm like the earth itself, secure for all time

A Prayer for the Nation's Deliverance[p]

79 O God, the heathen have invaded your land They have desecrated your holy Temple and left Jerusalem in ruins 2 They left the bodies of your people for the vultures, the bodies of your servants for wild animals to eat 3 They shed your people's blood like water, blood flowed like water all through Jerusalem, and no one was left to bury the dead 4 The surrounding nations insult us, they laugh at us and mock us

5 LORD, will you be angry with us for ever?
Will your anger continue to burn like fire?
6 Turn your anger on the nations that do not worship you, on the people who do not pray to you 7 For they have killed your people, they have ruined your country

8 Do not punish us for the sins of our ancestors Have mercy on us now, we have lost all hope 9 Help us, O God, and save us, rescue us and forgive our sins for the sake of your own honour 10 Why should the nations ask us,
"Where is your God?"
Let us see you punish the nations for shedding the blood of your servants

11 Listen to the groans of the prisoners, and by your great power free those who are condemned to die 12 Lord, pay the other nations back seven times for all the insults they have hurled at you 13 Then we, your people, the sheep of your flock, will thank you for ever and praise you for all time to come

A Prayer for the Nation's Restoration[q]

80 Listen to us, O Shepherd of Israel, hear us, leader of your flock Seated on your throne above the winged creatures, 2 reveal yourself to the tribes of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh Show us your strength, come and save us!

3 Bring us back, O God!
Show us your mercy, and we will be saved!

4 How much longer, LORD God Almighty, will you be angry with your people's prayers?
5 You have given us sorrow to eat, a large cup of tears to drink 6 You let the surrounding nations fight over our land, our enemies insult us

7 Bring us back, Almighty God!
Show us your mercy, and we will be saved!

8 You brought a grapevine out of Egypt, you drove out other nations and planted it in their land 9 You cleared a place for it to grow; its roots went deep, and it spread out over the whole land 10 It covered the hills with its shade; its branches overshadowed the giant cedars 11 It extended its branches to the Mediterranean Sea and as far as the River Euphrates 12 Why did you break down the fences round it?
Now anyone passing by can steal its grapes, 13 wild pigs trample it down, and wild animals feed on it 14 Turn to us, Almighty God!

Look down from heaven at us, come and save your people!
15 Come and save this grapevine that you planted, this young vine you made grow so strong!

16 Our enemies have set it on fire and cut it down, look at them in anger and destroy
them!
17 Preserve and protect the people you have chosen, the nation you made so strong 18 We will never turn away from you again,
keep us alive, and we will praise you

19 Bring us back, LORD God Almighty Show us your mercy, and we will be saved.

A Song for a Festival[r]

81 Shout for joy to God our defender, sing praise to the God of Jacob!
2 Start the music and beat the tambourines, play pleasant music on the harps and the lyres 3 Blow the trumpet for the festival, when the moon is new and when the moon is full 4 This is the law in Israel, an order from the God of Jacob.
5 He gave it to the people of Israel when he attacked the land of Egypt

I hear an unknown voice saying, 6 "I took the burdens off your backs,- I let you put down your loads of bricks 7 When you were in trouble, you called to me, and I saved you From my hiding-place in the storm, I answered you.
I put you to the test at the springs of Meribah 8 Listen, my people, to my warning, Israel, how I wish you would listen to me!
9 You must never worship another god 10 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth, and I will feed you.

11 "But my people would not listen to me;
Israel would not obey me 12 So I let them go their stubborn ways and do whatever they wanted 13 How I wish my people would listen
to me,
how I wish they would obey me!
14 I would quickly defeat their enemies and conquer all their foes.
15 Those who hate me would bow in fear before me, their punishment would last for ever.
16 But I would feed you with the finest wheat and satisfy you with wild honey."

God the Supreme Ruler[s]

82 God presides in the heavenly council, in the assembly of the gods he gives his decision.
2 "You must stop judging unjustly, you must no longer be partial to the wicked!
3 Defend the rights of the poor and the orphans, be fair to the needy and the helpless 4 Rescue them from the power of evil men

5 "How ignorant you are! How stupid!
You are completely corrupt, and justice has disappeared from the world
6 'You are gods,' I said,
'all of you are sons of the Most High' 7 But you will die like men, your life will end like that of any prince"

8 Come, O God, and rule the world, all the nations are yours

A Prayer for the Defeat of Israel's Enemies[t]

83 O God, do not keep silent; do not be still, do not be quiet!
2 Look! Your enemies are in revolt, and those who hate you are rebelling 3 They are making secret plans against your people, they are plotting against those you protect 4 "Come," they say, "let us destroy their nation, so that Israel will be forgotten for ever"

5 They agree on their plan and form an alliance against you·

Oreb and Zeeb, defeat all their rulers as you did Zebah like straw blown away by the wind 15 chase them away with your storm and terrify them with your fierce

Longing for God's House[u]

84 How I love your Temple, Almighty
GOD!
2 How I want to be there!
I long to be in the LORD's Temple With my whole being I sing for joy to the living God 3 Even the sparrows have built a nest, and the swallows have their own home,
they keep their young near your altars, LORD Almighty, my king and my God 4 How happy are those who live in your Temple,
always singing praise to you

5 How happy are those whose strength comes from you, who are eager to make the pilgrimage to Mount Zion 6 As they pass through the valley of Baca, it becomes a place of springs, the early rain fills it with pools 7 They grow stronger as they go, they will see the God of gods on Zion

8 Hear my prayer, LORD God Almighty Listen, O God of Jacob!
9 Bless our king, O God, the king you have chosen

10 One day spent in your Temple is better than a thousand anywhere else, I would rather stand at the gate of the house of my God than live in the homes of the wicked 11 The LORD is our protector and glorious king,
blessing us with kindness and honour He does not refuse any good thing to those who do what is right 12 Almighty GOD, how happy are those who trust in you!

A Prayer for the Nation's Welfare[v]

85 LORD, you have been merciful to your land, you have made Israel prosperous
again
2 You have forgiven your people's sins and pardoned all their wrongs 3 You stopped being angry with them and held back your furious rage

4 Bring us back, O God our saviour, and stop being displeased with us!
5 Will you be angry with us for ever?
Will your anger never cease?
6 Make us strong again, and we, your people, will praise you 7 Show us your constant love, O LORD, and give us your saving help

8 I am listening to what the LORD God is saying, he promises peace to us, his own
people, if we do not go back to our foolish ways 9 Surely he is ready to save those who honour him, and his saving presence will remain

A Prayer for Help[u]

86 Listen to me, LORD, and answer me, for I am helpless and weak 2 Save me from death, because I am loyal to you, save me, for I am your servant and I trust in you 3 You are my God, so be merciful to me, I pray to you all day long 4 Make your servant glad, O Lord, because my prayers go up to you 5 You are good to us and forgiving, full of constant love for all who pray to you

6 Listen, LORD, to my prayer, hear my cries for help 7 I call to you in times of trouble, because you answer my prayers

8 There is no god like you, O Lord, not one has done what you have done 9 All the nations that you have created will come and bow down to you, they will praise your greatness 10 You are mighty and do wonderful things, you alone are God

11 Teach me, LORD, what you want me to do, and I will obey you faithfully, teach me to serve you with complete devotion 12 I will praise you with all my heart, O Lord my God,
I will proclaim your greatness for ever 13 How great is your constant love for me!
You have saved me from the grave itself 14 Proud men are coming against me, O God, a gang of cruel men is trying to kill me—people who pay no attention to you 15 But you, O Lord, are a merciful and loving God, always patient, always kind and faithful 16 Turn to me and have mercy on me, strengthen me and save me, because I serve you, just as my mother did 17 Show me proof of your goodness, LORD, those who hate me will be ashamed when they see that you have given me comfort and help

In Praise of Jerusalem[x]

87 The LORD built his city on the sacred hill,[y] 2 more than any other place in Israel he loves the city of Jerusalem 3 Listen, city of God, to the wonderful things he says about you

4 "I will include Egypt and Babylonia when I list the nations that obey me, I will number among the inhabitants of Jerusalem the people of Philistia, Tyre, and Sudan"

5 Of Zion it will be said that all nations belong there and that the Almighty will make her strong 6 The LORD will write a list of the peoples and include them all as citizens of Jerusalem 7 They dance and sing,
"In Zion is the source of all our blessings"

4 I am like all others who are about to die, all my strength is gone [a] 5 I am abandoned among the dead, I am like the slain lying in their graves, those you have forgotten completely, who are beyond your help 6 You have thrown me into the depths of the tomb, into the darkest and deepest pit 7 Your anger lies heavy on me, and I am crushed beneath its waves 8 You have caused my friends to abandon me; you have made me repulsive to them I am closed in and cannot escape, 9 my eyes are weak from suffering LORD, every day I call to you and lift my hands to you in prayer

10 Do you perform miracles for the dead?
Do they rise up and praise you?
11 Is your constant love spoken of in the grave or your faithfulness in the place of destruction?
12 Are your miracles seen in that place of darkness or your goodness in the land of the forgotten?

13 LORD, I call to you for help, every morning I pray to you 14 Why do you reject me, LORD?
Why do you turn away from me?
15 Ever since I was young, I have suffered and been near death, I am worn out [b] from the burden of your punishments 16 Your furious anger crushes me, your terrible attacks destroy me 17 All day long they surround me like a flood, they close in on me from every side 18 You have made even my closest friends abandon me, and darkness is my only companion

A Hymn in Time of National Trouble [c]

89 O LORD, I will always sing of your constant love, I will proclaim your faithfulness for ever 2 I know that your love will last for all time, that your faithfulness is as permanent as the sky.
3 You said, "I have made a covenant with the man I chose, I have promised my servant David, 4 'A descendant of yours will always be king, I will preserve your dynasty for ever' "

5 The heavens sing of the wonderful things you do, they sing of your faithfulness, LORD 6 No one in heaven is like you, LORD; none of the heavenly beings is your equal 7 You are respected in the council of the holy ones, and all of them stand in awe of you

8 LORD God Almighty, none is as mighty as you, in all things you are faithful, O LORD 9 You rule over the powerful sea, you calm its angry waves 10 You crushed the monster Rahab [d] and killed it, with your mighty strength you defeated your enemies 11 Heaven is yours, the earth also, you made the world and everything in it 12 You created the north and the south; Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon sing to you for joy 13 How powerful you are!
How great is your strength!
14 Your kingdom is founded on righteousness and justice, love and faithfulness are shown in all you do 15 How happy are the people who worship you with songs, who live in the light of your kindness!

16 Because of you they rejoice all day long, and they praise you for your goodness 17 You give us great victories, in your love you make us triumphant.
18 You, O LORD, chose our protector, you, the Holy God of Israel, gave us our king

God's Promise to David

19 In a vision long ago you said to your faithful servants,
"I have given help to a famous soldier, I have given the throne to one I chose from the people 20 I have made my servant David king by anointing him with holy oil 21 My strength will always be with him, my power will make him strong 22 His enemies will never succeed against
him;
the wicked will not defeat him 23 I will crush his foes and kill everyone who hates him 24 I will love him and be loyal to him, I will make him always victorious 25 I will extend his kingdom from the Mediterranean to the River Euphrates 26 He will say to me,
'You are my father and my God, you are my protector and saviour' 27 I will make him my first-born son, the greatest of all kings 28 I will always keep my promise to him, and my covenant with him will last for ever 29 His dynasty will be as permanent as the sky, a descendant of his will always be
king

30 "But if his descendants disobey my law
and do not live according to my commands, 31 if they disregard my instructions and do not keep my commandments, 32 then I will punish them for their sins, I will make them suffer for their wrongs 33 But I will not stop loving David or fail to keep my promise to him 34 I will not break my covenant with him or take back even one promise I made
him

35 "Once and for all I have promised by my holy name
I will never lie to David 36 He will always have descendants, and I will watch over his kingdom as long as the sun shines 37 It will be as permanent as the moon, that faithful witness in the sky"

Lament over the Defeat of the King 38 But you are angry with your chosen

king,
you have deserted and rejected him 39 You have broken your covenant with your servant and thrown his crown in the mud 40 You have torn down the walls of his city
and left his forts in ruins 41 All who pass by steal his belongings, all his neighbours laugh at him 42 You have given the victory to his enemies,
you have made them all happy 43 You have made his weapons useless and let him be defeated in battle 44 You have taken away his royal sceptre[e]
and hurled his throne to the ground 45 You have made him old before his time and covered him with disgrace

46 LORD, will you hide yourself for ever?
How long will your anger burn like fire?
47 Remember how short my life is, remember that you created all of us mortal!
48 Who can live and never die?
How can man keep himself from the grave?

49 Lord, where are the former proofs of your love?
Where are the promises you made to David?
50 Don't forget how I, your servant, am insulted, how I endure all the curses[f] of the heathen 51 Your enemies insult your chosen king, O LORD!
They insult him wherever he goes 52 Praise the LORD for ever!

Amen! Amen!

BOOK FOUR

Of God and Man[g]

90 O Lord, you have always been our home 2 Before you created the hills or brought the world into being, you were eternally God, and will be God for ever 3 You tell man to return to what he was, you change him back to dust 4 A thousand years to you are like one day, they are like yesterday, already gone, like a short hour in the night 5 You carry us away like a flood, we last no longer than a dream We are like weeds that sprout in the morning, 6 that grow and burst into bloom, then dry up and die in the evening 7 We are destroyed by your anger, we are terrified by your fury 8 You place our sins before you, our secret sins where you can see them 9 Our life is cut short by your anger, it fades away like a whisper 10 Seventy years is all we have—eighty years, if we are strong, yet all they bring us is trouble and sorrow, life is soon over, and we are gone 11 Who has felt the full power of your anger?

Who knows what fear your fury can bring?
12 Teach us how short our life is, so that we may become wise 13 How much longer will your anger last?

Have pity, O LORD, on your servants!
14 Fill us each morning with your constant love, so that we may sing and be glad all our life 15 Give us now as much happiness as the sadness you gave us during all our years of misery 16 Let us, your servants, see your mighty deeds, let our descendants see your glorious might 17 LORD our God, may your blessings be with us Give us success in all we do!

God Our Protector

91 Whoever goes to the LORD for safety, whoever remains under the protection of the Almighty, 2 can say to him,
"You are my defender and protector You are my God, in you I trust" 3 He will keep you safe from all hidden dangers and from all deadly diseases 4 He will cover you with his wings, you will be safe in his care, his faithfulness will protect and defend you 5 You need not fear any dangers at night or sudden attacks during the day 6 or the plagues that strike in the dark or the evils that kill in daylight

7 A thousand may fall dead beside you, ten thousand all round you, but you will not be harmed 8 You will look and see how the wicked are punished

9 You have made the LORD your defender, the Most High your protector, 10 and so no disaster will strike you, no violence will come near your home 11 God will put his angels in charge of you to protect you wherever you go 12 They will hold you up with their hands to keep you from hurting your feet on the stones 13 You will trample down lions and snakes, fierce lions and poisonous snakes 14 God says, "I will save those who love me and will protect those who know me as LORD 15 When they call to me, I will answer them, when they are in trouble, I will be with them I will rescue them and honour them 16 I will reward them with long life, I will save them"

A Song of Praise[h]

92 How good it is to give thanks to you, O LORD, to sing in your honour, O Most High
God, 2 to proclaim your constant love every morning and your faithfulness every night, 3 with the music of stringed instruments and with melody on the harp 4 Your mighty deeds, O LORD, make me glad, because of what you have done, I sing for joy

5 How great are your actions, LORD!
How deep are your thoughts!
6 This is something a fool cannot know, a stupid man cannot understand 7 the wicked may grow like weeds, those who do wrong may prosper, yet they will be totally destroyed, 8 because you, LORD, are supreme for ever

9 We know that your enemies will die, and all the wicked will be defeated 10 You have made me as strong as a wild ox, you have blessed me with happiness 11 I have seen the defeat of my enemies and heard the cries of the wicked 12 The righteous will flourish like palm-trees, they will grow like the cedars of Lebanon

13 They are like trees planted in the house of the LORD,
that flourish in the Temple of our God, 14 that still bear fruit in old age and are always green and strong 15 This shows that the LORD is just, that there is no wrong in my protector

God the King

93 The LORD is king
He is clothed with majesty and strength.
The earth is set firmly in place and cannot be moved 2 Your throne, O LORD, has been firm from the beginning, and you existed before time began

3 The ocean depths raise their voice, O
LORD,
they raise their voice and roar 4 The LORD rules supreme in heaven, greater than the roar of the ocean, more powerful than the waves of the sea

5 Your laws are eternal, LORD, and your Temple is holy indeed, for ever and ever

God the Judge of All

94 LORD, you are a God who punishes, reveal your anger!
2 You are the judge of all men, rise and give the proud what they deserve!
3 How much longer will the wicked be glad?
How much longer, LORD?
4 How much longer will criminals be proud and boast about their crimes?

5 They crush your people, LORD, they oppress those who belong to you 6 They kill widows and orphans, and murder the strangers who live in our land 7 They say, "The LORD does not see us, the God of Israel does not notice."

8 My people, how can you be such stupid fools?
When will you ever learn?
9 God made our ears—can't he hear?
He made our eyes—can't he see?
10 He is in charge of the nations—won't he punish them?
He is the teacher of all men—hasn't he any knowledge?
11 The LORD knows what they think, he knows how senseless their reasoning is 12 LORD, how happy is the person you instruct,

the one to whom you teach your law!
13 You give him rest from days of trouble until a pit is dug to trap the wicked 14 The LORD will not abandon his people, he will not desert those who belong
15 Justice will again be found in the courts, and all righteous people will support

[h] HEBREW TITLE A song for the Sabbath
94 11 1 Cor 3 20

Let us worship him (95 6) [16] Who stood up for me against the wicked?

Who took my side against the evildoers?
[17] If the LORD had not helped me, I would have gone quickly to the land of silence [l] [18] I said, "I am falling", but your constant love, O LORD, held me up [19] Whenever I am anxious and worried, you comfort me and make me glad [20] You have nothing to do with corrupt judges, who make injustice legal, [21] who plot against good men and sentence the innocent to death [22] But the LORD defends me, my God protects me [23] He will punish them for their wickedness

and destroy them for their sins, the LORD our God will destroy them

A Song of Praise

95 Come, let us praise the LORD!
Let us sing for joy to God, who protects us!
[2] Let us come before him with thanksgiving
and sing joyful songs of praise [3] For the LORD is a mighty God, a mighty king over all the gods [4] He rules over the whole earth, from the deepest caves to the highest hills [5] He rules over the sea, which he made, the land also, which he himself formed

[6] Come, let us bow down and worship
him, let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
[7] He is our God, we are the people he cares for, the flock for which he provides

[l] LAND OF SILENCE The world of the dead 95 7-8 Heb 3 15, 4 7 95 7-11 Heb 3 7-11

Listen today to what he says 8 "Don't be stubborn, as your ancestors were at Meribah, as they were that day in the desert at Massah 9 There they put me to the test and tried
me, although they had seen what I did
for them 10 For forty years I was disgusted with those people
I said, 'How disloyal they are!
They refuse to obey my commands' 11 I was angry and made a solemn promise
'You will never enter the land where I would have given you rest'"

God the Supreme King
(1 Chr 16 23-33)

96 Sing a new song to the LORD!
Sing to the LORD, all the world!
2 Sing to the LORD, and praise him!
Proclaim every day the good news that he has saved us 3 Proclaim his glory to the nations, his mighty acts to all peoples

4 The LORD is great and is to be highly praised, he is to be honoured more than all the gods 5 The gods of all other nations are only idols, but the LORD created the heavens 6 Glory and majesty surround him, power and beauty fill his Temple 7 Praise the LORD, all people on earth, praise his glory and might.

8 Praise the LORD's glorious name, bring an offering and come into his
9 Bow down before the Holy One when he appears,[j] tremble before him, all the earth!

10 Say to all the nations, "The LORD is
king!
The earth is set firmly in place and cannot be moved, he will judge the peoples with justice" 11 Be glad, earth and sky!
Roar, sea, and every creature in you, 12 be glad, fields, and everything in you!

God the Supreme Ruler

97 The LORD is king! Earth, be glad!
Rejoice, you islands of the seas!
2 Clouds and darkness surround him, he rules with righteousness and justice 3 Fire goes in front of him and burns up his enemies round him 4 His lightning lights up the world,

8 The people of Zion are glad,

9 LORD Almighty, you are ruler of all the earth, you are much greater than all the gods

10 The LORD loves those who hate evil,[l] he protects the lives of his people, he rescues them from the power of the wicked 11 Light shines on the righteous, and gladness on the good 12 All you that are righteous be glad because of what the LORD has done!
Remember what the holy God has done, and give thanks to him

God the Ruler of the World

98 Sing a new song to the LORD, he has done wonderful things!
By his own power and holy strength he has won the victory 2 The LORD announced his victory, he made his saving power known to the nations 3 He kept his promise to the people of Israel with loyalty and constant love for them All people everywhere have seen the victory of our God 4 Sing for joy to the LORD, all the earth, praise him with songs and shouts of joy!

5 Sing praises to the LORD!
Play music on the harps!
6 Blow trumpets and horns, and shout for joy to the LORD, our king

7 Roar, sea, and every creature in you, sing, earth, and all who live on you!
8 Clap your hands, you rivers, you hills, sing together with joy before the LORD, 9 because he comes to rule the earth He will rule the peoples of the world with justice and fairness

the people tremble
He sits on his throne above the winged creatures and the earth shakes 2 The LORD is mighty in Zion, he is supreme over all the nations 3 Everyone will praise his great and majestic name Holy is he!

4 Mighty king,[m] you love what is right, you have established justice in Israel, you have brought righteousness and fairness 5 Praise the LORD our God, worship before his throne!
Holy is he!

6 Moses and Aaron were his priests, and Samuel was one who prayed to him, they called to the LORD, and he answered them 7 He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud, they obeyed the laws and commands that he gave them

8 O LORD, my God, you answered your people, you showed them that you are a God who forgives, even though you punished them for their sins 9 Praise the LORD our God, and worship at his sacred hill![n]
The LORD our God is holy

A King's Promise[p]

101 My song is about loyalty and justice, and I sing it to you, O LORD 2 My conduct will be faultless When will you come to me?

I will live a pure life in my house, 3 and will never tolerate evil I hate the actions of those who turn away from God, I will have nothing to do with them 4 I will not be dishonest,[q] and will have no dealings with evil[r]

5 I will get rid of anyone who whispers evil things about someone else, I will not tolerate a man who is proud and arrogant

6 I will approve of those who are faithful to God and will let them live in my palace Those who are completely honest will be allowed to serve me 7 No liar will live in my palace, no hypocrite will remain in my presence 8 Day after day I will destroy the wicked in our land, I will expel all evil men from the city of the LORD

The Prayer of a Troubled Young Man[s]

102 Listen to my prayer, O LORD, and hear my cry for help!
2 When I am in trouble, don't turn away from me!
Listen to me,
and answer me quickly when I call!

3 My life is disappearing like smoke, my body is burning like fire 4 I am beaten down like dry grass, I have lost my desire for food 5 I groan aloud,
I am nothing but skin and bones 6 I am like a wild bird in the desert, like an owl in abandoned ruins 7 I lie awake,
I am like a lonely bird on a house-top 8 All day long my enemies insult me, those who mock me use my name in cursing 9-10 Because of your anger and fury, ashes are my food, and my tears are mixed with my drink You picked me up and threw me away 11 My life is like the evening shadows, I am like dry grass

12 But you, O LORD, are king for ever, all generations will remember you 13 You will rise and take pity on Zion, the time has come to have mercy on her; this is the right time 14 Your servants love her,

15 The nations will fear the LORD, all the kings of the earth will fear his power 16 When the LORD rebuilds Zion, he will reveal his greatness 17 He will hear his forsaken people 18 Write down for the coming generation what the LORD has done, so that people not yet born will praise him 19 The LORD looked down from his holy place on high, 20 He heard the groans of prisoners

21 And so his name will be proclaimed in Zion, 23 The LORD has made me weak while I am still young, he has shortened my life 24 O God, do not take me away now

O LORD, you live for ever, and with your own hands you made the heavens 26 They will disappear, but you will remain, they will all wear out like clothes You will discard them like clothes, and they will vanish 27 But you are always the same, and your life never ends 28 Our children will live in safety, and under your protection their descendants will be secure

The Love of God[t]

103

Praise the LORD, my soul!
All my being, praise his holy name!
2 Praise the LORD, my soul, and do not forget how kind he is 3 He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases 4 He keeps me from the grave and blesses me with love and mercy 5 He fills my life[u] with good things, so that I stay young and strong like an eagle 6 The LORD judges in favour of the oppressed and gives them their rights 7 He revealed his plans to Moses and let the people of Israel see his mighty deeds 8 The LORD is merciful and loving, slow to become angry and full of constant love 9 He does not keep on rebuking, he is not angry for ever 10 He does not punish us as we deserve or repay us for our sins and wrongs 11 As high as the sky is above the earth, so great is his love for those who honour him 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our sins from us 13 As kind as a father is to his children, so kind is the LORD to those who honour him 14 He knows what we are made of, he remembers that we are dust

15 As for us, our life is like grass We grow and flourish like a wild flower, 16 then the wind blows on it, and it is gone—no one sees it again 17 But for those who honour the LORD, his love lasts for ever, and his goodness endures for all generations 18 of those who are true to his covenant and who faithfully obey his commands 19 The LORD placed his throne in heaven, he is king over all 20 Praise the LORD, you strong and mighty angels, who obey his commands, who listen to what he says 21 Praise the LORD, all you heavenly powers, you servants of his, who do his will!

22 Praise the LORD, all his creatures in all the places he rules

In Praise of the Creator

104 Praise the LORD, my soul!
O LORD, my God, how great you are!
You are clothed with majesty and glory, 2 you cover yourself with light You spread out the heavens like a tent 3 and built your home on the waters above [v] You use the clouds as your chariot and ride on the wings of the wind 4 You use the winds as your messengers and flashes of lightning as your servants

5 You have set the earth firmly on its foundations, and it will never be moved 6 You placed the ocean over it like a robe, and the water covered the mountains 7 When you rebuked the waters, they fled, they rushed away when they heard your shout of command 8 They flowed over the mountains and into the valleys, to the place you had made for them 9 You set a boundary they can never pass, to keep them from covering the earth again 10 You make springs flow in the valleys, and rivers run between the hills 11 They provide water for the wild animals, there the wild donkeys quench their thirst 12 In the trees near by, the birds make their nests and sing 13 From the sky you send rain on the hills, and the earth is filled with your blessings 14 You make grass grow for the cattle and plants for man to use, so that he can grow his crops 15 and produce wine to make him happy, olive-oil to make him cheerful, and bread to give him strength 16 The cedars of Lebanon get plenty of rain—the LORD's own trees, which he planted 17 There the birds build their nests, the storks nest in the fir-trees 18 The wild goats live in the high mountains, and the badgers hide in the cliffs 19 You created the moon to mark the months, the sun knows the time to set 20 You made the night, and in the darkness all the wild animals come out 21 The young lions roar while they hunt, looking for the food that God provides 22 When the sun rises, they go back and lie down in their dens 23 Then people go out to do their work and keep working until evening 24 LORD, you have made so many things!

How wisely you made them all!
The earth is filled with your creatures 25 There is the ocean, large and wide, where countless creatures live, large and small alike 26 The ships sail on it, and in it plays Leviathan, that sea-monster which you made [w]

27 All of them depend on you to give them food when they need it 28 You give it to them, and they eat it, you provide food, and they are satisfied 29 When you turn away, they are afraid, when you take away their breath, they die and go back to the dust from which they came 30 But when you give them breath, [x] they are created, you give new life to the earth

31 May the glory of the LORD last for ever!
May the LORD be happy with what he has made!
32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles, he touches the mountains, and they pour out smoke

33 I will sing to the LORD all my life, as long as I live I will sing praises to my God 34 May he be pleased with my song,

tell of the wonderful things he has done 3 Be glad that we belong to him, let all who worship him rejoice 4 Go to the LORD for help, and worship him continually 5-6 You descendants of Abraham, his servant, you descendants of Jacob, the man he chose remember the miracles that God performed and the judgements that he gave

7 The LORD is our God, his commands are for all the world 8 He will keep his covenant for ever, his promises for a thousand generations 9 He will keep the agreement he made with Abraham and his promise to Isaac 10 The LORD made a covenant with Jacob, one that will last for ever 11 "I will give you the land of Canaan," he said "It will be your own possession"

12 God's people were few in number, strangers in the land of Canaan 13 They wandered from country to country, from one kingdom to another 14 But God let no one oppress them, to protect them, he warned the kings 15 "Don't harm my chosen servants, do not touch my prophets"

16 The LORD sent famine to their country and took away all their food 17 But he sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, who had been sold as a slave 18 His feet were kept in chains, and an iron collar was round his neck, 19 until what he had predicted came true
The word of the LORD proved him right 20 Then the king of Egypt had him released, the ruler of nations set him free 21 He put him in charge of his government and made him ruler over all the land, 22 with power over the king's officials and authority to instruct his advisers.

23 Then Jacob went to Egypt and settled in that country 24 The LORD gave many children to his people and made them stronger than their enemies 25 He made the Egyptians hate his people and treat his servants with deceit 26 Then he sent his servant Moses, and Aaron, whom he had chosen 27 They did God's mighty acts and performed miracles in Egypt 28 God sent darkness on the country, but the Egyptians did not obey[j] his command 29 He turned their rivers into blood and killed all their fish 30 Their country was overrun with frogs, even the palace was filled with them 31 God commanded, and flies and gnats swarmed throughout the whole country 32 He sent hail and lightning on their land instead of rain, 33 he destroyed their grapevines and fig-trees and broke down all the trees 34 He commanded, and the locusts came, countless millions of them; 35 they ate all the plants in the land, they ate all the crops

of all the families of Egypt

37 Then he led the Israelites out, they carried silver and gold, and all of them were healthy and strong 38 The Egyptians were afraid of them and were glad when they left 39 God put a cloud over his people and a fire at night to give them light 40 They[z] asked, and he sent quails, he gave them food from heaven to satisfy them 41 He opened a rock, and water gushed out, flowing through the desert like a river 42 He remembered his sacred promise to Abraham his servant

43 So he led his chosen people out, and they sang and shouted for joy 44 He gave them the lands of other peoples and let them take over their fields, 45 so that his people would obey his laws and keep all his commands

Praise the LORD!

The LORD's Goodness to His People

106

Praise the LORD!
Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good,
his love is eternal 2 Who can tell all the great things he has done?
Who can praise him enough?
3 Happy are those who obey his commands,
who always do what is right

4 Remember me, LORD, when you help your people,
include me when you save them 5 Let me see the prosperity of your people and share in the happiness of your nation, in the glad pride of those who belong to you

6 We have sinned as our ancestors did, we have been wicked and evil 7 Our ancestors in Egypt did not understand God's wonderful acts, they forgot the many times he showed them his love, and they rebelled against the Almighty[a] at the Red Sea 8 But he saved them, as he had promised, in order to show his great power 9 He gave a command to the Red Sea, and it dried up, he led his people across on dry land 10 He saved them from those who hated
them,
he rescued them from their enemies 11 But the water drowned their enemies, not one of them was left 12 Then his people believed his promises and sang praises to him 13 But they quickly forgot what he had done

and acted without waiting for his advice 14 They were filled with craving in the desert
and put God to the test, 15 so he gave them what they asked for, but also sent a terrible disease among

16 There in the desert they were jealous of Moses and of Aaron, the LORD's holy servant.
17 Then the earth opened up and swallowed Dathan and buried Abiram and his family, 18 fire came down on their followers and burnt up those wicked people 19 They made a gold bull at Sinai and worshipped that idol, 20 they exchanged the glory of God for the image of an animal that eats grass 21 They forgot the God who had saved

by his mighty acts in Egypt 22 What wonderful things he did there!
What amazing things at the Red Sea!
23 When God said that he would destroy his people, his chosen servant, Moses, stood up against God
and prevented his anger from destroying them

24 Then they rejected the pleasant land, because they did not believe God's
promise 25 They stayed in their tents and grumbled and would not listen to the LORD 26 So he gave them a solemn warning that he would make them die in the desert 27 and scatter their descendants among the heathen, letting them die in foreign countries 28 Then at Peor, God's people joined in the worship of Baal, and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods 29 They stirred up the LORD's anger by their actions, and a terrible disease broke out among them 30 But Phinehas stood up and punished the guilty, and the plague was stopped 31 This has been remembered in his favour ever since and will be for all time to come 32 At the springs of Meribah the people made the LORD angry, and Moses was in trouble on their account 33 They made him so bitter that he spoke without stopping to think 34 They did not kill the heathen, as the LORD had commanded them to do, 35 but they intermarried with them and adopted their pagan ways 36 God's people worshipped idols, and this caused their destruction 37 They offered their own sons and daughters as sacrifices to the idols of Canaan 38 They killed those innocent children, and the land was defiled by those murders 39 They made themselves impure by their actions and were unfaithful to God

40 So the LORD was angry with his people, he was disgusted with them 41 He abandoned them to the power of the heathen, and their enemies ruled over them 42 They were oppressed by their enemies and were in complete subjection to them 43 Many times the LORD rescued his people, but they chose to rebel against him and sank deeper into sin 44 Yet the LORD heard them when they cried out, and he took notice of their distress 45 For their sake he remembered his covenant, and because of his great love he relented 46 He made all their oppressors feel sorry for them

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and bring us back from among the nations, so that we may be thankful and praise your holy name

48 Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, praise him now and for ever!
Let everyone say, "Amen!"

Praise the LORD!

BOOK FIVE

In Praise of God's Goodness

107 "Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good,
2 Repeat these words in praise to the LORD, all you whom he has saved He has rescued you from your enemies 3 and has brought you back from foreign countries, from east and west, from north and south [b]

4 Some wandered in the trackless desert and could not find their way to a city to live in 5 They were hungry and thirsty and had given up all hope 6 Then in their trouble they called to the LORD, and he saved them from their distress 7 He led them by a straight road to a city where they could live

He brought them safe to the port (107 30)

8 They must thank the LORD for his constant love, for the wonderful things he did for
9 He satisfies those who are thirsty and fills the hungry with good things 10 Some were living in gloom and darkness,

prisoners suffering in chains, 11 because they had rebelled against the commands of Almighty God and had rejected his instructions 12 They were worn out from hard work, they would fall down, and no one would help 13 Then in their trouble they called to the LORD,
and he saved them from their distress 14 He brought them out of their gloom and darkness and broke their chains in pieces
constant love,
16 He breaks down doors of bronze and smashes iron bars

17 Some were fools, suffering because of their sins and because of their evil, 18 they couldn't stand the sight of food and were close to death
the LORD,
and he saved them from their distress 20 He healed them with his command and saved them from the grave
constant love,
22 They must thank him with sacrifices, and with songs of joy must tell all that he has done

23 Some sailed over the ocean in ships, earning their living on the seas 24 They saw what the LORD can do, his wonderful acts on the seas 25 He commanded, and a mighty wind began to blow and stirred up the waves 26 The ships were lifted high in the air and plunged down into the depths In such danger the men lost their courage, 27 they stumbled and staggered like drunken men—all their skill was useless 28 Then in their trouble they called to
the LORD,
29 He calmed the raging storm, and the waves became quiet 30 They were glad because of the calm, and he brought them safe to the port they wanted
constant love,
32 They must proclaim his greatness in the assembly of the people and praise him before the council of the leaders

33 The LORD made rivers dry up completely and stopped springs from flowing 34 He made rich soil become a salty wilderness because of the wickedness of those who lived there 35 He changed deserts into pools of water and dry land into flowing springs 36 He let hungry people settle there, and they built a city to live in 37 They sowed the fields and planted grapevines and reaped an abundant harvest 38 He blessed his people, and they had many children, he kept their herds of cattle from decreasing

39 When God's people were defeated and humiliated by cruel oppression and suffering, 40 he showed contempt for their oppressors and made them wander in trackless deserts 41 But he rescued the needy from their misery and made their families increase like flocks 42 The righteous see this and are glad, but all the wicked are put to silence

43 May those who are wise think about these things, may they acknowledge the LORD's

A Prayer for Help against Enemies[d] (Ps 57 7-11, 60 5-12)

108 I have complete confidence, O
God!
I will sing and praise you!
Wake up, my soul!
2 Wake up, my harp and lyre!
I will wake up the sun 3 I will thank you, O LORD, among the nations
I will praise you among the peoples 4 Your constant love reaches above the heavens,
your faithfulness touches the skies 5 Show your greatness in the sky, O God, and your glory over all the earth 6 Save us by your might, answer my prayer, so that the people you love may be rescued

7 From his sanctuary[e] God has said, "In triumph I will divide Shechem and distribute the Valley of Sukkoth to my people 8 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh too, Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my royal sceptre 9 But I will use Moab as my wash-basin and I will throw my sandals on Edom, as a sign that I own it I will shout in triumph over the Philistines"

10 Who, O God, will take me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
11 Have you really rejected us?
Aren't you going to march out with our armies?
12 Help us against the enemy, human help is worthless 13 With God on our side we will win, he will defeat our enemies

The Complaint of a Man in Trouble[f]

109 I praise you, God, don't remain silent!
2 Wicked men and liars have attacked me They tell lies about me 3 and they say evil things about me, attacking me for no reason 4 They oppose me, even though I love
and have prayed for them[g] 5 They pay me back evil for good and hatred for love

6 Choose some corrupt judge to try my enemy, and let one of his own enemies accuse
him
7 May he be tried and found guilty, may even his prayer be considered a crime!
8 May his life soon be ended, may another man take his job!
9 May his children become orphans, and his wife a widow!
10 May his children be homeless beggars, may they be driven from[h] the ruins they live in!

11 May his creditors take away all his property, and may strangers get everything he worked for.
12 May no one ever be kind to him or care for the orphans he leaves behind.
13 May all his descendants die, and may his name be forgotten in the next generation.
14 May the LORD remember the evil of his ancestors and never forgive his mother's sins.
15 May the LORD always remember their sins, but may they themselves be completely forgotten!

16 That man never thought of being kind; he persecuted and killed the poor, the needy, and the helpless.
17 He loved to curse—may he be cursed!
He hated to give blessings—may no one bless him!
18 He cursed as naturally as he dressed himself;
may his own curses soak into his body like water and into his bones like oil!
19 May they cover him like clothes and always be round him like a belt!

20 LORD, punish my enemies in that way—those who say such evil things against
me!
21 But LORD, my God, help me as you have promised, and rescue me because of the goodness of your love.
22 I am poor and needy; I am hurt to the depths of my heart.
23 Like an evening shadow I am about to vanish;
I am blown away like an insect.
24 My knees are weak from lack of food;
I am nothing but skin and bones.
25 When people see me, they laugh at
me;
they shake their heads in scorn.

26 Help me, O LORD my God; because of your constant love, save
me!
27 Make my enemies know that you are the one who saves me.
28 They may curse me, but you will bless
me.
May my persecutors be defeated,[i] and may I, your servant, be glad.
29 May my enemies be covered with disgrace;
may they wear their shame like a robe.

30 I will give loud thanks to the LORD; I will praise him in the assembly of the people, 31 because he defends the poor man and saves him from those who condemn him to death.

The LORD and His Chosen King[j]

110 The LORD said to my lord, the
king,
"Sit here at my right until I put your enemies under your feet."
2 From Zion the LORD will extend your royal power.
"Rule over your enemies," he says.
3 On the day you fight your enemies, your people will volunteer.
Like the dew of early morning your young men will come to you on the sacred hills.[k]

4 The LORD made a solemn promise and will not take it back:
"You will be a priest for ever in the line of succession to Melchizedek."

5 The Lord is at your right side; when he becomes angry, he will defeat kings.
6 He will pass judgement on the nations and fill the battlefield with corpses; he will defeat kings all over the earth.
7 The king will drink from the stream by the road,
and strengthened, he will stand victorious.

In Praise of the LORD

111 Praise the LORD!
With all my heart I will thank the LORD

The Happiness of a Good Person

112 Praise the LORD!

Happy is the person who honours the LORD, who takes pleasure in obeying his commands 2 The good man's children will be powerful in the land, his faith is strong, and he trusts in the LORD 8 He is not worried or afraid, he is certain to see his enemies defeated 9 He gives generously to the needy,

A Passover Song

114 When the people of Israel left Egypt, when Jacob's descendants left that foreign land, 2 Judah became the Lord's holy people, Israel became his own possession

3 The Red Sea looked and ran away, the River Jordan stopped flowing 4 The mountains skipped like goats, the hills jumped about like lambs

5 What happened, Sea, to make you run away?
And you, O Jordan, why did you stop flowing?

The One True God

115 To you alone, O LORD, to you alone, and not to us, must glory be given because of your constant love and faithfulness

2 Why should the nations ask us,
"Where is your God?"
3 Our God is in heaven, he does whatever he wishes 4 Their gods are made of silver and gold, formed by human hands 5 They have mouths, but cannot speak, and eyes, but cannot see.
6 They have ears, but cannot hear, and noses, but cannot smell 7 They have hands, but cannot feel, and feet, but cannot walk, they cannot make a sound 8 May all who made them and who trust in them become[n] like the idols they have made

9 Trust in the LORD, you people of Israel He helps you and protects you 10 Trust in the LORD, you priests of God
He helps you and protects you 11 Trust in the LORD, all you that worship
him

12 The LORD remembers us and will bless
us, he will bless the people of Israel and all the priests of God 13 He will bless everyone who honours
him,
the great and the small alike

14 May the LORD give you children—you and your descendants!
15 May you be blessed by the LORD, who made heaven and earth!
16 Heaven belongs to the LORD alone, but he gave the earth to man 17 The LORD is not praised by the dead, by any who go down to the land of silence[o] 18 But we, the living, will give thanks
to him
now and for ever

Praise the LORD!

A Man Saved from Death Praises God

116 I love the LORD, because he hears me, he listens to my prayers 2 He listens to me every time I call to him 3 The danger of death was all round me, the horrors of the grave closed in on
me,
I was filled with fear and anxiety 4 Then I called to the LORD,
"I beg you, LORD, save me!"

5 The LORD is merciful and good, our God is compassionate.
6 The LORD protects the helpless, when I was in danger, he saved me 7 Be confident, my heart, because the LORD has been good to
me

8 The LORD saved me from death, he stopped my tears and kept me from defeat 9 And so I walk in the presence of the
in the world of the living 10 I kept on believing, even when I said, "I am completely crushed," 11 even when I was afraid and said, "No one can be trusted"

12 What can I offer the LORD for all his goodness to me?
13 I will bring a wine-offering to the LORD, to thank him for saving me 14 In the assembly of all his people I will give him what I have promised 15 How painful it is to the LORD when one of his people dies!

16 I am your servant, LORD; I serve you, just as my mother did You have saved me from death

"His love is eternal"

[5] In my distress I called to the LORD; he answered me and set me free [6] The LORD is with me, I will not be afraid, what can anyone do to me?
[7] It is the LORD who helps me, and I will see my enemies defeated [8] It is better to trust in the LORD than to depend on man [9] It is better to trust in the LORD
than to depend on human leaders [10] Many enemies were round me, but I destroyed them by the power of the LORD!

[11] They were round me on every side,

117 1 Rom 15 11
118 1 1 Chr 16 34, 2 Chr 5 13, 7.3, Ezra 3 11, Ps 100 5 106 1, 107 1 136 1 Jer 33 11 118 6 Heb 13 6

do not hide your commands from me 20 My heart aches with longing, I want to know your judgements at all times 21 You reprimand the proud, cursed are those who disobey your commands 22 Free me from their insults and scorn, because I have kept your laws 23 The rulers meet and plot against me, but I will study your teachings 24 Your instructions give me pleasure, they are my advisers

Determination to Obey the Law of the Lord

25 I lie defeated in the dust, revive me, as you have promised 26 I confessed all I have done, and you answered me, teach me your ways 27 Help me to understand your laws, and I will meditate on your wonderful teachings [p] 28 I am overcome by sorrow, strengthen me, as you have promised 29 Keep me from going the wrong way, and in your goodness teach me your law 30 I have chosen to be obedient,
I have paid attention to your judgements 31 I have followed your instructions, Lord, don't let me be put to shame 32 I will eagerly obey your commands, because you will give me more understanding

A Prayer for Understanding

33 Teach me, Lord, the meaning of your laws, and I will obey them at all times 34 Explain your law to me, and I will obey it, I will keep it with all my heart 35 Keep me obedient to your commandments, because in them I find happiness 36 Give me the desire to obey your laws rather than to get rich 37 Keep me from paying attention to what is worthless, be good to me, as you have promised 38 Keep your promise to me, your servant—the promise you make to those who obey you 39 Save me from the insults I fear, how wonderful are your judgements!
40 I want to obey your commands, give me new life, for you are righteous

Trusting the Law of the Lord

41 Show me how much you love me, Lord, and save me according to your promise 42 Then I can answer those who insult me because I trust in your word 43 Enable me to speak the truth at all times, because my hope is in your judgements 44 I will always obey your law,
for ever and ever 45 I will live in perfect freedom, because I try to obey your teachings 46 I will announce your commands to kings and I will not be ashamed 47 I find pleasure in obeying your commands, because I love them 48 I respect and love your commandments, I will meditate on your instructions

Confidence in the Law of the Lord 49 Remember your promise to me, your servant, it has given me hope 50 Even in my suffering I was comforted because your promise gave me life 51 The proud are always scornful of me, but I have not departed from your law 52 I remember your judgements of long ago, and they bring me comfort, O Lord 53 When I see the wicked breaking your law, I am filled with anger 54 During my brief earthly life I compose songs about your commands 55 In the night I remember you, Lord, and I think about your law 56 I find my happiness in obeying your commands

Devotion to the Law of the Lord

57 You are all I want, O Lord, I promise to obey your laws 58 I ask you with all my heart to have mercy on me, as you have promised!

[p] teachings, or deeds

59 I have considered my conduct, and I promise to follow your instructions 60 Without delay I hurry to obey your commands 61 The wicked have laid a trap for me, but I do not forget your law 62 In the middle of the night I wake up to praise you for your righteous judgements 63 I am a friend of all who serve you, of all who obey your laws 64 LORD, the earth is full of your constant love, teach me your commandments

The Value of the Law of the LORD

65 You have kept your promise, LORD, and you are good to me, your servant 66 Give me wisdom and knowledge, because I trust in your commands 67 Before you punished me, I used to go wrong, but now I obey your word 68 How good you are—how kind!
Teach me your commands 69 Proud men have told lies about me, but with all my heart I obey your instructions 70 These men have no understanding, but I find pleasure in your law 71 My punishment was good for me, because it made me learn your commands 72 The law that you gave means more to me than all the money in the world

The Justice of the Law of the LORD

73 You created me, and you keep me safe, give me understanding, so that I may learn your laws 74 Those who honour you will be glad when they see me, because I trust in your promise 75 I know that your judgements are righteous, LORD, and that you punished me because you are faithful 76 Let your constant love comfort me, as you have promised me, your servant 77 Have mercy on me, and I will live because I take pleasure in your law 78 May the proud be ashamed for falsely accusing me, as for me, I will meditate on your instructions 79 May those who honour you come to me—all those who know your commands 80 May I perfectly obey your commandments and be spared the shame of defeat

81 I am worn out, LORD, waiting for you to save me, I place my trust in your word 82 My eyes are tired from watching for what you promised, while I ask, "When will you help me?" 83 I am as useless as a discarded wineskin, yet I have not forgotten your commands 84 How much longer must I wait?
When will you punish those who persecute me?
85 Proud men, who do not obey your law, have dug pits to trap me 86 Your commandments are all trustworthy, men persecute me with lies—help me!
87 They have almost succeeded in killing me, but I have not neglected your commands 88 Because of your constant love be good to me, so that I may obey your laws

Faith in the Law of the LORD

89 Your word, O LORD, will last for ever, it is eternal in heaven 90 Your faithfulness endures through all the ages, you have set the earth in place, and it remains 91 All things remain to this day because of your command, because they are all your servants 92 If your law had not been the source of my joy, I would have died from my sufferings 93 I will never neglect your instructions, because by them you have kept me alive 94 I am yours—save me!
I have tried to obey your commands 95 Wicked men are waiting to kill me, but I will meditate on your laws 96 I have learnt that everything has limits, but your commandment is perfect

Love for the Law of the LORD

97 How I love your law!
I think about it all day long 98 Your commandment is with me all the time and makes me wiser than my enemies 99 I understand more than all my teachers, because I meditate on your instructions 100 I have greater wisdom than old men, because I obey your commands 101 I have avoided all evil conduct, because I want to obey your word 102 I have not neglected your instructions,

for you yourself are my teacher 103 How sweet is the taste of your instructions—
sweeter even than honey!
104 I gain wisdom from your laws, and so I hate all bad conduct

Light from the Law of the Lord 105 Your word is a lamp to guide me and a light for my path 106 I will keep my solemn promise to obey your just instructions 107 My sufferings, Lord, are terrible indeed, keep me alive, as you have promised 108 Accept my prayer of thanks, O Lord, and teach me your commands 109 I am always ready to risk my life, I[q] have not forgotten your law 110 Wicked men lay a trap for me, but I have not disobeyed your

commands 111 Your commandments are my eternal possession, they are the joy of my heart 112 I have decided to obey your laws until the day I die

Safety in the Law of the Lord 113 I hate those who are not completely loyal to you, but I love your law

114 You are my defender and protector, I put my hope in your promise 115 Go away from me, you sinful people I will obey the commands of my God 116 Give me strength, as you promised, and I shall live, don't let me be disappointed in my hope!
117 Hold me, and I will be safe, and I will always pay attention to your
commands 118 You reject everyone who disobeys your laws, their deceitful schemes are useless 119 You treat all the wicked like rubbish, and so I love your instructions 120 Because of you I am afraid, I am filled with fear because of your judgements

Obedience to the Law of the Lord 121 I have done what is right and good, don't abandon me to my enemies!

122 Promise that you will help your servant,
don't let arrogant men oppress me!
123 My eyes are tired from watching for your saving help, for the deliverance you promised 124 Treat me according to your constant love,
125 I am your servant, give me understanding,
so that I may know your teachings 126 Lord, it is time for you to act, because people are disobeying your
law, 127 I love your commands more than gold,
more than the finest gold 128 And so I follow all your instructions,[r] I hate all wrong ways

Desire to Obey the Law of the Lord

129 Your teachings are wonderful, I obey them with all my heart 130 The explanation of your teachings gives light and brings wisdom to the ignorant 131 In my desire for your commands I pant with open mouth
132 Turn to me and have mercy on me as you do on all those who love you 133 As you have promised, keep me from falling, don't let me be overcome by evil 134 Save me from those who oppress me, so that I may obey your commands 135 Bless me with your presence and teach me your laws 136 My tears pour down like a river, because people do not obey your law

137 You are righteous, Lord, and your laws are just 138 The rules that you have given are completely fair and right 139 My anger burns in me like a fire, because my enemies disregard your
commands

[q] I am always ready to risk my life, I, or My life is in constant danger, but I [r] Some ancient translations all your instructions, Hebrew unclear

140 How certain your promise is!
How I love it!
141 I am unimportant and despised, but I do not neglect your teachings 142 Your righteousness will last for ever, and your law is always true 143 I am filled with trouble and anxiety, but your commandments bring me joy 144 Your instructions are always just, give me understanding, and I shall live

145 With all my heart I call to you, answer me, LORD, and I will obey your commands!
146 I call to you, save me, and I will keep your laws 147 Before sunrise I call to you for help, I place my hope in your promise 148 All night long I lie awake, to meditate on your instructions 149 Because your love is constant, hear me, O LORD, show your mercy, and preserve my life!
150 My cruel persecutors are coming closer, people who never keep your law 151 But you are near to me, LORD, and all your commands are permanent 152 Long ago I learnt about your instructions, you made them to last for ever

A Plea for Help

153 Look at my suffering, and save me, because I have not neglected your law 154 Defend my cause, and set me free, save me, as you have promised 155 The wicked will not be saved, for they do not obey your laws 156 But your compassion, LORD, is great, show your mercy and save me!
157 I have many enemies and oppressors, but I do not fail to obey your laws 158 When I look at those traitors, I am filled with disgust, because they do not keep your commands 159 See how I love your instructions, LORD Your love never changes, so save me!
160 The heart of your law is truth, and all your righteous judgements are eternal

Dedication to the Law of the LORD

161 Powerful men attack me unjustly, but I respect your law 162 How happy I am because of your promises—as happy as someone who finds rich treasure 163 I hate and detest all lies,
but I love your law 164 Seven times each day I thank you for your righteous judgements 165 Those who love your law have perfect security, and there is nothing that can make them fall 166 I wait for you to save me, LORD, and I do what you command 167 I obey your teachings, I love them with all my heart 168 I obey your commands and your instructions, you see everything I do

A Prayer for Help

169 Let my cry for help reach you, LORD!
Give me understanding, as you have promised 170 Listen to my prayer, and save me according to your promise!
171 I will always praise you, because you teach me your laws 172 I will sing about your law, because your commands are just 173 Always be ready to help me, because I follow your commands 174 How I long for your saving help, O LORD!
I find happiness in your law 175 Give me life, so that I may praise you, may your instructions help me 176 I wander about like a lost sheep, so come and look for me, your servant, because I have not neglected your laws

120 When I was in trouble, I called to the LORD, and he answered me 2 Save me, LORD, from liars and deceivers

3 You liars, what will God do to you?
How will he punish you?
4 With a soldier's sharp arrows, with red-hot charcoal!

5 Living among you is as bad as living in Meshech or among the people of Kedar [s] 6 I have lived too long with people who hate peace!
7 When I speak of peace, they are for war

The Lord Our Protector

121 I look to the mountains, where will my help come from?
2 My help will come from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth

3 He will not let you fall, your protector is always awake

4 The protector of Israel never dozes or sleeps 5 The Lord will guard you, he is by your side to protect you 6 The sun will not hurt you during the day,
nor the moon during the night

7 The Lord will protect you from all danger,
he will keep you safe 8 He will protect you as you come and go

In Praise of Jerusalem[t]

122 I was glad when they said to
me,
"Let us go to the Lord's house " 2 And now we are here, standing inside the gates of Jerusalem!

3 Jerusalem is a city restored in beautiful order and harmony 4 This is where the tribes come, the tribes of Israel, to give thanks to the Lord according to his command 5 Here the kings of Israel sat to judge their people

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem "May those who love you prosper 7 May there be peace inside your walls and safety in your palaces " 8 For the sake of my relatives and friends I say to Jerusalem, "Peace be with
you!"

9 For the sake of the house of the Lord our God
I pray for your prosperity

A Prayer for Mercy

123 Lord, I look up to you, up to heaven, where you rule 2 As a servant depends on his master, as a maid depends on her mistress, so we will keep looking to you, O Lord our God,
until you have mercy on us

3 Be merciful to us, Lord, be merciful, we have been treated with so much contempt 4 We have been mocked too long by the rich and scorned by proud oppressors

God the Protector of His People[u]

124 What if the Lord had not been on our side?
Answer, O Israel!

2 "If the Lord had not been on our side when our enemies attacked us,

[s] MESHECH KEDAR Two distant regions, whose people were regarded as savages [t] HEBREW TITLE By David [u] HEBREW TITLE By David

Gather the harvest with joy! (126 5)

3 then they would have swallowed us alive in their furious anger against us, 4 then the flood would have carried us away,
the water would have covered us, 5 the raging torrent would have drowned us."

6 Let us thank the LORD, who has not let our enemies destroy
us.
7 We have escaped like a bird from a hunter's trap;
the trap is broken, and we are free!
8 Our help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

The Security of God's People

125 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which can never be shaken, never be moved.
2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people
now and for ever.

3 The wicked will not always rule over the land of the righteous; if they did, the righteous themselves might do evil.
4 LORD, do good to those who are good, to those who obey your commands.
5 But when you punish the wicked, punish also those who abandon your ways.

Peace be with Israel!

126 When the LORD brought us back to Jerusalem,[v] it was like a dream!
2 How we laughed, how we sang for joy!
Then the other nations said about us, "The LORD did great things for them." 3 Indeed he did great things for us; how happy we were!

4 LORD, take us back to our land, just as the rain brings water back to dry river-beds.
5 Let those who wept as they sowed their seed,
gather the harvest with joy!

6 Those who wept as they went out carrying the seed will come back singing for joy, as they bring in the harvest.

In Praise of God's Goodness[w]

127 If the LORD does not build the house,
the work of the builders is useless;

[v] brought us back to Jerusalem; or made Jerusalem prosperous again.
[w] HEBREW TITLE: By Solomon.

if the LORD does not protect the city, it is useless for the sentries to stand guard 2 It is useless to work so hard for a living, getting up early and going to bed late For the LORD provides for those he loves, while they are asleep

3 Children are a gift from the LORD, they are a real blessing 4 The sons a man has when he is young are like arrows in a soldier's hand 5 Happy is the man who has many such arrows He will never be defeated when he meets his enemies in the place of judgement

The Reward of Obedience to the LORD

128 Happy are those who obey the LORD, who live by his commands

2 Your work will provide for your needs, you will be happy and prosperous 3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in your home, and your sons will be like young olive-trees round your table 4 A man who obeys the LORD will surely be blessed like this 5 May the LORD bless you from Zion!

May you see Jerusalem prosper all the days of your life!
6 May you live to see your grandchildren!

Peace be with Israel!

A Prayer against Israel's Enemies

129 Israel, tell us how your enemies have persecuted you ever since you were young

2 "Ever since I was young, my enemies have persecuted me cruelly, but they have not overcome me 3 They cut deep wounds in my back and made it like a ploughed field 4 But the LORD, the righteous one, has freed me from slavery"

5 May everyone who hates Zion be defeated and driven back 6 May they all be like grass growing on the house-tops, which dries up before it can grow, 7 no one gathers it up or carries it away in bundles 8 No one who passes by will say to them, "May the LORD bless you!
We bless you in the name of the LORD"

130 From the depths of my despair I call to you, LORD 2 Hear my cry, O Lord, listen to my call for help!
3 If you kept a record of our sins, who could escape being condemned?
4 But you forgive us, so that we should stand in awe of you

5 I wait eagerly for the LORD's help, and in his word I trust 6 I wait for the Lord more eagerly than watchmen wait for the dawn—than watchmen wait for the dawn

7 Israel, trust in the LORD, because his love is constant and he is always willing to save 8 He will save his people Israel from all their sins

A Prayer of Humble Trust[x]

131 LORD, I have given up my pride and turned away from my arrogance I am not concerned with great matters or with subjects too difficult for me 2 Instead, I am content and at peace As a child lies quietly in its mother's arms, so my heart is quiet within me 3 Israel, trust in the LORD
now and for ever!

In Praise of the Temple

132 LORD, do not forget David and all the hardships he endured 2 Remember, LORD, what he promised, the vow he made to you, the Mighty God of Jacob 3 "I will not go home or go to bed, 4 I will not rest or sleep, 5 until I provide a place for the LORD, a home for the Mighty God of Jacob"

6 In Bethlehem we heard about the Covenant Box,

[x] HEBREW TITLE By David 130 8 Mt 1 21, Tit 2 14 132 6-10 2 Chr 6 41-42

More eagerly than watchmen wait (130 6) and we found it in the fields of Jearim 7 We said, "Let us go to the LORD's house, let us worship before his throne "

8 Come to the Temple, LORD, with the Covenant Box,
the symbol of your power, and stay here for ever 9 May your priests do always what is right,
may your people shout for joy!

10 You made a promise to your servant
David,
do not reject your chosen king, LORD 11 You made a solemn promise to David—
a promise you will not take back "I will make one of your sons king, and he will rule after you 12 If your sons are true to my covenant and to the commands I give them, their sons, also, will succeed you for all time as kings "

13 The LORD has chosen Zion, he wants to make it his home 14 "This is where I will live for ever, this is where I want to rule 15 I will richly provide Zion with all she needs,
I will satisfy her poor with food 16 I will bless her priests in all they do, and her people will sing and shout
17 Here I will make one of David's descendants a great king, here I will preserve the rule of my chosen king 18 I will cover his enemies with shame, but his kingdom will prosper and flourish "

In Praise of Brotherly Love[j]

133 How wonderful it is, how pleasant, for God's people to live together in harmony!
2 It is like the precious anointing oil running down from Aaron's head and beard,
down to the collar of his robes 3 It is like the dew on Mount Hermon, falling on the hills of Zion That is where the LORD has promised his blessing—life that never ends

A Call to Praise God

134 Come, praise the LORD, all his servants, all who serve in his Temple at night 2 Raise your hands in prayer in the Temple,
and praise the LORD!

[j] HEBREW TITLE By David 132 11 2 Sam 7 12-16, 1 Chr 17 11-14, Ps 89 3-4, Acts 2 30 132 17 1 Kgs 11 36

3 May the LORD, who made heaven and earth,
bless you from Zion!

A Hymn of Praise

135 Praise the LORD!

Praise his name, you servants of the
LORD,
2 who stand in the LORD's house, in the Temple of our God 3 Praise the LORD, because he is good, sing praises to his name, because he is kind [z] 4 He chose Jacob for himself, the people of Israel for his own

5 I know that our LORD is great, greater than all the gods 6 He does whatever he wishes in heaven and on earth, in the seas and in the depths below 7 He brings storm clouds from the ends of the earth,
he makes lightning for the storms, and he brings out the wind from his storeroom

8 In Egypt he killed all the first-born of men and animals alike 9 There he performed miracles and wonders to punish the king and all his officials 10 He destroyed many nations and killed powerful kings 11 Sihon, king of the Amorites, Og, king of Bashan, and all the kings in Canaan 12 He gave their lands to his people, he gave them to Israel

13 LORD, you will always be proclaimed as God,
all generations will remember you 14 The LORD will defend his people, he will take pity on his servants 15 The gods of the nations are made of silver and gold, they are formed by human hands 16 They have mouths, but cannot speak,

17 They have ears, but cannot hear, they are not even able to breathe
in them
become [a] like the idols they have made!

19 Praise the LORD, people of Israel, praise him, you priests of God!
20 Praise the LORD, you Levites, praise him, all you that worship him!
21 Praise the LORD in Zion, in Jerusalem, his home

Praise the LORD!

[z] he is kind, or it is pleasant to do so [a] May all become, or All who made them and who trust in them will become 135 15-18 Ps 115 4-8, Rev 9 20

How wonderful for God's people to live together in harmony (133 1)

A Hymn of Thanksgiving

because he is good,
his love is eternal 2 Give thanks to the greatest of all gods,
his love is eternal 3 Give thanks to the mightiest of all lords,
his love is eternal

4 He alone performs great miracles,
his love is eternal 5 By his wisdom he made the heavens,
his love is eternal, 6 he built the earth on the deep waters,
his love is eternal 7 He made the sun and the moon,
his love is eternal, 8 the sun to rule over the day,
his love is eternal, 9 the moon and the stars to rule over the night,
his love is eternal

10 He killed the first-born sons of the Egyptians,
his love is eternal 11 He led the people of Israel out of Egypt,
his love is eternal, 12 with his strong hand, his powerful arm,
his love is eternal 13 He divided the Red Sea,
his love is eternal, 14 he led his people through it,
his love is eternal, 15 but he drowned the king of Egypt and his army,
his love is eternal

16 He led his people through the desert,
his love is eternal 17 He killed powerful kings,
his love is eternal, 18 he killed famous kings,
his love is eternal,
19 Sihon, king of the Amorites,
his love is eternal, 20 and Og, king of Bashan,
his love is eternal 21 He gave their land[c] to his people,
his love is eternal, 22 he gave them to Israel, his servant,
his love is eternal 23 He did not forget us when we were defeated,
his love is eternal, 24 he freed us from our enemies,
his love is eternal 25 He gives food to every living creature,
his love is eternal

26 Give thanks to the God of heaven,
his love is eternal

A Lament of Israelites in Exile

137 By the rivers of Babylon we sat down, there we wept when we remembered Zion 2 On the willows near by we hung up our harps 3 Those who captured us told us to sing, they told us to entertain them "Sing us a song about Zion"

4 How can we sing a song to the LORD in a foreign land?
5 May I never be able to play the harp again if I forget you, Jerusalem!
6 May I never be able to sing again if I do not remember you, if I do not think of you as my greatest joy!

7 Remember, LORD, what the Edomites did the day Jerusalem was captured Remember how they kept saying, "Tear it down to the ground!"

8 Babylon, you will be destroyed Happy is the man who pays you back for what you have done to us—9 who takes your babies and smashes them against a rock

A Prayer of Thanksgiving[b]

138 I thank you, LORD, with all my heart, I sing praise to you before the gods 2 I face your holy Temple, bow down, and praise your name because of your constant love and faithfulness, because you have shown that your name and your commands are supreme[c]

3 You answered me when I called to you, with your strength you strengthened
me

4 All the kings in the world will praise you, LORD, because they have heard your promises 5 They will sing about what you have done and about your great glory 6 Even though you are so high above, you care for the lowly, and the proud cannot hide from you

7 When I am surrounded by troubles, you keep me safe You oppose my angry enemies and save me by your power 8 You will do everything you have promised;
LORD, your love is eternal Complete the work that you have begun

God's Complete Knowledge and Care[d]

139 LORD, you have examined me and you know me 2 You know everything I do, from far away you understand all my thoughts 3 You see me, whether I am working or resting, you know all my actions 4 Even before I speak, you already know what I will say 5 You are all round me on every side, you protect me with your power.
6 Your knowledge of me is too deep, it is beyond my understanding 7 Where could I go to escape from you?

Where could I get away from your presence?
8 If I went up to heaven, you would be there,
if I lay down in the world of the dead, you would be there 9 If I flew away beyond the east or lived in the farthest place in the west, 10 you would be there to lead me, you would be there to help me 11 I could ask the darkness to hide me or the light round me to turn into night, 12 but even darkness is not dark for you, and the night is as bright as the day.
Darkness and light are the same to
you

13 You created every part of me, you put me together in my mother's womb 14 I praise you because you are to be feared, all you do is strange and wonderful I know it with all my heart.
15 When my bones were being formed, carefully put together in my mother's
womb,
when I was growing there in secret, you knew that I was there—16 you saw me before I was born The days allotted to me had all been recorded in your book, before any of them ever began 17 O God, how difficult I find your thoughts,[e] how many of them there are!
18 If I counted them, they would be more than the grains of sand When I awake, I am still with you 19 O God, how I wish you would kill the wicked!

How I wish violent men would leave me alone!
20 They say wicked things about you, they speak evil things against your name [f] 21 O LORD, how I hate those who hate
you!
How I despise those who rebel against
you!
22 I hate them with a total hatred, I regard them as my enemies

23 Examine me, O God, and know my mind, test me, and discover my thoughts 24 Find out if there is any evil in me and guide me in the everlasting way [g]

A Prayer for Protection[h]

140 Save me, LORD, from evil men, keep me safe from violent men 2 They are always plotting evil, always stirring up quarrels their words are like a cobra's poison

4 Protect me, LORD, from the power of the wicked, keep me safe from violent men who plot my downfall 5 Proud men have set a trap for me, they have laid their snares and along the path they have set traps to catch me

6 I say to the LORD, "You are my God" Hear my cry for help, LORD!
7 LORD, my God, my strong defender, you have protected me in battle 8 LORD, don't give the wicked what they want,
don't let their plots succeed

9 Don't let my enemies be victorious,[i] make their threats against me fall back on them 10 May red-hot coals fall on them, may they be thrown into a pit and never get out 11 May those who accuse others falsely not succeed, may evil overtake violent men and destroy them

12 LORD, I know that you defend the cause of the poor and the rights of the needy 13 The righteous will praise you indeed, they will live in your presence

An Evening Prayer[j]

141 I call to you, LORD, help me now!
Listen to me when I call to
you 2 Receive my prayer as incense, my uplifted hands as an evening sacrifice

3 LORD, place a guard at my mouth, a sentry at the door of my lips 4 Keep me from wanting to do wrong and from joining evil men in their wickedness
May I never take part in their feasts

5 A good man may punish me and rebuke me in kindness, but I will never accept honour from evil men, because I am always praying against their evil deeds 6 When their rulers are thrown down from rocky cliffs, the people will admit that my words were true 7 Like wood that is split and chopped into bits, so their bones are scattered at the edge of the grave[k]

8 But I keep trusting in you, O LORD my
God
I seek your protection, don't let me die!
9 Protect me from the traps they have set for me, from the snares of those evildoers 10 May the wicked fall into their own traps while I go by unharmed

A Prayer for Help[l]

142 I call to the LORD for help, I plead with him 2 I bring him all my complaints, I tell him all my troubles 3 When I am ready to give up, he knows what I should do In the path where I walk, my enemies have hidden a trap for
me
4 When I look beside me, I see that there is no one to help me, no one to protect me No one cares for me

5 LORD, I cry to you for help, you, LORD, are my protector, you are all I want in this life 6 Listen to my cry for help, for I am sunk in despair Save me from my enemies, they are too strong for me 7 Set me free from my distress,[m] then in the assembly of your people I will praise you because of your goodness to me

A Prayer for Help[n]

143 LORD, hear my prayer!
In your righteousness listen to my plea, answer me in your faithfulness!

no one is innocent in your sight

3 My enemy has hunted me down and completely defeated me He has put me in a dark prison, and I am like those who died long ago 4 So I am ready to give up, I am in deep despair

5 I remember the days gone by,
I think about all that you have done, I bring to mind all your deeds 6 I lift up my hands to you in prayer, like dry ground my soul is thirsty for you

7 Answer me now, LORD!
I have lost all hope Don't hide yourself from me, or I will be among those who go down to the world of the dead 8 Remind me each morning of your constant love, for I put my trust in you My prayers go up to you, show me the way I should go 9 I go to you for protection, LORD, rescue me from my enemies 10 You are my God, teach me to do your will Be good to me, and guide me on a safe path 11 Rescue me, LORD, as you have promised, in your goodness save me from my troubles!

12 Because of your love for me, kill my enemies and destroy all my oppressors, for I am your servant

A King Thanks God for Victory[o]

144 Praise the LORD, my protector!
He trains me for battle and prepares me for war 2 He is my protector and defender, my shelter and saviour, in whom I trust for safety He subdues the nations under me

3 LORD, what is man, that you notice him, mere man, that you pay attention to him?
4 He is like a puff of wind, his days are like a passing shadow

5 O LORD, tear the sky apart and come down, touch the mountains, and they will pour out smoke 6 Send flashes of lightning and scatter your enemies, shoot your arrows and send them running 7 Reach down from above, pull me out of the deep water, and rescue me, save me from the power of foreigners, 8 who never tell the truth and lie even under oath

9 I will sing you a new song, O God, I will play the harp and sing to you 10 You give victory to kings and rescue your servant David 11 Save me from my cruel enemies, rescue me from the power of foreigners,

12 May our sons in their youth be like plants that grow up strong May our daughters be like stately pillars which adorn the corners of a palace 13 May our barns be filled with crops of every kind May the sheep in our fields bear young by the tens of thousands 14 May our cattle reproduce plentifully without miscarriage or loss May there be no cries of distress in our streets 15 Happy is the nation of whom this is true, happy are the people whose God is the LORD!

A Hymn of Praise[p]

145 I will proclaim your greatness, my God and king,
I will thank you for ever and ever 2 Every day I will thank you, I will praise you for ever and ever 3 The LORD is great and is to be highly praised, his greatness is beyond understanding 4 What you have done will be praised from one generation to the next, they will proclaim your mighty acts

A rich man, however, has so much that he stays awake worrying (5.12)

Don't Make Rash Promises

5 Be careful about going to the Temple.
It is better to go there to learn than to offer sacrifices as foolish people do, people who don't know right from wrong.
2 Think before you speak, and don't make any rash promises to God. He is in heaven and you are on earth, so don't say any more than you have to. 3 The more you worry, the more likely you are to have bad dreams, and the more you talk, the more likely you are to say something foolish. 4 So when you make a promise to God, keep it as quickly as possible.
He has no use for a fool. Do what you promise to do. 5 Better not to promise at all than to make a promise and not keep it. 6 Don't let your own words lead you into sin, so that you have to tell God's priest that you didn't mean it. Why make God angry with you? Why let him destroy what you have worked for? 7 No matter how much you dream, how much useless work you do, or how much you talk, you must still fear God.

Life Is Useless

8 Don't be surprised when you see that the government oppresses the poor and denies them justice and their rights. Every official is protected by the one over him, and both are protected by still higher officials.
9 Even a king depends on the harvest.[c] 10 If you love money, you will never be satisfied; if you long to be rich, you will never get all you want. It is useless.
11 The richer you are, the more mouths you must feed. All you gain is the knowledge that you are rich. 12 A working man may or may not have enough to eat, but at least he can get a good night's sleep. A rich man, however, has so much that he stays awake worrying.
13 Here is a terrible thing that I have seen in this world: people save up their money for a time when they may need it,[d] 14 and then lose it all in some unlucky deal and end up with nothing left to pass on to their children. 15 We leave this world just as we entered it—with nothing. In spite of all our work there is nothing we can take with us. 16 It isn't right! We go just as we came. We labour, trying to catch the wind, and what do we get? 17 We have to live our lives in darkness and grief,[e] worried, angry, and sick.
18 This is what I have found out: the best thing anyone can do is to eat and drink and enjoy what he has worked for during the short life that God has given him; this is man's fate. 19 If God gives a man wealth and property and lets him enjoy them, he should be grateful and enjoy what he has worked for. It is a gift from God. 20 Since God has allowed him to be happy, he will not worry too much about how short life is.
6 I have noticed that in this world a serious injustice is done. 2 God will give someone wealth, honour, and property, yes, everything he wants, but then will not let him enjoy it. Some stranger will enjoy it instead. It is useless, and it's all wrong. 3 A man may have a hundred children and live a long time, but no matter how long he lives, if he does not get his share of happiness and does not receive a decent burial, then I say that a baby born dead is better off. 4 It does [c] Verse 9 in Hebrew is unclear. [d] for it, or to their own hurt.

[e] Some ancient translations in darkness and grief; Hebrew eating in darkness.
5.4: Ps 66.13-14 5.15: Job 1.21; Ps 49.17; 1 Tim 6.7 that baby no good to be born, it disappears into darkness, where it is forgotten 5 It never sees the light of day or knows what life is like, but at least it has found rest—6 more so than the man who never enjoys life, though he may live two thousand years After all, both of them are going to the same place 7 A man does all his work just to get something to eat, but he never has enough 8 How is a wise man better off than a fool? What good does it do a poor man to know how to face life? 9 It is useless, it is like chasing the wind It is better to be satisfied with what you have than to be always wanting something else 10 Everything that happens was already determined long ago, and we all know that a man[f] cannot argue with someone who is stronger than he 11 The longer you argue, the more useless it is, and you are no better off 12 How can anyone know what is best for a man in this short, useless life of his—a life that passes like a shadow? How can anyone know what will happen in the world after he dies?

Thoughts about Life

7 A good reputation is better than expensive perfume, and the day you die is better than the day you are born 2 It is better to go to a home where there is mourning than to one where there is a party, because the living should always remind themselves that death is waiting for us all 3 Sorrow is better than laughter, it may sadden your face, but it sharpens your understanding 4 Someone who is always thinking about happiness is a fool A wise person thinks about death 5 It is better to have wise people reprimand you than to have stupid people sing your praises 6 When a fool laughs, it is like thorns crackling in a fire It doesn't mean a thing 7 When a wise man cheats someone, he is acting like a fool If you take a bribe, you ruin your character 8 The end of anything is better than its beginning Patience is better than pride 9 Keep your temper under control, it is foolish to harbour a grudge 10 Never ask, "Oh, why were things so

Than to have stupid people sing your praises (7 5)

If you take a bribe (7 7) much better in the old days?" It's not an intelligent question 11 Everyone who lives ought to be wise, it is as good as receiving an inheritance 12 and will give you as much security as money can Wisdom keeps you safe—this is the advantage of knowledge 13 Think about what God has done How can anyone straighten out what God has made crooked? 14 When things are going well for you, be glad, and when trouble comes, just remember God sends both happiness and trouble, you never [f]and we man or and a man's nature is already known, a man 7 1 Prov 22 1 7 9 Jas 1 19

The love she offers you will catch you like a trap (7 26) know what is going to happen next [g] 15 My life has been useless, but in it I have seen everything A good man may die while another man lives on, even though he is evil 16 So don't be too good or too wise—why kill yourself? 17 But don't be too wicked or too foolish, either—why die before you have to? 18 Avoid both extremes If you are religious you will be successful anyway 19 Wisdom does more for a person than ten rulers can do for a city 20 There is no one on earth who does what is right all the time and never makes a mistake 21 Don't pay attention to everything people say—you may hear your servant insulting you, 22 and you know yourself that you have insulted other people many times 23 I used my wisdom to test all of this I was determined to be wise, but it was beyond me 24 How can anyone discover what life means? It is too deep for us, too hard to understand 25 But I devoted myself to knowledge and study; I was determined to find wisdom and the answers to my questions, and to learn how wicked and foolish stupidity is 26 I found something more bitter than death—woman The love she offers you will catch you like a trap or like a net, and her arms round you will hold you like a chain A man who pleases God can get away, but she will catch the sinner.

27 Yes, said the Philosopher, I found this out little by little while I was looking for answers 28 I have looked for other answers but have found none I found one man in a thousand that I could respect, but not one woman 29 This is all that I have learnt God made us plain and simple, but we have made ourselves very complicated 8 Only a wise man knows what things really mean Wisdom makes him smile and makes his frowns disappear

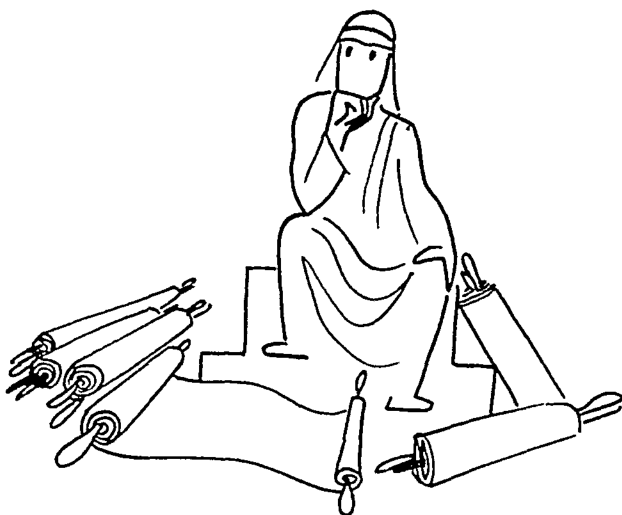
Obey the King

2 Do what the king says,[h] and don't



None of us knows what is going to happen (8 7) make any rash promises to God 3 The king can do anything he likes, so depart from [g] you next, or you cannot find fault with him [h] Some ancient translations Do what the king says, Hebrew unclear

Wise men may claim to know (8 17) his presence, don't stay in such a dangerous place 4 The king acts with authority, and no one can challenge what he does 5 As long as you obey his commands, you are safe, and a wise man knows how and when to do it 6 There is a right time and a right way to do everything, but we know so little[i] 7 None of us knows what is going to happen, and there is no one to tell us 8 No one can keep himself from dying or put off the day of his death That is a battle we cannot escape, we cannot cheat our way out

The Wicked and the Righteous

9 I saw all this when I thought about the things that are done in this world, a world where some men have power and others have to suffer under them 10 Yes, I have seen wicked men buried and in their graves, but on the way back from the cemetery people praise them in the very city where they did their evil It is useless [i] 11 Why do people commit crimes so readily? Because crime is not punished quickly enough 12 A sinner may commit a hundred crimes and still live Oh yes, I know what they say "If you obey God, everything will be all right, 13 but it will not go well for the wicked Their life is like a shadow and they will die young, because they do not obey God" 14 But this is nonsense Look at what happens in the world sometimes righteous men get the punishment of the wicked, and wicked men get the reward of the righteous I say it is useless 15 So I am convinced that a man should enjoy himself, because the only pleasure he has in this life is eating and drinking and enjoying himself He can at least do this as he labours during the life that God has given him in this world 16 Whenever I tried to become wise and learn what goes on in the world, I realized that you could stay awake night and day 17 and never be able to understand what God is doing However hard you try, you will never find out Wise men may claim to know, but they don't 9 I thought long and hard about all this and saw that God controls the actions of wise and righteous men, even their love and their hate No one knows anything about what lies ahead of him 2 It makes no difference [j] The same fate comes to the righteous and the wicked, to the good

[i] Verse 10 in Hebrew is unclear [j] hate No one difference, or hate, but no one knows whether it is out of love or hate 2 It makes no difference what lies ahead of us

Better to listen to the quiet words of a wise man (9.17) and the bad,[k] to those who are religious and those who are not, to those who offer sacrifices and those who do not. A good man is no better off than a sinner; a man who takes an oath is no better off than one who does not. 3 One fate comes to all alike, and this is as wrong as anything that happens in this world. As long as people live, their minds are full of evil and madness, and suddenly they die. 4 But

A live dog is better off than a dead lion (9.4) anyone who is alive in the world of the living has some hope; a live dog is better off than a dead lion. 5 Yes, the living know they are going to die, but the dead know nothing. They have no further reward; they are completely forgotten. 6 Their loves, their hates, their passions, all died with them. They will never again take part in anything that happens in this world.

7 Go ahead—eat your food and be happy; drink your wine and be cheerful.
It's all right with God. 8 Always look happy and cheerful. 9 Enjoy life with the woman you love, as long as you live the useless life that God has given you in this world. Enjoy every useless day of it, because that is all you will get for all your trouble. 10 Work hard at whatever you do, because there will be no action, no thought, no knowledge, no wisdom in the world of the dead—and that is where you are going.
11 I realized another thing, that in this world fast runners do not always win the race, and the brave do not always win the battle. Wise men do not always earn a living, intelligent men do not always get rich, and capable men do not always rise to high positions. Bad luck happens to everyone. 12 You never know when your time is coming. Like birds suddenly caught in a trap, like fish caught in a net, we are trapped at some evil moment when we least expect it.

Thoughts on Wisdom and Foolishness

13 There is something else I saw, a good example of how wisdom is regarded in this world. 14 There was a little town without many people in it. A powerful king attacked it. He surrounded it and prepared to break through the walls. 15 A man lived there who was poor, but so clever that he could have saved the town.
But no one thought about him.[l] 16 I have always said that wisdom is better than [k] Some ancient translations and the bad; Hebrew does not have these words.

[l] he could have . . . him; or he saved the town. But later on no one remembered him.

strength, but no one thinks of a poor man as wise or pays any attention to what he says [17]It is better to listen to the quiet words of a wise man than to the shouts of a ruler at a council of fools [18]Wisdom does more good than weapons, but one sinner can undo a lot of good 10 Dead flies can make a whole bottle of perfume stink, and a little stupidity can cancel out the greatest wisdom

2 It is natural for a wise man to do the right thing and for a fool to do the wrong thing [3]His stupidity will be evident even to strangers he meets along the way, he lets everyone know that he is a fool 4 If your ruler becomes angry with you, do not hand in your resignation, serious wrongs may be pardoned if you keep calm [m] 5 Here is an injustice I have seen in the world—an injustice caused by rulers [6]Stupid people are given positions of authority while rich men are ignored [7]I

I have seen slaves on horseback (10 7) have seen slaves on horseback while noblemen go on foot like slaves 8 If you dig a pit, you fall in it, if you break through a wall, a snake bites you [9]If you work in a stone quarry, you get hurt by stones If you split wood, you get hurt doing it [10]If your axe is blunt and you don't sharpen it, you have to work harder to use it It is more sensible to plan ahead [11]Knowing how to charm a snake is of no use if you let the snake bite first [12]What a wise man says brings him honour, but a fool is destroyed by his own words [13]He starts out with silly talk and ends up with pure madness [14]A fool talks on and on

No one knows what is going to happen next, and no one can tell us what will happen after we die 15 Only someone too stupid to find his way home would wear himself out with work 16 A country is in trouble when its king is a youth and its leaders feast all night long [17]But a country is fortunate to have a king who makes his own decisions and leaders who eat at the proper time, who control themselves and don't get drunk 18 When a man is too lazy to repair

When a man is too lazy to repair his roof (10 18) his roof, it will leak, and the house will fall in 19 Feasting makes you happy and wine cheers you up, but you can't have either without money 20 Don't criticize the king, even silently, and don't criticize the rich, even in the privacy of your bedroom A bird might carry the message and tell them what you said

What a Wise Man Does

11 Invest your money in foreign trade, and one of these days you will make a profit [2]Put your investments in several places—many places, in fact—because you never know what kind of bad luck you are going to have in this world 3 No matter in which direction a tree falls, it will lie where it fell When the clouds are full, it rains [4]If you wait until the wind and the weather are just right, you will never sow anything and never harvest anything [5]God made everything,

[m]keep calm, or submit to him 10 8 Ps 7 15, Prov 26 27 and you can no more understand what he does than you understand how new life begins in the womb of a pregnant woman 6 Do your sowing in the morning and in the evening, too You never know whether it will all grow well or whether one sowing will do better than the other 7 It is good to be able to enjoy the pleasant light of day 8 Be grateful for every year you live No matter how long you live, remember that you will be dead much longer There is nothing at all to look forward to

Advice to Young People

9 Young people, enjoy your youth Be happy while you are still young Do what you want to do, and follow your heart's desire But remember that God is going to judge you for whatever you do 10 Don't let anything worry you or cause you pain You aren't going to be young very long

12 So remember your Creator[n] while you are still young, before those dismal days and years come when you will say, "I don't enjoy life" 2 That is when the light of the sun, the moon, and the stars will grow dim for you, and the rain clouds will never pass away 3 Then your arms, that have protected you, will tremble, and your legs, now strong, will grow weak Your teeth will be too few to chew your food, and your eyes too dim to see clearly 4 Your ears will be deaf to the noise of the street You will barely be able to hear the mill as it grinds or music as it plays, but even the song of a bird will wake you from sleep 5 You will be afraid of high places, and walking will be dangerous Your hair will turn white, you will hardly be able to drag yourself along, and all desire will have gone We are going to our final resting place, and then there will be mourning in the streets 6 The silver chain will snap, and the golden lamp will fall and break, the rope at the well will break, and the water jar will be shattered 7 Our bodies will return to the dust of the earth, and the breath of life will go back to God, who gave it to us 8 Useless, useless, said the Philosopher It is all useless

Remember your Creator before those dismal days come (12 1)

The Summing Up

9 But because the Philosopher was wise, he kept on teaching the people what he knew He studied proverbs and honestly tested their truth 10 The Philosopher tried to find comforting words, but the words he wrote were honest 11 The sayings of wise men are like the sharp sticks that shepherds use to guide sheep, and collected proverbs are as lasting as firmly driven nails They have been given by God, the one Shepherd of us all 12 My son, there is something else to watch out for There is no end to the writing of books, and too much study will wear you out 13 After all this, there is only one thing to say Fear God, and obey his commands, because this is all that man was created for 14 God is going to judge everything we do, whether good or bad, even things done in secret

[n] The Hebrew expression for your Creator sounds like the Hebrew for your grave

THE SONG OF SONGS

INTRODUCTION

The Song of Songs is a collection of love poems, for the most part in the form of songs addressed by a man to a woman, and by the woman to the man In some translations, the book is called The Song of Solomon, because it is attributed to Solomon in the Hebrew

These songs have often been interpreted by Jews as a picture of the relationship between God and his people, and by Christians as a picture of the relationship between Christ and the Church

1 The most beautiful of songs, by Solomon [a]

The First Song

The Woman

[2] Your lips cover me with kisses, your love is better than wine [3] There is a fragrance about you, the sound of your name recalls it No woman could help loving you [4] Take me with you, and we'll run away, be my king and take me to your room We will be happy together, drink deep, and lose ourselves in love No wonder all women love you!
[5] Women of Jerusalem, I am dark but[b] beautiful,
dark as the desert tents of Kedar, but beautiful as the curtains in Solomon's palace [6] Don't look down on me because of my colour, because the sun has tanned me My brothers were angry with me and made me work in the vineyard I had no time to care for myself [7] Tell me, my love, Where will you lead your flock to graze?
Where will they rest from the noonday sun?
Why should I need to look for you among the flocks of the other shepherds?[c]

The Man

[8] Don't you know the place, loveliest of women?
Go and follow the flock, find pasture for your goats near the tents of the shepherds

[a] by Solomon, or dedicated to Solomon, or about Solomon [b] but, or and Loveliest of women (1 8) [9] You, my love, excite men as a mare excites the stallions of Pharaoh's chariots [10] Your hair is beautiful upon your cheeks and falls along your neck like jewels [11] But we will make for you a chain of gold with ornaments of silver

[12] My king was lying on his couch, and my perfume filled the air with fragrance [13] My lover has the scent of myrrh as he lies upon my breasts [14] My lover is like the wild flowers that bloom in the vineyards at Engedi

The Man
[15] How beautiful you are, my love, how your eyes shine with love!

[16] How handsome you are, my dearest, how you delight me!
The green grass will be our bed, [17] the cedars will be the beams of our house, and the cypress-trees the ceiling

2 I am only a wild flower in Sharon, a lily in a mountain valley

The Man
[2] Like a lily among thorns is my darling among women

The Woman
[3] Like an apple-tree among the trees of the forest, so is my dearest compared with other men I love to sit in its shadow, and its fruit is sweet to my taste [4] He brought me to his banqueting hall and raised the banner of love over me [5] Restore my strength with raisins and refresh me with apples!
I am weak from passion [6] His left hand is under my head, and his right hand caresses me [7] Promise me, women of Jerusalem, swear by the swift deer and the gazelles

that you will not interrupt our love

The Second Song

8 I hear my lover's voice He comes running over the mountains, racing across the hills to me 9 My lover is like a gazelle,

Like a young stag (2 9)

There he stands beside the wall He looks in through the window and glances through the lattice 10 My lover speaks to me

The Man

Come then, my love, my darling, come with me 11 The winter is over, the rains have stopped, 12 in the countryside the flowers are in bloom This is the time for singing, the song of doves is heard in the fields 13 Figs are beginning to ripen, the air is fragrant with blossoming vines Come then, my love,
my darling, come with me 14 You are like a dove that hides in the crevice of a rock Let me see your lovely face and hear your enchanting voice 15 Catch the foxes, the little foxes, before they ruin our vineyard in bloom

16 My lover is mine, and I am his
He feeds his flock among the lilies 17 until the morning breezes blow and the darkness disappears Return, my darling, like a gazelle, like a stag on the mountains of Bether [d]

3 Asleep on my bed, night after night I dreamt of the one I love, I was looking for him, but couldn't find him 2 I went wandering through the city, through its streets and alleys I looked for the one I love I looked, but couldn't find him 3 The watchmen patrolling the city saw me I asked them, "Have you found my lover?" 4 As soon as I left them, I found him I held him and wouldn't let him go until I took him to my mother's house, to the room where I was born

5 Promise me, women of Jerusalem,
swear by the swift deer and the gazelles
that you will not interrupt our love

The Third Song

The Woman

6 What is this coming from the desert like a column of smoke, fragrant with incense and myrrh, the incense sold by the traders?
7 Solomon is coming, carried on his throne, sixty soldiers form the bodyguard, the finest soldiers in Israel 8 All of them are skilful with the sword, they are battle-hardened veterans Each of them is armed with a sword, on guard against a night attack 9 King Solomon is carried on a throne made of the finest wood 10 Its posts are covered with silver, over it is cloth embroidered with gold Its cushions are covered with purple cloth, lovingly woven by the women of Jerusalem 11 Women of Zion, come and see King Solomon He is wearing the crown that his mother placed on his head on his wedding day, on the day of his gladness and joy

The Man

4 How beautiful you are, my love!

[d] mountains of Bether, or rugged mountains

behind your veil
Your hair dances, like a flock of goats bounding down the hills of Gilead 2 Your teeth are as white as sheep that have just been shorn and washed Not one of them is missing, they are all perfectly matched 3 Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon, how lovely they are when you speak Your cheeks glow behind your veil 4 Your neck is like the tower of David, round and smooth,[e] with a necklace like a thousand shields hung round it 5 Your breasts are like gazelles, twin deer feeding among lilies 6 I will stay on the hill of myrrh, the hill of incense,
until the morning breezes blow
7 How beautiful you are, my love, how perfect you are!

8 Come with me from the Lebanon Mountains, my bride, come with me from Lebanon Come down from the top of Mount Amana,
from Mount Senir and Mount Hermon, where the lions and leopards live 9 The look in your eyes, my sweetheart and bride, and the necklace you are wearing have stolen my heart 10 Your love delights me, my sweetheart and bride Your love is better than wine, your perfume more fragrant than any spice 11 The taste of honey is on your lips, my darling, your tongue is milk and honey for
me
Your clothing has all the fragrance of Lebanon

12 My sweetheart, my bride, is a secret garden, a walled garden, a private spring, 13 there the plants flourish They grow like an orchard of pomegranate-trees and bear the finest fruits There is no lack of henna and nard, 14 of saffron, calamus, and cinnamon, or incense of every kind Myrrh and aloes grow there with all the most fragrant perfumes

[e] round and smooth, Hebrew unclear

15 Fountains water the garden, streams of flowing water, brooks gushing down from the Lebanon Mountains

The Woman
16 Wake up, North Wind South Wind, blow on my garden, fill the air with fragrance Let my lover come to his garden and eat the best of its fruits

The Man
5 I have entered my garden, my sweetheart, my bride I am gathering my spices and myrrh, I am eating my honey and honeycomb, I am drinking my wine and milk

The Women
Eat, lovers, and drink until you are drunk with love!

The Fourth Song

The Woman
2 While I slept, my heart was awake I dreamt my lover knocked at the door

The Man
Let me come in, my darling, my sweetheart, my dove My head is wet with dew, and my hair is damp from the mist

The Woman
3 I have already undressed, why should I get dressed again?
I have washed my feet, why should I get them dirty again?

4 My lover put his hand to the door, and I was thrilled that he was near 5 I was ready to let him come in My hands were covered with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, as I grasped the handle of the door 6 I opened the door for my lover, but he had already gone How I wanted to hear his voice!
I looked for him, but couldn't find him, I called to him, but heard no answer

7 The watchmen patrolling the city found
me,
they struck me and bruised me, the guards at the city wall tore off my cape 8 Promise me, women of Jerusalem, that if you find my lover, you will tell him I am weak from passion

The Women
9 Most beautiful of women, is your lover different from everyone else?
What is there so wonderful about him that we should give you our promise?

10 My lover is handsome and strong, he is one in ten thousand 11 His face is bronzed and smooth, his hair is wavy, black as a raven 12 His eyes are as beautiful as doves by a flowing brook, doves washed in milk and standing by the stream [f] 13 His cheeks are as lovely as a garden that is full of herbs and spices His lips are like lilies, wet with liquid myrrh 14 His hands are well-formed, and he wears rings set with gems His body is like smooth ivory,[g] with sapphires set in it 15 His thighs are columns of alabaster set in sockets of gold He is majestic, like the Lebanon Mountains
with their towering cedars 16 His mouth is sweet to kiss, everything about him enchants me This is what my lover is like, women of Jerusalem

The Women
6 Most beautiful of women, where has your lover gone?
Tell us which way your lover went, so that we can help you find him

The Woman
2 My lover has gone to his garden, where the balsam-trees grow He is feeding his flock in the garden and gathering lilies 3 My lover is mine, and I am his,

The Fifth Song

The Man
4 My love, you are as beautiful as Jerusalem,
as lovely as the city of Tirzah, as breathtaking as these great cities [h] 5 Turn your eyes away from me, they are holding me captive Your hair dances, like a flock of goats
bounding down the hills of Gilead 6 Your teeth are as white as a flock of sheep that have just been washed Not one of them is missing,
8 Let the king have sixty queens, eighty concubines, young women without number!
9 But I love only one, and she is as lovely as a dove She is her mother's only daughter, her mother's favourite child All women look at her and praise her, queens and concubines sing her praises

10 Who is this whose glance is like the dawn?
She is beautiful and bright, as dazzling as the sun or the moon [i] 11 I have come down among the almond-trees
to see the young plants in the valley, to see the new leaves on the vines and the blossoms on the pomegranate-
trees 12 I am trembling, you have made me as eager for love as a chariot driver is for battle [j]

The Women
13 Dance, dance,[k] girl of Shulam Let us watch you as you dance

The Woman
Why do you want to watch me as I dance between the rows of onlookers?

The Man
7 What a wonderful girl you are!
How beautiful are your feet in sandals
The curve of your thighs is like the work of an artist 2 A bowl is there, that never runs out of spiced wine A sheaf of wheat is there, surrounded by lilies 3 Your breasts are like twin deer, like two gazelles

[f]and standing by the stream, Hebrew unclear [g]like smooth ivory, Hebrew unclear [h]as breathtaking as cities, Hebrew unclear [i]as dazzling as moon, Hebrew unclear [j]Verse 12 in Hebrew is unclear [k]Dance, dance, or Come back, come back

Let us watch you as you dance (6 13)

4 Your neck is like a tower of ivory Your eyes are like the pools in the city of Heshbon, near the gate of that great city Your nose is as lovely as the tower of Lebanon that stands guard at Damascus 5 Your head is held high like Mount Carmel Your braided hair shines like the finest satin, its beauty[l] could hold a king captive

6 How pretty you are, how beautiful, how complete the delights of your love 7 You are as graceful as a palm-tree, and your breasts are clusters of dates 8 I will climb the palm-tree and pick its fruit
To me your breasts are like bunches of grapes, your breath like the fragrance of apples, 9 and your mouth like the finest wine

The Woman
Then let the wine flow straight to my lover, flowing over his lips and teeth [m] 10 I belong to my lover, and he desires me.
11 Come, darling, let's go out to the countryside and spend the night in the villages [n] 12 We will get up early and look at the vines to see whether they've started to grow, whether the blossoms are opening and the pomegranate-trees are in bloom There I will give you my love 13 You can smell the scent of mandrakes, and all the pleasant fruits are near our door Darling, I have kept for you the old delights and the new 8 I wish that you were my brother, that my mother had nursed you at her breast Then, if I met you in the street, I could kiss you and no one would mind 2 I would take you to my mother's house, where you could teach me love I would give you spiced wine, my pomegranate wine to drink 3 Your left hand is under my head, and your right hand caresses me

4 Promise me, women of Jerusalem,

The Sixth Song

The Women
5 Who is this coming from the desert, arm in arm with her lover?

The Woman
Under the apple-tree I woke you, in the place where you were born 6 Close your heart to every love but mine, hold no one in your arms but me Love is as powerful as death, passion is as strong as death itself It bursts into flame and burns like a raging fire 7 Water cannot put it out, no flood can drown it

[l] beauty, Hebrew unclear [m] Some ancient translations lips and teeth, Hebrew lips of those who sleep [n] villages, or fields

But if anyone tried to buy love with his wealth, contempt is all he would get

The Woman's Brothers 8 We have a young sister, and her breasts are still small What will we do for her when a young man comes courting?
9 If she is a wall, we will build her a silver tower But if she is a gate, we will protect her with panels of cedar

The Woman
10 I am a wall, and my breasts are its towers My lover knows that with him I find contentment and peace

The Man
11 Solomon has a vineyard in a place called Baal Hamon There are farmers who rent it from him, each one pays a thousand silver coins 12 Solomon is welcome to his thousand coins, and the farmers to two hundred as their share,
I have a vineyard of my own!

13 Let me hear your voice from the garden, my love, my companions are waiting to hear you speak

The Woman
14 Come to me, my lover, like a gazelle, like a young stag on the mountains where spices grow

THE BOOK OF

ISAIAH

INTRODUCTION

The book of Isaiah is named after a great prophet who lived in Jerusalem in the latter half of the eighth century B C This book may be divided into three sections

1 Chapters 1–39 come from a time when Judah, the southern kingdom, was threatened by a powerful neighbour, Assyria Isaiah saw that the real threat to the life of Judah was not simply the might of Assyria, but the nation's own sin and disobedience to God, and their lack of trust in him In vivid words and actions the prophet called the people and their leaders to a life of righteousness and justice, and warned that failure to listen to God would bring doom and destruction. Isaiah also foretold a time of world-wide peace and the coming of a descendant of David who would be the ideal king

2 Chapters 40–55 come from a time when many of the people of Judah were in exile in Babylon, crushed and without hope The prophet proclaimed that God was about to set his people free and take them home to Jerusalem, to begin a new life A notable theme of these chapters is that God is the Lord of history, and his plan for his people includes their mission to all nations, who will be blessed through Israel The passages about "the Servant of the Lord" are among the best-known in the Old Testament

3 Chapters 56–66 are for the most part addressed to people who were back in Jerusalem, and who needed reassurance that God was going to fulfil his promises to the nation Concern is expressed for righteousness and justice, and also for Sabbath observance, sacrifice, and prayer. A notable passage is 61 1-2, words used by Jesus at the beginning of his ministry to express his calling

1 This book contains the messages about Judah and Jerusalem which God revealed to Isaiah son of Amoz during the time when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah

God Reprimands His People

2 The LORD said, "Earth and sky, listen to what I am saying! The children I brought up have rebelled against me 3 Cattle know who owns them, and donkeys know where their master feeds them But that is more than my people Israel know They don't understand at all" 4 You are doomed, you sinful nation, you corrupt and evil people! Your sins drag you down! You have rejected the LORD, the holy God of Israel, and have turned your backs on him 5 Why do you keep on rebelling? Do you want to be punished even more? Israel, your head is already covered with wounds, and your heart and mind are sick 6 From head to foot there is not a healthy spot on your body You are covered with bruises and sores and open wounds Your wounds have not been cleaned or bandaged No ointment has been put on them 7 Your country has been devastated, and your cities have been burnt to the ground While you look on, foreigners take over your land and bring everything to ruin 8 Jerusalem alone is left, a city under siege—as defenceless as a watch-man's hut in a vineyard or a shed in a cucumber field 9 If the LORD Almighty had not let some of the people survive, Jerusalem would have been totally destroyed, just as Sodom and Gomorrah were

Why do you keep on rebelling? (1 5)

10 Jerusalem, your rulers and your people are like those of Sodom and Gomorrah Listen to what the LORD is saying to you Pay attention to what our God is teaching you 11 He says, "Do you think I want all these sacrifices you keep offering to me? I have had more than enough of the sheep you burn as sacrifices and of the fat of your fine animals I am tired of the blood of bulls and sheep and goats 12 Who asked you to bring me all this when you come to worship me? Who asked you to do all this tramping about in my Temple? 13 It's useless to bring your offerings I am disgusted with the smell of the incense you burn I cannot stand your New Moon Festivals, your Sabbaths, and your religious gatherings, they are all corrupted by your sins 14 I hate your New Moon Festivals and holy days, they are a burden that I am tired of bearing 15 "When you lift your hands in prayer,

When you lift your hands in prayer (1 15)

I will not look at you No matter how much you pray, I will not listen, for your hands are covered with blood 16 Wash yourselves clean Stop all this evil that I see you doing Yes, stop doing evil 17 and learn to do right See that justice is done—help those who are oppressed, give orphans their rights, and defend widows " 18 The LORD says, "Now, let's settle the matter You are stained red with sin, but I will wash you as clean as snow [a] Although your stains are deep red, you will be as white as wool [b] 19 If you will only obey me, you will eat the good things the land produces 20 But if you defy me, you are doomed to die I, the LORD, have spoken "

The Sinful City

21 The city that once was faithful is behaving like a whore' At one time it was filled with righteous men, but now only murderers remain 22 Jerusalem, you were once like silver, but now you are worthless, you were like good wine, but now you are only water 23 Your leaders are rebels and friends of thieves, they are always accepting gifts and bribes They never defend orphans in court or listen when widows present their case

24 So now, listen to what the LORD Almighty, Israel's powerful God, is saying "I will take revenge on you, my enemies, and you will cause me no more trouble 25 I will take action against you I will purify you just as metal is refined, and will remove all your impurity 26 I will give you rulers and advisers like those you had long ago Then Jerusalem will be called the righteous, faithful city " 27 Because the LORD is righteous, he will save Jerusalem and everyone there who repents 28 But he will crush everyone who sins and rebels against him, he will kill everyone who forsakes him 29 You will be sorry that you ever worshipped trees and planted sacred gardens [c] 30 You will wither like a dying oak, like a garden that no one waters 31 Just as straw is set on fire by a spark, so powerful men will be destroyed by their own evil deeds, and no one will be able to stop the destruction

Everlasting Peace
(Mic 4 1-3)

2 This is the message which God gave to Isaiah son of Amoz about Judah and Jerusalem

2 In days to come the mountain where the Temple stands will be the highest one of all, towering above all the hills Many nations will come streaming to
it,
3 and their people will say,
"Let us go up the hill of the LORD, [d] to the Temple of Israel's God He will teach us what he wants us to do, we will walk in the paths he has chosen
For the LORD's teaching comes from Jerusalem,
from Zion he speaks to his people "

4 He will settle disputes among great nations
They will hammer their swords into ploughs and their spears into pruning-knives Nations will never again go to war, never prepare for battle again

[a] sin, but snow, or sin, do you think I will wash you as clean as snow?
[b] Although your wool, or Your stains are deep red, do you think you will be as white as wool?
[c] SACRED GARDENS People believed that dedicating a garden to a fertility god would cause him to bless their crops [d] HILL OF THE LORD Mount Zion, the hill in Jerusalem on which the Temple was built
2 4 Joel 3 10

To escape from the LORD's anger (2 19,21)

5 Now, descendants of Jacob, let us walk in the light which the LORD gives us!

Arrogance Will Be Destroyed

6 O God, you have forsaken your people, the descendants of Jacob! The land is full of magic practices from the east and from Philistia [e] The people follow foreign customs 7 Their land is full of silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures Their land is full of horses, and there is no end to their chariots 8 Their land is full of idols, and they worship objects that they have made with their own hands 9 Everyone will be humiliated and disgraced Do not forgive them, LORD!
10 They will hide in caves in the rocky hills or dig holes in the ground to try to escape from the LORD's anger and to hide from his power and glory! 11 A day is coming when human pride will be ended and human arrogance destroyed Then the LORD alone will be exalted 12 On that day the LORD Almighty will humble everyone who is powerful, everyone who is proud and conceited 13 He will destroy the tall cedars of Lebanon and all the oaks in the land of Bashan 14 He will level the high mountains and hills, 15 every high tower, and the walls of every fortress 16 He will sink even the largest and most beautiful ships 17-18 Human pride will be ended, and human arrogance will be destroyed Idols will completely disappear, and the LORD alone will be exalted on that day 19 People will hide in caves in the rocky hills or dig holes in the ground to try
hide from his power and glory, when he comes to shake the earth 20 When that day comes, they will throw away the gold and silver idols they have made, and abandon them to the moles and the bats 21 When the LORD comes to shake the earth, people will hide in holes and caves in the rocky hills to try to escape from his anger and to hide from his power and glory 22 Put no more confidence in mortal men What are they worth?

Chaos in Jerusalem

3 Now the Lord, the Almighty LORD, is about to take away from Jerusalem and Judah everything and everyone that the people depend on He is going to take away their food and their water, 2 their heroes and their soldiers, their judges and their prophets, their fortune-tellers and their statesmen, 3 their military and civilian leaders, their politicians and everyone who uses magic to control events 4 The LORD will let the people be governed by immature boys 5 Everyone will take advantage of everyone else Young people will not respect their elders, and worthless people will not respect their superiors 6 A time will come when the members of a clan will choose one of their number and say to him, "You at least have something to wear, so be our leader in this time of trouble." 7 But he will answer, "Not me! I can't help you. I haven't any food or clothes either. Don't make me your leader!" 8 Yes, Jerusalem is doomed! Judah is collapsing! Everything they say and do is against the LORD; they openly insult God himself. 9 Their prejudices will be held against them. They sin as openly as the people of Sodom did. They are doomed, and they have brought it on themselves.

10 Righteous men will be happy,[f] and things will go well for them. They will be able to enjoy what they have worked for. 11 But evil men are doomed; what they have done to others will now be done to them.
12 Moneylenders oppress my people, and their creditors cheat them.
My people, your leaders are misleading you, so that you do not know which way to turn.

The LORD Judges His People

13 The LORD is ready to state his case; he is ready to judge his people.[g] 14 The LORD is bringing the elders and leaders of his people to judgement. He makes this accusation: "You have plundered vineyards, and your houses are full of what you have taken from the poor. 15 You have no right to crush my people and take advantage of the poor. I, the Sovereign LORD Almighty, have spoken."

A Warning to the Women of Jerusalem

16 The LORD said, "Look how proud the women of Jerusalem are! They walk along with their noses in the air. They are always flirting. They take dainty little steps, and the bracelets on their ankles jingle. 17 But I will punish them—I will shave their heads and leave them bald." 18 A day is coming when the Lord will take away from the women of Jerusalem everything they are so proud of—the ornaments they wear on their ankles, on their heads, on their necks, 19 and on their wrists. He will take away their veils 20 and their hats; the magic charms they wear on their arms and at their waists; 21 the rings they wear on their fingers and in their noses; 22 all their fine robes, gowns, cloaks, and purses; 23 their revealing garments, their linen handkerchiefs, and

With their noses in the air (3.16) the scarves and long veils they wear on their heads.

24 Instead of using perfumes, they will stink; instead of fine belts, they will wear coarse ropes; instead of having beautiful hair, they will be bald; instead of fine clothes, they will be dressed in rags; their beauty will be turned to shame!
25 The men of the city, yes, even the strongest men, will be killed in war. 26 The city gates will mourn and cry, and the city itself will be like a woman sitting on the ground, stripped naked.
4 When that time comes, seven women will grab hold of one man and say, "We can feed and clothe ourselves, but please let us say you are our husband, so that we won't have to endure the shame of being unmarried."

Jerusalem Will Be Restored grow large and beautiful All the people of Israel who survive will take delight and pride in the crops that the land produces [3]Everyone who is left in Jerusalem, whom God has chosen for survival, will be called holy [4]By his power the Lord will judge and purify the nation and wash away the guilt of Jerusalem and the blood that has been shed there [5]Then over Mount Zion and over all who are gathered there, the LORD will send a cloud in the daytime and smoke and a bright flame at night God's glory will cover and protect the whole city [6]His glory will shade the city from the heat of the day and make it a place of safety, sheltered from the rain and storm

The Song of the Vineyard

5 Listen while I sing you this song, a song of my friend and his vineyard My friend had a vineyard on a very fertile hill [2] He dug the soil and cleared it of stones, he planted the finest vines He built a tower to guard them, dug a pit for treading the grapes He waited for the grapes to ripen, but every grape was sour 3 So now my friend says, "You people who live in Jerusalem and Judah, judge between my vineyard and me [4]Is there anything I failed to do for it? Then why did it produce sour grapes and not the good grapes I expected?
5 "This is what I am going to do to my vineyard, I will take away the hedge round it, break down the wall that protects it, and let wild animals eat it and trample it down [6]I will let it be overgrown with weeds I will not prune the vines or hoe the ground, instead I will let briars and thorns cover it I will even forbid the clouds to let rain fall on
it"

[7] Israel is the vineyard of the LORD Almighty,
the people of Judah are the vines he planted
He expected them to do what was good, but instead they committed murder He expected them to do what was right, but their victims cried out for justice

The Evil That Men Do

8 You are doomed! You buy more houses and fields to add to those you already have Soon there will be nowhere for anyone else to live, and you alone will live in the land [9]I have heard the LORD Almighty say, "All these big, fine houses will be empty ruins [10]The grapevines growing on ten hectares of land will yield only eight litres of wine A hundred and eighty litres of seed will produce only eighteen litres of corn" 11 You are doomed! You get up early in the morning to start drinking, and you spend long evenings getting drunk [12]At your feasts you have harps and tambourines and flutes—and wine But you don't understand what the LORD is doing, [13]and so you will be carried away as prisoners Your leaders will starve to death, and the common people will die of thirst [14]The world of the dead is hungry for them, and it opens its mouth wide It gulps down the nobles of Jerusalem along with the noisy crowd of common
15 Everyone will be disgraced, and all who are proud will be humbled [16]But the LORD Almighty shows his greatness by doing what is right, and he reveals his holiness by judging his people [17]In the ruins of the cities lambs will eat grass and young goats will find pasture.[h] 18 You are doomed! You are unable to break free from your sins. 19 You say, "Let the LORD hurry up and do what he says he will, so that we can see it. Let Israel's holy God carry out his plans; let's see what he has in mind." 20 You are doomed! You call evil good and call good evil. You turn darkness into light and light into darkness. You make what is bitter sweet, and what is sweet you make bitter.

21 You are doomed! You think you are wise, so very clever.
22 You are doomed! Heroes of the wine bottle! Brave and fearless when it comes to mixing drinks! 23 But for just a bribe you let guilty men go free, and you prevent the innocent from getting justice. 24 So now, just as straw and dry grass shrivel and burn in the fire, your roots will rot and your blossoms will dry up and blow away, because you have rejected what the LORD Almighty, Israel's holy God, has taught us. 25 The LORD is angry with his people and has stretched out his hand to punish them. The mountains will shake, and the bodies of those who die will be left in the streets like rubbish. Yet even then the LORD's anger will not be ended, but his hand will still be stretched out to punish.
26 The LORD gives a signal to call for a distant nation.[o] He whistles for them to come from the ends of the earth. And here they come, swiftly, quickly! 27 None of them grows tired, none of them stumbles. They never doze or sleep. Not a belt is loose, not a sandal strap is broken. 28 Their arrows are sharp, and their bows are ready to shoot. Their horses' hooves are as hard as flint, and their chariot-wheels turn like a whirlwind.
29 The soldiers roar like lions that have killed an animal and are carrying it off where no one can take it away from them.
30 When that day comes, they will roar over Israel as loudly as the sea. Look at

God Calls Isaiah to Be a Prophet

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord He was sitting on his throne, high and exalted, and his robe filled the whole Temple 2Round him flaming creatures were standing, each of which had six wings Each creature covered its face with two wings, and its body with two, and used the other two for flying 3They were calling out to each other

"Holy, holy, holy!
The LORD Almighty is holy!
His glory fills the world"

4 The sound of their voices made the foundation of the Temple shake, and the Temple itself was filled with smoke 5 I said, "There is no hope for me! I am doomed because every word that passes my lips is sinful, and I live among a people whose every word is sinful And yet, with my own eyes, I have seen the King, the LORD Almighty!" 6 Then one of the creatures flew down to me, carrying a burning coal that he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs 7He touched my lips with the burning coal and said, "This has touched your lips, and now your guilt is gone, and your sins are forgiven" 8 Then I heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will be our messenger?" I answered, "I will go! Send me!" 9 So he told me to go and give the people this message "No matter how much you listen, you will not understand No matter how much you look, you will not know what is happening" 10Then he said to me, "Make the minds of these people dull, their ears deaf, and their eyes blind, so that they cannot see or hear or understand If they did, they might turn to me and be healed" 11 I asked, "How long will it be like this, Lord?"
He answered, "Until the cities are ruined and empty—until the houses are uninhabited—until the land itself is a desolate waste. 12I will send the people far away and make the whole land desolate 13Even if one person out of ten remains in the land, he too will be destroyed, he will be like the stump of an oak-tree that has been cut down" (The stump represents a new beginning for God's people)

A Message for King Ahaz

7 When King Ahaz, the son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah, ruled Judah, war broke out Rezin, king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, attacked Jerusalem, but were unable to capture it 2 When word reached the king of Judah that the armies of Syria were already in the territory of Israel, he and all his people were so terrified that they trembled like trees shaking in the wind 3 The LORD said to Isaiah, "Take your son Shear Jashub,[i] and go to meet King Ahaz You will find him on the road where the cloth makers work, at the end of the ditch that brings water from the upper pool 4Tell him to keep alert, to stay calm, and not to be frightened or disturbed The anger of King Rezin and his Syrians and of King Pekah is no more dangerous than the smoke from two smouldering sticks 5 Syria, together with Israel and its king, has made a plot 6 They intend to invade Judah, terrify the people into joining their side, and then put Tabeel's son on the throne

7 "But I, the LORD, declare that this will never happen 8 Why? Because Syria is no stronger than Damascus, its capital city, and Damascus is no stronger than King Rezin As for Israel, within sixty-five years it will be too shattered to survive as a nation 9 Israel is no stronger than Samaria, its capital city, and Samaria is no stronger than King Pekah

"If your faith is not enduring, you will not endure "

The Sign of Immanuel

10 The LORD sent another message to Ahaz 11 "Ask the LORD your God to give you a sign It can be from deep in the world of the dead or from high up in heaven "

12 Ahaz answered, "I will not ask for a sign I refuse to put the LORD to the test "

13 To that Isaiah replied, "Listen, now, descendant of King David It's bad enough for you to wear out the patience of men—must you wear out God's patience too?
14 Well then, the Lord himself will give you a sign a young woman[x] who is pregnant will have a son and will name him 'Immanuel '[j] 15 By the time he is old enough to make his own decisions, people will be drinking milk and eating honey [k] 16 Even before that time comes, the lands of those two kings who terrify you will be deserted

17 "The LORD is going to bring on you, on your people, and on the whole royal family, days of trouble worse than any that have come since the kingdom of Israel separated from Judah—he is going to bring the king of Assyria

18 "When that time comes, the LORD will whistle as a signal for the Egyptians to come like flies from the farthest branches of the Nile, and for the Assyrians to come from their land like bees 19 They will swarm in the rugged valleys and in the caves in the rocks, and they will cover every thorn-bush and every pasture

20 "When that time comes, the Lord will hire a barber from across the Euphrates—the emperor of Assyria[l]— and he will shave off your beards, and the hair on your heads and your bodies

[x] YOUNG WOMAN The Hebrew word here translated "young woman" is not the specific term for "virgin", but refers to any young woman of marriageable age The use of "virgin" in Mat 1 23 reflects a Greek translation of the Old Testament, made some 500 years after Isaiah

[k] MILK AND HONEY These foods were associated with the earlier days of Israel's history

21 "When that time comes, even if a farmer has been able to save only one young cow and two goats, 22 they will give so much milk that he will have all he needs Yes, the few survivors left in the land will have milk and honey to eat 23 "When that time comes, the fine vineyards, each with a thousand vines and each worth a thousand pieces of silver, will be overgrown with thorn-bushes and briars 24 People will go hunting there with bows and arrows Yes, the whole country will be full of briars and thorn-bushes 25 All the hills where crops used to grow will be so overgrown with thorns that no one will go there It will be a place where cattle and sheep graze"

Isaiah's Son as a Sign to the People

8 The LORD said to me, "Take a large piece of writing material and write on it in large letters[l] 'Quick Loot, Fast Plunder' 2 Get two reliable men, the priest Uriah and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah, to serve as witnesses" 3 Some time later my wife became pregnant When our son was born, the LORD said to me, "Name him 'Quick-Loot-Fast-Plunder' 4 Before the boy is old enough to say 'Mummy' and 'Daddy,' all the wealth of Damascus and all the loot of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria"

The King of Assyria Is Coming

5 The LORD spoke to me again 6 He said, "Because these people have rejected the quiet waters from the brook of Shiloah,[m] and tremble[n] before King Rezin and King Pekah, 7 I, the Lord, will bring the emperor of Assyria and all his forces to attack Judah They will advance like the flood waters of the River Euphrates, overflowing all its banks 8 They will sweep through Judah in a flood, rising shoulder high and covering everything" God is with us! His outspread wings protect the land[o] 9 Gather together in fear, you nations!
Listen, you distant parts of the earth Get ready to fight, but be afraid! Yes, get ready, but be afraid! 10 Make your plans!
But they will never succeed Talk as much as you like! But it is all useless, because God is with us

The LORD Warns the Prophet

11 With his great power the LORD warned me not to follow the path which the people were following He said, 12 "Do not join in the schemes of the people and do not be afraid of the things that they fear 13 Remember that I, the LORD Almighty, am holy, I am the one you must fear 14 Because of my awesome holiness I am like a stone that people stumble over, I am like a trap that will catch the people of the kingdoms of Judah and Israel and the people of Jerusalem 15 Many will stumble, they will fall and be crushed.
They will be caught in a trap"

Warning against Consulting the Dead 16 You, my disciples are to guard and preserve the messages that God has given me 17 The LORD has hidden himself from his people, but I trust him and place my hope in him 18 Here I am with the children the LORD has given me The LORD Almighty, whose throne is on Mount Zion, has sent us as living messages to the people of Israel 19 But people will tell you to ask for messages from fortune-tellers and mediums, who chirp and mutter They will say, "After all, people should ask for messages from the spirits and consult the dead on behalf of the living" 20 You are to answer them, "Listen to what the LORD is teaching you! Don't listen to mediums—what they tell you will do you no good"[p]

A Time of Trouble

21 The people will wander through the land, discouraged and hungry In their hunger and their anger they will curse their king and their God They may look up to the sky 22 or stare at the ground, but they will see nothing but trouble and darkness, terrifying darkness into which 9 they are being driven 1 There will be no way for them to escape from this time of trouble

2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light They lived in a land of shadows, but now light is shining on them 3 You have given them great joy,[q] LORD, you have made them happy They rejoice in what you have done, as people rejoice when they harvest their corn or when they divide captured wealth 4 For you have broken the yoke that burdened them and the rod that beat their shoulders You have defeated the nation that oppressed and exploited your
people, just as you defeated the army of Midian long ago 5 The boots of the invading army will be destroyed by fire

The LORD Will Punish Israel

8 The Lord has pronounced judgement on the kingdom of Israel, on the descendants of Jacob 9 All the people of Israel, everyone who lives in the city of Samaria, will know that he has done this Now they are proud and arrogant They say, 10 "The brick buildings have fallen down, but we will replace them with stone buildings The beams of sycomore wood have been cut down, but we will replace them with the finest cedar " 11 The LORD has stirred up their enemies[s] to attack them 12 Syria on the east and Philistia on the west have opened their mouths to devour Israel Yet even so the LORD's anger is not ended, his hand is still stretched out to punish 13 The people of Israel have not repented, even though the LORD Almighty has punished them, they have not returned to him 14 In a single day the LORD will punish Israel's leaders and its people, he will cut them off, head and tail 15 The old and honourable men are the head—and the tail is the prophets whose teachings are lies!
16 Those who lead these people have misled them and totally confused them 17 And so the Lord will not let any of the young men escape, and he will not show pity to any of the widows and orphans, because all the people are godless and wicked and everything they say is evil Yet even so the LORD's anger will not be ended, but his hand will still be stretched out to punish 18 The wickedness of the people burns

Like a forest fire (9 18) like a fire that destroys thorn-bushes and thistles It burns like a forest fire that sends up columns of smoke 19 Because the LORD Almighty is angry, his punishment burns like a fire throughout the land and destroys the people, and it is every man for himself 20 Everywhere in the country people snatch and eat any bit of food they can find, but their hunger is never satisfied They even eat their own children! 21 The people of Manasseh and the people of Ephraim attack each other, and together they attack Judah Yet even so the LORD's anger is not ended, his hand

10 You are doomed! You make unjust laws that oppress my people 2 That is how you prevent the poor from having their rights and from getting justice That is how you take the property that belongs to widows and orphans 3 What will you do when God punishes you? What will you do when he brings disaster on you from a distant country?
Where will you run to find help? Where will you hide your wealth? 4 You will be killed in battle or dragged off as prisoners Yet even so the LORD's anger will not be ended, his hand will still be stretched out to punish

The Emperor of Assyria as the Instrument of God

5 The LORD said, "Assyria! I use Assyria like a club to punish those with whom I am angry 6 I sent Assyria to attack a godless nation, people who have made me angry I sent them to loot and steal and trample on the people like dirt in the streets "

7 But the Assyrian emperor has his own violent plans in mind He is determined to destroy many nations 8 He boasts, "Every one of my commanders is a king!
9 I conquered the cities of Calno and Carchemish, the cities of Hamath and Arpad I conquered Samaria and Damascus 10 I stretched out my hand to punish those kingdoms that worship idols, idols more numerous than those of Jerusalem and Samaria 11 I have destroyed Samaria and all its idols, and I will do the same to Jerusalem and the images that are worshipped there "

12 But the Lord says, "When I finish what I am doing on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, I will punish the emperor of Assyria for all his boasting and all his pride "

13 The emperor of Assyria boasts, "I have done it all myself I am strong and wise and clever I wiped out the boundaries between nations and took the supplies they had stored Like a bull I have trampled on the people who live there 14 The nations of the world were like a bird's nest, and I gathered their wealth as easily as gathering eggs Not a wing fluttered to scare me off, no beak opened to scream at me!"

15 But the LORD says, "Can an axe claim to be greater than the man who uses it?
Is a saw more important than the man who saws with it? A club doesn't lift up a man, a man lifts up a club "

16 The LORD Almighty is going to send disease to punish those who are now well-fed In their bodies there will be a fire that burns and burns 17 God, the light of Israel, will become a fire Israel's holy God will become a flame, which in a single day will burn up everything, even the thorns and thistles 18 The rich forests and farmlands will be totally destroyed, in the same way that a fatal sickness destroys a man 19 There will be so few trees left that even a child will be able to count them

A Few Will Come Back

20 A time is coming when the people

10 5-34 Is 14 24-27, Nah 1 1-3 19, Zeph 2 13-15 of Israel who have survived will no longer rely on the nation that almost destroyed them They will truly put their trust in the LORD, Israel's holy God 21 A few of the people of Israel will come back to their mighty God 22 Even though now there are as many people of Israel as there are grains of sand by the sea, only a few will come back Destruction is in store for the people, and it is fully deserved 23 Yes, throughout the whole country the Sovereign LORD Almighty will bring destruction, as he said he would

The LORD Will Punish Assyria

24 The Sovereign LORD Almighty says to his people who live in Zion, "Do not be afraid of the Assyrians, even though they oppress you as the Egyptians used to do 25 In only a little while I will finish punishing you, and then I will destroy them 26 I, the LORD Almighty, will beat them with my whip as I beat the people of Midian at the Rock of Oreb I will punish Assyria as I punished Egypt 27 When that time comes, I will free you from the power of Assyria, and their yoke will no longer be a burden on your shoulders "[s]

The Invader Attacks

28 The enemy army has captured the city of Ai![t] They have passed through Migron! They left their supplies at Michmash! 29 They have crossed the pass and are spending the night at Geba! The people in the town of Ramah are terrified, and the people in King Saul's town of Gibeah have run away 30 Shout, people of Gallim! Listen, people of Laishah!
Answer, people of Anathoth! 31 The people of Madmenah and Gebim are running for their lives 32 Today the enemy are in the town of Nob, and there they are shaking their fists at Mount Zion, at the city of Jerusalem 33 The LORD Almighty will bring them crashing down like branches cut off a tree The proudest and highest of them will be cut down and humiliated 34 The LORD will cut them down as trees in the heart of the forest are cut down with an axe, as even the finest trees of Lebanon fall!

The Peaceful Kingdom

11 The royal line of David is like a tree that has been cut down, but just as new branches sprout from a stump, so a new king will arise from among David's descendants

2 The spirit of the LORD will give him wisdom,
and the knowledge and skill to rule
his people
He will know the LORD's will and honour
him,
3 and find pleasure in obeying him He will not judge by appearance or hearsay, 4 he will judge the poor fairly and defend the rights of the helpless At his command the people will be punished,
and evil persons will die 5 He will rule his people with justice and integrity

6 Wolves and sheep will live together in peace,
and leopards will lie down with young goats Calves and lion cubs will feed[u] together, and little children will take care of
7 Cows and bears will eat together, and their calves and cubs will lie down in peace
Lions will eat straw as cattle do 8 Even a baby will not be harmed if it plays near a poisonous snake 9 On Zion, God's sacred hill, there will be nothing harmful or evil The land will be as full of knowledge of the LORD
as the seas are full of water

The Exiled People Will Return

10 A day is coming when the new king from the royal line of David will be a symbol to the nations They will gather in his royal city and give him honour 11 When that day comes, the Lord will once again use his power and bring back home those of his people who are left in Assyria and Egypt, in the lands of Pathros, Sudan, Elam, Babylonia, and Hamath, and in the coastlands and on the islands of the sea 12 The LORD will not be jealous of Judah any more, and Hymn of Thanksgiving

12 A day is coming when people will sing,
"I praise you, LORD! You were angry with me, but now you comfort me and are angry no longer [2] God is my saviour, I will trust him and not be afraid The LORD gives me power and strength, he is my saviour.
[3] As fresh water brings joy to the thirsty, so God's people rejoice when he saves them "

[4] A day is coming when people will sing,
"Give thanks to the LORD! Call for him to help you!
Tell all the nations what he has done!
Tell them how great he is!
[5] Sing to the LORD because of the great things he has done Let the whole world hear the news [6] Let everyone who lives in Zion shout and sing!
Israel's holy God is great, and he lives among his people "

Tell them how great he is! (12 4)

God Will Punish Babylon

13 This is a message about Babylon, which Isaiah son of Amoz received from God
2 On the top of a barren hill raise the battle flag! Shout to the soldiers and raise your arm as the signal for them to attack the gates of the proud city 3 The LORD has called out his proud and confident soldiers to fight a holy war and punish those he is angry with 4 Listen to the noise on the mountains—the sound of a great crowd of people, the sound of nations and kingdoms gathering The LORD of Armies is preparing his troops for battle 5 They are coming from far-off countries at the ends of the earth In his anger the LORD is coming to devastate the whole country 6 Howl in pain! The day of the LORD is near, the day when the Almighty brings destruction 7 Everyone's hands will hang limp, and everyone's courage will fail 8 They will all be terrified and overcome with pain, like the pain of a woman in labour They will look at each other in fear, and their faces will burn with shame 9 The day of the LORD is coming—that cruel day of his fierce anger and fury The earth will be made a wilderness, and every sinner will be destroyed 10 Every star and every constellation will stop shining, the sun will be dark when it rises, and the moon will give no light 11 The LORD says, "I will bring disaster on the earth and punish all wicked people for their sins I will humble everyone who is proud and punish everyone who is arrogant and cruel 12 Those who survive will be scarcer than gold 13 I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place on that day when I, the LORD Almighty, show my anger 14 "The foreigners living in Babylon will run away to their own countries, scattering like deer escaping from hunters, like sheep without a shepherd 15 Anyone who is caught will be stabbed to death 16 While they look on helplessly, their babies will be battered to death, their houses will be looted, and their wives will be raped " 17 The LORD says, "I am stirring up the Medes[v] to attack Babylon. They care nothing for silver and are not tempted by gold 18 With their bows and arrows they will kill the young men They will show no mercy to babies and take no pity on children 19 Babylonia is the most beautiful kingdom of all, it is the pride of its people But I, the LORD, will overthrow Babylon as I did Sodom and Gomorrah! 20 No one will ever live there again No wandering Arab will ever pitch his tent there, and no shepherd will ever pasture his flock there 21 It will be a place where desert animals live and where owls build their nests Ostriches will live there, and wild goats will prance through the ruins 22 The towers and palaces will echo with the cries of hyenas and jackals Babylon's time has come! Her days are almost over."

The Return from Exile

14 The LORD will once again be merciful to his people Israel and choose them as his own He will let them live in their own land again, and foreigners will come and live there with them 2 Many nations will help the people of Israel to return to the land which the LORD gave them, and there the nations will serve Israel as slaves Those who once captured Israel will now be captured by Israel, and the people of Israel will rule over those who once oppressed them

The King of Babylonia in the World of the Dead

3 The LORD will give the people of Israel relief from their pain and suffering, and from the hard work they were forced to do 4 When he does this, they are to mock the king of Babylonia and say "The cruel king has fallen! He will never oppress anyone again! 5 The LORD has ended the power of the evil rulers 6 who angrily oppressed the peoples and never stopped persecuting the nations they had conquered 7 Now at last the whole world enjoys rest and peace, and everyone sings for joy 8 The cypress-trees and the cedars of Lebanon rejoice over the fallen king, because there is no one to cut them down, now that he is gone!
9 "The world of the dead is getting ready to welcome the king of Babylonia The ghosts of those who were powerful on earth are stirring about The ghosts of kings are rising from their thrones

The people of Moab wail in grief (15.2) 10 They all call out to him, 'Now you are as weak as we are! You are one of us!

11 You used to be honoured with the music of harps, but now here you are in the world of the dead. You lie on a bed of maggots and are covered with a blanket of worms.' 12 "King of Babylonia, bright morning star, you have fallen from heaven! In the past you conquered nations, but now you have been thrown to the ground. 13 You were determined to climb up to heaven and to place your throne above the highest stars. You thought you would sit like a king on that mountain in the north where the gods assemble. 14 You said you would climb to the tops of the clouds and be like the Almighty. 15 But instead, you have been brought down to the deepest part of the world of the dead.
16 "The dead will stare and gape at you.
They will ask, 'Is this the man who shook the earth and made kingdoms tremble?
17 Is this the man who destroyed cities and turned the world into a desert? Is this the man who never freed his prisoners or let them go home?' 18 All the kings of the earth lie in their magnificent tombs, 19 but you have no tomb, and your corpse is thrown out to rot. It is covered by the bodies of soldiers killed in battle, thrown with them into a rocky pit, and trampled down. 20 Because you ruined your country and killed your own people, you will not be buried like other kings. None of your evil family will survive. 21 Let the slaughter begin! The sons of this king will die because of their ancestors' sins.
None of them will ever rule the earth or cover it with cities."

God Will Destroy Babylon

22 The LORD Almighty says, "I will attack Babylon and bring it to ruin. I will leave nothing—no children, no survivors at all. I, the LORD, have spoken. 23 I will turn Babylon into a marsh, and owls will live there. I will sweep Babylon with a broom that will sweep everything away.
I, the LORD Almighty, have spoken."

God Will Destroy the Assyrians

24 The LORD Almighty has sworn an oath: "What I have planned will happen.

Trying to escape with all their possessions (15 7)

What I have determined to do will be done 25 I will destroy the Assyrians in my land of Israel and trample upon them on my mountains I will free my people from the Assyrian yoke and from the burdens they have had to bear 26 This is my plan for the world, and my arm is stretched out to punish the nations" 27 The LORD Almighty is determined to do this, he has stretched out his arm to punish, and no one can stop him

God Will Destroy the Philistines

28 This is a message that was proclaimed in the year that King Ahaz died 29 People of Philistia, the rod that beat you is broken, but you have no reason to be glad When one snake dies, a worse one comes in its place A snake's egg hatches a flying dragon 30 The LORD will be a shepherd to the poor of his people and will let them live in safety But he will send a terrible famine on you Philistines, and it will not leave any of you alive

31 Howl and cry for help, all you Philistine cities! Be terrified, all of you!
A cloud of dust is coming from the north—it is an army with no cowards in its ranks 32 How shall we answer the messengers that come to us from Philistia? We will tell them that the LORD has established Zion and that his suffering people will find safety there

God Will Destroy Moab

15 This is a message about Moab The cities of Ar and Kir are destroyed in a single night, and silence covers the land of Moab 2 The people of Dibon[w] climb the hill to weep at the shrine The people of Moab wail in grief over the cities of Nebo and Medeba, they have shaved their heads and their beards in grief 3 The people in the streets are dressed in sackcloth, in the city squares and on the house-tops people mourn and cry 4 The people of Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, and their cry can be heard as far away as Jahaz Even the soldiers tremble, their courage is gone 5 My heart cries out for Moab! The people have fled to the town of Zoar, and to Eglath Shelishiyah Some climb the road to Luhith, weeping as they go, some escape to Horonaim, grieving loudly 6 The brook of Nimrim is dry, the grass beside it has withered, and nothing green is left 7 The people go across the Valley of Willows, trying to escape with all their possessions 8 Everywhere at Moab's borders the sound of crying is heard It is heard at the towns of Eglaim and Beerelim 9 At the town of Dibon the river is red with blood, and God has something even worse in store for the people there Yes, there will be a bloody slaughter of everyone left in Moab

Moab's Hopeless Situation

16 From the city of Sela in the desert the people of Moab send a lamb as a present to the one who rules in Jerusalem 2 They wait on the banks of the River Arnon and move aimlessly to and fro, like birds driven from their nest 3 They say to the people of Judah, "Tell us what to do Protect us like a tree that casts a cool shadow in the heat of noon, and let us rest in your shade We are refugees, hide us where no one can find us 4 Let us stay in your land Protect us from those who want to destroy us " (Oppression and destruction will end, and those who are devastating the country will be gone 5 Then one of David's descendants will be king, and he will rule the people with faithfulness and love He will be quick to do what is right, and he will see that justice is done) 6 The people of Judah say, "We have heard how proud the people of Moab are We know that they are arrogant and conceited, but their boasts are empty " 7 The people of Moab will weep because of the troubles they suffer They will all weep when they remember the fine food they used to eat in the city of Kir Heres They will be driven to despair 8 The farms near Heshbon and the vineyards of Sibmah are destroyed—those vineyards whose wine used to make the rulers of the nations drunk At one time the vines spread as far as the city of Jazer, and eastwards into the desert, and westwards to the other side of the Dead Sea 9 Now I weep for Sibmah's vines as I weep for Jazer My tears fall for Heshbon and Elealeh, because there is no harvest to make the people glad 10 No one is happy now in the fertile fields No one shouts or sings in the vineyards No one tramples grapes to make wine, the shouts of joy are ended [y] 11 I groan with sadness for Moab, with grief for Kir Heres 12 The people of Moab wear themselves out going to their mountain shrines and to their temples to pray, but it will do them no good 13 That is the message the LORD gave earlier about Moab 14 And now the LORD says, "In exactly three years Moab's great wealth will disappear Of its many people, only a few will survive, and they will be weak "

God Will Punish Syria and Israel

17 The LORD said, "Damascus will not be a city any longer, it will be only a pile of ruins 2 The cities of Syria will be deserted for ever [z] They will be a pasture for sheep and cattle, and no one will drive them away 3 Israel will be defenceless, and Damascus will lose its independence Those Syrians who survive will be in disgrace like the people of Israel I, the LORD Almighty, have spoken " 4 The LORD said, "A day is coming when Israel's greatness will come to an end, and its wealth will be replaced by poverty 5 Israel will be like a field where the corn has been cut and harvested, as desolate as a field in the valley of Rephaim when it has been picked bare 6 Only a few

Israel will be like an olive-tree (17 6) people will survive, and Israel will be like an olive-tree from which all the olives have been picked except two or three at the very top, or a few that are left on the lower branches I, the LORD God of Israel, have spoken " 7 When that day comes, people will turn for help to their Creator, the holy God of Israel 8 They will no longer rely on the altars they made with their own hands, or trust in their own handiwork—symbols of the goddess Asherah and altars for burning incense 9 When that day comes, well-defended cities will be deserted and left in ruins like the cities that the Hivites and the who rescues you and who protects you like a mighty rock Instead, you plant sacred gardens[b] in order to worship a foreign god 11 But even if they sprouted and blossomed the very morning you planted them, there would still be no harvest. There would be only trouble and incurable pain

Enemy Nations Are Defeated

12 Powerful nations are in commotion with a sound like the roar of the sea, like the crashing of huge waves 13 The nations advance like rushing waves, but God reprimands them and they retreat, driven away like dust on a hillside, like straw in a whirlwind 14 In the evening they cause terror, but by morning they are gone That is the fate of everyone who plunders our land

God Will Punish Sudan

18 Beyond the rivers of Sudan there is a land where the sound of wings is heard 2 From that land ambassadors come down the Nile in boats made of reeds Go back home, swift messengers!
Take a message back to your land divided by rivers, to your strong and powerful nation, to your tall and smooth-skinned people, who are feared all over the world 3 Listen, everyone who lives on earth!
Look for a signal flag to be raised on the tops of the mountains! Listen for the blowing of the bugle! 4 The LORD said to me, "I will look down from heaven as quietly as the dew forms in the warm nights of harvest time, as serenely as the sun shines in the heat of the day 5 Before the grapes are gathered, when the blossoms have all fallen and the grapes are ripening, the enemy will destroy the Sudanese as easily as a knife cuts branches from a vine 6 The corpses of their soldiers will be left exposed to the birds and the wild animals In summer the birds will feed on them, and in winter, the animals "
7 A time is coming when the LORD Almighty will receive offerings from this land divided by rivers, this strong and powerful nation, this tall and smooth-skinned people, who are feared all over the world They will come to Mount Zion, where the LORD Almighty is worshipped

God Will Punish Egypt

19 This is a message about Egypt The LORD is coming to Egypt, riding swiftly on a cloud The Egyptian idols tremble before him, and the people of Egypt lose their courage 2 The LORD says, "I will stir up civil war in Egypt and turn brother against brother and neighbour against neighbour Rival cities will fight each other, and rival kings will struggle for power 3 I am going to frustrate the plans of the Egyptians and destroy their morale They will ask their idols to help them, and they will go and consult mediums and ask the spirits of the dead for advice 4 I will hand the Egyptians over to a tyrant, to a cruel king who will rule them I, the LORD Almighty, have spoken "
5 The water will be low in the Nile, and the river will gradually dry up 6 The channels of the river will stink as they slowly go dry Reeds and rushes will wither, 7 and all the crops sown along the banks of the Nile will dry up and be blown away 8 Everyone who earns his living by fishing in the Nile will groan and cry; their hooks and their nets will be useless 9 Those who make linen cloth will be in despair, 10 weavers and skilled workmen will be broken and depressed 11 The leaders of the city of Zoan are fools! Egypt's wisest men give stupid advice! How dare they tell the king that they are successors to the ancient scholars and kings? 12 King of Egypt, where are those clever advisers of yours?
Perhaps they can tell you what plans the LORD Almighty has for Egypt. 13 The leaders of Zoan and Memphis are fools They were supposed to lead the nation, but they have misled it. 14 The LORD has made them give confusing advice As a result, Egypt does everything wrong and staggers like a drunken man slipping on his own vomit 15 No one in Egypt, rich or poor, important or unknown, can offer help

Egypt Will Worship the LORD

16 A time is coming when the people of Egypt will be as timid as women. They will tremble in terror when they see that the LORD Almighty has stretched out his hand to punish them 17 The people of Egypt will be terrified of Judah every time they are reminded of the fate that the

Their hooks and their nets will be useless (19 8)

LORD Almighty has prepared for them 18 When that time comes, the Hebrew language will be spoken in five Egyptian cities The people there will take their oaths in the name of the LORD Almighty One of the cities will be called, "City of the Sun"
19 When that time comes, there will be an altar to the LORD in the land of Egypt and a stone pillar dedicated to him at the Egyptian border 20 They will be symbols of the LORD Almighty's presence in Egypt When the people there are oppressed and call out to the LORD for help, he will send someone to rescue them 21 The LORD will reveal himself to the Egyptian people, and then they will acknowledge and worship him, and bring him sacrifices and offerings They will make solemn promises to him and do what they promise 22 The LORD will punish the Egyptians, but then he will heal them They will turn to him, and he will hear their prayers and heal them 23 When that time comes, there will be a highway between Egypt and Assyria.
The people of those two countries will travel to and fro between them, and the two nations will worship together 24 When that time comes, Israel will rank with Egypt and Assyria, and these three nations will be a blessing to all the world 25 The LORD Almighty will bless them and say, "I will bless you, Egypt, my people, you, Assyria, whom I created, and you, Israel, my chosen people"

The Sign of the Naked Prophet

20 Under the orders of Sargon, emperor of Assyria, the commander-in-chief of the Assyrian army attacked the Philistine city of Ashdod 2 Three years earlier the LORD had told Isaiah son of Amoz to take off his sandals and the sackcloth he was wearing He obeyed and went about naked and barefoot 3 When Ashdod was captured, the LORD said, "My servant Isaiah has been going about naked and barefoot for three years This is a sign of what will happen to Egypt and Sudan 4 The emperor of Assyria will lead away naked the prisoners he captures from those two countries Young and old, they will walk barefoot and naked, with their buttocks exposed, bringing shame on Egypt 5 Those who have put their trust in Sudan and have boasted about Egypt will be disillusioned, their hopes shattered 6 When that time comes, the people who live along the coast of Philistia will say, 'Look at what has happened to the people we relied on to protect us from the emperor of Assyria! How will we ever survive?'"

A Vision of the Fall of Babylon

21 This is a message about Babylonia Like a whirlwind sweeping across the desert, disaster will come from a terrifying land 2 I have seen a vision of cruel events, a vision of betrayal and destruction Army of Elam, attack! Army of Media, lay siege to the cities! God will put an end to the suffering which Babylon has caused 3 What I saw and heard in the vision has filled me with terror and pain, pain like that of a woman in labour 4 My head is spinning, and I am trembling with fear I had been longing for evening to come, but it has brought me nothing but terror 5 In the vision a banquet is ready, rugs are spread for the guests to sit on They are eating and drinking Suddenly the command rings out "Officers! Prepare your shields!" 6 Then the Lord said to me, "Go and post a sentry, and tell him to report what he sees 7 If he sees men coming on horseback, two by two, and men riding on donkeys and camels, he is to observe them carefully " 8 The sentry calls out, "Sir, I have been standing guard at my post day and night " 9 Suddenly, here they come! Men on horseback, two by two The sentry gives the news, "Babylon has fallen! All the idols they worshipped lie shattered on the ground " 10 My people Israel, you have been threshed like wheat, but now I have announced to you the good news that I have heard from the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel

A Message about Edom

11 This is a message about Edom Someone calls to me from Edom, "Sentry, how soon will the night be over?
Tell me how soon it will end " 12 I answer, "Morning is coming, but night will come again If you want to ask again, come back and ask "

A Message about Arabia

13 This is a message about Arabia You people of Dedan, whose caravans camp in the barren country of Arabia, 14 give water to the thirsty people who come to you You people of the land of Tema, give food to the refugees 15 People are fleeing to escape from swords that are ready to kill them, from bows that are ready to shoot, from all the dangers of war 16 Then the Lord said to me, "In exactly one year the greatness of the tribes of Kedar will be at an end 17 The bowmen are the bravest men of Kedar, but few of them will be left I, the LORD God of Israel, have spoken "

A Message about Jerusalem

22 This is a message about the Valley of Vision What is happening? Why are all the people of the city celebrating on the roofs of the houses? 2 The whole city is in an uproar, filled with noise and excitement Your men who died in this war did not die fighting 3 All your leaders ran away and were captured before they shot a single arrow 4 Now leave me alone to weep bitterly over all those of my people who have died Don't try to comfort me 5 This is a time of panic, defeat, and confusion in the Valley of Vision, and the Sovereign LORD Almighty has sent it on us The walls of our city have been battered down, and cries for help have echoed among the hills 6 The soldiers from the land of Elam came riding on horseback, armed with bows and arrows Soldiers from the land of Kir had their shields ready 7 The fertile valleys of Judah were filled with chariots, soldiers on horseback stood in front of Jerusalem's gates 8 All Judah's defences crumbled When that happened, you brought weapons out of the arsenal 9-10 You found the places where the walls of Jerusalem needed repair You inspected all the houses in Jerusalem and tore some of them down to get stones to repair the city walls In order to store water, 11 you built a reservoir inside the city to hold the water flowing down from the old pool But you paid no attention to God, who planned all this long ago and who caused it to happen 12 The Sovereign LORD Almighty was calling you then to weep and mourn, to shave your heads and wear sackcloth 13 Instead, you laughed and celebrated You killed sheep and cattle to eat, and you drank wine You said, "We might as well eat and drink! Tomorrow we'll be dead "
14 The Sovereign LORD Almighty himself spoke to me and said, "This evil will never be forgiven them as long as they live I, the Sovereign LORD Almighty, have
spoken "

A Warning to Shebna

15 The Sovereign LORD Almighty told me to go to Shebna, the manager of the royal household, and say to him, 16 "Who do you think you are? What right have you to carve a tomb for yourself out of the rocky hillside? 17 You may be important, but the LORD will pick you up and throw you away 18 He will pick you up like a ball and throw you into a much larger country You will die there beside the chariots you were so proud of You are a disgrace to your master's household

21 9 Rev 14 8, 18 2   22 13 1 Cor 15 32

19 The LORD will remove you from office and bring you down from your high position" 20 The LORD said to Shebna, "When that happens, I will send for my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah 21 I will put your official robe and belt on him and give him all the authority you have had He will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah 22 I will give him complete authority under the king, the descendant of David He will have the keys of office, what he opens, no one will shut, and what he shuts, no one will open 23 I will fasten him firmly in place like a peg, and he will be a source of honour to his whole family 24 "But all his relatives and dependants will become a burden to him They will hang on him like pots and bowls hanging from a peg! 25 When that happens, the peg that was firmly fastened will work loose and fall And that will be the end of everything that was hanging on it"
The LORD has spoken

A Message about Phoenicia

23 This is a message about Tyre Howl with grief, you sailors out on the ocean! Your home port of Tyre has been destroyed, its houses and its harbour are in ruins As your ships return from Cyprus, you learn the news 2 Wail, you merchants of Sidon! You sent men 3 across the sea to buy and sell the corn that grew in Egypt and to do business with all the nations 4 City of Sidon, you are disgraced! The sea and the great ocean depths disown you and say, "I never had any children I never brought up sons or daughters" 5 Even the Egyptians will be shocked and dismayed when they learn that Tyre has been destroyed 6 Howl with grief, you people of Phoenicia! Try to escape to Spain! 7 Can this be the joyful city of Tyre, founded so long ago? Is this the city that sent settlers across the sea to establish colonies? 8 Who was it that planned to bring all this on Tyre, that imperial city, whose merchant princes were the most honoured men on earth? 9 The LORD Almighty planned it He planned it in order to put an end to their pride in what they had done and to humiliate their honoured men 10 Go and farm the land, you people in the colonies in Spain! There is no one to protect you any more [c] 11 The LORD has stretched out his hand over the sea and overthrown kingdoms He has ordered the Phoenician centres of commerce to be destroyed 12 City of Sidon, your happiness has ended, and your people are oppressed Even if they escape to Cyprus, they will still not be safe 13 (It was the Babylonians, not the Assyrians, who let the wild animals overrun Tyre It was the Babylonians who put up siege-towers, tore down the fortifications of Tyre, and left the city in ruins [d]) 14 Howl with grief, you sailors out on the ocean! The city you relied on has been destroyed 15 A time is coming when Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the lifetime of a king When those years are over, Tyre will be like the prostitute in the song 16 Take your harp, go round the town, you poor forgotten whore!
Play and sing your songs again to bring men back once more 17 When the seventy years are over, the LORD will let Tyre go back to her old trade, and she will hire herself out to all the kingdoms of the world 18 The money she earns by commerce will be dedicated to the LORD She will not store it away, but those who worship the LORD will use her money to buy the food and the clothing they need

The LORD Will Punish the Earth

24 The LORD is going to devastate the earth and leave it desolate He will twist the earth's surface and scatter its people. 2 Everyone will meet the same fate—the priests and the people, slaves and masters, buyers and sellers, lenders and borrowers, rich and poor 3 The earth will lie shattered and ruined The LORD has spoken and it will be done 4 The earth dries up and withers, the whole world grows weak; both earth and sky decay 5 The people have defiled the earth by breaking God's laws and by violating the covenant he made to last for ever 6 So God has pronounced a curse on the earth Its people are paying for what they have done Fewer and fewer remain alive 7 The grapevines wither, and wine is becoming scarce Everyone who was once happy is now sad, 8 and the joyful music of their harps and drums has ceased 9 There is no more happy singing over wine, no one enjoys its taste any more 10 In the city everything is in chaos, and people lock themselves in their houses for safety 11 People shout in the streets because there is no more wine Happiness is gone for ever, it has been banished from the land 12 The city is in ruins, and its gates have been broken down 13 This is what will happen in every nation all over the world It will be like the end of harvest, when the olives have been beaten off every tree and the last grapes picked from the vines

14 Those who survive will sing for joy Those in the west will tell how great the LORD is, 15 and those in the east will praise him The people who live along the sea will praise the LORD, the God of Israel 16 From the most distant parts of the world we will hear songs in praise of Israel, the righteous nation

But there is no hope for me! I am wasting away! Traitors continue to betray, and their treachery grows worse and worse 17 Listen to me, everyone! There are terrors, pits, and traps waiting for you 18 Anyone who tries to escape from the terror will fall into a pit, and anyone who escapes from the pit will be caught in a trap Torrents of rain will pour from the sky, and earth's foundations will shake 19 The earth will crack and shatter and split open 20 The earth itself will stagger like a drunken man and sway like a hut in a storm The world is weighed down by its sins; it will collapse and never rise again

21 A time is coming when the LORD will punish the powers above and the rulers of the earth 22 God will crowd kings together like prisoners in a pit He will shut them in prison until the time of their punishment comes 23 The moon will grow dark, and the sun will no longer shine, for the LORD Almighty will be king He will rule in Jerusalem on Mount Zion, and the leaders of the people will see his glory

A Hymn of Praise

25 LORD, you are my God, I will honour you and praise your name
You have done amazing things, you have faithfully carried out the plans you made long ago

Kings like prisoners in a pit (24 22)

2 You have turned cities into ruins and destroyed their fortifications The palaces which our enemies built are gone for ever 3 The people of powerful nations will praise you, you will be feared in the cities of cruel
nations 4 The poor and the helpless have fled to
you
and have been safe in times of trouble You give them shelter from storms and shade from the burning heat.
Cruel men attack like a winter storm,[e] 5 like drought in a dry land But you, LORD, have silenced our
enemies,
you silence the shouts of cruel men, as a cloud cools a hot day.

God Prepares a Banquet

6 Here on Mount Zion the LORD Almighty will prepare a banquet for all the nations of the world—a banquet of the richest food and the finest wine 7 Here he will suddenly remove the cloud of sorrow that has been hanging over all the nations 8 The Sovereign LORD will destroy death for ever! He will wipe away the tears from everyone's eyes and take away the disgrace his people have suffered throughout the world The LORD himself has spoken!

9 When it happens, everyone will say, "He is our God! We have put our trust in him, and he has rescued us He is the LORD! We have put our trust in him, and [e] Probable text winter storm, Hebrew storm against a wall 25 8 1 Cor 15 54, Rev 7 17, 21 4 now we are happy and joyful because he has saved us "

God Will Punish Moab

10 The LORD will protect Mount Zion, but the people of Moab will be trampled down, just as straw is trampled in manure 11 They will stretch out their hands as if they were trying to swim, but God will humiliate them, and their hands will sink helplessly 12 He will destroy the fortresses of Moab with their high walls and bring them tumbling down into the dust

God Will Give His People Victory

26 A day is coming when the people will sing this song in the land of Judah

Our city is strong!
God himself defends its walls!
2 Open the city gates and let the faithful nation enter, the nation whose people do what is right 3 You, LORD, give perfect peace to those who keep their purpose firm and put their trust in you 4 Trust in the LORD for ever, he will always protect us 5 He has humbled those who were proud, he destroyed the strong city they lived in,
and sent its walls crashing into the dust 6 Those who were oppressed walk over it now and trample it under their feet

7 LORD, you make the path smooth for good men, the road they travel is level 8 We follow your will and put our hope in you, you are all that we desire 9 At night I long for you with all my heart, when you judge the earth and its people, they will all learn what justice is 10 Even though you are kind to wicked men, they never learn to do what is right Even here in a land of righteous people they still do wrong, they refuse to recognize your greatness 11 Your enemies do not know that you will punish them LORD, put them to shame and let them suffer, let them suffer the punishment you have prepared Show them how much you love your people 12 You will give us prosperity, LORD, everything that we achieve is the result of what you do [f] 13 LORD our God, we have been ruled by others, but you alone are our LORD 14 Now they are dead and will not live again, their ghosts will not rise, for you have punished them and destroyed them No one remembers them any more 15 LORD, you have made our nation grow, enlarging its territory on every side, and this has brought you honour 16 You punished your people, LORD, and in anguish they prayed to you [g] 17 You, LORD, have made us cry out, as a woman in labour cries out in pain 18 We were in pain and agony, but we gave birth to nothing We have won no victory for our land, we have accomplished nothing [h] 19 Those of our people who have died will live again!

Their bodies will come back to life All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the LORD will revive those who have long been dead

Judgement and Restoration

20 Go into your houses, my people, and shut the door behind you Hide yourselves for a little while until God's anger is over 21 The LORD is coming from his heavenly dwelling-place to punish the people of the earth for their sins The murders that were secretly committed on the earth will be revealed, and the ground will no longer hide those who have been killed

[f] everything that do, or you treat us according to what we do

The fortified city lies in ruins (27 10) 27 On that day the LORD will use his powerful and deadly sword to punish Leviathan, that wriggling, twisting dragon, and to kill the monster[j] that lives in the sea 2 On that day the LORD will say of his pleasant vineyard, 3 "I watch over it and water it continually I guard it night and day so that no one will harm it 4 I am no longer angry with the vineyard If only there were thorns and briars to fight against, then I would burn them up completely 5 But if the enemies of my people want my protection, let them make peace with me Yes, let them make peace with me " 6 In days to come the people of Israel, the descendants of Jacob, will take root like a tree, and they will blossom and bud The earth will be covered with the fruit they produce 7 Israel has not been punished by the LORD as severely as its enemies, nor has she lost as many men 8 The LORD punished his people by sending them into exile He took them away with a cruel wind from the east[k] 9 But Israel's sins will be forgiven only when the stones of pagan altars are ground up like chalk, and no more incense-altars or symbols of the goddess Asherah are left 10 The fortified city lies in ruins It is deserted like an empty wilderness It has become a pasture for cattle, where they can rest and graze 11 The branches of the trees are withered and broken, and women gather them for firewood Because the people have understood nothing, God their Creator will not pity them or show them any mercy 12 On that day, from the Euphrates to the Egyptian border, the LORD will gather his people one by one, like someone separating the wheat from the chaff 13 When that day comes, a trumpet will be blown to call back from Assyria and Egypt all the Israelites who are in exile there They will come and worship the LORD in Jerusalem, on his sacred hill[l]

A Warning to the Northern Kingdom

28 The kingdom of Israel is doomed!
Its glory is fading like the crowns of flowers on the heads of its drunken leaders Their proud heads are well perfumed, but there they lie, dead drunk 2 The Lord has someone strong and powerful ready to attack them, someone who will come like a hailstorm, like a torrent of rain, like a rushing, overpowering flood, and will overwhelm the land 3 The pride of those drunken leaders will be trampled underfoot 4 The fading glory of those proud leaders will disappear like the first figs of the season, picked and eaten as soon as they are ripe 5 A day is coming when the LORD Almighty will be like a glorious crown of flowers for his people who survive 6 He will give a sense of justice to those who serve as judges, and courage to those who defend the city gates from attack

Isaiah and the Drunken Prophets of Judah

7 Even the prophets and the priests are so drunk that they stagger They have drunk so much wine and liquor that they stumble in confusion The prophets are too drunk to understand the visions that God sends, and the priests are too drunk

[j] LEVIATHAN . MONSTER Legendary monsters which were symbols of the nations oppressing Israel

So drunk that they stagger (28 7) to decide the cases that are brought to them 8 The tables where they sit are all covered with vomit, and not a clean spot is left

9 They complain about me They say, "Who does that man think he's teaching?
Who needs his message? It's only good for babies that have just been weaned!
10 He is trying to teach us letter by letter, line by line, lesson by lesson "

11 If you won't listen to me, then God will use foreigners speaking some strange-sounding language to teach you a lesson 12 He offered rest and comfort to all of you, but you refused to listen to him 13 That is why the LORD is going to teach you letter by letter, line by line, lesson by lesson Then you will stumble with every step you take You will be wounded, trapped, and taken prisoner.

A Corner-stone for Zion

14 Now you arrogant men who rule here in Jerusalem over this people, listen to what the LORD is saying 15 You boast that you have made a treaty with death and reached an agreement with the world of the dead You are certain that disaster will spare you when it comes, because you depend on lies and deceit to keep you safe 16 This, now, is what the Sovereign LORD says "I am placing in Zion a foundation that is firm and strong In it I am putting a solid corner-stone on which are written the words, 'Faith that is firm is also patient' 17 Justice will be the measuring-line for the foundation, and honesty will be its plumb-line "

Hailstorms will sweep away all the lies you depend on, and floods will destroy your security. 18 The treaty you have made with death will be abolished, and your agreement with the world of the dead will be cancelled When disaster sweeps down, you will be overcome 19 It will strike you again and again, morning after morning You will have to bear it day and night.
Each new message from God will bring new terror! 20 You will be like the man

A bed too short with a blanket too narrow (28 20) in the proverb, who tries to sleep in a bed too short to stretch out on, with a blanket too narrow to wrap himself in.

21 The LORD will fight as he did at Mount Perazim and in the valley of Gibeon, in order to do what he intends to do—strange as his actions may seem He will complete his work, his mysterious work.

22 Don't laugh at the warning I am giving you! If you do, it will be even harder for you to escape I have heard the LORD Almighty's decision to destroy the whole country

God's Wisdom

23 Listen to what I am saying, pay attention to what I am telling you 24 No farmer goes on constantly ploughing his fields and getting them ready for sowing 25 Once he has prepared the soil, he sows the seeds of herbs such as dill and cumin He sows rows of wheat and barley,[m] and at the edges of his fields he sows other grain 26 He knows how to do his work, because God has taught him 27 He never uses a heavy club to beat out dill seeds or cumin seeds, instead he uses light sticks of the proper size 28 He does not ruin the wheat by threshing it endlessly, and he knows how to thresh it by driving

[m] Hebrew has an additional word the meaning of which is unclear 28 11-12 1 Cor 14 21 28 16 Ps 118 22-23, Rom 9 33, 10 11, 1 Pet 2 6 a cart over it without bruising the grains 29 All this wisdom comes from the LORD Almighty The plans God makes are wise, and they always succeed!

The Fate of Jerusalem

29 God's altar, Jerusalem itself, is doomed! The city where David camped is doomed! Let another year or two come and go, with its feasts and festivals, 2 and then God will bring disaster on the city that is called "God's altar" There will be weeping and wailing, and the whole city will be like an altar covered with blood 3 God will attack the city, surround it, and besiege it 4 Jerusalem will be like a ghost struggling to speak from under the ground, a muffled voice coming from the dust 5 Jerusalem, all the foreigners who attack you will be blown away like dust, and their terrifying armies will fly away like straw Suddenly and unexpectedly 6 the LORD Almighty will rescue you with violent thunderstorms and earthquakes He will send tempests and raging fire, 7 then all the armies of the nations attacking the city of God's altar, all their weapons and equipment—everything—will vanish like a dream, like something imagined in the night 8 All the nations that assemble to attack Jerusalem will be like a starving man who dreams he is eating and wakes up hungry, or like a man dying of thirst who dreams he is drinking and wakes with a dry throat

Disregarded Warnings

9 Go ahead and be stupid! Go ahead and be blind! Get drunk without any wine! Stagger without drinking a drop!
10 The LORD has made you drowsy, ready to fall into a deep sleep The prophets should be the eyes of the people, but God has blindfolded them 11 The meaning of every prophetic vision will be hidden from you, it will be like a sealed scroll If you take it to someone who knows how to read and ask him to read it to you, he will say he can't because it is sealed 12 If you give it to someone who can't read and ask him to read it to you, he will answer that he doesn't know how 13 The Lord said, "These people claim to worship me, but their words are meaningless, and their hearts are somewhere else Their religion is nothing but human rules and traditions, which they have simply memorized 14 So I will startle them with one unexpected blow after another Those who are wise will turn out to be fools, and all their cleverness will be useless"

Hope for the Future

15 Those who try to hide their plans from the LORD are doomed! They carry out their schemes in secret and think no one will see them or know what they are doing 16 They turn everything upside down Which is more important, the potter or the clay? Can something a man has made say to him, "You didn't make me"? Or can it say to him, "You don't know what you are doing"?
17 As the saying goes, before long the dense forest will become farmland, and the farmland will go back to forest 18 When that day comes, the deaf will be able to hear a book being read aloud, and the blind, who have been living in darkness, will open their eyes and see 19 Poor and humble people will once again find the happiness which the LORD, the holy God of Israel, gives 20 It will be the end of those who oppress others and show contempt for God Every sinner will be destroyed 21 God will destroy those who slander others, those who prevent the punishment of criminals, and those who tell lies to keep honest men from getting justice
22 So now the LORD, the God of Israel, who rescued Abraham from trouble, says,
"My people, you will not be disgraced any longer, and your faces will no longer be pale with shame 23 When you see the children that I will give you, then you will acknowledge that I am the holy God of Israel You will honour me and stand in awe of me 24 Foolish people will learn to understand, and those who are always grumbling will be glad to be taught"

A Useless Treaty with Egypt

30 The LORD has spoken "Those who rule Judah are doomed because they rebel against me They follow plans that I did not make, and sign treaties against my will, piling one sin on another 2 They go to Egypt for help without asking for my advice They want Egypt to protect them, so they put their trust in Egypt's king 3 But the king will be powerless to help them, and Egypt's protection will end in disaster 4 Although their ambassadors have already arrived at the Egyptian cities of Zoan and Hanes, 5 the people of Judah

29 10 Rom 11 8 29 13 Mt 15 8–9, Mk 7 6–7 29 14 1 Cor 1 19 29.16 Is 45 9 will regret that they ever trusted that unreliable nation, a nation that fails them when they expect help " 6 This is God's message about the animals of the southern desert "The ambassadors travel through dangerous country, where lions live and where there are poisonous snakes and flying dragons They load their donkeys and camels with expensive gifts for a nation that cannot give them any help [7]The help that Egypt gives is useless So I have nicknamed Egypt, 'The Harmless Dragon '"

The Disobedient People

8 God told me to write down in a book what the people are like, so that there would be a permanent record of how evil they are [9]They are always rebelling against God, always lying, always refusing to listen to the LORD's teachings [10]They tell the prophets to keep quiet They say, "Don't talk to us about what's right Tell us what we want to hear Let us keep our illusions [11]Get out of our way and stop blocking our path We don't want to hear about your holy God of Israel " 12 But this is what the holy God of Israel says "You ignore what I tell you and rely on violence and deceit [13]You are guilty You are like a high wall with a crack running down it, suddenly you will collapse [14]You will be shattered like a clay pot, so badly broken that there is no piece big enough to pick up hot coals with, or to scoop water from a cistern " 15 The Sovereign LORD, the holy God of Israel, says to the people, "Come back and quietly trust in me Then you will be strong and secure " But you refuse to do it! [16]Instead, you plan to escape from your enemies by riding fast horses And you are right—escape is what you will have to do! You think your horses are fast enough, but those who pursue you will be faster! [17]A thousand of you will run away when you see one enemy soldier, and five soldiers will be enough to make you all run away Nothing will be left of your army except a lonely flagstaff on the top of a hill! [18]And yet the LORD is waiting to be merciful to you He is ready to take pity on you because he always does what is right Happy are those who put their trust in the LORD

God Will Bless His People

19 You people who live in Jerusalem will not weep any more The LORD is compassionate, and when you cry to him for help, he will answer you [20]The Lord will make you go through hard times, but he himself will be there to teach you, and you will not have to search for him any more [21]If you wander off the road to the right or the left, you will hear his voice behind you saying, "Here is the road Follow it " [22]You will take your idols plated with silver and your idols covered with gold, and will throw them away like filth, shouting, "Out of my sight!" [23]Whenever you sow your seeds, the LORD will send rain to make them grow and will give you a rich harvest, and your cattle will have plenty of pasture [24]The oxen and donkeys that plough your fields will eat the finest and best fodder [25]On the day when the forts of your enemies are captured and their people are killed, streams of water will flow from every mountain and every hill [26]The moon will be as bright as the sun, and the sun will be seven times brighter than usual, like the light of seven days in one This will all happen when the LORD bandages and heals the wounds he has given his people

God Will Punish Assyria

27 The LORD's power and glory can be seen in the distance Fire and smoke show his anger He speaks, and his words burn like fire [28]He sends the wind in front of him like a flood that carries everything away It sweeps nations to destruction and puts an end to their evil plans [29]But you, God's people, will be happy and sing as you do on the night of a sacred festival You will be as happy as those who walk to the music of flutes on their way to the Temple of the LORD, the defender of Israel 30 The LORD will let everyone hear his majestic voice and feel the force of his anger. There will be flames, cloudbursts, hailstones, and torrents of rain [31]The Assyrians will be terrified when they hear the LORD's voice and feel the force of his punishment [32]As the LORD strikes them again and again, his people will keep time with the music of drums and harps God himself will fight against the Assyrians [33]Long ago a place was prepared where a huge fire will burn the emperor of Assyria It is deep and wide, and piled high with wood The LORD will breathe out a stream of flame to set it on fire

God Will Protect Jerusalem

31 Those who go to Egypt for help are doomed! They are relying on

The finest and best fodder (30 24)

Egypt's vast military strength—horses, chariots, and soldiers But they do not rely on the LORD, the holy God of Israel, or ask him for help 2 He knows what he is doing! He sends disaster He carries out his threats to punish evil men and those who protect them 3 The Egyptians are not gods—they are only human Their horses are not supernatural When the LORD acts, the strong nation will crumble, and the weak nation it helped will fall Both of them will be destroyed 4 The LORD said to me, "No matter how shepherds yell and shout, they can't scare away a lion from an animal that it has killed, in the same way, there is nothing that can keep me, the LORD Almighty, from protecting Mount Zion 5 Just as a bird hovers over its nest to protect its young, so I, the LORD Almighty, will protect Jerusalem and defend it" 6 The LORD said, "People of Israel, you have sinned against me and opposed me But now, come back to me! 7 A time is coming when all of you will throw away the sinful idols you made out of silver and gold 8 Assyria will be destroyed in war, but not by human power The Assyrians will run from battle, and their young men will be made slaves 9 Their emperor will run away in terror, and the officers will be so frightened that they will abandon their battle flags" The LORD has spoken—the LORD who is worshipped in Jerusalem and whose fire burns there for sacrifices

A King with Integrity

32 Some day there will be a king who rules with integrity, and national leaders who govern with justice 2 Each of them will be like a shelter from the wind and a place to hide from storms They will be like streams flowing in a desert, like the shadow of a giant rock

As a bird hovers over its nest (31 5) in a barren land 3Their eyes and ears will be open to the needs of the people 4They will not be impatient any longer, but they will act with understanding and will say what they mean 5No one will think that a fool is honourable or say that a scoundrel is honest 6A fool speaks foolishly and thinks up evil things to do What he does and what he says are an insult to the LORD, and he never feeds the hungry or gives thirsty people anything to drink 7A stupid person is evil and does evil things, he plots to ruin the poor with lies and to prevent them getting their rights 8But an honourable person acts honestly and stands firm for what is

9 You women who live an easy life, free from worries, listen to what I am saying 10You may be satisfied now, but this time next year you will be in despair because there will be no grapes for you to gather 11You have been living an easy life, free from worries, but now, tremble with fear!
Strip off your clothes and tie rags round your waist 12Beat your breasts in grief because the fertile fields and the vineyards have been destroyed, 13and thorn-bushes and briars are growing on my people's land Weep for all the houses where people were happy and for the city that was full of life 14Even the palace will be abandoned and the capital city totally deserted Homes and the forts that guarded them will be in ruins for ever Wild donkeys will roam there, and sheep will find pasture there 15 But once more God will send us his spirit The waste land will become fertile, and fields will produce rich crops 16Everywhere in the land righteousness and justice will be done 17Because everyone will do what is right, there will be peace and security for ever 18God's people will be free from worries, and their homes peaceful and safe (19But hail will fall on the forests, and the city will be torn down) 20How happy everyone will be with plenty of water for the crops and safe pasture everywhere for the donkeys and cattle

33 Our enemies are doomed! They have robbed and betrayed, although no one has robbed them or betrayed them But their time to rob and betray will end, and they themselves will become victims of robbery and treachery 2 LORD, have mercy on us We have put our hope in you Protect us day by day and save us in times of trouble 3When you fight for us, nations run away from the noise of battle 4Their belongings are pounced upon and taken as loot 5 How great the LORD is! He rules over everything He will fill Jerusalem with justice and integrity 6and give stability to the nation He always protects his people and gives them wisdom and knowledge Their greatest treasure is their reverence for the LORD 7 Brave men are calling for help The ambassadors who tried to bring about peace are crying bitterly 8The highways are so dangerous that no one travels on them Treaties are broken and agreements are violated No one is respected any more 9The land lies idle and deserted The forests of Lebanon have withered, the fertile valley of Sharon is like a desert, and in Bashan and on Mount Carmel the leaves are falling from the trees

The LORD Warns His Enemies

10 The LORD says to the nations, "Now I will act I will show how powerful I am 11You make worthless plans and everything you do is useless My spirit is like a fire that will destroy you[x] 12You will crumble like rocks burnt to make lime, like thorns burnt to ashes 13Let everyone near and far hear what I have done and acknowledge my power " 14 The sinful people of Zion are trembling with fright They say, "God's judgement is like a fire that burns for ever Can any of us survive a fire like that?" 15You can survive if you say and do what is right Don't use your power to cheat the poor and don't accept bribes Don't join with those who plan to commit murder or to do other evil things 16Then you will be safe, you will be as secure as if you were in a strong fortress You will have food to eat and water to drink

The Glorious Future

17 Once again you will see a king ruling in splendour over a land that stretches in all directions 18Your old fears of foreign tax-collectors and spies will be only a memory 19You will no longer see any arrogant foreigners who speak a language that you can't understand 20Look at Zion, the city where we [x] One ancient translation My spirit you, Hebrew You are destroying yourselves Owls and ravens will take over the land (34 11) celebrate our religious festivals Look at Jerusalem! What a safe place it will be to live in! It will be like a tent that is never moved, whose pegs are never pulled up and whose ropes never break 21 The LORD will show us his glory We will live beside broad rivers and streams, but hostile ships will not sail on them [n] 22-23 All the rigging on those ships is useless, the sails cannot be spread! We will seize all the wealth of enemy armies, and there will be so much that even lame men can have a share The LORD himself will be our king, he will rule over us and protect us 24 No one who lives in our land will ever again complain of being ill, and all sins will be forgiven

God Will Punish His Enemies

34 Come, people of all nations!
Gather round and listen Let the whole earth and everyone living on it come here and listen 2 The LORD is angry with all the nations and all their armies He has condemned them to destruction 3 Their corpses will not be buried, but will lie there rotting and stinking, and the mountains will be red with blood 4 The sun, moon, and stars will crumble to dust The sky will disappear like a scroll being rolled up, and the stars will fall like leaves dropping from a vine or a fig-tree 5 The LORD has prepared his sword in heaven, and now it will strike Edom, those people whom he has condemned to destruction 6 His sword will be covered with their blood and fat, like the blood and fat of lambs and goats that are sacrificed The LORD will offer this sacrifice in the city of Bozrah, he will make this a great slaughter in the land of Edom 7 The people will fall like wild oxen and young bulls, and the earth will be red with blood and covered with fat 8 This is the time when the LORD will rescue Zion and take vengeance on her enemies 9 The rivers of Edom will turn into tar, and the soil will turn into sulphur The whole country will burn like tar 10 It will burn day and night, and smoke will rise from it for ever The land will lie waste age after age, and no one will ever travel through it again 11 Owls and ravens will take over the land The LORD will make it a barren waste again, as it was before the creation 12 There will be no king to rule the country, and the leaders will all be gone [o] 13 Thorns and thistles will grow up in all the palaces and walled towns, and jackals and owls will live in them 14 Wild animals will roam there, and demons will call to each other The night monster[p] will come there looking for a place to rest 15 Owls will build their nests, lay eggs, hatch their young, and care for them there Vultures will gather there, one after another 16 Search in the LORD's book of living creatures and read what it says Not one of these creatures will be missing, and not one will be without its mate The LORD has commanded it to be so, he himself will will divide the land among them and give

The Road of Holiness

35 The desert will rejoice, and flowers will bloom in the wilderness 2 The desert will sing and shout for joy, it will be as beautiful as the Lebanon Mountains and as fertile as the fields of Carmel and Sharon Everyone will see the LORD's splendour, see his greatness and power 3 Give strength to hands that are tired and to knees that tremble with weakness 4 Tell everyone who is discouraged, "Be strong and don't be afraid!
God is coming to your rescue, coming to punish your enemies"

5 The blind will be able to see, and the deaf will hear 6 The lame will leap and dance, and those who cannot speak will shout for joy Streams of water will flow through the desert, 7 the burning sand will become a lake, and dry land will be filled with springs Where jackals used to live, marsh grass and reeds will grow 8 There will be a highway there, called "The Road of Holiness" No sinner will ever travel that road, no fools will mislead those who follow it [q] 9 No lions will be there, no fierce animals will pass that way Those whom the LORD has rescued will travel home by that road 10 They will reach Jerusalem with gladness, singing and shouting for joy

They will be happy for ever, for ever free from sorrow and grief

The Assyrians Threaten Jerusalem
(2 Kgs 18 13-27, 2 Chr 32 1-19)

36 In the fourteenth year that Hezekiah was king of Judah, Sennacherib, the emperor of Assyria, attacked the fortified cities of Judah and captured them 2 Then he ordered his chief official to go from Lachish to Jerusalem with a large military force to demand that King Hezekiah should surrender The official occupied the road where the clothmakers work, by the ditch that brings water from the upper pond 3 Three Judaeans came out to meet him the official in charge of the palace, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the court secretary, Shebna, and the official in charge of the records, Joah son of Asaph 4 The Assyrian official told them that the emperor wanted to know what made King Hezekiah so confident. 5 He demanded, "Do you think that words can take the place of military skill and might? Who do you think will help you rebel against Assyria? 6 You are expecting Egypt to help you, but that would be like using a reed as a walkingstick—it would break and jab your hand That is what the king of Egypt is like when anyone relies on him" 7 The Assyrian official went on, "Or will you tell me that you are relying on the LORD your God? It was the LORD's shrines and altars that Hezekiah destroyed when he told the people of Judah and Jerusalem to worship at one altar only 8 I will make a bargain with you in the name of the emperor I will give you two thousand horses if you can find that many men to ride them 9 You are no match for even the lowest ranking Assyrian official, and yet you expect the Egyptians to send you chariots and cavalry 10 Do you think I have attacked your country and destroyed it without the LORD's help? The LORD himself told me to attack it and destroy
it"
11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the official, "Speak Aramaic to us We understand it Don't speak Hebrew, all the people on the wall are listening" 12 He replied, "Do you think you and the king are the only ones the emperor sent me to say all these things to? No, I am also talking to the people who are sitting on the wall, who will have to eat their excrement and drink their urine, just as you will"
13 Then the official stood up and shouted in Hebrew, "Listen to what the emperor of Assyria is telling you 14 He warns you not to let Hezekiah deceive you Hezekiah can't save you 15 And don't let him persuade you to rely on the LORD Don't think that the LORD will save you

[q] Probable text no fools follow it, Hebrew unclear 35.3 Heb 12 12 35 5-6 Mt 11 5, Lk 7.22 36 6 Ezek 29 6, 7

The people kept quiet (36 21) and that he will stop our Assyrian army from capturing your city 16 Don't listen to Hezekiah! The emperor of Assyria commands you to come out of the city and surrender You will all be allowed to eat grapes from your own vines and figs from your own trees, and to drink water from your own wells—17 until the emperor resettles you in a country much like your own, where there are vineyards to give wine and there is corn for making bread 18 Don't let Hezekiah fool you into thinking that the LORD will rescue you Did the gods of any other nations save their countries from the emperor of Assyria?

19 Where are they now, the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did anyone save Samaria? 20 When did any of the gods of all these countries ever save their country from our emperor? Then what makes you think the LORD can save Jerusalem?"
21 The people kept quiet, just as King Hezekiah had told them to, they did not say a word 22 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah tore their clothes in grief and went and reported to the king what the Assyrian official had said

The King Asks Isaiah's Advice
(2 Kgs 19 1-7)

37 As soon as King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes in grief, put on sackcloth, and went to the Temple of the LORD 2 He sent Eliakim, the official in charge of the palace, Shebna, the court secretary, and the senior priests to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz They also were wearing sackcloth 3 This is the message which he told them to give to Isaiah "Today is a day of suffering, we are being punished and are in disgrace We are like a woman who is ready to give birth, but is too weak to do it 4 The Assyrian emperor has sent his chief official to insult the living God May the LORD your God hear these insults and punish those who spoke them So pray to God for those of our people who survive"
5 When Isaiah received King Heze-kiah's message, 6 he sent back this answer "The LORD tells you not to let the Assyrians frighten you by their claims that he cannot save you 7 The LORD will cause the emperor to hear a rumour that will make him go back to his own country, and the LORD will have him killed there"

The Assyrians Send Another Threat
(2 Kgs 19 8-19)

8 The Assyrian official learnt that the emperor had left Lachish and was fighting against the nearby city of Libnah, so he went there to consult him 9 Word reached the Assyrians that the Egyptian army, led by King Tirhakah of Sudan, was coming to attack them When the emperor heard this, he sent a letter to King Hezekiah 10 of Judah to say to him, "The god you are trusting in has told you that you will not fall into my hands, but don't let that deceive you 11 You have heard what an Assyrian emperor does to any country he decides to destroy Do you think that you can escape? 12 My ancestors destroyed the cities of Gozan, Haran, and Rezeph, and killed the people of Betheden who lived in Telassar, and none of their gods could save them 13 Where are the kings of the cities of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?" 14 King Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers and read it Then he went to the Temple, placed the letter there in the presence of the LORD, [15]and prayed, [16]"Almighty LORD, God of Israel, seated on your throne above the winged creatures, you alone are God, ruling all the kingdoms of the world You created the earth and the sky [17]Now, LORD, hear us and look at what is happening to us Listen to all the things that Sennacherib is saying to insult you, the living God [18]We all know, LORD, that the emperors of Assyria have destroyed many nations, made their lands desolate, [19]and burnt up their gods—which were no gods at all, only images of wood and stone made by human hands [20]Now, LORD our God, rescue us from the Assyrians, so that all the nations of the world will know that you alone are God "

Isaiah's Message to the King
(2 Kgs 19 20–37)

21 Then Isaiah sent a message telling King Hezekiah that in answer to the king's prayer [22]the LORD had said, "The city of Jerusalem laughs at you, Sennacherib, and despises you [23]Whom do you think you have been insulting and ridiculing?
You have been disrespectful to me, the holy God of Israel [24]You sent your servants to boast to me that with all your chariots you had conquered the highest mountains of Lebanon You boasted that there you cut down the tallest cedars and the finest cypress-trees, and that you reached the deepest parts of the forests [25]You boasted that you dug wells and drank water in foreign lands, and that the feet of your soldiers tramped the River Nile dry 26 "Have you never heard that I planned all this long ago? And now I have carried it out I gave you the power to turn fortified cities into piles of rubble [27]The people who lived there were powerless, they were frightened and stunned They were like grass in a field or weeds growing on a roof when the hot east wind blasts them 28 "But I know everything about you, what you do and where you go I know how you rage against me [29]I have received the report of that rage and that pride of yours, and now I will put a hook through your nose and a bit in your mouth and will take you back by the road on which you came " 30 Then Isaiah said to King Hezekiah, "This is a sign of what will happen This year and next you will have only wild grain to eat, but the following year you will be able to sow your corn and harvest it, and plant vines and eat grapes [31]Those in Judah who survive will flourish like plants that send roots deep into the ground and produce fruit [32]There will be people in Jerusalem and on Mount Zion who will survive, because the LORD Almighty is determined to make this happen 33 "This is what the LORD has said about the Assyrian emperor 'He will not enter this city or shoot a single arrow against it No soldiers with shields will come near the city, and no siege-mounds will be built round it [34]He will go back by the road on which he came, without entering this city I, the LORD, have spoken [35]I will defend this city and protect it, for the sake of my own honour and because of the promise I made to my servant David ' " 36 An angel of the LORD went to the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 soldiers At dawn the next day there they lay, all dead! [37]Then the Assyrian emperor Sennacherib withdrew and returned to Nineveh [38]One day when he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, two of his sons, Adrammelech and Sharezer, killed him with their swords and then escaped to the land of Ararat Another of his sons, Esarhaddon, succeeded him as emperor

King Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery
(2 Kgs 20 1–11, 2 Chr 32 24–26)

38 About this time King Hezekiah fell ill and almost died The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him and said to him, "The LORD tells you that you are to put everything in order because you will not recover Get ready to die " 2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed, [3]"Remember, LORD, that I have served you faithfully and loyally, and that I have always tried to do what you wanted me to " And he began to cry bitterly

37.16 Ex 25 22

An angel of the LORD went to the Assyrian camp (37 36)

4 Then the LORD commanded Isaiah 5 to go back to Hezekiah and say to him, "I, the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, have heard your prayer and seen your tears, I will let you live fifteen years longer 6 I will rescue you and this city of Jerusalem from the emperor of Assyria, and I will continue to protect the city" 21 [r] Isaiah told the king to put a paste made of figs on his boil, and he would get well 22 Then King Hezekiah asked, "What is the sign to prove that I will be able to go to the Temple?" 7 Isaiah replied, "The LORD will give you a sign to prove that he will keep his promise 8 On the stairway built by King Ahaz, the LORD will make the shadow go back ten steps" And the shadow moved back ten steps [s] 9 After Hezekiah recovered from his illness, he wrote this song of praise

10 I thought that in the prime of life I was going to the world of the dead, Never to live out my life 11 I thought that in this world of the living I would never again see the LORD Or any living person 12 My life was cut off and ended, Like a tent that is taken down, Like cloth that is cut from a loom I thought that God was ending my life [t] 13 All night I cried out with pain, As if a lion were breaking my bones I thought that God was ending my life [u] 14 My voice was thin and weak, And I moaned like a dove My eyes grew tired from looking to heaven Lord, rescue me from all this trouble 15 What can I say? The LORD has done this My heart is bitter, and I cannot sleep 16 Lord, I will live for you, for you alone, Heal me and let me live [v] 17 My bitterness will turn into peace You save [w] my life from all danger, You forgive all my sins 18 No one in the world of the dead can praise you, The dead cannot trust in your faithfulness 19 It is the living who praise you, As I praise you now Fathers tell their children how faithful you are 20 LORD, you have healed me We will play harps and sing your praise, Sing praise in your Temple as long as we live [y]

Messengers from Babylonia
(2 Kgs 20 12-19)

39 About this time, the king of Babylonia, Merodach Baladan, son of Baladan, heard that King Hezekiah had been ill, so he sent him a letter and a present 2 Hezekiah welcomed the messengers and showed them his wealth—his silver and gold, his spices and perfumes, and all his military equipment There was nothing in his storerooms or anywhere in his kingdom that he did not show them

3 Then the prophet Isaiah went to King Hezekiah and asked, "Where did these men come from and what did they say
to you?"
Hezekiah answered, "They came from a very distant country, from Babylonia " 4 "What did they see in the palace?"
"They saw everything There is nothing in the storerooms that I didn't show them " 5 Isaiah then told the king, "The LORD Almighty says that 6 a time is coming when everything in your palace, everything that your ancestors have stored up to this day, will be carried off to Babylonia Nothing will be left 7 Some of your own direct descendants will be taken away and made eunuchs to serve in the palace of the king of Babylonia " 8 King Hezekiah understood this to mean that there would be peace and security during his lifetime, so he replied, "The message you have given me from the LORD is good "

Words of Hope

40 "Comfort my people," says our God "Comfort them!
2 Encourage the people of Jerusalem Tell them they have suffered long enough and their sins are now forgiven [z] I have punished them in full for all their sins "

3 A voice cries out,
"Prepare in the wilderness a road for
the LORD!
Clear the way in the desert for our
God!
4 Fill every valley, level every mountain
The hills will become a plain, and the rough country will be made smooth 5 Then the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all mankind will see it The LORD himself has promised this "

6 A voice cries out, "Proclaim a message!"
"What message shall I proclaim?" I ask "Proclaim that all mankind are like grass,
they last no longer than wild flowers 7 Grass withers and flowers fade, when the LORD sends the wind blowing over them People are no more enduring than grass 8 Yes, grass withers and flowers fade, but the word of our God endures for ever "

9 Jerusalem, go up on a high mountain

Tell that their God is coming! (40 9) and proclaim the good news! [a] Call out with a loud voice, Zion, announce the good news!

Speak out and do not be afraid Tell the towns of Judah that their God is coming!

with power,
bringing with him the people he has rescued [b]

he will gather the lambs together and carry them in his arms, he will gently lead their mothers

Israel's Incomparable God

12 Can anyone measure the ocean by handfuls or measure the sky with his hands?
Can anyone hold the soil of the earth in a cup or weigh the mountains and hills on scales?
13 Can anyone tell the LORD what to do?
Who can teach him or give him advice?
14 With whom does God consult in order to know and understand and to learn how things should be done?

15 To the LORD the nations are nothing, no more than a drop of water, the distant islands are as light as dust 16 All the animals in the forests of Lebanon
are not enough for a sacrifice to our
God,
and its trees are too few to kindle the fire
17 The nations are nothing at all to him

18 To whom can God be compared?
How can you describe what he is like?
19 He is not like an idol that workmen make,
that metalworkers cover with gold and set in a base of silver [c] 20 The man who cannot afford silver or gold [d] chooses wood that will not rot He finds a skilful craftsman to make an image that won't fall down

21 Do you not know?
Were you not told long ago?
Have you not heard how the world began?
22 It was made by the one who sits on his throne above the earth and beyond the sky, the people below look as tiny as ants He stretched out the sky like a curtain, like a tent in which to live 23 He brings down powerful rulers and reduces them to nothing 24 They are like young plants, just set out and barely rooted When the LORD sends a wind, they dry up and blow away like straw

25 To whom can the holy God be compared?
Is there anyone else like him?
26 Look up at the sky!
Who created the stars you see?
The one who leads them out like an army, he knows how many there are and calls each one by name!
His power is so great—not one of them is ever missing!

27 Israel, why then do you complain that the LORD doesn't know your troubles or care if you suffer injustice?
28 Don't you know? Haven't you heard?
The LORD is the everlasting God, he created all the world He never grows tired or weary No one understands his thoughts 29 He strengthens those who are weak and tired 30 Even those who are young grow weak, young men can fall exhausted 31 But those who trust in the LORD for help
will find their strength renewed They will rise on wings like eagles, they will run and not get weary, they will walk and not grow weak

God's Assurance to Israel

41 God says,
"Be silent and listen to me, you distant lands!
Get ready to present your case in court, you will have your chance to speak Let us come together to decide who is right

2 "Who was it that brought the conqueror from the east, [e] and makes him triumphant wherever he goes?
Who gives him victory over kings and
nations?
His sword strikes them down as if they were dust His arrows scatter them like straw before the wind 3 He follows in pursuit and marches safely on,

[e] THE CONQUEROR FROM THE EAST Cyrus, the emperor of Persia (see 45 1) 40 13 Rom 11 34, 1 Cor 2 16 40 18-19 Acts 17 29 so fast that he hardly touches the ground!

4 Who was it that made this happen?
Who has determined the course of history?
I, the LORD, was there at the beginning, and I, the LORD, will be there at the end 5 "The people of distant lands have seen what I have done, they are frightened and tremble with fear So they all assemble and come 6 The craftsmen help and encourage one another 7 The carpenter says to the goldsmith, 'Well done!'

The man who beats the idol smooth encourages the one who nails it together.
They say, 'The soldering is good'— and they fasten the idol in place with nails 8 "But you, Israel my servant, you are the people that I have chosen, the descendants of Abraham, my friend 9 I brought you from the ends of the earth, I called you from its farthest corners and said to you, 'You are my servant' I did not reject you, but chose you 10 Do not be afraid—I am with you!

I am your God—let nothing terrify you!
I will make you strong and help you,
I will protect you and save you 11 "Those who are angry with you will know the shame of defeat Those who fight against you will die 12 and will disappear from the earth 13 I am the LORD your God,
I strengthen you and say,
'Do not be afraid, I will help you'"

14 The LORD says,
"Small and weak as you are, Israel, don't be afraid, I will help you I, the holy God of Israel, am the one who saves you 15 I will make you like a threshing-board, with spikes that are new and sharp You will thresh mountains and destroy them, hills will crumble into dust 16 You will toss them in the air, the wind will carry them off, and they will be scattered by the storm Then you will be happy because I am your God, you will praise me, the holy God of Israel 17 "When my people in their need look for water, when their throats are dry with thirst, then I, the LORD, will answer their prayer, I, the God of Israel, will never abandon them 18 I will make rivers flow among barren hills and springs of water run in the valleys I will turn the desert into pools of water and the dry land into flowing springs 19 I will make cedars grow in the desert, and acacias and myrtles and olive-trees Forests will grow in barren land, forests of pine and juniper and cypress 20 People will see this and know that I, the LORD, have done it They will come to understand that Israel's holy God has made it happen"

The LORD's Challenge to False Gods

21 The LORD, the king of Israel, has this to say "You gods of the nations, present your case Bring the best arguments you have!
22 Come here and predict what will happen, so that we will know it when it takes place Explain to the court the events of the past, and tell us what they mean 23 Tell us what the future holds—then we will know that you are gods!
Do something good or bring some disaster, fill us with fear and awe!
24 You and all you do are nothing, those who worship you are disgusting!

25 "I have chosen a man who lives in the east,[f] I will bring him to attack from the north

[f] A MAN WHO LIVES IN THE EAST See 41 2 41 8 2 Chr 20 7, Jas 2 23

I will turn the desert into pools of water (41 18)

He tramples on rulers as if they were mud, like a potter trampling clay [26] Which of you predicted that this would happen, so that we could say that you were right?
None of you said a word about it, no one heard you say a thing!
[27] I, the LORD, was the first to tell Zion the news, I sent a messenger to Jerusalem to say,
'Your people are coming! They are coming home!'[g] [28] When I looked among the gods, none of them had a thing to say, not one could answer the questions I asked [29] All these gods are useless, they can do nothing at all—these idols are weak and powerless "

The LORD's Servant

42 The LORD says,
"Here is my servant, whom I strengthen—the one I have chosen, with whom I am pleased I have filled him with my spirit, and he will bring justice to every nation [2] He will not shout or raise his voice or make loud speeches in the streets [3] He will not break off a bent reed or put out a flickering lamp He will bring lasting justice to all [4] He will not lose hope or courage, he will establish justice on the earth Distant lands eagerly wait for his teaching "

[5] God created the heavens and stretched them out, he fashioned the earth and all that lives there, he gave life and breath to all its people And now the LORD God says to his servant, [6] "I, the LORD, have called you and given you power to see that justice is done on earth Through you I will make a covenant with all peoples, through you I will bring light to the nations [7] You will open the eyes of the blind and set free those who sit in dark prisons

[8] "I alone am the LORD your God No other god may share my glory, I will not let idols share my praise [9] The things I predicted have now come true Now I will tell you of new things even before they begin to happen "

[10] Sing a new song to the LORD,

[g] Verse 27 in Hebrew is unclear 42 1 Mt 3 17, 17 5, Mk 1 11, Lk 3 22, 9 35 42 1-4 Mt 12 18-21 42 5 Acts 17 24-25 42 6 Is 49 6, Lk 2 32, Acts 13 47, 26 23 sing his praise, all the world!

Praise him, you that sail the sea, praise him, all creatures of the sea!
Sing, distant lands and all who live there!
11 Let the desert and its towns praise
God,
let the people of Kedar praise him!
Let those who live in the city of Sela shout for joy from the tops of the mountains!
12 Let those who live in distant lands give praise and glory to the LORD!
13 The LORD goes out to fight like a warrior, he is ready and eager for battle.
He gives a war-cry, a battle-shout, he shows his power against his enemies.

God Promises to Help His People

14 God says,
"For a long time I kept silent, I did not answer my people.
But now the time to act has come,
I cry out like a woman in labour.
15 I will destroy the hills and mountains and dry up the grass and trees.
I will turn the river valleys into deserts[h] and dry up the pools of water.

16 "I will lead my blind people by roads they have never travelled.
I will turn their darkness into light and make rough country smooth before them.
These are my promises, and I will keep them without fail.
17 All who trust in idols, who call images their gods, will be humiliated and disgraced."

Israel's Failure to Learn

18 The LORD says,
"Listen, you deaf people!
Look closely, you that are blind!
19 Is anyone more blind than my servant, more deaf than the messenger I send?
20 Israel, you have seen so much, but what has it meant to you?
You have ears to hear with, but what have you really heard?"

21 The LORD is a God who is eager to save,
so he exalted his laws and teachings, and he wanted his people to honour
them.
22 But now his people have been plundered, they are locked up in dungeons and hidden away in prisons.
They were robbed and plundered, with no one to come to their rescue.

23 Will any of you listen to this?
From now on will you listen with care?
24 Who gave Israel up to the looters?
It was the LORD himself, against whom we sinned!
We would not live as he wanted us to live or obey the teachings he gave us.
25 So he made us feel the force of his anger
and suffer the violence of war.
Like fire his anger burned throughout
Israel,
but we never knew what was happening,
we learnt from it nothing at all.

God Promises to Rescue His People

43 Israel, the LORD who created you says,
"Do not be afraid—I will save you.
I have called you by name—you are mine.
2 When you pass through deep waters, I will be with you;
your troubles will not overwhelm you.
When you pass through fire, you will not be burnt, the hard trials that come will not hurt
you.
3 For I am the LORD your God, the holy God of Israel, who saves you.
I will give up Egypt to set you free, I will give up Sudan and Seba.
4 I will give up whole nations to save your life, because you are precious to me and because I love you and give you honour.
5 Do not be afraid—I am with you!

"From the distant east and the farthest west,
I will bring your people home.
6 I will tell the north to let them go and the south not to hold them back.
Let my people return from distant lands, from every part of the world.
7 They are my own people, and I created them to bring me glory."

[h] Probable text deserts, Hebrew coastlands

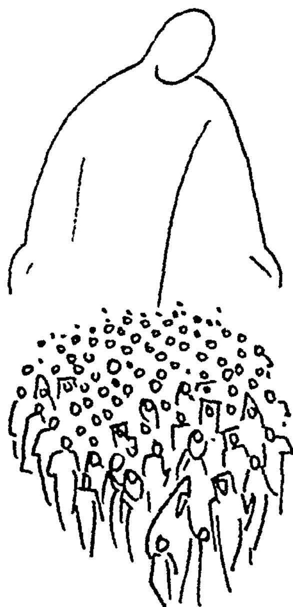
I will bring your people home (43 5)

Israel Is the LORD's Witness



8 God says,
"Summon my people to court They have eyes, but they are blind, they have ears, but they are deaf!
9 Summon the nations to come to the trial Which of their gods can predict the future?
Which of them foretold what is happening now?
Let these gods bring in their witnesses to prove that they are right, to testify to the truth of their words 10 "People of Israel, you are my witnesses,

I chose you to be my servant, so that you would know me and believe in me and understand that I am the only
God
Besides me there is no other god, there never was and never will be

11 "I alone am the LORD, the only one who can save you 12 I predicted what would happen, and then I came to your aid No foreign god has ever done this, you are my witnesses 13 I am God and always will be No one can escape from my power, no one can change what I do"

Escape from Babylon

14 Israel's holy God, the LORD who saves you, says,
"To save you, I will send an army against Babylon,
I will break down the city gates, and the shouts of her people will turn into crying 15 I am the LORD, your holy God I created you, Israel, and I am your
king"

The LORD made a road through the sea (43 16)

16 Long ago the LORD made a road through the sea, a path through the swirling waters 17 He led a mighty army to destruction, an army of chariots and horses Down they fell, never to rise, snuffed out like the flame of a candle!

18 But the LORD says,
"Do not cling to events of the past or dwell on what happened long ago 19 Watch for the new thing I am going to do It is happening already—you can see it now!
I will make a road through the wilderness
and give you streams of water there 20 Even the wild animals will honour me, jackals and ostriches will praise me when I make rivers flow in the desert to give water to my chosen people 21 They are the people I made for myself, and they will sing my praises!"

Israel's Sin

22 The LORD says,
"But you were tired of me, Israel, you did not worship me 23 You did not bring me your burnt-offerings of sheep, you did not honour me with your sacrifices
I did not burden you by demanding offerings
or wear you out by asking for incense 24 You didn't buy incense for me or satisfy me with the fat of your animals
Instead you burdened me with your sins, you wore me out with the wrongs you committed 25 And yet, I am the God who forgives your sins,
and I do this because of who I am I will not hold your sins against you 26 "Let us go to court, bring your accusation!

Present your case to prove you are in the right!
27 Your earliest ancestor[i] sinned, your leaders sinned against me, 28 and your rulers profaned[j] my sanctuary
So I brought destruction on Israel, I let my own people be insulted"

The LORD Is the Only God

44 The LORD says,
"Listen now, Israel, my servant, my chosen people, the descendants of Jacob 2 I am the LORD who created you; from the time you were born, I have helped you Do not be afraid, you are my servant, my chosen people whom I love

3 "I will give water to the thirsty land

[i] YOUR EARLIEST ANCESTOR A reference either to Jacob or to Abraham, or possibly to Adam.
[j] One ancient translation your rulers profaned, Hebrew I profaned the rulers of and make streams flow on the dry

ground
I will pour out my power on your
and my blessing on your descendants 4 They will thrive like well-watered grass, like willows by streams of running water

5 "One by one, people will say, 'I am the LORD's'
They will come to join the people of
Israel
Each one will mark the name of the LORD on his arm and call himself one of God's people"

6 The LORD, who rules and protects Israel, the LORD Almighty, has this to say "I am the first, the last, the only God, there is no other god but me 7 Could anyone else have done what I did?
Who could have predicted all that would happen from the very beginning to the end of time?[k] 8 Do not be afraid, my people!
You know that from ancient times until now
I have predicted all that would happen,
and you are my witnesses Is there any other god?
Is there some powerful god I never heard of?"

Idolatry Is Ridiculed

9 All those who make idols are worthless, and the gods they prize so highly are useless Those who worship these gods are blind and ignorant—and they will be disgraced 10 It's no good making a metal image to worship as a god!
11 Everyone who worships it will be humiliated The people who make idols are human beings and nothing more Let them come and stand trial—they will be terrified and will suffer disgrace 12 The metalworker takes a piece of metal and works with it over a fire His strong arm swings a hammer to pound the metal into shape As he works, he gets hungry, thirsty, and tired 13 The carpenter measures the wood He outlines a figure with chalk, carves it out with his tools, and makes it in the form of a man, a handsome human figure, to be placed in his house 14 He might cut down cedars to use, or choose oak or cypress wood from the forest Or he might plant a laurel-tree and wait for the rain to make it grow 15 A man uses part of a tree for fuel and part of it for making an idol With one part he builds a fire to warm himself and bake bread, with the other part he makes a god and worships it 16 With some of the wood he makes a fire, he roasts meat, eats it, and is satisfied He warms himself and says, "How nice and warm! What a beautiful fire!" 17 The rest of the wood he makes into an idol, and then he bows down and worships it He prays to it and says, "You are my god—save me!" 18 Such people are too stupid to know what they are doing They close their eyes and their minds to the truth 19 The maker

Bowing down to a block of wood (44 19) of idols hasn't the wit or the sense to say, "Some of the wood I burnt up I baked some bread on the embers and I roasted meat and ate it And the rest of the wood I made into an idol Here I am bowing down to a block of wood!" 20 It makes as much sense[l] as eating ashes His foolish ideas have so misled him that he is beyond help He won't admit to himself that the idol he holds in his hand is not a god at all

The LORD, the Creator and Saviour

21 The LORD says,
"Israel, remember this,
remember that you are my servant I created you to be my servant,

[k] Verse 7 in Hebrew is unclear [l] It makes as much sense, or It will do as much good 44 6 Is 48 12, Rev 1 17, 22 13

The idol he holds in his hand is not a god at all (44 20) and I will never forget you 22 I have swept your sins away like a cloud Come back to me, I am the one who saves you "

23 Shout for joy, you heavens!
Shout, deep places of the earth!
Shout for joy, mountains, and every tree of the forest!
The LORD has shown his greatness by saving his people Israel 24 "I am the LORD, your saviour, I am the one who created you I am the LORD, the Creator of all things I alone stretched out the heavens, when I made the earth, no one helped me 25 I make fools of fortune-tellers and frustrate the predictions of astrologers The words of the wise I refute and show that their wisdom is foolishness 26 But when my servant makes a prediction, when I send a messenger to reveal my plans, I make those plans and predictions come true I tell Jerusalem that people will live there again, and the cities of Judah that they will be rebuilt Those cities will rise from the ruins 27 With a word of command I dry up the ocean 28 I say to Cyrus, 'You are the one who will rule for me, you will do what I want you to do you will order Jerusalem to be rebuilt and the Temple foundations to be laid '"

The LORD Appoints Cyrus

45 The LORD has chosen Cyrus to be king!
He has appointed him to conquer nations, he sends him to strip kings of their power, the LORD will open the gates of cities for him To Cyrus the LORD says, 2 "I myself will prepare your way, levelling mountains and hills I will break down bronze gates and smash their iron bars 3 I will give you treasures from dark, secret places, then you will know that I am the LORD, and that the God of Israel has called you by name 4 I appoint you to help my servant Israel, the people that I have chosen I have given you great honour, although you do not know me

5 "I am the LORD, there is no other god I will give you the strength you need,
although you do not know me 6 I do this so that everyone from one end of the world to the other may know that I am the LORD and that there is no other god 7 I create both light and darkness, I bring both blessing and disaster I, the LORD, do all these things 8 I will send victory from the sky like rain, the earth will open to receive it and will blossom with freedom and justice I, the LORD, will make this happen "

44 25 1 Cor 1 20 44 28 2 Chr 36 23, Ezra 1 2

The Lord of Creation and History

9 Does a clay pot dare to argue with its maker,
a pot that is like all the others?
Does the clay ask the potter what he is doing?
Does the pot complain that its maker has no skill?
10 Does anyone dare to say to his parents, "Why did you make me like this?" 11 The LORD, the holy God of Israel, the one who shapes the future, says "You have no right to question me about my children or to tell me what I ought to do!
12 I am the one who made the earth and created mankind to live there By my power I stretched out the heavens,
I control the sun, the moon, and the stars 13 I myself have stirred Cyrus to action to fulfil my purpose and put things right
I will straighten every road that he travels
He will rebuild my city, Jerusalem, and set my captive people free No one has hired him or bribed him to do this"
The LORD Almighty has spoken

14 The LORD says to Israel,
"The wealth of Egypt and Sudan will be yours, and the tall men of Seba will be your slaves,
they will follow you in chains They will bow down to you and confess,
'God is with you—he alone is God 15 The God of Israel, who saves his
people,
is a God who conceals himself 16 Those who make idols will all be ashamed, all of them will be disgraced 17 But Israel is saved by the LORD, and her victory lasts for ever, her people will never be disgraced'"

18 The LORD created the heavens—he is the one who is God!
He formed and made the earth—he made it firm and lasting He did not make it a desolate waste, but a place for people to live in It is he who says, "I am the LORD, and there is no other god 19 I have not spoken in secret or kept my purpose hidden I did not require the people of Israel to look for me in a desolate waste I am the LORD, and I speak the truth, I make known what is right"

The Lord of the World and the Idols of Babylon

20 The LORD says,
"Come together, people of the nations, all who survive the fall of the empire, present yourselves for the trial!
The people who parade with their idols of wood and pray to gods that cannot save
them—
those people know nothing at all!
21 Come and present your case in court, let the defendants consult one another
Who predicted long ago what would happen?
Was it not I, the LORD, the God who saves his people?
There is no other god

22 "Turn to me now and be saved, people all over the world!
I am the only God there is 23 My promise is true, and it will not be changed I solemnly promise by all that I am Everyone will come and kneel before
me
and vow to be loyal to me

24 "They will say that only through me are victory and strength to be found, but all who hate me will suffer disgrace 25 I, the LORD, will rescue all the descendants of Jacob,
and they will give me praise 46 "This is the end for Babylon's gods!

Bel and Nebo once were worshipped, but now they are loaded on donkeys, a burden for the backs of tired
animals
2 The idols cannot save themselves, they are captured and carried away This is the end for Babylon's gods!

3 "Listen to me, descendants of Jacob, all who are left of my people I have cared for you from the time you were born

45 9 Rom 9 20   45.23 Rom 14 11, Phil 2 10-11

The idols cannot save themselves (46 2)

4 I am your God and will take care of you until you are old and your hair is grey I made you and will care for you, I will give you help and rescue you

5 "With whom will you compare me?"
says the LORD
"Is there anyone else like me?
6 People open their purses and pour out gold, they weigh out silver on the scales They hire a goldsmith to make a god, then they bow down and worship it!
7 They lift it to their shoulders and carry it, they put it in place, and there it stands, unable to move from where it is If anyone prays to it, it cannot answer or save him from disaster 8 "Remember this, you sinners, consider what I have done 9 Remember what happened long ago, acknowledge that I alone am God and that there is no one else like me 10 From the beginning I predicted the outcome, long ago I foretold what would happen I said that my plans would never fail, that I would do everything I intended to do 11 I am calling a man to come from the east,[m] he will swoop down like a hawk and accomplish what I have planned I have spoken, and it will be done 12 "Listen to me, you stubborn people who think that victory is far away 13 I am bringing the day of victory near—it is not far away at all My triumph will not be delayed I will save Jerusalem and bring honour to Israel there"

Judgement on Babylon

47 The LORD says,
"Babylon, come down from your throne, and sit in the dust on the ground You were once like a virgin, a city unconquered, but you are soft and delicate no longer!
You are now a slave!
2 Turn the millstone! Grind the flour!
Off with your veil! Strip off your fine clothes!
Lift up your skirts to cross the streams![n] 3 People will see you naked, they will see you humbled and shamed I will take vengeance, and no one will stop me"

4 The holy God of Israel sets us free—his name is the LORD Almighty

5 The LORD says to Babylon, "Sit in silence and darkness; no more will they call you the queen of nations!
6 I was angry with my people, I treated them as no longer mine I put them in your power,

[m] A MAN TO COME FROM THE EAST See 41 2 [n] CROSS THE STREAMS This probably refers to going into exile 47 1-15 Is 13 1-14 23, Jer 50 1, 51 64 and you showed them no mercy, even the aged you treated harshly.

7 You thought you would always be a queen, and did not take these things to heart or think how it all would end 8 "Listen to this, you lover of pleasure, you that think you are safe and secure You claim you are as great as God—that there is no one else like you You thought that you would never be a widow or suffer the loss of your children 9 But in a moment, in a single day, both of these things will happen In spite of all the magic you use, you will lose your husband and children 10 "You felt sure of yourself in your evil, you thought that no one could see you Your wisdom and knowledge led you astray, and you said to yourself, 'I am God—there is no one else like me' 11 Disaster will come upon you, and none of your magic can stop it Ruin will come on you suddenly—ruin you never dreamt of!

12 Keep all your magic spells and charms, you have used them since you were young Perhaps they will be of some help to you, perhaps you can frighten your enemies 13 You are powerless in spite of the advice you get.
Let your astrologers come forward and save you—those people who study the stars, who map out the zones of the heavens and tell you from month to month what[x] is going to happen to you 14 "They will be like bits of straw, and a fire will burn them up!

They will not even be able to save themselves—the flames will be too hot for them not a cosy fire to warm themselves by 15 That is all the good they will do you—those astrologers you've consulted all your life

Those people who study the stars (47 13)

They all will leave you and go their own way, and none will be left to save you"

God Is Lord of the Future

48 Listen to this, people of Israel, you that are descended from Judah You swear by the name of the LORD and claim to worship the God of Israel—but you don't mean a word you say 2 And yet you are proud to say that you are citizens of the holy city and that you depend on Israel's God, whose name is the LORD Almighty

3 The LORD says to Israel,
"Long ago I predicted what would take place, then suddenly I made it happen 4 I knew that you would prove to be stubborn, as rigid as iron and unyielding as bronze 5 And so I predicted your future long ago, announcing events before they took place, to prevent you from claiming that your idols and images made them happen [x] Some ancient translations what, Hebrew from what.

47.8-9 Rev 18 7-8

6 "All I foretold has now taken place, you have to admit my predictions were right Now I will tell you of new things to come, events that I did not reveal before 7 Only now am I making them happen, nothing like this took place in the past If it had, you would claim that you knew all about it 8 I knew that you couldn't be trusted, that you have always been known as a rebel
That is why you never heard of this at all, why no word of it ever came to your ears

9 "In order that people will praise my name,
I am holding my anger in check,
I am keeping it back and will not destroy you 10 I have tested you in the fire of suffering,
as silver is refined in a furnace But I have found that you are worthless 11 What I do is done for my own sake—I will not let my name be dishonoured or let anyone else share the glory that should be mine and mine alone"

Cyrus, the LORD's Chosen Leader

12 The LORD says,
"Listen to me, Israel, the people I have called!
I am God, the first, the last, the only
God!
13 My hands made the earth's foundations and spread the heavens out When I summon earth and sky, they come at once and present themselves

14 "Assemble and listen, all of you!
None of the gods could predict that the man I have chosen would attack Babylon, he will do what I want him to do 15 I am the one who spoke and called
him,
I led him out and gave him success

16 "Now come close to me and hear what I say
From the beginning I have spoken openly, and have always made my words come true" (Now the Sovereign LORD has given me his power and sent me)

The LORD's Plan for His People

17 The holy God of Israel, the LORD who saves you, says
"I am the LORD your God, the one who wants to teach you for your own good and direct you in the way you should

18 "If only you had listened to my
commands!
Then blessings would have flowed for
you like a stream that never goes dry!
Victory would have come to you like the waves that roll on the shore 19 Your descendants would be as numerous as grains of sand, and I would have made sure they were never destroyed"

20 Go out from Babylon, go free!
Shout the news gladly, make it known everywhere.
"The LORD has saved his servant
Israel!"
21 When the LORD led his people through a hot, dry desert, they did not suffer from thirst He made water come from a rock for
them,
he split the rock open, and water flowed out.

22 "There is no safety for sinners," says
the LORD

Israel, A Light to the Nations

49 Listen to me, distant nations, you people who live far away!
Before I was born, the LORD chose me and appointed me to be his servant 2 He made my words as sharp as a sword With his own hand he protected me [o] He made me like an arrow, sharp and ready for use 3 He said to me, "Israel, you are my servant,
because of you, people will praise
me"

[o] With his own hand me, or He kept me hidden in his hand

48 12 Is 44 6, Rev 1 17, 22 13   48.20 Rev 18 4   48.22 Is 57.21   49 1 Jer 1 5 49 2 Heb 4 12, Rev 1 16

4 I said, "I have worked, but how hopeless it is!
I have used up my strength, but have accomplished nothing" Yet I can trust the LORD to defend my
cause,
he will reward me for what I do

5 Before I was born, the LORD appointed
me, he made me his servant to bring back
his people,
to bring back the scattered people of Israel
The LORD gives me honour, he is the source of my strength 6 The LORD said to me,

"I have a greater task for you, my servant
Not only will you restore to greatness the people of Israel who have survived, but I will also make you a light to the nations—
so that all the world may be saved" 7 Israel's holy God and saviour says to the one who is deeply despised, who is hated by the nations and is the servant of rulers "Kings will see you released and will rise to show their respect, princes also will see it, and they will bow low to honour you"

This will happen because the LORD has chosen his servant, the holy God of Israel keeps his promises

The Restoration of Jerusalem

8 The LORD says to his people, "When the time comes to save you, I will show you favour and answer your cries for help I will guard and protect you and through you make a covenant with all peoples
I will let you settle once again in your land that is now laid waste 9 I will say to the prisoners, 'Go free!' and to those who are in darkness, 'Come out to the light!'
They will be like sheep that graze on the hills, 10 they will never be hungry or thirsty Sun and desert heat will not hurt them, for they will be led by one who loves
He will lead them to springs of water 11 "I will make a highway across the mountains

and prepare a road for my people to travel 12 My people will come from far away, from the north and the west, and from Aswan[p] in the south"

13 Sing, heavens! Shout for joy, earth!
Let the mountains burst into song!
The LORD will comfort his people, he will have pity on his suffering
people

14 But the people of Jerusalem said, "The LORD has abandoned us!
He has forgotten us" 15 So the LORD answers, "Can a woman forget her own baby and not love the child she bore?
Even if a mother should forget her child, I will never forget you 16 Jerusalem, I can never forget you!
I have written your name on the palms of my hands

17 "Those who will rebuild you are coming soon, and those who destroyed you will leave 18 Look around and see what is happening!
Your people are assembling—they are coming home!
As surely as I am the living God, you will be proud of your people, as proud as a bride is of her jewels 19 "Your country was ruined and desolate—

but now it will be too small for those who are coming to live there And those who left you in ruins will be far removed from you 20 Your people who were born in exile will one day say to you, 'This land is too small—we need more room to live in!' 21 Then you will say to yourself, 'Who bore all these children for me?
I lost my children and could have no more I was exiled and driven away—who brought these children up?

[p]ASWAN A city in southern Egypt, where a large Jewish community had settled 49 6 Is 42 6, Lk 2 32, Acts 13 47, 26 23 49 8 2 Cor 6 2 49 10 Rev 7 16-17

I was left all alone—where did these children come from?' "

22 The Sovereign LORD says to his people
"I will signal to the nations, and they will bring your children home 23 Kings will be like fathers to you, queens will be like mothers They will bow low before you and honour you, they will humbly show their respect for you
Then you will know that I am the LORD, no one who waits for my help will be disappointed "

24 Can you take away a soldier's loot?
Can you rescue the prisoners of a tyrant?

25 The LORD replies,
"That is just what is going to happen The soldier's prisoners will be taken away,
and the tyrant's loot will be seized I will fight against whoever fights you, and I will rescue your children 26 I will make your oppressors kill each other,
they will be drunk with murder and rage
Then all mankind will know that I am
the LORD,
the one who saves you and sets you free
They will know that I am Israel's powerful God "

50 The LORD says,
"Do you think I sent my people
like a man who divorces his wife?
Where, then, are the papers of divorce?
Do you think I sold you into captivity like a man who sells his children as slaves?
No, you went away captive because of your sins,
you were sent away because of your crimes

2 "Why did my people fail to respond when I went to them to save them?
Why did they not answer when I called?
Am I too weak to save them?
I can dry up the sea with a command and turn rivers into a desert, so that the fish in them die for lack of water 3 I can make the sky turn dark, as if it were mourning for the dead "

The Obedience of the LORD's Servant

4 The Sovereign LORD has taught me what to say, so that I can strengthen the weary Every morning he makes me eager to hear what he is going to teach me 5 The LORD has given me understanding, and I have not rebelled or turned away from him 6 I bared my back to those who beat me I did not stop them when they insulted
me, when they pulled out the hairs of my beard
and spat in my face

7 But their insults cannot hurt me because the Sovereign LORD gives me
help
I brace myself to endure them I know that I will not be disgraced, 8 for God is near,
and he will prove me innocent Does anyone dare to bring charges against me?
Let us go to court together!
Let him bring his accusation!
9 The Sovereign LORD himself defends
me—
who, then, can prove me guilty?
All my accusers will disappear, they will vanish like moth-eaten cloth

10 All of you that honour the LORD and obey the words of his servant, the path you walk may be dark indeed, but trust in the LORD, rely on your
God
11 All of you that plot to destroy others will be destroyed by your own plots The LORD himself will make this happen, you will suffer a miserable fate

Words of Comfort to Jerusalem

51 The LORD says,
"Listen to me, you that want to be saved,
you that come to me for help Think of the rock from which you came, the quarry from which you were dug 2 Think of your ancestor, Abraham, 50 6 Mt 26 67, Mk 14 65 50 8–9 Rom 8 33–34 and of Sarah, from whom you are descended When I called Abraham, he was childless, but I blessed him and gave him children, I made his descendants numerous 3 "I will show compassion to Jerusalem, to all who live in her ruins Though her land is a desert, I will make it a garden, like the garden I planted in Eden Joy and gladness will be there, and songs of praise and thanks to me 4 "Listen to me, my people, listen to what I say I give my teaching to the nations, my laws will bring them light 5 I will come quickly and save them, the time of my victory is near I myself will rule over the nations Distant lands wait for me to come, they wait with hope for me to save them 6 Look up at the heavens, look at the earth!

The heavens will disappear like smoke, the earth will wear out like old clothing, and all its people will die like flies But the deliverance I bring will last for ever, my victory will be final 7 "Listen to me, you that know what is right, who have my teaching fixed in your hearts Do not be afraid when people taunt and insult you, 8 they will vanish like moth-eaten clothing!

But the deliverance I bring will last for ever, my victory will endure for all time"

9 Wake up, LORD, and help us!
Use your power and save us, use it as you did in ancient times It was you that cut the sea-monster Rahab[q] to pieces 10 It was you also who dried up the sea and made a path through the water, so that those you were saving could cross 11 Those whom you have rescued will reach Jerusalem with gladness, singing and shouting for joy
They will be happy for ever,
for ever free from sorrow and grief

12 The LORD says,
"I am the one who strengthens you Why should you fear mortal man, who is no more enduring than grass?
13 Have you forgotten the LORD who made you, who stretched out the heavens and laid the earth's foundations?
Why should you live in constant fear of the fury of those who oppress you, of those who are ready to destroy you?
Their fury can no longer touch you 14 Those who are prisoners will soon be set free, they will live a long life and have all the food they need

15 "I am the LORD your God, I stir up the sea and make its waves roar My name is the LORD Almighty!
16 I stretched out[r] the heavens and laid the earth's foundations, I say to Jerusalem, 'You are my people!
I have given you my teaching, and I protect you with my hand'"

The End of Jerusalem's Suffering

17 Jerusalem, wake up!
Rouse yourself and get up!
You have drunk the cup of punishment that the LORD in his anger gave you to drink, you drank it down, and it made you stagger 18 There is no one to lead you, no one among your people to take you by the hand

19 A double disaster has fallen on you: your land has been devastated by war, and your people have starved There is no one to show you sympathy 20 At the corner of every street your people collapse from weakness, they are like deer caught in a hunter's net.

[q] RAHAB A legendary sea-monster, which represented the forces of chaos and evil, and was sometimes a symbol of Egypt [r] One ancient translation stretched out, Hebrew planted

They have felt the force of God's anger

21 You suffering people of Jerusalem, you that stagger as though you were drunk, 22 the LORD your God defends you and
says,
"I am taking away the cup that I gave you in my anger You will no longer have to drink the wine that makes you stagger 23 I will give it to those who oppressed
you,
to those who made you lie down in the streets and trampled on you as if you were dirt"

God Will Rescue Jerusalem

52 Jerusalem, be strong and great
again!
Holy city of God, clothe yourself with splendour!
The heathen will never enter your gates
again
2 Shake yourself free, Jerusalem!
Rise from the dust and sit on your throne!
Undo the chains that bind you, captive people of Zion!

3 The LORD says to his people, "When you became slaves, no money was paid for you, in the same way nothing will be paid to set you free 4 When you went to live in Egypt as foreigners, you did so of your own free will, Assyria, however, took you away by force and paid nothing for you 5 And now in Babylonia the same thing has happened you are captives, and nothing was paid for you Those who rule over you boast and brag and constantly show contempt for me 6 In time to come you will acknowledge that I am God and that I have spoken to you"

7 How wonderful it is to see a messenger coming across the
mountains,
bringing good news, the news of
peace!
He announces victory and says to Zion,
"Your God is king!" 8 Those who guard the city are shouting, shouting together for joy!
They can see with their own eyes the return of the LORD to Zion!

9 Break into shouts of joy, you ruins of Jerusalem!
The LORD will rescue his city and comfort his people 10 The LORD will use his holy power, he will save his people, and all the world will see it 11 Make sure you leave Babylonia, all you that carry the temple equipment!
Touch no forbidden thing,[s] keep yourselves holy and leave 12 This time you will not have to leave in a hurry, you will not be trying to escape The LORD your God will lead you and protect you on every side

The Suffering Servant

13 The LORD says,
"My servant will succeed in his task, he will be highly honoured[t] 14 Many people were shocked when they saw him, he was so disfigured that he hardly looked human 15 But now many nations will marvel at
him,
and kings will be speechless with amazement
They will see and understand something they had never known"

A messenger coming across the mountains (52 7)

[s] FORBIDDEN THING Any object that was considered ritually unclean [t] he will be highly honoured, or he will be restored to greatness and honour 52 1 Rev 21 2, 27 52 5 Rom 2 24 52 7 Nah 1 15, Rom 10 15, Eph 6 15 52 11 2 Cor 6 17 52 15 Rom 15 21

He never said a word (53 7)

53 The people reply,
"Who would have believed what we now report?
Who could have seen the LORD's hand in this?
2 It was the will of the LORD that his servant
should grow like a plant taking root in dry ground
He had no dignity or beauty to make us take notice of him There was nothing attractive about him, nothing that would draw us to him 3 We despised him and rejected him, he endured suffering and pain No one would even look at him—we ignored him as if he were nothing 4 "But he endured the suffering that should have been ours, the pain that we should have borne All the while we thought that his suffering

was punishment sent by God 5 But because of our sins he was wounded, beaten because of the evil we did We are healed by the punishment he suffered,
made whole by the blows he received 6 All of us were like sheep that were lost, each of us going his own way But the LORD made the punishment fall on him,
the punishment all of us deserved

7 "He was treated harshly, but endured it humbly,
he never said a word
Like a lamb about to be slaughtered, like a sheep about to be sheared,
he never said a word 8 He was arrested and sentenced and led off to die, and no one cared about his fate He was put to death for the sins of our people 9 He was placed in a grave with evil men, he was buried with the rich, even though he had never committed a crime
or ever told a lie"

10 The LORD says,
"It was my will that he should suffer, his death was a sacrifice to bring forgiveness
And so he will see his descendants, he will live a long life, and through him my purpose will succeed 11 After a life of suffering, he will again have joy, he will know that he did not suffer in vain
My devoted servant, with whom I am pleased,
will bear the punishment of many and for his sake I will forgive them 12 And so I will give him a place of honour,
a place among great and powerful
men
He willingly gave his life and shared the fate of evil men

53 1 Jn 12 38, Rom 10 16 53 4 Mt 8 17 53 5 1 Pet 2 24 53 6 1 Pet 2.25 53 7 Rev 5 6 53 7-8 Acts 8 32-33 53 9 1 Pet 2 22 53 12 Mk 15 28, Lk 22 37

He took the place of many sinners and prayed that they might be forgiven "[u]

The LORD's Love for Israel

54 Jerusalem, you have been like a childless woman, but now you can sing and shout for joy
Now you will have more children than a woman whose husband never left her!
2 Make the tent you live in larger, lengthen its ropes and strengthen the pegs!
3 You will extend your boundaries on all sides, your people will get back the land that the other nations now occupy Cities now deserted will be filled with
people 4 Do not be afraid—you will not be disgraced again, you will not be humiliated You will forget your unfaithfulness as a young wife, and your desperate loneliness as a widow 5 Your Creator will be like a husband to
you—
the LORD Almighty is his name The holy God of Israel will save you—he is the ruler of all the world

6 Israel, you are like a young wife, deserted by her husband and deeply distressed
But the LORD calls you back to him and
says 7 "For one brief moment I left you, with deep love I will take you back 8 I turned away angry for only a moment, but I will show you my love for ever" So says the LORD who saves you 9 "In the time of Noah I promised never again to flood the earth Now I promise not to be angry with you again,

I will not reprimand or punish you 10 The mountains and hills may crumble, but my love for you will never end, I will keep for ever my promise of
peace"
So says the LORD who loves you

The Future Jerusalem

11 The LORD says,
"O Jerusalem, you suffering, helpless
city,
with no one to comfort you, I will rebuild your foundations with precious stones 12 I will build your towers with rubies, your gates with stones that glow like
fire,
and the wall around you with jewels 13 "I myself will teach your people, and give them prosperity and peace 14 Justice and right will make you strong You will be safe from oppression and terror 15 If anyone attacks you, he does it without my consent, whoever fights against you will fall 16 "I create the blacksmith, who builds a fire and forges weapons I also create the soldier, who uses the weapons to kill 17 But no weapon will be able to hurt

you,
you will have an answer for all who accuse you I will defend my servants and give them victory"
The LORD has spoken

God's Offer of Mercy

55 The LORD says,
"Come, everyone who is thirsty—
here is water!
Come, you that have no money—buy corn and eat!
Come! Buy wine and milk—it will cost you nothing!
2 Why spend money on what does not satisfy?
Why spend your wages and still be hungry?
Listen to me and do what I say, and you will enjoy the best food of all

3 "Listen now, my people, and come to
me,
come to me, and you will have life!
I will make a lasting covenant with you and give you the blessings I promised to David 4 I made him a leader and commander of nations, and through him I showed them my power

[u]prayed that they might be forgiven, or suffered the punishment they deserved 54 1 Gal 4 27 54 9 Gen 9 8-17 54 11-12 Rev 21 18-21 54 13 Jn 6 45 55 1 Rev 21 6, 22 17 55 3 Acts 13 34

5 Now you will summon foreign nations, at one time they did not know you, but now they will come running to join you!
I, the LORD your God, the holy God of
Israel,
will make all this happen, I will give you honour and glory "

6 Turn to the LORD and pray to him, now that he is near 7 Let the wicked leave their way of life and change their way of thinking Let them turn to the LORD, our God, he is merciful and quick to forgive 8 "My thoughts," says the LORD, "are not like yours, and my ways are different from yours 9 As high as the heavens are above the earth,
so high are my ways and thoughts above yours

10 "My word is like the snow and the rain that come down from the sky to water the earth
They make the crops grow and provide seed for sowing and food to eat 11 So also will be the word that I speak—it will not fail to do what I plan for
it,
it will do everything I send it to do 12 "You will leave Babylon with joy, you will be led out of the city in peace The mountains and hills will burst into singing, and the trees will shout for joy 13 Cypress-trees will grow where now there are briars, myrtle-trees will come up in place of thorns

This will be a sign that will last for ever, a reminder of what I, the LORD, have
done "

God's People Will Include All Nations

56 The LORD says to his people, "Do what is just and right, for soon I will save you 2 I will bless those who always observe the Sabbath and do not misuse it I will bless those who do nothing evil "
3 A foreigner who has joined the LORD's people should not say, "The LORD will not let me worship with his people " A man who has been castrated should never think that because he cannot have children, he can never be part of God's people 4 The LORD says to such a man, "If you honour me by observing the Sabbath and if you do what pleases me and faithfully keep my covenant, 5 then your name will be remembered in my Temple and among my people longer than if you had sons and daughters You will never be forgotten " 6 And the LORD says to those foreigners who become part of his people, who love him and serve him, who observe the Sabbath and faithfully keep his covenant 7 "I will bring you to Zion, my sacred hill,[1] give you joy in my house of prayer, and accept the sacrifices you offer on my altar My Temple will be called a house of prayer for the people of all nations " 8 The Sovereign LORD, who has brought his people Israel home from exile, has promised that he will bring still other people to join them

Israel's Leaders Are Condemned

9 The LORD has told the foreign nations to come like wild animals and devour his people 10 He says, "All the leaders, who are supposed to warn my people, are blind! They know nothing They are like watchdogs that don't bark—they only lie about and dream How they love to sleep!
11 They are like greedy dogs that never get enough These leaders have no understanding Every one of them does as he pleases and seeks his own advantage 12 'Let's get some wine,' these drunkards say, 'and drink all we can hold! Tomorrow will be even better than today!' "

Israel's Idolatry Is Condemned

57 Good people die, and no one understands or even cares But when they die, no calamity can hurt them 2 Those who live good lives find peace and rest in death 3 Come here to be judged, you sinners!
You are no better than sorcerers, adulterers, and prostitutes 4 Who are you making fun of? Who are you liars jeering at? 5 You worship the fertility gods by having sex under those sacred trees of yours You offer your children as sacrifices in the rocky caves near the bed of a stream 6 You take smooth stones from there and worship them as gods You pour

[1] SACRED HILL. See 2 3 55 10 2 Cor 9 10 56 7 Mt 21 13, Mk 11 17, Lk 19 46 out wine as offerings to them and bring them grain-offerings Do you think I am pleased with all this? 7 You go to the high mountains to offer sacrifices and have sex 8 You set up your obscene idols just inside your front doors You forsake me, you take off your clothes and climb into your large beds with your lovers, whom you pay to sleep with you And there you satisfy your lust 9 You put on your perfumes and ointments and go to worship the god Molech To find gods to worship, you send messengers far and wide, even to the world of the dead 10 You wear yourselves out looking for other gods, but you never give up You think your obscene idols give you strength, and so you never grow weak 11 The LORD says, "Who are these gods that make you afraid, so that you tell me lies and forget me completely? Have you stopped honouring me because I have kept silent for so long? 12 You think that what you do is right, but I will expose your conduct, and your idols will not be able to help you 13 When you cry for help, let those idols of yours save you! A puff of wind will carry them off! But those who trust in me will live in the land and will worship me in my Temple "

God's Promise of Help and Healing

14 The LORD says, "Let my people return to me Remove every obstacle from their path! Build the road, and make it ready!
15 "I am the high and holy God, who lives for ever I live in a high and holy place, but I also live with people who are humble and repentant, so that I can restore their confidence and hope 16 I gave my people life, and I will not continue to accuse them or be angry with them for ever [w] 17 I was angry with them because of their sin and greed, and so I punished them and abandoned them But they were stubborn and kept on going their own way 18 "I have seen how they acted, but I will heal them I will lead them and help them, and I will comfort those who mourn 19 I offer peace to all, both near and far! I will heal my people 20 But evil men are like the restless sea, whose waves never stop rolling in, bringing filth and muck 21 There is no safety for sinners," says the LORD.

True Fasting

58 The LORD says, "Shout as loud as you can! Tell my people Israel about their sins! 2 They worship me every day, claiming that they are eager to know my ways and obey my laws They say they want me to give them just laws and that they take pleasure in worshipping
me " 3 The people ask, "Why should we fast if the LORD never notices? Why should we go without food if he pays no attention?"
The LORD says to them, "The truth is that at the same time as you fast, you pursue your own interests and oppress your workers 4 Your fasting makes you violent, and you quarrel and fight. Do you think this kind of fasting will make me listen to your prayers? 5 When you fast, you make yourselves suffer, you bow your heads low like a blade of grass, and spread out sackcloth and ashes to lie on Is that what you call fasting? Do you think I will be pleased with that?
6 "The kind of fasting I want is this Remove the chains of oppression and the yoke of injustice, and let the oppressed go free 7 Share your food with the hungry and open your homes to the homeless poor Give clothes to those who have nothing to wear, and do not refuse to help your own relatives 8 "Then my favour will shine on you like the morning sun, and your wounds will be quickly healed I will always be with you to save you, my presence will protect you on every side 9 When you pray, I will answer you When you call to me, I will respond

"If you put an end to oppression, to every gesture of contempt, and to every evil word, 10 if you give food to the hungry and satisfy those who are in need, then the darkness around you will turn to the brightness of noon 11 And I will always guide you and satisfy you with good things I will keep you strong and well You will be like a garden that has plenty of water, like a spring of water that never runs dry 12 Your people will rebuild what has long been in ruins, building again on the old foundations You will be known as the people who rebuilt the walls, who restored the ruined houses"

The Reward for Keeping the Sabbath

13 The LORD says, "If you treat the Sabbath as sacred and do not pursue your own interests on that day, if you value my holy day and honour it by not travelling, working, or talking idly on that day, 14 then you will find the joy that comes from serving me I will make you honoured all over the world, and you will enjoy the land I gave to your ancestor, Jacob I, the LORD, have spoken"

The Prophet Condemns the People's Sins

59 Don't think that the LORD is too weak to save you or too deaf to hear your call for help! 2 It is because of your sins that he doesn't hear you It is your sins that separate you from God when you try to worship him 3 You are guilty of lying, violence, and murder 4 You go to court, but you haven't got justice on your side You depend on lies to win your case You carry out your plans to hurt others 5-6 The evil plots you make are as deadly as the eggs of a poisonous snake Crush an egg, out comes a snake!
But your plots will do you no good—they are as useless as clothing made of cobwebs! 7 You are always planning something evil, and you can hardly wait to do it You never hesitate to murder innocent people You leave ruin and destruction wherever you go, 8 and no one is safe when you are about Everything you do is unjust You follow a crooked path, and no one who walks that path will ever be safe

The People Confess Their Sin

9 The people say, "Now we know why God does not save us from those who oppress us We hope for light to walk by, but there is only darkness, 10 and we grope about like blind people We stumble at noon, as if it were night, as if we were in the dark world of the dead 11 We are frightened and distressed We long for God to save us from oppression and wrong, but nothing happens 12 "LORD, our crimes against you are many Our sins accuse us We are well aware of them all 13 We have rebelled against you, rejected you, and refused to follow you We have oppressed others and turned away from you Our thoughts are false, our words are lies 14 Justice is driven away, and right cannot come near Truth stumbles in the public square, and honesty finds no place there 15 There is so little honesty that anyone who stops doing evil finds himself the victim of crime"

The LORD Prepares to Rescue His People

The LORD has seen this, and he is 58 7 Mt 25 35 59 7-8 Rom 3 15-17

Like a strong wind (59 19) displeased that there is no justice. 16He is astonished to see that there is no one to help the oppressed. So he will use his own power to rescue them and to win the victory. 17He will wear justice like a coat of armour and victory like a helmet.

He will clothe himself with the strong desire to set things right and to punish and avenge the wrongs that people suffer.
18He will punish his enemies according to what they have done, even those who live in distant lands. 19From east to west everyone will fear him and his great power. He will come like a rushing river, like a strong wind.

20 The LORD says to his people, "I will come to Jerusalem to defend you and to save all of you that turn from your sins.
21And I make a covenant with you: I have given you my power and my teachings to be yours for ever, and from now on you are to obey me and teach your children and your descendants to obey me for all time to come."

The Future Glory of Jerusalem

60 Arise, Jerusalem, and shine like
the sun;
The glory of the LORD is shining on you!
2 Other nations will be covered by darkness,
But on you the light of the LORD will shine;
The brightness of his presence will be with you.
3 Nations will be drawn to your light, And kings to the dawning of your new day.

4 Look around you and see what is happening:
Your people are gathering to come home!
Your sons will come from far away;
Your daughters will be carried like
children.
5 You will see this and be filled with joy;
You will tremble with excitement.
The wealth of the nations will be brought to you;
From across the sea their riches will
come.

6 Great caravans of camels will come, from Midian and Ephah.
They will come from Sheba, bringing gold and incense.
People will tell the good news of what the LORD has done!
7 All the sheep of Kedar and Nebaioth Will be brought to you as sacrifices And offered on the altar to please the
LORD.
The LORD will make his Temple more glorious than ever.

8 What are these ships that skim along like clouds,
Like doves returning home?
9 They are ships coming from distant lands, Bringing God's people home.
They bring with them silver and gold To honour the name of the LORD,
The holy God of Israel, Who has made all nations honour his
people.

10 The LORD says to Jerusalem, "Foreigners will rebuild your walls,
And their kings will serve you.
In my anger I punished you,

Great caravans of camels will come (60 6)

But now I will show you my favour and mercy 11 Day and night your gates will be open,
So that the kings of the nations May bring you their wealth 12 But nations that do not serve you Will be completely destroyed 13 "The wood of the pine, the juniper, and the cypress,

The finest wood from the forests of Lebanon,
Will be brought to rebuild you,
Jerusalem,
To make my Temple beautiful,
To make my city glorious 14 The sons of those who oppressed you will come And bow low to show their respect All who once despised you will worship at your feet
They will call you 'The City of the LORD,' 'Zion, the City of Israel's Holy God' 15 "You will no longer be forsaken and hated,

A city deserted and desolate I will make you great and beautiful, A place of joy for ever and ever 16 Nations and kings will care for you As a mother nurses her child You will know that I, the LORD, have saved you,
That the mighty God of Israel sets you free

17 "I will bring you gold instead of bronze, Silver and bronze instead of iron and wood,
And iron instead of stone
Your rulers will no longer oppress you, I will make them rule with justice and peace 18 The sounds of violence will be heard no more, Destruction will not shatter your country again
I will protect and defend you like a wall, You will praise me because I have saved
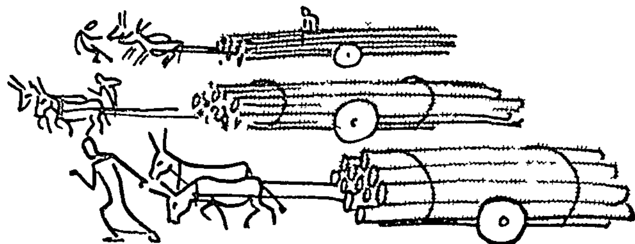
you



19 "No longer will the sun be your light by day
Or the moon be your light by night,
I, the LORD, will be your eternal light,
The light of my glory will shine on you

I will be your eternal light (60 19) 20 Your days of grief will come to an end

I, the LORD, will be your eternal light, More lasting than the sun and moon 21 Your people will all do what is right, And will possess the land for ever I planted them, I made them, To reveal my greatness to all 22 Even your smallest and humblest family
Will become as great as a powerful nation
When the right time comes,
I will make this happen quickly
I am the LORD!"

The Good News of Deliverance

61 The Sovereign LORD has filled me with his spirit
He has chosen me and sent me To bring good news to the poor, To heal the broken-hearted, To announce release to captives And freedom to those in prison 2 He has sent me to proclaim That the time has come
When the LORD will save his people And defeat their enemies He has sent me to comfort all who mourn,
3 To give to those who mourn in Zion Joy and gladness instead of grief, A song of praise instead of sorrow They will be like trees That the LORD himself has planted They will all do what is right, And God will be praised for what he has done 4 They will rebuild cities that have long been in ruins

5 My people, foreigners will serve you They will take care of your flocks And farm your land and tend your vineyards 6 And you will be known as the priests of the LORD,
The servants of our God You will enjoy the wealth of the nations And be proud that it is yours 7 Your shame and disgrace are ended You will live in your own land,
And your wealth will be doubled, Your joy will last for ever

8 The LORD says,
"I love justice and hate oppression and crime
I will faithfully reward my people And make an eternal covenant with
them
9 They will be famous among the nations, Everyone who sees them will know That they are a people whom I have blessed"

10 Jerusalem rejoices because of what the LORD has done
She is like a bride dressed for her wedding God has clothed her with salvation and victory 11 As surely as seeds sprout and grow, The Sovereign LORD will save his people,
And all the nations will praise him 62 I will speak out to encourage Jerusalem,

I will not be silent until she is saved, And her victory shines like a torch in the night 2 Jerusalem, the nations will see you victorious!
All their kings will see your glory
You will be called by a new name, A name given by the LORD himself 3 You will be like a beautiful crown for
the LORD
4 No longer will you be called "Forsaken," Or your land be called "The Deserted Wife"
Your new name will be "God Is Pleased with Her"
Your land will be called "Happily Married,"
Because the LORD is pleased with you And will be like a husband to your land 5 Like a young man taking a virgin as his bride,
He who formed you will marry you As a groom is delighted with his bride, So your God will delight in you

6 On your walls, Jerusalem, I have placed sentries,
They must never be silent day or night

61 1 Mt 11 5, Lk 7 22 61 1-2 Lk 4 18-19 61 2 Mt 5 4 61 10 Rev 21 2

Like a torch in the night (62 1)

They must remind the LORD of his promises
And never let him forget them 7 They must give him no rest until he restores Jerusalem
And makes it a city the whole world praises.

8 The LORD has made a solemn promise, And by his power he will carry it out "Your corn will no longer be food for your enemies,
And foreigners will no longer drink your wine 9 But you that sowed and harvested the corn
Will eat the bread and praise the LORD You that tended and gathered the grapes Will drink the wine in the courts of my Temple "

10 People of Jerusalem, go out of the city And build a road for your returning
people!
Prepare a highway, clear it of stones!
Put up a signal so that the nations can know 11 That the LORD is announcing to all the earth
"Tell the people of Jerusalem That the LORD is coming to save you, Bringing with him the people he has
rescued " 12 You will be called "God's Holy
People,"
"The People the LORD Has Saved " Jerusalem will be called "The City That God Loves,"
"The City That God Did Not Forsake "

The LORD's Victory over the Nations

63 "Who is this coming from the city of Bozrah in Edom? Who is this so splendidly dressed in red, marching along[x] in power and strength?"

"It is the LORD, powerful to save, coming to announce his victory" 2 "Why is his clothing so red, like that of a man who tramples grapes to make
wine?"
3 The LORD answers, "I have trampled the nations like grapes, and no one came to help me I trampled them in my anger, and their blood has stained all my clothing 4 I decided that the time to save my people had come, it was time to punish their enemies 5 I was amazed when I looked and saw that there was no one to help me But my anger made me strong, and I won the victory myself 6 In my anger I trampled whole nations and shattered them I poured out their life-blood on the ground"

The LORD's Goodness to Israel

7 I will tell of the LORD's unfailing love, I praise him for all he has done for
us
He has richly blessed the people of Israel because of his mercy and constant love 8 The LORD said, "They are my people, they will not deceive me" And so he saved them 9 from all their suffering It was not an angel, but the LORD himself who saved them In his love and compassion he rescued them He had always taken care of them in the past, 10 but they rebelled against him and filled him with sadness So the LORD became their enemy and fought against them 11 But then they[y] remembered the past, the days of Moses, the servant of the LORD, and they asked, "Where now is the LORD, who saved the leaders of his people from the sea? Where is the LORD, who gave his spirit to Moses? 12-13 Where is the LORD, who by his power did great things through Moses, dividing the waters of the sea and leading his people through the deep water, to win everlasting fame for himself?"
Led by the LORD, they were as sure-footed as wild horses, and never stumbled 14 As cattle are led into a fertile valley, so the LORD gave his people rest He led his people and brought honour to his

A Prayer for Mercy and Help

15 LORD, look upon us from heaven, where you live in your holiness and glory Where is your great concern for us?
Where is your power? Where are your love and compassion? Do not ignore us 16 You are our father Our ancestors Abraham and Jacob do not acknowledge us, but you, LORD, are our father, the one who has always rescued us 17 Why do you let us stray from your ways? Why do you make us so stubborn that we turn away from you? Come back, for the sake of those who serve you, for the sake of the people who have always been yours 18 We, your holy people, were driven out by our enemies for a time they trampled down your sanctuary[z] 19 You treat us as though you had never been our ruler, as though we had never been
your people 64 Why don't you tear the sky apart and come down? The mountains would see you and shake with fear 2 They would tremble like water boiling over a hot fire Come and reveal your power to your enemies, and make the nations tremble at your presence! 3 There was a time when you came and did terrifying things that we did not expect, the mountains saw you and shook with fear 4 No one has ever seen or heard of a God like you, who does such deeds for those who put their hope in him 5 You welcome those who find joy in doing what is right, those who remember how you want them to live You were angry with us, but we went on sinning, in spite of your great anger we have continued to do wrong since ancient times[a] 6 All of us have been sinful, even our best actions are filthy through and through Because of our sins we are like leaves that wither and are blown away by the wind 7 No one turns to you in prayer, no one goes to you for help You have hidden yourself from us and have abandoned[b] us because of our sins
8 But you are our father, LORD We are like clay, and you are like the potter You created us, 9 so do not be too angry with us or hold our sins against us for ever We are your people, be merciful to us 10 Your sacred cities are like a desert, Jerusalem is a deserted ruin, 11 and our Temple, the sacred and beautiful place where our ancestors praised you, has been destroyed by fire All the places we loved by all this? Are you going to do nothing and make us suffer more than we can endure?

God's Punishment of the Rebellious 65 The LORD said, "I was ready to answer my people's prayers, but they did not pray I was ready for them to find me, but they did not even try The nation did not pray to me, even though I was always ready to answer, 'Here I am, I will help you' 2 I have always been ready to welcome my people, who stubbornly do what is wrong and go their own way 3 They shamelessly keep on making me angry They offer pagan sacrifices in sacred gardens[c] and burn incense on pagan altars 4 At night they go to caves and tombs to consult the spirits of the dead They eat pork and drink broth made from meat offered in pagan sacrifices 5 And then they say to others, 'Keep away from us, we are too holy for you to touch!' I cannot stand people like that—my anger against them is like a fire that never goes out 6 "I have already decided on their punishment, and their sentence is written down I will not overlook what they have done, but will repay them 7 for their sins and the sins of their ancestors They have burnt incense at pagan hill shrines and spoken evil of me So I will punish them as their past deeds deserve" 8 The LORD says, "No one destroys good grapes, instead, they make wine with them Neither will I destroy all my people—I will save those who serve me 9 I will bless the Israelites who belong to the tribe of Judah, and their descendants will possess my land of mountains My chosen people, who serve me, will live there 10 They will worship me and will lead their sheep and cattle to pasture in the Plain of Sharon in the west and in the Valley of Trouble in the east 11 "But it will be different for you that forsake me, who ignore Zion, my sacred hill,[e] and worship Gad and Meni, the gods of luck and fate 12 It will be your fate to die a violent death, because you did not answer when I called you or listen when I spoke You chose to disobey me and do evil 13 And so I tell you that those who worship and obey me will have plenty to eat and drink, but you will be hungry and thirsty They will be happy, but you will be disgraced 14 They will sing for joy, but you will cry with a broken heart 15 My chosen people will use your name as a curse I, the Sovereign LORD, will put you to death But I will give a new name to those who obey me 16 Anyone in the land who asks for a blessing will ask to be blessed by the Faithful God Whoever takes an oath will swear by the name of the Faithful God The troubles of the past will be gone and forgotten"

The New Creation

17 The LORD says, "I am making a new earth and new heavens The events of the past will be completely forgotten 18 Be glad and rejoice for ever in what I create The new Jerusalem I make will be full of joy, and her people will be happy 19 I myself will be filled with joy because of Jerusalem and her people There will be no weeping there, no calling for help 20 Babies will no longer die in infancy, and all people will live out their life span Those who live to be a hundred will be considered young To die before that would be a sign that I had punished them 21-22 People will build houses and live in them themselves—they will not be used by someone else They will plant vineyards and enjoy the wine—it will not be drunk by others Like trees, my people will live long lives They will fully enjoy the things that they have worked for 23 The work they do will be successful, and their children will not meet with disaster I will bless them and their descendants for all time to come 24 Even before they finish praying to me, I will answer their prayers 25 Wolves and lambs will eat together, lions will eat straw, as cattle do, and snakes will no longer be dangerous On Zion, my sacred hill,[f] there will be nothing harmful or evil"

The LORD Judges the Nations

66 The LORD says, "Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my foot-stool What kind of house, then, could you build for me, what kind of place for me to live in? 2 I myself created the whole universe! I am pleased with those who are humble and repentant, who fear me and obey me

Jeremiah

1 This book is the account of what was said by Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests of the town of Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin 2 The LORD spoke to Jeremiah in the thirteenth year that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah, 3 and he spoke to him again when Josiah's son Jehoiakim was king After that, the LORD spoke to him many times, until the eleventh year of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah In the fifth month of that year the people of Jerusalem were taken into exile

The Call of Jeremiah

4 The LORD said to me, 5 "I chose you before I gave you life, and before you were born I selected you to be a prophet to the nations "
6 I answered, "Sovereign LORD, I don't know how to speak, I am too young " 7 But the LORD said to me, "Do not say that you are too young, but go to the people I send you to, and tell them everything I command you to say 8 Do not be afraid of them, for I will be with you to protect you I, the LORD, have
spoken!" 9 Then the LORD stretched out his hand, touched my lips, and said to me, "Listen, I am giving you the words you must speak 10 Today I give you authority over nations and kingdoms to uproot and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant "

I am giving you the words you must speak (1 9)

Two Visions

11 The LORD asked me, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"
I answered, "A branch of an almond-tree " 12 "You are right," the LORD said, "and I am watching[a] to see that my words come true "
13 Then the LORD spoke to me again
"What else do you see?" he asked I answered, "I see a pot boiling in the north, and it is about to tip over this way " 14 He said to me, "Destruction will boil over from the north on all who live in this land, 15 because I am calling all the nations in the north to come Their kings will set up their thrones at the gates of Jerusalem and round its walls, and also round the other cities of Judah 16 I will punish my people because they have sinned, they have abandoned me, have offered sacrifices to other gods, and have made idols and worshipped them 17 Get ready, Jeremiah, go and tell them everything I command you to say Do not be afraid of them now, or I will make you even more afraid when you are with them 18-19 Listen, Jeremiah! Everyone in this land—the kings of Judah, the officials, the priests, and the people—will be against you But today I am giving you the strength to resist them, you will be like a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall They will not defeat you, for I will be with you to protect you I, the LORD, have
spoken "

God's Care for Israel

2 The LORD told me 2to proclaim this message to everyone in Jerusalem "I remember how faithful you were when you were young, how you loved me when we were first married,
you followed me through the desert, through a land that had not been sown 3 Israel, you belonged to me alone, you were my sacred possession I sent suffering and disaster on everyone who hurt you
I, the LORD, have spoken "

The Sin of Israel's Ancestors

4 Listen to the LORD's message, you descendants of Jacob, you tribes of Israel
5 The LORD says
"What accusation did your ancestors bring against me?
What made them turn away from me?
They worshipped worthless idols and became worthless themselves 6 They did not care about me, even though I rescued them from Egypt
and led them through the wilderness a land of deserts and sand-dunes, a dry and dangerous land where no one lives and no one will even travel 7 I brought them into a fertile land, to enjoy its harvests and its other good things
But instead they ruined my land, they defiled the country I had given
them 8 The priests did not ask, 'Where is the LORD?'
My own priests did not know me The rulers rebelled against me, the prophets spoke in the name of Baal
and worshipped useless idols

The LORD's Case against His People

9 "And so I, the LORD, will state my case against my people again I will bring charges against their descendants 10 Go west to the island of Cyprus, and send someone eastwards to the land of Kedar You will see that nothing like this has ever happened before 11 No other nation has ever changed its
gods,
even though they were not real But my people have exchanged me, the God who has brought them honour,
for gods that can do nothing for them 12 And so I command the sky to shake with horror, to be amazed and astonished, 13 for my people have committed two sins
they have turned away from me, the spring of fresh water, and they have dug cisterns, cracked cisterns that can hold no water at all

The Results of Israel's Unfaithfulness

14 "Israel is not a slave, he was not born into slavery Why then do his enemies hunt him down?
15 They have roared at him like lions, they have made his land a desert, and his towns lie in ruins, completely abandoned 16 Yes, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have cracked his skull 17 Israel, you brought this on yourself!
You deserted me, the LORD your God, while I was leading you along the way 18 What do you think you will gain by going to Egypt to drink water from the Nile?
What do you think you will gain by going to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates?
19 Your own evil will punish you, and your turning from me will condemn you
You will learn how bitter and wrong
it is to abandon me, the LORD your God, and no longer to remain faithful to
me
I, the Sovereign LORD Almighty, have
spoken "

Israel Refuses to Worship the LORD

20 The Sovereign LORD says, "Israel, long ago you rejected my authority, you refused to obey me and worship
me
On every high hill and under every green tree you worshipped fertility gods 21 I planted you like a choice vine from the very best seed But look what you have become!

You are like a rotten, worthless vine 22 Even if you washed with the strongest soap,
I would still see the stain of your guilt 23 How can you say you have not defiled yourself,
that you have never worshipped Baal?
Look how you sinned in the valley, see what you have done You are like a wild camel on heat, running about loose, 24 rushing into the desert [b] When she is on heat, who can control her?
No male that wants her has to trouble
himself,
she is always available at mating time 25 Israel, don't wear your feet out, or let your throat become dry from chasing after other gods But you say, 'No! I can't turn back I have loved foreign gods and will go after them'"

Israel Deserves to be Punished 26 The LORD says, "Just as a thief is disgraced when caught, so all you people of Israel will be disgraced—your kings and officials, your priests and prophets 27 You will all be disgraced—you that say that a tree is your father and that a rock is your mother This will happen because you turned away from me instead of turning to me But when you are in trouble, you ask me to come and save

you 28 "Where are the gods that you made for yourselves? When you are in trouble, let them save you—if they can! Judah, you have as many gods as you have cities 29 What is your complaint? Why have you rebelled against me? 30 I punished you, but it did no good, you would not let me correct you Like a raging lion, you have murdered your prophets 31 People of Israel, listen to what I am saying Have I been like a desert to you, like a dark and dangerous land? Why, then, do you say that you will do as you please, that you will never come back to me? 32 Does a young woman forget her jewellery, or a bride her wedding-dress? But my people have forgotten me for more days than can be counted 33 You certainly know how to chase after lovers Even the worst of women can learn from you 34 Your clothes are stained with the blood of the poor and innocent, not with the blood of burglars "But in spite of all this, 35 you say, 'I am innocent, surely the LORD is no longer angry with me' But I, the LORD, will punish you because you deny that you have sinned 36 You have cheapened yourself by turning to the gods of other nations You will be disappointed by Egypt, just as you were by Assyria 37 You will turn away from Egypt, hanging your head in shame I, the LORD, have rejected those you trust, you will not gain anything from them"

Unfaithful Israel

3 The LORD says, "If a man divorces his wife, and she leaves him and becomes another man's wife, he cannot take her back again This would completely defile the land But, Israel, you have had many lovers, and now you want to return to me! 2 Look up at the hill-tops Is there any place where you have not acted like a prostitute? You waited for lovers along the roadside, as an Arab waits for victims in the desert You have defiled the land with your prostitution 3 That is why the rains were held back, and the spring showers did not come You even look like a prostitute, you have no shame 4 "And now you say to me, 'You are my father, and you have loved me ever since I was a child 5 You won't always be angry, you won't be cross with me for ever.' Israel, that is what you said, but you did all the evil you could"

Israel and Judah Must Repent

6 When Josiah was king, the LORD said to me, "Have you seen what Israel, that unfaithful woman, has done? She has turned away from me, and on every high hill and under every green tree she has acted like a prostitute 7 I thought that after she had done all this, she would surely return to me But she did not return, and her unfaithful sister Judah saw it all 8 Judah also saw that I divorced Israel and sent her away because she had turned from me and had become a prostitute But Judah, Israel's unfaithful sister, was not afraid She too became a prostitute 9 and was not at all ashamed She defiled the land, and she committed adultery by worshipping stones and trees 10 And after all this, Judah, Israel's unfaithful sister, only pretended to return to me, she was not sincere I, the LORD, have spoken"

Worshipping stones and trees (3 9)

11 Then the LORD told me that, even though Israel had turned away from him, she had proved to be better than unfaithful Judah [12]He told me to go and say to Israel, "Unfaithful Israel, come back to me I am merciful and will not be angry, I will not be angry with you for ever [13]Only admit that you are guilty and that you have rebelled against the LORD, your God Confess that under every green tree you have given your love to foreign gods and that you have not obeyed my commands I, the LORD, have spoken 14 "Unfaithful people, come back, you belong to me I will take one of you from each town and two from each clan, and I will bring you back to Mount Zion [15]I will give you rulers who obey me, and they will rule you with wisdom and understanding [16]Then when you have become numerous in that land, people will no longer talk about my Covenant Box They will no longer think about it or remember it, they will not even need it, nor will they make another one [17]When that time comes, Jerusalem will be called 'The Throne of the LORD,' and all nations will gather there to worship me They will no longer do what their stubborn and evil hearts tell them [18]Israel will join with Judah, and together they will come from exile in the country in the north and will return to the land that I gave your ancestors as a permanent possession"

The Idolatry of God's People

19 The LORD says,
"Israel, I wanted to accept you as my son and give you a delightful land, the most beautiful land in all the world
I wanted you to call me father, and never again turn away from me 20 But like an unfaithful wife, you have not been faithful to me
I, the LORD, have spoken"

21 A noise is heard on the hill-tops it is the people of Israel crying and pleading, because they have lived sinful lives and have forgotten the LORD their God 22 Return, all of you who have turned away from the LORD, he will heal you and make you faithful

You say, "Yes, we are coming to the LORD, because he is our God [23]We were not helped at all by our pagan worship on the hill-tops Help for Israel comes only from the LORD our God [24]But the worship of Baal, the god of shame, has made us lose flocks and herds, sons and daughters—everything that our ancestors have worked for since ancient times [25]We should lie down in shame and let our disgrace cover us We and our ancestors

The enemy is coming like clouds (4.13) have always sinned against the LORD our God; we have never obeyed his commands."

A Call to Repentance

4 The LORD says, "People of Israel, if you want to turn, then turn back to me. If you remove the idols I hate and are faithful to me, 2 it will be right for you to swear by my name.[c] Then all the nations will ask me to bless them, and they will praise me."

3 The LORD says to the people of Judah and Jerusalem, "Plough up your unploughed fields; do not sow your seeds among thorns. 4 Keep your covenant with me, your LORD, and dedicate yourselves to me, you people of Judah and Jerusalem.
If you don't, my anger will burn like fire because of the evil things you have done.
It will burn, and there will be no one to put it out."

Judah Is Threatened with Invasion

5 Blow the trumpet throughout the land!
Shout loud and clear!
Tell the people of Judah and Jerusalem to run to the fortified cities.
6 Point the way to Zion!
Run for safety! Don't delay!
The LORD is bringing disaster and great destruction from the north.
7 Like a lion coming from its hiding place, a destroyer of nations has set out.
He is coming to destroy Judah.
The cities of Judah will be left in ruins, and no one will live in them.
8 So put on sackcloth, and weep and wail because the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from Judah.

9 The LORD said, "On that day kings and officials will lose their courage, priests will be shocked and prophets will be astonished."

10 Then I said, "Sovereign LORD, you have completely deceived the people of Jerusalem! You have said there would be peace, but a sword is at their throats."

11 The time is coming when the people of Jerusalem will be told that a scorching wind is blowing in from the desert towards them. It will not be a gentle wind that only blows away the chaff— 12 the wind that comes at the LORD's command will be much stronger than that! It is the LORD himself who is pronouncing judgement on his people.

Judah Is Surrounded by Enemies

13 Look, the enemy is coming like clouds. His war-chariots are like a whirlwind, and his horses are faster than eagles. We are lost! We are doomed!

14 Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart, so that you may be saved. How long will you go on thinking sinful thoughts?

15 Messengers from the city of Dan and from the hills of Ephraim announce the bad news. 16 They have come to warn the nations and to tell Jerusalem that enemies are coming from a country far away.
These enemies will shout against the cities of Judah 17 and will surround Jerusalem like men guarding a field, because her people have rebelled against the LORD. The LORD has spoken.

18 Judah, you have brought this on yourself by the way you have lived and by the things you have done. Your sin has caused this suffering; it has stabbed you through the heart.

Jeremiah's Sorrow for His People

19 The pain! I can't bear the pain!
My heart! My heart is beating wildly!

[c] it will be right ... name. Then; or and if you swear by my name and are truthful, just, and righteous, then.
4.3: Hos 10.12.

I can't keep quiet,
I hear the trumpets and the shouts of battle 20 One disaster follows another, the whole country is left in ruins Suddenly our tents are destroyed, their curtains are torn to pieces 21 How long must I see the battle raging and hear the blasts of trumpets?
22 The LORD says, "My people are stupid, they don't know me They are like foolish children, they have no understanding They are experts at doing what is evil, but failures at doing what is good "

Jeremiah's Vision of the Coming Destruction

23 I looked at the earth—it was a barren waste, at the sky—there was no light 24 I looked at the mountains—they were shaking, and the hills were rocking to and fro 25 I saw that there were no people, even the birds had flown away 26 The fertile land had become a desert, its cities were in ruins because of the LORD's fierce anger 27 (The LORD has said that the whole earth will become a wilderness, but that he will not completely destroy it) 28 The earth will mourn, the sky will grow dark
The LORD has spoken
and will not change his mind He has made his decision and will not turn back 29 At the noise of the horsemen and bowmen everyone will run away Some will run to the forest, others will climb up among the rocks Every town will be left empty, and no one will live in them again 30 Jerusalem, you are doomed!
Why do you dress in scarlet?
Why do you put on jewellery and paint your eyes?
You are making yourself beautiful for nothing!
Your lovers have rejected you and want to kill you 31 I heard a cry, like a woman in labour, a scream like a woman bearing her first child It was the cry of Jerusalem gasping for breath, stretching out her hand and saying,
"I am doomed!
They are coming to kill me!"

The Sin of Jerusalem

5 People of Jerusalem, run through your streets!
Look around! See for yourselves!
Search the market-places!
Can you find one person who does what is right and tries to be faithful to God?
If you can, the LORD will forgive Jerusalem 2 Even though you claim to worship the LORD, you do not mean what you say 3 Surely the LORD looks for faithfulness He struck you, but you paid no attention, he crushed you, but you refused to learn You were stubborn and would not turn from your sins 4 Then I thought, "These are only the poor and ignorant They behave foolishly, they don't know what their God requires, what the LORD wants them to do 5 I will go to the people in power, and talk with them Surely they know what their God requires,
what the LORD wants them to do " But all of them have rejected the LORD's authority and refuse to obey him 6 That is why lions from the forest will kill them, wolves from the desert will tear them to pieces, and leopards will prowl through their towns If those people go out, they will be torn apart because their sins are numerous and time after time they have turned from God 7 The LORD asked, "Why should I forgive the sins of my people?
They have abandoned me and have worshipped gods that are not real I fed my people until they were full, but they committed adultery and spent their time with prostitutes 8 They were like well-fed stallions wild with desire, each lusting for his neighbour's wife 9 Shouldn't I punish them for these things and take revenge on a nation such as this?

10 I will send enemies to cut down my people's vineyards, but not to destroy them completely I will tell them to strip away the branches,
because those branches are not mine 11 The people of Israel and Judah have betrayed me completely
I, the LORD, have spoken "

The LORD Rejects Israel

12 The LORD's people have denied him and have said, "He won't really do anything [d] We won't have hard times, we won't have war or famine " 13-14 They have said that the prophets are nothing but windbags and that they have no message from the LORD The LORD God Almighty said to me, "Jeremiah, because these people have said such things, I will make my words like a fire in your mouth The people will be like wood, and the fire will burn them up " 15 People of Israel, the LORD is bringing a nation from afar to attack you It is a strong and ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know 16 Their bowmen are mighty soldiers who kill without mercy 17 They will devour your crops and your food, they will kill your sons and your daughters They will slaughter your flocks and your herds and destroy your vines and fig-trees The fortified cities in which you trust will be destroyed by their army 18 The LORD says, "Yet even in those days I will not completely destroy my people 19 When they ask why I did all these things, tell them, Jeremiah, that just as they turned away from me and served foreign gods in their own land, so they will serve strangers in a land that is not theirs "

God Warns His People

20 The LORD says, "Tell the descendants of Jacob, tell the people of Judah 21 Pay attention, you foolish and stupid people, who have eyes, but cannot see, and have ears, but cannot hear 22 I am the LORD, why don't you fear me? Why don't you tremble before me? I placed the sand as the boundary of the sea, a permanent boundary that it cannot cross The sea may toss, but it cannot go beyond it, the waves may roar, but they cannot break through 23 But you people! You are stubborn and rebellious, you have turned aside and left me 24 You never thought to honour me, even though I send the autumn rains and the spring rains and give you the harvest season each year 25 Instead, your sins have kept these good things from you 26 "Evil men live among my people, they lie in wait like men who spread nets to catch birds,[e] but they have set their traps to catch men 27 Just as a hunter fills his cage with birds, they have filled their houses with loot That is why they are powerful and rich, 28 why they are fat and well fed There is no limit to their evil deeds They do not give orphans their rights or show justice to the oppressed 29 "But I, the LORD, will punish them for these things, I will take revenge on this nation 30 A terrible and shocking thing has happened in the land 31 prophets speak nothing but lies, priests rule as the prophets command, and my people offer no objections But what will they do when it all comes to an end?"

Jerusalem Is Surrounded by Enemies

6 People of Benjamin, run for safety!
Escape from Jerusalem! Sound the trumpet in Tekoa and build a signal fire in Beth Haccherem Disaster and destruction are about to come from the north 2 The city of Zion is beautiful, but it will be destroyed, 3 kings will camp there with their armies They will pitch their tents round the city, and each one will camp wherever he wants 4 They will say, "Prepare to attack Jerusalem! Get ready!
We'll attack at noon!" But then they will say, "It's too late, the day is almost over, and the evening shadows are growing long 5 We'll attack by night, we'll destroy the city's fortresses " 6 The LORD Almighty has ordered these kings to cut down trees and build mounds in order to besiege Jerusalem He has said, "I will punish this city because it is full of oppression 7 As a well keeps its water fresh, so Jerusalem keeps its evil fresh I hear violence and destruction in the city, sickness and wounds are all I see 8 People of Jerusalem, let these troubles be a warning to you, or else I will abandon you, I will turn your city into a desert, a place where no one lives "

Rebellious Israel

9 The LORD Almighty said to me, "Israel will be stripped clean like a vineyard from which every grape has been picked So you must rescue everyone you can while there is still time " 10 I answered, "Who would listen to me if I spoke to them and warned them?
They are stubborn and refuse to listen to your message, they laugh at what you tell me to say 11 Your anger against them burns in me too, LORD, and I can't hold it in any longer " Then the LORD said to me, "Pour out my anger on the children in the streets and on the gatherings of the young men Husbands and wives will be taken away, and even the very old will not be spared 12 Their houses will be given to others, and so will their fields and their wives I am going to punish the people of this land 13 Everyone, great and small, tries to make money dishonestly, even prophets and priests cheat the people 14 They act as if my people's wounds were only scratches 'All is well,' they say, when all is not well 15 Were they ashamed because they did these disgusting things?
No, they were not at all ashamed, they don't even know how to blush And so they will fall as others have fallen, when I punish them, that will be the end of them I, the LORD, have spoken "

Israel Rejects God's Way

16 The LORD said to his people, "Stand at the crossroads and look Ask for the ancient paths and where the best road is Walk on it, and you will live in peace " But they said, "No, we will not!" 17 Then the LORD appointed watchmen to listen for the trumpet's warning But they said, "We will not listen " 18 So the LORD said, "Listen, you nations, and learn what is going to happen to my people 19 Listen, earth! As punishment for all their schemes I am bringing ruin on these people, because they have rejected my teaching and have not obeyed my words 20 What do I care about the incense they bring me from Sheba, or the spices from a distant land? I will not accept their offerings or be pleased with their sacrifices 21 And so I will make these people stumble and fall Fathers and sons will die, and so will friends and neighbours "

Invasion from the North

22 The LORD says, "People are coming from a country in the north, a mighty nation far away is preparing for war 23 They have taken up their bows and swords, they are cruel and merciless They sound like the roaring sea, as they ride their horses They are ready for battle against Jerusalem " 24 "We have heard the news," say the

We have heard the news .and our hands hang limp (6 24) people of Jerusalem, "and our hands hang limp, we are seized by anguish and pain like a woman in labour 25 We dare not go to the countryside or walk on the roads, because our enemies are armed and terror is all round us " 26 The LORD says to his people, "Put on sackcloth and roll in ashes Mourn with bitter tears as you would for an only son, because the one who comes to destroy you will suddenly attack 27 Jeremiah, test my people, as you would test metal, and find out what they are like 28 They are all stubborn rebels, hard as bronze and iron They are all corrupt, going round and spreading gossip 29 The furnace burns fiercely, but the waste metals do not melt and run off It is useless to go on refining

6 12–15 Jer 8 10–12 6 14 Ezek 13 10 6 16 Mt 11 29 my people, because those who are evil are not taken away 30 They will be called worthless dross, because I, the LORD, have rejected them "

Jeremiah Preaches in the Temple

7 1-3 The LORD sent me to the gate of the Temple where the people of Judah went in to worship He told me to stand there and announce what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, had to say to them "Change the way you are living and the things you are doing, and I will let you go on living here 4 Stop believing those deceitful words, 'We are safe! This is the LORD's Temple, this is the LORD's Temple, this is the LORD's Temple!' 5 "Change the way you are living and stop doing the things you are doing Be fair in your treatment of one another 6 Stop taking advantage of aliens, orphans, and widows Stop killing innocent people in this land Stop worshipping other gods, for that will destroy you 7 If you change, I will let you go on living here in the land which I gave your ancestors as a permanent possession 8 "Look, you put your trust in deceitful words 9 You steal, murder, commit adultery, tell lies under oath, offer sacrifices to Baal, and worship gods that you had not known before 10 You do these things I hate, and then you come and stand in my presence, in my own Temple, and say, 'We are safe!' 11 Do you think that my Temple is a hiding place for robbers? I have seen what you are doing 12 Go to Shiloh,[f] the first place where I chose to be worshipped, and see what I did to it because of the sins of my people Israel 13 You have committed all these sins, and even though I spoke to you over and over again, you refused to listen You would not answer when I called you 14 And so, what I did to Shiloh I will do to this Temple of mine, in which you trust Here in this place that I gave to your ancestors and to you, I will do the same thing that I did to Shiloh 15 I will drive you out of my sight as I drove out your relatives, the people of Israel I, the LORD, have
spoken "

The People's Disobedience

16 The LORD said, "Jeremiah, do not pray for these people Do not cry or pray on their behalf, do not plead with me, for I will not listen to you 17 Don't you see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
18 The children gather firewood, the men build fires, and the women mix dough to bake cakes for the goddess they call the Queen of Heaven They also pour out wine-offerings to other gods, in order to hurt me 19 But am I really the one they are hurting? No, they are hurting themselves and bringing shame on themselves 20 And so I, the Sovereign LORD, will pour out my fierce anger on this Temple I will pour it out on people and animals alike, and even on the trees and the crops My anger will be like a fire that no one can put out 21 "My people, some sacrifices you burn completely on the altar, and some you are permitted to eat. But what I, the LORD, say is that you might as well eat them all 22 I gave your ancestors no commands about burnt-offerings or any other kinds of sacrifices, when I brought them out of Egypt 23 But I did comand them to obey me, so that I would be their God and they would be my people And I told them to live as I had commanded them, so that things would go well for them 24 But they did not obey or pay any attention Instead, they did whatever their stubborn and evil hearts told them to do, and they became worse instead of better 25 From the day that your ancestors came out of Egypt until this very day, I have kept on sending my servants, the prophets, to you 26 Yet no one listened or paid any attention Instead, you became more stubborn and rebellious than your ancestors 27 "So, Jeremiah, you will speak all these words to my people, but they will not listen to you, you will call them, but they will not answer 28 You will tell them that their nation does not obey me, the LORD their God, or learn from their punishment. Faithfulness is dead No longer is it even talked about Sinful Deeds in the Valley of Hinnom

29 "Mourn, people of Jerusalem, cut off your hair and throw it away Sing a funeral song on the hill-tops, because I, the LORD, am angry, and have rejected my people

[f] SHILOH The city where the Covenant Box was kept in the time of Eli (see 1 Sam 1 3) The city was destroyed by the Philistines

7 11 Mt 21 13, Mk 11 17, Lk 19 46   7 12-14 Josh 18 1, Ps 78 60 Jer 26 6   7.18 Jer 44 7-19

30 "The people of Judah have done an evil thing They have placed their idols, which I hate, in my Temple and have defiled it 31 In the Valley of Hinnom they have built an altar called Topheth, so that they can sacrifice their sons and daughters in the fire I did not command them to do this—it did not even enter my mind 32 And so, the time will come when it will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter They will bury people there because there will be nowhere else to bury them 33 The corpses will be food for the birds and wild animals, and there will be no one to scare them off 34 The land will become a desert In the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the happy sounds of wedding feasts

8 "At that time the bones of the kings and of the officials of Judah, as well as the bones of the priests, of the prophets, and of the other people who lived in Jerusalem, will be taken out of their graves 2 Instead of being gathered and buried, their bones will be like manure lying on the ground They will be spread out before the sun, the moon, and the stars, which these people have loved and served, and which they have consulted and worshipped 3 And the people of this evil nation who survive, who live in the places where I have scattered them, will prefer to die rather than to go on living I, the LORD Almighty, have spoken"

Sin and Punishment

4 The LORD told me to say to his people, "When someone falls down, doesn't he get back up? If someone misses the road, doesn't he turn back? 5 Why then, my people, do you turn away from me without ever turning back? You cling to your idols and refuse to return to me 6 I listened carefully, but you did not speak the truth Not one of you has been sorry for his wickedness, not one of you has asked, 'What have I done wrong?' Everyone keeps on going his own way, like a horse rushing into battle 7 Even storks know when it is time to return, doves, swallows, and thrushes know when it is time to migrate But, my people, you do not know the laws by which I rule you 8 How can you say that you are wise, and that you know my laws? Look, the laws have been changed by dishonest scribes 9 Your wise men are put to shame, they are confused and trapped They have rejected my words, what wisdom have they got now?
10 So I will give their fields to new owners and their wives to other men Everyone, great and small, tries to make money dishonestly Even prophets and priests cheat the people 11 They act as if my people's wounds were only scratches 'All is well,' they say, when all is not well 12 My people, were you ashamed because you did these disgusting things? No, you were not ashamed at all, you don't even know how to blush! And so you will fall as others have fallen, when I punish you, that will be the end of you I, the LORD,
have spoken

13 "I wanted to gather my people, as a man gathers his harvest, but they are like a vine with no grapes, like a fig-tree with no figs, even the leaves have withered Therefore, I have allowed outsiders to take over the land"[g] 14 "Why are we sitting still?" God's people ask "Come on, we will run to the fortified cities, and die there The LORD our God has condemned us to die, he has given us poison to drink, because we have sinned against him 15 We hoped for peace and a time of healing, but it was no use, terror came instead 16 Our enemies are already in the city of Dan, we hear the snorting of their horses The whole land trembles when their horses neigh Our enemies have come to destroy our land and everything in it, our city and all its people"

17 "Watch out!" the LORD says, "I am sending snakes among you, poisonous snakes that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you"

18 My sorrow cannot be healed,[h] I am sick at heart
19 Listen! Throughout the land I hear my people crying out,
"Is the LORD no longer in Zion?
Is Zion's king no longer there?"
The LORD, their king, replies, "Why have you made me angry by worshipping your idols and by bowing down to your useless foreign gods?"
20 The people cry out,

[g] Therefore land, Hebrew unclear [h] Probable text My sorrow healed, Hebrew unclear

Like a vine with no grapes, like a fig-tree with no figs (8 13)

"The summer is gone, the harvest is over,
but we have not been saved"

21 My heart has been crushed because my people are crushed, I mourn, I am completely dismayed 22 Is there no medicine in Gilead?[l] Are there no doctors there?
Why, then, have my people not been healed?

I am sick at heart (8 18)

9 I wish my head were a well of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I could cry day and night for my people who have been killed 2 I wish I had a place to stay in the desert where I could get away from my
people
They are all unfaithful, a mob of traitors 3 They are always ready to tell lies, dishonesty instead of truth rules the land

The LORD says,
"My people do one evil thing after another,
and do not acknowledge me as their
God"

4 Everyone must be on guard against his friend, and no one can trust his brother, for every brother is as deceitful as Jacob and everyone slanders his friends 5-6 They all mislead their friends, and no one tells the truth; they have taught their tongues to lie and will not give up their sinning They do one violent thing after another, and one deceitful act follows another

The LORD says that his people reject
him
7 Because of this the LORD Almighty says, "I will refine my people like metal [l] GILEAD A region east of the Jordan, famous for plants that were used for medicinal purposes and put them to the test.

My people have done evil—what else can I do with them?
8 Their tongues are like deadly arrows, they always tell lies Everyone speaks friendly words to his neighbour, but is really setting a trap for him 9 Will I not punish them for these things?
Will I not take revenge on a nation like this?
I, the LORD, have spoken"

10 I said, "I will mourn for the mountains and weep for the pastures, because they have dried up, and no one travels through them The sound of cattle is no longer heard, birds and wild animals have fled and gone"

11 The LORD says, "I will make Jerusalem a pile of ruins,
a place where jackals live, the cities of Judah will become a desert,
a place where no one lives"

12 I asked, "LORD, why is the land devastated and dry as a desert, so that no one travels through it? Who is wise enough to understand this? To whom have you explained it so that he can tell others?"

13 The LORD answered, "This has happened because my people have abandoned the teaching that I gave them They have not obeyed me or done what I told them 14 Instead, they have been stubborn and have worshipped the idols of Baal as their fathers taught them to do 15 So then, listen to what I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, will do I will give my people bitter plants to eat and poison to drink.
16 I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have heard about, and I will send armies against them until I have completely destroyed them"

The People of Jerusalem Cry Out for Help

17 The LORD Almighty said,
"Think about what is happening!
Call for the mourners to come, for the women who sing funeral songs"

18 The people said,
"Tell them to hurry and sing a funeral song for us, until our eyes fill with tears, and our eyelids are wet from crying"

19 Listen to the sound of crying in Zion, "We are ruined!
We are completely disgraced!
We must leave our land, our homes have been torn down"

20 I said,
"Listen to the LORD, you women, and pay attention to his words Teach your daughters how to mourn, and your friends how to sing a funeral song 21 Death has come in through our windows and entered our palaces, it has cut down the children in the streets
and the young men in the marketplaces 22 Dead bodies are scattered everywhere, like piles of manure on the fields, like corn cut and left behind by the reapers, corn that no one gathers This is what the LORD has told me to say"

23 The LORD says,
"Wise men should not boast of their
wisdom,
nor strong men of their strength, nor rich men of their wealth 24 If anyone wants to boast, he should boast that he knows and understands me, because my love is constant, and I do what is just and right These are the things that please me
I, the LORD, have spoken"

25–26 The LORD says, "The time is coming when I will punish the people of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and the desert people, who have their hair cut short[J] All these people are circumcised, but have not kept the covenant it symbolizes None of these people and none of the people of Israel have kept my covenant"

[J] HAIR CUT SHORT The desert people cut their hair short in honour of their god, a pagan practice forbidden to the Israelites (see Lev 19.27)

Idolatry and True Worship

10 People of Israel, listen to the message that the LORD has for you 2 He says,
"Do not follow the ways of other nations,
do not be disturbed by unusual sights in the sky, even though other nations are terrified
3 The religion of these people is worthless A tree is cut down in the forest; it is carved by the tools of the woodcarver, 4 and decorated with silver and gold It is fastened down with nails to keep it from falling over.
5 Such idols are like scarecrows in a field of melons,

They cannot speak; they have to be carried (10 5) they cannot speak; they have to be carried because they cannot walk Do not be afraid of them they can cause you no harm, and they can do you no good"

6 LORD, there is no one like you, you are mighty, and your name is great and powerful 7 Who would not honour you, the king of all nations?
You deserve to be honoured There is no one like you among all the wise men of the nations or among any of their kings 8 All of them are stupid and foolish What can they learn from wooden idols?[k] 9 Their idols are covered with silver from Spain and with gold from Uphaz, all the work of artists, they are dressed in violet and purple cloth woven by skilled weavers 10 But you, LORD, are the true God you are the living God and the eternal king.
When you are angry, the world trembles, the nations cannot endure your anger.

11 (You people must tell them that the gods who did not make the earth and the sky will be destroyed They will no longer exist anywhere on earth)

A Hymn of Praise to God

12 The LORD made the earth by his power; by his wisdom he created the world and stretched out the heavens 13 At his command the waters above the sky[l] roar, he brings clouds from the ends of the earth
He makes lightning flash in the rain and sends the wind from his storeroom.
14 At the sight of this, men feel stupid and senseless, those who make idols are disillusioned, because the gods they make are false and lifeless 15 They are worthless and should be despised, they will be destroyed when the LORD comes to deal with them 16 The God of Jacob is not like them, he is the one who made everything, and he has chosen Israel to be his very own people.
The LORD Almighty is his name.

The Coming Exile

17 People of Jerusalem, you are under siege! Gather up your belongings. 18 The LORD is going to throw you out of this land, he is going to crush you until not [k] What can idols?, or What their idols teach is worthless [l] WATERS ABOVE THE SKY See Gen 1 6–8 10 7 Rev 15 4

one of you is left The LORD has spoken 19 The people of Jerusalem cried out, "How badly we are hurt!
Our wounds will not heal And we thought this was something we could endure!
20 Our tents are ruined, the ropes that held them have broken Our children have all gone away, there is no one left to put up our tents again, there is no one to hang their curtains"

21 I answered, "Our leaders are stupid, they do not ask the LORD for guidance This is why they have failed, and our people have been scattered 22 Listen! News has come!
There is a great commotion in a nation to the north, its army will turn the cities of Judah into a desert,
a place where jackals live"

23 LORD, I know that no one is the master of his own destiny, no person has control over his own life 24 Correct your people, LORD, but do not be too hard on us or punish us when you are angry, that would be the end of us 25 Turn your anger on the nations that do not worship you and on the people who reject you They have killed your people, they have destroyed us completely and left our country in ruins

Jeremiah and the Covenant

11 The LORD said to me, 2 "Listen to the terms of the covenant. Tell the people of Judah and of Jerusalem 3 that I, the LORD God of Israel, have placed a curse on everyone who does not obey the terms of this covenant. 4 It is the covenant I made with their ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, the land that was like a blazing furnace to them I told them to obey me and to do everything that I had commanded I told them that if they obeyed, they would be my people and I would be their God 5 Then I would keep the promise I made to their ancestors that I would give them the rich and fertile land which they now have"
I said, "Yes, LORD" 6 Then the LORD said to me, "Go to the cities of Judah and to the streets of Jerusalem Proclaim my message there and tell the people to listen to the terms of the covenant and to obey them 7 When I brought their ancestors out of Egypt, I solemnly warned them to obey me, and I have kept on warning the people until this day 8 But they did not listen or obey Instead, everyone continued to be as stubborn and evil as ever. I had commanded them to keep the covenant, but they refused So I brought on them all the punishments described in it" 9 Then the LORD said to me, "The people of Judah and of Jerusalem are plotting against me 10 They have gone back to the sins of their ancestors, who refused to do what I said, they have worshipped other gods Both Israel and Judah have broken the covenant that I made with their ancestors 11 So now, I, the LORD, warn them that I am going to bring destruction on them, and they will not escape And when they cry out to me for help, I will not listen to them 12 Then the people of Judah and of Jerusalem will go to the gods to whom they offer sacrifices and will cry out to them for help But those gods will not be able to save them when this destruction comes 13 The people of Judah have as many gods as they have cities, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem have set up as many altars for sacrifices to that disgusting god Baal as there are streets in the city 14 Jeremiah, don't pray to me or plead with me on behalf of these people When they are in trouble and call to me for help, I will not listen to them" 15 The LORD says, "The people I love are doing evil things What right have they to be in my Temple? Do they think they can prevent disaster by making promises[m] and by offering animal sacrifices?
Will that make them happy? 16 I once called them a leafy olive-tree, full of beautiful fruit, but now, with a roar like thunder I will set its leaves on fire and break its branches 17 "I, the LORD Almighty, planted Israel and Judah, but now I threaten them with disaster They have brought this on themselves because they have done wrong, they have made me angry by offering sacrifices to Baal"

A Plot against Jeremiah's Life

18 The LORD informed me of the plots that my enemies were making against me 19 I was like a trusting lamb taken out

[m] One ancient translation promises, Hebrew many

I will set its leaves on fire (11 16) to be killed, and I did not know that it was against me that they were planning evil things They were saying, "Let's chop down the tree while it is still healthy, let's kill him so that no one will remember him any more" 20 Then I prayed, "Almighty LORD, you are a just judge, you test people's thoughts and feelings I have placed my cause in your hands, so let me watch you take revenge on these people" 21 The men of Anathoth wanted me killed, and they told me that they would kill me if I kept on proclaiming the LORD's message 22 So the LORD Almighty said, "I will punish them! Their young men will be killed in war, their children will die of starvation 23 I have set a time for bringing disaster on the people of Anathoth, and when that time comes, none of them will survive"

Jeremiah Questions the Lord

12 LORD, if I argued my case with
you,
you would prove to be right Yet I must question you about matters of justice
Why are wicked men so prosperous?
Why do dishonest men succeed?
2 You plant them, and they take root, they grow and bear fruit They always speak well of you, yet they do not really care about you 3 But, LORD, you know me, you see what I do, and how I love you Drag these evil men away like sheep to be butchered, guard them until it is time for them to be slaughtered 4 How long will our land be dry, and the grass in every field be withered?
Animals and birds are dying because of the wickedness of our
people, people who say, 'God doesn't see what we are doing'"[n]

5 The LORD said,
"Jeremiah, if you get tired racing against men, how can you race against horses?
If you can't even stand up in open country, how will you manage in the jungle by the Jordan?
6 Even your brothers, members of your own family, have betrayed you, they join in the attacks against you Do not trust them, even though they speak friendly words"

The Lord's Sorrow because of His People

7 The LORD says,
"I have abandoned Israel, I have rejected my chosen nation

[n] Some ancient translations what we are doing, Hebrew our latter end

I have given the people I love into the power of their enemies 8 My chosen people have turned against
me,
like a lion in the forest they have roared at me, and so I hate them 9 My chosen people are like a bird attacked from all sides by hawks Call the wild animals to come and join in the feast!
10 Many foreign rulers have destroyed my vineyard,
they have trampled down my fields, they have turned my lovely land into a desert 11 They have made it a wilderness; it lies desolate before me The whole land has become a desert, and no one cares 12 Across all the desert highlands men have come to plunder I have sent war to destroy the entire
land,
no one can live in peace 13 My people sowed wheat, but gathered weeds, they have worked hard, but got nothing for it.
Because of my fierce anger their crops have failed"

The LORD's Promise to Israel's Neighbours

14 The LORD says, "I have something to say about Israel's neighbours who have ruined the land I gave to my people Israel I will take those wicked people away from their countries like an uprooted plant, and I will rescue Judah from them 15 But after I have taken them away, I will have mercy on them, I will bring each nation back to its own land and to its own country 16 If with all their hearts they will accept the religion of my people and will swear, 'As the LORD lives'—as they once taught my people to swear by Baal—then they will also be a part of my people and will prosper 17 But if any nation will not obey, then I will completely uproot it and destroy it I, the LORD, have spoken"

The Linen Shorts

13 The LORD told me to go and buy myself some linen shorts and to put them on, but he told me not to put them in water 2 So I bought them and put them on 3 Then the LORD spoke to me again, and said, 4 "Go to the River Euphrates and hide the shorts in a hole in the rocks" 5 So I went and hid them near the Euphrates 6 Some time later the LORD told me to go back to the Euphrates and get the shorts 7 So I went back, and when I found the place where I had hidden them, I saw that they were ruined and were no longer any good 8 Then the LORD spoke to me again He said, 9 "This is how I will destroy the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem 10 These evil people have refused to obey me They have been as stubborn and wicked as ever, and have worshipped and served other gods So then, they will become like these shorts that are no longer any good 11 Just as shorts fit tightly round the waist, so I intended all the people of Israel and Judah to hold tightly to me I did this so that they would be my people and would bring praise and honour to my name, but they would not obey me"

The Wine-Jar

12 The LORD God said to me, "Jeremiah, tell the people of Israel that every wine-jar should be filled with wine They will answer that they know every wine-jar should be filled with wine 13 Then tell them that I, the LORD, am going to fill the people in this land with wine until they are drunk the kings, who are David's descendants, the priests, the prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem 14 Then I will smash them like jars against one another, old and young alike No pity, compassion, or mercy will stop me from killing them"

Jeremiah Warns against Pride

15 People of Israel, the LORD has spoken!
Be humble and listen to him 16 Honour the LORD, your God, before he brings darkness, and you stumble on the mountains, before he turns into deep darkness the light you hoped for 17 If you will not listen, I will cry in secret because of your
pride,
I will cry bitterly, and my tears will flow because the LORD's people have been taken away as captives

18 The LORD said to me, "Tell the king and his mother to come down from their thrones, because their beautiful crowns

They come back with their jars empty (14.3) have fallen from their heads.[o] 19 The towns of southern Judah are under siege; no one can get through to them. All the people of Judah have been taken away into exile."

20 Jerusalem, look! Your enemies are coming down from the north! Where are the people entrusted to your care, your people you were so proud of? 21 What will you say when people you thought were your friends conquer you and rule over you?[p] You will be in pain like a woman giving birth. 22 If you ask why all this has happened to you—why your clothes have been torn off and you have been raped—it is because your sin is so terrible. 23 Can a black man change the colour of his skin, or a leopard remove its spots? If they could, then you that do nothing but evil could learn to do what is right. 24 The LORD will scatter you like straw that is blown away by the desert wind. 25 He has said that this will be your fate. This is what he has decided to do with you, because you have forgotten him and have trusted in false gods. 26 The LORD himself will strip off your clothes and expose you to shame. 27 He has seen you do the things he hates. He has seen you go after pagan gods on the hills and in the fields, like a man lusting after his neighbour's wife or like a stallion after a mare. People of Jerusalem, you are doomed! When will you ever be pure?

The Terrible Drought

14 The LORD said to me concerning the drought,

2 "Judah is in mourning; its cities are dying, its people lie on the ground in sorrow, and Jerusalem cries out for help.
3 The rich people send their servants for water;
they go to the cisterns, but find no water;
they come back with their jars empty.
Discouraged and confused, they hide their faces.
4 Because there is no rain and the ground is dried up, the farmers are sick at heart;
they hide their faces.
5 In the field the mother deer abandons her new-born fawn because there is no grass.
6 The wild donkeys stand on the hill tops and pant for breath like jackals; their eyesight fails them because they have no food.
7 My people cry out to me,
'Even though our sins accuse us, [o] Some ancient translations from their heads; Hebrew unclear.

[p] Probable text What ... over you; Hebrew unclear.

help us, LORD, as you have promised We have turned away from you many times,
we have sinned against you 8 You are Israel's only hope, you are the one who saves us from disaster
Why are you like a stranger in our land, like a traveller who stays for only one night?
9 Why are you like a man taken by surprise, like a soldier powerless to help?
Surely, LORD, you are with us!
We are your people;
do not abandon us!'"

10 The LORD says about these people, "They love to run away from me, and they will not control themselves So I am not pleased with them I will remember the wrongs they have done and punish them because of their sins" 11 The LORD said to me, "Do not ask me to help these people 12 Even if they fast, I will not listen to their cry for help, and even if they offer me burnt-offerings and grain-offerings, I will not be pleased with them Instead, I will kill them in war and by starvation and disease" 13 Then I said, "Sovereign LORD, you know that the prophets are telling the people that there will be no war or starvation, because you have promised, they say, that there will be only peace in our land" 14 But the LORD replied, "The prophets are telling lies in my name, I did not send them, nor did I give them any orders or speak one word to them The visions they talk about have not come from me, their predictions are worthless things that they have imagined 15 I, the LORD, tell you what I am going to do to those prophets whom I did not send but who speak in my name and say war and starvation will not strike this land—I will kill them in war and by starvation 16 The people to whom they have said these things will be killed in the same way Their bodies will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, and there will be no one to bury them This will happen to all of them—including their wives, their sons, and their daughters I will make them pay for their wickedness" 17 The LORD commanded me to tell the people about my sorrow and to say

"May my eyes flow with tears day and night,
may I never stop weeping, for my people are deeply wounded and are badly hurt 18 When I go out into the fields, I see the bodies of men killed in war, when I go into the towns, I see people starving to death Prophets and priests carry on their work, but they don't know what they are doing"[q]

The People Plead with the LORD

19 LORD, have you completely rejected Judah?
Do you hate the people of Zion?
Why have you hurt us so badly that we cannot be healed?
We looked for peace, but nothing good happened,
we hoped for healing, but terror came instead 20 We have sinned against you, LORD, we confess our own sins and the sins of our ancestors 21 Remember your promises and do not despise us, do not bring disgrace on Jerusalem, the place of your glorious throne Do not break the covenant you made with us 22 None of the idols of the nations can send rain, the sky by itself cannot make showers fall
We have put our hope in you, O LORD
our God,
because you are the one who does
these things

Doom for the People of Judah

15 Then the LORD said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel were standing here pleading with me, I would not show these people any mercy Make them go away, make them get out of my sight 2 When they ask you where they should go, tell them that I have said Some are doomed to die by disease—that's where they will go!
Others are doomed to die in war—
that's where they will go!
Some are doomed to die of starvation—
that's where they will go!

[q] Prophets doing, or Prophets and priests have been dragged away to a land they know nothing about 15 1: Ex 32 11–14, Num 14 13–19, 1 Sam 7 5–9 15.2 Rev 13 10

Others are doomed to be taken away as prisoners—
that's where they will go!
3I, the LORD, have decided that four terrible things will happen to them they will be killed in war, their bodies will be dragged off by dogs, birds will eat them, and wild animals will devour what is left over 4I will make all the people of the world horrified at them because of what Hezekiah's son Manasseh did in Jerusalem when he was king of Judah "
5 The LORD says,
"Who will pity you, people of Jerusalem, and who will grieve over you?
Who will stop long enough to ask how you are?
6 You people have rejected me, you have turned your backs on me So I stretched out my hand and crushed
you because I was tired of controlling my anger [r] 7 In every town in the land I threw you to the wind like straw I destroyed you, my people, I killed your children because you did not stop your evil ways
8 There are more widows in your land than grains of sand by the sea I killed your young men in their prime and made their mothers suffer I suddenly struck them with anguish and terror 9 The mother who lost her seven children has fainted, gasping for breath
Her daylight has turned to darkness; she is disgraced and sick at heart I will let your enemies kill those of you who are still alive
I, the LORD, have spoken "

Jeremiah Complains to the LORD

10 What an unhappy man I am! Why did my mother bring me into the world?
I have to quarrel and argue with everyone in the land I have not lent any money or borrowed any, yet everyone curses me 11 LORD, may all their curses come true if I have not served[s] you well, if I have not pleaded with you on behalf of my enemies when they were in trouble and distress 12(No one can break iron, especially the iron from the north that is mixed with bronze)

13 The LORD said to me, "I will send enemies to carry away the wealth and treasures of my people, in order to punish them for the sins they have committed throughout the land. 14I will make them serve their enemies in a land they know nothing about, because my anger is like fire, and it will burn for ever " 15 Then I said, "LORD, you understand Remember me and help me Let me have revenge on those who persecute me Do not be so patient with them that they succeed in killing me Remember that it is for your sake that I am insulted. 16You spoke to me, and I listened to every word I belong to you, LORD God Almighty, and so your words filled my heart with joy and happiness 17I did not spend my time with other people, laughing and having a good time In obedience to your orders I stayed by myself and was filled with anger. 18Why do I keep on suffering? Why are my wounds incurable? Why won't they heal? Do you intend to disappoint me like a stream that goes dry in the summer?" 19 To this the LORD replied, "If you return, I will take you back, and you will be my servant again If instead of talking nonsense you proclaim a worthwhile message, you will be my prophet again The people will come back to you, and you will not need to go to them 20I will make you like a solid bronze wall as far as they are concerned They will fight against you, but they will not defeat you I will be with you to protect you and keep you safe 21I will rescue you from the power of wicked and violent men. I, the LORD, have spoken "

The LORD's Will for Jeremiah's Life

16 Again the LORD spoke to me and said, 2"Do not marry or have children in a place like this 3I will tell you what is going to happen to the children who are born here and to their parents 4They will die of terrible diseases, and no one will mourn for them or bury them Their bodies will lie like piles of manure on the ground They will be killed in war or die of starvation, and their bodies will be food for the birds and the wild animals 5 "You must not enter a house where there is mourning Do not grieve for anyone I will no longer bless my people

[r]you because anger, or you, I was tired of feeling sorry for you with peace or show them love and mercy 6 The rich and the poor will die in this land, but no one will bury them or mourn for them No one will gash himself or shave his head to show his grief 7 No one will eat or drink with anyone to comfort him when a loved one dies No one will show sympathy, not even for someone who has lost his father or mother 8 "Do not enter a house where people are feasting Do not sit down with them to eat and drink 9 Listen to what I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, have to say. I will silence the sounds of joy and gladness and the happy sounds of wedding feasts The people here will live to see this happen 10 "When you tell them all this, they will ask you why I have decided to punish them so harshly They will ask what crime they are guilty of and what sin they have committed against the LORD their God 11 Then tell them that the LORD has said, 'Your ancestors turned away from me and worshipped and served other gods They abandoned me and did not obey my teachings 12 But you have done even worse than your ancestors All of you are stubborn and evil, and you do not obey me 13 So then, I will throw you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your ancestors have ever known And there you will serve other gods day and night, and I will show you no mercy'"

The Return from Exile

14 The LORD says, "The time is coming when people will no longer swear by me as the living God who brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt 15 Instead, they will swear by me as the living God who brought the people of Israel out of a northern land and out of all the other countries where I had scattered them I will bring them back to their own country, to the land that I gave their ancestors I, the LORD, have
spoken"

The Coming Punishment

16 The LORD says, "I am sending for many fishermen to come and catch these people Then I will send for many hunters to hunt them down on every mountain and hill and in the caves among the rocks 17 I see everything they do Nothing is hidden from me; their sins do not escape my sight 18 I will make them pay double for their sin and wickedness, because they have defiled my land with idols that are as lifeless as corpses, and have filled it with their false gods"

Jeremiah's Prayer of Confidence in the LORD

19 LORD, you are the one who protects me and gives me strength, you help me in times of trouble Nations will come to you from the ends of the earth and say, "Our ancestors had nothing but false gods, nothing but useless idols 20 Can a man make his own gods? No, if he did, they would not really be gods" 21 "So then," says the LORD, "once and for all I will make the nations know my power and my might, they will know that I am the LORD"

The Sin and Punishment of Judah

17 The LORD says, "People of Judah, your sin is written with an iron pen, it is engraved on your hearts with a diamond point and carved on the corners of your altars 2 Your people worship at the altars and the symbols that have been set up for the goddess Asherah by every green tree, on the hill-tops 3 and on the mountains in the open country I will make your enemies take away your wealth and your treasures because of all the sins you have committed[t] throughout your land 4 You will have to give up[u] the land I gave you, and I will make you serve your enemies in a land you know nothing about, because my anger is like a fire, and it will burn for ever"

Various Sayings

5 The LORD says,
"I will condemn the person who turns away from me and puts his trust in man, in the strength of mortal man 6 He is like a bush in the desert, which grows in the dry wilderness, on salty ground where nothing else grows Nothing good ever happens to him who puts his trust in me

Jeremiah Asks the LORD for Help

14 LORD, heal me and I will be completely well, rescue me and I will be perfectly safe You are the one I praise!
15 The people say to me, "Where are those threats the LORD made against us?
Let him carry them out now!" 16 But, LORD, I never urged you to bring disaster on them,[b] I did not wish a time of trouble for them LORD, you know this, you know what I have said 17 Do not be a terror to me, you are my place of safety when trouble comes 18 Bring disgrace on those who persecute me, but spare me, LORD Fill them with terror, but do not terrify me Bring disaster on them and break them to pieces

On Observing the Sabbath

19 The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, go and announce my message at the People's Gate, through which the kings of Judah enter and leave the city, then go to all the other gates of Jerusalem 20 Tell the kings and all the people of Judah and everyone who lives in Jerusalem and enters these gates, to listen to what I say 21 Tell them that if they love their lives, they must not carry any load on the Sabbath, they must not carry anything in through the gates of Jerusalem 22 or carry anything out of their houses on the Sabbath They must not work on the Sabbath; they must observe it as a sacred day, as I commanded their ancestors 23 Their ancestors did not listen to me or pay any attention Instead, they became stubborn; they would not obey me or learn from me 24 "Tell these people that they must obey all my commands They must not carry any load in through the gates of this city on the Sabbath They must observe the Sabbath as a sacred day and must not do any work at all 25 Then their kings and princes will enter the gates of Jerusalem and have the same royal power that David had Together with the people of Judah and of Jerusalem, they will ride in chariots and on horses, and the city of Jerusalem will always be filled with people 26 People will come from the towns of Judah and from the villages round Jerusalem, they will come from the territory of Benjamin, from the foothills, from the mountains, and from southern Judah They will bring to my Temple burnt-offerings and sacrifices, grain-offerings and incense, as well as thank-offerings 27 But they must obey me and observe the Sabbath as a sacred day They must not carry any load through the gates of Jerusalem on that day, for if they do, I will set the gates of Jerusalem on fire Fire will burn down the palaces of Jerusalem, and no one will be able to put it out."

Jeremiah at the Potter's House

18 The LORD said to me, 2 "Go down to the potter's house, where I will give you my message" 3 So I went there and saw the potter working at his wheel 4 Whenever a piece of pottery turned out imperfect, he would take the clay and make it into something else 5 Then the LORD said to me, 6 "Haven't I the right to do with you people of Israel what the potter did with the clay? You are in my hands just like clay in the

I am going to uproot, break down, or destroy any nation or kingdom, [8]but then that nation turns from its evil, I will not do what I said I would [9]On the other hand, if I say that I am going to plant or build up any nation or kingdom, [10]but then that nation disobeys me and does evil, I will not do what I said I would [11]Now then, tell the people of Judah and of Jerusalem that I am making plans against them and getting ready to punish them Tell them to stop living sinful lives—to change their ways and the things they are doing [12]They will answer, 'No, why should we? We will all be just as stubborn and evil as we want to be ' "

The People Reject the LORD

13 The LORD says,
"Ask every nation if such a thing has every happened before The people of Israel have done a terrible thing!
[14] Are Lebanon's rocky heights ever without snow?
Do its cool mountain streams ever run dry?
[15] Yet my people have forgotten me, they burn incense to idols They have stumbled in the way they should go, they no longer follow the old ways, they walk on unmarked paths [16] They have made this land a thing of horror, to be despised for ever All who pass by will be shocked at what they see, they will shake their heads in amazement [17] I will scatter my people before their
enemies,
like dust blown by the east wind I will turn my back on them, I will not help them when the disaster comes "

A Plot against Jeremiah

18 Then the people said, "Let's do something about Jeremiah! There will always be priests to instruct us, wise men to give us counsel, and prophets to proclaim God's message Let's bring charges against him, and stop listening to what he says " 19 So I prayed, "LORD, hear what I am saying and listen to what my enemies are saying about me [20]Is evil the payment

LORD, hear what I am saying (18 19) for good? Yet they have dug a pit for me to fall in Remember how I came to you and spoke on their behalf, so that you would not deal with them in anger.

[21]But now, LORD, let their children starve to death, let them be killed in war Let the women lose their husbands and children, let the men die of disease and the young men be killed in battle [22]Send a mob to plunder their homes without warning, make them cry out in terror They have dug a pit for me to fall in and have set traps to catch me [23]But, LORD, you know all their plots to kill me Do not forgive their evil or pardon their sin Throw them down in defeat and deal with them while you are angry "

The Broken Jar

19 The LORD told me to go and buy a clay jar He also told me to take some of the elders of the people and some of the older priests, [2]and to go through Potsherd Gate out to the Valley of Hinnom There I was to proclaim the message that he would give me [3]The LORD told me to say, "Kings of Judah

19.2 2 Kgs 23 10, Jer 7 30-32, 32 34-35

The LORD told me to break the jar (19 10) and people of Jerusalem, listen to what I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, have to say I am going to bring such a disaster on this place that everyone who hears about it will be stunned 4 I am going to do this because the people have abandoned me and defiled this place by offering sacrifices here to other gods—gods that neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah have known anything about They have filled this place with the blood of innocent people, 5 and they have built altars for Baal in order to burn their children in the fire as sacrifices I never commanded them to do this, it never even entered my mind 6 So then, the time will come when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Hinnom Instead, it will be known as the Valley of Slaughter 7 In this place I will frustrate all the plans of the people of Judah and Jerusalem I will let their enemies triumph over them and kill them in battle I will give their corpses to the birds and the wild animals as food 8 I will bring such terrible destruction on this city that everyone who passes by will be shocked and amazed 9 The enemy will surround the city and try to kill its people The siege will be so terrible that the people inside the city will eat one another and even their own children "

10 Then the LORD told me to break the jar in front of the men who had gone with me 11 and to tell them that the LORD Almighty had said, "I will break this people and this city, and it will be like this broken clay jar that cannot be put together again People will bury their dead even in Topheth because there will be nowhere else to bury them 12 I promise that I will make this city and its inhabitants like Topheth 13 The houses of Jerusalem, the houses of the kings of Judah, and indeed all the houses on whose roofs incense has been burnt to the stars and where wine has been poured out as an offering to other gods—they will all be as unclean as Topheth "

14 Then I left Topheth, where the LORD had sent me to proclaim his message I went and stood in the court of the Temple and told all the people 15 that the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, had said, "I am going to bring on this city and on every nearby town all the punishment that I said I would, because you are stubborn and will not listen to what I say "

19 5 Lev 18 21

Jeremiah's Conflict with Pashhur the Priest

20 When the priest Pashhur son of Immer, who was the chief officer of the Temple, heard me proclaim these things, 2 he ordered me to be beaten and placed in chains near the upper Benjamin Gate in the Temple. 3 The next morning, after Pashhur had released me from the chains, I said to him, "The LORD did not name you Pashhur. The name he has given you is 'Terror Everywhere.' 4 The LORD himself has said, 'I am going to make you a terror to yourself and to your friends, and you will see them all killed by the swords of their enemies. I am going to put all the people of Judah under the power of the king of Babylonia; he will take some away as prisoners to his country and put others to death. 5 I will also let their enemies plunder all the wealth of this city and seize all its possessions and property, even the treasures of the kings of Judah, and carry everything off to Babylonia. 6 As for you, Pashhur, you and all your family will also be captured and taken off to Babylonia.
There you will die and be buried, along with all your friends to whom you have told so many lies.'"

Jeremiah Complains to the LORD

7 LORD, you have deceived me, and I was deceived.
You are stronger than I am, and you have overpowered me.
Everyone jeers at me;
they mock me all day long.

8 Whenever I speak, I have to cry out and shout, "Violence! Destruction!" LORD, I am ridiculed and scorned all the time because I proclaim your message.
9 But when I say, "I will forget the LORD and no longer speak in his name," then your message is like a fire burning deep within me.
I try my best to hold it in, but can no longer keep it back.
10 I hear everybody whispering, "Terror is everywhere!
Let's report him to the authorities!" Even my close friends wait for my downfall.
"Perhaps he can be tricked," they say,
"then we can catch him and get revenge."

11 But you, LORD, are on my side, strong and mighty,
and those who persecute me will fail.
They will be disgraced for ever, because they cannot succeed.
Their disgrace will never be forgotten.
12 But, Almighty LORD, you test men justly;
you know what is in their hearts and minds.
So let me see you take revenge on my
enemies,
for I have placed my cause in your hands.
13 Sing to the LORD!
Praise the LORD!
He rescues the oppressed from the power of evil men.

14 Curse the day I was born!
Forget the day my mother gave me birth!
15 Curse the man who made my father
when he brought him the news,
"It's a boy! You have a son!" 16 May he be like those cities that the LORD destroyed without mercy.
May he hear cries of pain in the morning and the battle alarm at noon, 17 because he didn't kill me before I was born.
Then my mother's womb would have been my grave.
18 Why was I born?
Was it only to have trouble and sorrow,
to end my life in disgrace?

Jerusalem's Defeat Is Predicted

21 King Zedekiah of Judah sent Pashhur son of Malchiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to me with this request. 2 "Please speak to the LORD for us, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia and his army are besieging the city. Maybe the LORD will perform one of his miracles for us and force Nebuchadnezzar to retreat." 3 Then the LORD spoke to me, and I told the men who had been sent to me 4 to tell Zedekiah that the LORD, the God of Israel, had said, "Zedekiah, I am going to defeat your army that is fighting against the king of Babylonia and his army. I will pile up your soldiers' weapons in the centre of the city. 5 I will fight against you with all my might, my anger,

20.14-18 Job 3.1-19 21.2 2 Kgs 25.1-11; 2 Chr 36.17-21 my wrath, and my fury 6 I will kill everyone living in this city, people and animals alike will die of a terrible disease 7 But as for you, your officials, and the people who survive the war, the famine, and the disease—I will let all of you be captured by King Nebuchadnezzar and by your enemies, who want to kill you Nebuchadnezzar will put you to death He will not spare any of you or show mercy or pity to any of you I, the LORD,

have spoken"

8 Then the LORD told me to say to the people, "Listen! I, the LORD, am giving you a choice between the way that leads to life and the way that leads to death 9 Anyone who stays in the city will be killed in war or by starvation or disease But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Babylonians, who are now attacking the city, will not be killed, he will at least escape with his life 10 I have made up my mind not to spare this city, but to destroy it It will be given over to the king of Babylonia and he will burn it to the ground I, the LORD, have spoken"

Judgement on the Royal House of Judah

11-12 The LORD told me to give this message to the royal house of Judah, the descendants of David "Listen to what I, the LORD, am saying See that justice is done every day Protect the person who is being cheated from the one who is cheating him If you don't, the evil you are doing will make my anger burn like a fire that cannot be put out 13 You, Jerusalem, are sitting[c] high above the valleys, like a rock rising above the plain But I will fight against you You say that no one can attack you or break through your defences 14 But I will punish you for what you have done I will set your palace on fire, and the fire will burn down everything round it I, the LORD, have
spoken"

Jeremiah's Message to the Royal House of Judah

22 1-2 The LORD told me to go to the palace of the king of Judah, the descendant of David, and there tell the king, his officials, and the people of Jerusalem to listen to what the LORD had said 3 "I, the LORD, command you to do what is just and right Protect the person who is being cheated from the one who is cheating him Do not ill-treat or oppress foreigners, orphans, or widows, and do not kill innocent people in this holy place 4 If you really do as I have commanded, then David's descendants will continue to be kings And they, together with their officials and their people, will continue to pass through the gates of this palace in chariots and on horses 5 But if you do not obey my commands, then I swear to you that this palace will fall into ruins
I, the LORD, have spoken

6 "To me, Judah's royal palace is as beautiful as the land of Gilead and as the Lebanon Mountains, but I will make it a desolate place where no one lives 7 I am sending men to destroy it They will all bring their axes, cut down its beautiful cedar pillars, and throw them into the fire

8 "Afterwards many foreigners will pass by and ask one another why I, the LORD, have done such a thing to this great city 9 Then they will answer, that it is because you have abandoned your covenant with me, your God and have worshipped and served other gods"

Jeremiah's Message concerning Joahaz

10 People of Judah, do not weep for King Josiah, do not mourn his death But weep bitterly for Joahaz, his son, they are taking him away, never to return, never again to see the land where he was born

11 The LORD says concerning Josiah's son Joahaz, who succeeded his father as king of Judah, "He has gone away from here, never to return 12 He will die in the country where they have taken him, and he will never again see this land"

Jeremiah's Message concerning Jehoiakim

13 Doomed is the man who builds his house by injustice and enlarges it by dishonesty, who makes his countrymen work for nothing and does not pay their wages 14 Doomed is the man who says, "I will build myself a mansion with spacious rooms upstairs" So he puts windows in his house, panels it with cedar, and paints it red 15 Does it make you a better king if you build houses of cedar, finer than those of others?

[c] You, Jerusalem, are sitting, or You are enthroned

22 5 Mt 23 38, Lk 13 35 22 11 2 Kgs 23 31-34, 2 Chr 36 1-4

Your father enjoyed a full life He was always just and fair, and he prospered in everything he did 16 He gave the poor a fair trial, and all went well with him.
That is what it means to know the LORD 17 But you can only see your selfish interests, you kill the innocent and violently oppress your people
The LORD has spoken

18 So then, the LORD says about Josiah's son Jehoiakim, king of Judah,
"No one will mourn his death or say,
'How terrible, my friend, how terrible!'
No one will weep for him or cry, 'My lord! My king!' 19 With the funeral honours of a donkey, he will be dragged away and thrown outside Jerusalem's gates"

Jeremiah's Message about the Fate of Jerusalem

20 People of Jerusalem, go to Lebanon and shout, go to the land of Bashan and cry, call out from the mountains of Moab, because all your allies have been defeated 21 The LORD spoke to you when you were prosperous,
but you refused to listen That is what you've done all your life, you never would obey the LORD 22 Your leaders will be blown away by the wind, your allies taken as prisoners of war, your city disgraced and put to shame because of all the evil you have done 23 You rest secure among the cedars brought from Lebanon, but how pitiful you'll be when pains strike you, pains like those of a woman in labour

God's Judgement on Jehoiachin

24 The LORD said to King Jehoiachin, son of King Jehoiakim of Judah, "As surely as I am the living God, even if you were the signet-ring on my right hand, I would pull you off 25 and give you to people you are afraid of, people who want to kill you I will give you to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia and his soldiers 26 I am going to force you and your mother into exile You will go to a country where neither of you was born, and both of you will die there 27 You will long to see this country again, but you will never return" 28 I said, "Has King Jehoiachin become like a broken jar that is thrown away and that no one wants? Is that why he and his children have been taken into exile to a land they know nothing about?" 29 O land, land, land!
Listen to what the LORD has said.
30 "This man is condemned to lose his children,
to be a man who will never succeed He will have no descendants who will rule in Judah as David's successors
I, the LORD, have spoken"

Hope for the Future

23 How terrible will be the LORD's judgement on those rulers who destroy and scatter his people!
2 This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the rulers who were supposed to take care of his people "You have not taken care of my people, you have scattered them and driven them away Now I am going to punish you for the evil you have done 3 I will gather the rest of my people from the countries where I have scattered them, and I will bring them back to their homeland They will have many children and increase in number 4 I will appoint rulers to take care of them My people will no longer be afraid or terrified, and I will not punish them again [d] I, the LORD, have spoken" 5 The LORD says, "The time is coming when I will choose as king a righteous descendant of David That king will rule wisely and do what is right and just throughout the land 6 When he is king, the people of Judah will be safe, and the people of Israel will live in peace He will be called 'The LORD Our Salvation' 7 "The time is coming," says the LORD,
"when people will no longer swear by me
of Israel out of the land of Egypt

Jeremiah's Message about the Prophets 9 My heart is crushed, and I am trembling Because of the LORD, because of his holy words, I am like a man who is drunk, a man who has had too much wine 10 The land is full of people unfaithful to the LORD, they live wicked lives and misuse their power Because of the LORD's curse the land mourns and the pastures are dry

11 The LORD says,
"The prophets and the priests are godless,
I have caught them doing evil in the Temple itself
12 The paths they follow will be slippery and dark,
I will make them stumble and fall I am going to bring disaster on them; the time of their punishment is coming
I, the LORD, have spoken 13 I have seen the sin of Samaria's prophets they have spoken in the name of Baal and have led my people astray 14 But I have seen the prophets in Jerusalem do even worse they commit adultery and tell lies; they help people to do wrong, so that no one stops doing what is evil
To me, they are all as bad as the people of Sodom and Gomorrah

15 "So then, this is what I, the LORD Almighty, say about the prophets of Jerusalem
I will give them bitter plants to eat and poison to drink, because they have spread ungodliness throughout the land" 16 The LORD Almighty said to the people of Jerusalem, "Do not listen to what the prophets say, they are filling you with false hopes They tell you what they have imagined and not what I have said 17 To the people who refuse to listen to what I have said, they keep saying that all will go well with them And they tell everyone who is stubborn that disaster will never touch him" 18 I said, "None of these prophets has ever known the LORD's secret thoughts None of them has ever heard or understood his message, or ever listened or paid attention to what he said 19 His anger is a storm, a furious wind that will rage over the heads of the wicked, 20 and it will not end until he has done everything he intends to do In days to come his people will understand this clearly" 21 The LORD said, "I did not send these prophets, but even so they went I did not give them any message, but still they spoke in my name 22 If they had known my secret thoughts, then they could have proclaimed my message to my people and could have made them give up the evil lives they live and the wicked things they do 23 "I am a God who is everywhere and not in one place only 24 No one can hide where I cannot see him Do you not know that I am everywhere in heaven and on earth? 25 I know what those prophets have said who speak lies in my name and claim that I have given them my messages in their dreams 26 How much longer will those prophets mislead my people with the lies they have invented? 27 They think that the dreams they tell will make my people forget me, just as their fathers forgot me and turned to Baal 28 The prophet who has had a dream should say it is only a dream, but the prophet who has heard my message should proclaim that message faithfully What good is straw compared with wheat? 29 My message is like a fire, and like a hammer that breaks rocks in pieces 30 I am against those prophets who take each other's words and proclaim them as my message 31 I am also against those prophets who speak their own words and claim they came from me 32 Listen to what I, the LORD, say! I am against the prophets who tell their dreams that are full of lies They tell these dreams and lead my people astray with their lies and their boasting I did not send them or order them to go, and they are of no help at all to the people
I, the LORD, have spoken"

The LORD's Burden

33 The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, when one of my people or a prophet or a priest asks you, 'What is the LORD's 23 14 Gen 18 20, Ezek 16 49 message?' you are to tell him, 'You are a burden[e] to the LORD, and he is going to get rid of you.' 34 If one of my people or a prophet or a priest even uses the words 'the LORD's burden,' I will punish him and his family. 35 Instead, each one should ask his friends and his relatives, 'What answer has the LORD given? What has the LORD said?' 36 So they must no longer use the words 'the LORD's burden,' because if anyone does, I will make my message a real burden to him. The people have perverted the words of their God, the living God, the LORD Almighty.

37 Jeremiah, ask the prophets, 'What answer did the LORD give you? What did the LORD say?' 38 And if they disobey my command and use the words 'the LORD's burden,' then tell them that 39 I will certainly pick them up[f] and throw them far away from me, both them and the city that I gave to them and their ancestors. 40 I will bring on them everlasting shame and disgrace that will never be forgotten."

Two Baskets of Figs

24 The LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the Temple. (This was after King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia had taken away Jehoiakim's son, King Jehoiachin of Judah, as a prisoner from Jerusalem to Babylonia, together with the leaders of Judah, the craftsmen, and the skilled workers.) 2 The first basket contained good figs, those that ripen early, the other one contained bad figs, too bad to eat.
3 Then the LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered, "Figs. The good ones are very good, and the bad ones are very bad, too bad to eat."

4 So the LORD said to me, 5 "I, the LORD, the God of Israel, consider that the people who were taken away to Babylonia are like these good figs, and I will treat them with kindness. 6 I will watch over them and bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not pull them up.
7 I will give them the desire to know that I am the LORD. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God, because they will return to me with all their heart.

8 "As for King Zedekiah of Judah, the politicians round him, and the rest of the people of Jerusalem who have stayed in this land or moved to Egypt—I, the LORD, will treat them all like these figs that are too bad to be eaten. 9 I will bring such a disaster on them that all the nations of the world will be terrified. People will mock them, make jokes about them, ridicule them, and use their name as a curse everywhere I scatter them. 10 I will bring war, starvation, and disease on them until there is not one of them left in the land that I gave to them and their ancestors."

The Enemy from the North

25 In the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah, I received a message from the LORD concerning all the people of Judah. (This was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylonia.) 2 I said to all the people of Judah and of Jerusalem, 3 "For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah until this very day, the LORD has spoken to me, and I have never failed to tell you what he said. But you have paid no attention. 4 You would not listen or pay attention, even though the LORD has continued to send you his servants the prophets. 5 They told you to turn from your wicked way of life and from the evil things you are doing, so that you could go on living in the land that the LORD gave you and your ancestors as a permanent possession. 6 They told you not to worship and serve other gods and not to make the LORD angry by worshipping the idols you had made. If you had obeyed the LORD, then he would not have punished you. 7 But the LORD himself says that you refused to listen to him. Instead, you made him angry with your idols and have brought his punishment on yourselves.

8 "So then, because you would not listen to him, the LORD Almighty says, 9 'I am going to send for all the peoples from the north and for my servant, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia. I am going to bring them to fight against Judah and its inhabitants and against all the neighbouring nations. I am going to destroy this nation and its neighbours and leave them in ruins for ever, a terrible and shocking sight I, the LORD, have spoken 10 I will silence their shouts of joy and gladness and the happy sounds of wedding feasts They will have no oil for their lamps, and there will be no more corn 11 This whole land will be left in ruins and will be a shocking sight, and the neighbouring nations will serve the king of Babylonia for seventy years 12 After that I will punish Babylonia and its king for their sin I will destroy that country and leave it in ruins for ever 13 I will punish Babylonia with all the disasters that I threatened to bring on the nations when I spoke through Jeremiah—all the disasters recorded in this book 14 I will pay the Babylonians back for what they have done, and many nations and great kings will make slaves of them ' "

God's Judgement on the Nations

15 The LORD, the God of Israel, said to me, "Here is a wine cup filled with my anger Take it to all the nations to whom I send you, and make them drink from it 16 When they drink from it, they will stagger and go out of their minds because of the war I am sending against them " 17 So I took the cup from the LORD's hand, gave it to all the nations to whom the LORD had sent me, and made them drink from it. 18 Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah, together with its kings and leaders, were made to drink from it, so that they would become a desert, a terrible and shocking sight, and so that people would use their name as a curse—as they still do 19–26 Here is the list of all the others who had to drink from the cup the king of Egypt, his officials and leaders, all the Egyptians and all the foreigners in Egypt,

all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the Philistine cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of Ashdod, all the people of Edom, Moab, and Ammon,
all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; all the kings of the Mediterranean lands, the cities of Dedan, Tema, and Buz, all the people who cut their hair short, all the kings of Arabia, all the kings of the desert tribes, all the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media, all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another

Every nation on the face of the earth had to drink from it. Last of all, the king of Babylonia will drink from it 27 Then the LORD said to me, "Tell the people that I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, am commanding them to drink until they are drunk and vomit, until they fall down and cannot get up, because of the war that I am sending against them 28 And if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink from it, then tell them that the LORD Almighty has said that they will still have to drink from it. 29 I will begin my work of destruction in my own city Do they think they will go unpunished? No, they will be punished, for I am going to send war on all the people on earth I, the LORD Almighty,
have spoken 30 "You, Jeremiah, must proclaim everything I have said You must tell these
people,

'The LORD will roar from heaven and thunder from the heights of heaven
He will roar against his people, he will shout like a man treading grapes
Everyone on earth will hear him, 31 and the sound will echo to the ends of the earth
The LORD has a case against the nations He will bring all people to trial and put the wicked to death
The LORD has spoken ' "

32 The LORD Almighty says that disaster is coming on one nation after another, and a great storm is gathering at the far ends of the earth 33 On that day the bodies of those whom the LORD has killed will lie scattered from one end of the earth to the other No one will mourn for them, and they will not be taken away and buried They will lie on the ground like piles of manure 34 Cry, you leaders, you shepherds of my people, cry out loud! Mourn and roll in the dust The time has come for you to be slaughtered,[g] and you will be butchered like rams [h] 35 There will be no way for you to escape 36–37 You moan and cry out in distress because the LORD in his anger has destroyed your nation and left your peaceful country in ruins.

38 The LORD has abandoned his people[i] like a lion that leaves its cave. The horrors of war and the LORD's fierce anger have turned the country into a desert.

Jeremiah Is Brought to Trial

26 Soon after Jehoiakim son of Josiah became king of Judah, 2 the LORD said to me, "Stand in the court of the Temple and proclaim all I have commanded you to say to the people who come from the towns of Judah to worship there. Do not leave out anything. 3 Perhaps the people will listen and give up their evil ways. If they do, then I will change my mind about the destruction I plan to bring on them for all their wicked deeds." 4 The LORD told me to say to the people, "I, the LORD, have said that you must obey me by following the teaching that I gave you, 5 and by paying attention to the words of my servants, the prophets, whom I have kept on sending to you. You have never obeyed what they said. 6 If you continue to disobey, then I will do to this Temple what I did to Shiloh,[j] and all the nations of the world will use the name of this city as a curse." 7 The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard me saying these things in the Temple, 8 and as soon as I had finished all that the LORD had commanded me to speak, they seized me and shouted, "You ought to be killed for this! 9 Why have you said in the LORD's name that this Temple will become like Shiloh and that this city will be destroyed and no one will live in it?" Then the people crowded round me.
10 When the leaders of Judah heard what had happened, they hurried from the royal palace to the Temple and took their places at the New Gate. 11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the leaders and to the people, "This man deserves to be sentenced to death because he has spoken against our city. You heard him with your own ears." 12 Then I said, "The LORD sent me to proclaim everything that you heard me say against this Temple and against this city. 13 You must change the way you are living and the things you are doing, and must obey the LORD your God. If you do, he will change his mind about the destruction that he said he would bring on you. 14 As for me, I am in your power!
Do with me whatever you think is fair and right. 15 But be sure of this: if you kill me, you and the people of this city will be guilty of killing an innocent man, because it is the LORD who sent me to give you this warning." 16 Then the leaders and the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man spoke to us in the name of the LORD our God; he should not be put to death." 17 After that, some of the elders stood up and said to the people who had assembled, 18 "When Hezekiah was king of Judah, the prophet Micah of Moresheth told all the people that the LORD Almighty had said,

'Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become a pile of ruins, and the Temple hill will become a forest.'

19 King Hezekiah and the people of Judah did not put Micah to death. Instead, Hezekiah feared the LORD and tried to win his favour. And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he said he would bring on them. Now we are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves." 20 (There was another man, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim, who spoke in the name of the LORD against this city and nation just as Jeremiah did.
21 When King Jehoiakim and his soldiers and officials heard what Uriah had said, the king tried to have him killed. But Uriah heard about it, so he fled in terror and escaped to Egypt. 22 King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Achbor and some other men to Egypt to get Uriah.
23 They brought him back to King Jehoiakim, who had him killed and his body thrown into the public burial-ground.)
24 But because I had the support of Ahikam son of Shaphan, I was not handed over to the people and killed.

Jeremiah Wears an Ox Yoke

27 Soon after Josiah's son Zedekiah became king of Judah, the LORD told me 2 to make myself a yoke out of leather straps and wooden crossbars and to put it on my neck. 3 Then the LORD

[i] The Lord ... people, or The Lord's people run away. [j] SHILOH: See 7.12.

told me to send a message[k] to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon through their ambassadors who had come to Jerusalem to see King Zedekiah 4 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, told me to command them to tell their kings that the LORD had said 5 "By my great power and strength I created the world, mankind, and all the animals that live on the earth, and I give it to anyone I choose 6 I am the one who has placed all these nations under the power of my servant, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, and I have made even the wild animals serve him 7 All nations will serve him, and they will serve his son and his grandson until the time comes for his own nation to fall Then his nation will serve powerful nations and great kings 8 "But if any nation or kingdom will not submit to his rule, then I will punish that nation by war, starvation, and disease until I have let Nebuchadnezzar destroy it completely 9 Do not listen to your prophets or to anyone who claims he can predict the future, either by dreams or by calling up the spirits of the dead or by magic They all tell you not to submit to the king of Babylonia 10 They are deceiving you and will cause you to be taken far away from your country I will drive you out, and you will be destroyed 11 But if any nation submits to the king of Babylonia and serves him, then I will let it stay on in its own land, to farm it and live there I, the LORD, have spoken" 12 I said the same thing to King Zedekiah of Judah, "Submit to the king of Babylonia Serve him and his people, and you will live 13 Why should you and your people die in war or of starvation or disease? That is what the LORD has said will happen to any nation that does not submit to the king of Babylonia 14 Do not listen to the prophets who tell you not to surrender to him They are deceiving you 15 The LORD himself has said that he did not send them and that they are lying to you in his name And so he will drive you out, and you will be killed, you and the prophets who are telling you these lies" 16 Then I told the priests and the people that the LORD had said "Do not listen to the prophets who say that the temple treasures will soon be brought back from Babylonia They are lying to you 17 Don't listen to them! Submit to the king of Babylonia and you will live! Why should this city become a pile of ruins? 18 If they are really prophets and if they have my message, let them ask me, the LORD Almighty, not to allow the treasures that remain in the Temple and in the royal palace to be taken to Babylonia" 19-20 (When King Nebuchadnezzar took away to Babylonia the king of Judah, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, and the leading men of Judah and Jerusalem, he left the columns, the bronze tank, the carts, and some of the other temple treasures) 21 "Listen to what I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, say about the treasures that are left in the Temple and in the royal palace in Jerusalem 22 They will be taken to Babylonia and will remain there until I turn my attention to them Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place I, the LORD, have spoken"

Jeremiah and the Prophet Hananiah

28 That same year,[l] in the fifth month of the fourth year that Zedekiah was king, Hananiah son of Azzur, a prophet from the town of Gibeon, spoke to me in the Temple In the presence of the priests and of the people he told me 2 that the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, had said "I have broken the power of the king of Babylonia 3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the temple treasures that King Nebu-chadezzar took to Babylonia 4 I will also bring back the king of Judah, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, along with all the people of Judah who went into exile in Babylonia Yes, I will break the power of the king of Babylonia I, the LORD, have spoken" 5 Then in the presence of the priests and of all the people who were standing in the Temple, I said to Hananiah 6 "Wonderful! I hope the LORD will do this! I certainly hope he will make your prophecy come true and will bring back from Babylonia all the temple treasures and all the people who were taken away as prisoners 7 But listen to what I say to you and to the people 8 The prophets who spoke long ago, before my time and yours, predicted that war, starvation, and disease would come to many nations and powerful kingdoms 9 But a prophet who predicts peace can only be recognized as a prophet whom the LORD has truly sent [k] Probable text a message, Hebrew them when that prophet's predictions come true" 10 Then Hananiah took the yoke off my neck, broke it in pieces, 11 and said in the presence of all the people. "The LORD has said that this is how he will break the yoke that King Nebuchadnezzar has put on the neck of all the nations, and he will do this within two years" Then I left 12 Some time after this the LORD told me 13 to go and say to Hananiah. "The LORD has said that you may be able to break a wooden yoke, but he[m] will replace it with an iron yoke 14 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, has said that he will put an iron yoke on all these nations and that they will serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia The LORD has said that he will make even the wild animals serve Nebuchadnezzar"

15 Then I told Hananiah this, and added, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you, and you are making these people believe a lie 16 And so the LORD himself says that he is going to get rid of you Before this year is over you will die because you have told the people to rebel against the LORD" 17 And Hananiah died in the seventh month of that same year

Jeremiah's Letter to the Jews in Babylonia 29 I wrote a letter to the priests, the prophets, the leaders of the people, and to all the others whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken away as prisoners from Jerusalem to Babylonia 2 I wrote it after King Jehoiachin, his mother, the palace officials, the leaders of Judah and of Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the skilled workmen had been taken into exile 3 I gave the letter to Elasah son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah was sending to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia It said

4 "The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those people whom he allowed Nebuchadnezzar to take away as prisoners from Jerusalem to Babylonia: 5 'Build houses and settle down Plant gardens and eat what you grow in them 6 Marry and have children Then let your children get married, so that they also may have children You must increase in numbers and not decrease 7 Work for the good of the cities where I have made you go as prisoners Pray to me on their behalf, because if they are prosperous, you will be prosperous too 8 I, the LORD, the God of Israel, warn you not to let yourselves be deceived by the prophets who live among you or by any others who claim they can predict the future Do not pay any attention to their dreams 9 They are telling you lies in my name I did not send them I, the LORD, have
spoken'

10 "The LORD says, 'When Babylonia's seventy years are over, I will show my concern for you and keep my promise to bring you back home 11 I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to bring you prosperity and not disaster, plans to bring about the future you hope for[n] 12 Then you will call to me You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you 13 You will seek me, and you will find me because you will seek me with all your heart 14 Yes, I say, you will find me, and I will restore you to your land I will gather you from every country and from every place to which I have scattered you, and I will bring you back to the land from which I had sent you away into exile I, the LORD, have spoken'

15 "You say that the LORD has given you prophets in Babylonia 16 Listen to what the LORD says about the king who rules the kingdom that David ruled and about the people of this city, that is, your relatives who were not taken away as prisoners with you 17 The LORD Almighty says, 'I am bringing war, starvation, and disease on them, and I will make them like figs that are too rotten to be eaten 18 I will pursue them with war, starvation, and disease, and all the nations of the world will be horrified at what they see Everywhere I scatter them, people will be shocked and terrified at what has happened to them People will mock them and use their name as a curse 19 This will happen to them because they did not obey the message that I kept on sending to them [o] The LORD has spoken"

The Letter of Shemaiah

Israel, gave me a message for Shemaiah of Nehelam, who had sent a letter in his own name to all the people of Jerusalem and to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah and to all the other priests In this letter, Shemaiah wrote to Zephaniah [26]"The LORD made you a priest in place of Jehoiada, and you are now the chief officer[p] in the Temple It is your duty to see that every madman who pretends to be a prophet is placed in chains with an iron collar round his neck [27]Why haven't you done this to Jeremiah of Anathoth, who has been speaking as a prophet to the people? [28]He must be stopped because he told the people in Babylonia that they would be prisoners there a long time and should build houses, settle down, plant gardens, and eat what they grow" 29 Zephaniah read the letter to me, [30]and then the LORD told me [31–32]to send to all the prisoners in Babylon this message about Shemaiah "I, the LORD, will punish Shemaiah and all his descendants I did not send him, but he spoke to you as if he were a prophet, and he made you believe lies He will have no descendants among you He will not live to see the good things that I am going to do for my people, because he told them to rebel against me I, the LORD, have
spoken"

The LORD's Promises to His People

30 The LORD, the God of Israel, [2]said to me "Write down in a book everything that I have told you, [3]because the time is coming when I will restore my people, Israel and Judah I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will take possession of it again I, the LORD, have spoken" 4 The LORD says to the people of Israel and Judah

[5]"I heard a cry of terror, a cry of fear and not of peace [6]Now stop and think!
Can a man give birth to a child?
Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labour?
Why is everyone so pale?
[7]A terrible day is coming, no other day can compare with it—a time of distress for my people, but they will survive"

8 The LORD Almighty says "When that day comes, I will break the yoke that is round their necks and remove their chains, and they will no longer be the slaves of foreigners [9]Instead, they will serve me, the LORD their God, and a descendant of David, whom I will enthrone as king [10]"My people, do not be afraid, people of Israel, do not be terrified
I will rescue you from that distant land, from the land where you are prisoners You will come back home and live in
peace,
you will be secure, and no one will make you afraid [11]I will come to you and save you I will destroy all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not destroy you I will not let you go unpunished, but when I punish you, I will be fair
I, the LORD, have spoken"

12 The LORD says to his people,
"Your wounds are incurable, your injuries cannot be healed

[o]done, and he them, or done, he saw them do it

30 10–11 Jer 46 27–28

13 There is no one to take care of you, no remedy for your sores, no hope of healing for you 14 All your lovers have forgotten you, they no longer care about you I have attacked you like an enemy, your punishment has been harsh because your sins are many and your wickedness is great.
15 Complain no more about your injuries, there is no cure for you I punished you like this because your sins are many
and your wickedness is great.
16 But now, all who devour you will be devoured, and all your enemies will be taken away as prisoners
All who oppress you will be oppressed, and all who plunder you will be plundered 17 I will make you well again, I will heal your wounds, though your enemies say, 'Zion is an outcast, no one cares about her'
I, the LORD, have spoken"

18 The LORD says,
"I will restore my people to their land and have mercy on every family, Jerusalem will be rebuilt, and its palace restored 19 The people who live there will sing praise, they will shout for joy By my blessing they will increase in numbers, my blessing will bring them honour 20 I will restore the nation's ancient
power
and establish it firmly again, I will punish all who oppress them 21-22 Their ruler will come from their own nation, their prince from their own people He will approach me when I invite him, for who would dare come uninvited?
They will be my people, and I will be their God
I, the LORD, have spoken"

23–24 The LORD's anger is a storm, a furious wind that will rage over the heads of the wicked It will not end until he has done all that he intends to do In days to come his people will understand this clearly

Israel's Return Home

31 The LORD says, "The time is coming when I will be the God of all the tribes of Israel, and they will be my people 2 In the desert I showed mercy to those people who had escaped death When the people of Israel longed for rest, 3 I appeared to them[q] from far away People of Israel, I have always loved you, so I continue to show you my constant love 4 Once again I will rebuild you Once again you will take up your tambourines and dance joyfully 5 Once again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria, and those who plant them will eat what the vineyards produce 6 Yes, the time is coming when watchmen will call out on the hills of Ephraim, 'Let's go up to Zion, to the LORD our God'"

7 The LORD says,
"Sing with joy for Israel, the greatest of the nations Sing your song of praise,
'The LORD has saved his people, he has rescued all who are left' 8 I will bring them from the north and gather them from the ends of the earth
The blind and the lame will come with
them, pregnant women and those about to give birth
They will come back a great nation 9 My people will return weeping, praying as I lead them back I will guide them to streams of water, on a smooth road where they will not stumble
I am like a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my eldest son"

10 The LORD says,
"Nations, listen to me, and proclaim my words on the far-off shores
I scattered my people, but I will gather
them
and guard them as a shepherd guards his flock 11 I have set Israel's people free and have saved them from a mighty nation 12 They will come and sing for joy on Mount Zion and be delighted with my gifts—gifts of corn and wine and olive-oil, gifts of sheep and cattle They will be like a well-watered garden, they will have everything they need

The girls will dance and be happy, and men, young and old, will rejoice (31 13)

[13] Then the girls will dance and be happy, and men, young and old, will rejoice I will comfort them and turn their mourning into joy, their sorrow into gladness [14] I will fill the priests with the richest food
and satisfy all the needs of my people

The LORD's Mercy on Israel

15 The LORD says,
"A sound is heard in Ramah,
the sound of bitter weeping Rachel is crying for her children, they are gone,
and she refuses to be comforted [16] Stop your crying and wipe away your tears All that you have done for your children will not go unrewarded, they will return from the enemy's
land [17] There is hope for your future, your children will come back home
I, the LORD, have spoken

[18] "I hear the people of Israel say in grief, 'LORD, we were like an untamed animal, but you taught us to obey Bring us back;
we are ready to return to you, the LORD our God [19] We turned away from you, but soon we wanted to return After you had punished us, we hung our heads in grief, We were ashamed and disgraced, because we sinned when we were young '

[20] "Israel, you are my dearest son, the child I love best Whenever I mention your name, I think[r] of you with love My heart goes out to you, [r] I mention I think, or I threaten to punish, I still think 31 15 Gen 35 16-19, Mt 2 18

I will be merciful 21 Set up signs and mark the road, find again the way by which you left Come back, people of Israel, come home to the towns you left 22 How long will you hesitate, faithless
people?
I have created something new and different, as different as a woman protecting a man"[s]

The Future Prosperity of God's People

23 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says, "When I restore the people to their land, they will once again say in the land of Judah and in its towns, 'May the LORD bless the sacred hill[t] of Jerusalem,
the holy place where he lives' 24 People will live in Judah and in all its towns, and there will be farmers, and shepherds with their flocks 25 I will refresh those who are weary and will satisfy with food everyone who is weak from hunger 26 So then, people will say,
'I went to sleep and woke up refreshed' 27 "I, the LORD, say that the time is coming when I will fill the land of Israel and Judah with people and animals 28 And just as I took care to uproot, to pull down, to overthrow, to destroy, and to demolish them, so I will take care to plant them and to build them up 29 When that time comes, people will no longer say,
'The parents ate the sour grapes,
But the children got the sour taste' 30 Instead, whoever eats sour grapes will have his own teeth set on edge, and everyone will die because of his own sin" 31 The LORD says, "The time is coming when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah 32 It will not be like the old covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt Although I was like a husband to them, they did not keep that covenant 33 The new covenant that I will make with the people of Israel will be this I will put my law within them and write it on their hearts I will be their God, and they will be my people 34 None of them will have to teach his fellow-countryman to know the LORD, because all will know me, from the least to the greatest I will forgive their sins and I will no longer remember their wrongs I, the LORD, have spoken"

35 The LORD provides the sun for light
by day,
the moon and the stars to shine at night
He stirs up the sea and makes it roar, his name is the LORD Almighty 36 He promises that as long as the natural order lasts, so long will Israel be a nation 37 If one day the sky could be measured and the foundations of the earth explored, only then would he reject the people of Israel
because of all they have done
The LORD has spoken

38 "The time is coming," says the LORD,
"when all Jerusalem will be rebuilt as my city, from Hananel Tower west to the Corner Gate 39 And the boundary line will continue from there on the west to the hill of Gareb and then round to Goah 40 The entire valley, where the dead are buried and refuse is thrown, and all the fields above the brook of Kidron as far as the Horse Gate to the east, will be sacred to me The city will never again be torn down or destroyed"

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 The LORD spoke to me in the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, which was also the eighteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia 2 At that time the army of the king of Babylonia was attacking Jerusalem, and I was locked up in the courtyard of the royal palace 3 King Zedekiah had imprisoned me there and had accused me of announcing that the LORD had said, "I am going to let the king of Babylonia capture this city, 4 and King Zedekiah will not escape He will be handed over to the king of Babylonia, he will see him face to face and will speak to him in person 5 Zedekiah will be taken to Babylonia, and he will remain there until I deal with him Even if he fights the Babylonians, he will not be successful I,
the LORD, have spoken" 6 The LORD told me 7 that Hanamel, my uncle Shallum's son, would come to me with the request to buy his field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin, because I was his nearest relative and had the right to buy it for myself 8 Then, just as the LORD had said, Hanamel came to me there in the courtyard and asked me to buy the field So I knew that the LORD had really spoken to me 9 I bought the field from Hanamel and weighed out the money to him, the price came to seventeen pieces of silver 10 I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed out the money on scales 11 Then I took both copies of the deed of purchase—the sealed copy containing the contract and its conditions, and the open copy—12 and gave them to Baruch, the son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah I gave them to him in the presence of Hanamel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed of purchase and of the men who were sitting in the courtyard 13 Before them all I said to Baruch, 14 "The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, has ordered you to take these deeds, both the sealed deed of purchase and the open copy, and to place them in a clay jar, so that they may be preserved for years to come 15 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, has said that houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land "

Jeremiah's Prayer

16 After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch, I prayed, 17 "Sovereign LORD, you made the earth and the sky by your great power and might, nothing is too difficult for you 18 You have shown constant love to thousands, but you also punish people for the sins of their parents You are a great and powerful God, you are the LORD Almighty 19 You make wise plans and do mighty things, you see everything that people do, and you reward them according to their actions 20 Long ago, you performed miracles and wonders in Egypt, and you have continued to perform them to this day, both in Israel and among all the other nations, so that you are now known everywhere 21 By means of miracles and wonders that terrified our enemies, you used your power and might to bring your people Israel out of Egypt.
22 You gave them this rich and fertile land, as you had promised their ancestors 23 But when they came into this land and took possession of it, they did not obey your commands or live according to your teaching, they did nothing that you had ordered them to do And so you brought all this destruction on them 24 "The Babylonians have built siege mounds round the city to capture it, and they are attacking War, starvation, and disease will make the city fall into their hands You can see that all you have said has come true. 25 Yet, Sovereign LORD, you are the one who ordered me to buy the field in the presence of witnesses, even though the city is about to be captured by the Babylonians "

26 Then the LORD said to me, 27 "I am the LORD, the God of all men Nothing is too difficult for me 28 I am going to give this city over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia and his army, they will capture it 29 and set it on fire They will burn it down, together with the houses where people have made me angry by burning incense to Baal on the rooftops and by pouring out wine-offerings to other gods 30 From the very beginning of their history the people of Israel and the people of Judah have displeased me and made me angry by what they have done 31 The people of this city have made me angry and furious from the day it was built I have decided to destroy it 32 because of all the evil that has been done by the people of Judah and Jerusalem, together with their kings and leaders, their priests and prophets 33 They turned their backs on me, and though I kept on teaching them, they would not listen and learn 34 They even placed their disgusting idols in the Temple built for my worship, and they have defiled it 35 They have built altars to Baal in the Valley of Hinnom, to sacrifice their sons and daughters to the god Molech I did not command them to do this, and it did not even enter my mind that they would do such a thing and make the people of Judah sin "

A Promise of Hope

36 The LORD, the God of Israel, said to me, "Jeremiah, the people are saying that war, starvation, and disease will make this city fall into the hands of the king of Babylonia Now listen to what else I have to say, 37 I am going to gather the people from all the countries where I have scattered them in my anger and fury, and I am going to bring them back to this place and let them live here in safety [38]Then they will be my people, and I will be their God [39]I will give them a single purpose in life to honour me for all time, for their own good and the good of their descendants [40]I will make an eternal covenant with them I will never stop doing good things for them, and I will make them fear me with all their heart, so that they will never turn away from me [41]I will take pleasure in doing good things for them, and I will establish them permanently in this land 42 "Just as I have brought this disaster on these people, so I am going to give them all the good things that I have promised [43]The people are saying that this land will be like a desert where neither people nor animals live, and that it will be given over to the Babylonians But fields will once again be bought in this land [44]People will buy them, and the deeds will be signed, sealed, and witnessed This will take place in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages round Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah, and in the towns in the hill-country, in the foothills, and in southern Judah I will restore the people to their land I, the LORD, have spoken "

Another Promise of Hope

33 While I was still in prison in the courtyard, the LORD's message came to me again [2]The LORD, who made the earth, who formed it and set it in place, spoke to me He whose name is the LORD said, [3]"Call to me, and I will answer you; I will tell you wonderful and marvellous things that you know nothing about [4-5]I, the LORD, the God of Israel, say that the houses of Jerusalem and the royal palace of Judah will be torn down It is useless to go out and fight against the siege mounds[v] set up by the Babylonians This would only fill the city[w] with the corpses of those whom I am going to strike down in my anger and fury I have turned away from this city because of the evil things that its people have done [6]But I will heal this city and its people and restore them to health I will show them abundant peace and security [7]I will make Judah and Israel prosperous, and I will rebuild them as they were before [8]I will purify them from the sins that they have committed against me, and I will forgive their sins and their rebellion [9]Jerusalem will be a source of joy, honour, and pride to me, and every nation in the world will fear and tremble when they hear about the good things that I do for the people of Jerusalem and about the prosperity that I bring to the city " 10 The LORD said, "People are saying that this place is like a desert, that it has no people or animals living in it And they are right, the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem are empty, no people or animals live there But in these places you will hear again [11]the shouts of gladness and joy and the happy sounds of wedding feasts You will hear people sing as they bring thank-offerings to my Temple, they will say,

'Give thanks to the LORD Almighty, because he is good
and his love is eternal

I will make this land as prosperous as it was before' I, the LORD, have spoken " 12 The LORD Almighty said, "In this land that is like a desert and where no again be pastures where shepherds can

Jeremiah and the Rechabites

35 When Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah, the LORD said to me, 2 "Go to the members of the Rechabite clan and talk to them Then bring them into one of the rooms in the Temple and offer them some wine " 3 So I took the entire Rechabite clan—Jaazaniah (the son of another Jeremiah, who was Habazziniah's son) and all his brothers and sons—4 and brought them to the Temple I took them into the room of the disciples of the prophet Hanan son of Igdaliah This room was above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, an important official in the Temple, and near the rooms of the other officials 5 Then I placed cups and bowls full of wine before the Rechabites, and I said to them, "Have some wine " 6 But they answered, "We do not drink wine Our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab told us that neither we nor our descendants were ever to drink any wine 7 He also told us not to build houses or farm the land, and not to plant vineyards or buy them He commanded us always to live in tents, so that we might remain in this land where we live like strangers 8 We have obeyed all the instructions that Jonadab gave us We ourselves never drink wine, and neither do our wives, our sons, or our daughters 9-10 We do not build houses for homes—we live in tents—and we own no vineyards, fields, or corn We have fully obeyed everything that our ancestor Jonadab commanded us 11 But when King Nebuchadnezzar invaded the country, we decided to come to Jerusalem to get away from the Babylonian and Syrian armies That is why we are living in Jerusalem "
12-13 Then the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, told me to go and say to the people of Judah and Jerusalem, "I, the LORD, ask you why you refuse to listen to me and to obey my instructions 14 Jonadab's descendants have obeyed his command not to drink wine, and to this very day none of them drink any But I have kept on speaking to you, and you have not obeyed me 15 I have continued to send you all my servants the prophets, and they have told you to give up your evil ways and to do what is right They warned you not to worship and serve other gods, so that you could go on living in the land that I gave you and your ancestors But you would not listen to me or pay attention to me 16 Jonadab's descendants have obeyed the command that their ancestor gave them, but you people have not obeyed me 17 So now, I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, will bring on you people of Judah and of Jerusalem all the destruction that I promised I will do this because you would not listen when I spoke to you, and you would not answer when I called you " 18 Then I told the Rechabite clan that the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, had said, "You have obeyed the command that your ancestor Jonadab gave you, you have followed all his instructions, and you have done everything he commanded you 19 So I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, promise that Jonadab son of Rechab will always have a male descendant to serve me "

Baruch Reads the Scroll in the Temple

son of Josiah was king of Judah, the LORD said to me, 2 "Get a scroll and write on it everything that I have told you about Israel and Judah and all the nations Write everything that I have told you from the time I first spoke to you, when Josiah was king, up to the present 3 Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about all the destruction that I intend to bring on them, they will turn from their evil ways Then I will forgive their wickedness and their sins "

35 1 2 Kgs 23 36—24 6, 2 Chr 36 5–7 36 1 2 Kgs 24 1, 2 Chr 36 5–7, Dan 1 1–2

Baruch wrote it all down on a scroll   Baruch read from the scroll   Then the officials sent Jehudi (36 4,10,14)

4 So I called Baruch son of Neriah and dictated to him everything that the LORD had said to me And Baruch wrote it all down on a scroll 5 Then I gave Baruch the following instructions "I am no longer allowed to go into the Temple 6 But I want you to go there the next time the people are fasting You are to read the scroll aloud, so that they will hear everything that the LORD has said to me and that I have dictated to you Do this where everyone can hear you, including the people of Judah who have come in from their towns 7 Perhaps they will pray to the LORD and turn from their evil ways, because the LORD has threatened this people with his terrible anger and fury " 8 So Baruch read the LORD's words in the Temple exactly as I had told him to do 9 In the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah, the people fasted to gain the LORD's favour The fast was kept by all who lived in Jerusalem and by all who came there from the towns of Judah 10 Then, while all the people were listening, Baruch read from the scroll everything that I had said He did this in the Temple, from the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan, the court secretary His room was in the upper court near the entrance of the New Gate of the Temple

The Scroll Is Read to the Officials

11 Micaiah, the son of Gemariah and grandson of Shaphan, heard Baruch read from the scroll what the LORD had said 12 Then he went to the royal palace, to the room of the court secretary, where all the officials were in session Elishama, the court secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials were there 13 Micaiah told them everything that he had heard Baruch read to the people 14 Then the officials sent Jehudi (the son of Nethaniah, grandson of Shelemiah, and great-grandson of Cushi) to tell Baruch to bring the scroll that he had read to the people Baruch brought them the scroll 15 "Sit down," they said, "and read the scroll to us " So Baruch did 16 After he had read it, they turned to one another in alarm, and said to Baruch, "We must report this to the king " 17 Then they asked him, "Tell us, now, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it to you?" 18 Baruch answered, "Jeremiah dictated every word of it to me, and I wrote it down in ink on this scroll " 19 Then they said to him, "You and Jeremiah must go and hide Don't let anyone know where you are "

The King Burns the Scroll

20 The officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama, the court secretary, and went to the king's court, where they reported everything to the king 21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll He took it from the room of Elishama and read it to the king and all the officials who were standing round him 22 It was winter and the king was sitting in his winter palace in front of the fire 23 As soon as Jehudi finished reading three or four

We must report this to the king As soon as Jehudi finished reading three or four columns, the king cut them off Then I took another scroll (36 16,23,32) columns, the king cut them off with a small knife and threw them into the fire He kept doing this until the entire scroll was burnt up 24 But neither the king nor any of his officials who heard all this was afraid or showed any sign of sorrow 25 Although Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah begged the king not to burn the scroll, he paid no attention to them 26 Then he ordered Prince Jerahmeel, together with Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel, to arrest me and my secretary Baruch But the LORD had hidden us

Jeremiah Writes Another Scroll

27 After King Jehoiakim had burnt the scroll that I had dictated to Baruch, the LORD told me 28 to take another scroll and write on it everything that had been on the first one 29 The LORD told me to say to the king, "You have burnt the scroll, and you have asked Jeremiah why he wrote that the king of Babylonia would come and destroy this land and kill its people and its animals 30 So now, I, the LORD, say to you, King Jehoiakim, that no descendant of yours will ever rule over David's kingdom Your corpse will be thrown out where it will be exposed to the sun during the day and to the frost at night 31 I will punish you, your descendants, and your officials because of the sins all of you commit Neither you nor the people of Jerusalem and of Judah have paid any attention to my warnings, and so I will bring on all of you the disaster that I have threatened "

32 Then I took another scroll and gave it to my secretary Baruch, and he wrote down everything that I dictated He wrote everything that had been on the first scroll and similar messages that I dictated to
him

Zedekiah's Request to Jeremiah

37 King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia made Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah in the place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim 2 But neither Zedekiah nor his officials nor the people obeyed the message which the LORD had given
me

3 King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to ask me to pray to the LORD our God on behalf of our nation 4 I had not yet been put in prison and was still moving about freely among the people 5 The Babylonian army had been besieging Jerusalem, but when they heard that the Egyptian army had crossed the Egyptian border, they retreated

6 Then the LORD, the God of Israel, told me 7 to say to Zedekiah, "The Egyptian army is on its way to help you, but it will return home 8 Then the Babylonians will come back, attack the city, capture it, and burn it down 9 I, the LORD, warn you not to deceive yourselves into thinking that the Babylonians will not come back, because they will 10 Even if you defeat the whole Babylonian army, so that only wounded men are left, lying in their tents, those men would still get up and burn this city to the ground "

Jeremiah Is Arrested and Imprisoned

11 The Babylonian army retreated from Jerusalem because the Egyptian army was approaching 12 So I started to leave Jerusalem and go to the territory of Benjamin to take possession of my share of the family property 13 But when I reached the Benjamin Gate, the officer in charge of the soldiers on duty there, a man by the name of Irijah, the son of Shelemiah and grandson of Hananiah, stopped me and said, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!" 14 I answered, "That's not so! I'm not deserting" But Irijah would not listen to me Instead, he arrested me and took me to the officials 15 They were furious with me and ordered me to be beaten and locked up in the house of Jonathan, the court secretary, whose house had been made into a prison 16 I was put in an underground cell and kept there a long time 17 Later on King Zedekiah sent for me, and there in the palace he asked me privately, "Is there any message from the LORD?"
"There is," I answered, and added, "You will be handed over to the king of Babylonia" 18 Then I asked, "What crime have I committed against you or your officials or this people, to make you put me in prison? 19 What happened to your prophets who told you that the king of Babylonia would not attack you or the country? 20 And now, Your Majesty, I beg you to listen to me and do what I ask Please do not send me back to the prison in Jonathan's house If you do, I will surely die there" 21 So King Zedekiah ordered me to be locked up in the palace courtyard I stayed there, and each day I was given a loaf of bread from the bakeries until all the bread in the city was gone

Jeremiah in a Dry Well

38 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Ged-aliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchiah heard that I was telling the people that 2 the LORD had said, "Whoever stays on in the city will die in war or of starvation or disease But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Babylonians will not be killed, he will at least escape with his life" 3 I was also telling them that the LORD had said, "I am going to give the city to the Babylonian army, and they will capture it" 4 Then the officials went to the king and said, "This man must be put to death By talking like this he is making the soldiers in the city lose their courage, and he is doing the same thing to everyone else left in the city He is not trying to help the people, he only wants to hurt them" 5 King Zedekiah answered, "Very well, then, do what you wish with him, I can't stop you" 6 So they took me and let me down by ropes into Prince Malchiah's well, which was in the palace courtyard There was no water in the well, only mud, and I sank down in it 7 However, Ebedmelech the Sudanese, a eunuch who worked in the royal palace, heard that they had put me in the well At that time the king was holding court at the Benjamin Gate 8 So Ebedmelech went there and said to the king, 9 "Your Majesty, what these men have done is wrong They have put Jeremiah in the well, where he is sure to die of starvation, since there is no more food in the city" 10 Then the king ordered Ebedmelech to take with him three men and to pull me out of the well before I died 11 So Ebedmelech went with the men to the palace storeroom and got some worn-out clothing which he let down to me by ropes 12 He told me to put the rags under my arms, so that the ropes wouldn't hurt me I did this, 13 and they pulled me up out of the well After that I was kept in the courtyard

Zedekiah Asks Jeremiah's Advice

14 On another occasion King Zedekiah had me brought to him at the third entrance to the Temple, and he said, "I am going to ask you a question, and I want you to tell me the whole truth" 15 I answered, "If I tell you the truth, you will put me to death, and if I give you advice, you won't pay any attention" 16 So King Zedekiah promised me in secret, "I swear by the living God, the God who gave us life, that I will not put you to death or hand you over to the men who want to kill you" 17 Then I told Zedekiah that the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, had said, "If you surrender to the king of Babylonia's officers, your life will be spared, and this city will not be burnt down Both you and your family will be spared 18 But if you do not surrender, then this city will be handed over to the Babylonians, who

And they pulled me up out of the well (38 13) will burn it down, and you will not escape from them " 19 But the king answered, "I am afraid of our countrymen who have deserted to the Babylonians I may be handed over to them and tortured " 20 I said, "You will not be handed over to them I beg you to obey the LORD's message, then all will go well with you, and your life will be spared 21 But the LORD has shown me in a vision what will happen if you refuse to surrender 22 In it I saw all the women left in Judah's royal palace being led out to the king of Babylonia's officers Listen to what they were saying as they went

'The king's best friends misled him, they overruled him
And now that his feet have sunk in the mud, his friends have left him ' " 23 Then I added, "All your women and children will be taken out to the Babylonians, and you yourself will not escape from them You will be taken prisoner by the king of Babylonia, and this city will be burnt to the ground " 24 Zedekiah replied, "Don't let anyone know about this conversation, and your life will not be in danger 25 If the officials hear that I have talked with you, they will come and ask you what we said They will promise not to put you to death if you tell them everything 26 Just tell them you were begging me not to send you back to prison to die there " 27 Then all the officials came and questioned me, and I told them exactly what the king had told me to say There was nothing else they could do, because no one had overheard the conversation 28 And I was kept in the palace courtyard until the day Jerusalem was captured

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 In the tenth month of the ninth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia came with his whole army and attacked Jerusalem 2 On the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year as king, the city walls were broken through 3 (When Jerusalem was captured,[z] all the high officials of the king of Babylonia came and took their places at the Middle Gate, including Nergal Sarezer, Samgar Nebo, Sarsechim, and another Nergal Sarezer)[a] 4 When King Zedekiah and all his soldiers saw what was happening, they tried to escape from the city during the night They left by way of the royal garden, went through the gateway connecting the two walls, and escaped in the direction of the Jordan Valley 5 But the Babylonian army pursued them and captured Zedekiah in the plains near Jericho Then they took him to King Nebuchadnezzar, who was in the city of Riblah in the territory of Hamath, and there Nebuchadnezzar passed sentence on him 6 At Riblah he put Zedekiah's sons to death while Zedekiah was looking on, and he also executed the officials of Judah 7 After that, he had Zedekiah's eyes put out and had him placed in chains to be taken to Babylonia 8 Meanwhile, the Babylonians burnt down the royal palace and the houses of the people and tore down the walls of Jerusalem 9 Finally Nebuzaradan, the commanding officer, took away as prisoners to Babylonia the people who were left in the city, together with those who had deserted to him 10 He left in the land of Judah some of the poorest people, who owned no property, and he gave them vineyards and fields

Jeremiah's Release

11 But King Nebuchadnezzar commanded Nebuzaradan, the commanding officer, to give the following order 12 "Go and find Jeremiah and take good care of him Do not harm him, but do for him whatever he wants" 13 So Nebuzaradan, together with the high officials Nebushazban and Nergal Sarezer and all the other officers of the king of Babylonia, 14 brought me from the palace courtyard They put me under the care of Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, who was to see that I got home safely And so I stayed there among the

Hope for Ebedmelech

15 While I was still imprisoned in the palace courtyard, the LORD told me 16 to tell Ebedmelech the Sudanese that the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, had said, "Just as I said I would, I am going to bring upon this city destruction and not prosperity And when this happens, you will be there to see it 17 But I, the LORD, will protect you, and you will not be handed over to the men you are afraid of. 18 I will keep you safe, and you will not be put to death You will escape with your life because you have put your trust in me I, the LORD, have spoken"

Jeremiah Stays with Gedaliah

40 The LORD spoke to me after Nebuzaradan, the commanding officer, had set me free at Ramah I had been taken there in chains, along with all the other people from Jerusalem and Judah who were being taken away as prisoners to Babylonia 2 The commanding officer took me aside and said, "The LORD your God threatened this land with destruction, 3 and now he has done what he said he would All this happened because your people sinned against the LORD and disobeyed him 4 Now, I am taking the chains off your wrists and setting you free If you want to go to Babylonia with me, you may do so, and I will take care of you But if you don't want to go, you don't have to You have the whole country to choose from, and you may go wherever you wish"
5 When I did not answer,[c] Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylonia has made governor of the towns of Judah You may stay with him and live among the people, or you may go anywhere you think you should" Then he gave me a present and some food to take with me, and let me go on my way 6 I went to stay with Gedaliah in Mizpah and lived among the people who were left in the land

Gedaliah, Governor of Judah
(2 Kgs 25.22-24)

7 Some of the Judaean officers and soldiers had not surrendered They heard that the king of Babylonia had made Gedaliah governor of the land and had placed him in charge of all those who had not been taken away to Babylonia—the poorest people in the land 8 So Ishmael son of Nathaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai from Netophah, and Jezaniah from Maacah went with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah 9 Gedaliah said to them, "I give you my word that there is no need for you to be afraid to surrender to the Babylonians Settle down in this land, serve the king of Babylonia, and all will go well with you 10 I myself will stay in Mizpah and be your representative when the Babylonians come here But you can gather and store up wine, fruit, and olive-oil, and live in the villages you occupy" 11 Meanwhile, all the Israelites who were in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and other countries, heard that the king of Babylonia had allowed some Israelites to stay on in Judah and that he had made Gedaliah their governor 12 So they left the places where they had been scattered, and returned to Judah They came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and there they gathered in large amounts of wine and fruit

Gedaliah Is Murdered
(2 Kgs 25.25-26)

13 After this, Johanan and the leaders of the soldiers who had not surrendered came to Gedaliah at Mizpah 14 and said to him, "Don't you know that King Baalis of Ammon has sent Ishmael to murder you?" But Gedaliah did not believe it 15 Then Johanan said privately to him, "Let me go and kill Ishmael, and no one will know who did it Why should he be allowed to murder you? That would cause all the Jews who have gathered round you to be scattered, and it would bring disaster on all the people who are left in Judah" 16 But Gedaliah answered, "Don't do it! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true!"

41 In the seventh month of that year, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama, a member of the royal family and one of the king's chief officers, went to Mizpah with ten men to see Gedaliah While they were all eating a meal together, 2 Ishmael and the ten men with him pulled out their swords and killed Gedaliah 3 Ishmael also killed all the Israelites who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah and the Babylonian soldiers who happened to be there 4 The next day, before anyone knew about Gedaliah's murder, 5 eighty men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria.
They had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and gashed themselves They were taking corn and incense to offer in the Temple 6 So Ishmael went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went When he came to them, he said, "Please come in to see Gedaliah" 7 As soon as they were inside the city, Ishmael and his men killed them and threw their bodies in a well 8 But there were ten men in the group who said to Ishmael, "Please don't kill us! We have wheat, barley, olive-oil, and honey hidden in the fields" So he spared them 9 The well into which Ishmael threw the bodies of the men he had killed was the large one[e] that King Asa had dug when he was being attacked by King Baasha of Israel Ishmael filled the well with the bodies 10 Then he made prisoners of the king's daughters and all the rest of the people in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the commanding officer had placed under the care of Gedaliah Ishmael took them prisoner and started off in the direction of the territory of Ammon 11 Johanan and all the army leaders with him heard of the crime that Ishmael had committed 12 So they went after him with their men and overtook him near the large pool at Gibeon 13 When Ishmael's prisoners saw Johanan and the leaders of the forces with him, they were glad, 14 and turned and ran to them 15 But Ishmael and eight of his men got away from Johanan and escaped to the land of Ammon 16 Then Johanan and the leaders of the forces with him took charge of the people whom Ishmael had taken away as prisoners from Mizpah after murdering Gedaliah—soldiers, women, children, and eunuchs 17-18 They were afraid of the Babylonians because Ishmael had murdered Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylonia had made governor of the land So they set out for Egypt, in order to get away from the Babylonians On the way, they stopped at Chimham, near Bethlehem

The People Ask Jeremiah to Pray for Them

42 Then all the army leaders, including Johanan son of Kareah and Azariah[f] son of Heshaiah, came with people of every class 2 and said to me, "Please do what we ask you! Pray to the LORD our God for us Pray for all of us who have survived Once there were many of us, but now only a few of us are left, as you can see 3 Pray that the LORD our God will show us the way we should go and what we should do" 4 I answered, "Very well, then I will pray to the LORD our God, just as you have asked, and whatever he says, I will tell you I will not keep back anything from you" 5 Then they said to me, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not obey all the commands that the LORD our God gives you for us 6 Whether it pleases us or not, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are asking you to pray All will go well with us if we obey him"

They disobeyed the LORD's command and went into Egypt (43.7)

The LORD's Answer to Jeremiah's Prayer

7 Ten days later the LORD spoke to me, 8 so I called together Johanan, all the army leaders who were with him, and all the other people. 9 I said to them, "The LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me with your request, has said, 10 'If you are willing to go on living in this land, then I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not pull you up. The destruction I brought on you has caused me great sorrow. 11 Stop being afraid of the king of Babylonia. I am with you, and I will rescue you from his power. 12 Because I am merciful, I will make him have mercy on you and let you go back home.
I, the LORD, have spoken.' 13–15 "But you people who are left in Judah must not disobey the LORD your God and refuse to live in this land. You must not say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt, where we won't face war any more or hear the call to battle or go hungry.' If you say this, then the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says, 'If you are determined to go and live in Egypt, 16 then the war that you fear will overtake you, and the hunger you dread will follow you, and you will die there in Egypt. 17 All the people who are determined to go and live in Egypt will die either in war or of starvation or disease. Not one of them will survive, not one will escape the disaster that I am going to bring on them.' 18 "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Just as my anger and fury were poured out on the people of Jerusalem, so my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will be a horrifying sight; people will treat you with scorn and use your name as a curse. You will never see this place again.'" 19 Then I continued, "The LORD has told you people who are left in Judah not to go to Egypt. And so I warn you now 20 that you are making a fatal mistake. You asked me to pray to the LORD our God for you, and you promised that you would do everything that he commands. 21 And now I have told you, but you are disobeying everything that the LORD our God sent me to tell you. 22 So then, remember this: you will die in war or of starvation or disease in the land where you want to go and live."

Jeremiah Is Taken to Egypt

43 I finished telling the people everything that the LORD their God had sent me to tell them. 2 Then Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the other arrogant men said to me, "You are lying. The LORD our God did not send you to tell us not to go and live in Egypt. 3 Baruch son of Neriah has stirred you up against us, so that the Babylonians will gain power over us and can either kill us or take us away to Babylonia." 4 So neither Johanan nor any of the army officers or any of the people would obey the LORD's command to remain in the land of Judah. 5 Then Johanan and all the army officers took everybody left in Judah away to Egypt, together with all the people who had returned from the nations where they had been scattered: 6 the men, the women, the children, and the king's daughters. They took everyone whom Nebuzaradan the commanding officer had left under the care of Gedaliah, including Baruch and me. 7 They disobeyed the LORD's command and went into Egypt as far as the city of Tahpanhes.
8 There the LORD said to me, 9 "Get some large stones and bury them in the mortar of the pavement[g] in front of the entrance to the government building here in this city, and let some of the Israelites see you do it. 10 Then tell them that I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, am

[g] Probable text bury them ... pavement; Hebrew unclear.
43.5–7: 2 Kgs 25.26

going to bring my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia to this place, and he[h] will put his throne over these stones that you[i] buried, and will spread the royal tent over them.
11 Nebuchadnezzar will come and defeat Egypt. Those people who are doomed to die of disease will die of disease, those doomed to be taken away as prisoners will be taken away as prisoners, and those doomed to be killed in war will be killed in war. 12 I will set fire to the temples of Egypt's gods, and the king of Babylonia will either burn their gods or carry them off. As a shepherd picks his clothes clean of lice, so the king of Babylonia will pick the land of Egypt clean and then leave victorious. 13 He will destroy the sacred stone monuments at Heliopolis in Egypt and will burn down the temples of the Egyptian gods."

The LORD's Message to the Israelites in Egypt

44 The LORD spoke to me concerning all the Israelites living in Egypt, in the cities of Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis, and in the southern part of the country. 2 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, said, "You yourselves have seen the destruction I brought on Jerusalem and all the other cities of Judah. Even now they are still in ruins, and no one lives in them 3 because their people had done evil and had made me angry. They offered sacrifices to other gods and served gods that neither they nor you nor your ancestors ever worshipped. 4 I kept sending you my servants the prophets, who told you not to do this terrible thing that I hate. 5 But you would not listen or pay any attention. You would not give up your evil practice of sacrificing to other gods.
6 So I poured out my anger and fury on the towns of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem, and I set them on fire. They were left in ruins and became a horrifying sight, as they are today.
7 "And so I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, now ask why you are doing such an evil thing to yourselves. Do you want to bring destruction on men and women, children and babies, so that none of your people will be left? 8 Why do you make me angry by worshipping idols and by sacrificing to other gods here in Egypt, where you have come to live? Are you doing this just to destroy yourselves, so that every nation on earth will treat you with scorn and use your name as a curse?
9 Have you forgotten all the wicked things that have been done in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem by your ancestors, by the kings of Judah and their wives, and by you and your wives? 10 But to this day you have not humbled yourselves. You have not honoured me or lived according to all the laws that I gave you and your ancestors.
11 "So then, I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, will turn against you and destroy all Judah. 12 As for the people of Judah who are left and are determined to go and live in Egypt, I will see to it that all of them are destroyed. All of them, great and small, will die in Egypt, either in war or of starvation. They will be a horrifying sight; people will treat them with scorn and use their name as a curse.
13 I will punish those who live in Egypt, just as I punished Jerusalem—with war, starvation, and disease. 14 None of the people of Judah who are left and have come to Egypt to live will escape or survive. Not one of them will return to Judah, where they long to live once again.
No one will return except a few refugees." 15 Then all the men who knew that their wives offered sacrifices to other gods, and all the women who were standing there, including the Israelites who lived in southern Egypt—a large crowd in all—said to me, 16 "We refuse to listen to what you have told us in the name of the LORD.
17 We will do everything that we said we would. We will offer sacrifices to our goddess, the Queen of Heaven, and we will pour out wine-offerings to her, just as we and our ancestors, our king and our leaders, used to do in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem.
Then we had plenty of food, we were prosperous, and had no troubles. 18 But ever since we stopped sacrificing to the Queen of Heaven and stopped pouring out wine-offerings to her, we have had nothing, and our people have died in war and of starvation." 19 And the women added, "When we baked cakes shaped like the Queen of Heaven, offered sacrifices to her, and poured out wine-offerings to her, our husbands approved of what we were doing." 20 Then I said to all the men and the women who had answered me in this way, 21 "As for the sacrifices which you and your ancestors, your kings and your leaders, and the people of the land offered in the towns of Judah and in the streets

[h] Some ancient translations he; Hebrew I. [i] Some ancient translations you; Hebrew I.

of Jerusalem—do you think that the LORD did not know about them or that he forgot them? 22 This very day your land lies in ruins and no one lives in it. It has become a horrifying sight, and people use its name as a curse because the LORD could no longer endure your wicked and evil practices. 23 This present disaster has come on you because you offered sacrifices to other gods and sinned against the LORD by not obeying all his commands." 24-25 I told all the people, especially the women, what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, was saying to the people of Judah living in Egypt. "Both you and your wives have made solemn promises to the Queen of Heaven. You promised that you would offer sacrifices to her and pour out wine-offerings to her, and you have kept your promises. Very well, then!
Keep your promises! Carry out your vows! 26 But now listen to the vow that I, the LORD, have made in my mighty name to all you Israelites in Egypt. Never again will I let any of you use my name to make a vow by saying, 'I swear by the living GOD!' 27 I will see to it that you will not prosper, but will be destroyed.
All of you will die, either in war or of disease, until not one of you is left. 28 But a few of you will escape death and return from Egypt to Judah. Then the survivors will know whose words have come true, mine or theirs. 29 I, the LORD, will give you proof that I will punish you in this place and that my promise to bring destruction on you will come true. 30 I will hand over King Hophra of Egypt to his enemies who want to kill him, just as I handed over King Zedekiah of Judah to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, who was his enemy and wanted to kill
him."

God's Promise to Baruch

45 In the fourth year that Jehoiakim
son of Josiah was king of Judah, Baruch wrote down what I had dictated to him. Then I told him 2 that the LORD, the God of Israel, had said, "Baruch, 3 you are saying, 'I give up! The LORD has added sorrow to my troubles. I am worn out from groaning, and I can't find any rest!' 4 "But I, the LORD, am tearing down what I have built and pulling up what I have planted. I will do this to the entire earth. 5 Are you looking for special treatment for yourself? Don't do it. I am bringing disaster on all mankind, but you will at least escape with your life, wherever you go. I, the LORD, have
spoken."

Egypt's Defeat at Carchemish

46 The LORD spoke to me about the nations, 2 beginning with Egypt.
This is what he said about the army of King Neco of Egypt, which King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia defeated at Carchemish near the River Euphrates in the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah.

3 "The Egyptian officers shout, 'Get your shields ready and march into battle!
4 Harness your horses and mount them!
Fall in line and put on your helmets!
Sharpen your spears!
Put on your armour!'

5 "But what do I see?" asks the LORD.
"They are turning back in terror.
Their soldiers are beaten back, overcome with fear, they run as fast as they can and do not look back.
6 Those who run fast cannot get away, the soldiers cannot escape.
In the north, by the Euphrates, they stumble and fall.
7 Who is this that rises like the Nile, like a river flooding its banks?
8 It is Egypt, rising like the Nile,
like a river flooding its banks.
Egypt said, 'I will rise and cover the world,
I will destroy cities and the people who live there.
9 Command the horses to go and the chariots to roll!
Send out the soldiers, men from Sudan and Libya, carrying shields, and skilled bowmen from Lydia.'"

10 This is the day of the Sovereign LORD Almighty,
today he will take revenge;
today he will punish his enemies.
His sword will eat them until it is full, and drink their blood until it is satisfied.
Today the Almighty sacrifices his victims

All your medicine has proved useless, nothing can heal you everyone has heard you cry One soldier trips over another, and both of them fall to the ground

The Coming of Nebuchadnezzar

13 When King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia came to attack Egypt, the LORD spoke to me He said, 14 "Proclaim it in the towns of Egypt, in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes 'Get ready to defend yourselves, all you have will be destroyed in war!
15 Why has your mighty god Apis fallen? the LORD has struck him down!' 16 Your soldiers have stumbled and fallen,[k]
each one says to the other,
'Hurry! Let's go home to our people and escape the enemy's sword!'

17 "Give the king of Egypt a new name—'Noisy Braggart Who Missed His Chance'
18 I, the LORD Almighty, am king I am the living God As Mount Tabor towers above the
mountains
and Mount Carmel stands high above the sea, so will be the strength of the one who attacks you 19 Get ready to be taken prisoner, you people of Egypt!
Memphis will be made a desert, a ruin where no one lives 20 Egypt is like a splendid cow, attacked by a stinging fly from the north 21 Even her hired soldiers are helpless as calves They did not stand and fight, all of them turned and ran The day of their doom had arrived, the time of their destruction 22 Egypt runs away, hissing like a snake, as the enemy's army approaches They attack her with axes, like men cutting down trees 23 and destroying a thick forest Their men are too many to count, their soldiers outnumber the locusts 24 The people of Egypt are put to shame, they are conquered by the people of the north
I, the LORD, have spoken"

25 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says, "I am going to punish Amon, the god of Thebes, together with Egypt and its gods and kings I am going to take the king of Egypt and all who put their trust in him, 26 and hand them over to those who want to kill them, to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia and his army But later on, people will live in Egypt again, as they did in times past
I, the LORD, have spoken"

The LORD Will Save His People

27 "My people, do not be afraid,
people of Israel, do not be terrified
I will rescue you from that distant land,
from the land where you are prisoners You will come back home and live in
peace;
28 I will come to you and save you

The LORD's Message about Philistia

47 Before the king of Egypt attacked Gaza, the LORD spoke to me about Philistia [2]He said "Look! Waters are rising in the north and will rush like a river in flood They will cover the land and everything on it, cities and the people who live there People will call out for help, everyone on earth will cry bitterly 3 They will hear the hoof beats of horses, the clatter of chariots, the rumble of wheels Fathers will not turn back for their children, their hands will hang limp at their sides 4 The time has come to destroy Philistia to cut off from Tyre and Sidon all the help that remains I, the LORD, will destroy the Philistines, all who came from the shores of Crete 5 Great sorrow has come to the people of Gaza, and Ashkelon's people are silent How long will the rest of Philistia mourn?
6 You cry out, 'Sword of the LORD!
How long will you go on slashing?
Go back to your scabbard stay there and rest!' 7 But how can it rest, when I have given it work to do?
I have commanded it to attack Ashkelon and the people who live on the coast "

The Destruction of Moab

48 This is what the LORD Almighty said about Moab "Pity the people of Nebo—their town is destroyed!
Kiriathaim is captured, its mighty fortress torn down, and its people put to shame, 2 the splendour of Moab is gone The enemy have captured Heshbon and plot to destroy the nation of Moab The town of Madmen will be silenced, armies will march against it 3 The people of Horonaim cry out, 'Violence! Destruction!' 4 "Moab has been destroyed. listen to the children crying 5 Hear the sound of their sobs along the road up to Luhith, the cries of distress on the way down to Horonaim 6 'Quick, run for your lives!' they say 'Run like a wild desert donkey!'

7 "Moab, you trusted in your strength and your wealth but now even you will be conquered, your god Chemosh will go into exile, along with his princes and priests 8 Not a town will escape the destruction, both valley and plain will be ruined
I, the LORD, have spoken 9 Set up a tombstone for Moab, it will soon be destroyed Its towns will be left in ruins, and no one will live there again." 10 (Curse the man who does not do the LORD's work with all his heart! Curse the man who does not slash and kill!)

The Cities of Moab Are Destroyed

11 The LORD said "Moab has always lived secure and has never been taken into exile Moab is like wine left to settle undisturbed and never poured from jar to jar Its flavour has never been ruined, and it tastes as good as ever 12 "So now, the time is coming when I will send people to pour Moab out like wine They will empty its wine-jars and break them in pieces [13]Then the Moabites will be disillusioned with their god Chemosh, just as the Israelites were disillusioned with Bethel, a god in whom they trusted 14 "Men of Moab, why do you claim to be heroes, brave soldiers tested in war?
15 Moab and its cities are destroyed, its finest young men have been slaughtered I am the king, the LORD Almighty, and I have spoken 16 Moab's doom approaches, its ruin is coming soon 17 "Mourn for that nation, you that live near by, all of you that know its fame Say, 'Its powerful rule has been broken, its glory and might are no more'

47 1-7 Is 14 29-31, Ezek 25 15-17, Joel 3 4-8 Amos 1 6-8, Zeph 2 4-7 Zech 9 5-7 48 1-47 Is 15 1—16 14, 25 10-12, Ezek 25 8-11, Amos 2 1-3, Zeph 2 8-11

18 You that live in Dibon, come down from your place of honour and sit on the ground in the dust, Moab's destroyer is here and has left its forts in ruins 19 You that live in Aroer, stand by the road and wait, ask those who are running away, find out from them what has happened
20 'Moab has fallen,' they will answer, 'weep for it, it is disgraced Announce along the River Arnon that Moab is destroyed!'

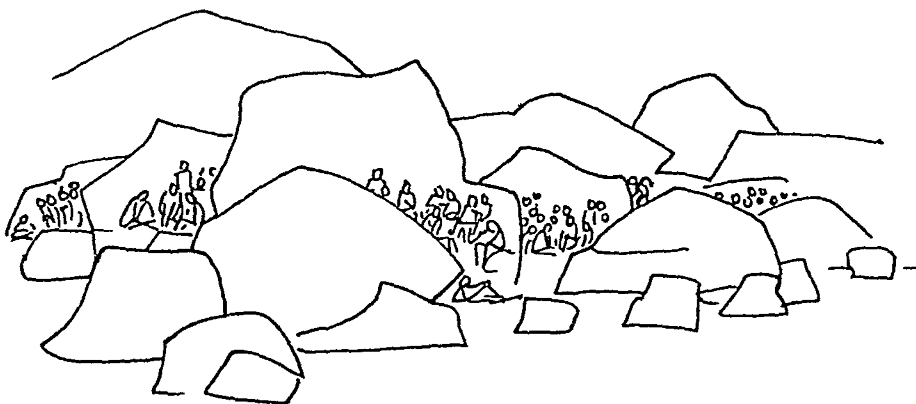
21 "Judgement has come on the cities of the plateau on Holon, Jahzah, Meph-ath, 22 Dibon, Nebo, Beth Diblathaim, 23 Kiriathaim, Bethgamul, Bethmeon, 24 Kerioth, and Bozrah Judgement has come on all the cities of Moab, far and near 25 Moab's might has been crushed, its power has been destroyed I, the LORD,
have spoken "



Moab Will Be Humbled

26 The LORD said, "Make Moab drunk, because it has rebelled against me Moab will roll in its own vomit, and people will laugh 27 Moab, remember how you jeered at the people of Israel? You treated them as though they had been caught with a gang of robbers 28 "You people who live in Moab, leave your towns! Go and live on the cliffs!
Be like the dove that makes its nest in the sides of a ravine 29 Moab is very proud! I have heard how proud, arrogant, and conceited the people are, how much they think of themselves 30 I, the LORD, know of their arrogance Their boasts amount to nothing, and the things they do will not last 31 And so I will weep for everyone in Moab and for the people of Kir Heres 32 I will cry for the people of Sibmah, even more than for the people of Jazer City of Sibmah, you are like a vine whose branches reach across the Dead Sea and go as far as Jazer But now your summer fruits and your grapes have been destroyed 33 Happiness and joy have been taken away from the fertile land of Moab I have made the wine stop flowing from the winepresses, there is no one to make the wine and shout for joy 34 "The people of Heshbon and Elealeh cry out,[l] and their cry can be heard as far as Jahaz, it can be heard by the people in Zoar, and it is heard as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah Even the brook of Nimrim has dried up 35 I will stop the people of Moab from making burnt-offerings at their places of worship and from offering sacrifices to their gods I,
the LORD, have spoken 36 "So my heart mourns for Moab and for the people of Kir Heres, like someone playing a funeral song on a flute, because everything they owned is gone 37 All of them have shaved their heads and cut off their beards They have all made gashes on their hands, and everyone is wearing sackcloth 38 On all the house-tops of Moab and in all its public squares there is nothing but mourning, because I have broken Moab like a jar that no one wants 39 Moab has been shattered! Cry out!
Moab has been disgraced It is in ruins, and all the surrounding nations jeer at it
I, the LORD, have spoken "

No Escape for Moab

40 The LORD has promised that a nation will swoop down on Moab like an eagle with its outspread wings, 41 and the towns and fortresses will be captured On that day Moab's soldiers will be as frightened as a woman in labour 42 Moab will be destroyed and will no longer be a nation, because it rebelled against me 43 Terror, pits, and traps are waiting for the people of Moab The LORD has spoken 44 Whoever tries to escape the terror will fall into the pits, and whoever climbs out of the pits will be caught in the traps, because the LORD has set the time for Moab's destruction 45 Helpless refugees try to find protection in Heshbon, the city that King Sihon once ruled, but it is in flames [m] Fire has burnt up the frontiers and the mountain heights of the war-loving people of Moab 46 Pity the people of Moab! The people who worshipped Chemosh have been destroyed, and their sons and daughters have been taken away as prisoners 47 But in days to come the LORD will make Moab prosperous again All of this is what the LORD has said will happen to Moab

Hide! (49.8)

The LORD's Judgement on Ammon

49 This is what the LORD said about Ammon. "Where are the men of Israel? Is there no one to defend their land? Why have they let the people who worship Milcom take the territory of the tribe of Gad and settle there? 2 But the time is coming when I will make the people of the capital city of Rabbah hear the noise of battle, and it will be left in ruins and its villages burnt to the ground.
Then Israel will take its land back from those who took it from them. 3 People of Heshbon, cry out! Ai is destroyed!
Women of Rabbah, go into mourning! Put on sackcloth and mourn. Run about in confusion. Your god Milcom will be taken into exile, together with his priests and princes. 4 Why do you unfaithful people boast? Your strength is failing. Why do you trust in your power and say that no one would dare attack you? 5 I will bring terror on you from every side. You will all run away. Each one will run for his life, and there will be no one to bring your troops together again.
6 "But later on I will make Ammon prosperous again. I, the LORD, have
spoken."

The LORD's Judgement on Edom

7 This is what the LORD Almighty said about Edom. "Have the people of Edom lost their good judgement? Can their advisers no longer tell them what to do?
Has all their wisdom disappeared?
8 People of Dedan, turn and run! Hide!
I am going to destroy Esau's descendants, because the time has come for me to punish them. 9 When men pick grapes, they leave a few on the vines, and when robbers come at night, they take only what they want. 10 But I° have stripped Esau's descendants completely and uncovered their hiding places, so that they can no longer hide. All the people of Edom are destroyed. Not one of them is left.
11 Leave your orphans with me, and I will take care of them. Your widows can depend on me." 12 "If even those who did not deserve to be punished had to drink from the cup of punishment, do you think that you will go unpunished? No, you must drink from the cup! 13 I myself have sworn that the city of Bozrah will become a horrifying sight and a desert; people will jeer at it and use its name as a curse. All the nearby villages will be in ruins for ever. I,
the LORD, have spoken." 14 I said, "Edom, I have received a message from the LORD. He has sent a messenger to tell the nations to assemble their armies and to get ready to attack you. 15 The LORD is going to make you weak, and no one will respect you. 16 Your pride has deceived you. No one fears you as much as you think they do You live on the rocky cliffs, high on top of the mountain, but even though you live as high up as an eagle, the LORD will bring you down The LORD has spoken" 17 The LORD said, "The destruction that will come on Edom will be so terrible that everyone who passes by will be shocked and terrified 18 The same thing will happen to Edom as happened to Sodom and Gomorrah, when they and the near-by towns were destroyed No one will ever live there again I, the LORD, have spoken 19 Like a lion coming out of the thick woods along the Jordan up to the green pasture land, I will come and make the Edomites run away suddenly from their country Then the leader I choose will rule the nation Who can be compared to me?

Who would dare challenge me? What ruler could oppose me? 20 So listen to the plan that I have made against the people of Edom, and to what I intend to do to the people of the city of Teman Even their children will be dragged off, and everyone will be horrified 21 When Edom falls, there will be such a noise that the entire earth will shake, and the cries of alarm will be heard as far away as the Gulf of Aqaba 22 The enemy will attack Bozrah like an eagle swooping down with outspread wings On that day Edom's soldiers will be as frightened as a woman in labour"

The LORD's Judgement on Damascus

23 This is what the LORD said about Damascus "The people in the cities of Hamath and Arpad are worried and troubled because they have heard bad news Anxiety rolls over them like a sea, and they cannot rest. 24 The people of Damascus are weak and have fled in terror They are in pain and misery like a woman in labour 25 The famous city that used to be happy[p] is completely deserted 26 On that day her young men will be killed in the city streets, and all her soldiers destroyed 27 I will set the walls of Damascus on fire and will burn down King Benhadad's palaces I, the

Judgement on the Tribe of Kedar and the City of Hazor 28 This is what the LORD said about the tribe of Kedar and the districts controlled by Hazor, which were conquered by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia "Attack the people of Kedar and destroy that tribe of eastern people! 29 Seize their tents and their flocks, their tent curtains and everything in their tents Take their camels and tell the people, 'Terror is all round you!' 30 "People of Hazor, I, the LORD, warn you to run far away and hide King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia has plotted against you, and this is what he says, 31 'Come on! We'll attack those people that feel safe and secure! Their city has no gates or locks and is completely unprotected' 32 "Take their camels and all their cattle! I will scatter in every direction those people who cut their hair short, and I will bring disaster on them from every side 33 Hazor will be made a desert for ever, a place where only jackals live No one will ever live there again I, the LORD,

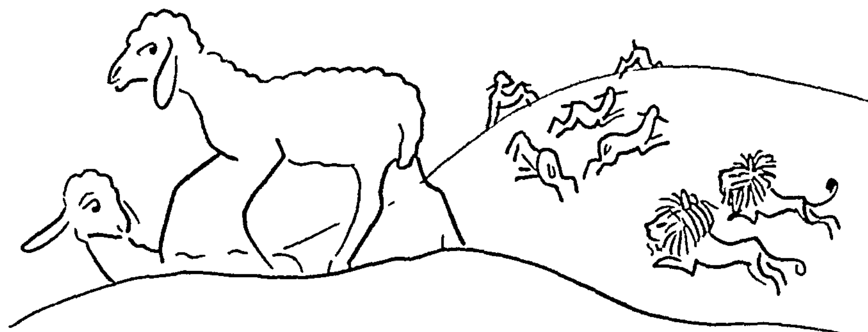
have spoken"



The LORD's Judgement on Elam

34 Soon after Zedekiah became king of Judah, the LORD Almighty spoke to me about the country of Elam 35 He said, "I will kill all the bowmen who have made Elam so powerful 36 I will make winds blow against Elam from all directions, and I will scatter her people everywhere, until there is no country where her refugees have not gone 37 I will make the people of Elam afraid of their enemies, who want to kill them In my great anger I will destroy the people of Elam and send armies against them until I have wiped them out. 38 I will destroy their kings and leaders, and set up my throne there 39 But later on I will make the people of Elam prosperous again I, the LORD, have
spoken"

Babylon's Capture

50 This is the message that the LORD gave me about the city of Babylon and its people 2 "Tell the news to the nations! Proclaim
it!
Give the signal and announce the news!
Do not keep it a secret!
Babylon has fallen!
Her god Marduk has been shattered!
Babylon's idols are put to shame, her disgusting images are crushed!

Like sheep scattered by lions (50.17)

3 "A nation from the north has come to attack Babylonia and will make it a desert. Men and animals will run away, and no one will live there."

Israel's Return

4 The LORD says, "When that time comes, the people of both Israel and Judah will come weeping, looking for me, their God. [5]They will ask the way to Zion and then go in that direction. They will make an eternal covenant with me and never break it.
6 "My people are like sheep whose shepherds have let them get lost in the mountains. They have wandered like sheep from one mountain to another, and they have forgotten where their home is.
[7]They are attacked by all who find them.
Their enemies say, 'They sinned against the LORD, and so what we have done is not wrong. Their ancestors trusted in the LORD, and they themselves should have remained faithful to him.' 8 "People of Israel, run away from Babylonia! Leave the country! Be the first to leave! [9]I am going to stir up a group of strong nations in the north and make them attack Babylonia. They will line up in battle against the country and conquer it. They are skilful hunters, shooting arrows that never miss the mark.
[10]Babylonia will be looted, and those who loot it will take everything they want. I,

Babylon's Fall

11 The LORD says, "People of Babylonia, you plundered my nation. You are happy and glad, going about like a cow threshing corn or like a neighing horse, [12]but your own great city will be humiliated and disgraced. Babylonia will be the least important nation of all; it will become a dry and waterless desert. [13]Because of my anger no one will live in Babylon; it will be left in ruins, and all who pass by will be shocked and amazed.
14 "Bowmen, line up for battle against Babylon and surround it. Shoot all your arrows at Babylon, because it has sinned against me, the LORD. [15]Raise the war cry all round the city! Now Babylon has surrendered. Its walls have been broken through and torn down.[q] I am taking my revenge on the Babylonians. So take your revenge on them, and treat them as they have treated others. [16]Do not let seeds be sown in that country or let a harvest be gathered. Every foreigner living there will be afraid of the attacking army and will go back home."

Israel's Return

17 The LORD says, "The people of Israel are like sheep, chased and scattered by lions. First, they were attacked by the emperor of Assyria, and then King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia gnawed their bones. [18]Because of this, I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, will punish [q] Hebrew has an additional word, the meaning of which is unclear.

King Nebuchadnezzar and his country, just as I punished the emperor of Assyria 19 I will restore the people of Israel to their land They will eat the food that grows on Mount Carmel and in the region of Bashan, and they will eat all they want of the crops that grow in the territories of Ephraim and Gilead 20 When that time comes, no sin will be found in Israel and no wickedness in Judah, because I will forgive those people whose lives I have spared. I, the LORD, have spoken "

God's Judgement on Babylonia

21 The LORD says, "Attack the people of Merathaim and of Pekod Kill and destroy them [r] Do everything I command you I, the LORD, have spoken 22 The noise of battle is heard in the land, and there is great destruction 23 Babylonia hammered the whole world to pieces, and now that hammer is shattered! All the nations are shocked at what has happened to that country 24 Babylonia, you fought against me, and you have been caught in the trap I set for you, even though you did not know it 25 I have opened the place where my weapons are stored, and in my anger I have taken them out, because I, the Sovereign LORD Almighty, have work to do in Babylonia 26 Attack it from every side and break open the places where its grain is stored! Pile up the loot like piles of grain! Destroy the country! Leave nothing at all! 27 Kill all their soldiers!
Slaughter them! The people of Babylonia are doomed! The time has come for them to be punished!"

28 (Refugees escape from Babylonia and come to Jerusalem, and they tell how the LORD our God took revenge for what the Babylonians had done to his Temple) 29 "Tell the bowmen to attack Babylon Send out everyone who knows how to use the bow and arrow Surround the city and don't let anyone escape Pay it back for all it has done, and treat it as it has treated others, because it acted with pride against me, the Holy One of Israel 30 So its young men will be killed in the city streets, and all its soldiers will be destroyed on that day I, the LORD, have

spoken

31 "Babylonia, you are filled with pride, so I, the Sovereign LORD Almighty, am against you! The time has come for me to punish you 32 Your proud nation will stumble and fall, and no one will help you up I will set your cities on fire, and everything around will be destroyed " 33 The LORD Almighty says, "The people of Israel and of Judah are oppressed All who captured them are guarding them closely and will not let them go 34 But the one who will rescue them is strong—his name is the LORD Almighty He himself will take up their cause and will bring peace to the earth, but trouble to the people of Babylonia "

35 The LORD says,
"Death to Babylonia!
Death to its people, to its rulers, to its men of wisdom 36 Death to its lying prophets—what fools they are!
Death to its soldiers—how terrified they are!
37 Destroy its horses and chariots!
Death to its hired soldiers—how weak they are!
Destroy its treasures, plunder and loot 38 Bring a drought on its land and dry up its rivers Babylonia is a land of terrifying idols, that have made fools of the people 39 "And so Babylon will be haunted by demons and evil spirits,[t] and by unclean birds Never again will people live there, not for all time to come 40 The same thing will happen to Babylon as happened to Sodom and Gomorrah, when I destroyed them and the near-by towns No one will ever live there again I, the LORD, have

spoken

41 "People are coming from a country in the north,
a mighty nation far away, many kings are preparing for war 42 They have taken their bows and swords, they are cruel and merciless They sound like the roaring sea, as they ride their horses They are ready for battle against Babylonia 43 The king of Babylonia hears the news, and his hands hang limp He is seized by anguish, by pain like a woman in labour

woods along the Jordan up to the green pasture land, I, the LORD, will come and Give the signal to attack Babylon's walls (51 12)

21 to shatter horses and riders, to shatter chariots and their drivers, 22 to kill men and women, to slay old and young,
to kill boys and girls, 23 to slaughter shepherds and their flocks,
to slaughter ploughmen and their horses, to crush rulers and high officials "

Babylonia's Punishment

24 The LORD says, "You will see me repay Babylonia and its people for all the evil they did to Jerusalem 25 Babylonia, you are like a mountain that destroys the whole world, but I, the LORD, am your enemy I will take hold of you, level you to the ground, and leave you in ashes 26 None of the stones from your ruins will ever be used again for building You will be like a desert for ever I, the LORD, have
spoken 27 "Give the signal to attack! Blow the trumpet so that the nations can hear!
Prepare the nations for war against Babylonia! Tell the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz to attack Appoint an officer to lead the attack Bring up the horses like a swarm of locusts 28 Prepare the nations for war against Babylonia Send for the kings of Media, their leaders and officials, and the armies of all the countries they control 29 The earth trembles and shakes because the LORD is carrying out his plan to make Babylonia a desert, where no one lives 30 The Babylonian soldiers have stopped fighting and remain in their forts They have lost their courage and have become like women The city gates are broken down, and the houses are on fire 31 Messenger after messenger runs to tell the king of Babylonia that his city has been broken into from every side 32 The enemy have captured the river-crossing and have set the fortresses on fire The Babylonian soldiers have panicked 33 Soon the enemy will cut them down and trample them like corn on a threshing-place I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, have spoken "

31 The king of Babylonia cut Jerusalem up and ate it He emptied the city like a jar, like a monster he swallowed it He took what he wanted and threw the rest away 35 Let the people of Zion say,
"May Babylonia be held responsible for the violence done to us!" Let the people of Jerusalem say,
"May Babylonia be held responsible for what we have suffered!"

The LORD Will Help Israel

36 And so the LORD said to the people of Jerusalem, "I will take up your cause and will make your enemies pay for what they did to you I will dry up the source of Babylonia's water and make its rivers go dry 37 That country will become a pile of ruins where wild animals live It will be a horrible sight, no one will live there, and all who see it will be terrified 38 The

That country will become a pile of ruins where wild animals live (51.37).

Babylonians all roar like lions and growl like lion cubs. 39 Are they greedy? I will prepare them a feast and make them drunk and happy. They will go to sleep and never wake up. 40 I will take them to be slaughtered, like lambs, goats, and rams. I, the LORD, have spoken."

Babylon's Fate

41 The LORD says about Babylon: "The city that the whole world praised has been captured! What a horrifying sight Babylon has become to the nations! 42 The sea has rolled over Babylon and covered it with roaring waves. 43 The towns have become a horrifying sight and are like a waterless desert, where no one lives or even travels. 44 I will punish Bel, the god of Babylonia, and make him give up his stolen goods; the nations will not worship him any more.

"Babylon's walls have fallen. 45 People of Israel, run away from there! Run for your life from my fierce anger. 46 Do not lose courage or be afraid because of the rumours you hear. Every year a different rumour spreads—rumours of violence in the land and of one king fighting another.
47 And so the time is coming when I will deal with Babylonia's idols. The whole country will be put to shame, and all its people will be killed. 48 Everything on earth and in the sky will shout for joy when Babylonia falls to the people who come from the north to destroy it.
49 Babylonia caused the death of people all over the world, and now Babylonia will fall because it caused the death of so many Israelites. I, the LORD, have
spoken."

God's Message to the Israelites in Babylonia

50 The LORD says to his people in Babylonia: "You have escaped death!
Now go! Don't wait! Though you are far from home, think about me, your LORD, and remember Jerusalem. 51 You say, 'We've been disgraced and made ashamed; we feel completely helpless because foreigners have taken over the holy places in the Temple.' 52 So then, I say that the time is coming when I will deal with Babylon's idols, and the wounded will groan throughout the country. 53 Even if Babylon could climb to the sky and build a strong fortress there, I would still send people to destroy it. I, the LORD, have spoken."

Further Destruction of Babylon

54 The LORD says,
"Listen to the sound of crying in Babylon,
of mourning for the destruction in the
land.
55 I am destroying Babylon and putting it to silence.
The armies rush in like roaring waves and attack with noisy shouts.
56 They have come to destroy Babylon; its soldiers are captured, and their bows are broken.
I am a God who punishes evil, and I will treat Babylon as it deserves.
57 I will make its rulers drunk—men of wisdom, leaders, and soldiers.

51.48: Rev 18.20. 51.49: Rev 18.24.

They will go to sleep and never wake up I, the king, have spoken, I am the LORD Almighty 58 The walls of mighty Babylon will be thrown to the ground, and its towering gates burnt down The work of the nations is all for nothing, their efforts go up in flames
I, the LORD Almighty, have spoken"

Jeremiah's Message Is Sent to Babylonia

59 King Zedekiah's personal attendant was Seraiah, the son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah In the fourth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, Seraiah was going to Babylonia with him, and I gave him some instructions 60 I wrote in a book an account of all the destruction that would come on Babylonia, as well as all these other things about Babylonia 61 I told Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, be sure to read aloud to the people everything that is written here 62 Then pray, 'LORD, you have said that you would destroy this place, so that there would be no living creature in it, neither man nor animal, and it would be like a desert for ever' 63 Seraiah, when you finish reading this book to the people, then tie it to a stone and throw it into the River Euphrates, 64 and say, 'This is what will happen to Babylonia—it will sink and never rise again, because of the destruction that the LORD is going to bring on it'"[w]

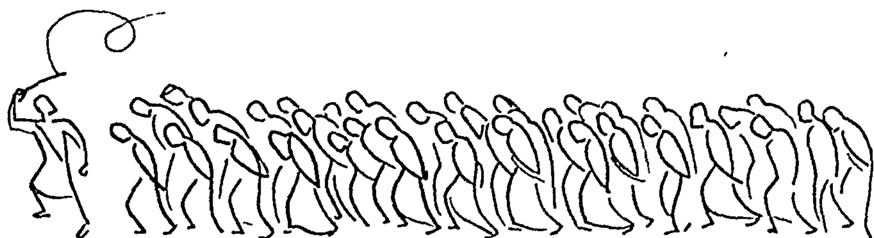
The words of Jeremiah end here



It will sink and never rise again (51 64)

(2 Kgs 24 18—25 7)

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of the Jeremiah who lived in the city of Libnah 2 King Zedekiah sinned against the LORD, just as King Jehoiakim had done 3 The LORD became so angry with the people of Jerusalem and Judah that he banished them from his sight Zedekiah rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, 4 and so Nebuchadnezzar came with all his army and attacked Jerusalem on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign They set up camp outside the city, built siege walls round it, 5 and kept it under siege until Zedekiah's eleventh year 6 On the ninth day of the fourth month of that same year, when the famine was so bad that the people had nothing left to eat, 7 the city walls were broken through Although the Babylonians were surrounding the city, all the soldiers escaped during the night They left by way of the royal garden, went through the gateway connecting the two walls, and fled in the direction of the Jordan Valley 8 But the Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah, captured him in the plains near Jericho, and all his soldiers deserted him 9 Zedekiah was taken to King Nebuchadnezzar, who was in the city of Riblah in the territory of Hamath, and there Nebuchadnezzar passed sentence on him 10 At Riblah he put Zedekiah's sons to death while Zedekiah was looking on and he also had the officials of Judah executed 11 After that, he had Zedekiah's eyes put out and had him placed in chains and taken to Babylon Zedekiah remained in prison in Babylon until the day he died

The Destruction of the Temple
(2 Kgs 25 8–17)

12 On the tenth day of the fifth month of the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, Nebuzaradan, adviser to the king and commander of his army, entered Jerusalem 13 He burnt down the Temple, the palace, and the houses of all the important people in Jerusalem, 14 and his soldiers tore down the city walls 15 Then Nebuzaradan took away to Babylonia the people who were left in the city, the remaining skilled workmen, and those who had deserted to the Babylonians 16 But he left in Judah some of the poorest people, who owned no property, and he put them to work in the vineyards and fields 17 The Babylonians broke in pieces the bronze columns and the carts that were in the Temple, together with the large bronze tank, and they took all the bronze to Babylon 18 They also took away the shovels and the ash containers used in cleaning the altar, the tools used in tending the lamps, the bowls used for catching the blood from the sacrifices, the bowls used for burning incense, and all the other bronze articles used in the temple service 19 They took away everything that was made of gold or silver the small bowls, the pans used for carrying live coals, the bowls for holding the blood from the sacrifices, the ash containers, the lampstands, the bowls used for incense, and the bowls used for pouring out offerings of wine 20 The bronze objects that King Solomon had made for the Temple—the two columns, the carts, the large tank, and the twelve bulls that supported it—were too heavy to weigh 21-22 The two columns were identical each one was 8 metres high and 5 3 metres round They were hollow, and the metal was 75 millimetres thick. On top of each column was a bronze capital 2 2 metres high, and all round it was a grating decorated with pomegranates, all of which was also made of bronze 23 On the grating of each column there were a hundred pomegranates in all, and ninety-six of these were visible from the ground

The People of Judah Are Taken to Babylonia
(2 Kgs 25 18–21, 27–30)

24 In addition, Nebuzaradan, the commanding officer, took away as prisoners Seraiah the High Priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three other important temple officials 25 From the city he took the officer who had been in command of the troops, seven of the king's personal advisers who were still in the city, the commander's assistant, who was in charge of military records, and sixty other important men.
26 Nebuzaradan took them to the king of Babylonia, who was in the city of Riblah 27 in the territory of Hamath There the king had them tortured and put to death So the people of Judah were carried away into exile 28 This is the record of the people that Nebuchadnezzar took away as prisoners in his seventh year as king he carried away 3,023, 29 in his eighteenth year, 832 from Jerusalem; 30 and in his twenty-third year, 745—taken away by Nebuzaradan In all, 4,600 people were taken away 31 In the year that Evilmerodach became king of Babylonia, he showed kindness to King Jehoiachin of Judah by releasing him from prison This happened on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year after Jehoiachin had been taken away as a prisoner 32 Evilmerodach treated him kindly and gave him a position of greater 52 13 1 Kgs 9 8 52 17–23. 1 Kgs 7 15–47 honour than he gave the other kings who were exiles with him in Babylonia. [33] So Jehoiachin was permitted to change from his prison clothes and to dine at the king's table for the rest of his life [34] Each day for as long as he lived, he was given a regular allowance for his needs.

LAMENTATIONS

INTRODUCTION

The book of Lamentations is a collection of five poems lamenting the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B C., and its aftermath of ruin and exile. In spite of the mournful nature of most of the book, there is also the note of trust in God and hope for the future These poems are used by the Jews in worship on the annual days of fasting and mourning which commemorate the national disaster of 586 B C.

Outline of Contents

The Sorrows of Jerusalem

1 How lonely lies Jerusalem, once so full of people!
Once honoured by the world, she is now like a widow, The noblest of cities has fallen into slavery

2 All night long she cries, tears run down her cheeks Of all her former friends, not one is left to comfort her.
Her allies have betrayed her and all are now against her.

3 Judah's people are helpless slaves, forced away from home [a] They live in other lands, with no place to call their own—Surrounded by enemies, with no way to escape

4 No one comes to the Temple now to worship on the holy days
The girls who sang there suffer, and the priests can only groan
The city gates stand empty, and Zion is in agony 5 Her enemies succeeded; they hold her in their power.

The LORD has made her suffer for all her many sins;
Her children have been captured and taken away 6 The splendour of Jerusalem is a thing of the past.

Her leaders are like deer that are weak from hunger,

[a] are helpless home, or fled from home, from the misery of slavery

Like a widow all night long she cries (1 1,2)

Whose strength is almost gone as they flee from the hunters

7 A lonely ruin now, Jerusalem recalls her ancient splendour When she fell to the enemy, there was no one to help her, Her conquerers laughed at her downfall

8 Her honour is gone, she is naked and held in contempt She groans and hides her face in shame
Jerusalem made herself filthy with terrible sin

9 Her uncleanness was easily seen, but she showed no concern for her fate Her downfall was terrible, no one can comfort her Her enemies have won, and she cries to the LORD for mercy

10 Her enemies robbed her of all her treasures
She saw them enter the Temple itself, Where the LORD had forbidden Gentiles to go

11 Her people groan as they look for something to eat, They exchange their treasures for food to keep themselves alive "Look at me, LORD," the city cries, "see me in my misery"

12 "Look at me!" she cries to everyone who passes by [b]
"No one has ever had pain like mine, Pain that the LORD brought on me in the time of his anger 13 "He sent fire from above, a fire that burnt inside me He set a trap for me and brought me to the ground Then he abandoned me and left me in constant pain

14 "He took note of all my sins and tied them all together, He hung them round my neck, and I grew weak beneath the weight The Lord gave me to my foes, and I was helpless against them 15 "The Lord jeered at all my strongest soldiers,

[b] Look by, or May this not happen to you that pass by, or Does this mean nothing to you that pass by?

He sent an army to destroy my young men He crushed my people like grapes in a winepress

16 "That is why my eyes are overflowing with tears No one can comfort me, no one can give me courage
The enemy has conquered me, my people have nothing left 17 "I stretch out my hands, but no one will help me

The LORD has called enemies against me from every side, They treat me like some filthy thing

18 "But the LORD is just, for I have disobeyed him Listen to me, people everywhere, look at me in my pain My young men and women have been taken away captive 19 "I called to my allies, but they refused to help me The priests and the leaders died in the city streets, Looking for food to keep themselves alive 20 "Look, O LORD, at my agony, at the anguish of my soul!

My heart is broken in sorrow for my sins There is murder in the streets, even indoors there is death 21 "Listen[c] to my groans, there is no one to comfort me My enemies are glad that you brought disaster on me Bring[d] the day you promised, make my enemies suffer as I do 22 "Condemn them for all their wickedness, Punish them as you punished me for my sins I groan in misery, and I am sick at heart "

The LORD's Punishment of Jerusalem

2 The Lord in his anger has covered Zion with darkness Its heavenly splendour he has turned into ruins On the day of his anger he abandoned even his Temple

2 The Lord destroyed without mercy every village in Judah And tore down the forts that defended the land He brought disgrace on the kingdom and its rulers

3 In his fury he shattered the strength of Israel, He refused to help us when the enemy came He raged against us like fire, destroying everything 4 He aimed his arrows at us like an enemy, He killed all those who were our joy and delight Here in Jerusalem we felt his burning anger

5 Like an enemy, the Lord has destroyed Israel, He has left her forts and palaces in ruins He has brought on the people of Judah unending sorrow

6 He smashed to pieces the Temple where we worshipped him, He has put an end to holy days and Sabbaths King and priest alike have felt the force of his anger

7 The Lord rejected his altar and deserted his holy Temple, He allowed the enemy to tear down its walls They shouted in victory where once we had worshipped in joy

8 The LORD was determined that the walls of Zion should fall, He measured them off to make sure of total destruction The towers and walls now lie in ruins together

9 The gates lie buried in rubble, their bars smashed to pieces
The king and the noblemen now are in exile
The Law is no longer taught, and the prophets have no visions from the LORD

[c] One ancient translation Listen, Hebrew They listened [d] One ancient translation Bring, Hebrew You brought

Get up again to cry out to the Lord (2 19)

10 Jerusalem's old men sit on the ground in silence, With dust on their heads and sackcloth on their bodies Young girls bow their heads to the ground

11 My eyes are worn out with weeping, my soul is in anguish I am exhausted with grief at the destruction of my people Children and babies are fainting in the streets of the city 12 Hungry and thirsty, they cry to their mothers, They fall in the streets as though they were wounded,

And slowly die in their mothers' arms 13 O Jerusalem, beloved Jerusalem, what can I say?

How can I comfort you? No one has ever suffered like this Your disaster is boundless as the ocean; there is no possible hope 14 Your prophets had nothing to tell you but lies, Their preaching deceived you by never exposing your sin They made you think you did not need to repent.

15 People passing by the city look at you in scorn They shake their heads and laugh at the ruins of Jerusalem.
"Is this that lovely city?" "Is this the pride of the world?"

16 All your enemies mock you and glare at you with hate They curl their lips and sneer, "We have destroyed it!
This is the day we have waited for!"

17 The LORD has finally done what he threatened to do He has destroyed us without mercy, as he warned us long ago He gave our enemies victory, gave them joy at our downfall

18 O Jerusalem, let your very walls cry out to the Lord![e] Let your tears flow like rivers night and day; Wear yourself out with weeping and grief!

19 All through the night get up again and again to cry out to the Lord, Pour out your heart and beg him for mercy on your children—Children starving to death on every street corner!

20 Look, O LORD! Look at those you are torturing!
Women are eating the bodies of the children they loved!

[e] Probable text O Jerusalem Lord, Hebrew Their hearts cried out to the Lord, O wall of Jerusalem.

Priests and prophets are being killed in the Temple itself!

21 Young and old alike lie dead in the streets,
Young men and women, killed by enemy swords You slaughtered them without mercy on the day of your anger

22 You invited my enemies to hold a carnival of terror all round me, And no one could escape on that day of your anger.
They murdered my children, whom I had reared and loved

Punishment, Repentance, and Hope

3 I am one who knows what it is to be punished by God 2 He drove me deeper and deeper into darkness
3 And beat me again and again with merciless blows

4 He has left my flesh open and raw, and has broken my bones 5 He has shut me in a prison of misery and anguish 6 He has forced me to live in the stagnant darkness of death

7 He has bound me in chains, I am a prisoner with no hope of escape 8 I cry aloud for help, but God refuses to listen, 9 I stagger as I walk, stone walls block me wherever I turn

10 He waited for me like a bear, he pounced on me like a lion 11 He chased me off the road, tore me to pieces, and left me 12 He drew his bow and made me the target for his arrows

13 He shot his arrows deep into my body 14 People laugh at me all day long; I am a joke to them all 15 He forced bitter liquid down my throat, and filled me with bitter food and drink.

16 He rubbed my face in the ground and broke my teeth on the gravel.
17 I have forgotten what health and peace and happiness are 18 I have not much longer to live, my hope in the LORD is gone

But God refuses to listen (3 8) 19 The thought of my pain, my homelessness, is bitter poison, 20 I think of it constantly and my spirit is depressed 21 Yet hope returns when I remember this one thing.

22 The LORD's unfailing love and mercy still continue, 23 Fresh as the morning, as sure as the sunrise 24 The LORD is all I have, and so I put my hope in him.

25 The LORD is good to everyone who trusts in him, 26 So it is best for us to wait in patience—to wait for him to save
us—27 And it is best to learn this patience in our youth

28 When we suffer, we should sit alone in silent patience, 29 We should bow in submission, for there may still be hope 30 Though beaten and insulted, we should accept it all

31 The Lord is merciful and will not reject us for ever.
32 He may bring us sorrow, but his love for us is sure and strong 33 He takes no pleasure in causing us grief or pain

34 The Lord knows when our spirits are crushed in prison, 35 He knows when we are denied the rights he gave us, 36 When justice is perverted in court, he knows

37 The will of the Lord alone is always carried out [f] 38 Good and evil alike take place at his command 39 Why should we ever complain when we are punished for our sin? [g]

40 Let us examine our ways and turn back to the LORD 41 Let us open our hearts to God in heaven and pray, 42 "We have sinned and rebelled, and you, O LORD, have not forgiven us 43 "You pursued us and killed us, your mercy was hidden by your anger, 44 By a cloud of fury too thick for our prayers to get through 45 You have made us the refuse heap of the world

46 "We are insulted and mocked by all our enemies 47 We have been through disaster and ruin, we live in danger and fear 48 My eyes flow with rivers of tears at the destruction of my people 49 "My tears will pour out in a ceaseless stream 50 Until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees us 51 My heart is grieved when I see what has happened to the women of the

52 "I was trapped like a bird by enemies who had no cause to hate me 53 They threw me alive into a pit and closed the opening with a stone 54 Water began to close over me, and I thought death was near

55 "From the bottom of the pit, O LORD, I cried out to you, 56 And when I begged you to listen to my cry, you heard 57 You answered me and told me not to be afraid

58 "You came to my rescue, Lord, and saved my life 59 Judge in my favour, you know the wrongs done against me 60 You know how my enemies hate me and how they plot against me 61 "You have heard them insult me, O LORD, you know all their plots 62 All day long they talk about me and make their plans 63 From morning till night they jeer at

me

64 "Punish them for what they have done, O LORD, 65 Curse them and fill them with despair!
66 Hunt them down and wipe them off
the earth!"

Jerusalem after its Fall

4 Our glittering gold has grown dull, the stones of the Temple lie scattered in the streets

2 Zion's young men were as precious to us as gold, but now they are treated like common clay pots

3 Even a mother wolf will nurse her cubs, but my people are like ostriches, cruel to their young

4 They let their babies die of hunger and thirst, children are begging for food that no one will give them

5 People who once ate the finest foods die starving in the streets, those raised in luxury are pawing through refuse for food

6 My people have been punished even more than the inhabitants of Sodom, which met with a sudden downfall at the hands of God

[f] The will ... out, or No one can make anything happen unless the Lord is willing [g] Why should ... sin, or Why should we complain about being punished for sin, as long as we are still alive? [i] princes or Nazirites
4 6 Gen 19 24

7 Our princes[i] were undefiled and pure as snow, vigorous and strong, glowing with health

8 Now they lie unknown in the streets, their faces blackened in death, their skin, dry as wood, has shrivelled on their bones

9 Those who died in the war were better off than those who died later, who starved slowly to death, with no food to keep them alive

10 The disaster that came to my people brought horror, loving mothers boiled their own children for food

11 The LORD turned loose the full force of his fury, he lit a fire in Zion that burnt it to the ground

12 No one anywhere, not even rulers of foreign nations, believed that any invader could enter Jerusalem's gates

13 But it happened because her prophets sinned and her priests were guilty of causing the death of innocent
people

14 Her leaders wandered through the streets like blind men, so stained with blood that no one would touch them

15 "Go away!" people shouted "You're defiled! Don't touch me!" So they wandered from nation to nation, welcomed by no one 16 The LORD had no more concern for them, he scattered them himself He showed no regard for our priests and leaders

17 We looked until we could look no longer for help that never came We kept waiting for help from a nation that had none to give 18 The enemy was watching for us, we could not even walk in the streets Our days were over, the end had

come

19 Swifter than eagles swooping from the sky, they chased us down They tracked us down in the hills, they took us by surprise in the desert

20 They captured the source of our life, the king the LORD had chosen, the one we had trusted to protect us from every invader

21 Laugh on, people of Edom and Uz, be glad while you can Your disaster is coming too, you too will stagger naked in shame

22 Zion has paid for her sin, the LORD will not keep us in exile any longer But Edom, the LORD will punish you, he will expose your guilt

A Prayer for Mercy

5 Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us
Look at us, and see our disgrace

2 Our property is in the hands of strangers, foreigners are living in our homes

3 Our fathers have been killed by the enemy,
and now our mothers are widows

4 We must pay for the water we drink, we must buy the wood we need for fuel

5 Driven hard like donkeys or camels, we are tired, but are allowed no rest 6 To get food enough to stay alive, we went begging to Egypt and Assyria

7 Our ancestors sinned, but now they are gone,
and we are suffering for their sins

8 We are ruled by men who are no better than slaves, and no one can save us from their
power

9 Murderers roam through the countryside,

4 10 Deut 28 57, Ezek 5 10 we risk our lives when we look for food

10 Hunger has made us burn with fever, until our skin is as hot as an oven

11 Our wives have been raped on Mount Zion itself, in every Judaean village our daughters have been forced to submit

12 Our leaders have been taken and hanged, our old men are shown no respect

13 Our young men are forced to grind corn like slaves, boys go staggering under heavy loads of wood

14 The old people no longer sit at the city gate, and the young people no longer make music

15 Happiness has gone out of our lives, grief has taken the place of our dances

16 Nothing is left of all we were proud of
We sinned, and now we are doomed

17 We are sick at our very hearts and can hardly see through our tears, 18 because Mount Zion lies lonely and deserted, and wild jackals prowl through its ruins

19 But you, O LORD, are king for ever, and will rule to the end of time 20 Why have you abandoned us so long?

Will you ever remember us again?

21 Bring us back to you, LORD! Bring us back!
Restore our ancient glory

22 Or have you rejected us for ever?
Is there no limit to your anger?

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Ezekiel lived in exile in Babylon during the period before and after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 B C His message was addressed both to the exiles in Babylonia and to the people of Jerusalem The book of Ezekiel has four main parts (1) Warnings to the people about God's judgement on them and about the coming fall and destruction of Jerusalem (2) Messages from the Lord regarding his judgement upon the various nations that oppressed and misled his people (3) Comfort for Israel after the fall of Jerusalem and the promise of a brighter future (4) Ezekiel's picture of a restored Temple and nation

Ezekiel was a man of deep faith and great imagination Many of his insights came in the form of visions, and many of his messages were expressed in vivid symbolic actions Ezekiel emphasized the need for inner renewal of the heart and spirit, and the responsibility of each individual for his own sins He also proclaimed his hope for the renewal of the life of the nation As a priest, as well as prophet, he had special interest in the Temple and in the need for holiness

EZEKIEL'S FIRST VISION OF GOD
(1.1–7.27)

God's Throne

1 On the fifth day of the fourth month of the thirtieth year,[a] I, Ezekiel the priest, son of Buzi, was living with the Jewish exiles by the River Chebar in Babylonia. The sky opened, and I saw a vision of God. 2 (It was the fifth year since King Jehoiachin had been taken into exile.) 3 There in Babylonia beside the River Chebar, I heard the LORD speak to me and I felt his power.

4 I looked up and saw a storm coming from the north. Lightning was flashing from a huge cloud, and the sky round it was glowing. Where the lightning was flashing, something shone like bronze. 5 At the centre of the storm, I saw what looked like four living creatures in human form, 6 but each of them had four faces and four wings. 7 Their legs were straight, and they had hoofs like those of a bull. They shone like polished bronze. 8 In addition to their four faces and four wings, they each had four human hands, one under each wing. 9 Two wings of each creature were spread out so that they formed a square with their wing tips touching. When they moved, they moved as a group without turning their bodies.

10 Each living creature had four different faces: a human face in front, a lion's face at the right, a bull's face at the left, and an eagle's face at the back. 11 Two wings[b] of each animal were raised so that they touched the tips of the wings of the animals next to it, and their other two wings were folded against their bodies. 12 Each animal faced all four directions, and so the group could go wherever they wished, without having to turn.

13 Among[c] the animals there was something that looked like a blazing torch, constantly moving. The fire would blaze up and shoot out flashes of lightning. 14 The animals themselves darted to and fro with the speed of lightning.

15 As I was looking at the four animals, I saw four wheels touching the ground, one beside each of them.[d] 16 All four wheels were alike; each one shone like a precious stone, and each had another wheel intersecting it at right angles, 17 so that the wheels could move in any of the four directions. 18 The rims of the wheels were covered with eyes.[e] 19 Whenever the animals moved, the wheels moved with them, and if the animals rose up from the earth, so did the wheels. 20 The animals went wherever they wished, and the wheels did exactly what the animals did, because the animals controlled them. 21 So every time the animals moved or stopped or rose in the air, the wheels did exactly the same.

22 Above the heads of the animals there was something that looked like a dome made of dazzling crystal. 23 There under the dome stood the animals, each stretching out two wings towards the ones next to it and covering its body with the other two wings. 24 I heard the noise their wings made in flight; it sounded like the roar of the sea, like the noise of a huge army, like the voice of Almighty God. When they stopped flying, they folded their wings,

26 Above the dome there was something that looked like a throne made of sapphire, and sitting on the throne was a figure that looked like a man 27 The figure seemed to be shining like bronze in the middle of a fire It shone all over with a bright light 28 that had in it all the colours of the rainbow This was the dazzling light that shows the presence of
the LORD

God Calls Ezekiel to Be a Prophet

When I saw this, I fell face downwards on the ground Then I heard a voice 2 1 saying, "Mortal man, stand up I want to talk to you " 2 While the voice was speaking, God's spirit entered me and raised me to my feet, and I heard the voice continue, 3 "Mortal man, I am sending you to the people of Israel They have rebelled and turned against me and are still rebels, just as their ancestors were 4 They are stubborn and do not respect me, so I am sending you to tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to them 5 Whether those rebels listen to you or not, they will know that a prophet has been among them 6 "But you, mortal man, must not be afraid of them or of anything they say They will defy and despise you, it will be like living among scorpions Still, don't be afraid of those rebels or of anything they say 7 You will tell them whatever I tell you to say, whether they listen or not Remember what rebels they are 8 "Mortal man, listen to what I tell you Don't be rebellious like them Open your mouth and eat what I am going to give you " 9 I saw a hand stretched out towards me, and it was holding a scroll 10 The hand unrolled the scroll, and I saw that there was writing on both sides—cries of grief were written there, and wails and groans 3 God said, "Mortal man, eat this scroll, then go and speak to the people of Israel "
2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat 3 He said, "Mortal man, eat this scroll that I give you, fill your stomach with it " I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey 4 Then God said, "Mortal man, go to the people of Israel and say to them whatever I tell you to say 5 I am not sending you to a nation that speaks a difficult foreign language, but to the Israelites 6 If I sent you to great nations that spoke difficult languages you didn't understand, they would listen to you 7 But none of the people of Israel will be willing to listen, they will not even listen to me All of them are stubborn and defiant 8 Now I will make you as stubborn and as tough as they are 9 I will make you as firm as a rock, as hard as a diamond, don't be afraid of those rebels " 10 God continued, "Mortal man, pay close attention and remember everything I tell you. 11 Then go to your countrymen who are in exile and tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to them, whether they pay attention to you or not " 12 Then God's spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the loud roar of a voice that said, "Praise the glory of the LORD in heaven above!" 13 I heard the wings of the animals beating together in the air, and the noise of the wheels as loud as an earthquake 14 The power of the LORD came on me with great force, and as his spirit carried me off, I felt bitter and angry 15 So I came to Tel Abib beside the River Chebar, where the exiles were living, and for seven days I stayed there, overcome by what I had seen and heard

The LORD Appoints Ezekiel as a Watchman (Ezek 33 1-9)

16 After the seven days had passed, the LORD spoke to me 17 "Mortal man," he said, "I am making you a watchman for the nation of Israel You will pass on to them the warnings I give you 18 If I announce that an evil man is going to die but you do not warn him to change his ways so that he can save his life, he will die, still a sinner, and I will hold you responsible for his death 19 If you do warn an evil man and he doesn't stop sinning, he will die, still a sinner, but your life will be spared 20 "If a truly good man starts doing evil and I put him in a dangerous situation, he will die if you do not warn him He will die because of his sins—I will not remember the good he did—and I will hold you responsible for his death 21 If you do warn a good man not to sin and he listens to you and doesn't sin, he will stay alive, and your life will also be spared "

Ezekiel Will Be Unable to Talk

22 I felt the powerful presence of the LORD and heard him say to me, "Get up and go out into the valley I will talk to you there " 23 So I went out into the valley, and there I saw the glory of the LORD, just as I had seen it beside the River Chebar I fell face downwards on the ground, 24 but God's spirit entered me and raised me to my feet The LORD said to me, "Go home and shut yourself up in the house 25 You will be tied with ropes, mortal man, and you will not be able to go out in public 26 I will paralyse your tongue so that you won't be able to warn these rebellious people 27 Then, when I speak to you again and give you back the power of speech, you will tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying Some of them will listen, but some will ignore you, for they are a nation of rebels "

Ezekiel Acts Out the Siege of Jerusalem

4 God said, "Mortal man, get a brick, put it in front of you, and scratch lines on it to represent the city of Jerusalem 2 Then, to represent a siege, put trenches, earthworks, camps, and battering-rams all round it 3 Take an iron pan and set it up like a wall between you and the city Face the city It is under siege, and you are the one besieging it This will be a sign to the nation of Israel 4-5 "Then lie down on your left side, and I[g] will place on you the guilt of the nation of Israel For 390 days you will stay there and suffer because of their guilt I have sentenced you to one day for each year their punishment will last 6 When you finish that, turn over on your right side and suffer for the guilt of Judah for forty days—one day for each year of their punishment 7 "Fix your eyes on the siege of Jerusalem Shake your fist at the city and prophesy against it 8 I will tie you up so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until the siege is over 9 "Now take some wheat, barley, beans, peas, millet, and spelt Mix them all together and make bread That is what you are to eat during the 390 days you are lying on your left side 10 You will be allowed 230 grammes of bread a day, and it will have to last until the next day 11 You will also have a limited amount of water to drink, two cups a day 12 You are to build a fire out of dried human excrement, bake bread on the fire, and eat it where everyone can see you " 13 The LORD said, "This represents the way the Israelites will have to eat food

[g] Probable text I, Hebrew you which the Law forbids,[h] when I scatter them to foreign countries " 14 But I replied, "No, Sovereign LORD!

I have never defiled myself From childhood on I have never eaten meat from any animal that died a natural death or was killed by wild animals I have never eaten any food considered unclean " 15 So God said, "Very well I will let you use cow dung instead, and you can bake your bread on that " 16 And he added, "Mortal man, I am going to cut off the supply of bread for Jerusalem The people there will be distressed and anxious as they measure out the food they eat and the water they drink 17 They will run out of bread and water, they will be in despair, and they will waste away because of their sins "

Ezekiel Cuts His Hair

5 The LORD said, "Mortal man, take a sharp sword and use it to shave off your beard and all your hair Then weigh the hair on scales and divide it into three parts 2 Burn a third of it in the city when the siege is over Take another third and chop it up with your sword as you move about outside the city Scatter the remaining third to the winds, and I will pursue it with my sword 3 Keep back a few hairs and wrap them in the hem of your clothes 4 Then take a few of them out again, throw them in the fire, and let them burn up From them fire will spread to the whole nation of Israel " 5 The Sovereign LORD said, "Look at Jerusalem I put her at the centre of the world, with other countries all round her 6 But Jerusalem rebelled against my commands and showed that she was more wicked than the other nations, more disobedient than the countries around her Jerusalem rejected my commands and refused to keep my laws 7 Now listen, Jerusalem, to what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying By not obeying my laws or keeping my commands, you have caused more trouble than the nations around you You have followed the customs of other nations 8 And so I, the Sovereign LORD, am telling you that I am your enemy I will pass judgement on you where all the nations can see it 9 Because of all the things you do that I hate, I will punish Jerusalem as I have never done before and will never do again 10 As a result, parents in Jerusalem will eat their children, and children will eat their parents I will punish you and scatter in every direction any who are left alive 11 "Therefore, as I am the living God—this is the word of the Sovereign LORD—because you defiled my Temple with all the evil, disgusting things you did, I will cut you down without mercy 12 A third of your people will die from sickness and hunger in the city, a third will be cut down by swords outside the city, and I will scatter the last third to the winds and pursue them with a sword 13 "You will feel all the force of my anger and rage until I am satisfied When all this happens, you will be convinced that I, the LORD, have spoken to you because I am outraged at your unfaithfulness 14 Everyone from the nations around you who passes by will sneer at you and keep his distance 15 "When I am angry and furious with you and punish you, all the nations around you will be terrified They will look at you with disgust and will mock you 16 I will cut off your supply of food and let you starve You[i] will feel the pains of hunger like sharp arrows sent to destroy you 17 I will send hunger and wild animals to kill your children, and will send sickness, violence, and war to kill you

The LORD Condemns Idolatry

6 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "look towards the mountains of Israel and give them my message 3 Tell the mountains of Israel to hear the word of the LORD—to hear what I, the Sovereign LORD, am telling the mountains, the hills, the gorges, and the valleys I will send a sword to destroy the places where people worship idols 4 The altars will be torn down and the incense-altars broken All the people there will be killed in front of their idols 5 I will scatter the corpses of the people of Israel, I will scatter their bones all round the altars 6 All the cities of Israel will be destroyed, so that all their altars and their idols will be smashed to pieces, their incense-altars will be shattered, and everything they made will disappear 7 People will be killed everywhere, and those who survive will acknowledge that I am the

Corpses will be scattered among the idols (6 13)

8 "I will let some escape the slaughter and be scattered among the nations, 9 where they will live in exile There they will remember me and know that I have punished them and disgraced them,[j] because their faithless hearts deserted me and they preferred idols to me And they will be disgusted with themselves because of the evil and degrading things they have done 10 They will know that I am the LORD and that my warnings were not empty threats " 11 The Sovereign LORD said, "Wring your hands! Stamp your feet! Cry in sorrow because of all the evil, disgusting things the Israelites have done They are going to die in war, by famine, and by disease 12 Those far away will fall ill and die, those near by will be killed in war, those who survive will starve to death They will feel all the force of my anger 13 Corpses will be scattered among the idols and round the altars, scattered on every high hill, on the top of every mountain, under every green tree and every large oak, in every place where they burnt sacrifices to their idols Then everyone will know that I am the LORD 14 Yes, I will stretch out my hand and destroy their country I will make it a waste from the southern desert to the city of Riblah in the north, not sparing any place where the Israelites live Then everyone will know that I am the LORD "

The End Is Near for Israel

7 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "this is what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to the land of Israel This is the end for the whole
land!
3 "Israel, the end has come You will feel my anger, because I am judging you for what you have done I will pay you back for all your disgusting conduct 4 I will not spare you or show you any mercy I am going to punish you for the disgusting
know that I am the LORD " 5 This is what the Sovereign LORD is saying, "One disaster after another is coming on you 6 It's all over This is the end You are finished 7 The end is coming for you people who live in the land The time is near when there will be no more celebrations at the mountain shrines, only confusion [k] 8 "Very soon now you will feel all the force of my anger I am judging you for what you have done, and I will pay you back for all your disgusting conduct. 9 I will not spare you or show you any mercy
know that I am the LORD, and that I am the one who punishes you " 10 The day of disaster is coming for Israel Violence is flourishing Pride is at its height 11 Violence produces more wickedness Nothing will remain for them, nothing of their wealth, their splendour, or their glory [m] 12 The time is coming The day is near when buying and selling will have no more meaning, because God's punishment will fall on everyone alike 13 No merchant will live long enough to get back what he has lost, because God's anger is on everyone Those who are evil cannot survive [n] 14 The trumpet sounds, and everyone gets ready But no one goes off to war, for God's anger will fall on everyone alike

Punishment for Israel's Sins

15 There is fighting in the streets, and sickness and hunger in the houses Anyone who is out in the country will die in the fighting, and anyone in the city will be a victim of sickness and hunger 16 Some will escape to the mountains like doves frightened from the valleys All of them will moan over their sins [o] 17 Everyone's hands will be weak, and their knees will shake 18 They will put on sackcloth and they will tremble all over Their heads will be shaved, and they will all be disgraced 19 They will throw their gold and silver away in the streets like refuse, because neither silver nor gold can save them when the LORD pours out his fury They cannot use it to satisfy their desires or fill their stomachs Gold and silver led them into sin 20 Once they were proud of their beautiful jewels, but they used them to make disgusting idols That is why the LORD has made their wealth repulsive to them 21 "I will let foreigners rob them," says the LORD, "and law-breakers will take all their wealth and defile it 22 I will not interfere when my treasured Temple is profaned, when robbers break into it and defile it 23 "Everything is in confusion [q]—the land is full of murders and the cities are full of violence 24 I will bring the most evil nations here and let them have your homes Your strongest men will lose their confidence when I let the nations profane the places where you worship 25 Despair is coming You will look for peace and never find it 26 One disaster will follow another, and a steady stream of bad news

EZEKIEL'S SECOND VISION OF GOD (8 1-10 22)

Idolatry in Jerusalem

8 On the fifth day of the sixth month of the sixth year of our exile, the leaders of the exiles from Judah were sitting in my house with me Suddenly the power of the Sovereign LORD came on me 2 I looked up and saw a vision of a fiery human form From the waist down his body looked like fire, and from the waist up he was shining like polished bronze 3 He stretched out what seemed to be a hand and seized me by the hair Then in this vision God's spirit lifted me high in the air and took me to Jerusalem He took me to the inner entrance of the north gate of the Temple, where there was an idol that was an outrage to God 4 There I saw the dazzling light that shows the presence of Israel's God, just as I had seen it when I was by the River Chebar 5 God said to me, "Mortal man, look towards the north " I looked, and there near the altar by the entrance of the gateway I saw the idol that was an outrage to God 6 God said to me, "Mortal man, do you see what is happening? Look at the disgusting things the people of Israel are doing here, driving me farther and farther away from my holy place You will see even more disgraceful things than this " 7 He took me to the entrance of the outer courtyard and showed me a hole in the wall 8 He said, "Mortal man, break through the wall here " I broke through it and found a door 9 He said to me, "Go in and look at the evil, disgusting things they are doing there " 10 So I went in and looked The walls were covered with drawings of snakes and other unclean animals,[r] and of the other things which the Israelites were worshipping 11 Seventy Israelite leaders were there, including Jaazaniah son of Shaphan Each one was holding an incense-burner, and smoke was rising from the incense 12 God asked me, "Mortal man, do you see what the Israelite leaders are doing in secret?
They are all worshipping in a room full of images Their excuse is 'The LORD doesn't see us! He has abandoned the country ' " 13 Then the LORD said to me, "You are going to see them do even more disgusting things than that " 14 So he took me to the north gate of the Temple and showed me women weeping over the death of the god Tammuz.[s] 15 He asked, "Mortal man, do you see that? You will see even more disgusting things " 16 So he took me to the inner courtyard of the Temple There near the entrance of the sanctuary, between the altar and the passage, were about twenty-five men They had turned their backs to the sanctuary and were bowing low towards the east, worshipping the rising sun 17 The LORD said to me, "Mortal man, do you see that? These people of Judah are not satisfied with merely doing all the disgusting things you have seen here and with spreading violence throughout the country No, they must come and do them here in the Temple itself and make me even more angry Look how they insult me in the most offensive way possible!
18 They will feel all the force of my anger I will not spare them or show them any mercy They will shout prayers to me as loud as they can, but I will not listen to them "

Jerusalem Is Punished

9 Then I heard God shout, "Come here, you men who are going to punish the city Bring your weapons with you " 2 At once six men came from the outer north gate of the Temple, each one carrying a weapon With them was a man dressed in linen clothes, carrying something to write with They all came and stood by the bronze altar

8 2 Ezek 1.27 8 4 Ezek 1 28

3 Then the dazzling light of the presence of the God of Israel rose up from the winged creatures,[t] where it had been, and moved to the entrance of the Temple The LORD called to the man dressed in linen, 4 "Go through the whole city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the forehead of everyone who is distressed and troubled because of all the disgusting things being done in the city" 5 And I heard God say to the other men, "Follow him through the city, and kill Spare no one, have mercy on no one 6 Kill the old men, young men, young women, mothers, and children But don't touch anyone who has the mark on his forehead Start here at my Temple" So they began with the leaders who were standing there at the Temple 7 God said to them, "Defile the Temple Fill its courtyards with corpses Get to work!" So they began to kill the people in the city [u] 8 While the killing was going on, I was there alone I threw myself face downwards on the ground and shouted, "Sovereign LORD, are you so angry with Jerusalem that you are going to kill everyone left in Israel?" 9 God answered, "The people of Israel and Judah are guilty of terrible sins They have committed murder all over the land and have filled Jerusalem with crime They say that I, the LORD, have abandoned their country and that I don't see them 10 But I will not have pity on them, I will do to them what they have done to others" 11 Then the man wearing linen clothes returned and reported to the LORD, "I have carried out your orders"

The Glory of the LORD Leaves the Temple

10 I looked at the dome over the heads of the winged animals[v] and above them was something that seemed to be a throne made of sapphire 2 God said to the man wearing linen clothes, "Go between the wheels under the animals and fill your hands with burning coals Then scatter the coals over the city" I watched him go 3 The winged animals were standing to the south of the Temple when he went in, and a cloud filled the inner courtyard 4 The dazzling light of the LORD's presence rose up from the animals and moved to the entrance of the Temple Then the cloud filled the Temple, and the courtyard was blazing with the light 5 The noise made by the animals' wings was heard even in the outer courtyard It sounded like the voice of Almighty God 6 When the LORD commanded the man wearing linen clothes to take some fire from between the wheels that were under the animals, the man went in and stood by one of the wheels 7 One of the animals put his hand into the fire that was there among them, picked up some coals, and put them in the hands of the man in linen The man took the coals and left 8 I saw that each animal had what looked like a human hand under each of its wings 9-10 I also saw that there were four wheels, all alike, one beside each animal The wheels shone like precious stones, and each one had another wheel which intersected it at right angles 11 When the animals moved, they could go in any direction without turning They all moved together in the direction they wanted to go, without having to turn round 12 Their bodies, backs, hands, wings, and wheels were covered with eyes 13 These wheels were the same as those I had seen in my first vision 14 Each animal had four faces The first was the face of a bull, the second a human face, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle 15 (They were the same animals that I had seen by the River Chebar) When the animals rose in the air 16 and moved, the wheels went with them Whenever they spread their wings to fly, the wheels still went with them 17 When the animals stopped, the wheels stopped, and when the animals flew, the wheels went with them, because the animals controlled them 18 Then the dazzling light of the LORD's presence left the entrance of the Temple and moved to a place above the animals 19 They spread their wings and flew up from the earth while I was watching, and the wheels went with them They paused at the east gate of the Temple, and the dazzling light was over them 20 I recognized them as the same creatures which I had seen beneath the God of Israel at the River Chebar 21 Each of them had four faces, four

Jerusalem Is Condemned

11 God's spirit lifted me up and took me to the east gate of the Temple There near the gate I saw twenty-five men, including Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, two leaders of the nation 2 God said to me, "Mortal man, these men make evil plans and give bad advice in this city 3 They say, 'We will soon be building houses again[x] The city is like a cooking-pot, and we are like the meat in it, but at least it protects us from the fire' 4 Now then, denounce them, mortal man"
5 The spirit of the LORD took control of me, and the LORD told me to give the people this message "People of Israel, I know what you are saying and what you are planning 6 You have murdered so many people here in the city that the streets are full of corpses 7 "So this is what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to you This city is indeed a cooking-pot, but what is the meat? The corpses of those you have killed! You will not be here—I will throw you out of the city! 8 Are you afraid of swords?
I will bring men with swords to attack you 9 I will take you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners I have sentenced you to death, 10 and you will be killed in battle in your own country Then everyone will know that I am the LORD 11 This city will not protect you as a pot protects the meat in it I will punish you wherever you may be in the land of Israel 12 You will know that I am the LORD and that while you were keeping the laws of the neighbouring nations, you were breaking my laws and disobeying my
commands"
13 While I was prophesying, Pelatiah dropped dead. I threw myself face downwards on the ground and shouted, "No, Sovereign LORD! Are you going to kill everyone left in Israel?"

God's Promise to the Exiles

14 The LORD spoke to me 15 "Mortal man," he said, "the people who live in Jerusalem are talking about you and your fellow-Israelites who are in exile They say, 'The exiles are too far away to worship the LORD He has given us possession of the land' 16 "Now tell your fellow-exiles what I am saying I am the one who sent them to live in far-off nations and scattered them in other countries Yet, for the time being I will be present with them in the lands where they have gone 17 "So tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying I will gather them out of the countries where I scattered them, and will give the land of Israel back to them 18 When they return, they are to get rid of all the filthy, disgusting idols they find 19 I will give them a new heart and a new mind I will take away their stubborn heart of stone and will give them an obedient heart 20 Then they will keep my laws and faithfully obey all my commands They will be my people, and I will be their God 21 But I will punish the people who love to worship filthy, disgusting idols I will punish them for what they have done" The Sovereign

God's Glory Leaves Jerusalem

22 The living creatures began to fly, and the wheels went with them The dazzling light of the presence of the God of Israel was over them 23 Then the dazzling light left the city and moved to the mountain east of it 24 In the vision the spirit of God lifted me up and brought me back to the exiles in Babylonia Then the vision faded, 25 and I told the exiles everything that the LORD had shown me

The Prophet as a Refugee

12 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "you are living among rebellious people They have eyes, but they see nothing, they have ears, but they hear nothing, because they are rebellious 3 "Now, mortal man, pack a bundle just as a refugee would, and start out before nightfall Let everyone see you leaving and going to another place Maybe those rebels will notice you[y] 4 While it is still daylight, pack your bundle for exile, so that they can see you, and then let them

[u] Probable text the faces, Hebrew the faces and them

[y] Maybe those you, or Maybe they will then realize that they are rebels watch you leave in the evening as if you were going into exile [5]While they are watching, break a hole through the wall of your house and take your pack out through it [6]Let them watch you putting your pack on your shoulder and going out into the dark with your eyes covered, so that you can't see where you are going What you do will be a warning to the Israelites "

7 I did what the LORD told me to do That day I packed a bundle as a refugee would, and that evening as it was getting dark I dug a hole in the wall with my hands and went out While everyone watched, I put the pack on my shoulder and left

8 The next morning the LORD spoke to me [9]"Mortal man," he said, "now that those Israelite rebels are asking you what you're doing, [10]tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to them This message is for the prince ruling in Jerusalem and for all the people who live there [11]Tell them that what you have done is a sign of what will happen to them—they will be refugees and captives [12]The prince who is ruling them will shoulder his pack in the dark and escape through a hole that they dig for him in the wall He will cover his eyes and not see where he is going [13]But I will spread out my net and trap him in it Then I will take him to the city of Babylon, where he will die without having seen it [14]I will scatter in every direction all the members of his court and his advisers and bodyguard, and people will search for them to kill them

15 "When I scatter them among the other nations and in foreign countries, they will know that I am the LORD 16 I will let a few of them survive the war, the famine, and the diseases, so that there among the nations they will realize how disgusting their actions have been and will acknowledge that I am the LORD "

The Sign of the Trembling Prophet

17 The LORD spoke to me 18 "Mortal man," he said, "tremble when you eat, and shake with fear when you drink 19 Tell the whole nation that this is the message of the Sovereign LORD to the people of Jerusalem who are still living in their land They will tremble when they eat and shake with fear when they drink Their land will be stripped bare, because everyone who lives there is lawless 20 Cities that are now full of people will be destroyed, and the country will be made a wilderness Then they will know that I am the LORD "

A Popular Proverb and an Unpopular Message

21 The LORD spoke to me 22 "Mortal man," he said, "why do the people of Israel repeat this proverb 'Time goes by, and predictions come to nothing'? 23 Now tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, have to say about that I will put an end to that proverb It won't be repeated in Israel any more Tell them instead The time has come, and the predictions are coming true!
24 "Among the people of Israel there will be no more false visions or misleading prophecies 25 I, the Sovereign LORD, will speak to them, and what I say will be done There will be no more delay In your own lifetime, you rebels, I will do what I have warned you I would do I have spoken," says the Sovereign LORD 26 The LORD said to me, 27 "Mortal man, the Israelites think that your visions and prophecies are about the distant future 28 So tell them that I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying There will be no more delay What I have said will be done I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!"

Prophecy against False Male Prophets

13 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "denounce the prophets of Israel who make up their own prophecies Tell them to listen to the word of the LORD "
3 This is what the Sovereign LORD says
"These foolish prophets are doomed!
They provide their own inspiration and invent their own visions 4 People of Israel, your prophets are as useless as foxes living among the ruins of a city 5 They don't guard the places where the walls have crumbled, nor do they rebuild the walls, and so Israel cannot be defended when war comes on the day of the LORD 6 Their visions are false, and their predictions are lies They claim that they are speaking my message, but I have not sent them Yet they expect their words to come true! 7 I tell them Those visions you see are false, and the predictions you make are lies You say that they are my words, but I haven't spoken to you!" 8 So the Sovereign LORD says to them, "Your words are false, and your visions are lies I am against you 9 I am about to punish you prophets who have false visions and make misleading predictions You will not be there when my people gather to make decisions, your names will not be included in the list of the citizens of Israel, you will never return to your land Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD
10 "The prophets mislead my people by saying that all is well All is certainly not well! My people have put up a wall of loose stones, and then the prophets have come and covered it with whitewash 11 Tell the prophets that their wall is going to fall down I will send a pouring rain Hailstones will fall on it, and a strong wind will blow against it 12 The wall will collapse, and everyone will ask you what good the whitewash did " 13 Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says "In my anger I will send a strong wind, pouring rain, and hailstones to destroy the wall 14 I intend to break down the wall they whitewashed, to shatter it, and to leave the foundation stones bare It will collapse and kill you all Then everyone will know that I am the LORD 15 "The wall and those who covered it with whitewash will feel the force of my anger Then I will tell you that the wall is gone and so are those who whitewashed it— 16 those prophets who assured Jerusalem that all was well, when all was not well!" The Sovereign LORD has
spoken

Prophecy against False Female Prophets

17 The LORD said, "Now, mortal man, look at the women among your people

13 10 Jer 6 14, 8 11

I will send a strong wind, pouring rain, and hailstones to destroy the wall (13 13) who make up predictions Denounce them 18 and tell them what the Sovereign LORD is saying to them

"You women are doomed! You sew magic wristbands for everyone and make magic scarves for everyone to wear on their heads, so that they can have power over other people's lives You want to possess the power of life and death over my people and to use it for your own benefit 19 You dishonour me in front of my people in order to get a few handfuls of barley and a few pieces of bread You kill people who don't deserve to die, and you keep people alive who don't deserve to live So you tell lies to my people, and they believe you "
20 Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says "I hate the wristbands that you use in your attempt to control life and death I will rip them off your arms and set free the people that you were controlling [z] 21 I will rip off your scarves and let my people escape from your power once and for all
Then you will know that I am the LORD 22 "By your lies you discourage good people, whom I do not wish to hurt You prevent evil people from giving up evil and saving their lives 23 So now your false visions and misleading predictions are over I am rescuing my people from your power, so that you will know that I am
the LORD "

God Condemns Idolatry

14 Some of the leaders of the Israelites came to consult me about the LORD's will 2 Then the LORD spoke to me 3 "Mortal man," he said, "these men have given their hearts to idols and are letting idols lead them into sin Do they think I will give them an answer?
4 "Now speak to them and tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to them Every Israelite who has given his heart to idols and lets them lead him into sin and who then comes to consult a prophet, will get an answer from me—the answer that his many idols deserve!
5 All those idols have turned the Israelites away from me, but by my answer I hope to win back their loyalty 6 "Now then, tell the Israelites what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying Turn back and leave your disgusting idols 7 "Whenever one of the Israelites or one of the foreigners who live in the Israelite community turns away from me and worships idols, and then goes to consult a prophet, I, the LORD, will give him his answer! 8 I will oppose him I will make an example of him I will remove him from the community of my people, so that you will know that I am the LORD 9 "If a prophet is deceived into giving a false answer, it is because I, the LORD, have deceived him I will remove him from the people of Israel 10 Both the prophet and the one who consults him will get the same punishment 11 I will do this to keep the Israelites from deserting me and defiling themselves by their sins They are to be my people, and I will be their God " The Sovereign LORD has spoken

Noah, Danel, and Job

12 The LORD spoke to me 13 "Mortal man," he said, "if a country sins and is [z] In verse 20 in Hebrew a word occurs twice, the meaning of which is unclear unfaithful to me, I will stretch out my hand and destroy its supply of food I will send a famine and kill people and animals alike 14 Even if those three men, Noah, Danel,[a] and Job, were living there, their goodness would save only their own lives " The Sovereign LORD has spoken 15 "Or I might send wild animals to kill the people, making the land so dangerous that no one could travel through it, 16 and even if those three men lived there—as surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God—they would not be able to save even their own children They would save only their own lives, and the land would become a wilderness 17 "Or I might bring war on that country and send destructive weapons to wipe out people and animals alike, 18 and even if those three men lived there—as surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God—they would not be able to save even their children, but only their own lives 19 "If I send an epidemic on that country and in my anger take many lives, killing people and animals, 20 even if Noah, Danel, and Job lived there—as surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God—they would not be able to save even their own children Their goodness would save only their own lives " 21 This is what the Sovereign LORD is saying "I will send my four worst punishments on Jerusalem—war, famine, wild animals and disease—to destroy people and animals alike 22 If anyone does survive and save his children, look at them when they come to you See how evil they are, and be convinced that the punishment I am bringing on Jerusalem is justified, 23 then you will know that there was good reason for everything I did " The Sovereign LORD has spoken

A Parable about a Vine

15 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "how does a vine compare with a tree? What good is a branch of a grapevine compared with the trees of the forest? 3 Can you use it to make anything? Can you even make a peg out of it to hang things on? 4 It is only good for building a fire And when the ends are burnt up and the middle is

Can you make anything out of it? (15 4) charred, can you make anything out of it? 5 It was useless even before it was burnt Now that the fire has burnt it and charred it, it is even more useless " 6 Now this is what the Sovereign LORD is saying, "Just as a vine is taken from the forest and burnt, so I will take the people who live in Jerusalem 7 and will punish them They have escaped one fire, but now fire will burn them up When I punish them, you will know that I am the LORD 8 They have been unfaithful to me, and so I will make the country a wilderness " The Sovereign LORD has

spoken

Jerusalem the Unfaithful

16 The LORD spoke to me again 2 "Mortal man," he said, "point out to Jerusalem what disgusting things she has done 3 Tell Jerusalem what the Sovereign LORD is saying to her "You were born in the land of Canaan Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite [b] 4 When you were born, no one cut your umbilical cord or washed you[c] or rubbed you with salt or wrapped you in cloth 5 No one took enough pity on you to do any of these things for you When you were born, no one loved you You were thrown out in an open field 6 "Then I passed by and saw you squirming in your own blood You were covered with blood, but I wouldn't let you die 7 I made you grow like a healthy plant You grew strong and tall and became a young woman [d] Your breasts were well-formed, and your hair had grown, but you were naked 8 "As I passed by again, I saw that the time had come for you to fall in love I covered your naked body with my coat and promised to love you Yes, I made a marriage covenant with you, and you became mine " This is what the Sovereign LORD says 9 "Then I took water and washed the blood off you I rubbed olive-oil on your skin 10 I dressed you in embroidered gowns and gave you shoes of the best leather, a linen headband, and a silk cloak 11 I put jewels on you—bracelets and necklaces 12 I gave you a nose-ring and earrings and a beautiful crown to wear 13 You had ornaments of gold and silver, and you always wore clothes of embroidered linen and silk You ate bread made from the best flour, and had honey and olive-oil to eat Your beauty was dazzling, and you became a queen 14 You became famous in every nation for your perfect beauty, because I was the one who made you so lovely" This is what the Sovereign LORD says 15 "But you took advantage of your beauty and fame to sleep with everyone who came along [e] 16 You used some of your clothes to decorate your places of worship, and just like a prostitute,[f] you gave yourself to everyone 17 You took the silver and gold jewellery that I had given you, used it to make male images, and committed adultery with them 18 You took the embroidered clothes I gave you and put them on the images, and you offered to the images the olive-oil and incense I had given you 19 I gave you food—the best flour, olive-oil, and honey—but you offered it as a sacrifice to win the favour of idols " This is what

the Sovereign LORD says 20 "Then you took the sons and the daughters you had borne me and offered them as sacrifices to idols Wasn't it bad enough to be unfaithful to me, 21 without taking my children and sacrificing them to idols? 22 During your disgusting life as a prostitute you never once remembered your childhood—when you were naked, squirming in your own blood "

Jerusalem's Life as a Prostitute

23 The Sovereign LORD said, "You are doomed! Doomed! You did all that evil, and then 24 by the side of every road you built places to worship idols and practise prostitution 25 You dragged your beauty through the mud You offered yourself to everyone who came by, and you were more of a prostitute every day 26 You let your lustful neighbours, the Egyptians, go to bed with you, and you used your prostitution to make me angry 27 "Now I have raised my hand to punish you and to take away your share of my blessing I have handed you over to the Philistines, who hate you and are disgusted with your immoral actions 28 "Because you were not satisfied by the others, you went running after the Assyrians You were their prostitute, but they didn't satisfy you either 29 You were also a prostitute for the Babylonians, that nation of businessmen, but they didn't satisfy you either " 30 [g] This is what the Sovereign LORD is saying "You have done all this like a shameless prostitute 31 On every street you built places to worship idols and practise prostitution But you are not out for money like a common prostitute 32 You are like a woman who commits adultery with strangers instead of loving her husband 33 A prostitute is paid, but you gave presents to all your lovers and bribed them to come from everywhere to sleep with you 34 You are a special kind of prostitute No one forced you to become one You didn't get paid, you paid them!
Yes, you are different "

God's Judgement on Jerusalem

35 Now then, Jerusalem, you whore!
Hear what the LORD is saying 36 This is what the Sovereign LORD says "You stripped off your clothes and, like a prostitute, you gave yourself to your lovers and to all your disgusting idols, and you killed your children as sacrifices to idols 37 Because of this I will bring all your former lovers together—the ones you liked and the ones you hated I will bring them round you in a circle, and then I will strip off your clothes and let them see you naked 38 I will condemn you for adultery and murder, and in my anger and fury I will punish you with death 39 I will put you in their power, and they will tear down the places where you engage in prostitution and worship idols They will take away your clothes and jewels and leave you completely naked 40 "They will stir up a crowd to stone you, and they will cut you to pieces with their swords 41They will burn your houses down and let crowds of women see your punishment I will make you stop being a prostitute and make you stop giving gifts to your lovers 42Then my anger will be over, and I will be calm I will not be angry or jealous any more 43You have forgotten how I treated you when you were young, and you have made me angry by all the things you did That is why I have made you pay for them all Why did you add sexual immorality to all the other disgusting things you did?" The Sovereign LORD has spoken

Like Mother, Like Daughter

44 The LORD said, "People will use this proverb about you, Jerusalem 'Like mother, like daughter' 45You really are your mother's daughter She detested her husband and her children You are like your sisters, who hated their husbands and their children You and your sister cities had a Hittite mother and an Amorite[h] father 46 "Your elder sister is Samaria, in the north, with her villages Your younger sister, with her villages, is Sodom, in the south 47Were you content to follow in their footsteps and copy their disgusting actions? No, in only a little while you were behaving worse than they were in everything you did 48 "As sure as I am the living God," the Sovereign LORD says, "your sister Sodom and her villages never did the evil that you and your villages have done 49She and her daughters were proud because they had plenty to eat and lived in peace and quiet, but they did not take care of the poor and the underprivileged 50They were proud and stubborn and did the things that I hate, so I destroyed them, as you well know 51 "Samaria did not sin half as much as you have You have acted more disgustingly than she ever did Your corruption makes your sisters look innocent by comparison 52And now you will have to endure your disgrace Your sins are so much worse than those of your sisters that they look innocent beside you Now blush and bear your shame, because you make your sisters look pure"

Sodom and Samaria Will Be Restored

53 The LORD said to Jerusalem, "I will make them prosperous again—Sodom and her villages and Samaria and her villages Yes, I will make you prosperous too 54You will be ashamed of yourself, and your disgrace will show your sisters how well-off they are 55They will become prosperous again, and you and your villages will also be restored 56Didn't you joke about Sodom in those days when you were proud 57and before the evil you did had been exposed? Now you are just like her—a joke to the Edomites, the Philistines, and your other neighbours who hate you 58You must suffer for the obscene, disgusting things you have done" The LORD has spoken

A Covenant That Lasts For Ever

59 The Sovereign LORD says, "I will treat you as you deserve, because you ignored your promises and broke the covenant 60But I will honour the covenant I made with you when you were young, and I will make a covenant with you that will last for ever 61You will remember how you have acted, and be ashamed of it when you get your elder sister and your younger sister back I will let them be like daughters to you, even though this was not part of my covenant with you 62I will renew my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD 63I will forgive all the wrongs you have done, but you will remember them and be too ashamed to open your mouth" The

The Parable of the Eagles and the Vine

17 The LORD spoke to me 2"Mortal man," he said, "tell the Israelites a parable 3to let them know what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to them There was a giant eagle with beautiful feathers and huge wings, spread wide He flew to the Lebanon Mountains and broke off the top of a cedar-tree, 4which he carried to a land of commerce, and placed in a city of merchants 5Then he took a young plant from the land of Israel and planted it in a fertile field,[i] where there was always water to make it grow 6The plant sprouted and became a low, wide-spreading grapevine The branches grew upward towards the eagle, and the roots grew deep The vine was covered with branches and leaves 7 "There was another giant eagle with huge wings and thick plumage And now the vine sent its roots towards him and

[h] HITTITE AMORITE See 16 3 [i] Hebrew has an additional word, the meaning of which is unclear

Yes, it is planted, but will it live and grow? (17 10) turned its leaves towards him, in the hope that he would give it more water than there was in the garden where it was growing [j] 8But the vine had already been planted in a fertile, well-watered field so that it could grow leaves and bear grapes and be a magnificent vine 9 "So I, the Sovereign LORD, ask Will this vine live and grow? Won't the first eagle pull it up by its roots, pull off the grapes, and break off the branches and let them wither? It will not take much strength or a mighty nation to pull it up 10Yes, it is planted, but will it live and grow? Won't it wither when the east wind strikes it? Won't it wither there where it is growing?"

He broke off the top of a cedar-tree (17 3)

The Parable Is Explained

11 The LORD said to me, 12"Ask these rebels if they know what the parable means Tell them that the king of Babylonia came to Jerusalem and took the king and his officials back with him to Babylonia 13He took one of the king's family, made a treaty with him, and made him swear to be loyal He took important men as hostages 14to keep the nation from rising again and to make sure that the treaty would be kept 15But the king of Judah rebelled and sent agents to Egypt to get horses and a large army Will he succeed? Can he get away with that? He cannot break the treaty and go unpunished!
16 "As surely as I am the living God," says the Sovereign LORD, "this king will die in Babylonia because he broke his oath and the treaty he had made with the king of Babylonia, who put him on the throne 17Even the powerful army of the king of Egypt will not be able to help him fight when the Babylonians build earthworks and dig trenches in order to kill many people 18He broke his oath and the treaty he had made He did all these things, and now he will not escape" 19 The Sovereign LORD says, "As surely as I am the living God, I will punish him for breaking the treaty which he swore in my name to keep 20I will spread out a hunter's net and catch him in it I will take him to Babylonia and punish him there, because he was unfaithful to me 21His best soldiers will be killed in battle, and the survivors will be scattered in [j] And now the vine growing, or And now the vine turned away from the garden where it was growing and sent its roots towards him and turned its leaves towards him, in the hope that he would give it water every direction Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken "

God's Promise of Hope

22 This is what the Sovereign LORD says

"I will take the top of a tall cedar and break off a tender sprout, I will plant it on a high mountain, 23 on Israel's highest mountain It will grow branches and bear seed and become a magnificent cedar Birds of every kind will live there and find shelter in its shade 24 All the trees in the land will know that I am the LORD
I cut down the tall trees and make the low trees grow tall I wither up the green trees and make the dry trees become green

I, the LORD, have spoken I will do what I have said I would do " 18 The LORD spoke to me 2 and said, "What is this proverb people keep repeating in the land of Israel?

'The parents ate the sour grapes,
But the children got the sour taste '

3 "As surely as I am the living God," says the Sovereign LORD, "you will not

Birds of every kind will live there (17 23)

repeat this proverb in Israel any more 4 The life of every person belongs to me, the life of the parent as well as that of the child The person who sins is the one who will die 5 "Suppose there is a truly good man, righteous and honest 6 He doesn't worship the idols of the Israelites or eat the sacrifices offered at forbidden shrines He doesn't seduce another man's wife or have intercourse with a woman during her period 7 He doesn't cheat or rob anyone He returns what a borrower gives him as security, he feeds the hungry and gives clothing to the naked 8 He doesn't lend money for profit He refuses to do evil and gives an honest decision in any dispute 9 Such a man obeys my commands and carefully keeps my laws He is righteous, and he will live," says the Sovereign LORD
10 "Then suppose this man has a son who robs and kills, who does[k] any of these things 11 that the father never did He eats sacrifices offered at forbidden shrines and seduces other men's wives 12 He cheats the poor, he robs, he keeps what a borrower gives him as security He goes to pagan shrines, worships disgusting idols, 13 and lends money for profit Will he live? No, he will not He has done all these disgusting things, and so he will die He will be to blame for his own death 14 "Now suppose this second man has a son He sees all the sins his father practised, but does not follow his example 15 He doesn't worship the idols of the Israelites or eat the sacrifices offered at forbidden shrines He doesn't seduce another man's wife 16 or oppress anyone or rob anyone He returns what a borrower gives him as security He feeds the hungry and gives clothing to the naked 17 He refuses to do evil[l] and doesn't lend money for profit. He keeps my laws and obeys my commands He will not die because of his father's sins, but he will certainly live 18 His father, on the other hand, cheated and robbed,[m] and always did evil to everyone And so he died because of the sins he himself had committed 19 "But you ask Why shouldn't the son suffer because of his father's sins? The answer is that the son did what was right and good He kept my laws and followed them carefully, and so he will certainly live 20 It is the one who sins who will die A son is not to suffer because of his father's sins, nor a father because of the sins of his son A good man will be rewarded for doing good, and an evil man will suffer for the evil he does 21 "If an evil man stops sinning and keeps my laws, if he does what is right and good, he will not die, he will certainly live 22 All his sins will be forgiven, and he will live, because he did what is right 23 Do you think I enjoy seeing an evil man die?" asks the Sovereign LORD "No, I would rather see him repent and live 24 "But if a righteous man stops doing good and starts doing all the evil, disgusting things that evil men do, will he go on living? No! None of the good he did will be remembered He will die because of his unfaithfulness and his sins 25 "But you say, 'What the Lord does isn't right' Listen to me, you Israelites You think my way of doing things isn't right? It is your way that isn't right 26 When a righteous man stops doing good and starts doing evil and then dies, he dies because of the evil he has done 27 When an evil man stops sinning and does what is right and good, he saves his life 28 He realizes what he is doing and stops sinning, so he will certainly not die, but go on living 29 And you Israelites say, 'What the Lord does isn't right' You think my way isn't right, do you? It is your way that isn't right 30 "Now I, the Sovereign LORD, am telling you Israelites that I will judge each of you by what he has done Turn away from all the evil you are doing, and don't let your sin destroy you 31 Give up all the evil you have been doing, and get yourselves new minds and hearts Why do you Israelites want to die? 32 I do not want anyone to die," says the Sovereign LORD "Turn away from your sins and live"

A Song of Sorrow

19 God told me to sing this song of sorrow for two princes of Israel 2 What a lioness your mother was!
She reared her cubs among the fierce male lions 3 She reared a cub and taught him to hunt,

[k] Probable text who does, Hebrew unclear

18 9 Lev 18 5 18 20 Deut 24 16

He realizes what he is doing and stops sinning (18.28) he became a man-eater.

4 The nations heard about him and trapped him in a pit.
With hooks they dragged him off to Egypt.
5 She waited until she saw all hope was gone.
Then she reared another of her cubs, and he grew into a fierce lion.
6 When he was full-grown, he prowled with the other lions.
He too learnt to hunt and became a man-eater.
7 He wrecked forts,[o] he ruined towns.
The people of the land were terrified every time he roared.
8 The nations gathered to fight him, people came from everywhere.
They spread their hunting nets and caught him in their trap.
9 They put him in a cage and took him to the king of Babylonia.
They kept him under guard, so that his roar would never be heard
again
on the hills of Israel.

10 Your mother was like a grapevine[p] planted near a stream.
Because there was plenty of water, the vine was covered with leaves and fruit.
11 Its branches were strong, and grew to be royal sceptres.
The vine grew tall enough to reach the clouds;
everyone saw how leafy and tall it was.
12 But angry hands pulled it up by the roots and threw it to the ground.
The east wind dried up its fruit.
Its branches were broken off, they dried up and were burnt.
13 Now it is planted in the desert, in a dry and waterless land.
14 The stem of the vine caught fire; fire burnt up its branches and fruit.
The branches will never again be strong, will never be royal sceptres.
This is a song of sorrow; it has been sung again and again.

God's Will and Man's Defiance

20 It was the tenth day of the fifth month of the seventh year of our exile. Some of the leaders of the Israelite community came to consult me about the [o] One ancient translation wrecked forts; Hebrew unclear.

[p] Hebrew has an additional word, the meaning of which is unclear.

Lord's will, and they sat down in front of me 2 Then the Lord spoke to me 3 "Mortal man," he said, "speak to these men and tell them that the Sovereign Lord is saying You have come to ask my will, have you? As surely as I am the living God, I will not let you ask me anything
I, the Sovereign Lord, have spoken 4 "Are you ready to pass sentence on them, mortal man? Then do so Remind them of the disgusting things their fathers did 5 Tell them what I am saying When I chose Israel, I made them a promise I revealed myself to them in Egypt and told them I am the Lord your God 6 It was then that I promised to take them out of Egypt and lead them to a land I had chosen for them, a rich and fertile land, the finest land of all 7 I told them to throw away the disgusting idols they loved and not to make themselves unclean with the false gods of Egypt, because I am the Lord their God 8 But they defied me and refused to listen They did not throw away their disgusting idols or give up the Egyptian gods I was ready to let them feel the full force of my anger there in Egypt 9 But I did not, since that would have brought dishonour to my name, for in the presence of the people among whom they were living I had announced to Israel that I was going to lead them out of Egypt 10 "And so I led them out of Egypt into the desert 11 I gave them my commands and taught them my laws, which bring life to anyone who obeys them 12 I made the keeping of the Sabbath a sign of the agreement between us, to remind them that I, the Lord, make them holy 13 But even in the desert they defied me They broke my laws and rejected my commands, which bring life to anyone who obeys them They completely profaned the Sabbath I was ready to let them feel the force of my anger there in the desert and destroy them 14 But I did not, since that would have brought dishonour to my name among the nations which had seen me lead Israel out of Egypt 15 So I made a promise in the desert that I would not take them to the land I had given them, a rich and fertile land, the finest land of all 16 I made the promise because they had rejected my commands, broken my laws, and profaned the Sabbath—they preferred to worship their idols 17 "But then I took pity on them I decided not to kill them there in the desert

I gave them my commands (20 11)

18 Instead, I warned the young people among them: Do not keep the laws your ancestors made, do not follow their customs or defile yourselves with their idols 19 I am the Lord your God Obey my laws and my commands 20 Make the Sabbath a holy day, so that it will be a sign of the covenant we made, and will remind you that I am the Lord your God 21 "But that generation also defied me They broke my laws and did not keep my commands, which bring life to anyone who obeys them They profaned the Sabbath I was ready to let them feel the force of my anger there in the desert and kill them all 22 But I did not, since that would have brought dishonour to my name among the nations which had seen me bring Israel out of Egypt 23 So I made another promise in the desert I vowed that I would scatter them all over the world 24 I did this because they had rejected my commands, broken my laws, profaned the Sabbath, and worshipped the same idols their ancestors had served 25 "Then I gave them laws that are not good and commands that do not bring life 26 I let them defile themselves with their own offerings, and I let them sacrifice their first-born sons This was to punish them and show them that I am

the LORD
27 "Now then, mortal man, tell the Israelites what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to them This is another way their fathers insulted me by their unfaithfulness 28 I brought them to the land I had promised to give them When they saw the high hills and green trees, they offered sacrifices at all of them They made me angry by the sacrifices they burnt and by the wine they brought as offerings 29 I asked them What are these high places where you go? So they have been called 'High Places'[q] ever since 30 Now tell the Israelites what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying Why must you commit the same sins your fathers did and go running after their idols? 31 Even today you offer the same gifts and defile yourselves with the same idols by sacrificing your children to them in the fire And then you Israelites still come to ask what my will is! As surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God, I will not let you ask me anything 32 You have made up your minds that you want to be like the other nations, like the people who live in other countries and worship trees and rocks But that will never be

God Punishes and Forgives

33 "As surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God, I warn you that in my anger I will rule over you with a strong hand, with all my power 34 I will show you my power and my anger when I gather you together and bring you back from all the countries where you have been scattered 35 I will bring you into the 'Desert of the Nations,'[r] and there I will condemn you to your face 36 I will now condemn you just as I condemned your fathers in the Sinai Desert," says the Sovereign LORD
37 "I will take firm control of you and make you obey my covenant 38 I will take away from among you those who are rebellious and sinful I will take them out of the lands where they are living now, but I will not let them return to the land of Israel Then you will know that I am
the LORD"
39 The Sovereign LORD said, "And now, all you Israelites, please yourselves! Go on and serve your idols! But I warn you that after this you will have to obey me and stop dishonouring my holy name by offering gifts to your idols 40 There in the land, on my holy mountain,[s] the high mountain of Israel, all you people of Israel will worship me I will be pleased with you and will expect you to bring me your sacrifices, your best offerings, and your holy gifts 41 After I bring you out of the countries where you have been scattered and gather you together, I will accept the sacrifices that you burn, and the nations will see that I am holy 42 When I bring you back to Israel, the land that I promised I would give to your ancestors,
then you will know that I am the LORD 43 Then you will remember all the disgraceful things you did and how you defiled yourselves You will be disgusted with yourselves because of all the evil things you did 44 When I act to protect my honour, you Israelites will know that I am the LORD, because I do not deal with you as your wicked, evil actions deserve"
The Sovereign LORD has spoken

Fire in the South

45 The LORD spoke to me 46 "Mortal man," he said, "look towards the south Speak against the south and prophesy against the forest of the south 47 Tell the southern forest to hear what the Sovereign LORD is saying Look! I am starting a fire, and it will burn up every tree in you, whether green or dry Nothing will be able to put it out It will spread from south to north, and everyone will feel the heat of the flames 48 They will all see that I, the LORD, set it on fire and that no one can put it out" 49 But I protested, "Sovereign LORD, don't make me do it! Everyone is already complaining that I always speak in riddles"

The LORD's Sword

21 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "denounce Jerusalem Denounce the places where people worship Warn the land of Israel 3 that I, the LORD, am saying I am your enemy I will draw my sword and kill all of you, good and evil alike 4 I will use my sword against everyone from north to south

[q] HIGH PLACES Pagan places of worship which the Hebrews were forbidden to use The Hebrew word translated "High Places" sounds like the Hebrew for "where you go" [r] DESERT OF THE NATIONS Not a definite geographical location, but a symbol of God's punishment of Israel

5 Everyone will know that I, the LORD, have drawn my sword and that I will not put it away 6 "Mortal man, groan as if your heart is breaking with despair Groan in sorrow where everyone can watch you 7 When they ask you why you are groaning, tell them it is because of the news that is coming When it comes, their hearts will be filled with fear, their hands will hang limp, their courage will fail, and their knees will tremble The time has come, it is here" The Sovereign LORD has
spoken
8 The LORD said to me, 9 "Mortal man, prophesy Tell the people what I, the Lord, am saying

A sword, a sword is sharpened and polished 10 It is sharpened to kill, polished to flash like lightning There can be no rejoicing, for my people have disregarded every warning and punishment [t] 11 The sword is being polished, to make it ready for use It is sharpened and polished, to be put in the hands of a killer 12 Howl in grief, mortal man, this sword is meant for my people and for all the leaders of Israel They are going to be killed with all the rest of my people Beat your breast in despair!
13 I am testing my people, and if they refuse to repent, all these things will happen to them [u] 14 "Now, mortal man, prophesy Clap your hands, and the sword will strike again and again It is a sword that kills, a sword that terrifies [v] and slaughters 15 It makes my people lose courage and stumble I am threatening their city with a sword [w] that flashes like lightning and is ready to kill 16 Cut to the right and the left, you sharp sword! Cut wherever you turn [x] 17 I also will clap my hands, and my anger will be over I, the LORD, have

spoken"

The Sword of the King of Babylonia

18 The LORD spoke to me 19 "Mortal man," he said, "mark out two roads by which the king of Babylonia can come with his sword Both of them are to start in the same country Put up signposts where the roads fork [y] 20 One will show the king the way to the Ammonite city of Rabbah, and the other the way to Judah, to the fortified city, Jerusalem 21 The king of Babylonia stands by the signpost at the fork of the road To discover which way to go, he shakes the arrows, [z] he consults his idols, he examines the liver of a sacrificed animal 22 Now! His right hand holds the arrow marked 'Jerusalem'! It tells him to go and set up battering-rams, to shout the battle-cry, to place battering-rams against the gates, to throw up earthworks, and to dig trenches 23 The people of Jerusalem won't believe this, because of the treaties they have made But this prediction is to remind them of their sins and to warn them that they will be captured 24 This then is what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying Your sins are exposed Everyone knows how guilty you are You show your sins in your every action You stand condemned, and I will hand you over to your enemies 25 "You wicked, unholy ruler of Israel, your day, the day of your final punishment, is coming 26 I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken Take off your crown and your turban Nothing will be the same again Raise the poor to power! Bring down those who are ruling! 27 Ruin, ruin!
Yes, I will make the city a ruin But this will not happen until the one whom I have chosen to punish the city has come Then I will give it to him

A Sword and the Ammonites

28 "Mortal man, prophesy Announce what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to the Ammonites, who are insulting Israel Say to them

'A sword is ready to destroy, it is polished to kill, to flash like lightning 29 The visions that you see are false, and the predictions you make are lies You are wicked and evil, and your day is coming, the day of your final punishment you in the place where you were created, in the land where you were born 31 You on you like a blazing fire And I will hand you over to brutal men, experts at destruction 32 You will be destroyed by fire Your blood will be shed in your own

The Crimes of Jerusalem

22 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "are you ready to judge the city that is full of murderers?
Make clear to her all the disgusting things she has done 3 Tell the city what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying Because you have murdered so many of your own people and have defiled yourself by worshipping idols, your time is coming 4 You are guilty of those murders and are defiled by the idols you made, and so your day is coming, your time is up! That is why I have let the nations mock you and all the countries sneer at you 5 Countries near by and countries far away sneer at you because of your lawlessness 6 All Israel's leaders trust in their own strength and commit murder 7 No one in the city honours his parents You cheat foreigners and take advantage of widows and orphans 8 You have no respect for the holy places, and you don't keep the Sabbath 9 Some of your people tell lies about others in order to have them put to death Some of them eat sacrifices offered to idols Some are always satisfying their lusts 10 Some of them sleep with their father's wife Some force women to have intercourse with them during their period 11 Some commit adultery, and others seduce their daughters-in-law or their half-sisters 12 Some of your people murder for pay Some charge interest on the loans they make to their fellow-Israelites and get rich by taking advantage of them They have forgotten me " The Sovereign LORD has spoken 13 "I will bring my fist down on your robberies and murders 14 Do you think you will have any courage left or have strength enough to lift your hand when I am finished with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I keep my word 15 I will scatter your people to every country and nation and will put an end to your evil actions 16 And so the other nations will dishonour you, but you will know that I am the LORD "

God's Refining Furnace

17 The LORD said to me, 18 "Mortal man, the Israelites are of no use to me They are like the waste metal—copper, tin, iron, and lead—left over after silver has been refined in a furnace 19 So now I, the Sovereign LORD, am telling them that they are just as useless as that I will bring them all together in Jerusalem 20 in the same way that the ore of silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin is put in a refining furnace My anger and rage will melt them just as fire melts ore 21 Yes, I will gather them in Jerusalem, build a fire under them, and melt them with my anger 22 They will be melted in Jerusalem just as silver is melted in a furnace, and then they will know that they are feeling the anger of the LORD "

The Sins of Israel's Leaders

23 The LORD spoke to me again 24 "Mortal man," he said, "tell the Israelites that their land is unholy, and so I am punishing it in my anger 25 The leaders[a] are like lions roaring over the animals they have killed They kill the people, take all the money and property they can get, and by their murders leave many widows 26 The priests break my law and have no respect for what is holy They make no distinction between what is holy and what is not They do not teach the difference between clean and unclean things, and they ignore the Sabbath As a result the people of Israel do not respect me 27 The government officials are like wolves tearing apart the animals they have killed They commit murder in order to get rich 28 The prophets have hidden these sins like men covering a wall with whitewash They see false visions and make false predictions They claim to speak the word of the Sovereign LORD, but I, the LORD, have not spoken to them 29 The wealthy cheat and rob They ill-treat the poor and take advantage of foreigners 30 I looked for someone who could build a wall, who could stand in the places where the walls have crumbled and defend the land when my anger is about to destroy it, but I could find no one 31 So I will turn my anger loose on them,

The Sinful Sisters

23 The LORD spoke to me 2"Mortal man," he said, "there were once two sisters 3When they were young, living in Egypt, they lost their virginity and became prostitutes 4The older one was named Oholah (she represents Samaria), and the younger one was named Oholibah (she represents Jerusalem) I married both of them, and they bore me children 5Although she was mine, Oholah continued to be a prostitute and was full of lust for her lovers from Assyria 6They were soldiers in uniforms of purple, noblemen and high-ranking officers, all of them were handsome young cavalry officers 7She was the whore for all the Assyrian officers, and her lust led her to defile herself by worshipping Assyrian idols 8She continued what she had begun as a prostitute in Egypt, where she lost her virginity From the time she was a girl, men slept with her and treated her like a prostitute 9So I handed her over to her Assyrian lovers whom she wanted so much 10They stripped her naked, seized her sons and daughters, and then killed her with a sword Women everywhere gossiped about her fate 11 "Even though her sister Oholibah saw this, she was wilder and more of a prostitute than Oholah had ever been 12She too was full of lust for the Assyrian noblemen and officers—soldiers in bright uniforms—and for the cavalry officers, all those handsome young men 13I saw that she was completely immoral, that the second sister was as bad as the first 14–15 "She sank deeper and deeper in her immorality She was attracted by the images of high Babylonian officials carved into the wall and painted bright red, with sashes round their waists and fancy turbans on their heads 16As soon as she saw them, she was filled with lust and sent messengers to them in Babylonia 17The Babylonians came to have sex with her They used her and defiled her so much that finally she became disgusted with them 18She exposed herself publicly and let everyone know she was a whore I was as disgusted with her as I had been with her sister 19She became more of a prostitute than ever, acting just as she did as a girl, when she was a prostitute in Egypt 20She was filled with lust for oversexed men with large sex organs and all the lustfulness of stallions" 21(Oholibah, you wanted to repeat the immorality you were guilty of as a girl in Egypt, where men played with your breasts and you lost your virginity)

God's Judgement on the Younger Sister

22 "Now then, Oholibah, this is what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying to you You are tired of those lovers, but I will make them angry with you and bring them to surround you 23I will bring all the Babylonians and Chaldeans, men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians I will gather all those handsome young noblemen and officers, all those important officials and high-ranking cavalry officers 24They will attack you from the north,[b] bringing a large army with chariots and supply wagons Protected by shields and helmets, they will surround you I will hand you over to them, and they will judge you by their own laws 25Because I am angry with you, I will let them deal with you in their anger They will cut off your nose and your ears and kill your children Yes, they will take your sons and daughters from you and burn them alive 26They will tear off your clothes and take your jewels 27I will put a stop to your lust and to the obscenities you have committed ever since you were in Egypt You won't look at any more idols or think about Egypt any more" 28 This is what the Sovereign LORD says "I will hand you over to people you hate and are disgusted with 29And because they hate you, they will take away everything you have worked for and leave you stripped naked, exposed like a pro stitute Your lust and your prostitution 30have brought this on you You were a prostitute for the nations and defiled yourself with their idols 31You followed in your sister's footsteps, and so I will give you the same cup of punishment to drink"
32 The Sovereign LORD says,
"You will drink from your sister's cup, it is large and deep Everyone will scorn and mock you, the cup is full 33 It will make you miserable and drunk, that cup of fear and ruin, your sister Samaria's cup 34 You will drink and drain it dry, and with its broken pieces tear your breast.

I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken."
35 Now this is what the Sovereign LORD is saying: "Because you forgot me and turned your back on me, you will suffer for your lust and your prostitution."

God's Judgement on Both Sisters

36 The LORD said to me, "Mortal man, are you ready to judge Oholah and Oholibah? Accuse them of the disgusting things they have done. 37 They have committed adultery and murder—adultery with idols and murder of the sons they bore me. They sacrificed my sons to their idols. 38 And that is not all they did. They profaned my Temple and broke the Sabbath, which I had established.
39 The very day that they killed my children as sacrifices to idols, they came to my Temple and profaned it!
40 "Again and again they sent messengers to invite men to come from a great distance, and the men came. The two sisters would bathe and put on eye-shadow and jewellery. 41 They would sit on a beautiful couch, and in front of them they would have a table covered with good things, including the incense and the olive-oil that I had given them. 42 The sound of a carefree crowd could be heard, a group of men brought in from the desert.
They put bracelets on the women's arms and beautiful crowns on their heads.
43 And I said to myself that they were using as a prostitute a woman worn out by adultery.[c] 44 They went back to these prostitutes again and again. They went back to Oholah and Oholibah, those immoral women. 45 Righteous men will condemn them on the charge of adultery and murder, because they practise adultery and their hands are stained with blood."
46 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "Bring a mob to terrorize them and rob them. 47 Let the mob stone them and attack them with swords, kill their children, and burn down their houses.
48 Throughout the land I will put a stop to immorality, as a warning to every woman not to commit adultery as they did. 49 And you two sisters—I will punish you for your immorality and your sin of worshipping idols. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD."

The Corroded Cooking-Pot

24 On the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of our exile, the LORD spoke to me. 2 "Mortal man," he said, "write down today's date, because this is the day that the king of Babylonia is beginning the siege of Jerusalem. 3 Tell my rebellious people this parable that I, the Sovereign LORD, have
for them:

Set the pot on the fire and fill it up with water.
4 Put in the best pieces of meat—the shoulders and the legs—fill it with choice bony pieces too.
5 Use the meat of the finest sheep, pile the wood[d] under the pot.
Let the water boil, boil the bones and the meat."

6 This is what the Sovereign LORD is saying: "The city of murderers is doomed! It is like a corroded pot that is never cleaned. Piece after piece of meat is taken out, and not one is left. 7 There was murder in the city, but the blood was not spilt on the ground where the dust could hide it; it was spilt on a bare rock.
8 I have left the blood there, where it cannot be hidden, where it demands angry revenge."
9 This is what the Sovereign LORD is
saying: "The city of murderers is doomed! I myself will pile up the firewood. 10 Bring more wood! Fan the flames! Cook the meat! Boil away the broth![e] Burn up the bones! 11 Now set the empty bronze pot on the coals and let it get red-hot. Then the pot will be ritually pure again after the corrosion is burnt off, 12 although all that corrosion will not disappear in the flames.[f] 13 Jerusalem, your immoral actions have defiled you. Although I tried to purify you, you remained defiled. You will not be pure again until you have felt the full force of my anger. 14 I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken. The time has come for me to act.
I will not ignore your sins or show pity or be merciful. You will be punished for what you have done." The Sovereign LORD has spoken.

You are not to complain or cry or shed any tears 17 Don't let your sobbing be heard Do not go bareheaded or barefoot as a sign of mourning Don't cover your face or eat the food that mourners eat " 18 Early in the day I was talking with the people That evening my wife died, and the next day I did as I had been told 19 The people asked me, "Why are you acting like this?" 20 So I said to them, "The LORD spoke to me and told me 21 to give you Israelites this message You are proud of the strength of the Temple You like to look at it and to visit it, but the LORD is going to profane it And the younger members of your families who are left in Jerusalem will be killed in war 22 Then you will do what I have done You will not cover your faces or eat the food that mourners eat 23 You will not go bareheaded or barefoot or mourn or cry You will waste away because of your sins, and you will groan to one another 24 Then I will be a sign to you, you will do everything I have done The LORD says that when this happens, you will know that he is the Sovereign
LORD "
25 The LORD said, "Now, mortal man, I will take away from them the strong Temple that was their pride and joy, which they liked to look at and to visit And I will take away their sons and daughters 26 On the day that I do this someone who escapes the destruction will come and tell you about it 27 That same day you will get back the power of speech which you had lost, and you will talk with him In this way you will be a sign to the people, and they will know that I am
the LORD '

Prophecy against Ammon

25 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal
man," he said, "denounce the country of Ammon 3 Tell them to listen to what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying' You were delighted to see my Temple profaned, to see the land of Israel devastated, to see the people of Judah go into exile 4 Because you were glad, I will let the tribes from the eastern desert conquer you They will set up their camps in your country and settle there They will eat the fruit and drink the milk that should have been yours 5 I will turn the city of Rabbah into a place to keep camels, and the whole country of Ammon into a place to keep sheep, so that you will know that I am the LORD
6 "This is what the Sovereign LORD is saying You clapped your hands and jumped for joy You despised the land of Israel 7 Because you did, I will hand you over to other nations who will rob you and plunder you I will destroy you so completely that you will not be a nation

Prophecy against Moab

8 The Sovereign LORD said, "Because Moab[g] has said that Judah is like all the other nations, 9 I will let the cities that defend the border of Moab be attacked, including even the finest cities—Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim 10 I will let the tribes of the eastern desert conquer Moab, together with Ammon, so that Moab[h] will no longer be a nation 11 I will punish Moab, and they will know that I am the LORD "

Prophecy against Edom

12 The Sovereign LORD said, "The people of Edom took cruel revenge on Judah, and that revenge has brought lasting guilt on Edom 13 Now I announce that I will punish Edom and kill every man and animal there I will make it a waste, from the city of Teman to the city of Dedan, and the people will be killed in battle 14 My people Israel will take revenge on Edom for me, and they will make Edom feel my furious anger Edom will know what it means to be the object of my revenge " The Sovereign LORD has
spoken

Prophecy against Philistia

15 The Sovereign LORD said, "The Philistines have taken cruel revenge on their age-long enemies and destroyed them in their hate 16 And so I am announcing that I will attack the Philistines and wipe them out I will destroy everyone left living there on the Philistine Plain 17 I will punish them severely and take full revenge on them They will feel my anger Then they will know that I am
the LORD "

Prophecy against Tyre

26 On the first day of the month[i] of the eleventh year of our exile, the LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "this is what the people in the city of Tyre are cheering about They shout, 'Jerusalem is shattered! Her commercial power is gone! She won't be our rival any more!' 3 "Now then, this is what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying I am your enemy, city of Tyre I will bring many nations to attack you, and they will come like the waves of the sea 4 They will destroy your city walls and tear down your towers Then I will sweep away all the dust and leave only a bare rock.
5 Fishermen will dry their nets on it, there where it stands in the sea I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken The nations will plunder Tyre, 6 and with their swords they will kill those who live in her towns on the mainland Then Tyre will know that I am the LORD "
7 The Sovereign LORD says, "I am going to bring the greatest king of all—King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia—to attack Tyre He will come from the north with a huge army, with horses and chariots and with cavalry 8 Those who live in the towns on the mainland will be killed in the fighting The enemy will dig trenches, build earthworks, and make a solid wall of shields against you 9 They will pound in your walls with battering-rams and tear down your towers with iron bars 10 The clouds of dust raised by their horses will cover you The noise of their horses pulling wagons and chariots will shake your walls as they pass through the gates of the ruined city 11 Their horsemen will storm through your streets, killing your people with their swords Your mighty pillars will be thrown to the ground 12 Your enemies will help themselves to your wealth and merchandise They will pull down your walls and shatter your luxurious houses They will take the stones and wood and all the rubble, and dump them into the sea 13 I will put an end to all your songs, and I will silence the music of your harps 14 I will leave only a bare rock where fishermen can dry their nets The city will never be rebuilt
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken " 15 The Sovereign LORD has this to say to the city of Tyre "When you are being conquered, the people who live along the coast will be terrified at the screams of

A Funeral Song for Tyre

27 The LORD said to me, 2 "Mortal man, sing a funeral song for Tyre, 3 that city which stands at the edge of the sea and does business with the people living on every seacoast Tell her what the Sovereign LORD is saying

Tyre, you boasted of your perfect beauty 4 Your home is the sea Your builders made you like a beautiful ship, 5 They used fir-trees from Mount Hermon for timber
And a cedar from Lebanon for your mast 6 They took oak-trees from Bashan to make oars,
They made your deck out of pine from Cyprus
And inlaid it with ivory 7 Your sails were made of linen, Embroidered linen from Egypt, Easily recognized from afar Your awnings were made of finest cloth, Of purple from the island of Cyprus 8 Your oarsmen were from the cities of Sidon and Arvad
Your own skilful men were the sailors

Were well-trained men from Byblos Sailors from every sea-going ship Did business in your shops 10 "Soldiers from Persia, Lydia, and Libya served in your army They hung their shields and their helmets in your barracks They are the men who won glory for you 11 Soldiers from Arvad guarded your walls, and men from Gamad guarded your towers They hung their shields on your walls They are the men who made you beautiful 12 "You did business in Spain and took silver, iron, tin, and lead in payment for your abundant goods 13 You did business in Greece, Tubal, and Meshech and traded your goods for slaves and for articles of bronze 14 You sold your goods for draught-horses, war-horses, and mules from Beth Togarmah 15 The people of Rhodes[m] traded with you, people of many coastal lands gave you ivory and ebony in exchange for your goods 16 The people of Syria bought your merchandise and your many products They gave emeralds, purple cloth, embroidery, fine linen, coral, and rubies in payment for your wares 17 Judah and Israel paid for your goods with wheat,[n] honey, olive-oil, and spices merchandise and your products, paying for them with wine from Helbon and wool from Sahar[o] They exchanged wrought iron and spices for your goods 20 The people of Dedan exchanged saddle-cloths for your goods 21 The Arabians and the rulers of the land of Kedar paid for your merchandise with lambs, sheep, and goats 22 For your goods the merchants of Sheba and Raamah exchanged jewels, gold, and the finest spices 23 The cities of Haran, Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, the cities of Asshur and Chilmad—they all traded with you 24 They sold you luxurious clothing, purple cloth, and embroidery, brightly coloured carpets, and well-made cords and ropes 25 Your merchandise was carried in fleets of the largest cargo ships You were like a ship at sea Loaded with heavy cargo 26 When your oarsmen brought you out to sea,

An east wind wrecked you far from land 27 All your wealth of merchandise, All the sailors in your crew, Your ship's carpenters and your merchants,
Every soldier on board the ship—All, all were lost at sea When your ship was wrecked 28 The shouts of the drowning sailors Echoed on the shore

29 "Every ship is now deserted, And every sailor has gone ashore 30 They all mourn bitterly for you, Throwing dust on their heads and rolling in ashes 31 They shave their heads for you And dress themselves in sackcloth Their hearts are bitter as they weep 32 They chant a funeral song for you 'Who can be compared to Tyre, To Tyre now silent in the sea?
33 When your merchandise went overseas,
You filled the needs of every nation Kings were made rich
By the wealth of your goods 34 Now you are wrecked in the sea, You have sunk to the ocean depths Your goods and all who worked for you Have vanished with you in the sea' 35 "Everyone who lives along the coast is shocked at your fate Even their kings are terrified, and fear is written on their faces 36 You are gone, gone for ever, and merchants all over the world are terrified, afraid that they will share your fate"

Prophecy against the King of Tyre

28 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "tell the ruler of Tyre what I, the Sovereign LORD, am god you sit on a throne, surrounded by most desolate country in the world For forty years the cities of Egypt will lie in

They will flee to every country and live forty years I will bring the Egyptians back from the nations where I have scattered them, 14and I will let them live in southern Egypt, their original home There they will

King Nebuchadnezzar Will Conquer Egypt

17 On the first day of the first month of the twenty-seventh year of our exile, the LORD spoke to me 18"Mortal man," he said, "King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia launched an attack on Tyre He made his soldiers carry such heavy loads that their heads were rubbed bald and their shoulders were worn raw, but neither the king nor his army got anything for all their trouble 19So now this is what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying I am giving the land of Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar He will loot and plunder it and carry off all the wealth of Egypt as his army's pay 20I am giving him Egypt in payment for his services, because his army was working for me I, the Sovereign
LORD, have spoken 21 "When that happens, I will make the people of Israel strong and let you, Ezekiel, speak out where everyone can hear you, so that they will know that I am the LORD "

The LORD Will Punish Egypt

30 The LORD spoke again 2"Mortal man," he said, "prophesy and announce what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying You are to shout these words

A day of terror is coming!
3The day is near, the day when the LORD will act,
A day of clouds and trouble for the
nations
4There will be war in Egypt And great distress in Sudan Many in Egypt will be killed, The country will be plundered And left in ruins

5 "That war will also kill the soldiers hired from Sudan, Lydia, Libya, Arabia, Kub, and even from among my own
people "
6 The Sovereign LORD says, "From Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south, all Egypt's defenders will be killed in battle Egypt's proud army will be destroyed I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken 7The land will be the most desolate in the world, and its cities will be left totally in ruins 8When I set fire to Egypt and all her defenders are killed, then they will know that I am the LORD.

9 "When that day comes and Egypt is destroyed, I will send messengers in ships to arouse the unsuspecting people of Sudan, and they will be terrified. That day is coming!"
10 The Sovereign LORD says, "I will use King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia to put an end to Egypt's wealth. 11 He and his ruthless army will come to devastate the land. They will attack Egypt with swords, and the land will be full of corpses. 12 I will dry up the Nile and put Egypt under the power of evil men. Foreigners will devastate the whole country. I, the LORD,
have spoken."
13 The Sovereign LORD says, "I will destroy the idols and the false gods in Memphis. There will be no one to rule over Egypt, and I will terrify all the people.
14 I will make southern Egypt desolate and set fire to the city of Zoan in the north.
I will punish the capital city of Thebes.
15 I will let the city of Pelusium, Egypt's great fortress, feel my fury. I will destroy the wealth of Thebes. 16 I will set fire to Egypt, and Pelusium will be in agony. The walls of Thebes will be broken down, and the city will be flooded.[u] 17 The young men of the cities of Heliopolis and Bubastis will die in the war, and the other people will be taken prisoner. 18 Darkness will fall on Tahpanhes when I break the power of Egypt and put an end to the strength they were so proud of. A cloud will cover Egypt, and the people of all her cities will be taken prisoner. 19 When I punish Egypt in this way, they will know that I am
the LORD."

The Broken Power of the King of Egypt

20 On the seventh day of the first month of the eleventh year of our exile, the LORD spoke to me. 21 "Mortal man," he said, "I have broken the arm of the king of Egypt. No one has bandaged it or put it in a sling so that it could heal and be strong enough to hold a sword again.
22 Now then, this is what I, the Sovereign LORD, say: I am the enemy of the king of Egypt. I am going to break both his arms—the good one and the one already broken—and the sword will fall from his hand. 23 I am going to scatter the Egyptians throughout the world. 24 Then I will make the arms of the king of Babylonia strong and put my sword in his hands.
But I will break the arms of the king of Egypt, and he will groan and die in front of his enemy. 25 Yes, I will weaken him and strengthen the king of Babylonia.
When I give him my sword and he points it towards Egypt, everyone will know that I am the LORD. 26 I will scatter the Egyptians throughout the world. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Egypt Is Compared to a Cedar Tree

31 On the first day of the third month of the eleventh year of our exile,
the LORD spoke to me. 2 "Mortal man," he said, "say to the king of Egypt and all his people:

How powerful you are!
What can I compare you to?
3 You are[v] like a cedar in Lebanon, With beautiful, shady branches, A tree so tall it reaches the clouds.
4 There was water to make it grow, And underground rivers to feed it.
They watered the place where the tree was growing And sent streams to all the trees of the forest.
5 Because it was well-watered,
It grew taller than other trees.
Its branches grew thick and long.
6 Every kind of bird built nests in its branches;
The wild animals bore their young in its shelter;
The nations of the world rested in its shade.
7 How beautiful the tree was—So tall, with such long branches!
Its roots reached down to the deep-flowing streams.
8 No cedar in God's garden could compare with it.
No fir tree ever had such branches,
And no plane tree such boughs.
No tree in God's own garden was so beautiful.
9 I made it beautiful, with spreading branches.
It was the envy of every tree in Eden, the garden of God.

10 "Now then, I, the Sovereign LORD, will tell you what is going to happen to that tree that grew until it reached the clouds. As it grew taller it grew proud, 11 so I have rejected it and will let a foreign ruler have it. He will give that tree what it deserves for its wickedness 12 Ruthless foreigners will cut it down and leave it Its branches and broken boughs will fall on every mountain and valley in the country All the nations that have been living in its shade will go away 13 The birds will come and perch on the fallen tree, and the wild animals will walk over its branches 14 And so from now on, no tree, no matter how well-watered it is, will grow as tall as that again or push its top through the clouds and reach such a height All of them are doomed to die like mortal men, doomed to join those who go down to the world of the dead "

15 This is what the Sovereign LORD says "On the day when the tree goes to the world of the dead, I will make the underground waters cover it as a sign of mourning I will hold back the rivers and not let the many streams flow out Because the tree has died, I will bring darkness over the Lebanon Mountains and make all the trees of the forest wither 16 When I send it down to the world of the dead, the noise of its downfall will shake the nations All the trees of Eden and all the choice, well-watered trees of Lebanon who have gone to the world below will be pleased at its downfall 17 They will go with it to the world of the dead to join those that have already fallen And all who live under its shadow will be scattered among the nations [y]

18 "The tree is the king of Egypt and all his people Not even the trees in Eden were so tall and impressive But now, like the trees of Eden, it will go down to the world of the dead and join the ungodly and those killed in battle I have spoken," says the Sovereign LORD

The King of Egypt Is Compared to a Crocodile

32 On the first day of the twelfth month of the twelfth year of our exile, the LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "give a solemn warning to the king of Egypt Give him this message from me You act like a lion among the nations, but you are more like a crocodile splashing through a river You muddy the water with your feet and pollute the rivers 3 When many nations gather, I will catch you in my net and let them drag the net ashore 4 I will throw you out on the ground and bring all the birds and animals of the world to feed on you 5 I will cover mountains and valleys with your rotting corpse 6 I will pour out your blood until it spreads over the mountains and fills the streams 7 When I destroy you, I will cover the sky and blot out the stars The sun will hide behind the clouds, and the moon will give no light 8 I will put out all the lights of heaven and plunge your world into darkness I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken

9 "Many nations will be troubled when I spread the news of your destruction through countries you never heard of 10 What I do to you will shock many nations When I swing my sword, kings will shudder with fright On the day you fall, all of them will tremble in fear for their own lives "

11 The Sovereign LORD says to the king of Egypt, "You will face the sword of the king of Babylonia 12 I will let soldiers from cruel nations draw their swords and kill all your people All your people and everything else that you are proud of will be destroyed 13 I will slaughter your cattle

[y] Probable text And all nations, Hebrew unclear at every water-hole There will be no people or cattle to muddy the water any more 14 I will let your waters settle and become clear and let your rivers run calm

I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken 15 When I make Egypt a desolate waste and destroy all who live there, they will know that I am the LORD 16 This solemn warning will become a funeral song The women of the nations will sing it to mourn for Egypt and all its people I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken "

The World of the Dead

17 On the fifteenth day of the first month[z] of the twelfth year of our exile, the LORD spoke to me 18 "Mortal man," he said, "mourn for all the many people of Egypt Send them down with the other powerful nations to the world of the dead 19 Say to them

"Do you think you are more beautiful than anyone else?
You will go down to the world of the dead
and lie there among the ungodly 20 "The people of Egypt will fall with those who are killed in battle A sword is ready to kill them all[a] 21 The greatest heroes and those who fought on the Egyptian side welcome the Egyptians to the world of the dead They shout 'The ungodly who were killed in battle have come down here, and here they lie!' 22 "Assyria is there, with the graves of her soldiers all around They were all killed in battle, 23 and their graves are in the deepest parts of the world of the dead All her soldiers fell in battle, and their graves surround her tomb Yet once they terrified the land of the living 24 "Elam is there, with the graves of her soldiers all around They were all killed in battle, and they went down, uncircumcised, to the world of the dead In life they spread terror, but now they lie dead and disgraced 25 Elam lies down among those killed in battle, and the graves of her soldiers are all around her They are all uncircumcised, all killed in battle In life they spread terror, but now they lie dead and disgraced, sharing the fate of those killed in battle 26 "Meshech and Tubal are there, with the graves of their soldiers all around They are all uncircumcised, all killed in battle Yet once they terrified the living 27 They were not given honourable burial like the heroes of ancient times,[b] who went fully armed to the world of the dead, their swords placed under their heads and their shields[c] over their bodies These heroes were once powerful enough to terrify the living 28 "That is how the Egyptians will lie crushed among the uncircumcised who were killed in battle 29 "Edom is there with her kings and rulers They were powerful soldiers, but now they lie in the world of the dead with the uncircumcised who were killed in battle 30 "All the princes of the north are there, and so are the Sidonians Their power once spread terror, but now they go down in disgrace with those killed in battle and are laid to rest, uncircumcised They share the disgrace of those who go down to the world of the dead 31 "The sight of all these who were killed in battle will be a comfort to the king of Egypt and his army," says the Sovereign LORD

32 "I made the king of Egypt terrorize the living, but he and all his army will be killed and laid to rest with all the uncircumcised who die in battle" The Sovereign LORD has spoken

God Appoints Ezekiel as a Watchman
(Ezek 3 16-21)

33 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "tell your people what happens when I bring war to a land The people of that country choose one of their number to be a watchman 3 When he sees the enemy approaching, he sounds the alarm to warn everyone 4 If someone hears it but pays no attention and the enemy comes and kills him, then he is to blame for his own death 5 His death is his own fault, because he paid no attention to the warning If he had paid attention, he could have escaped 6 If, however, the watchman sees the enemy coming and does not sound the alarm, the enemy will come and kill those sinners, but I will hold the watchman responsible for their death 7 "Now, mortal man, I am making you a watchman for the nation of Israel You must pass on to them the warnings I give you. 8 If I announce that an evil man is going to die but you do not warn him to change his ways so that he can save his life, then he will die, still a sinner, and I will hold you responsible for his death.

9 If you do warn an evil man and he doesn't stop sinning, he will die, still a sinner, but your life will be spared."

Individual Responsibility

10 The LORD spoke to me. "Mortal man," he said, "repeat to the Israelites what they are saying: 'We are burdened with our sins and the wrongs we have done. We are wasting away. How can we live?' 11 Tell them that as surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God, I do not enjoy seeing a sinner die. I would rather see him stop sinning and live.
Israel, stop the evil you are doing. Why do you want to die?
12 "Now, mortal man, tell the Israelites that when a good man sins, the good he has done will not save him. If an evil man stops doing evil, he won't be punished, and if a good man starts sinning, his life will not be spared. 13 I may promise life to a good man, but if he starts thinking that his past goodness is enough and begins to sin, I will not remember any of the good he did. He will die because of his sins. 14 I may warn an evil man that he is going to die, but if he stops sinning and does what is right and good—15 for example, if he returns the security he took for a loan or gives back what he stole—if he stops sinning and follows the laws that give life, he will not die, but live. 16 I will forgive the sins he has committed, and he will live because he has done what is right and good.
17 "And your people say that what I do isn't right! No, it's their way that isn't right. 18 When a righteous man stops doing good and starts doing evil, he will die for it. 19 When an evil man gives up sinning and does what is right and good, he has saved his life. 20 But Israel, you say that what I do isn't right. I am going to judge you by what you do."

The News of Jerusalem's Fall

21 On the fifth day of the tenth month of the twelfth year of our exile, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came and told me that the city had fallen. 22 The evening before he came, I had felt the powerful presence of the LORD. When the man arrived the next morning, the LORD gave me back the power of speech.

The Sins of the People

23 The LORD spoke to me. 24 "Mortal man," he said, "the people who are living in the ruined cities of the land of Israel are saying: 'Abraham was only one man, and he was given the whole land. There are many of us, so now the land is ours.' 25 "Tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying: You eat meat with the blood still in it. You worship idols. You commit murder. What makes you think that the land belongs to you? 26 You rely on your swords. Your actions are disgusting. Everyone commits adultery. What makes you think that the land is yours?
27 "Tell them that I, the Sovereign LORD, warn them that as surely as I am the living God, the people who live in the ruined cities will be killed. Those living in the country will be eaten by wild animals. Those hiding in the mountains and in caves will die of disease. 28 I will make the country a desolate waste, and the power they were so proud of will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be so wild that no one will be able to travel through them. 29 When I punish the people for their sins and make the country a waste, then they will know that I am

The Results of the Prophet's Message

30 The LORD said, "Mortal man, your people are talking about you when they meet by the city walls or in the doorways of their houses. They say to one another, 'Let's go and hear what word has come from the LORD now.' 31 So my people crowd in to hear what you have to say, but they don't do what you tell them to do.
They treat your words as simple songs[d] and continue their greedy ways. 32 To them you are nothing more than an entertainer singing love songs or playing a harp. They listen to all your words and don't obey a single one of them. 33 But when all your words come true—and they will come true—then they will know that

The Shepherds of Israel

34 The LORD spoke to me. 2 "Mortal
man," he said, "denounce the rulers of Israel. Prophesy to them, and tell them what I, the Sovereign LORD, say:

[d] Probable text simple songs; Hebrew unclear.

They listen to all your words and don't obey a single one of them (33.32) to them. You are doomed, you shepherds of Israel! You take care of yourselves, but never tend the sheep. 3 You drink the milk, wear clothes made from the wool, and kill and eat the finest sheep. But you never tend the sheep. 4 You have not taken care of the weak ones, healed those that are sick, bandaged those that are hurt, brought back those that wandered off, or looked for those that were lost. Instead, you treated them cruelly. 5 Because the sheep had no shepherd, they were scattered, and wild animals killed and ate them. 6 So my sheep wandered over the high hills and the mountains. They were scattered over the face of the earth, and no one looked for them or tried to find

them.
7 "Now, you shepherds, listen to what I, the LORD, am telling you. 8 As surely as I am the living God, you had better listen to me. My sheep have been attacked by wild animals that killed and ate them because there was no shepherd. My shepherds did not try to find the sheep.
They were taking care of themselves and not the sheep. 9 So listen to me, you shepherds. 10 I, the Sovereign LORD, declare that I am your enemy. I will take my sheep away from you and never again let you be their shepherds; never again will I let you take care only of yourselves.
I will rescue my sheep from you and not let you eat them.

The Good Shepherd

11 "I, the Sovereign LORD, tell you that I myself will look for my sheep and take care of them 12 in the same way as a shepherd takes care of his sheep that were scattered and are brought together again.
I will bring them back from all the places where they were scattered on that dark, disastrous day. 13 I will take them out of foreign countries, gather them together, and bring them back to their own land.
I will lead them back to the mountains and the streams of Israel and will feed them in pleasant pastures. 14 I will let them graze in safety in the mountain meadows and the valleys and in all the green pastures of the land of Israel. 15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will find them a place to rest. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken.
16 "I will look for those that are lost, bring back those that wander off, bandage those that are hurt, and heal those that are sick; but those that are fat and strong I will destroy, because I am a shepherd who does what is right.
17 "Now then, my flock, I, the Sovereign LORD, tell you that I will judge each of you and separate the good from the bad, the sheep from the goats. 18 Some of you are not satisfied with eating the best grass; you even trample down what you don't eat! You drink the clear water and muddy what you don't drink! 19 My other sheep have to eat the grass you trample down and drink the water you muddy 20 "So now, I, the Sovereign LORD, tell you that I will judge between you strong sheep and the weak sheep [21]You pushed the sick ones aside and butted them away from the flock [22]But I will rescue my sheep and not let them be ill-treated any more I will judge each of my sheep and separate the good from the bad [23]I will give them a king like my servant David to be their one shepherd, and he will take care of them [24]I, the LORD, will be their God, and a king like my servant David will be their ruler I have spoken [25]I will make a covenant with them that guarantees their security I will get rid of all the dangerous animals in the land, so that my sheep can live safely in the fields and sleep in the forests 26 "I will bless them and let them live round my sacred hill [e] There I will bless them with showers of rain when they need it [27]The trees will bear fruit, the fields will produce crops, and everyone will live in safety on his own land When I break my people's chains and set them free from those who made them slaves, then they will know that I am the LORD [28]The heathen nations will not plunder them any more, and the wild animals will not kill and eat them They will live in safety, and no one will terrify them [29]I will give them fertile fields and put an end to hunger in the land The other nations will not sneer at them any more [30]Everyone will know that I protect Israel and that they are my people I, the Sovereign LORD, have

spoken 31 "You, my sheep, the flock that I feed, are my people, and I am your God," says the Sovereign LORD

God's Punishment of Edom

35 The LORD spoke to me [2]"Mortal country of Edom [3]Tell the people what I am your enemy, mountains of Edom!

I will make you a desolate waste 4 I will leave your cities in ruins And your land desolate,
Then you will know that I am the LORD

5 "You were Israel's constant enemy and let her people be slaughtered in the time of her disaster, the time of final punishment for her sins [6]So then—as surely as I, the Sovereign LORD, am the living God—death is your fate, and you cannot escape it You are guilty of [f] murder, and murder will follow you [7]I will make the hill-country of Edom a waste and kill everyone who travels through it [8]I will cover the mountains are killed in battle will cover the hills and

God's Blessing on Israel

36 The LORD said, "Mortal man, speak to the mountains of Israel and tell them to listen to the message which I, 2 the Sovereign LORD, have for them Israel's enemies gloated and said, 'Now those ancient hills are ours!'

3 "Prophesy, then, and announce what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying When the neighbouring nations captured and plundered the mountains of Israel, all of them insulted Israel 4 So now listen to what I, the Sovereign LORD, say to you mountains and hills, to you brooks and valleys, to you places that were left in ruins, and to you deserted cities which were plundered and mocked by all the surrounding nations

5 "I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken out in the heat of my anger against the surrounding nations, and especially against Edom With glee and contempt, they captured my land and took possession of its pastures

6 "So prophesy to the land of Israel, tell the mountains, hills, brooks, and valleys what I, the Sovereign LORD, am saying in jealous anger because of the way the nations have insulted and humiliated them 7 I, the Sovereign LORD, solemnly promise that the surrounding nations will be humiliated 8 But on the mountains of Israel the trees will again grow leaves and bear fruit for you, my people Israel You are going to come home soon 9 I am on your side, and I will make sure that your land is ploughed again and that seeds are sown there 10 I will make your population grow You will live in the cities and rebuild everything that was left in ruins 11 I will make people and cattle increase in number There will be more of you than ever before, and you will have many children I will let you live there as you used to live, and I will make you more prosperous than ever Then you will know that I am the LORD 12 I will bring you, my people Israel, back to live again in the land It will be your own land, and it will never again let your children starve

Israel's New Life

16 The LORD spoke to me 17 "Mortal man," he said, "when the Israelites were living in their land, they defiled it by the way they lived and acted I regarded their behaviour as being as ritually unclean as a woman is during her monthly period [g] 18 I let them feel the force of my anger because of the murders they had committed in the land and because of the idols by which they had defiled it 19 I condemned them for the way they lived and acted, and I scattered them through foreign countries 20 Wherever they went, they brought disgrace on my holy name, because people would say, 'These people had to leave the land their own God gave them ' 21 That made me concerned for my holy name, since the Israelites brought disgrace on it everywhere they went 22 "Now then, give the Israelites the message that I, the Sovereign LORD, have for them What I am going to do is not for the sake of you Israelites, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have disgraced in every country where you have gone 23 When I demonstrate to the nations the holiness of my great name—the name you disgraced among them—own land 25 I will sprinkle clean water on you and make you clean from all your idols and everything else that has defiled you 26 I will give you a new heart and a new mind I will take away your to disgrace you among the nations 31 You will remember your evil conduct and the wrongs that you committed, and you will be disgusted with yourselves because of your sins and your iniquities 32 Israel, I want you to know that I am not doing all this for your sake I want you to feel the shame and disgrace of what you are doing

I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken"

33 The Sovereign LORD says, "When I make you clean from all your sins, I will let you live in your cities again and let you rebuild the ruins 34 Everyone who used to walk by your fields saw how overgrown and wild they were, but I will let you farm them again 35 Everyone will say how this land, which was once a wilderness, has become like the Garden of Eden, and how the cities which were torn down, looted, and left in ruins, are now inhabited and fortified 36 Then the neighbouring nations that have survived will know that I, the LORD, rebuild ruined cities and replant waste fields I, the LORD, have promised that I would do this—and I will"

37 The Sovereign LORD says, "I will once again let the Israelites ask me for help, and I will let them increase in numbers like a flock of sheep 38 The cities that are now in ruins will then be as full of people as Jerusalem was once full of the sheep which were offered as sacrifices at a festival Then they will know that I am
the LORD"

The Valley of Dry Bones

37 I felt the powerful presence of the LORD, and his spirit took me and set me down in a valley where the ground was covered with bones 2 He led me all round the valley, and I could see that there were very many bones and that they were very dry 3 He said to me, "Mortal man, can these bones come back to life?"

I replied, "Sovereign LORD, only you can answer that!"

4 He said, "Prophesy to the bones Tell

36.26-28 Ezek 11 19-20

put breath into you and bring you back to life 6 I will give you sinews and muscles, and cover you with skin I will put breath into you and bring you back to life Then you will know that I am the LORD" 7 So I prophesied as I had been told While I was speaking, I heard a rattling noise, and the bones began to join together 8 While I watched, the bones were covered with sinews and muscles, and then with skin But there was no breath in the bodies 9 God said to me, "Mortal man, prophesy to the wind [h] Tell the wind that the Sovereign LORD commands it to come from every direction, to breathe into these dead bodies, and to bring them back to life"
10 So I prophesied as I had been told Breath entered the bodies, and they came to life and stood up There were enough of them to form an army 11 God said to me, "Mortal man, the people of Israel are like these bones They say that they are dried up, without any hope and with no future 12 So prophesy to my people Israel and tell them that I, the Sovereign LORD, am going to open their graves I am going to take them out and bring them back to the land of Israel 13 When I open the graves where my people are buried and bring them out, they will know that I am the LORD 14 I will put my breath in them, bring them back to life, and let them live in their own land Then they will know that I am the LORD I have promised that I would do this—and I will I, the LORD, have spoken"

Judah and Israel in One Kingdom

15 The LORD spoke to me again 16 "Mortal man," he said, "take a wooden stick and write on it the words, 'The kingdom of Judah' Then take another stick and write on it the words, 'The kingdom of Israel' 17 Then hold the two sticks end to end in your hand so that they look like one stick 18 When your people ask you to tell them what this means, 19 tell them that I, the Sovereign LORD, am going to take the stick representing Israel and put it with the one that represents Judah Out of the two I will make one stick and hold it in my hand 20 "Hold in your hand the two sticks and let the people see them 21 Then tell them that I, the Sovereign LORD, am going to take all my people out of the nations where they have gone, gather them together, and bring them back to their own land 22 I will unite them into one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel They will have one king to rule over them, and they will no longer be divided into two nations or split into two kingdoms 23 They will not defile themselves with disgusting idols any more or corrupt themselves with sin I will free them from all the ways in which they sin and betray me I will purify them, they will be my people, and I will be their God 24 A king like my servant David will be their king They will all be united under one ruler and will obey my laws faithfully 25 They will live on the land I gave to my servant Jacob, the land where their ancestors lived They will live there for ever, and so will their children and all their descendants A king like my servant David will rule over them for ever 26 I will make a covenant with them that guarantees their security for ever I will establish them and increase their population, and put my Temple in their land, where it will stay for ever 27 I will live there with them, I will be their God, and they will be my people 28 When I place my Temple there to be among them for ever, then the nations will know that I, the LORD, have chosen Israel to be my own people"

Gog as the Instrument of God

38 The LORD spoke to me 2 "Mortal man," he said, "denounce Gog, chief ruler of the nations of Meshech and Tubal in the land of Magog Denounce him, 3 and tell him that I, the Sovereign LORD, am his enemy 4 I will turn him round, put hooks in his jaws, and drag him and all his troops away His army, with its horses and uniformed riders, is enormous, and every soldier carries a shield and is armed with a sword 5 Men from Persia, Sudan, and Libya are with him, and all have shields and helmets 6 All the fighting men of the lands of Gomer and Beth Togarmah in the north are with him, and so are men from many other nations 7 Tell him to get ready and have all his troops ready at his command 8 After many years I will order him to invade a country where the people were brought back together from many nations and have lived without fear of war He will invade the mountains of Israel, which were desolate and deserted so long, but where all the people now live in safety 9 He and his army and the many nations with him will attack like a storm and cover the land like a cloud "

10 This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Gog "When that time comes, you will start thinking up an evil plan 11 You will decide to invade a helpless country where the people live in peace and security in unwalled towns that have no defences 12 You will plunder and loot the people who live in cities that were once in ruins They have been gathered from the nations, and now they have livestock and property and live at the crossroads of the world 13 The people of Sheba and Dedan and the merchants from the towns of Spain will ask you, 'Have you assembled your army and attacked in order to loot and plunder? Do you intend to get silver and gold, cattle and property, and to march off with all those spoils?' "

14 So the Sovereign LORD sent me to tell Gog what he was saying to him "Now while my people Israel live in security, you will set out[j] 15 from your place in the far north, leading a large, powerful army of soldiers from many nations, all of them on horseback 16 You will attack my people Israel like a storm moving across the land When the time comes, I will send you to invade my land in order to show the nations who I am, to show my holiness by what I do through you 17 You are the one I was talking about long ago, when I announced through my servants, the prophets of Israel, that in days to come I would bring someone to attack Israel" The Sovereign LORD has
spoken

God's Punishment of Gog

18 The Sovereign LORD says, "On the day when Gog invades Israel, I will be furious 19 I declare in the heat of my anger that on that day there will be a severe earthquake in the land of Israel 20 Every fish and bird, every animal large and small, and every human being on the face of the earth will tremble for fear of me Mountains will fall, cliffs will crumble, and every wall will collapse 21 I will terrify Gog with all sorts of calamities[k] I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken His men will turn their swords against one another 22 I will punish him with disease and bloodshed Torrents of rain and hail, together with fire and sulphur, will pour down on him and his army and on the many nations that are on his side 23 In this way I will show all the nations that I am great and that I am holy They will know then that I am the LORD"

The Defeat of Gog

39 The Sovereign LORD said, "Mortal man, denounce Gog, the chief ruler of the nations of Meshech and Tubal, and tell him that I am his enemy 2 I will turn him in a new direction and lead him out of the far north until he comes to the mountains of Israel 3 Then I will knock his bow out of his left hand and his arrows out of his right hand 4 Gog and his army and his allies will fall dead on the mountains of Israel, and I will let their bodies be food for all the birds and wild animals 5 They will fall dead in the open field I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken 6 I will start a fire in the land of Magog and along all the coasts where people live undisturbed, and everyone will know that I am the LORD 7 I will make sure that my people Israel know my holy name, and I will not let my name be disgraced any more Then the nations will know that I, the LORD, am the Holy God of Israel"

8 The Sovereign LORD said, "The day I spoke about is certain to come 9 The people who live in the cities of Israel will go out and collect the abandoned weapons for firewood They will build fires with the shields, bows, arrows, spears, and clubs, and will have enough to last for seven years 10 They will not have to gather firewood in the fields or cut down trees in the forest, because they will have the abandoned weapons to burn They will loot and plunder those who looted and plundered them" The Sovereign LORD has
spoken

The Burial of Gog

11 The LORD said, "When all this happens, I will give Gog a burial-ground there in Israel, in Travellers' Valley, east of the Dead Sea[l] Gog and all his army will be buried there, and the valley will be called 'The Valley of Gog's Army' 12 It will take the Israelites seven months to bury all the corpses and make the land clean again 13 Everyone in the land will help to bury them, and they will be honoured for this on the day of my victory I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken 14 After the seven months are over, men will be chosen to travel through the land in order to find and bury those bodies[m] remaining on the ground, so that they can make the land clean 15 As they go up and down the country, every time they find a human bone, they will put a marker beside it so that the grave-diggers can come and bury it in the Valley of Gog's Army 16 (There will be a town near by named after the army) And so the land will be made clean again " 17 The Sovereign LORD said to me,

"Mortal man, call all the birds and animals to come from all round to eat the sacrifice I am preparing for them It will be a huge feast on the mountains of Israel, where they can eat meat and drink blood 18 They are to eat the bodies of soldiers and drink the blood of the rulers of the earth, all of whom will be killed like rams or lambs or goats or fat bulls 19 When I kill these people like sacrifices, the birds and animals are to eat all the fat they can hold and to drink blood until they are drunk 20 At my table they will eat all they can hold of horses and their riders and of soldiers and fighting men I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken "

The Restoration of Israel

21 The LORD said, "I will let the nations see my glory and show them how I use my power to carry out my just decisions 22 The Israelites will know from then on that I am the LORD their God 23 And the nations will know that the Israelites went into exile because of the sins which they committed against me I turned away from them and let their enemies defeat them and kill them in battle 24 I gave them what they deserved for their uncleanness and their wickedness, and I turned away from them "
25 The Sovereign LORD said, "But now I will be merciful to Jacob's descendants, the people of Israel, and make them prosperous again I will protect my holy name 26 When they are once more living in safety in their own land, with no one to threaten them, they will be able to forget how they were disgraced for having betrayed me 27 In order to show the many nations that I am holy, I will bring my people back from all the countries where their enemies live 28 Then my people will know that I am the LORD their God They will know this, because I sent them into captivity and now gather them and bring them back into their own land, not leaving even one of them behind 29 I will pour out my spirit on the people of Israel and never again turn away from them I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken "

A VISION OF THE FUTURE TEMPLE (40 1–48 35)

Ezekiel Is Taken to Jerusalem

40 It was the tenth day of the new year, which was the twenty-fifth year after we had been taken into exile and the fourteenth year after Jerusalem was captured On that day I felt the powerful presence of the LORD, and he carried me away 2 In a vision God took me to the land of Israel and put me on a high mountain I saw in front of me[n] a group of buildings that looked like a city 3 He took me closer, and I saw a man who shone like bronze He was holding a linen tape-measure and a measuring-rod and was standing by a gateway 4 He said to me, "Watch, mortal man Listen carefully and pay close attention to everything I show you, because this is why you were brought here You are to tell the people of Israel everything you see "

The East Gate

5 What I saw was the Temple, and there was a wall round it The man took his measuring-rod, which was three metres long, and measured the wall It was three metres high and three metres thick 6 Then he went to the gateway that faced east He went up the steps, and at the top he measured the entrance, it was three metres deep [o] 7 Beyond it there was a passage, which had three guardrooms on each side Each of the rooms was square, three metres on each side, and the walls between them were two and a half metres thick. Beyond the guardrooms there was a passage three metres long that led to a large room which faced the Temple 8-9 He measured this room, and found it was four metres deep It formed that end of the gateway which was nearest the Temple, and at its far end the walls were one metre thick 10 (These guardrooms on each side of the passage were all the same size, and the walls between them were all of the same thickness) 11 Next, the man measured the width of the passage in the gateway It was six and a half metres altogether, and the space between the open gates was five metres 12 In front of each of the guard-rooms there was a low wall fifty centimetres high and fifty centimetres thick (The rooms were three metres square) 13 Then he measured the distance from the back wall of one room to the back wall of the room across the passage from it, and it was twelve and a half metres 14 The the rooms There were palm-trees carved on the inner walls that faced the passage

The Outer Courtyard

17 The man took me through the gateway into the courtyard. There were thirty rooms built against the outer wall, and in front of them there was an area paved with stones, 18 which extended round the courtyard This outer courtyard was at a lower level than the inner courtyard
19 There was a gateway at a higher level that led to the inner courtyard The man measured the distance between the two gateways, and it was fifty metres.[q]

The North Gate

20 Then the man measured the gateway on the north side that led into the outer courtyard 21 The three guardrooms on each side of the passage, the walls between them, and the large room all had courtyard 23 Across the courtyard from this north gateway was another gateway leading to the inner courtyard, just as there was on the east side The man measured the distance between these two gateways, and it was fifty metres

The South Gate

24 Next, the man took me to the south side, and there we saw another gateway He measured it, and it was the same as the others 25 There were windows in the rooms of this gateway just as in the others The total length of the gateway was twenty-five metres, and the width twelve and a half metres 26 Seven steps led up to it, and its large room was also at the end facing the courtyard There were palm-trees carved on the inner walls that faced the passage 27 Here, too, there was a gateway leading to the inner courtyard The man measured the distance to this second gateway, and it was fifty metres

The Inner Courtyard. The South Gate

28 The man took me through the south gateway into the inner courtyard He measured the gateway, and it was the same size as the gateways in the outer wall 29-30 Its guardrooms, its large room, and its inner walls were the same size as those in the other gateways There were also windows in the rooms of this gateway The total length was twenty-five metres and the width twelve and a half metres 31 Its large room faced the other courtyard, and palm-trees were carved on the walls along the passage Eight steps led up to this gate

The Inner Courtyard. The East Gate

32 The man took me through the east gateway into the inner courtyard He
measured the gateway, and it was the same size as the others 33 Its guardrooms, its large room, and its inner walls measured the same as those in the other gateways There were windows all round, and in the large room also The total length was twenty-five metres and the width twelve and a half metres 34 The large room faced the outer courtyard Palm-trees were carved on the walls along the passage Eight steps led up to this gate

The Inner Courtyard. The North Gate

35 Then the man took me to the north gateway He measured it, and it was the same size as the others 36 Like them, it also had guardrooms, decorated inner walls, a large room, and windows all round Its total length was twenty-five metres and its width twelve and a half metres 37 The large room[r] faced the outer courtyard Palm-trees were carved on the walls along the passage Eight steps led up to this gate

Buildings Near the North Gate

38 In the outer courtyard there was an annexe attached to the inner gateway on the north side It opened into the large room that faced the courtyard, and there they washed the carcasses of the animals to be burnt whole as sacrifices 39 In this large room there were four tables, two on each side of the room It was on these tables that they killed the animals to be offered as sacrifices, either to be burnt whole or to be sacrifices for sin or as repayment-offerings 40 Outside the room there were four similar tables, two on either side of the entrance of the north gate 41 Altogether there were eight tables on which the animals to be sacrificed were killed four inside the room and four out in the courtyard 42 The four tables in the annexe, used to prepare the offerings to be burnt whole, were of cut stone They were fifty centimetres high, and their tops were seventy-five centimetres square All the equipment used in killing the sacrificial animals was kept on these tables 43 Ledges seventy-five millimetres wide ran round the edge of the tables All the meat to be offered in sacrifice was placed on the tables[s]

44 Then he brought me into the inner courtyard There were two rooms opening on the inner courtyard, one facing south beside the north gateway and the other facing north beside the south gateway[t] 45 The man told me that the room which faced south was for the priests who served in the Temple, 46 and the room which faced north was for the priests who served at the altar All the priests are descended from Zadok, they are the only members of the tribe of Levi who are permitted to go into the LORD's presence to serve
him

The Inner Courtyard and the Temple Buildıng

47 The man measured the ınner courtyard, and ıt was fifty metres square The Temple was on the west sıde, and ın front of ıt was an altar 48 Then he took me ınto the entrance room of the Temple He measured the entrance ıt was two thıck on eıther sıde 49 Steps led up to the entrance room, whıch was ten metres wıde and sıx metres deep There were two columns, one on each sıde of the entrance 41 Next, the man took me ınto the central room, the Holy Place He Then he saıd to me, "Thıs ıs the Most Holy Place"

The Rooms Buılt agaınst the Temple Walls

5 The man measured the thıckness of the ınner wall of the temple buıldıng, and ıt was three metres Agaınst thıs wall, all round the Temple, was a serıes of small rooms two metres wıde 6 These rooms were ın three storeys, wıth thırty rooms on each floor The Temple's outer wall on each floor was thınner than on the floor below, so that the rooms could rest on the wall wıthout beıng anchored ınto from the outsıde, seemed to have the same thıckness all the way to the top Agaınst the Temple's outer wall, on the outsıde of the rooms, two wıde staırways were buılt, so that ıt was possıble to go from the lower storey to the mıddle and the upper storeys[x] 8-11 The outsıde wall of these rooms was two and a half metres thıck, there was one door ınto the rooms on the north sıde of the Temple, and one ınto those on the south sıde I saw that there was a terrace two and a half metres wıde all round the Temple, ıt was three metres above the ground and ıt was level wıth the foundatıon of the rooms by the temple walls Between the terrace and the buıldıngs used by the prıests there was an open space ten metres across, along the sıdes of the Temple

The Buıldıng on the West

12 At the far end of the open space on the west sıde of the Temple there was a buıldıng forty-five metres long and thırty-five metres wıde, ıts walls were two and a half metres thıck all round

The Total Measurements of the Temple Buıldıng

13 The man measured the outsıde of the Temple, and ıt was fifty metres long And from the back of the Temple, across the open space to the far sıde of the buıldıng to the west, the dıstance was also fifty metres 14 The dıstance across the front of the Temple, ıncludıng the open space on eıther sıde, was also fifty metres 15 He measured the length of the buıldıng to the west, ıncludıng ıts corrıdors on both sıdes, and ıt was also fifty metres

Detaıls of the Temple Buıldıng

The entrance room of the Temple, the Holy Place, and the Most Holy Place 16 were all panelled wıth wood from the floor to the wındows These wındows could be covered[z] 17 The ınsıde walls of the Temple, up as hıgh as above the doors, were completely covered wıth carvıngs[a] 18 of palm-trees and wınged anımals Palm-trees alternated wıth anımals, one followıng the other, all the way round the room Each anımal had two faces 19 a human face that was turned towards the palm-tree on one sıde, and a lıon's face that was turned towards the tree on the other sıde It was lıke thıs all round the wall, 20 from the floor to above the doors 21 The door-posts of the Holy Place were square

The Wooden Altar

In front of the entrance of the Most Holy Place there was somethıng that

The Doors

23 There was a door at the end of the passage leading to the Holy Place and one also at the end of the passage leading to the Most Holy Place [24]They were double doors that swung open in the middle [25]There were palm-trees and winged animals carved on the doors of the Holy Place, just as there were on the walls And there was a wooden covering over the outside of the doorway of the entrance room [26]At the sides of this room there were windows, and the walls were decorated with palm-trees [e]

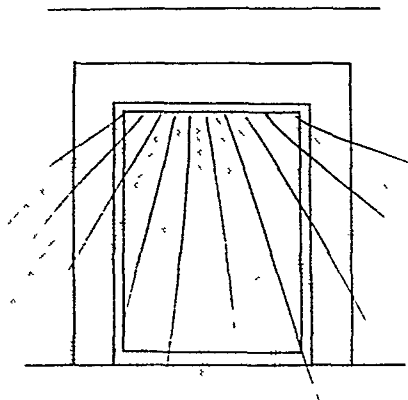
Two Buildings Near the Temple

42 Then the man took me into the outer courtyard and led me to a building on the north side of the Temple, not far from the building at the west end of the Temple [2]This building was fifty metres long and twenty-five metres wide [3]On one side it faced the space ten metres wide which was alongside the Temple, and on the other side it faced the pavement of the outer court It was built on three levels, each one set further back than the one below it. [4]Along the north side of this building was a passage five metres wide and fifty metres long,[f] with entrances on that side [5]The rooms at the upper level of the building were narrower than those at the middle and lower levels because they were set further back [6]The rooms at all three levels were on terraces and were not supported by columns like the other buildings in the courtyard [7-8]At the lower level the outer wall of the building was solid for twenty-five metres, half its length, and there were rooms in the remaining twenty-five metres At the top level there were rooms in the entire length of the building [9-10]Below these two rooms at the east end of the building, where the wall began, there was an entrance into the outer courtyard

At the south[h] side of the Temple there was an identical building not far from the building at the west end of the Temple [11]In front of the rooms there was a passage just like the one on the north side It had the same measurements, the same design, and the same kind of entrances [12]There was a door under the rooms on the south side of the building, at the east end where the wall began

13 The man said to me, "Both these buildings are holy In them the priests who enter the LORD's presence eat the holiest offerings Because the rooms are holy, the priests will place the holiest offerings there the grain-offerings and the sacrifices offered for sin or as repayment-offerings [14]When priests have been in the Temple and want to go to the outer courtyard, they must leave in these rooms the holy clothing they wore while serving the LORD They must put on other clothes before going out to the area where the people gather "

The Measurements of the Temple Area



15 When the man had finished measuring inside the temple area, he took me out through the east gate and then measured the outside of the area [16]He took the measuring-rod and measured the east side, and it was 250 metres [17-19]Then he measured the north side, the south side, and the west side, each side had the same length, 250 metres,[i] [20]so that the wall enclosed a square 250 metres on each side The wall served to separate what was holy from what was not

The LORD Returns to the Temple

43 The man took me to the gate that faces east, [2]and there I saw coming from the east the dazzling light of the presence of the God of Israel God's voice sounded like the roar of the sea, and the earth shone with the dazzling light [3]This vision was like the one I had seen when God came to destroy Jerusalem, and the one I saw by the River Chebar Then I threw myself face downwards on the ground [4]The dazzling light passed through the east gate and went into the Temple

5 The LORD's spirit lifted me up and took me into the inner courtyard, where I saw that the Temple was filled with the glory of the LORD [6]The man stood beside me there, and I heard the LORD speak to me out of the Temple [7]"Mortal man, here is my throne I will live here among the door-posts of their palace right against the thresholds and door-posts of my Temple, so that there was only a wall between us They disgraced my holy name by all the disgusting things they did, and so in my anger I destroyed them 9 Now they must stop worshipping other gods and remove the corpses of their kings [k] If they do, I will live among them for ever" 10 And the LORD continued, "Mortal man, tell the people of Israel about the Temple, and let them study its plan Make them ashamed of their sinful actions 11 Then if they are ashamed of what they have done, explain the plan of the Temple to them its design, its entrances and exits, its shape, the arrangement of everything, and all its rules and regulations Write all this down for them so that they can see how everything is arranged and can carry out all the rules 12 This is the law of the Temple All the area surrounding it on the top of the mountain is sacred and holy"

The Altar

13 These are the measurements of the altar, using the same unit of measurement as in measuring the Temple All round the base of the altar there was a gutter fifty centimetres deep and fifty centimetres wide, with a rim at the outside edge twenty-five centimetres high 14 The lowest section of the altar, from the top of the base, was one metre high The next section was set back from the edge fifty centimetres all round, and was two metres high The section after that was also set back from the edge fifty centimetres all round 15 This top section, on which the sacrifices were burnt, was also two metres high The projections on the four corners were higher than the rest of the top 16 The top of the altar was a square, six metres on each side 17 The middle section was also a square, seven metres on each side, with a rim at the outside edge twenty-five centimetres high (The gutter was fifty centimetres wide) The steps going up the altar were on the east side

The Consecration of the Altar

18 The Sovereign LORD said to me,
"Mortal man, listen to what I tell you When the altar is built, you are to dedicate it by burning sacrifices on it and by sprinkling on it the blood of the animals that were sacrificed 19 Those priests belonging to the tribe of Levi who are descended from Zadok are the only ones who are to come into my presence to serve me I, the Sovereign LORD, command this You will give them a young bull to offer as a sacrifice for sin 20 You are to take some of its blood and put it on the projections on the top corners of the altar, and on the corners of the middle section of the altar, and all round its edges In this way you will purify the altar and consecrate it 21 You are to take the bull that is offered as a sacrifice for sin and burn it at the specified place outside the temple area 22 The next day you are to take a male goat without any defects and offer it as a sacrifice for sin Purify the altar with its blood in the same way as you did with the bull 23 When you have finished doing that, take a young bull and a young ram, both of them without any defects, 24 and bring them to me The priests will sprinkle salt on them and burn them as an offering to me 25 Each day for seven days you are to offer a goat, a bull, and a ram as sacrifices for sin All of them must be without any defects 26 For seven days the priests are to consecrate the altar and make it ready for use 27 When the week is over, the priests are to begin offering on the altar the burnt-offerings and the fellowship-offerings of the people Then I will be pleased with all of you I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken "

The Use of the East Gate

44 The man led me to the outer gate at the east side of the temple area The gate was closed, 2 and the LORD said to me, "This gate will stay closed and will never be opened No human being is allowed to use it, because I, the LORD God of Israel, have entered through it It is to remain closed 3 The ruling prince, however, may go there to eat a holy meal in my presence He is to enter and leave the gateway through the large room at the inner end "

Rules for Admission to the Temple

4 Then the man took me through the north gate to the front of the Temple As I looked, I saw that the Temple of the LORD was filled with the dazzling light of his presence I threw myself face downwards on the ground, 5 and the LORD said to me, "Mortal man, pay attention to everything you see and hear I am going to tell you the rules and regulations for the Temple Note carefully which persons are allowed to go in and out of the Temple and which persons are not 6 "Tell those rebellious people of Israel that I, the Sovereign LORD, will no longer tolerate the disgusting things that they have been doing 7 They have profaned my Temple by letting uncircumcised foreigners, people who do not obey me, enter the Temple when the fat and the blood of the sacrifices are being offered to me So my people have broken my covenant by all the disgusting things they have done 8 They have not taken charge of the sacred rituals in my Temple, but instead have put foreigners in charge 9 "I, the Sovereign LORD, declare that no uncircumcised foreigner, no one who disobeys me, will enter my Temple, not even a foreigner who lives among the people of Israel "

The Levites Are Excluded from the Priesthood

10 The LORD said to me, "I am punishing those Levites who, together with the rest of the people of Israel, deserted me and worshipped idols 11 They may serve me in the Temple by taking charge of the gates and by performing the work of the Temple They may kill the animals which the people offer for burnt-offerings and for sacrifices, and they are to be on duty to serve the people 12 But because they conducted the worship of idols for the people of Israel and in this way led the people into sin, I, the Sovereign LORD, solemnly swear that they must be punished 13 They are not to serve me as priests or to go near anything that is holy to me or to enter the Most Holy Place This is the punishment for the disgusting things they have done 14 I am assigning to them the menial work that is to be done in the Temple "

The Priests

15 The Sovereign LORD said, "Those priests belonging to the tribe of Levi who are descended from Zadok, however, continued to serve me faithfully in the Temple when the rest of the people of Israel turned away from me So now they are the ones who are to serve me and come into my presence to offer me the fat and the blood of the sacrifices 16 They alone will enter my Temple, serve at my altar, and conduct the temple worship 17 When they enter the gateway to the inner courtyard of the Temple, they are to put on linen clothing They must not wear anything made of wool when they are on duty in the inner courtyard or in the Temple 18 So that they won't perspire, they are to wear linen turbans and linen trousers, but no belt 19 Before they go to the outer courtyard where the people are, they must first take off the clothes they wore on duty in the Temple and leave them in the holy rooms They are to put on other clothing in order to keep their sacred clothing from harming the people [l] 20 "Priests must neither shave their heads nor let their hair grow long They are to keep it a proper length 21 Priests must not drink any wine before going into the inner courtyard 22 No priest may marry a divorced woman, he is to marry only an Israelite virgin or the widow of another priest.

23 "The priests are to teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is not, and between what is ritually clean and what is not. 24 When a legal dispute arises, the priests are to decide the case according to my laws. They are to keep the religious festivals according to my rules and regulations, and they are to keep the Sabbaths holy.
25 "A priest is not to become ritually unclean by touching a corpse, unless it is one of his parents, one of his children or a brother or an unmarried sister.
26 After he has become clean again, he must wait seven days 27 and then go into the inner courtyard of the Temple and offer a sacrifice for his purification, so that he can serve in the Temple again.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken.
28 "The priests have the priesthood as their share of what I have given Israel to be handed down from one generation to another. They are not to hold property in Israel; I am all they need. 29 The grain-offerings, the sin-offerings and the repayment-offerings will be the priests' food, and they are to receive everything in Israel that is set apart for me. 30 The priests are to have the best of all the first harvest and of everything else that is offered to me.
Each time the people bake bread, they are to give the priests the first loaf as an offering, and my blessing will rest on their homes. 31 The priests must not eat any bird or animal that dies a natural death or is killed by another animal."

The LORD's Portion of the Country

45 When the land is divided to give each tribe a share, one part is to be dedicated to the LORD. It is to be twelve and a half kilometres long by ten kilometres[m] wide. The entire area will be holy. 2 In this area there is to be a square plot of land for the Temple, 250 metres along each side, entirely surrounded by an open space twenty-five metres wide.
3 Half of this area, a section twelve and a half kilometres by five kilometres, is to be measured off; it will contain the Temple, the holiest [illegible] 4 It will be a holy part of the country, set aside for the priests who serve the LORD in his Temple. It will contain their houses and the section of land for the Temple. 5 The other half of the area is to be set aside as the possession of the Levites, who do the work in the Temple. There will be towns there for them to live in.[n] 6 Next to the holy area, another section, twelve and a half kilometres long and two and a half kilometres wide, is to be set aside for a city where any of the people of Israel may live.

Land for the Prince

7 Land is also to be set aside for the ruling prince. From the western boundary of the holy area it will extend west to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the eastern boundary it will extend to the eastern border of the country, so that its length will be the same as the length of one of the areas allotted to the tribes of Israel. 8 This area will be the share the ruling prince will have in the land of Israel, so that he will no longer oppress the people, but will let the rest of the country belong to the tribes of Israel.

Rules for the Prince

9 The Sovereign LORD said, "You have sinned too long, you rulers of Israel! Stop your violence and oppression. Do what is right and just. You must never again drive my people off their land. I, the Sovereign LORD, am telling you this.
10 "Everyone must use honest weights and measures.
11 "The ephah for dry measure is to be equal to the bath for liquid measure.
The standard is the homer.[o] The resulting measures are as follows: 1 homer = 10 ephahs = 10 baths 12 "Your weights are to be as follows: 20 gerahs = 1 shekel[p] 60 shekels = 1 mina 13–15 "This is the basis on which you are to make your offerings: Wheat: 1/60th of your harvest Barley: 1/60th of your harvest Olive-oil: 1/100th of the yield of your trees (Measure it by the bath: 10 baths = 1 homer = 1 kor.)

Sheep 1 sheep out of every 200
"You are to bring grain-offerings, animals to be burnt whole, and animals for fellowship-offerings, so that your sins will be forgiven I, the Sovereign LORD, command it 16 'All the people of the land must take[q] these offerings to the ruling prince of Israel 17 It will be his duty to provide the animals to be burnt whole, the grain-offerings, and the wine-offerings for the whole nation of Israel at the New Moon Festivals, the Sabbaths, and the other festivals He is to provide the sin-offerings, the grain-offerings, the offerings to be burnt whole, and the fellowship-offerings, to take away the sins of the people of Israel "

The Festivals
(Ex 12 1-20, Lev 23 33-43)

18 The Sovereign LORD said, "On the first day of the first month you are to sacrifice a bull without any defects and purify the Temple 19 The priest will take some of the blood of this sin-offering and put it on the door-posts of the Temple, on the four corners of the altar, and on the posts of the gateways to the inner courtyard 20 On the seventh day of the month you are to do the same thing on behalf of anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance In this way, you will keep the Temple holy 21 "On the fourteenth day of the first month you will begin the celebration of the Passover Festival For seven days everyone will eat bread made without yeast 22 On the first day of the festival the ruling prince must offer a bull as a sacrifice for his sins and for those of all the people 23 On each of the seven days of the festival he is to sacrifice to the LORD seven bulls and seven rams without any defects and burn them whole He is also to sacrifice a male goat each day as a sin-offering 24 For each bull and each ram that is sacrificed, there is to be an offering of seventeen and a half litres of corn and three litres of olive-oil 25 "For the Festival of Shelters, which begins on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, the prince will offer on each of the seven days the same sacrifice for sin, the same offerings to be burnt whole, and the same offerings of corn and olive-oil "

The Prince and the Festivals

46 The Sovereign LORD says, "The east gateway to the inner courtyard must be kept closed during the six working days, but it is to be opened on the Sabbath and at the New Moon Festival 2 The ruling prince will go from the outer courtyard into the large room in the gateway and stand beside the posts of the gate while the priests burn his sacrifices whole and offer his fellowship-offerings There at the gate he must worship and then go out again The gate must not be shut until evening 3 Each Sabbath and each New Moon Festival all the people are also to bow down and worship the LORD in front of the gate 4 On the Sabbath the prince is to bring to the LORD, as sacrifices to be burnt whole, six lambs and one ram, all without any defects 5 With each ram he is to bring an offering of seventeen and a half litres of corn, and with each lamb he is to bring whatever he wants to give For each such grain-offering he is to bring three litres of olive-oil 6 At the New Moon Festival he will offer a young bull, six lambs, and a ram, all without any defects 7 With each bull and each ram the offering is to be seventeen and a half litres of corn, and with each lamb the offering is to be whatever the prince wants to give Three litres of olive-oil are to be offered with each such grain-offering of corn 8 The prince must leave the large room of the gateway and go out by the same way as he went in 9 "When the people come to worship the LORD at any festival, those who enter by the north gate are to leave by the south gate after they have worshipped, and those who enter by the south gate are to leave by the north gate No one may go out by the same way as he entered, but must leave by the opposite gate 10 The prince is to come in when the people come, and leave when they leave 11 On the feast days and at the festivals the grain-offering will be seventeen and a half litres with each bull or ram, and whatever the worshipper wants to give with each lamb Three litres of olive-oil are to be offered with each such grain-offering 12 "When the ruling prince wants to make a voluntary offering to the LORD, either an offering to be burnt whole or a fellowship-offering, the east gate to the inner courtyard will be opened for him He is to make the offering in the same way as he does on the Sabbath, and the gate is to be closed after he goes out

again "

The Daily Offering

13 The LORD says, "Every morning a one-year-old lamb without any defects is to be burnt whole as an offering to the LORD This offering must be made every day 14 Also an offering of two kilogrammes of flour is to be made every morning, together with one litre of olive-oil for mixing with the flour The rules for this offering to the LORD are to be in force for ever 15 The lamb, the flour, and the olive-oil are to be offered to the LORD every morning for ever "

The Prince and the Land

16 The Sovereign LORD commands "If the ruling prince gives any of the land he owns to one of his sons as a present, it will belong to that son as a part of his family property 17 But if the ruling prince gives any of his land to anyone who is in his service, it will become the prince's property again when the Year of Restoration[t] comes round It belongs to him, and only he and his sons can own it permanently 18 The ruling prince must not take any of the people's property away from them Any land he gives to his sons must be from the land that is assigned to him, so that he will not oppress any of my people by taking their land "

The Temple Kitchens

19 Then the man took me to the entrance of the rooms facing north near the gate on the south side of the inner courtyard These are holy rooms for the priests He pointed out a place on the west side of the rooms 20 and said, "This is the place where the priests are to boil the meat offered as sacrifices for sin or as repayment-offerings, and to bake the offerings of flour, so that nothing holy is carried to the outer courtyard, where it might harm the people "[u] 21–22 Then he led me to the outer courtyard and showed me that in each of its four corners there was a smaller courtyard, twenty metres long and fifteen metres wide 23 Each one had a stone wall round it, with fireplaces built against the wall 24 The man told me, "These are the kitchens where the temple servants are to boil the sacrifices the people offer "

The Stream Flowing from the Temple

47 The man led me back to the entrance of the Temple Water was coming out from under the entrance and flowing east, the direction the Temple faced It was flowing down from under the south part of the temple past the south side of the altar 2 The man then took me out of the temple area by way of the north gate and led me round to the gate that faces east A small stream of water was flowing out at the south side of the gate 3 With his measuring-rod the man measured five hundred metres downstream to the east and told me to wade through the stream there The water came only to my ankles 4 Then he measured another five hundred metres, and the water came up to my knees Another five hundred metres further down, the water was up to my waist 5 He measured five hundred metres more, and there the stream was so deep I could not wade through it It was too deep to cross except by swimming 6 He said to me, "Mortal man, note all this carefully " Then the man took me back to the bank of the river, 7 and when I got there I saw that there were very many trees on each bank 8 He said to me, "This water flows through the land to the east and down into the Jordan Valley and to the Dead Sea When it flows into the Dead Sea, it replaces the salt water of that sea with fresh water 9 Wherever the stream flows, there will be all kinds of animals and fish The stream will make the water of the Dead Sea fresh, and wherever it flows, it will bring life 10 From the Springs of Engedi all the way to the Springs of Eneglaim, there will be fishermen on the shore of the sea, and they will spread out their nets there to dry There will be as many different kinds of fish there as there are in the Mediterranean Sea 11 But the water in the marshes and ponds along the shore will not be made fresh They will remain there as a source of salt 12 On each bank of the stream all kinds of trees will never wither, and they will never stop bearing fruit They will have fresh fruit every month, because they are watered by the stream that flows from the Temple The trees will provide food, and their leaves will be used for healing people "

The Boundaries of the Land

13 The Sovereign LORD said, "These are the boundaries of the land that is to be divided among the twelve tribes, with the tribe of Joseph receiving two sections [v] 14 I solemnly promised your ancestors that I would give them possession of this land, now divide it equally among you 15 "The northern boundary runs eastwards from the Mediterranean Sea to the city of Hethlon, to Hamath Pass, to the city of Zedad 16 to the cities of Berothah and Sibraim (they are located between the territory of the kingdom of Damascus and that of the kingdom of Hamath), and to the city of Ticon (located by the border of the kingdom of Hauran) 17 So the northern boundary runs from the Mediterranean eastwards to the city of Enon, with the border regions of Damascus and Hamath to the north of it 18 "The eastern boundary runs south from a point between the territory of Damascus and that of Hauran, with the River Jordan forming the boundary between the land of Israel on the west and Gilead on the east, as far as Tamar [w] on the Dead Sea
19 "The southern boundary runs southwest from Tamar to the oasis of Kadesh, and then north-west along the Egyptian border to the Mediterranean Sea 20 "The western boundary is formed by the Mediterranean and runs north to a point west of Hamath Pass 21 "Divide this land among your tribes, 22 it is to be your permanent possession The foreigners who are living among you and who have had children born here are also to receive their share of the land when you divide it They are to be treated like full Israelite citizens and are to draw lots for shares of the land along with the tribes of Israel 23 Each foreign resident will receive his share with the people of the tribe among whom he is living I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken "

The Division of the Land among the Tribes 48 1-7 The northern boundary of the land runs eastwards from the Mediterranean Sea to the city of Hethlon, to Hamath Pass, to the city of Enon, to the boundary between the kingdoms of Damascus and Hamath Each tribe is to receive one section of land extending from the eastern boundary westwards to the Mediterranean Sea, in the following order from north to south

Dan
Asher
Naphtali
Manasseh
Ephraim
Reuben
Judah

The Special Section in the Centre of the Land

8 The next section of the land is to be

[v] TWO SECTIONS The tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim, the sons of Joseph, were each given one section [w] Some ancient translations Tamar, Hebrew unclear set apart for special use It is to be twelve and a half kilometres wide from north to south, and the same length from east to west as the sections given to the tribes The Temple will be in this section 9 In the centre of this section, a special area twelve and a half kilometres by ten kilometres[x] is to be dedicated to the LORD 10 The priests are to have a portion of this holy area From east to west their portion is to measure twelve and a half kilometres, and from north to south, five kilometres The Temple of the LORD is to be in the middle of this area 11 This holy area is to be for the priests who are descendants of Zadok They served me faithfully and did not join the rest of the Israelites in doing wrong, as the other members of the tribe of Levi did 12 So they are to have a special area next to the area belonging to the Levites, and it will be the holiest of all 13 The Levites also are to have a special area, south of that of the priests It too is to be twelve and a half kilometres from east to west, by five kilometres from north to south 14 The area dedicated to the LORD is the best part of all the land, and none of it may be sold or exchanged or transferred to anyone else It is holy and belongs to the

15 The part of the special area that is left, twelve and a half kilometres by two and a half kilometres, is not holy, but is for the general use of the people They may live there and use the land The city is to be in the centre of it, 16 and it will be a square, measuring 2,250 metres on each side 17 All round the city on each side there will be an open space 125 metres across 18 The land that is left after the city has been built in the area immediately to the south of the holy area—five kilometres by two and a half kilometres on the east and five kilometres by two and a half kilometres on the west—is to be used as farm land by the people who live in the city 19 Anyone who lives in the city, no matter which tribe he comes from, may farm that land 20 And so the total area in the centre of the section which was set apart will be a square measuring twelve and a half kilometres on each side, and it will include the area occupied by the city 21–22 To the east and to the west of this area which contains the Temple, the priests' land, the Levites' land, and the city, the remaining land belongs to the ruling prince It extends eastwards to the eastern boundary and westwards to the Mediterranean Sea, and is bounded on the north by the section belonging to Judah and on the south by the section belonging to Benjamin

Land for the Other Tribes

23–27 South of this special section, each of the remaining tribes is to receive one section of land running from the eastern boundary westwards to the Mediterranean Sea, in the following order from north to south

Benjamin
Simeon
Issachar
Zebulun
Gad

28 On the south side of the portion given to the tribe of Gad, the boundary runs south-west from Tamar to the oasis of Kadesh, and then north-west along the Egyptian border to the Mediterranean Sea 29 The Sovereign LORD said, "That is the way the land is to be divided into sections for the tribes of Israel to possess "

The Gates of Jerusalem

30–34 There are twelve entrances to the city of Jerusalem Each of the four walls measures 2,250 metres and has three gates in it, each named after one of the tribes The gates in the north wall are named after Reuben, Judah, and Levi, those in the east wall, after Joseph, Benjamin, and Dan, those in the south wall, after Simeon, Issachar, and Zebulun, and those in the west wall are named after Gad, Asher, and Naphtali 35 The total length of the wall on all four sides of the city is nine thousand metres The name of the city from now on will be,
"The-LORD-Is-Here!"

DANIEL

INTRODUCTION

The book of Daniel was written during a time when the Jews were suffering greatly under the persecution and oppression of a pagan king Using stories and accounts of visions, the writer encourages the people of his time with the hope that God will bring the tyrant down and restore sovereignty to God's people

The book has two main parts (1) Stories about Daniel and some of his fellow-exiles, who through their faith in God and obedience to him triumph over their enemies These stories are set in the time of the Babylonian and Persian Empires (2) A series of visions seen by Daniel, which in the form of symbols present the successive rise and fall of several empires, beginning with Babylonia, and predict the downfall of the pagan oppressor and the victory of God's people

THE STORY OF DANIEL AND HIS FRIENDS
(1 1—6 28)

The Young Men at Nebuchadnezzar's Court

1 In the third year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia attacked Jerusalem and surrounded the city 2 The Lord let him capture King Jehoiakim and seize some of the temple treasures He took some prisoners back with him to the temple of his gods in Babylon, and put the captured treasures in the temple storerooms 3 The king ordered Ashpenaz, his chief official, to select from among the Israelite exiles some young men of the royal family and of the noble families 4 They had to be handsome, intelligent, well-trained, quick to learn, and free from physical defects, so that they would be qualified to serve in the royal court Ashpenaz was to teach them to read and write the Babylonian language 5 The king also gave orders that every day they were to be given the same food and wine as the members of the royal court After three years of this training they were to appear before the king 6 Among those chosen were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, all of whom were from the tribe of Judah 7 The chief official gave them new names Belteshazzar, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego 8 Daniel made up his mind not to let himself become ritually unclean by eating the food and drinking the wine of the royal court, so he asked Ashpenaz to help him, 9 and God made Ashpenaz sympathetic to Daniel 10 Ashpenaz, however, was afraid of the king, so he said to Daniel, "The king has decided what you are to eat and drink, and if you don't look as fit as the other young men, he may kill me " 11 So Daniel went to the guard whom Ashpenaz had placed in charge of him and his three friends 12 "Test us for ten days," he said "Give us vegetables to eat and water to drink 13 Then compare us with the young men who are eating the food of the royal court, and base your decision on how we look " 14 He agreed to let them try it for ten days 15 When the time was up, they looked healthier and stronger than all those who had been eating the royal food 16 So from then on the guard let them continue to eat vegetables instead of what the king provided 17 God gave the four young men knowledge and skill in literature and philosophy In addition, he gave Daniel skill in interpreting visions and dreams 18 At the end of the three years set by the king, Ashpenaz took all the young men to Nebuchadnezzar 19 The king talked with them all, and Daniel, Hana-niah, Mishael, and Azariah impressed him more than any of the others So they became members of the king's court 20 No matter what question the king asked, or what problem he raised, these four knew ten times more than any fortune-teller or magician in his whole kingdom 21 Daniel remained at the royal court until King Cyrus of Persia conquered Babylonia

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 In the second year that Nebuchadnezzar was king, he had a dream It worried him so much that he couldn't sleep, 2 so he sent for his fortune-tellers, magicians, sorcerers, and wizards to come and explain the dream to him When they came and stood before the king, 3 he said to them, "I'm worried about a dream I have had I want to know what it means " 4 They answered the king in Aramaic,[a] "May Your Majesty live for ever! Tell us your dream, and we will explain it to
you "
5 The king said to them, "I have made up my mind that you must tell me the dream and then tell me what it means If you can't, I'll have you torn limb from limb and make your houses a pile of ruins 6 But if you can tell me both the dream and its meaning, I will reward you with gifts and great honour Now then, tell me what the dream was and what it means " 7 They answered the king again, "If Your Majesty will only tell us what the dream was, we will explain it " 8 At that, the king exclaimed, "Just as I thought! You are trying to gain time, because you see that I have made up my mind 9 to give all of you the same punishment if you don't tell me the dream You have agreed among yourselves to go on telling me lies because you hope that in time things will change Tell me what the dream was, and then I will know that you can also tell me what it means " 10 The advisers replied, "There is no one on the face of the earth who can tell Your Majesty what you want to know No king, not even the greatest and most powerful, has ever made such a demand of his fortune-tellers, magicians, and wizards 11 What Your Majesty is asking for is so difficult that no one can do it for you except the gods, and they do not live among human beings " 12 At that, the king flew into a rage and ordered the execution of all the royal advisers in Babylon 13 So the order was issued for all of them to be killed, including Daniel and his friends

God Shows Daniel What the Dream Means

14 Then Daniel went to Arioch, commander of the king's bodyguard, who had been ordered to carry out the execution Choosing his words carefully, 15 he asked Arioch why the king had issued such a harsh order So Arioch told Daniel what had happened 16 Daniel went at once and obtained royal permission for more time, so that he could tell the king what the dream meant 17 Then Daniel went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Aza-riah what had happened 18 He told them to pray to the God of heaven for mercy and to ask him to explain the mystery to them so that they would not be killed along with the other advisers in Babylon 19 Then that same night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision, and he praised the God of heaven.

20 "God is wise and powerful! praise him for ever and ever.
21 He controls the times and the seasons; he makes and unmakes kings; it is he who gives wisdom and understanding.
22 He reveals things that are deep and secret;
he knows what is hidden in darkness, and he himself is surrounded by light.
23 I praise you and honour you, God of my ancestors.
You have given me wisdom and strength;
you have answered my prayer and shown us what to tell the king."

Daniel Tells the King the Dream and Explains It

24 So Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had commanded to execute the royal advisers. He said to him, "Don't put them to death. Take me to the king, and I will tell him what his dream means." 25 At once Arioch took Daniel into King Nebuchadnezzar's presence and told the king, "I have found one of the Jewish exiles, who can tell Your Majesty the meaning of your dream." 26 The king said to Daniel (who was also called Belteshazzar), "Can you tell me what I dreamt and what it means?" 27 Daniel replied, "Your Majesty, there is no wizard, magician, fortune-teller, or astrologer who can tell you that.
28 But there is a God in heaven, who reveals mysteries. He has informed Your Majesty what will happen in the future. Now I will tell you the dream, the vision you had while you were asleep.
29 "While Your Majesty was sleeping, you dreamt about the future; and God, who reveals mysteries, showed you what is going to happen.
30 Now, this mystery was revealed to me, not because I am wiser than anyone else, but so that Your Majesty may learn the meaning of your dream and understand the thoughts that have come to you.
31 "Your Majesty, in your vision you saw standing before you a giant statue, bright and shining, and terrifying to look at.
32 Its head was made of the finest gold; its chest and arms were made of silver; its waist and hips of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.
34 While you were looking at it, a great stone broke loose from a cliff without anyone touching it, struck the iron and clay feet of the statue, and shattered them.
35 At once the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold crumbled and became like the dust on a threshing-place in summer. The wind carried it all away, leaving not a trace. But the stone grew to be a mountain that covered the whole
earth.
36 "This was the dream. Now I will tell Your Majesty what it means.
37 Your Majesty, you are the greatest of all kings.
The God of heaven has made you emperor and given you power, might, and honour; 38 He has made you ruler of all the inhabited earth and ruler over all the animals and birds. You are the head of gold.
39 After you there will be another empire, not as great as yours, and after that a third, an empire of bronze, which will rule the whole earth.
40 And then there will be a fourth empire, as strong as iron, which shatters and breaks everything.
And just as iron shatters everything, it will shatter and crush all the earlier empires.
41 You also saw that the feet and the toes were partly clay and partly iron.
This means that it will be a divided empire.
It will have something of the strength of iron, because there was iron mixed with the clay.
42 The toes—partly iron and partly clay—mean that part of the empire will be strong and part of it weak.
43 You
also saw that the iron was mixed with the clay. This means that the rulers of that empire will try to unite their families by intermarriage, but they will not be able to, any more than iron can mix with clay.
44 At the time of those rulers the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never end. It will never be conquered, but will completely destroy all those empires, and then last for ever.
45 You saw how a stone broke loose from a cliff without anyone touching it and how it struck the statue made of iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God is telling Your Majesty what will happen in the future.
I have told you exactly what you dreamt, and have given you its true meaning."

The King Rewards Daniel

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar bowed to the ground and gave orders for sacrifices and offerings to be made to Daniel.
47 The king said, "Your God is the greatest of all gods, the Lord over kings, and the one who reveals mysteries. I know this because you have been able to explain this mystery." 18 Then he gave Daniel a high position, presented him with many splendid gifts, put him in charge of the province of Babylon, and made him the head of all the royal advisers. 49 At Daniel's request the king put Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in charge of the affairs of the province of Babylon; Daniel, however, remained at the royal court.

Nebuchadnezzar Commands Everyone to Worship a Gold Statue

3 King Nebuchadnezzar had a gold statue made, twenty-seven metres high and nearly three metres wide, and he had it set up in the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. 2 Then the king gave orders for all his officials to come together—the princes, governors, lieutenant-governors, commissioners, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other officials of the provinces. They were to attend the dedication of the statue which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
3 When all these officials gathered for the dedication and stood in front of the statue, 4 a herald announced in a loud voice, "People of all nations, races, and languages! 5 You will hear the sound of the trumpets, followed by the playing of oboes, lyres, zithers, and harps; and then all the other instruments will join in. As soon as the music starts, you are to bow down and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.
6 Anyone who does not bow down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace." 7 And so, as soon as they heard the sound of the instruments, the people of all the nations, races, and languages bowed down and worshipped the gold statue which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel's Three Friends Are Accused of Disobedience

8 It was then that some Babylonians took this opportunity to denounce the Jews. 9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "May Your Majesty live for ever!
10 Your Majesty has issued an order that as soon as the music starts, everyone is to bow down and worship the gold statue, 11 and that anyone who does not bow down and worship it is to be thrown into a blazing furnace. 12 There are some Jews whom you put in charge of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—who are disobeying Your Majesty's orders. They do not worship your god or bow down to the statue you set up."
13 At that, the king flew into a rage and ordered the three men to be brought before him. 14 He said to them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you refuse to worship my god and to bow down to the gold statue I have set up?
15 Now then, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpets, oboes, lyres, zithers, harps, and all the other instruments, bow down and worship the statue. If you do not, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace. Do you think there is any god who can save you?" 16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered, "Your Majesty, we will not try to defend ourselves. 17 If the God whom we serve is able to save us from the blazing furnace and from your power, then he will.[d] 18 But even if he doesn't, Your Majesty may be sure that we will not worship your god, and we will not bow down to the gold statue that you have set up."

Daniel's Three Friends Are Sentenced to Death

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar lost his temper, and his face turned red with anger at Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So he ordered his men to heat the furnace seven times hotter than usual. 20 And he commanded the strongest men in his army to tie the three men up and throw them into the blazing furnace. 21 So they tied them up, fully dressed—shirts, robes, caps, and all—and threw them into the blazing furnace. 22 Now because the king had given strict orders for the furnace to be made extremely hot, the flames burnt up the guards who took the men to the furnace. 23 Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, still tied up, fell into the heart of the blazing fire.
24 Suddenly Nebuchadnezzar leapt to his feet in amazement. He asked his officials, "Didn't we tie up three men and throw them into the blazing furnace?" They answered, "Yes, we did, Your Majesty." 25 "Then why do I see four men walking about in the fire?" he asked. "They are not tied up, and they show no sign of [d] If the God ... will; or If it is true that we refuse to worship your god or bow down to the gold statue you set up, the God whom we serve is able to save us from the blazing furnace and from your power—and he will.

The fourth one looks like a god (3.25) being hurt—and the fourth one looks like a god."

The Three Men Are Released and Promoted

26 So Nebuchadnezzar went up to the door of the blazing furnace and called out, "Shadrach! Meshach! Abednego! Servants of the Supreme God! Come out!" And they came out at once. 27 All the princes, governors, lieutenant-governors, and other officials of the king gathered to look at the three men, who had not been harmed by the fire. Their hair was not singed, their clothes were not burnt, and there was no smell of smoke on them.
28 The king said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent his angel and rescued these men who serve and trust him. They disobeyed my orders and risked their lives rather than bow down and worship any god except their own.
29 "And now I command that if anyone of any nation, race, or language speaks disrespectfully of the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, he is to be torn limb from limb, and his house is to be made a pile of ruins. There is no other god who can rescue like this." 30 And the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to higher positions in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Second Dream

4 King Nebuchadnezzar sent the following message to the people of all nations, races, and languages in the world:
"Greetings! 2 Listen to my account of the wonders and miracles which the Supreme God has shown me.
3 "How great are the wonders God shows
us!
How powerful are the miracles he performs!
God will be king for ever, he will rule for all time.
4 "I was living comfortably in my palace, enjoying great prosperity. 5 But I had a frightening dream and saw terrifying visions while I was asleep. 6 I ordered all the royal advisers in Babylon to be brought to me so that they could tell me what the dream meant. 7 Then all the fortune-tellers, magicians, wizards, and astrologers were brought in, and I told them my dream, but they could not explain it to me. 8 Then Daniel came in.
(He is also called Belteshazzar, after the name of my god.) The spirit of the holy gods[e] is in him, so I told him what I had dreamt. I said to him, 9 'Belteshazzar, chief of the fortune-tellers, I know that the spirit of the holy gods[f] is in you, and [e] gods, or God [f] gods, or God that you understand all mysteries. This is[g] my dream. Tell me what it means.

10 "While I was asleep, I had a vision of a huge tree in the middle of the earth.
11 It grew bigger and bigger until it reached the sky and could be seen by everyone in the world. 12 Its leaves were beautiful, and it was loaded down with fruit—enough for the whole world to eat. Wild animals rested in its shade, birds built nests in its branches, and every kind of living being ate its fruit.
13 "While I was thinking about the vision, I saw coming down from heaven an angel, alert and watchful. 14 He proclaimed in a loud voice, 'Cut the tree down and chop off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Drive the animals from under it and the birds out of its branches. 15 But leave the stump in the ground with a band of iron and bronze round it. Leave it there in the field with the grass.
"'Now let the dew fall on this man, and let him live with the animals and the plants. 16 For seven years he will not have a human mind, but the mind of an animal.
17 This is the decision of the alert and watchful angels. So then, let all people everywhere know that the Supreme God has power over human kingdoms and that he can give them to anyone he chooses—even to the least important of men.' 18 "This is the dream I had," said King Nebuchadnezzar. "Now, Belteshazzar, tell me what it means. None of my royal advisers could tell me, but you can, because the spirit of the holy gods[h] is in you."

So tall that it reached the sky (4.20)

Leave the stump in the ground (4.23)

Daniel Explains the Dream

19 At this, Daniel, who is also called Belteshazzar, was so alarmed that he could not say anything. The king said to him, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream and its message alarm you." Belteshazzar replied, "Your Majesty, I wish that the dream and its explanation applied to your enemies and not to you.
20 The tree, so tall that it reached the sky, could be seen by everyone in the world.
21 Its leaves were beautiful, and it had enough fruit on it to feed the whole world.
Wild animals rested under it, and birds made their nests in its branches.
22 "Your Majesty, you are the tree, tall and strong. You have grown so great that you reach the sky, and your power extends over the whole world. 23 While Your Majesty was watching, an angel came down from heaven and said, 'Cut the tree down and destroy it, but leave the stump in the ground. Wrap a band of iron and bronze round it, and leave it there in the field with the grass. Let the dew fall on this man, and let him live there with the animals for seven years.' 24 "This, then, is what it means, Your Majesty, and this is what the Supreme [g] Probable text This is; Aramaic Visions of. [h] gods; or God.

God has declared will happen to you 25 You will be driven away from human society and will live with wild animals For seven years you will eat grass like an ox, and sleep in the open air, where the dew will fall on you Then you will admit that the Supreme God controls all human kingdoms, and that he can give them to anyone he chooses 26 The angels ordered the stump to be left in the ground This means that you will become king again when you acknowledge that God rules all the world 27 So then, Your Majesty, follow my advice Stop sinning, do what is right, and be merciful to the poor [i] Then you will continue to be prosperous"
28 All this did happen to King Nebuchadnezzar 29 Only twelve months later, while he was walking about on the roof of his royal palace in Babylon, 30 he said, "Look how great Babylon is! I built it as my capital city to display my power and might, my glory and majesty" 31 Before the words were out of his mouth, a voice spoke from heaven, "King Nebuchadnezzar, listen to what I say!
Your royal power is now taken away from you 32 You will be driven away from human society, live with wild animals, and eat grass like an ox for seven years Then you will acknowledge that the Supreme God has power over human kingdoms and that he can give them to anyone he chooses" 33 The words came true immediately Nebuchadnezzar was driven out of human society and ate grass like an ox The dew fell on his body, and his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers and his nails as long as birds' claws

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

34 "When the seven years had passed," said the king, "I looked up at the sky, and my sanity returned I praised the Supreme God and gave honour and glory to the one who lives for ever

"He will rule for ever, and his kingdom will last for all time 35 He looks on the people of the earth as nothing, angels in heaven and people on earth are under his control No one can oppose his will or question what he does 36 "When my sanity returned, my honour, my majesty, and the glory of my kingdom were given back to me My officials and my noblemen welcomed me, and I was given back my royal power, with even greater honour than before 37 "And now, I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, honour, and glorify the King of Heaven Everything he does is right and just, and he can humble anyone who acts proudly"

Belshazzar's Banquet

5 One night King Belshazzar invited a thousand noblemen to a great banquet, and they drank wine together 2 While they were drinking, Belshazzar gave orders to bring in the gold and silver cups and bowls which his father Nebuchadnezzar had carried off from the Temple in Jerusalem The king sent for them so that he, his noblemen, his wives, and his concubines could drink out of them 3 At once the gold cups and bowls were brought in, and they all drank wine out of them 4 and praised gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone 5 Suddenly a human hand appeared and Suddenly a human hand appeared (5 5) began writing on the plaster wall of the palace, where the light from the lamps was shining most brightly And the king saw the hand as it was writing 6 He turned pale and was so frightened that his knees began to shake 7 He shouted for someone to bring in the magicians, wizards, and astrologers When they came in, the king said to them, "Anyone who can read this writing and tell me what it means will be dressed in robes of royal purple, wear a gold chain of honour round his neck, and be the third in power in the kingdom"

[i] Stop sinning to the poor; or Make up for your sins by doing what is right and by being merciful to the poor

8The royal advisers came forward, but none of them could read the writing or tell the king what it meant. 9In his distress King Belshazzar grew even paler, and his noblemen had no idea what to do.
10 The queen mother heard the noise made by the king and his noblemen and entered the banqueting hall. She said, "May Your Majesty live for ever! Please do not be so disturbed and look so pale.
11There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods[k] in him.
When your father was king, this man showed good sense, knowledge, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. And King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, made him chief of the fortune-tellers, magicians, wizards, and astrologers. 12He has unusual ability and is wise and skilful in interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and explaining mysteries; so send for this man Daniel, whom the king named Belte-shazzar, and he will tell you what all this means."

Daniel Explains the Writing

13 Daniel was brought at once into the king's presence, and the king said to him, "Are you Daniel, that Jewish exile whom my father the king brought here from Judah? 14I have heard that the spirit of the holy gods[k] is in you and that you are skilful and have knowledge and wisdom. 15The advisers and magicians were brought in to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they could not discover the meaning. 16Now I have heard that you can find hidden meanings and explain mysteries. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be dressed in robes of royal purple, wear a gold chain of honour round your neck, and be the third in power in the kingdom." 17 Daniel replied, "Keep your gifts for yourself or give them to someone else.
I will read for Your Majesty what has been written and tell you what it means.
18 "The Supreme God made your father Nebuchadnezzar a great king and gave him dignity and majesty. 19He was so great that people of all nations, races, and languages were afraid of him and trembled. If he wanted to kill someone, he did; if he wanted to keep someone alive, he did. He honoured or disgraced anyone he wanted to. 20But because he became proud, stubborn, and cruel, he was removed from his royal throne and lost his place of honour. 21He was driven away from human society, and his mind became like that of an animal. He lived with wild donkeys, ate grass like an ox, and slept in the open air with nothing to protect him from the dew. Finally he admitted that the Supreme God controls all human kingdoms and can give them to anyone he chooses.
22 "But you, his son, have not humbled yourself, even though you knew all this.
23You acted against the Lord of heaven and brought in the cups and bowls taken from his Temple. You, your noblemen, your wives, and your concubines drank wine out of them and praised gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone—gods that cannot see or hear and that do not know anything. But you did not honour the God who determines whether you live or die and who controls everything you do. 24That is why God has sent the hand to write these words.
25 "This is what was written: 'Number, number, weight, divisions.' 26And this is what it means: number, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end; 27*weight*, you have been weighed on the scales and found to be too light; 28*divisions*, your kingdom is divided up and given to the Medes and Persians."[l] 29 Immediately Belshazzar ordered his servants to dress Daniel in a robe of royal purple and to hang a gold chain of honour round his neck. And he made him the third in power in the kingdom. 30That same night Belshazzar, the king of Babylonia, was killed; 31and Darius the Mede, who was then sixty-two years old, seized the royal power.

Daniel in the Pit of Lions

6 Darius decided to appoint a hundred and twenty governors to hold office throughout his empire. 2In addition, he chose Daniel and two others to supervise the governors and to look after the king's interests. 3Daniel soon showed that he could do better work than the other supervisors or the governors. Because he was so outstanding, the king considered putting him in charge of the whole empire.
4Then the other supervisors and the governors tried to find something wrong with the way Daniel administered the empire, but they couldn't, because Daniel was reliable and did not do anything wrong or dishonest 5 They said to one another, "We are not going to find anything of which to accuse Daniel unless it is something in connection with his religion " 6 So they went to see the king and said, "King Darius, may Your Majesty live for ever! 7 All of us who administer your empire—the supervisors, the governors, the lieutenant-governors, and the other officials—have agreed that Your Majesty should issue an order and enforce it strictly Give orders that for thirty days no one be permitted to request anything from any god or from any man except from Your Majesty Anyone who violates this order is to be thrown into a pit filled with lions 8 So let Your Majesty issue this order and sign it, and it will be in force, a law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed " 9 And so King Darius signed the order 10 When Daniel learnt

He knelt down at the open windows (6 10) that the order had been signed, he went home In an upstairs room of his house there were windows that faced towards Jerusalem There, just as he had always done, he knelt down at the open windows and prayed to God three times a day 11 When Daniel's enemies observed him praying to God, 12 all of them went together to the king to accuse Daniel They said, "Your Majesty, you signed an order that for the next thirty days anyone who requested anything from any god or from any man except you, would be thrown into a pit filled with lions " The king replied, "Yes, a strict order, a law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed " 13 Then they said to the king, "Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, does not respect Your Majesty or obey the order you issued He prays regularly three times a day " 14 When the king heard this, he was upset and did his best to find some way to rescue Daniel He kept trying until sunset 15 Then the men came back to the king and said to him, "Your Majesty knows that according to the laws of the Medes and Persians no order which the king issues can be changed " 16 So the king gave orders for Daniel to be arrested and he was thrown into the pit filled with lions He said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve so loyally, rescue you " 17 A stone was put over the mouth of the pit, and the king placed his own royal seal and the seal of his noblemen on the stone, so that no one could rescue Daniel 18 Then the king returned to the palace and spent a sleepless night, without food or any form of entertainment 19 At dawn the king got up and hurried to the pit 20 When he got there, he called out anxiously, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Was the God you serve so loyally able to save you from the lions?" 21 Daniel answered, "May Your Majesty live for ever! 22 God sent his angel to shut the mouths of the lions so that they would not hurt me He did this because he knew that I was innocent and because I have not wronged you, Your Majesty "

23 The king was overjoyed and gave orders for Daniel to be pulled up out of the pit So they pulled him up and saw that he had not been hurt at all, for he trusted God 24 Then the king gave orders to arrest all the men who had accused Daniel, and they were thrown, together with their wives and their children, into the pit filled with lions Before they even reached the bottom of the pit, the lions pounced on them and broke all their bones 25 Then King Darius wrote to the people of all nations, races, and languages on earth

He knew that I was innocent (6 22)

"Greetings! [26]I command that throughout my empire everyone should fear and respect Daniel's God

"He is a living God, and he will rule for ever His kingdom will never be destroyed, and his power will never come to an end 27 He saves and rescues, he performs wonders and miracles
in heaven and on earth He saved Daniel from being killed by the lions"

28 Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian

DANIEL DESCRIBES HIS VISIONS
(7 1—12 13)

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts

7 In the first year that Belshazzar was king of Babylon, I had a dream and saw a vision in the night I wrote the dream down, and this is the record [2]of what I saw that night

Winds were blowing from all directions and lashing the surface of the ocean [3]Four huge beasts came up out of the ocean, each one different from the others [4]The first one looked like a lion, but had wings like an eagle While I was watching, the wings were torn off The beast was lifted up and made to stand like a man And then a human mind was given to
it

5 The second beast looked like a bear standing on its hind legs It was holding three ribs between its teeth, and a voice said to it, "Go on, eat as much meat as you can!"

6 While I was watching, another beast appeared It looked like a leopard, but on its back there were four wings, like the wings of a bird, and it had four heads It had a look of authority about it

7 As I was watching, a fourth beast appeared It was powerful, horrible, terrifying With its huge iron teeth it crushed its victims, and then it trampled on them Unlike the other beasts, it had ten horns [8]While I was staring at the horns, I saw a little horn coming up among the others It tore out three of the horns that were already there This horn had human eyes and a mouth that was boasting proudly

The Vision of the One Who Has Been Living For Ever 9 While I was looking, thrones were put in place One who had been living for ever sat down on one of the thrones His clothes were white as snow, and his hair was like pure wool His throne, mounted on fiery wheels, was blazing with fire, [10]and a stream of fire was pouring out from it There were many thousands of people there to serve him, and millions of people stood before him The court began its session, and the books were opened

11 While I was looking, I could still hear the little horn bragging and boasting As I watched, the fourth beast was killed,

7.3 Rev 13 1, 17 8 7 4-6 Rev 13 2 7.7 Rev 12 3, 13 1 7 8 Rev 13 5-6 7 9 Rev 20 4, 1 14 7 10 Rev 5 11, 20 12

and its body was thrown into the flames and destroyed [12]The other beasts had their power taken away, but they were permitted to go on living for a limited time 13 During this vision in the night, I saw what looked like a human being He was approaching me, surrounded by clouds, and he went to the one who had been living for ever and was presented to him [14]He was given authority, honour, and royal power, so that the people of all nations, races, and languages would serve him His authority would last for ever, and his kingdom would never end

The Visions Are Explained

15 The visions I saw alarmed me, and I was deeply disturbed [m] [16]I went up to one of those standing there and asked him to explain it all So he told me the meaning [17]He said, "These four huge beasts are four empires which will arise on earth [18]And the people of the Supreme God will receive royal power and keep it for ever and ever " 19 Then I wanted to know more about the fourth beast, which was not like any of the others—the terrifying beast which crushed its victims with its bronze claws and iron teeth and then trampled on them [20]And I wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and the horn that had come up afterwards and had made three of the horns fall It had eyes and a mouth and was boasting proudly It was more terrifying than any of the others 21 While I was looking, that horn made war on God's people and conquered them [22]Then the one who had been living for ever came and pronounced judgement in favour of[n] the people of the Supreme God The time had arrived for God's people to receive royal power 23 This is the explanation I was given "The fourth beast is a fourth empire that will be on the earth and will be different from all other empires It will crush the whole earth and trample it down [24]The ten horns are ten kings who will rule that empire Then another king will appear, he will be very different from the earlier ones and will overthrow three kings [25]He will speak against the Supreme God and oppress God's people He will try to change their religious laws and festivals, and God's people will be under his power for three and a half years [26]Then the heavenly court will sit in judgement, take away his power, and destroy him completely [27]The power and greatness of all the kingdoms on earth will be given to the people of the Supreme God Their royal power will never end and all rulers on earth will serve and obey them " 28 This is the end of the account I was so frightened that I turned pale, and I kept everything to myself

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year that Belshazzar was king, I saw a second vision [o] [2]In the vision I suddenly found myself in the walled city of Susa in the province of Elam I was standing by the River Ulai, [3]and there beside the river I saw a ram that had two long horns, one of which was longer and newer than the other [4]I watched the ram butting with his horns to the west, the north, and the south No animal could stop him or escape his power He did as he pleased and grew arrogant 5 While I was wondering what this meant, a goat came rushing out of the west, moving so fast that his feet didn't touch the ground He had one prominent horn between his eyes [6]He came towards the ram, which I had seen standing beside the river, and rushed at him with all his force [7]I watched him attack the ram He was so angry that he smashed into him and broke the two horns The ram had no strength to resist He was thrown to the ground and trampled on, and there was no one who could save him 8 The goat grew more and more arrogant, but at the height of his power his horn was broken In its place four prominent horns came up, each pointing in a different direction [9]Out of one of these four horns grew a little horn, whose power extended towards the south and the east and towards the Promised Land [10]It grew strong enough to attack the army of heaven, the stars themselves, and it threw some of them to the ground and trampled on them [11]It even defied the commander of the heavenly army, stopped the daily sacrifices offered to him, and desecrated the Temple 12 People sinned there instead of offering the proper daily sacrifices,[p] and true religion was thrown to the ground The horn was successful in everything it did 13 Then I heard one angel ask another, "How long will these things that were seen in the vision continue? How long will an awful sin replace the daily sacrifices? How long will the army of heaven and the Temple be trampled on?" 14 I heard the other angel answer, "It will continue for 1,150 days, during which evening and morning sacrifices will not be offered Then the Temple will be restored"

The Angel Gabriel Explains the Vision

15 I was trying to understand what the vision meant, when suddenly someone was standing in front of me 16 I heard a voice call out over the River Ulai, "Gabriel, explain to him the meaning of what he saw" 17 Gabriel came and stood beside me, and I was so terrified that I fell to the ground
He said to me, "Mortal man, understand the meaning The vision has to do with the end of the world" 18 While he was talking, I fell to the ground unconscious But he took hold of me, raised me to my feet, 19 and said, "I am showing you what the result of God's anger will be The vision refers to the time of the end 20 "The ram you saw that had two horns represents the kingdoms of Media and Persia 21 The goat represents the kingdom of Greece, and the prominent horn between his eyes is the first king 22 The four horns that came up when the first horn was broken represent the four kingdoms into which that nation will be divided and which will not be as strong as the first kingdom 23 "When the end of those kingdoms is near and they have become so wicked that they must be punished, there will be a stubborn, vicious, and deceitful king 24 He will grow strong—but not by his own power He will cause terrible destruction and be successful in everything he does He will bring destruction on powerful men and on God's own people 25 Because he is cunning, he will succeed in his deceitful ways He will be proud of himself and destroy many people without warning He will even defy the greatest King of all, but he will be destroyed without the use of any human power 26 This vision about the evening and morning sacrifices which has been explained to you will come true But keep it secret now, because it will be a long time before it does come true" 27 I was depressed and ill for several days Then I got up and went back to the work that the king had assigned to me, but I was puzzled by the vision and could not understand it

Daniel Prays for His People

9 Darius the Mede, who was the son of Xerxes, ruled over the kingdom of Babylonia 2 In the first year of his reign, I was studying the sacred books and thinking about the seventy years that Jerusalem would be in ruins, according to what the LORD had told the prophet Jeremiah 3 And I prayed earnestly to the Lord God, pleading with him, fasting, wearing sackcloth, and sitting in ashes 4 I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed the sins of my people I said, "Lord God, you are great, and we honour you You are faithful to your covenant and show constant love to those who love you and do what you command 5 "We have sinned, we have been evil, we have done wrong We have rejected what you commanded us to do and have turned away from what you showed us was right 6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our rulers, our ancestors, and our whole nation 7 You, Lord, always do what is right, but we have always brought disgrace on ourselves This is true to all of us who live in Judaea and in Jerusalem and of all the Israelites whom you scattered in countries near and far because they were unfaithful to you 8 Our kings, our rulers, and our ancestors have acted shamefully and sinned against you, Lord 9 You are merciful and forgiving, although we have rebelled against you 10 We did not listen to you, O LORD our God, when you told us to live according to the laws which you gave us through your servants the prophets 11 All Israel broke your laws and refused to listen to what you said We sinned against you, and so you brought on us the curses that are written in the Law of Moses, your servant 12 You did

[p] People , sacrifices, Hebrew unclear what you said you would do to us and our rulers You punished Jerusalem more severely than any other city on earth, 13giving us all the punishment described in the Law of Moses But even now, O LORD our God, we have not tried to please you by turning from our sins or by following your truth 14You, O LORD our God, were prepared to punish us, and you did, because you always do what is right, and we did not listen to you 15 "O Lord our God, you showed your power by bringing your people out of Egypt, and your power is still remembered We have sinned, we have done wrong 16You have defended us in the past, so do not be angry with Jerusalem any longer It is your city, your sacred hill[q] All the people in the neighbouring countries look down on Jerusalem and on your people because of our sins and the evil our ancestors did 17O God, hear my prayer and pleading Restore your Temple, which has been destroyed, restore it so that everyone will know that you are God 18Listen to us, O God, look at us, and see the trouble we are in and the suffering of the city that bears your name We are praying to you because you are merciful, not because we have done right 19Lord, hear us Lord, forgive us Lord, listen to us, and act! In order that everyone will know that you are God, do not delay! This city and these people are yours "

Gabriel Explains the Prophecy

20 I went on praying, confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel, and pleading with the LORD my God to restore his holy Temple 21While I was praying, Gabriel, whom I had seen in the earlier vision, came flying down to where I was It was the time for the evening sacrifice to be offered 22He explained, "Daniel, I have come here to help you understand the prophecy 23When you began to plead with God, he answered you He loves you, and so I have come to tell you the answer Now pay attention while I explain the vision 24 "Seven times seventy years is the length of time God has set for freeing your people and your holy city from sin and evil Sin will be forgiven and eternal

God, do not delay! (9 19) justice established, so that the vision and the prophecy will come true, and the holy Temple[r] will be rededicated 25Note this and understand it From the time the command is given to rebuild Jerusalem, until God's chosen leader comes, seven times seven years will pass Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and strong defences, and will stand for seven times sixty-two years, but this will be a time of troubles 26And at the end of that time God's chosen leader will be killed unjustly[s] The city and the Temple will be destroyed by the invading army of a powerful ruler The end will come like a flood, bringing the war and destruction which God has prepared 27That ruler will have a firm agreement with many people for seven years, and when half this time is past, he will put an end to sacrifices and offerings The Awful Horror[t] will be placed on the highest point of the Temple and will remain there until the one who put it there meets the end which God has prepared for him "

Daniel's Vision by the River Tigris

10 (In the third year that Cyrus was king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who is also called Belteshazzar The message was true but extremely hard to understand [u] It was explained to him in a vision) 2 At that time, I was mourning for three weeks 3I did not eat any rich food or any meat, drink any wine, or comb my hair until the three weeks were past 4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month of the year, I was standing on the bank of the mighty River Tigris 5I looked up and saw someone who was wearing linen clothes and a belt of fine gold 6His body shone like a jewel His face was as bright as a flash of lightning, and his eyes blazed like fire His arms and legs shone like polished bronze, and his voice sounded like the roar of a great crowd 7 I was the only one who saw the vision The men who were with me did not see anything, but they were terrified and ran and hid 8I was left there alone, watching this amazing vision I had no strength left, and my face was so changed that no one could have recognized me 9When I heard his voice, I fell to the ground unconscious and lay there face downwards 10Then a hand took hold of me and raised me to my hands and knees, I was still trembling 11 The angel said to me, "Daniel, God loves you Stand up and listen carefully to what I am going to say I have been sent to you" When he had said this, I stood up, still trembling 12 Then he said, "Daniel, don't be afraid God has heard your prayers ever since the first day you decided to humble yourself in order to gain understanding I have come in answer to your prayer 13The guardian angel of the kingdom of Persia opposed me for twenty-one days Then Michael, one of the chief angels, came to help me, because I had been left there alone in Persia 14I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the future This is a vision about the future" 15 When he said this, I stared at the ground, speechless 16Then the angel, who looked like a man, stretched out his hand and touched my lips I said to him, "Sir, this vision makes me so weak that I can't stop trembling 17I am like a slave standing before his master How can I talk to you? I have no strength or breath left in me" 18 Once more he took hold of me, and I felt stronger 19He said, "God loves you, so don't let anything worry you or frighten
you"
When he had said this, I felt even stronger and said, "Sir, tell me what you have to say You have made me feel better" 20–21 He said, "Do you know why I came to you? It is to reveal to you what is written in the Book of Truth Now I have to go back and fight the guardian angel of Persia After that, the guardian angel of Greece will appear There is no one to help me except Michael, Israel's 11 guardian angel [v] 1He is[w] responsible for helping and defending me 2And what I am now going to tell you is true"

The Kingdoms of Egypt and Syria

The angel said, "Three more kings will rule over Persia, followed by a fourth, who will be richer than all the others At the height of his power and wealth he will challenge the kingdom of Greece 3 "Then a heroic king will appear He will rule over a huge empire and do whatever he wants 4But at the height of his power his empire will break up and be divided into four parts Kings not descended from him will rule in his place, but they will not have the power that he had 5 "The king of Egypt will be strong One of his generals, however, will be even stronger and rule a greater kingdom 6After a number of years the king of Egypt will make an alliance with the king of Syria and give him his daughter in marriage But the alliance will not last, and she, her husband, her child,[x] and the servants who went with her will all be killed 7Soon afterwards, one of her relatives will become king He will attack the army of the king of Syria, enter their fortress, and defeat them 8He will carry back to Egypt the images of their gods and the articles of gold and silver dedicated to those gods After several years of peace 9 the king of Syria will invade Egypt, but he will be forced to retreat 10 "The sons of the king of Syria will prepare for war and gather a large army One of them will sweep on like a flood and attack an enemy fortress 11 In his anger the king of Egypt will go to war against the king of Syria and capture his huge army 12 He will be proud of his victory and of the many soldiers he has killed, but he will not continue to be victorious 13 "The king of Syria will go back and gather a larger army than he had before When the proper time comes, he will return with a large, well-equipped army 14 Then many people will rebel against the king of Egypt. And some violent men from your nation, Daniel, will rebel because of a vision they have seen, but they will be defeated 15 So the king of Syria will lay siege to a fortified city and capture it The soldiers of Egypt will not continue to fight, even the best of them will not have enough strength 16 The Syrian invader will do with them as he pleases, without opposition He will stand in the Promised Land and have it completely in his power 17 "The king of Syria will plan an expedition, using his whole army Then, in order to destroy his enemy's kingdom, he will make an alliance with him and offer him his daughter[y] in marriage; but his plan will not succeed 18 After that he will attack the nations by the sea and conquer many of them But a foreign leader will defeat him and put an end to his arrogance, indeed he will turn the arrogance of Syria's king back on him [z] 19 The king will return to the fortresses of his own land, but he will be defeated, and that will be the end of him 20 "He will be followed by another king, who will send an officer to oppress the people with taxes in order to increase the wealth of his kingdom In a short time that king will be killed, but not publicly and not in battle"

The Evil King of Syria

21 The angel went on to explain "The next king of Syria will be an evil man who has no right to be king, but he will come unexpectedly and seize power by trickery 22 Anyone who opposes him, even God's High Priest, will be swept away and wiped out 23 By making treaties, he will deceive other nations, and he will grow stronger and stronger, even though he rules only a small nation 24 He will invade a wealthy province without warning and will do things that none of his ancestors ever did Then he will divide among his followers the goods and property he has captured in war He will make plans to attack fortresses, but his time will soon run out 25 "He will boldly raise a large army to attack the king of Egypt, who will prepare to fight back with a huge and powerful army But the king of Egypt will be deceived and will not be successful 26 His closest advisers will ruin him Many of his soldiers will be killed, and his army will be wiped out 27 Then the two kings will sit down to eat at the same table, but their motives will be evil, and they will lie to each other They will not get what they want, because the time for it has not yet come 28 The king of Syria will return home with all the loot he has captured, determined to destroy the religion of God's people He will do as he pleases and then return to his own land 29 "Later on he will invade Egypt again, but this time things will turn out differently 30 The Romans will come in ships and oppose him, and he will be frightened
"Then he will turn back in a rage and try to destroy the religion of God's people He will follow the advice of those who have abandoned that religion 31 Some of his soldiers will desecrate the Temple They will stop the daily sacrifices and set up The Awful Horror [a] 32 By deceit the king will win the support of those who have already abandoned their religion, but those who follow God will fight back 33 Wise leaders of the people will share their wisdom with many others But for a while some of them will be killed in battle or be burnt to death, and some will be robbed and made prisoners 34 While the killing is going on, God's people will receive a little help, even though many who join them will do so for selfish reasons 35 Some of those wise leaders will be killed, but as a result of this the people will be purified This will continue until the end comes, the time that God has set.

gifts to a god his ancestors never worshipped. 39 To defend his fortresses, he will use people who worship a foreign god. He will give great honour to those who accept him as ruler, put them into high offices, and give them land as a reward.
40 "When the king of Syria's final hour has almost come, the king of Egypt will attack him, and the king of Syria will fight back with all his power, using chariots, horses, and many ships. He will invade many countries, like the waters of a flood. 41 He will even invade the Promised Land and kill tens of thousands, but the countries of Edom, Moab, and what is left of Ammon will escape.
42 When he invades all those countries, even Egypt will not be spared. 43 He will take away Egypt's hidden treasures of gold and silver and its other prized possessions. He will conquer Libya and Sudan. 44 Then news that comes from the east and the north will frighten him, and he will fight furiously, killing many people. 45 He will even set up his huge royal tents between the sea and the mountain on which the Temple stands.
But he will die, with no one there to help
him."

The Time of the End

12 The angel wearing linen clothes said, "At that time the great angel Michael, who guards your people, will appear. Then there will be a time of troubles, the worst since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, all the people of your nation whose names are written in God's book will be saved. 2 Many of those who have already died will live again: some will enjoy eternal life, and some will suffer eternal disgrace. 3 The wise leaders will shine with all the brightness of the sky. And those who have taught many people to do what is right will shine like the stars for ever." 4 He said to me, "And now, Daniel,

Daniel, close the book (12.4) close the book and put a seal on it until the end of the world. Meanwhile, many people will waste their efforts trying to understand what is happening." 5 Then I saw two men standing by a river, one on each bank. 6 One of them asked the angel who was standing further upstream, "How long will it be until these amazing events come to an end?" 7 The angel raised both hands towards the sky and made a solemn promise in the name of the Eternal God. I heard him say, "It will be three and a half years.

When the persecution of God's people ends, all these things will have happened." 8 I heard what he said, but I did not understand it. So I asked, "But, sir, how will it all end?" 9 He answered, "You must go now, Daniel, because these words are to be kept secret and hidden until the end comes.
10 Many people will be purified. Those who are wicked will not understand but will go on being wicked; only those who are wise will understand.
11 "From the time the daily sacrifices are stopped, that is, from the time of The Awful Horror,[b] 1,290 days will pass.
12 Happy are those who remain faithful until 1,335 days are over!
13 "And you, Daniel, be faithful to the end. Then you will die, but you will rise to receive your reward at the end of time."

HOSEA

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Hosea preached in the northern kingdom of Israel, after the prophet Amos, during the troubled times before the fall of Samaria in 721 B C He was especially concerned about the idolatry of the people and their faithlessness towards God Hosea boldly pictured this faithlessness in terms of his own disastrous marriage to an unfaithful woman Just as his wife Gomer turned out to be unfaithful to him, so God's people had deserted the Lord For this, judgement would fall on Israel Yet in the end God's constant love for his people would prevail, and he would win the nation back to himself and restore the relationship This love is expressed in the moving words "How can I give you up, Israel? How can I abandon you? My heart will not let me do it! My love for you is too strong" (11 8)

Outline of Contents

1 This is the message which the LORD gave Hosea son of Beeri during the time that Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of
Israel

Hosea's Wife and Children

2 When the LORD first spoke to Israel through Hosea, he said to Hosea, "Go and get married, your wife will be unfaithful, and your children will be just like her [a] In the same way, my people have left me and become unfaithful" 3 So Hosea married a woman named Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim After the birth of their first child, a son, 4 the LORD
said to Hosea, "Name him 'Jezreel,' because it will not be long before I punish the king of Israel for the murders that his ancestor Jehu committed at Jezreel [b] I am going to put an end to Jehu's dynasty [x]
5 And in the Valley of Jezreel I will at that time destroy Israel's military power"
6 Gomer had a second child—this time it was a girl The LORD said to Hosea, "Name her 'Unloved,' because I will no longer show love to the people of Israel or forgive them 7 But to the people of Judah I will show love I, the LORD their God, will save them, but I will not do

[a] get married, your wife her; or marry a prostitute, and have children by her who will be just as bad as she is [b] JEZREEL. At this city Jehu assassinated the king of Israel and all the rest of the royal family, and became the first king of a new dynasty (see 2 Kgs 9—10) [x] Jehu's dynasty, or the kingdom of Israel it by war—with swords or bows and arrows or with horses and horsemen " 8 After Gomer had weaned her daughter, she became pregnant again and had another son [9]The LORD said to Hosea, "Name him 'Not-My-People,' because the people of Israel are not my people, and I am not their God "

Israel Is to Be Restored

10 The people of Israel will become like the sand of the sea, more than can be counted or measured Now God says to them, "You are not my people," but the day is coming when he will say to them, "You are the children of the living God!" [11]The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be reunited They will choose for themselves a single leader, and once again they will grow and prosper in their land Yes, the day of Jezreel[c] will be a 2 great day! [1]So call your fellow-Israelites "God's People" and "Loved-by-
the-Lord "

Unfaithful Gomer—Unfaithful Israel

2 My children, plead with your mother—though she is no longer a wife to me, and I am no longer her husband Plead with her to stop her adultery and prostitution [3]If she does not, I will strip her as naked as she was on the day she was born I will make her like a dry and barren land, and she will die of thirst [4-5]I will not show mercy to her children, they are the children of a shameless prostitute[d] She herself said, "I will go to my lovers—they give me food and water, wool and linen, olive-oil and wine " 6 So I am going to fence her in with thorn-bushes and build a wall to block her way [7]She will run after her lovers but will not catch them She will look for them but will not find them Then she will say, "I am going back to my first husband—I was better off then than I am now "
8 She would never acknowledge that I am the one who gave her the corn, the wine, the olive-oil, and all the silver and gold that she used in the worship of Baal [9]So at harvest time I will take back my gifts of corn and wine, and will take away the wool and the linen I gave her for clothing [10]I will strip her naked in front of her lovers, and no one will be able to save her from my power [11]I will put an end to all her festivities—her annual and monthly festivals and her Sabbath celebrations—all her religious meetings [12]I will destroy her grapevines and her fig trees, which she said her lovers gave her for serving them I will turn her vineyards and orchards into a wilderness, wild animals will destroy them [13]I will punish her for the times that she forgot me when she burnt incense to Baal and put on her jewellery to go chasing after her lovers The LORD has spoken

The LORD's Love for His People

14 So I am going to take her into the desert again, there I will win her back with words of love [15]I will give back to her the vineyards she had and make Trouble Valley a door of hope She will respond to me there as she did when she was young, when she came from Egypt.
[16]Then once again she will call me her husband—she will no longer call me her Baal[e] [17]I will never let her speak the name of Baal again 18 At that time I will make a covenant with all the wild animals and birds, so that they will not harm my people I will also remove all weapons of war from the land, all swords and bows, and will let my people live in peace and safety [19]Israel, I will make you my wife, I will be true and faithful, I will show you constant love and mercy

and make you mine for ever [20]I will keep my promise and make you mine,
and you will acknowledge me as LORD [21-22]At that time I will answer the prayers of my people Israel[f] I will make rain fall on the earth, and the earth will produce corn and grapes and olives [23]I will establish my people in the land and make them prosper I will show love to those who were called "Unloved," and to those who were called "Not-My-People"

[d]the children of a shameless prostitute, or as shameless as their mother, a prostitute

[f]ISRAEL The Hebrew text here refers to Israel as Jezreel (see 1 4 11)

I will say, “You are my people,” and they will answer, “You are our God.”

Hosea and the Unfaithful Woman

3 The LORD said to me, “Go again and show your love for a woman who is committing adultery with a lover. You must love her just as I still love the people of Israel, even though they turn to other gods and like to take offerings of raisins to idols.”[g] 2 So I paid fifteen pieces of silver and 150 kilogrammes of barley to buy her.
3 I told her that for a long time she would have to wait for me without being a prostitute or committing adultery, and during this time I would wait for her. 4 In just this way the people of Israel will have to live for a long time without kings or leaders, without sacrifices or sacred stone pillars, without idols or images to use for divination. 5 But the time will come when the people of Israel will once again turn to the LORD their God, and to a descendant of David their king. Then they will fear the LORD and will receive his good gifts.

The LORD's Accusation against Israel

4 The LORD has an accusation to bring against the people who live in this land. Listen, Israel, to what he says: “There is no faithfulness or love in the land, and the people do not acknowledge me as God. 2 They make promises and break them; they lie, murder, steal, and commit adultery. Crimes increase, and there is one murder after another. 3 And so the land will dry up, and everything that lives on it will die. All the animals and birds, and even the fish, will die.”

The LORD Accuses the Priests

4 The LORD says, “Let no one accuse the people or reprimand them—my complaint is against you priests.[h] 5 Night and day you blunder on, and the prophets do no better than you. I am going to destroy Israel, your mother. 6 My people are doomed because they do not acknowledge me. You priests have refused to acknowledge me and have rejected my teaching, and so I reject you and will not acknowledge your sons as my priests.
7 “The more of you priests there are,

[g] OFFERINGS OF RAISINS TO IDOLS: Dried grapes were used in the worship of fertility gods, who were believed to give abundant harvests to their worshippers.

[h] Probable text my complaint is against you priests; Hebrew your people are like those with a complaint against the priests.

the more you sin against me, and so I will turn your honour into disgrace. 8 You grow rich from the sins of my people, and so you want them to sin more and more. 9 You will suffer the same punishment as the people! I will punish you and make you pay for the evil you do.
10 You will eat your share of the sacrifices, but still be hungry. You will worship the fertility gods, but still have no children, because you have turned away from me to follow other gods."

The LORD Condemns Pagan Worship

11 The LORD says, "Wine, both old and new, is robbing my people of their senses!
12 They ask for revelations from a piece

They ask for revelations from a piece of wood (4.12) of wood! A stick tells them what they want to know! They have left me. Like a woman who becomes a prostitute, they have given themselves to other gods. 13 At sacred places on the mountain-tops they offer sacrifices, and on the hills they burn incense under tall, spreading trees, because the shade is so pleasant!

"As a result, your daughters serve as prostitutes, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery. 14 Yet I will not punish them for this, because you yourselves go off with temple prostitutes,[i] and together with them you offer pagan sacrifices. As the proverb says, 'A people without sense will be ruined.' 15 "Even though you people of Israel are unfaithful to me, may Judah not be guilty of the same thing. Don't worship at Gilgal or Bethel,[j] or make promises there in the name of the living LORD. 16 The people of Israel are as stubborn as mules.
How can I feed them like lambs in a meadow? 17 The people of Israel are under the spell of idols. Let them go their own way. 18 After drinking much wine, they delight in their prostitution, preferring disgrace to honour. 19 They will be carried away as by the wind, and they will be ashamed of their pagan sacrifices.[k]

5 "Listen to this, you priests! Pay attention, people of Israel! Listen, you that belong to the royal family! You are supposed to judge with justice—so judgement will fall on you! You have become a trap at Mizpah, a net spread on Mount Tabor, 2 a deep pit at Acacia City,[l] and I will punish all of you. 3 I know what Israel is like—she cannot hide from me. She has been unfaithful, and her people are unfit to worship me."

Hosea Warns against Idolatry

4 The evil that the people have done prevents them from returning to their God. Idolatry has a powerful hold on them, and they do not acknowledge the LORD. 5 The arrogance of the people of Israel cries out against them. Their sins make them stumble and fall, and the people of Judah fall with them. 6 They take their sheep and cattle to offer as sacrifices to the LORD, but it does them no good.
They cannot find him, for he has left them.
7 They have been unfaithful to the LORD; their children do not belong to him. So now they and their lands will soon be destroyed.

War between Judah and Israel

8 Blow the war trumpets in Gibeah!

[i] TEMPLE PROSTITUTES: These women were found in Canaanite temples, where fertility gods were worshipped. It was believed that intercourse with these prostitutes assured fertile fields and herds.
[j] BETHEL: This name in Hebrew means "house of God". The Hebrew text here refers to Bethel as Bethaven, "house of evil" or "house of idolatry". [k] Verses 17-19 in Hebrew are unclear.

Sound the alarm in Ramah! Raise the war-cry at Bethel! Into battle, men of Benjamin! 9 The day of punishment is coming, and Israel will be ruined People of Israel, this will surely happen!
10 The LORD says, "I am angry because the leaders of Judah have invaded Israel and stolen land from her So I will pour out punishment on them like a flood 11 Israel is suffering oppression, she has lost land that was rightfully hers, because she insisted on going for help to those who had none to give [m] 12 I will bring destruction on Israel and ruin on the people of Judah 13 "When Israel saw how sick she was and when Judah saw her own wounds, then Israel went to Assyria to ask the great emperor for help, but he could not cure them or heal their wounds 14 I will attack the people of Israel and Judah like a lion I myself will tear them to pieces and then leave them When I drag them off, no one will be able to save them 15 "I will abandon my people until they have suffered enough for their sins and come looking for me Perhaps in their suffering they will try to find me"

The People's Insincere Repentance

6 The people say, "Let's return to the LORD! He has hurt us, but he will be sure to heal us, he has wounded us, but he will bandage our wounds, won't he? 2 In two or three days he will revive us, and we will live in his presence 3 Let us try to know the LORD He will come to us as surely as the day dawns, as surely as the spring rains that water the earth" 4 But the LORD says, "Israel and Judah, what am I going to do with you? Your love for me disappears as quickly as morning mist, it is like dew, that vanishes early in the day 5 That is why I have sent my prophets to you with my message of judgement and destruction What I want from you is plain and clear 6 I want your constant love, not your animal sacrifices I would rather have my people know me than burn offerings to me 7 "But as soon as they entered the land at Adam,[n] they broke the covenant I had made with them 8 Gilead is a city full of evil men and murderers 9 The priests are like a gang of robbers who wait in ambush for a man Even on the road to the holy place at Shechem they commit murder And they do all this evil deliberately! 10 I have seen a horrible thing in Israel my people have defiled themselves by worshipping idols 11 "And as for you, people of Judah, I have set a time to punish you also for what you are doing 7 "Whenever I want to heal my people Israel and make them prosperous again, all I can see is their wickedness and the evil they do They cheat one another, they break into houses and steal, they rob people in the streets 2 It never enters their heads that I will remember all this evil, but their sins surround them, and I cannot avoid seeing them"

Conspiracy in the Palace

3 The LORD says, "People deceive the king and his officers by their evil plots 4 They are all treacherous and disloyal Their hatred smoulders like the fire in an oven, which is not stirred by the baker until the dough is ready to bake 5 On the day of the king's celebration they made the king and his officials drunk and foolish with wine 6 Yes, they burned[o] like an oven with their plotting All night their anger smouldered, and in the morning it burst into flames 7 "In the heat of their anger they murdered their rulers Their kings have been assassinated one after another, but no one prays to me for help"

Israel and the Nations

8 The LORD says, "The people of Israel are like a half-baked loaf of bread They rely on the nations around them 9 and do not realize that this reliance on foreigners has robbed them of their strength Their days are numbered, but they don't even know it 10 The arrogance of the people of Israel cries out against them In spite of everything that has happened, they have not returned to me, the LORD their God 11 Israel flits about like a silly pigeon, first her people call on Egypt for help, and then they run to Assyria! 12 But I will spread out a net and catch them like birds as they go by I will punish them for the evil they have done [p] 13 "They are doomed! They have left me and rebelled against me They will be destroyed I wanted to save them, but [m] Probable text those who had none to give, Hebrew command [n] But at Adam, or But like Adam [o] One ancient translation burned, Hebrew drew near [p] Probable text the evil they have done, Hebrew the report to their congregation their worship of me was false 14 They have not prayed to me sincerely, but instead they throw themselves down and wail as the heathen do When they pray for corn and wine, they gash themselves like pagans What rebels they are! 15 Even though I was the one who brought them up and made them strong, they plotted against me 16 They keep on turning away from me to a god that is powerless [q] They are as unreliable as a crooked bow Because their leaders talk arrogantly, they will die a violent death, and the Egyptians will laugh"

they have for sinning! 12 I write down countless teachings for the people, but they reject them as strange and foreign 13 They offer sacrifices to me and eat the meat of the sacrifices [r] But I, the LORD, am not pleased with them, and now I will remember their sin and punish them for it, I will send them back to Egypt!
14 "The people of Israel have built palaces, but they have forgotten their own Maker The people of Judah have built fortified cities But I will send fire that will burn down their palaces and their cities"

The LORD Condemns Israel for Idol Worship

8 The LORD says, "Sound the alarm!
Enemies are swooping down on my land like eagles! My people have broken the covenant I made with them and have rebelled against my teaching 2 Even though they call me their God and claim that they are my people and that they know me, 3 they have rejected what is good Because of this their enemies will pursue them 4 "My people chose kings, but they did it on their own They appointed leaders, but without my approval They took their silver and gold and made idols—for their own destruction 5 I hate the gold bull worshipped by the people of the city of Samaria I am furious with them How long will it be before they give up their idolatry? 6 An Israelite craftsman made the idol, and it is not a god at all! The gold bull worshipped in Samaria will be smashed to pieces! 7 When they sow the wind, they will reap a storm! A field of corn that doesn't ripen can never produce any bread But even if it did, foreigners would eat it up 8 Israel has become like any other nation and is as useless as a broken pot 9 Stubborn as wild donkeys, the people of Israel go their own way They have gone off to seek help from Assyria, and have paid other nations to protect them 10 But now I am going to gather them together and punish them Soon they will writhe in pain, when the emperor of Assyria oppresses them 11 "The more altars the people of Israel build for removing sin, the more places

Hosea Announces Punishment for Israel

9 People of Israel, stop celebrating your festivals like pagans You have turned away from your God and have been unfaithful to him All over the land you have sold yourselves like prostitutes to the god Baal and have loved the corn you thought he paid you with! 2 But soon you will not have enough corn and olive-oil, and there will be no wine 3 The people of Israel will not remain in the LORD's land, but will have to go back to Egypt and will have to eat forbidden food[s] in Assyria 4 In those foreign lands they will not be able to make offerings of wine to the LORD, or bring their sacrifices to him Their food will defile everyone who eats it, like food eaten at funerals It will be used only to satisfy their hunger, none of it will be taken as an offering to the LORD's Temple 5 And when the time comes for the appointed festivals in honour of the LORD, what will they do then? 6 When the disaster comes and the people are scattered, the Egyptians will gather them up—gather them for burial there at Memphis! Their treasures of silver and the places where their homes once stood will be overgrown with weeds and thorn-bushes 7 The time for punishment has come, the time when people will get what they deserve When that happens, Israel will know it! "This prophet," you say, "is a fool This inspired man is insane" You people hate me so much because your sin is so great. 8 God has sent me as a prophet to warn his people Israel Yet wherever I go, you try to trap me like a bird In God's own land the people are the prophet's enemies [9]They are hopelessly evil in what they do, just as they were at Gibeah [t] God will remember their sin and punish them for it

Israel's Sin and Its Consequences

10 The LORD says, "When I first found Israel, it was like finding grapes growing in the desert When I first saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the first ripe figs of the season But when they came to Mount Peor, they began to worship Baal, and soon became as disgusting as the gods they loved [11]Israel's greatness will fly away like a bird, and there will be no more children born to them, no more women pregnant, no more children conceived [12]But even if they did bring up children, I would take them away and not leave one alive When I abandon these people, terrible things will happen to them "

13 LORD, I can see their children being hunted down[u] and killed [14]What shall I ask you to do to these people? Make their women barren! Make them unable to nurse their babies!

The LORD's Judgement on Israel

15 The LORD says, "All their evil-doing began in Gilgal It was there that I began to hate them And because of the evil they have done, I will drive them out of my land I will not love them any more, all their leaders have rebelled against me [16]The people of Israel are like a plant whose roots have dried up and which bears no fruit They will have no children, but even if they did, I would kill the children so dear to them "

The Prophet Speaks about Israel

17 The God I serve will reject his people, because they have not listened to him They will become wanderers among the nations

10 [1]The people of Israel were like a grapevine that was full of grapes The more prosperous they were, the more altars they built The more productive their land was, the more beautiful they made the sacred stone pillars they worship [2]The people whose hearts are deceitful must now suffer for their sins God will break down their altars and destroy their sacred pillars

3 These people will soon be saying, "We have no king because we did not fear the LORD But what could a king do for us anyway?" [4]They utter empty words and make false promises and useless treaties Justice has become injustice, growing like poisonous weeds in a ploughed field

5 The people who live in the city of Samaria will be afraid and will mourn the loss of the gold bull at Bethel They and the priests who serve the idol will weep over it They will wail when it is stripped of its golden splendour [6]The idol will be carried off to Assyria as tribute to the great emperor Israel will be disgraced and put to shame because of the advice she followed [7]Her king will be carried off, like a chip of wood on water [8]The hilltop shrines of Aven,[a] where the people of Israel worship idols, will be destroyed Thorns and weeds will grow up over their altars The people will call out to the mountains, "Hide us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"

The LORD Pronounces Judgement on Israel

9 The LORD says, "The people of Israel have not stopped sinning against me since the time of their sin at Gibeah [v] So at Gibeah war will catch up with them [10]I will attack[w] this sinful people and punish them Nations will join together against them, and they will be punished for their many sins

11 "Israel was once like a well-trained young cow, ready and willing to thresh grain But I decided to put a yoke[x] on her beautiful neck and to harness her for harder work I made Judah pull the plough and Israel pull the harrow [12]I said, 'Plough new ground for yourselves, plant righteousness, and reap the blessings that your devotion to me will produce It is time for you to turn to me, your LORD, and I will come and pour out blessings upon you ' [13]But instead you planted evil and reaped its harvest You have eaten the fruit produced by your lies

"Because you trusted in your chariots[y] and in the large number of your soldiers,

God's Love for His Rebellious People

11 The LORD says,
"When Israel was a child, I loved him and called him out of Egypt as my son [z] [2] But the more I[a] called to him, the more he turned away from me [b] My people sacrificed to Baal, they burnt incense to idols [3] Yet I was the one who taught Israel to walk I took my people up in my arms,[c] but they did not acknowledge that I took care of them [4] I drew them to me with affection and love I picked them up and held them to my cheek, I bent down to them and fed them [d]

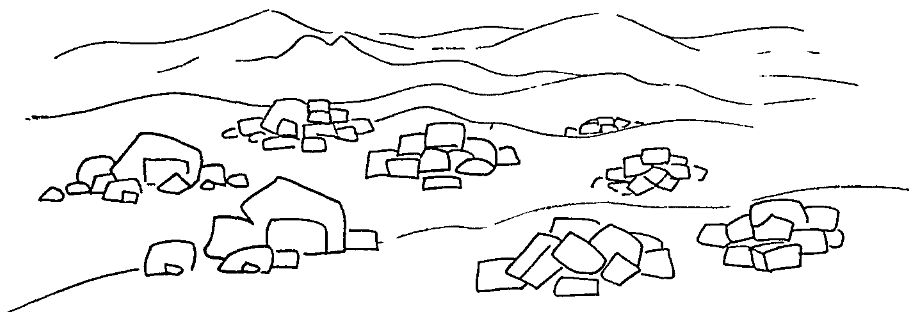
5 "They refuse to return to me, and so they must return to Egypt, and Assyria will rule them [6]War will sweep through their cities and break down the city gates It will destroy my people because they do what they themselves think best. [7]They insist on turning away from me They will cry out because of the yoke that is on them, but no one will lift it from them [e]



[8] "How can I give you up, Israel?
How can I abandon you?
Could I ever destroy you as I did Admah, or treat you as I did Zeboiim?
My heart will not let me do it!
My love for you is too strong [9] I will not punish you in my anger, I will not destroy Israel again For I am God and not man I, the Holy One, am with you I will not come to you in anger 10 "My people will follow me when I roar like a lion at their enemies They will hurry to me from the west [11]They will come from Egypt, as swiftly as birds, and from Assyria, like doves I will bring them to their homes again I, the LORD,

have spoken"

Israel and Judah Are Condemned

12 The LORD says, "The people of Israel have surrounded me with lies and deceit, and the people of Judah are still rebelling against me, the faithful and holy God 12 [1]Everything that the people of Israel do from morning to night is useless and destructive Treachery and acts of violence increase among them

The altars there will become piles of stone (12 11)

They make treaties with Assyria and do business with Egypt "
2 The LORD has an accusation to bring against the people of Judah, he is also going to punish Israel for the way her people act He will pay them back for what they have done 3 Their ancestor Jacob struggled with his twin brother Esau while the two of them were still in their mother's womb, when Jacob grew up, he fought against God—4 he fought against an angel and won He wept and asked for a blessing And at Bethel God came to our ancestor Jacob and spoke with him [f] 5 This was the LORD God Almighty—the LORD is the name by which he is to be worshipped 6 So now, descendants of Jacob, trust in your God and return to him Be loyal and just, and wait patiently for your God to act

Further Words of Judgement

7 The LORD says, "The people of Israel are as dishonest as the Canaanites, they love to cheat their customers with false scales 8 'We are rich,' they say 'We've made a fortune And no one can accuse us of getting rich dishonestly ' 9 But I, the LORD your God who led you out of Egypt, I will make you live in tents again, as you did when I came to you in the desert 10 "I spoke to the prophets and gave them many visions, and through the prophets I gave my people warnings 11 Yet idols are worshipped in Gilead, and those who worship them will die Bulls are sacrificed in Gilgal, and the altars there will become piles of stone in the open fields " 12 Our ancestor Jacob had to flee to Mesopotamia, where, in order to get a wife, he worked for another man and took care of his sheep 13 The LORD sent a prophet to rescue the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt and to take care of them 14 The people of Israel have made the LORD bitterly angry, they deserve death for their crimes The LORD will punish them for the disgrace they have brought on him

Final Judgement on Israel

13 In the past, when the tribe of Ephraim spoke, the other tribes of Israel were afraid, they looked up to Ephraim But the people sinned by worshipping Baal, and for this they will die 2 They still keep on sinning by making metal images to worship—idols of silver, designed by human minds, made by human hands And then they say, "Offer sacrifices to them!" How can men kiss those idols—idols in the shape of bulls![g] 3 And so these people will disappear like morning mist, like the dew that vanishes early in the day They will be like straw which the wind blows from the threshing-place, like smoke from a chimney 4 The LORD says, "I am the LORD your God, who led you out of Egypt You have no God but me I alone am your saviour 5 I took care of you in a dry, desert land 6 But when you entered the good land, you became full and satisfied, and then you grew proud and forgot me 7 So I will attack you like a lion. Like a leopard I will lie in wait along your path. 8 I will attack you like a bear that has lost her cubs, and I will tear you open. Like a lion I will devour you on the spot, and will tear you to pieces like a wild animal.

9 "I will destroy you, people of Israel!
Then who can help you?[h] 10 You asked for a king and for leaders, but how can they save the nation?[i] 11 In my anger I have given you kings, and in my fury I have taken them away.
12 "Israel's sin and guilt are on record, and the records are safely stored away.
13 Israel has a chance to live, but is too foolish to take it—like a child about to be born, who refuses to come out of the womb. 14 I will not save this people from the world of the dead or rescue them from the power of death. Bring on[k] your plagues, death! Bring on[k] your destruction, world of the dead! I will no longer have pity for this people. 15 Even though Israel flourishes like weeds,[l] I will send a hot east wind from the desert, and it will dry up their springs and wells. It will take away everything of value. 16 Samaria must be punished for rebelling against me.
Her people will die in war, babies will be dashed to the ground, and pregnant women will be ripped open."

Hosea's Plea to Israel

14 Return to the LORD your God, people of Israel. Your sin has made you stumble and fall. 2 Return to the LORD, and let this prayer be your offering to him: "Forgive all our sins and accept our prayer, and we will praise you as we have promised. 3 Assyria can never save us, and war-horses cannot protect us. We will never again say to our idols that they are our God. O LORD, you show mercy to those who have no one else to turn to."

The LORD Promises New Life for Israel

4 The LORD says,
"I will bring my people back to me.
I will love them with all my heart;
no longer am I angry with them.
5 I will be to the people of Israel like rain in a dry land.
They will blossom like flowers; they will be firmly rooted like the trees of Lebanon.
6 They will be alive with new growth, and beautiful like olive trees.
They will be fragrant like the cedars of Lebanon.
7 Once again they will live under my protection.
They will flourish like a garden[m] and be fruitful like a vineyard.
They will be as famous as the wine of Lebanon.
8 The people of Israel[n] will have nothing more to do with idols; I will answer their prayers and take care of them.
Like an evergreen tree I will shelter
them;
I am the source of all their blessings."

Conclusion

9 May those who are wise understand what is written here, and may they take it to heart. The LORD's ways are right, and righteous people live by following them, but sinners stumble and fall because they ignore them.

JOEL

INTRODUCTION

Little is known about the prophet Joel, and it is not clear just when he lived But it seems likely that the book comes from the fifth or fourth century B C during the time of the Persian Empire Joel describes a terrible invasion of locusts and a devastating drought in Palestine In these events he sees a sign of the coming Day of the Lord, a time when the Lord will punish those who oppose his righteous will The prophet conveys the Lord's call to the people to repent, and his promise of restoration and blessing for his people Noteworthy is the promise that God will send his spirit upon all the people men and women, young and old alike

1 This is the LORD's message to Joel son of Pethuel

The People Mourn the Destruction of the Crops

2 Pay attention, you older people, everyone in Judah, listen Has anything like this ever happened in your time or the time of your fathers?
3 Tell your children about it, they will tell their children, who in turn will tell the next generation 4 Swarm after swarm of locusts settled on the crops, what one swarm left, the next swarm devoured 5 Wake up and weep, you drunkards, cry, you wine-drinkers, the grapes for making new wine have been destroyed 6 An army of locusts has attacked our land, they are powerful and too many to count, their teeth are as sharp as those of a lion 7 They have destroyed our grapevines and chewed up our fig-trees They have stripped off the bark, till the branches are white 8 Cry, you people, like a girl who mourns the death of the man she was going to marry 9 There is no corn or wine to offer in the Temple, the priests mourn because they have no offerings for the LORD

10 The fields are bare, the ground mourns
because the corn is destroyed, the grapes are dried up,

The ground mourns (1 10)

and the olive-trees are withered 11 Grieve, you farmers, cry, you that take care of the vineyards, because the wheat, the barley, yes all the crops are destroyed 12 The grapevines and fig-trees have withered, all the fruit-trees have wilted and died The joy of the people is gone 13 Put on sackcloth and weep, you priests who serve at the altar!

Go into the Temple and mourn all night!
There is no corn or wine to offer your God 14 Give orders for a fast, call an assembly!
Gather the leaders and all the people of Judah into the Temple of the LORD your God and cry out to him 15 The day of the LORD is near, the day when the Almighty brings destruction What terror that day will bring!

16 We look on helpless as our crops are destroyed There is no joy in the Temple of our God 17 The seeds die in the dry earth There is no grain to be stored, and so the empty granaries are in ruins 18 The cattle are bellowing in distress because there is no pasture for them, the flocks of sheep also suffer 19 I cry out to you, LORD, because the pastures and trees are dried up, as though a fire had burnt them 20 Even the wild animals cry out to you because the streams have become dry

The Locusts as a Warning of the Day of the LORD

2 Blow the trumpet, sound the alarm on Zion, God's sacred hill [a] Tremble, people of Judah!
The day of the LORD is coming soon 2 It will be a dark and gloomy day, a black and cloudy day
The great army of locusts advances like darkness spreading over the mountains There has never been anything like it, and there never will be again

3 Like fire they eat up the plants In front of them the land is like the Garden of Eden, but behind them it is a barren desert.
Nothing escapes them 4 They look like horses, they run like war-horses 5 As they leap on the tops of the mountains, they rattle like chariots,

[a] SACRED HILL Mount Zion (see Word List)
1 15 Is 13 6 2 4-5 Rev 9 7-9

they crackle like dry grass on fire They are lined up like a great army ready for battle 6 As they approach, everyone is terrified, every face turns pale 7 They attack like warriors, they climb the walls like soldiers They all keep marching straight ahead and do not change direction 8 or get in each other's way They swarm through defences, and nothing can stop them 9 They rush against the city, they run over the walls, they climb up the houses and go in through the windows like thieves

10 The earth shakes as they advance, the sky trembles
The sun and the moon grow dark, and the stars no longer shine 11 The LORD thunders commands to his army
The troops that obey him are many and mighty How terrible is the day of the LORD!
Who will survive it?

12 "But even now," says the LORD, "repent sincerely and return to me with fasting and weeping and mourning

13 Let your broken heart show your sorrow,
tearing your clothes is not enough"

Come back to the LORD your God He is kind and full of mercy, he is patient and keeps his promise, he is always ready to forgive and not punish 14 Perhaps the LORD your God will change his mind and bless you with abundant crops Then you can offer him corn and wine 15 Blow the trumpet on Mount Zion, give orders for a fast and call an assembly!

16 Gather the people together, prepare them for a sacred meeting, bring the old people, gather the children and the babies too Even newly married couples must leave their room and come 17 The priests, serving the LORD between the altar and the entrance of the Temple,
must weep and pray
"Have pity on your people, LORD Do not let other nations despise us and mock us by saying, 'Where is your God?'"

2 10 Rev 8 12   2 11 Rev 6 17

Let your broken heart show your sorrow (2 13)

God Restores Fertility to the Land 18 Then the LORD showed concern for his

land,
he had mercy on his people 19 He answered them
"Now I am going to give you corn and wine and olive-oil, and you will be satisfied Other nations will no longer despise
you 20 I will remove the locust army that came from the north and will drive some of them into the desert
Their front ranks will be driven into
the Dead Sea,
their rear ranks into the Mediterranean
Their dead bodies will stink I will destroy them because of all they have done to you

21 "Fields, don't be afraid, but be joyful and glad because of all the LORD has done for
you 22 Animals, don't be afraid The pastures are green, the trees bear their fruit, and there are plenty of figs and grapes 23 "Be glad, people of Zion, rejoice at what the LORD your God has done for you

He has given you the right amount of autumn rain,[b] he has poured down the winter rain
for you
and the spring rain as before 24 The threshing-places will be full of corn,
the pits beside the presses will overflow with wine and olive-oil 25 I will give you back what you lost in the years when swarms of locusts ate your crops
It was I who sent this army against
you 26 Now you will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied
You will praise the LORD your God, who has done wonderful things for
you
My people will never be despised
again
27 Then, Israel, you will know that I am among you, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other My people will never be despised
again

The Day of the LORD

28 "Afterwards I will pour out my spirit on everyone your sons and daughters will proclaim my message,
your old men will have dreams, and your young men will see visions 29 At that time I will pour out my spirit even on servants, both men and women

30 "I will give warnings of that day in the sky and on the earth, there will be bloodshed, fire, and clouds of smoke 31 The sun will be darkened, and the moon will turn red as blood before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes 32 But all who ask the LORD for help will be saved
As the LORD has said,
'Some in Jerusalem will escape, those whom I choose will survive'"

God Will Judge the Nations

3 The LORD says,
"At that time I will restore the prosperity of Judah and
Jerusalem
2 I will gather all the nations and bring them to the Valley of Judgement.
There I will judge them for all they have done to my people They have scattered the Israelites in foreign countries and divided up Israel, my land 3 They threw dice to decide who would get the captives They sold boys and girls into slavery to pay for prostitutes and wine 4 "What are you trying to do to me, Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you trying to pay me back for something? If you are, I will quickly and gold and carried my rich treasures into your temples [6] You have taken the people of Judah and Jerusalem far from their own country and sold them to the Greeks [7] Now I am going to bring them out of the places to which you have sold them I will do to you what you have done to them [8] I will let your sons and daughters be sold to the people of Judah, they will sell them to the far-off Sabeans

I, the LORD, have spoken

[9] "Make this announcement among the nations
'Prepare for war,
call your warriors,
gather all your soldiers and march!
[10] Hammer the points of your ploughs into swords and your pruning-knives into spears Even the weak must fight [11] Hurry[c] and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather in the valley'"

Send down, O LORD, your army to attack
them

[12] "The nations must get ready and come to the Valley of Judgement There I, the LORD, will sit to judge all the surrounding nations [13] They are very wicked, cut them down like corn at harvest time, crush them as grapes are crushed in a full winepress until the wine runs over"

[14] Thousands and thousands are in the Valley of Judgement It is there that the day of the LORD will soon come [15] The sun and the moon grow dark,
and the stars no longer shine

God Will Bless His People

[16] The LORD roars from Mount Zion, his voice thunders from Jerusalem, earth and sky tremble
But he will defend his people [17] "Then, Israel, you will know that I am the LORD your God
I live on Zion, my sacred hill Jerusalem will be a sacred city, foreigners will never conquer it again [18] At that time the mountains will be covered with vineyards, and cattle will be found on every hill, there will be plenty of water for all the streams of Judah A stream will flow from the Temple of

the LORD,
and it will water the Valley of Acacia [19] "Egypt will become a desert, and Edom a ruined waste, because they attacked the land of Judah and killed its innocent people [20-21] I will avenge[e] those who were killed,

I will not spare the guilty But Judah and Jerusalem will be inhabited for ever, and I the LORD, will live on Mount Zion"

AMOS

INTRODUCTION

Amos was the first prophet in the Bible whose message was recorded at length Although he came from a town in Judah, he preached to the people of the northern kingdom of Israel, about the middle of the eighth century B C It was a time of great prosperity, notable religious piety, and apparent security But Amos saw that prosperity was limited to the wealthy, and that it fed on injustice and on oppression of the poor Religious observance was insincere, and security more apparent than real With passion and courage he preached that God would punish the nation He called for justice to "flow like a stream," and said, "Perhaps the Lord will be merciful to the people of this nation who are still left alive" (5 15)

Israel

and the grass on Mount Carmel turns brown "

from the poor as security for debts In the temple of their God they drink wine which they have taken from those who owe them money 9 "And yet, my people, it was for your sake that I totally destroyed the Amorites, men who were as tall as cedar-trees and as strong as oaks 10 I brought you out of Egypt, led you through the desert for forty years, and gave you the land of the Amorites to be your own 11 I chose some of your sons to be prophets, and some of your young men to be Nazirites [e] Isn't this true, people of Israel? I, the LORD, have spoken 12 But you made the Nazirites drink wine, and ordered the prophets not to speak my message 13 And now I will crush you to the ground, and you will groan like a cart loaded with corn 14 Not even fast runners will escape, strong men will lose their strength, and soldiers will not be able to save their own lives 15 Bowmen will not stand their ground, fast runners will not get away, and men on horses will not escape with their lives 16 On that day even the bravest soldiers will drop their weapons and run "
The LORD has spoken

3 People of Israel, listen to this message which the LORD has spoken about you, the whole nation that he brought out of Egypt 2 "Of all the nations on earth, you are the only one I have known and cared for That is what makes your sins so terrible, and that is why I must punish you for them "

The Prophet's Task

3 Do two men start travelling together without arranging to meet?
4 Does a lion roar in the forest unless he has found a victim?
Does a young lion growl in his den unless he has caught something?
5 Does a bird get caught in a trap if the trap has not been baited?
Does a trap spring unless something sets it off?
6 Does the war trumpet sound in a city without making the people afraid?
Does disaster strike a city unless the LORD sends it?
7 The Sovereign LORD never does anything without revealing his plan to his servants, the prophets 8 When a lion roars, who can avoid being afraid?
When the Sovereign LORD speaks, who can avoid proclaiming his message?

The Doom of Samaria

9 Announce to those who live in the palaces of Egypt and Ashdod "Gather together in the hills surrounding Samaria and see the great disorder and the crimes being committed there " 10 The LORD says, "These people fill their mansions with things taken by crime and violence They don't even know how to be honest 11 And so an enemy will surround their land, destroy their defences, and plunder their mansions " 12 The LORD says, "As a shepherd recovers only two legs or an ear of a sheep that a lion has eaten, so only a few will survive of Samaria's people, who now recline on luxurious couches [f] 13 Listen now, and warn the descendants of Jacob," says the Sovereign LORD Almighty 14 "On the day when I punish the people of Israel for their sins, I will destroy the altars of Bethel The corners of every altar will be broken off and will fall to the ground 15 I will destroy winter houses and summer houses The houses decorated with ivory will fall in ruins, every large house will be destroyed "

4 Listen to this, you women of Samaria, who grow fat like the well-fed cows of Bashan, who ill-treat the weak, oppress the poor, and demand that your husbands keep you supplied with liquor! 2 As the Sovereign LORD is holy, he has promised,
"The days will come when they will drag you away with hooks, every one of you will be like a fish on a hook 3 You will be dragged to the nearest break in the wall and thrown out "[g]

4 The Sovereign LORD says, "People of Israel, go to the holy place in Bethel and sin, if you must! Go to Gilgal and sin with all your might! Go ahead and bring animals to be sacrificed morning after morning, and bring your tithes every third day 5 Go ahead and offer your bread in thanksgiving to God, and boast about the extra offerings you bring! This is the kind of thing you love to do 6 "I was the one who brought famine to all your cities, yet you did not come back to me 7 I held back the rain when your crops needed it most I sent rain on one city, but not on another Rain fell on one field, but another field dried up 8 Weak with thirst, the people of several cities went to a city where they hoped to find water, but there was not enough to drink Still you did not come back to
me 9 "I sent a scorching wind to dry up your crops The locusts ate up all your gardens and vineyards, your fig-trees and olive-trees Still you did not come back to me
10 "I sent a plague on you like the one I sent on Egypt I killed your young men in battle and took your horses away I filled your nostrils with the stink of dead bodies in your camps Still you did not come back to me 11 "I destroyed some of you as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah Those of you who survived were like a burning stick saved from a fire Still you did not come back to me," says the LORD 12 "So then, people of Israel, I am going to punish you And because I am going to do this, get ready to face my judgement!"

13 God is the one who made the mountains
and created the winds He makes his thoughts known to man, he changes day into night He walks on the heights of the earth This is his name the LORD God Almighty!

5 Listen, people of Israel, to this funeral song which I sing over you

2 Virgin Israel has fallen, Never to rise again!
She lies abandoned on the ground,
And no one helps her up

3 The Sovereign LORD says, "A city in Israel sends out a thousand soldiers, but only a hundred return, another city sends out a hundred, but only ten come back " 4 The LORD says to the people of Israel,
"Come to me, and you will live 5 Do not go to Beersheba to worship Do not try to find me at Bethel—Bethel will come to nothing Do not go to Gilgal—her people are doomed to exile " 6 Go to the LORD, and you will live If you do not go, he will sweep down like fire on the people of Israel The fire will burn up the people of Bethel, and no one will be able to put it out 7 You are doomed, you that twist justice and cheat people out of their rights!

8 The LORD made the stars, the Pleiades and Orion He turns darkness into daylight,

4 11 Gen 19 24 5 8 Job 9 9, 38 31 and day into night He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the earth His name is the LORD 9 He brings destruction on the mighty and their strongholds

10 You people hate anyone who challenges injustice and speaks the whole truth in court [11]You have oppressed the poor and robbed them of their grain And so you will not live in the fine stone houses you build or drink wine from the beautiful vineyards you plant [12]I know how terrible your sins are and how many crimes you have committed You persecute good men, take bribes, and prevent the poor from getting justice in the courts [13]And so, keeping quiet in such evil times is the clever thing to do!
14 Make it your aim to do what is right, not what is evil, so that you may live Then the LORD God Almighty really will be with you, as you claim he is [15]Hate what is evil, love what is right, and see that justice prevails in the courts Perhaps the LORD will be merciful to the people of this nation who are still left alive 16 And so the LORD God Almighty says, "There will be wailing and cries of sorrow in the city streets Even farmers will be called to mourn the dead along with those who are paid to mourn [17]There will be wailing in all the vineyards All this will take place because I am coming to punish you " The LORD has spoken 18 How terrible it will be for you who long for the day of the LORD! What good will that day do you? For you it will be a day of darkness and not of light [19]It will be like a man who runs from a lion and meets a bear! Or like a man who comes home and puts his hand on the wall—only to be bitten by a snake! [20]The day of the LORD will bring darkness and not light, it will be a day of gloom, without any brightness 21 The LORD says, "I hate your religious festivals, I cannot stand them! [22]When you bring me burnt-offerings and grain-offerings, I will not accept them, I will not accept the animals you have fattened to bring me as offerings [23]Stop your noisy songs, I do not want to listen to your harps [24]Instead, let justice flow like a stream, and righteousness like a river that never goes dry 25 "People of Israel, I did not demand sacrifices and offerings during those forty years that I led you through the desert [26]But now, because you have worshipped images of Sakkuth, your king god, and of Kaiwan, your star god, you will have to carry those images [27]when I take you into exile in a land beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is Almighty

The Destruction of Israel have such an easy life in Zion and for you that feel safe in Samaria—you great men of this great nation Israel, you to whom the people go for help! [2]Go and look at the city of Calneh Then go on to the great city of Hamath and on down to the Philistine city of Gath Were they any better than the kingdoms of Judah and Israel? Was their territory larger than yours? [3]You refuse to admit that a day of disaster is coming, but what you do only brings that day closer [4]How terrible it will be for you that stretch out on your luxurious couches, feasting on veal and lamb! [5]You like to compose songs, as David did, and play them on harps [6]You drink wine by the bowlful and use the finest perfumes, but you do not mourn over the ruin of Israel [7]So you will be the first to go into exile Your feasts and banquets will come to an end 8 The Sovereign LORD Almighty has given this solemn warning "I hate the pride of the people of Israel, I despise their luxurious mansions I will give their capital city and everything in it to the enemy"

9 If there are ten men left in a family, they will die [10]The dead man's relative, the one in charge of the funeral, will take the body out of the house The relative will call to whoever is still left in the house, "Is anyone else there with you?" A voice will answer, "No!"
Then the relative will say, "Be quiet!
We must be careful not even to mention the LORD's name"[h]

houses large and small will be smashed to pieces [12]Do horses gallop on rocks?
Do men plough the sea with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison, and right into wrong 13 You boast about capturing the town of Lodebar[i] You boast, "We were strong enough to take Karnaim"[j] 14 The LORD God Almighty himself says, "People of Israel, I am going to send a foreign army to occupy your country It will oppress you from Hamath Pass in the north to the valley of the Arabah in the south"

A Vision of Locusts

7 I had a vision from the Sovereign LORD In it I saw him create a swarm of locusts just after the king's share of the hay had been cut and the grass was starting to grow again [2]In my vision I saw the locusts eat up every green thing in the land, and then I said, "Sovereign LORD, forgive your people! How can they survive? They are so small and weak!" 3 The LORD changed his mind and said, "What you saw will not take place"

A Vision of Fire

4 I had another vision from the Sovereign LORD In it I saw him preparing to punish his people with fire The fire burnt up the great ocean under the earth, and started to burn up the land [5]Then I said, "Stop, Lord GOD! How can your people survive? They are so small and weak!"
6 The LORD changed his mind again and said, "This will not take place either"

A Vision of a Plumb-Line

7 I had another vision from the Lord In it I saw him standing beside a wall

[h] Verse 10 in Hebrew is unclear [i] LODEBAR This name sounds like the Hebrew for "nothing" [j] KARNAIM The name of this small town means "horns," a symbol of strength that had been built with the help of a plumb-line, and there was a plumb-line in his hand 8 He asked me, "Amos, what do you see?"

"A plumb-line," I answered Then he said, "I am using it to show that my people are like a wall that is out of line I will not change my mind again about punishing them 9 The places where Isaac's descendants worship will be destroyed The holy places of Israel will be left in ruins I will bring the dynasty of King Jeroboam to an end"

Amos and Amaziah

10 Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, then sent a report to King Jeroboam of Israel "Amos is plotting against you among the people His speeches will destroy the country 11 This is what he says 'Jero boam will die in battle, and the people of Israel will be taken away from their land into exile'" 12 Amaziah then said to Amos, "That's enough, prophet! Go on back to Judah and do your preaching there Let them pay you for it 13 Don't prophesy here at Bethel any more This is the king's place of worship, the national temple" 14 Amos answered, "I am not the kind of prophet who prophesies for pay I am a herdsman, and I take care of fig-trees 15 But the LORD took me from my work as a shepherd and ordered me to go and prophesy to his people Israel 16 So now listen to what the LORD says You tell me to stop prophesying, to stop raving against the people of Israel 17 And so, Amaziah, the LORD says to you, 'Your wife will become a prostitute on the streets, and your children will be killed in war Your land will be divided up and given to others, and you yourself will die in a heathen country And the people of Israel will certainly be taken away from their own land into exile'"

A Vision of a Basket of Fruit

8 I had another vision from the Sovereign LORD. In it I saw a basket of fruit The LORD asked, "Amos, what do you see?"
"A basket of fruit," I answered The LORD said to me, "The end[l] has come for my people Israel I will not change my mind again about punishing them 3 On that day the songs in the palace will become cries of mourning There will be dead bodies everywhere They will be thrown out in silence"[m]

Israel's Doom

4 Listen to this, you that trample on the needy and try to destroy the poor of the country 5 You say to yourselves, "We can hardly wait for the holy days to be over so that we can sell our corn When will the Sabbath end, so that we [l] END The Hebrew words for "end" and "fruit" sound alike [m] out in silence, or out Silence!

I hate the pride of the people of Israel (6 8) can start sellıng again? Then we can overcharge, use false measures, and tamper with the scales to cheat our customers 6 We can sell worthless wheat at a hıgh price We'll find a poor man who can't pay hıs debts, not even the price of a pair of sandals, and we'll buy him as a slave" 7 The LORD, the God of Israel, has sworn, "I will never forget their evil deeds 8 And so the earth will quake, and everyone in the land will be in distress The whole country will be shaken, it will rise and fall like the River Nile 9 The time is coming when I will make the sun go down at noon and the earth grow dark in daytime I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken 10 I will turn your festivals into funerals and change your glad songs into cries of grief I will make you shave your heads and wear sackcloth, and you will be like parents mourning for their only son That day will be bitter to the end 11 "The time is coming when I will send famine on the land People will be hungry, but not for bread, they will be thirsty, but not for water They will hunger and thirst for a message from the LORD I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken 12 People will wander from north to south and from east to west They will look everywhere for a message from the LORD, but they will not find it 13 On that day even healthy young men and women will collapse from thirst 14 Those who swear by the idols of Samaria, who say, 'By the god of Dan,' or, 'By the god of Beersheba'—those people will fall and not rise again"

The Lord's Judgements

9 I saw the Lord standing by the altar He gave the command "Strike the tops of the temple columns so hard that the whole porch will shake Break them off and let them fall on the heads of the people I will kill the rest of the people in war No one will get away, not one will escape 2 Even if they dig their way down to the world of the dead, I will catch them Even if they climb up to heaven, I will bring them down 3 If they hide on the top of Mount Carmel, I will search for them and catch them If they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, I will command the sea-monster[o] to bite them 4 If they are taken away into captivity by their enemies, I will order them to be put to death I am determined to destroy them, not to help them"

Amos, what do you see? (8 2)

[o]SEA MONSTER It was believed that the sea was inhabited by a great monster This creature, like all others was regarded as under God's control

5 The Sovereign LORD Almighty touches
the earth,
and it quakes,
all who live there mourn The whole world rises and falls like the River Nile

6 The LORD builds his home in the heavens, and over the earth he puts the dome of the sky
He calls for the waters of the sea
and pours them out on the earth
His name is the LORD!

7 The LORD says, "People of Israel, I think as much of the people of Sudan as I do of you I brought the Philistines from Crete and the Syrians from Kir, just as I brought you from Egypt 8 I, the Sovereign LORD, am watching this sinful kingdom of Israel, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth But I will not destroy all the descendants of Jacob 9 "I will give the command and shake the people of Israel like corn in a sieve I will shake them among the nations to remove all who are worthless 10 The sinners among my people will be killed in war—all those who say, 'God will not let any harm come near us' "

The Future Restoration of Israel

11 The LORD says, "A day is coming when I will restore the kingdom of David, which is like a house fallen into ruins I will repair its walls and restore it I will rebuild it and make it as it was long ago 12 And so the people of Israel will conquer what is left of the land of Edom and all the nations that were once mine," says the LORD, who will cause this to happen
13 "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when corn will grow faster than it can be harvested, and grapes will grow faster than the wine can be made The mountains will drip with sweet
wine,
and the hills will flow with it.
14 I will bring my people back to their
land
They will rebuild their ruined cities and live there, they will plant vineyards and drink the wine, they will plant gardens and eat what they grow 15 I will plant my people on the land I gave them, and they will not be pulled up again"
The LORD your God has spoken

OBADIAH

INTRODUCTION

This short book comes from some undetermined time after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 B C , when Edom, Judah's age-old enemy to the south-east, not only rejoiced over the fall of Jerusalem, but took advantage of Judah's plight to loot the city and help the invader Obadiah prophesied that Edom would be punished and defeated, along with other nations that were the enemies of Israel

1 This is the prophecy of Obadiah it is what the Sovereign LORD said about the nation of Edom

The Lord Will Punish Edom

The LORD has sent his messenger to the nations, and we have heard his message "Get ready! Let us go to war against Edom!" 2 The LORD says to Edom,
"I will make you weak, everyone will despise you 3 Your pride has deceived you Your capital is a fortress of solid rock, your home is high in the mountains, and so you say to yourself,
'Who can ever pull me down?' 4 Even though you make your home as high as an eagle's nest, so that it seems to be among the stars, yet I will pull you down 5 "When thieves come at night, they take only what they want When people gather grapes, they always leave a few But your enemies have wiped you out completely 6 Descendants of Esau, your treasures have been looted 7 Your allies have deceived you, they have driven you from your country People who were at peace with you have now conquered you Those friends who ate with you have laid a trap for you, they say of you, 'Where is all that cleverness he had?'

8 "On the day I punish Edom, I will destroy their clever men and wipe out all their wisdom 9 The fighting men of Teman will be terrified, and every soldier in Edom will be killed

Reasons for Edom's Punishment

10 "Because you robbed and killed your brothers,[a] the descendants of Jacob,

[a] YOUR BROTHERS The Israelites were descended from Jacob, who was the brother of Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites

1–14 Is 34 5–17, 63 1–6, Jer 49 7–22, Ezek 25 12–14, 35 1–15 Amos 1 11–12, Mal 1 2–5

You should not have gloated (v 12) you will be destroyed and dishonoured for ever 11 You stood aside on that day when enemies broke down their gates You were as bad as those strangers who carried off Jerusalem's wealth and divided it among themselves 12 You should not have gloated over the misfortune of your brothers in Judah

You should not have been glad on the day of their ruin You should not have laughed at them in their distress 13 You should not have entered the city of my people to gloat over their suffering and to seize their riches on the day of their disaster 14 You should not have stood at the crossroads to catch those trying to escape You should not have handed them over to the enemy on the day of their distress

God Will Judge the Nations

15 "The day is near when I, the LORD, will judge all nations Edom, what you have done will be done to you You will get back what you have given 16 My people have drunk a bitter cup of punishment on my sacred hill [b] But all the surrounding nations will
drink
a still more bitter cup of punishment, they will drink it all and vanish away

The Victory of Israel

17 "But on Mount Zion some will escape, and it will be a sacred place The people of Jacob will possess the land that is theirs by right.

18 The people of Jacob and Joseph will be like fire, they will destroy the people of Esau as fire burns stubble No descendant of Esau will survive
I, the LORD, have spoken

19 "People from southern Judah will occupy Edom, those from the western foothills will capture Philistia, Israelites will possess the territory of Ephraim and Samaria, the people of Benjamin will take Gilead
20 The army of exiles from northern Israel will return and conquer Phoenicia as far north as Zarephath The exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sardis
will capture the towns of southern Judah
21 The victorious men of Jerusalem will attack Edom and rule over it And the LORD himself will be King"

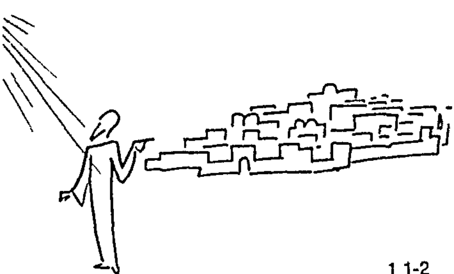
JONAH

INTRODUCTION

The book of Jonah is unlike other prophetic books of the Bible in that it is a narrative, describing the adventures of a prophet who tried to disobey God's command God told him to go to Nineveh, the capital of the great empire of Assyria, Israel's deadly enemy But Jonah did not want to go there with God's message, because he was convinced that God would not carry out his threat to destroy the city After a series of dramatic events, he reluctantly obeyed, and finally sulked when his message of doom did not come true



The book portrays God's absolute sovereignty over his creation But above all it portrays God as a God of love and mercy, who would rather forgive and save even the enemies of his people, than punish and destroy them

Jonah Disobeys the LORD

1 One day, the LORD spoke to Jonah son of Amittai 2 He said, "Go to Nineveh, that great city, and speak out against it, I am aware how wicked its people are " 3 Jonah, however, set out in the opposite direction in order to get away from the LORD He went to Joppa, he found a ship about to go to Spain He paid his fare and went aboard with the crew to sail to Spain, where he would be away from the LORD 4 But the LORD sent a strong wind on the sea, and the storm was so violent that the ship was in danger of breaking up 5 The sailors were terrified and cried out for help, each one to his own god Then, in order to lessen the danger[a], they threw the cargo[b] overboard Meanwhile, Jonah had gone below and was lying in the ship's hold, sound asleep 6 The captain found him there and said to him, "What are you doing asleep? Get up and pray to your god for help Maybe he will feel sorry for us and spare our lives " 7 The sailors said to one another, "Let's draw lots and find out who is to blame for getting us into this danger " They did so, and Jonah's name was drawn 8 So they said to him "Now then, tell us! Are you to blame for this? What are you doing here? What country do you come from?
What is your nationality?" 9 "I am a Hebrew," Jonah answered "I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made land and sea " 10 Jonah went on to tell them that he was running away from the LORD.

The sailors were terrified, and said to him, "That was an awful thing to do!"[c] 11 The storm was getting worse all the time, so the sailors asked him, "What should we do to you to stop the storm?" 12 Jonah answered, "Throw me into the sea, and it will calm down. I know it is my fault that you are caught in this violent storm." 13 Instead, the sailors tried to get the ship to shore, rowing with all their might.
But the storm was getting worse and worse, and they got nowhere. 14 So they cried out to the LORD, "O LORD, we pray, don't punish us with death for taking this man's life! You, O LORD, are responsible for all this; it is your doing." 15 Then they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea, and it calmed down at once. 16 This made the sailors so afraid of the LORD that they offered a sacrifice and promised to serve him.
17 At the LORD's command a large fish swallowed Jonah, and he was inside the fish for three days and nights.

Jonah's Prayer

2 From deep inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God: 2 "In my distress, O LORD, I called to you, and you answered me.
From deep in the world of the dead
I cried for help, and you heard me.
3 You threw me down into the depths, to the very bottom of the sea, where the waters were all round me, and all your mighty waves rolled over
me.
4 I thought I had been banished from your presence
and would never see your holy Temple again.
5 The water came over me and choked
me;
the sea covered me completely, and seaweed was wrapped round my head.
6 I went down to the very roots of the
mountains,
into the land whose gates lock shut for ever.[e]
But you, O LORD my God, brought me back from the depths alive.
7 When I felt my life slipping away, then, O LORD, I prayed to you, and in your holy Temple you heard
me.
8 Those who worship worthless idols have abandoned their loyalty to you.
9 But I will sing praises to you; I will offer you a sacrifice and do what I have promised.
Salvation comes from the LORD!" 10 Then the LORD ordered the fish to spew Jonah up on the beach, and it did.

Jonah Obeys the LORD

3 Once again the LORD spoke to Jonah.
2 He said, "Go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to the people the message I have given you." 3 So Jonah obeyed the LORD and went to Nineveh, a city so large that it took three days to walk through it. 4 Jonah started through the city, and after walking a whole day, he proclaimed, "In forty days Nineveh will be destroyed!"
5 The people of Nineveh believed God's message. So they decided that everyone should fast, and all the people, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth to show that they had repented.
6 When the king of Nineveh heard about it, he got up from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth, and sat down in ashes. 7 He sent out a proclamation to the people of Nineveh: "This is an order from the king and his officials: No one is to eat anything; all persons, cattle, and sheep are forbidden to eat or drink. 8 All persons and animals must wear sackcloth. Everyone must pray earnestly to God and must give up his wicked behaviour and his evil actions.
9 Perhaps God will change his mind; perhaps he will stop being angry, and we will not die!" 10 God saw what they did; he saw that they had given up their wicked behaviour.
So he changed his mind and did not punish them as he had said he would.

Jonah's Anger and God's Mercy

4 Jonah was very unhappy about this and became angry. 2 So he prayed, "LORD, didn't I say before I left home that this is just what you would do? That's why I did my best to run away to Spain!
I knew that you are a loving and merciful God, always patient, always kind, and always ready to change your mind and 4 The LORD answered, "What right have you to be angry?" 5 Jonah went out east of the city and sat down He made a shelter for himself and sat in its shade, waiting to see what would happen to Nineveh 6 Then the LORD God made a plant grow up over Jonah to give him some shade, so that he would be more comfortable Jonah was extremely pleased with the plant 7 But at dawn the next day, at God's command, a worm attacked the plant, and it died 8 After the sun had risen, God sent a hot east wind, and Jonah was about to faint from the heat of the sun beating down on his head So he wished he were dead [f]

"I am better off dead than alive," he said 9 But God said to him, "What right have you to be angry about the plant?" Jonah replied, "I have every right to be angry—angry enough to die!" 10 The LORD said to him, "This plant grew up in one night and disappeared the next, you didn't do anything for it, and you didn't make it grow—yet you feel sorry for it! 11 How much more, then, should I have pity on Nineveh, that great city After all, it has more than 120,000 innocent children in it, as well as many animals!"

MICAH

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Micah, a contemporary of Isaiah, was from a country town in Judah, the southern kingdom He was convinced that Judah was about to face the same kind of national catastrophe that Amos had predicted for the northern kingdom, and for the same reason—God would punish the hateful injustice of the people Micah's message, however, contains more clear and notable signs of hope for the future

Passages especially worth noting are the picture of universal peace under God (4 1-4), the prediction of a great king who would come from the family line of David and bring peace to the nation (5 2-4), and, in a single verse (6 8), the summary of much that the prophets of Israel had to say "What he requires of us is this to do what is just, to show constant love, and to live in humble fellowship with our God "

1 During the time that Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, the LORD gave this message to Micah, who was from the town of Moresheth The LORD revealed to Micah all these things about Samaria and Jerusalem [f] wished he were dead, or prayed that he would die 4 3 1 Kgs 19 4 1 1 2 Kgs 15 32—16 20, 18 1—20 21, 2 Chr 27 1-7, 28 1—32 33

A Lament for Samaria and Jerusalem

2 Hear this, all you nations, listen to this, all who live on earth!
The Sovereign LORD will testify against
you Listen! He speaks from his heavenly temple
3 The LORD is coming from his holy place, he will come down and walk on the tops of the mountains 4 Then the mountains will melt under him like wax in a fire, they will pour down into the valleys like water pouring down a hill

5 All this will happen because the people of Israel have sinned and rebelled against God Who is to blame for Israel's rebellion? Samaria, the capital city itself!
Who is guilty of idolatry in Judah?
Jerusalem itself! 6 So the LORD says, "I will make Samaria a pile of ruins in the open country, a place for planting grapevines I will pour the rubble of the city down into the valley, and will lay bare the city's foundations 7 All its precious idols will be smashed to pieces, everything given to its temple prostitutes will be destroyed by fire, and all its images will become a desolate heap Samaria acquired these things for its fertility rites, and now her enemies will carry them off for worship elsewhere." 8 Then Micah said, "Because of this I will mourn and lament To show my sorrow, I will walk about barefoot and naked I will howl like a jackal and wail like an ostrich 9 Samaria's wounds cannot be healed, and Judah is about to suffer in the same way, destruction has reached the gates of Jerusalem itself, where my people live"

The Enemy Approaches Jerusalem

10 Don't tell our enemies in Gath about our defeat, don't let them see you weeping People of Beth Leaphrah,[a] show your despair by rolling in the dust! 11 You people of Shaphir, go into exile, naked and ashamed Those who live in Zaanan dare not come out of their city When you hear the people of Bethezel mourn, you will know that there is no refuge there 12 The people of Maroth wait anxiously for relief, because the LORD has brought disaster close to Jerusalem 13 You that live in Lachish, hitch the horses to the chariots You imitated the sins of Israel and so caused Jerusalem to sin 14 And now, people of Judah, say good-bye to the town of Moresheth Gath The kings of Israel will get no help from the town of Achzib 15 People of Mareshah, the LORD will hand you over to an enemy, who is going to capture your town The glorious leaders of Israel will go and hide in the cave at Adullam 16 People of Judah, cut off your hair in mourning for the children you love Make yourselves as bald as vultures, because your children will be taken away from you into exile

The Fate of Those Who Oppress the Poor

2 How terrible it will be for those who lie awake and plan evil! When morning comes, as soon as they have the chance, they do the evil they planned 2 When they want fields, they seize them, when they want houses, they take them No man's family or property is safe 3 And so the LORD says, "I am planning to bring disaster on you, and you will not be able to escape it You are going to find yourselves in trouble, and then you will not walk so proudly any more 4 When that time comes, people will use your story as an example of disaster, and they will sing this song of despair about your experience

We are completely ruined!
The LORD has taken our land away And given it to those who took us captive".[b]

5 So then, when the time comes for the land to be given back to the LORD's people, there will be no share for any of you 6 The people preach at me and say, "Don't preach at us Don't preach about all that God is not going to disgrace us 7 Do you think the people of Israel are under a curse?[c] Has the LORD lost his patience? Would he really do such things? Doesn't he[d] speak kindly to those who do right?" 8 The LORD replies, "You attack my people like enemies Men return from battle, thinking they are safe at home, but there you are, waiting to steal the coats off their backs [e] 9 You drive the women of my people out of the homes they love, and you have robbed their children of my blessings for ever 10 Get up and go, there is no safety here any more Your sins have doomed this place to destruction 11 "These people want the kind of prophet who goes about full of lies and deceit and says, 'I prophesy that wine and liquor will flow for you ' 12 "But I will gather you together, all you people of Israel that are left I will bring you together like sheep returning to the fold Like a pasture full of sheep, your land will once again be filled with many people " 13 God will open the way for them and lead them out of exile They will break out of the city gates and go free Their king, the LORD himself, will lead them out.

Micah Denounces Israel's Leaders

3 Listen you rulers of Israel! You are supposed to be concerned about justice, 2 yet you hate what is good and love what is evil You skin my people alive and tear the flesh off their bones 3 You eat my people up You strip off their skin, break their bones, and chop them up like meat for the pot. 4 The time is coming when you will cry out to the LORD, but he will not answer you He will not listen to your prayers, for you have done evil 5 My people are deceived by prophets who promise peace to those who pay them, but threaten war for those who don't To these prophets the LORD says, 6 "Prophets, your day is almost over, the sun is going down on you. Because you mislead my people, you will have no more prophetic visions, and you will not be able to predict anything." 7 Those who predict the future will be disgraced by their failure They will all be humiliated because God does not answer them 8 But as for me, the LORD fills me with his spirit and power, and gives me a sense of justice and the courage to tell the people of Israel what their sins are 9 Listen to me, you rulers of Israel, you that hate justice and turn right into wrong 10 You are building God's city, Jerusalem, on a foundation of murder and injustice 11 The city's rulers govern for bribes, the priests interpret the Law for pay, the prophets give their revelations for money—and they all claim that the LORD is with them "No harm will come to us," they say "The LORD is with us " 12 And so, because of you, Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become a pile of ruins, and the Temple hill will become a forest.

The Lord's Universal Reign of Peace

(Is 2 1-4)

4 In days to come the mountain where the Temple stands
will be the highest one of all,
towering above all the hills Many nations will come streaming to it, 2 and their people will say,
"Let us go up the hill of the Lord,[f]
to the Temple of Israel's God
For he will teach us what he wants us to do, we will walk in the paths he has chosen For the Lord's teaching comes from Jerusalem, from Zion he speaks to his people"

3 He will settle disputes among the nations, among the great powers near and far They will hammer their swords into ploughs and their spears into pruning-knives Nations will never again go to war,
never prepare for battle again 4 Everyone will live in peace among his own vineyards and fig-trees, and no one will make him afraid The Lord Almighty has promised this 5 Each nation worships and obeys its own god, but we will worship and obey the Lord our God for ever and ever

Israel Will Return from Exile

6 "The time is coming," says the Lord,
"when I will gather together the people I punished, those who have suffered in exile 7 They are crippled and far from home, but I will make a new beginning with those who are left, and they will become a great nation I will rule over them on Mount Zion from that time on and for ever" 8 And you, Jerusalem, where God, like a shepherd, watches over his people, will once again be the capital of the kingdom that was yours 9 Why do you cry out so loudly? Why are you suffering like a woman in labour? Is it because you have no king, and your counsellors are dead?
10 Twist and groan,[g] people of Jerusalem, like a woman giving birth, for now you will have to leave the city and live in the open country You will have to go to Babylon, but there the Lord will save you from your enemies 11 Many nations have gathered to attack you They say, "Jerusalem must be destroyed! We will see this city in ruins!" 12 But these nations do not know what is in the Lord's mind They do not realize that they have been gathered together to be punished in the same way that corn is brought in to be threshed 13 The Lord says, "People of Jerusalem, go and punish your enemies! I will make you as strong as a bull with iron horns and bronze hoofs You will crush many nations, and the wealth they got by violence you will present to me, the Lord of the whole world"

5 People of Jerusalem, gather your forces![h] We are besieged! They are attacking the leader of Israel!

God Promises a Ruler from Bethlehem in Judah, but out of you I will bring a ruler for Israel, whose family line goes back to ancient times " 3 So the LORD will abandon his people to their enemies until the one who is to give birth has her son Then his fellow-countrymen who are in exile will be reunited with their own people 4 When he comes, he will rule his people with the strength that comes from the LORD and with the majesty of the LORD God himself His people will live in safety because people all over the earth will acknowledge his greatness, 5 and he will bring peace

Deliverance and Punishment

When the Assyrians invade our country and break through our defences, we will send our strongest leaders to fight them 6 By force of arms they will conquer Assyria, and they[i] will save us from the Assyrians when they invade our territory 7 The people of Israel who survive will be like refreshing dew sent by the LORD for many nations, like showers on growing plants They will depend on God, not man 8 Those who are left among the nations will be like a lion hunting for food in a forest or a pasture he gets in among the sheep, pounces on them, and tears them to pieces—and there is no hope of rescue 9 Israel will conquer her enemies and destroy them all 10 The LORD says, "At that time I will take away your horses and destroy your chariots 11 I will destroy the cities in your land and tear down all your defences 12 I will destroy the magic charms you use and leave you without any fortune-tellers 13 I will destroy your idols and sacred stone pillars, no longer will you worship the things that you yourselves have made 14 I will pull down the images of the goddess Asherah in your land and destroy your cities 15 And in my great anger I will take revenge on all nations that have not obeyed me "

The LORD's Case Against Israel

6 Listen to the LORD's case against
Israel
Arise, O LORD, and present your case, let the mountains and the hills hear what you say 2 You mountains, you everlasting foundations of the earth, listen to the LORD's case! The LORD has a case against his people He is going to bring an accusation against Israel 3 The LORD says, "My people, what have I done to you? How have I been a burden to you? Answer me 4 I brought you out of Egypt, I rescued you from slavery, I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to lead you 5 My people, remember what King Balak of Moab planned to do to you and how Balaam son of Beor answered him Remember the things that happened on the way from the camp at Acacia to Gilgal Remember these things and you will realize what I did in order to save
you "

What the LORD Requires

6 What shall I bring to the LORD, the God of heaven, when I come to worship him? Shall I bring the best calves to burn as offerings to him? 7 Will the LORD be pleased if I bring him thousands of sheep or endless streams of olive-oil? Shall I offer him my first-born child to pay for my sins? 8 No, the LORD has told us what is good What he requires of us is this to do what is just, to show constant love, and to live in humble fellowship with our
God
9 It is wise to fear the LORD He calls to the city, "Listen, you people who assemble in the city![j] 10 In the houses of evil men are treasures which they got dishonestly They use false measures, a thing that I hate [k] 11 How can I forgive men who use false scales and weights?
12 Your rich men exploit the poor, and all of you are liars 13 So I have already begun[l] your ruin and destruction because of your sins 14 You will eat, but not be satisfied—in fact you will still be hungry You will carry things off, but you will not be able to save them, anything you do save I will destroy in war 15 You will sow corn, but not harvest the crop You will press oil from olives, but never be able to use it You will make wine, but never drink it 16 This will happen because you have followed the evil practices of King Omri and of his son, King Ahab. You have continued their policies, and so I will bring you to ruin, and everyone will despise you. People[m] everywhere will treat you with contempt."[n]

Israel's Moral Corruption

7 It's hopeless! I am like a hungry man who finds no fruit left on the trees and no grapes on the vines. All the grapes and all the tasty figs have been picked.
2 There is not an honest person left in the land, no one loyal to God. Everyone is waiting for a chance to commit murder.
Everyone hunts down his fellow-countryman. 3 They are all experts at doing evil. Officials and judges ask for bribes. The influential man tells them what he wants, and so they scheme together.[o] 4 Even the best and most honest of them are as worthless as weeds.

The day has come when God will punish the people, as he warned them through the prophets. Now they are in confusion.
5 Don't believe your neighbour or trust your friend. Be careful what you say even to your wife. 6 In these times sons treat their fathers like fools, daughters oppose their mothers, and young women quarrel with their mothers-in-law; a man's enemies are the members of his own family.

7 But I will watch for the LORD; I will wait confidently for God, who will save me. My God will hear me.

The LORD Brings Salvation

8 Our enemies have no reason to gloat over us. We have fallen, but we will rise again. We are in darkness now, but the LORD will give us light. 9 We have sinned against the LORD, so now we must endure his anger for a while. But in the end he will defend us and right the wrongs that have been done to us. He will bring us out to the light; we will live to see him save us. 10 Then our enemies will see this and be disgraced—the same enemies who taunted us by asking, "Where is the LORD your God?" We will see them defeated, trampled[p] down like mud in the streets.

11 People of Jerusalem, the time to rebuild the city walls is coming. At that time your territory will be enlarged.
12 Your people will return to you from everywhere—from Assyria in the east, from Egypt in the south, from the region of the Euphrates, from distant seas and far-off mountains. 13 But the earth will become a desert because of the wickedness of those who live on it.

[m] One ancient translation People; Hebrew My people.
[n] People ... contempt; or As my people you will everywhere be treated with contempt.

[p] We will see ... trampled; or We will gloat over them as they lie trampled.
7.6: Mt 10.35-36; Lk 12.53.

The LORD's Compassion on Israel

14 Be a shepherd to your people, LORD, the people you have chosen Although they live apart in the wilderness, there is fertile land around them Let them go and feed in the rich pastures of Bashan and Gilead, as they did long ago 15 Work miracles for us,[q] LORD, as you did in the days when you brought us out of Egypt 16 The nations will see this and be frustrated in spite of all their strength In dismay they will close their mouths and cover their ears 17 They will crawl in the dust like snakes, they will come from their fortresses, trembling and afraid They will turn in fear to the LORD our God

18 There is no other god like you, O LORD, you forgive the sins of your people who have survived You do not stay angry for ever, but you take pleasure in showing us your constant love 19 You will be merciful to us once again You will trample our sins underfoot and send them to the bottom of the sea! 20 You will show your faithfulness and constant love to your people, the descendants of Abraham and of Jacob, as you promised our ancestors long ago

[q] Probable text Work miracles for us, Hebrew I will work miracles for him

NAHUM

INTRODUCTION

The book of Nahum is a poem celebrating the fall of Nineveh, the capital city of Israel's ancient and oppressive enemy, the Assyrians. The fall of Nineveh, near the end of the seventh century B.C., is seen as the judgement of God upon a cruel and arrogant nation.

1 This is a message about Nineveh, the account of a vision seen by Nahum, who was from Elkosh.

The LORD's Anger against Nineveh

2 The LORD God tolerates no rivals; he punishes those who oppose him.
In his anger he pays them back.
3 The LORD does not easily become angry, but he is powerful and never lets the guilty go unpunished.

Where the LORD walks, storms arise; the clouds are the dust raised by his feet!
4 He commands the sea, and it dries up!
He makes the rivers go dry.
The fields of Bashan wither, Mount Carmel turns brown, and the flowers of Lebanon fade.
5 Mountains quake in the presence of the LORD; hills melt before him.
The earth shakes when the LORD appears;
the world and all its people tremble.
6 When he is angry, who can survive?
Who can survive his terrible fury?
He pours out his flaming anger; rocks crumble to dust before him.

7 The LORD is good;
he protects his people in times of trouble;
he takes care of those who turn to him.
8 Like a great rushing flood he completely destroys his enemies;[a] he sends to their death those who oppose him.
9 What are you plotting against the LORD?
He will destroy you.
No one opposes him more than once.
10 Like tangled thorns and dry straw, you will be burnt up![b]

11 From you, Nineveh, there came a man full of wicked schemes, who plotted against the LORD. 12 This is what the LORD says to his people Israel: "Even though the Assyrians are strong and numerous, they will be destroyed and disappear. My people, I made you suffer, but I will not do it again. 13 I will now end Assyria's power over you and break the chains that bind you." 14 This is what the LORD has decreed about the Assyrians: "They will have no descendants to carry on their name. I will

[a] Some ancient translations his enemies; Hebrew its place. [b] Verse 10 in Hebrew is unclear.

of their gods I am preparing a grave for the Assyrians—they don't deserve to live!"

the mountains with good news! He is on his way to announce the victory! People of Judah, celebrate your festivals and give God what you solemnly promised him The wicked will never invade your land again They have been totally destroyed!

The Fall of Nineveh

2 Nineveh, you are under attack!
The power that will shatter you has
come
Man the defences!
Guard the road!
Prepare for battle!
2 (The LORD is about to restore the glory of Israel, as it was before her enemies plundered her) 3 The enemy soldiers carry red shields and wear uniforms of red They are preparing to attack!
Their chariots flash like fire!
Their horses[c] prance!

4 Chariots dash wildly through the streets, rushing to and fro through the city squares They flash like torches and dart about like lightning 5 The officers are summoned, they stumble as they press forward [d]

The attackers rush to the wall and set up the shield for the batteringram 6 The gates by the river burst open, the palace is filled with terror 7 The queen is taken captive, her servants moan like doves and beat their breasts in sorrow 8 Like water from a broken dam the people rush from Nineveh! [e] "Stop! Stop!" the cry rings out—but no one turns back

9 Plunder the silver!
Plunder the gold!
The city is full of treasure!

10 Nineveh is destroyed, deserted, desolate!
Hearts melt with fear, knees tremble, strength is gone, faces grow pale

11 Where now is the city that was like a den of lions, the place where young lions were fed, where the lion and the lioness would
and their cubs would be safe?
12 The lion killed his prey and tore it to pieces for his mate and her cubs, he filled his den with torn flesh

13 "I am your enemy!" says the LORD Almighty "I will burn up your chariots Your soldiers will be killed in war, and I will take away everything that you took from others Your power in the world will no longer be heard "

3 Doomed is the lying, murderous city, full of wealth to be looted and plundered!
2 Listen! The crack of the whip, the rattle of wheels, the gallop of horses,
the jolting of chariots!
3 Horsemen charge, swords flash, spears gleam!
Corpses are piled high, dead bodies without number—she enchanted nations and enslaved[f]

them

5 The LORD Almighty says,
"I will punish you, Nineveh!
I will strip you naked and let the nations see you, see you in all your shame [6] I will treat you with contempt and cover you with filth People will stare at you in horror [7] All who see you will shrink back They will say, 'Nineveh lies in ruins!
Who has any sympathy for her?
Who will want to comfort her?' "

8 Nineveh, are you any better than Thebes, the capital of Egypt? She too had a river to protect her like a wall—the Nile was her defence [9] She ruled Sudan and Egypt, there was no limit to her power, Libya was her ally [10] Yet the people of Thebes were carried off into exile At every street corner their children were beaten to death Their leading men were carried off in chains and divided among their captors 11 Nineveh, you too will fall into a drunken stupor! You too will try to escape from your enemies [12] All your fortresses will be like fig-trees with ripe figs shake the trees, and the fruit falls right into your mouth! [13] Your soldiers are like women, and your country stands defenceless before your enemies Fire will destroy the bars across your gates [14] Draw water to prepare for a siege, and strengthen your fortresses! Trample the clay to make bricks, and get the brick moulds ready!
[15] No matter what you do, you will still be burnt to death or killed in battle You will be wiped out like crops eaten up by locusts
You multiplied like locusts! [16] You produced more merchants than there are stars in the sky! But now they are gone, like locusts that spread their wings and fly away [17] Your officials are like a swarm of locusts that stay in the walls on a cold day But when the sun comes out, they fly away, and no one knows where they have gone!

18 Emperor of Assyria, your governors are dead, and your noblemen are asleep for ever! Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to bring them home again [19] There is no remedy for your injuries, and your wounds cannot be healed All those who hear the news of your destruction clap their hands for joy Did anyone escape your endless cruelty?

HABAKKUK

INTRODUCTION

The words of the prophet Habakkuk come from near the end of the seventh century B C, at a time when the Babylonians were in power He was deeply disturbed by the violence of these cruel people, and asked the Lord, "So why are you silent while they destroy people who are more righteous than they are?" (1 13) The Lord's answer was that he would take action in his own good time, and meanwhile "those who are righteous will live because they are faithful to God" (2 4)

The rest of the book is a prophecy of doom on the unrighteous, with a concluding psalm celebrating the greatness of God and expressing the undying faith of the poet

revealed to the prophet Habakkuk

Habakkuk Complains of Injustice

2 O LORD, how long must I call for help before you listen, before you save us from violence? [3]Why do you make me see such trouble? How can you endure to look on such wrongdoing? Destruction and violence are all round me, and there is fighting and quarrelling everywhere [4]The law is weak and useless, and justice is never done Evil men get the better of the righteous, and so justice is perverted

The LORD's Reply

5 Then the LORD said to his people, "Keep watching the nations round you, and you will be astonished at what you see I am going to do something that you will not believe when you hear about it [6]I am bringing the Babylonians to power, those fierce, restless people They are marching out across the world to conquer other lands [7]They spread fear and terror, and in their pride they are a law to themselves 8 "Their horses are faster than leopards, fiercer than hungry wolves Their horsemen come riding from distant lands, their horses paw the ground They come swooping down like eagles attacking their prey 9 "Their armies advance in violent conquest, and everyone is terrified as they approach [b] Their captives are as numerous as grains of sand [10]They treat kings with contempt and laugh at high officials No fortress can stop them—they pile up earth against it and capture it.

[b] Probable text and everyone approach, Hebrew unclear 1 5 Acts 13 41   1 6 2 Kgs 24 2

Lord how can you stand these treacherous, evil men? (1 12,13) [11]Then they sweep on like the wind and are gone, these men whose power is their

god."

Habakkuk Complains to the LORD Again

12 LORD, from the very beginning you are God You are my God, holy and eternal LORD, my God and protector, you have chosen the Babylonians and made them strong so that they can punish us [13]But how can you stand these treacherous, evil men? Your eyes are too holy to look at evil, and you cannot stand the sight of people doing wrong So why are you silent while they destroy people who are more righteous than they are?
14 How can you treat people like fish or like a swarm of insects that have no ruler to direct them? [15]The Babylonians catch people with hooks, as though they were fish They drag them off in nets and shout for joy over their catch! [16]They even worship their nets and offer sacrifices to them, because their nets provide them with the best of everything 17 Are they going to use their swords for ever and keep on destroying nations without mercy?

The LORD's Answer to Habakkuk

2 I will climb my watch-tower and wait to see what the LORD will tell me to say and what answer he will give to my complaint
2 The LORD gave me this answer "Write down clearly on clay tablets what I reveal to you, so that it can be read at a glance [3]Put it in writing, because it is not yet time for it to come true But the time is coming quickly, and what I show you will come true It may seem slow in coming, but wait for it, it will certainly take place, and it will not be delayed [4]And this is the message 'Those who are evil will not survive,[c] but those who are righteous will live because they are faithful to God.'"

Doom on the Unrighteous

5 Wealth is deceitful Greedy men are proud and restless—like death itself they are never satisfied That is why they conquer nation after nation for themselves [6]The conquered people will taunt their conquerors and show their scorn for them They will say, "You take what isn't yours, but you are doomed! How long will you go on getting rich by forcing your debtors to pay up?" 7 But before you know it, you that have conquered others will be in debt yourselves and be forced to pay interest Enemies will come and make you tremble They will plunder you! [8]You have plundered the people of many nations, but now those who have survived will plunder you

[c] Probable text will not survive, Hebrew unclear 2 3 Heb 10 37 2 4 Rom 1 17, Gal 3 11, Heb 10 38 because of the murders you have committed and because of your violence against the people of the world and its cities [d] 9 You are doomed! You have made your family rich with what you took by violence, and have tried to make your own home safe from harm and danger! 10 But your schemes have brought shame on your family, by destroying many nations you have only brought ruin on yourself 11 Even the stones of the walls cry out against you, and the rafters echo the cry 12 You are doomed! You founded a city on crime and built it up by murder 13 The nations you conquered wore themselves out in useless labour, and all they have built goes up in flames The LORD Almighty has done this 14 But the earth will be as full of the knowledge of the LORD's glory as the seas are full of water 15 You are doomed! In your fury you humiliated and disgraced your neighbours, you made them stagger as though they were drunk 16 You in turn will be covered with shame instead of honour You yourself will drink and stagger The LORD will make you drink your own cup of punishment, and your honour will be turned to disgrace 17 You have cut down the forests of Lebanon, now you will be cut down You killed its animals, now animals will terrify you This will happen because of the murders you have committed and because of your violence

cities [d] 18 What's the use of an idol? It is only something that a man has made, and it tells you nothing but lies What good does it do for its maker to trust it—a god that can't even talk! 19 You are doomed! You say to a piece of wood, "Wake up!" or to a block of stone, "Get up!" Can an idol reveal anything to you? It may be covered with silver and gold, but there is no life in it.
20 The LORD is in his holy Temple, let everyone on earth be silent in his presence

A Prayer of Habakkuk

3 This is a prayer of the prophet Habakkuk [e]

2 O LORD, I have heard of what you have
done,
and I am filled with awe Now do again in our times the great deeds you used to do Be merciful, even when you are angry

3 God is coming again from Edom, the holy God is coming from the hills of Paran
His splendour covers the heavens, and the earth is full of his praise 4 He comes with the brightness of lightning,
light flashes from his hand, there where his power is hidden 5 He sends disease before him and commands death to follow him 6 When he stops, the earth shakes, at his glance the nations tremble The eternal mountains are shattered, the everlasting hills sink down, the hills where he walked in ancient times

7 I saw the people of Cushan afraid and the people of Midian tremble 8 Was it the rivers that made you angry,
LORD?
Was it the sea that made you furious?
You rode upon the clouds, the storm cloud was your chariot, as you brought victory to your people 9 You got ready to use your bow, ready to shoot your arrows [f] Your lightning split open the earth 10 When the mountains saw you, they trembled, water poured down from the skies The waters under the earth roared, and their waves rose high 11 At the flash of your speeding arrows and the gleam of your shining spear, the sun and the moon stood still 12 You marched across the earth in anger,
in fury you trampled the nations 13 You went out to save your people, to save your chosen king You struck down the leader of the wicked
and completely destroyed his followers [h] 14 Your arrows pierced the commander of his army

[d] the people cities or the land the city, and those who live in it when it came like a storm to scatter

us, gloating like those who secretly oppress the poor [i] 15 You trampled the sea with your horses, and the mighty waters foamed 16 I hear all this, and I tremble, my lips quiver with fear My body goes limp, and my feet stumble[j] beneath me

I will quietly wait for the time to come when God will punish those who attack us

17 Even though the fig-trees have no fruit and no grapes grow on the vines, even though the olive-crop fails and the fields produce no corn, even though the sheep all die and the cattle-stalls are empty, 18 I will still be joyful and glad, because the LORD God is my saviour 19 The LORD gives me strength He makes me sure-footed as a deer, and keeps me safe on the mountains

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Zephaniah preached in the latter part of the seventh century B C, probably in the decade before King Josiah's religious reforms of 621 B C The book contains the familiar prophetic themes A day of doom and destruction is threatened, when Judah will be punished for her worship of other gods The Lord will punish other nations also Although Jerusalem is doomed, in time the city will be restored, with a humble and righteous people living there

Outline of Contents

1 This is the message that the LORD gave to Zephaniah during the time that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah (Zephaniah was descended from King Hezekiah through Amariah, Geda-liah, and Cushi)

The Day of the LORD's Judgement

2 The LORD said, "I am going to destroy everything on earth, 3 all human beings and animals, birds and fish I will bring about the downfall of[a] the wicked I will destroy all mankind, and no survivors will be left I, the LORD, have spoken 4 "I will punish the people of Jerusalem and of all Judah I will destroy the last trace of the worship of Baal there, and no one will even remember the pagan priests who serve him 5 I will destroy anyone who goes up on the roof and worships the sun, the moon, and the stars I will also destroy those who worship me and swear loyalty to me, but then take oaths in the name of the god Milcom [6]I will destroy those who have turned back and no longer follow me, those who do not come to me or ask me to guide

them "
7 The day of the LORD is near, the day when God will act, so be silent in his presence The LORD is preparing to slaughter his people like a sacrifice [8]'On that day of slaughter," says the LORD, "I will punish the officials, the king's sons, and all who practise foreign customs [9]I will punish all who worship like pagans and who steal and kill in order to fill their master's house[b] with loot 10 "On that day," says the LORD, "you will hear the sound of crying at the Fish Gate in Jerusalem You will hear wailing in the newer part of the city and a great crashing sound in the hills [11]Wail and cry when you hear this, you that live in the lower part of the city, because all the merchants will be dead!
12 "At that time I will take a lamp and search Jerusalem I will punish the people who are self-satisfied and confident, who say to themselves, 'The LORD never does anything, one way or the other' [13]Their wealth will be looted and their houses destroyed They will never live in the houses they are building or drink wine from the vineyards they are planting " 14 The great day of the LORD is near—very near and coming fast! That will be a bitter day, for even[c] the bravest soldiers will cry out in despair! [15]It will be a day of fury a day of trouble and distress, a day of ruin and destruction, a day of darkness and gloom, a black and cloudy day, [16]a day filled with the sound of war-trumpets and the battle-cry of soldiers attacking fortified cities and high towers 17 The LORD says, "I will bring such disasters on mankind that everyone will grope about like a blind man They have sinned against me, and now their blood will be poured out like water, and their dead bodies will lie rotting on the ground " 18 On the day when the LORD shows his fury, not even all their silver and gold will save them The whole earth will be destroyed by the fire of his anger He will put an end—a sudden end—to everyone who lives on earth

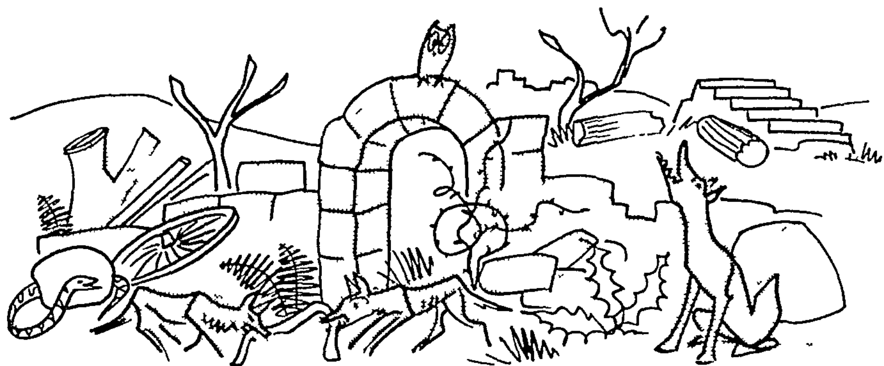
The Lord never does anything, one way or the other (1 12)



A Plea for Repentance

2 Shameless nation, come to your senses [2]before you wither and die like a flower,[d] before the burning anger of the LORD comes upon you, before the day when he shows his fury [3]Turn to the LORD, all you humble people of the land, who obey his commands Do what is right, and humble yourselves before the LORD Perhaps you will escape punishment on the day when the LORD shows his anger

The Doom of the Nations round Israel

4 No one will be left in the city of Gaza Ashkelon will be deserted The people of Ashdod will be driven out in half a day, and the people of Ekron will be driven from their city [5]You Philistines are doomed, you people who live along the coast The LORD has passed sentence on you He will destroy you, and not one of you will be left [6]Your land by the sea will become open fields with shepherds' huts and sheep pens [7]The people of Judah who survive will occupy your and sleep in the houses of Ashkelon The LORD their God will be with them and 8 The LORD Almighty says, "I have heard the people of Moab and Ammon insulting and taunting my people, and boasting that they would seize their land 9 As surely as I am the living God of Israel, I swear that Moab and Ammon are going to be destroyed like Sodom and Gomor-rah They will become a place of salt pits and everlasting ruin, overgrown with weeds Those of my people who survive will plunder them and take their land" 10 That is how the people of Moab and Ammon will be punished for their pride and arrogance and for insulting the people of the LORD Almighty 11 The LORD will terrify them He will reduce the gods of the earth to nothing, and then every nation will worship him, each in its own land 12 The LORD will also put the people of Sudan to death 13 The LORD will use his power to destroy Assyria He will make the city of Nineveh a deserted ruin, a waterless desert 14 It will be a place where flocks, herds, and animals of every kind will lie down Owls will live among its ruins and hoot from the windows Crows[e] will caw buildings will be stripped away 15 That is what will happen to the city that is so proud of its own power and thinks it is safe Its people think that their city is the greatest in the world What a desolate place it will become, a place where wild animals will rest! Everyone who passes by will shrink back in horror

Jerusalem's Sin and Redemption

3 Jerusalem is doomed, that corrupt, rebellious city that oppresses its own people 2 It has not listened to the LORD or accepted his discipline It has not put its trust in the LORD or asked for his help 3 Its officials are like roaring lions, its judges are like hungry wolves, too greedy to leave a bone until morning 4 The prophets are irresponsible and treacherous, the priests defile what is sacred, and twist the law of God to their own advantage 5 But the LORD is still in the city, he does what is right and never what is wrong Every morning without fail, he brings justice to his people And yet the unrighteous people there keep on doing wrong and are not ashamed 6 The LORD says, "I have wiped out whole nations, I have destroyed their cities and left their walls and towers in ruins The cities are deserted, the streets are empty—no one is left 7 I thought that then my people would have reverence for me and accept my discipline, that they would never forget[f] the lesson I taught them But soon they were behaving as badly as ever nations, and they will pray to me alone and not to other gods They will all obey tered people will bring offerings to me longer need to be ashamed that you rebelled against me I will remove everyone who is proud and arrogant, and you will never again rebel against me on my and lowly people, who will come to me for help [13]The people of Israel who lies, nor try to deceive They will be prosperous and secure, afraid of no one"

A Song of Joy

[14] Sing and shout for joy, people of Israel!
Rejoice with all your heart,
Jerusalem!
[15] The LORD has ended your punishment, he has removed all your enemies The LORD, the king of Israel, is with
you,
there is no reason now to be afraid [16] The time is coming when they will say to Jerusalem,
"Do not be afraid, city of Zion!
Do not let your hands hang limp!
[17] The LORD your God is with you, his power gives you victory The LORD will take delight in you, and in his love he will give you new life [h]
He will sing and be joyful over you, [18] as joyful as people at a festival"
The LORD says,
"I have ended the threat of doom and taken away your disgrace [i] [19] The time is coming!
I will punish your oppressors, I will rescue all the lame and bring the exiles home I will turn their shame to honour, and all the world will praise them [20] The time is coming!
I will bring your scattered people home, I will make you famous throughout the world and make you prosperous once again"

HAGGAI

INTRODUCTION

The book of Haggai is a collection of brief messages that came from the Lord through the prophet Haggai in 520 B C The people had returned from exile and had lived in Jerusalem for some years, but the Temple still lay in ruins The messages urge the leaders of the people to rebuild the Temple, and the Lord promises prosperity and peace in the future for a renewed and purified people

Outline of Contents

The LORD's Command to Rebuild the Temple

1 During the second year that Darius was emperor of Persia, on the first day of the sixth month, the LORD spoke through the prophet Haggai The message was for the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and for the High Priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak 2 The LORD Almighty said to Haggai, "These people say that this is not the right time to rebuild the Temple " 3 The LORD then gave this message to the people through the prophet Haggai 4 "My people, why should you be living in well-built houses while my Temple lies in ruins? 5 Don't you see what is happening to you? 6 You have sown much corn, but have harvested very little You have food to eat, but not enough to make you full You have wine to drink, but not enough to get drunk on! You have clothing, but not enough to keep you warm And the working man cannot earn enough to live on 7 Can't you see why this has happened? 8 Now go up into the hills, get timber, and rebuild the Temple, then I will be pleased and will be worshipped as I should be 9 "You hoped for large harvests, but they turned out to be small And when you brought the harvest home, I blew it away.[a] Why did I do that? Because my Temple lies in ruins while every one of you is busy working on his own house 10 That is why there is no rain and nothing can grow 11 I have brought drought on the land—on its hills, cornfields, vineyards, and olive orchards—on every crop the ground produces, on men and animals, on everything you try to grow "

The People Obey the LORD's Command

12 Then Zerubbabel and Joshua and all the people who had returned from the exile[b] in Babylonia, did what the LORD their God told them to do They were afraid and obeyed the prophet Haggai, the LORD's messenger 13 Then Haggai gave the LORD's message to the people "I will be with you—that is my promise " 14 The

1 1 Ezra 4 24—5 2, 6 14

Why should you be living in well-built houses while my Temple lies in ruins? (1 4)

LORD inspired everyone to work on the Temple Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, Joshua, the High Priest, and all the people who had returned from the exile [b] They began working on the Temple of the LORD Almighty, their God, [15] on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month of the second year that Darius was emperor

The Splendour of the New Temple

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month of that same year, the LORD spoke again through the prophet Haggai [2] He told Haggai to speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, to Joshua, the High Priest, and to the people, and to say to them, [3] "Is there anyone among you who can still remember how splendid the Temple used to be? How does it look to you now? It must seem like nothing at all [4] But now don't be discouraged, any of you Do the work, for I am with you [5] When you came out of Egypt, I promised that I would always be with you I am still with you, so do not be afraid 6 "Before long I will shake heaven and earth, land and sea [7] I will overthrow all the nations, and their treasures will be brought here, and the Temple will be filled with wealth [8] All the silver and gold of the world is mine [9] The new Temple will be more splendid than the old one, and there I will give my people prosperity and peace " The LORD Almighty has spoken

The Prophet Consults the Priests

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month of the second year that Darius was emperor, the LORD Almighty spoke again to the prophet Haggai [11] He said, "Ask the priests for a ruling on this question [12] Suppose someone takes a piece of consecrated meat from a sacrifice and carries it in a fold of his robe If he then lets his robe touch any bread, cooked food, wine, olive-oil, or any kind of food at all, will it make that food consecrated also?"

When the question was asked, the priests answered, "No " 13 Then Haggai asked, "Suppose a man is defiled because he has touched a dead body If he then touches any of these foods, will that make them defiled too?" The priests answered, "Yes " 14 Then Haggai said, "The LORD says that the same thing applies to the people of this nation and to everything they produce, and so everything they offer on the altar is defiled "

2 3 Ezra 3 12   2 5 Ex 29 45-46   2 6 Heb 12 26   2 13 Num 19 11-22

The LORD Promises His Blessing

15 The LORD says, "Can't you see what has happened to you? Before you started to rebuild the Temple, 16 you would go to a heap of corn expecting to find two hundred kilogrammes, but there would be only a hundred You would go to draw a hundred litres of wine from a vat, but find only forty 17 I sent scorching winds and hail to ruin everything you tried to grow, but still you did not repent 18 Today is the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, the day that the foundation of the Temple has been completed See what is going to happen from now on 19 Although there is no corn left, and the grapevines, fig-trees, pomegranates, and olive-trees have not yet produced, yet from now on I will bless you "

The LORD's Promise to Zerubbabel

20 On that same day, the twenty-fourth of the month, the LORD gave Haggai a second message 21 for Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah "I am about to shake heaven and earth 22 and overthrow kingdoms and end their power I will overturn chariots and their drivers, the horses will die, and their riders will kill one another 23 On that day I will take you, Zerubbabel my servant, and I will appoint you to rule in my name You are the one I have chosen " The LORD Almighty has spoken

ZECHARIAH

INTRODUCTION

The book of Zechariah has two distinct parts (1) Chapters 1–8 Prophecies from the prophet Zechariah, dated at various times in the years from 520 to 518 B C These are largely in the form of visions, and deal with the restoration of Jerusalem, the rebuilding of the Temple, the purification of God's people, and the messianic age to come (2) Chapters 9–14 A collection of messages from later times, about the expected Messiah and the final judgement

Outline of Contents

The LORD Calls His People to Return to Him

1 In the eighth month of the second year that Darius was emperor of Persia, the LORD gave this message to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah and grandson of Iddo 2 The LORD Almighty told Zechariah to say to the people, "I, the LORD, was very angry with your ancestors, 3 but now I say to you, 'Return to me, and I will return to you 4 Do not be like your ancestors Long ago the prophets gave them my message, telling them not to live evil, sinful lives any longer But they would not listen to me or obey me 5 Your ancestors and those prophets are no longer alive 6 Through my servants the prophets I gave your ancestors commands and warnings, but they disregarded them and suffered the consequences Then they repented and acknowledged that I, the LORD Almighty, had punished them as they deserved and as I had determined to do "

The Prophet's Vision of the Horses

7 In the second year that Darius was emperor, on the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat), the LORD gave me a message in a vision at night 8 I saw an angel of the LORD riding a red horse He had stopped among some myrtle-trees in a valley, and behind him were other horses—red, dappled, and white 9 I asked him, "Sir, what do these horses mean?"
He answered, "I will show you what they mean 10 The LORD sent them to go and inspect the earth " 11 They reported to the angel "We have been all over the world and have found that the whole world lies helpless and subdued " 12 Then the angel said, "Almighty LORD, you have been angry with Jerusalem and the cities of Judah for seventy years now How much longer will it be before you show them mercy?" 13 The LORD answered the angel with comforting words, 14 and the angel told me to proclaim what the LORD Almighty had said "I have a deep love and concern for Jerusalem, my holy city, 15 and I am very angry with the nations that enjoy quiet and peace For while I was holding back my anger against my people, those nations made the sufferings of my people worse 16 So I have come back to Jerusalem to show mercy to the city My Temple will be restored, and the city will be rebuilt " 17 The angel also told me to proclaim "The LORD Almighty says that his cities will be prosperous again and that he will once again help Jerusalem and claim the city as his own "

The Vision of the Horns

18 In another vision I saw four ox horns 19 I asked the angel that had been speaking to me, "What do these horns mean?" He answered, "They stand for the world powers that have scattered the people of Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem " 20 Then the LORD showed me four workmen with hammers 21 I asked,
"What have these men come to do?" He answered, "They have come to terrify and overthrow the nations that completely crushed the land of Judah and scattered its people "

The Vision of the Measuring-Line

2 In another vision I saw a man with a measuring-line in his hand 2 "Where are you going?" I asked "To measure Jerusalem," he answered, "to see how long and how wide it is " 3 Then I saw the angel who had been speaking to me step forward, and another angel came to meet him 4 The first one said to the other, "Run and tell that young man with the measuring-line that there are going to be so many people and cattle in Jerusalem that it will be too big to have walls 5 The LORD has promised that he himself will be a wall of fire round the city to protect it and that he will live there in all his glory "

The Exiles Are Called to Come Home

6–7 The LORD said to his people, "I scattered you in all directions But now, you exiles, escape from Babylonia and return to Jerusalem 8 Anyone who strikes you strikes what is most precious to me " So the LORD Almighty[a] sent me with this message for the nations that had plundered his people 9 "The LORD himself will fight against you, and you will be plundered by the people who were once your servants "
When this happens, everyone will know that the LORD Almighty sent me 10 The LORD said, "Sing for joy, people of Jerusalem! I am coming to live among
you!"
11 At that time many nations will come to the LORD and become his people He will live among you, and you will know that he has sent me to you 12 Once again Judah will be the special possession of the LORD in his sacred land, and Jerusalem will be the city he loves most of all 13 Be silent, everyone, in the presence of the LORD, for he is coming from his holy dwelling-place

The Prophet's Vision of the High Priest

3 In another vision the LORD showed me the High Priest Joshua standing

[a] Hebrew has two additional words, the meaning of which is unclear 1 8 Rev 6 2–8 3 1 Ezra 5 2 Rev 12 10 before the angel of the LORD. And there beside Joshua stood Satan,[b] ready to bring an accusation against him. 2 The angel of the LORD[c] said to Satan, "May the LORD condemn you, Satan! May the LORD, who loves Jerusalem, condemn you!

This man is like a stick snatched from
the fire."
3 Joshua was standing there, wearing filthy clothes. 4 The angel said to his heavenly attendants, "Take away the filthy clothes this man is wearing." Then he said to Joshua, "I have taken away your sin and will give you new clothes to wear." 5 He commanded the attendants to put[d] a clean turban on Joshua's head. They did so, and then they put the new clothes on him while the angel of the LORD stood
there.
6 Then the angel told Joshua that 7 the LORD Almighty had said: "If you obey my laws and perform the duties I have assigned to you, then you will continue to be in charge of my Temple and its courts, and I will hear your prayers, just as I hear the prayers of the angels who are in my presence. 8 Listen then, Joshua, you who are the High Priest, and listen, you fellow-priests of his, you that are the sign of a good future: I will reveal my servant, who is called The Branch! 9 I am placing in front of Joshua a single stone with seven facets. I will engrave an inscription on it, and in a single day I will take away the sin of this land. 10 When that day comes, each of you will invite his neighbour to come and enjoy peace and security, surrounded by your vineyards and fig-trees."

The Vision of the Lamp-stand

4 The angel who had been speaking to me came again and roused me as if I had been sleeping. 2 "What do you see?" he asked.
"A lamp-stand made of gold," I answered. "At the top is a bowl for the oil. On the lamp-stand are seven lamps, each one with places for seven wicks.
3 There are two olive-trees beside the lamp-stand, one on each side of it." 4 Then I asked the angel, "What do these things stand for, sir?" 5 "Don't you know?" he asked me.

In front of Joshua (3.9)

"No, I don't, sir," I replied.[e] 10b The angel said to me, "The seven lamps are the seven eyes of the LORD, which see all over the earth." 11 Then I asked him, "What do the two olive-trees on either side of the lamp-stand mean? 12 And what is the meaning of the two olive branches beside the two gold pipes from which the olive oil pours?" 13 He asked me, "Don't you know?"
"No, I don't, sir," I answered.
14 Then he said, "These are the two men whom God has chosen and anointed to serve him, the Lord of the whole earth."

God's Promise to Zerubbabel

6 The angel told me to give Zerubbabel this message from the LORD: "You will succeed, not by military might or by your own strength, but by my spirit. 7 Obstacles as great as mountains will disappear before you. You will rebuild the Temple, and as you put the last stone in place, the 8 Another message came to me from the LORD 9 He said, "Zerubbabel has laid the foundation of the Temple, and he will finish the building When this happens, my people will know that it is I who sent you to them 10 They are disappointed because so little progress is being made But they will see Zerubbabel continuing to build the Temple, and they will be glad"

The Vision of the Flying Scroll

5 I looked again, and this time I saw a scroll flying through the air 2 The angel asked me what I saw I answered, "A scroll flying through the air it is nine metres long and four and a half metres wide" 3 Then he said to me, "On it is written the curse that is to go out over the whole land On one side of the scroll it says that every thief will be removed from the land, and on the other side it says that everyone who tells lies under oath will also be taken away 4 The LORD Almighty says that he will send this curse out, and it will enter the house of every thief and the house of everyone who tells lies under oath It will remain in their houses and leave them in ruins"

The Vision of the Woman in the Basket

5 The angel appeared again and said, "Look! Something else is coming!" 6 "What is it?" I asked He replied, "It is a basket, and it stands for the sin [f] of the whole land" 7 The basket had a lid made of lead As I watched, the lid was raised, and there in the basket sat a woman!
8 The angel said, "This woman represents wickedness" Then he pushed her down into the basket and put the lid back down 9 I looked up and saw two women flying towards me with powerful wings like those of a stork They picked up the basket and flew off with it 10 I asked the angel, "Where are they taking it?" 11 He answered, "To Babylonia, where they will build a temple for it When the temple is finished, the basket will be placed there to be worshipped"

The Vision of the Four Chariots

6 I had another vision This time I saw four chariots coming out from between two bronze mountains 2 The first

There in the basket sat a woman! (5 7) chariot was pulled by red horses, the second by black horses, 3 the third by white horses, and the fourth by dappled horses 4 Then I asked the angel, "Sir, what do these chariots mean?" 5 He answered, "These are the four winds, they have just come from the presence of the Lord of all the earth" 6 The chariot pulled by the black horses was going north to Babylonia, the white horses were going to the west, and the dappled horses were going to the country in the south 7 As the dappled horses came out, they were impatient to go and inspect the earth The angel said, "Go and inspect the earth!"—and they did 8 Then the angel cried out to me, "The horses that went north to Babylonia have calmed down the LORD's anger."

The Command to Crown Joshua

9 The LORD gave me this message 10 He said, "Take the gifts given by the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, and go at once to the home of Josiah son of Zephaniah All these men have returned from exile in Babylonia 11 Make a crown out of the silver and gold they have given, and put it on the head of the High Priest,

Joshua son of Jehozadak 12 Tell him that the LORD Almighty says, 'The man who is called The Branch will flourish where he is and rebuild the LORD's Temple 13 He is the one who will build it and receive the honour due to a king, and he will rule his people A priest will stand by his throne, and they will work together in peace and harmony' 14 The crown will be a memorial in the LORD's Temple in honour of Heldai,[g] Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah"[h]

15 Men who live far away will come and help to rebuild the Temple of the LORD And when it is rebuilt, you will know that the LORD Almighty sent me to you This will all happen if you fully obey the commands of the LORD your God

The LORD Condemns Insincere Fasting

7 In the fourth year that Darius was emperor, on the fourth day of the ninth month (the month of Kislev), the LORD gave me a message

2 The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech and their men to the Temple of the LORD Almighty to pray for the LORD's blessing 3 and to ask the priests and the prophets this question "Should we continue to mourn because of the destruction of the Temple, by fasting in the fifth month as we have done for so many years now?"

4 This is the message of the LORD that came to me 5 He said, "Tell the people of the land and the priests that when they fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months during these seventy years, it was not in honour of me 6 And when they ate and drank, it was for their own satisfaction"

7 This is what the LORD said through the earlier prophets at the time when Jerusalem was prosperous and filled with people and when there were many people living not only in the towns round the city but also in the southern region and in the western foothills

Disobedience, the Cause of Exile

8 The LORD gave this message to Zechariah 9 "Long ago I gave these commands to my people 'You must see that justice is done, and must show kindness and mercy to one another 10 Do not oppress widows, orphans, foreigners who live among you, or anyone else in need And do not plan ways of harming one another' 11 "But my people stubbornly refused to listen They closed their minds 12 and made their hearts as hard as rock Because they would not listen to the teaching which I sent through the prophets who lived long ago, I became very angry 13 Because they did not listen when I spoke, I did not answer when they prayed 14 Like a storm I swept them away to live in foreign countries This good land was left a desolate place, with no one living in it"

The LORD Promises to Restore Jerusalem

8 The LORD Almighty gave this message to Zechariah. 2 "I have longed to help Jerusalem because of my deep love for her people, a love which has made me angry with her enemies 3 I will return to Jerusalem, my holy city, and live there It will be known as the faithful city, and the hill of the LORD Almighty[i] will be called the sacred hill 4 Once again old men and women, so old that they use a stick when they walk, will be sitting in the city squares 5 And the streets will again be full of boys and girls playing

6 "This may seem impossible to those of the nation who are now left, but it's not impossible for me 7 I will rescue my people from the lands where they have been taken, 8 and will bring them back from east and west to live in Jerusalem
God, ruling over them faithfully and justly 9 "Have courage! You are now hearing the same words the prophets spoke at the time the foundation was being laid for rebuilding my Temple 10 Before that time no one could afford to hire either men or animals, and no one was safe from his enemies I turned people against one another 11 But now I am treating the survivors of this nation differently 12 They will sow their crops in peace Their vines will bear grapes, the earth will produce crops, and there will be plenty of rain I will give all these blessings to the people of my nation who survive 13 People of Judah and Israel! In the past foreigners have cursed one another by saying, 'May the same disasters fall on you that fell on Judah and Israel!' But I will save you, and then those foreigners will say to one another, 'May you receive the same blessings that came to Judah and Israel!' So have courage and don't be afraid" 14 The LORD Almighty says, "When your ancestors made me angry, I planned disaster for them and did not change my mind, but carried out my plans 15 But now I am planning to bless the people of Jerusalem and Judah So don't be afraid 16 These are the things you should do Speak the truth to one another In the courts, give real justice—the kind that brings peace 17 Do not plan ways of harming one another Do not give false testimony under oath I hate lying, injustice, and violence"

18 The LORD Almighty gave this message to Zechariah 19 "The fasts held in the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months will become festivals of joy and gladness for the people of Judah You must love truth and peace" 20 The LORD Almighty says, "The time is coming when people from many[x] cities will come to Jerusalem 21 Those from one city will say to those from another, 'We are going to worship the LORD Almighty and pray for his blessing Come with us!' 22 Many[x] peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to worship the LORD Almighty, and to pray for his blessing 23 In those days ten foreigners will come to one Jew and say, 'We want to share in your destiny, because we have heard that God is with you'"

Judgement on Neighbouring Nations

9 This is the LORD's message He has decreed punishment for the land of Hadrach and for the city of Damascus Not only the tribes of Israel, but also the capital of Syria belong to the LORD 2 Hamath, which borders on Hadrach, also belongs to him, and so do the cities of Tyre and Sidon, with all their skill 3 Tyre has built fortifications for herself and has piled up so much silver and gold that it is as common as dirt!
4 But the Lord will take away everything she has He will throw her wealth into the sea, and the city will be burnt to the ground 5 The city of Ashkelon will see this and be afraid The city of Gaza will see it and suffer great pain So will Ekron, and her hopes will be shattered Gaza will lose her king, and Ashkelon will be left sites[j] did [8]I will guard my land and keep armies from passing through it I will not

The Future King

[9] Rejoice, rejoice, people of Zion!

Look, your king is coming to you! (9 9)

Shout for joy, you people of Jerusalem!
Look, your king is coming to you!
He comes triumphant and victorious, but humble and riding on a donkey—on a colt, the foal of a donkey 10 The LORD says,
"I will remove the war-chariots from
Israel
and take the horses from Jerusalem, the bows used in battle will be destroyed
Your king will make peace among the
nations,
he will rule from sea to sea, from the River Euphrates to the ends of the earth"

The Restoration of God's People

11 The LORD says,
"Because of my covenant with you that was sealed by the blood of sacrifices,
I will set your people free—free from the waterless pit of exile 12 Return, you exiles who now have hope, return to your place of safety I tell you now, I will repay you twice
with blessing for all you have suffered 13 I will use Judah like a soldier's bow and Israel like the arrows I will use the men of Zion like a sword, to fight the men of Greece"

14 The LORD will appear above his people, he will shoot his arrows like lightning The Sovereign LORD will sound the trumpet, he will march in the storms from the south 15 The LORD Almighty will protect his
people,
and they will destroy their enemies They will shout in battle like drunken
men
and will shed the blood of their
enemies,
it will flow like the blood of a sacrifice poured on the altar from a bowl [k]

save his people, as a shepherd saves his flock from danger
They will shine in his land like the jewels of a crown 17 How good and beautiful the land will be!
The young people will grow strong on its corn and wine

The LORD Promises Deliverance sends rain clouds and showers, making the fields green for everyone [2]People consult idols and fortune-tellers, but the answers they get are lies and nonsense you, the comfort they give is useless So the people wander about like lost sheep foreigners who rule my people, and I am going to punish them The people of Judah are mine, and I, the LORD Almighty, will take care of them They will be my will come rulers, leaders, and commanders to govern my people [l] 5 The people of Judah will be victorious like soldiers who trample their enemies into the mud of the streets They will fight because the LORD is with them, and they will defeat even the enemy horsemen 6 "I will make the people of Judah strong, I will rescue the people of Israel I will have compassion on them and bring them all back home They will be as though I had never rejected them

I am the LORD their God, I will answer their prayers

happy like men who have been

has done

the nations, yet in far-off places they will remember me They and their children will survive and return home together them home and settle them in their own country I will settle them in Gilead and Lebanon also;

the whole land will be filled with people

trouble,
I, the LORD, will strike the waves, and the depths of the Nile will go dry
Proud Assyria will be humbled, and mighty Egypt will lose her power 12 I will make my people strong, they will worship and obey me"
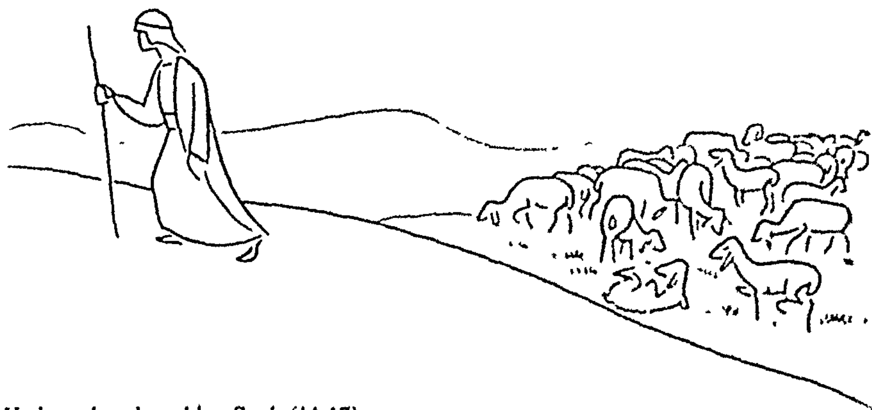
The LORD has spoken



The Fall of the Tyrants

11 Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire can burn down your cedar-trees! [m] 2 Weep and wail, cypress-trees—the cedars have fallen, those glorious trees have been destroyed!
Weep and wail, oaks of Bashan—the dense forest has been cut down!
3 The rulers cry out in grief, their glory is gone!
Listen to the roaring of the lions, their forest home along the Jordan is destroyed!

The Two Shepherds

4 The LORD my God said to me, "Act the part of the shepherd [n] of a flock of sheep that are going to be butchered 5 Their owners kill them and go unpun-ished They sell the meat and say, 'Praise the LORD! We are rich!' Even their own shepherds have no pity on them" 6 (The LORD said, "I will no longer pity anyone on earth I myself will put all the people in the power of their rulers Those rulers will devastate the earth, and I will not save it from their power") 7 Those who bought and sold the sheep hired me, and I became the shepherd of the sheep that were going to be butchered I took two sticks one I called "Favour," and the other "Unity" And I took care of the flock 8 I lost patience with three other shepherds, who hated me, and I got rid of them all in a single month 9 Then I said to the flock, "I will not be your shepherd any longer Let those who are to die, die Let those who are to be destroyed, be destroyed Those who are left will destroy one another" 10 Then I took the stick called "Favour" and broke it, to cancel the covenant which the LORD had made with all the nations 11 So the covenant was cancelled on that day

[l] From among people, or All oppressors—rulers, leaders, and commanders—will depart together from Judah [m] CEDAR TREES Trees are used here as symbols of powerful nations or their kings [n] SHEPHERD Shepherd is used here as a symbol of a king or leader, and sheep as symbols of his people or followers

He has abandoned his flock (11.17)

Those who bought and sold the sheep were watching me, and they knew that the LORD was speaking through what I did. 12 I said to them, "If you are willing, give me my wages. But if not, keep them." So they paid me thirty pieces of silver as my wages.
13 The LORD said to me, "Put them in the temple treasury."[o] So I took the thirty pieces of silver—the magnificent sum they thought I was worth—and put them in the temple treasury. 14 Then I broke the second stick, the one called "Unity," and the unity of Judah and Israel was shattered.
15 Then the LORD said to me, "Once again act the part of a shepherd, this time a worthless one. 16 I have put a shepherd in charge of my flock, but he does not help the sheep that are threatened by destruction, nor does he look for the lost, or heal those that are hurt, or feed the survivors. Instead, he eats the meat of the fattest sheep and tears off their hoofs.
17 That worthless shepherd is doomed! He has abandoned his flock. War will totally destroy his power. His arm will wither, and his right eye will go blind."

The Future Deliverance of Jerusalem

12 This is a message about Israel from the LORD, the LORD who spread out the skies, created the earth, and gave life to man. He says, 2 "I will make Jerusalem like a cup of wine; the nations round her will drink and stagger like drunken men.
And when they besiege Jerusalem, the cities of the rest of Judah will also be besieged. 3 But when that time comes, I will make Jerusalem like a heavy stone—any nation that tries to lift it will be hurt.
All the nations of the world will join forces to attack her. 4 At that time I will terrify all their horses and make all their riders go mad. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will make the horses of their enemies blind. 5 Then the clans of Judah will say to themselves, 'The LORD God Almighty gives strength to his people who live in Jerusalem.' 6 "At that time I will make the clans of Judah like a fire in a forest or in a field of ripe corn—they will destroy all the surrounding nations. The people of Jerusalem will remain safe in the city.
7 "I, the LORD, will give victory to the armies of Judah first, so that the honour which the descendants of David and the people of Jerusalem will receive will be no greater than that of the rest of Judah.
8 At that time the LORD will protect those who live in Jerusalem, and even the weakest among them will become as strong as David was. The descendants of David will lead them like the angel of the LORD, like God himself. 9 At that time I will destroy every nation that tries to attack Jerusalem.
10 "I will fill the descendants of David and the other people of Jerusalem with the spirit of mercy and the spirit of prayer They will look at the one whom they stabbed to death, and they will mourn for him like those who mourn for an only child They will mourn bitterly, like those who have lost their first-born son 11 At that time the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadad-rimmon[p] in the plain of Megiddo 12-14 Each family in the land will mourn by itself the family descended from David, the family descended from Nathan, the family descended from Levi, the family descended from Shimei, and all the other families Each family will mourn by itself, and the men of each family will mourn separately from the women

13 "When that time comes," says the LORD Almighty, "a fountain will be opened to purify the descendants of David and the people of Jerusalem from their sin and idolatry 2 At that time I will remove the names of the idols from the land, and no one will remember them any more I will get rid of anyone who claims to be a prophet and will take away the desire to worship idols 3 Then if anyone still insists on prophesying, his own father and mother will tell him that he must be put to death, because he claimed to speak the LORD's word, but spoke lies instead When he prophesies, his own father and mother will stab him to death 4 When that time comes, no prophet will be proud of his visions, or act like a prophet, or wear a prophet's coarse garment in order to deceive people 5 Instead, he will say, 'I am not a prophet I am a farmer—I have farmed the land all my life' 6 Then if someone asks him, 'What are those wounds on your chest?' he will answer, 'I got them at a friend's house'"

The Command to Kill God's Shepherd

7 The LORD Almighty says, "Wake up, sword, and attack the shepherd[q] who works for me! Kill him, and the sheep will be scattered I will attack my people 8 and throughout the land two-thirds of the people will die 9 And I will test the third that survives and will purify them as silver is purified by fire I will test them as gold is tested Then they will pray to me, and I will answer them I will tell them that they are my people, and they will confess that I am their God"

Jerusalem and the Nations

14 The day when the LORD will sit in judgement is near Then Jerusalem will be looted, and the loot will be divided up before your eyes 2 The LORD will bring all the nations together to make war on Jerusalem The city will be taken, the houses looted, and the women raped Half the people will go into exile, but the rest of them will not be taken away from the city 3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he has fought in times past 4 At that time he will stand on the Mount of Olives, to the east of Jerusalem Then the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west by a large valley Half the mountain will move northwards and half of it southwards 5 You will escape through this valley that divides the mountain in two[r] You will flee as your ancestors did when the earthquake struck in the time of King Uzziah of Judah The LORD my God will come, bringing all the angels with him

6 When that time comes, there will no longer be cold or frost,[s] 7 nor any darkness There will always be daylight, even at night-time When this will happen is known only to the LORD

8 When that day comes, fresh water will flow from Jerusalem, half of it to the Dead Sea and the other half to the Mediterranean It will flow all the year round, in the dry season as well as the wet 9 Then the LORD will be king over all the earth, everyone will worship him as God and know him by the same name

10 The whole region, from Geba in the north to Rimmon in the south, will be made level Jerusalem will tower above the land round it, the city will reach from the Benjamin Gate to the Corner Gate, where there had been an earlier gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses 11 The people will live there in safety, no longer threatened by destruction

12 The LORD will bring a terrible disease on all the nations that make war on Jerusalem Their flesh will rot away while they are still alive, their eyes and their tongues will rot away

13 At that time the LORD will make them

[p] HADAD RIMMON Probably a name for Baal, the god of vegetation in Canaan and Syria When the vegetation died each year, the worshippers thought that the god had died too, and they mourned his death [q] SHEPHERD see 11 4

so confused and afraid that everyone will seize the man next to him and attack him.
[14]The men of Judah will fight to defend Jerusalem. They will take as loot the wealth of all the nations—gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance.
15 A terrible disease will also fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, and the donkeys—on all the animals in the camps of the enemy.
16 Then all the survivors from the nations that have attacked Jerusalem will go there each year to worship the LORD Almighty as king, and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. [17]If any nation refuses to go and worship the LORD Almighty as king, then rain will not fall on their land. [18]If the Egyptians refuse to celebrate the Festival of Shelters, then they will be struck by the same disease that the LORD will send on every nation that refuses to go. [19]This will be the punishment that will fall on Egypt and on all the other nations if they do not celebrate the Festival of Shelters.
20 At that time even the harness bells of the horses will be inscribed with the words "Dedicated to the LORD." The cooking pots in the Temple will be as sacred as the bowls before the altar.
[21]Every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in all Judah will be set apart for use in the worship of the LORD Almighty. The people who offer sacrifices will use them for boiling the meat of the sacrifices. When that time comes, there will no longer be any merchant in the Temple of the LORD Almighty.

MALACHI

INTRODUCTION

The book of Malachi comes from some time in the fifth century B.C. after the Temple in Jerusalem was rebuilt. The prophet's main concern is to call priests and people to renew their faithfulness to their covenant with God. It is clear that there is laxity and corruption in the life and worship of God's people. Priests and people are cheating God by not giving him the offerings that are rightly due to him, and by not living according to his teaching. But the Lord will come to judge and purify his people, sending ahead of him his messenger to prepare the way and to proclaim his covenant.

Outline of Contents

1 This is the message that the LORD gave Malachi to tell the people of Israel.

2 The LORD says to his people, "I have always loved you."
But they reply, "How have you shown your love for us?"
The LORD answers, "Esau and Jacob were brothers, but I have loved Jacob and his descendants, 3 and have hated Esau and his descendants. I have devastated Esau's hill-country and abandoned the land to wild animals." 4 If Esau's descendants, the Edomites, say, "Our towns have been destroyed, but we will rebuild them," then the LORD will reply, "Let them rebuild—I will tear them down again. People will call them 'The evil country' and 'The nation with whom the LORD is angry for ever.'" 5 The people of Israel are going to see this with their own eyes, and they will say, "The LORD is mighty even outside the land of Israel!"

The LORD Reprimands the Priests

6 The LORD Almighty says to the priests, "A son honours his father, and a servant honours his master. I am your father—why don't you honour me? I am your master—why don't you respect me? You despise me, and yet you ask, 'How have we despised you?' 7 This is how—by offering worthless food on my altar. Then you ask, 'How have we failed to respect you?' I will tell you—by showing contempt for my altar. 8 When you bring a blind or sick or lame animal to sacrifice to me, do you think there's nothing wrong with that? Try giving an animal like that to the governor! Would he be pleased with you or grant you any favours?" 9 Now, you priests, try asking God to be good to us. He will not answer your prayer, and it will be your fault. 10 The LORD Almighty says, "I wish one of you would close the temple doors so as to prevent you from lighting useless fires on my altar. I am not pleased with you, I will not accept the offerings you bring me. 11 People from one end of the world to the other honour me. Everywhere they burn incense to me and offer acceptable sacrifices. All of them honour me! 12 But you dishonour me when you say that my altar is worthless and when you offer on it food that you despise. 13 You say, 'How tired we are of all this!' and you turn up your nose at me. As your offering to me you bring a stolen animal or one that is lame or sick. Do you think I will accept that from you? 14 A curse on the cheat who sacrifices a worthless animal to me, when he has in his flock a good animal that he promised to give me! For I am a great king, and people of all nations fear me."

2 The LORD Almighty says to the priests, "This command is for you: 2 You must honour me by what you do.
If you will not listen to what I say, then I will bring a curse on you. I will put a curse on the things you receive for your support. In fact, I have already put a curse on them, because you do not take my command seriously. 3 I will punish your children and rub your faces in the dung of the animals you sacrifice—and you will be taken out to the dunghill. 4 Then you will know that I have given you this command, so that my covenant with the priests, the descendants of Levi, will not be broken.
5 "In my covenant I promised them life and well-being, and this is what I gave them, so that they might respect me. In those days they did respect and fear me.
6 They taught what was right, not what was wrong. They lived in harmony with me; they not only did what was right themselves, but they also helped many others to stop doing evil. 7 It is the duty of priests to teach the true knowledge of God. People should go to them to learn my will, because they are the messengers of the LORD Almighty.
8 "But now you priests have turned away from the right path. Your teaching has led many to do wrong. You have broken the covenant I made with you. 9 So I, in turn, will make the people of Israel despise you because you do not obey my will, and when you teach my people, you do not treat everyone alike."

The People's Unfaithfulness to God

10 Don't we all have the same father?
Didn't the same God create us all? Then why do we break our promises to one another, and why do we despise the covenant that God made with our ancestors? 11 The people of Judah have broken their promise to God and done a horrible thing in Jerusalem and all over the country They have defiled the Temple which the LORD loves Men have married women who worship foreign gods 12 May the LORD remove from the community of Israel whoever does this, and never again let him participate in the offerings our nation brings to the LORD Almighty [a] 13 This is another thing you do You drown the LORD's altar with tears, weeping and wailing because he no longer accepts the offerings you bring him 14 You ask why he no longer accepts them It is because he knows you have broken your promise to the wife you married when you were young She was your partner, and you have broken your promise to her, although you promised before God that you would be faithful to her 15 Didn't God make you one body and spirit with her? [b] What was his purpose in this? It was that you should have children who are truly God's people So make sure that none of you breaks his promise to his wife 16 "I hate divorce," says the LORD God of Israel "I hate it when one of you does such a cruel thing to his wife Make sure that you do not break your promise to be faithful to your wife"

The Day of Judgement Is Near

17 You have tired the LORD out with your talk But you ask, "How have we tired him?" By saying, "The LORD Almighty thinks all evildoers are good, in fact he likes them." Or by asking, "Where is the God who is supposed to be just?"

3 The LORD Almighty answers, "I will send my messenger to prepare the way for me Then the Lord you are looking for will suddenly come to his Temple The messenger you long to see will come and proclaim my covenant" 2 But who will be able to endure the day when he comes? Who will be able to survive when he appears? He will be like strong soap, like a fire that refines metal 3 He will come to judge like one who refines and purifies silver As a metal-worker refines silver and gold, so the LORD's messenger will purify the priests, so that they will bring to the LORD the right kind of offerings 4 Then the offerings which the people of Judah and Jerusalem bring to the LORD will be pleasing to him, as they used to be in the past 5 The LORD Almighty says, "I will appear among you to judge, and I will testify at once against those who practise magic, against adulterers, against those who give false testimony, those who cheat employees out of their wages, and those who take advantage of widows, orphans, and foreigners—against all who do not respect me

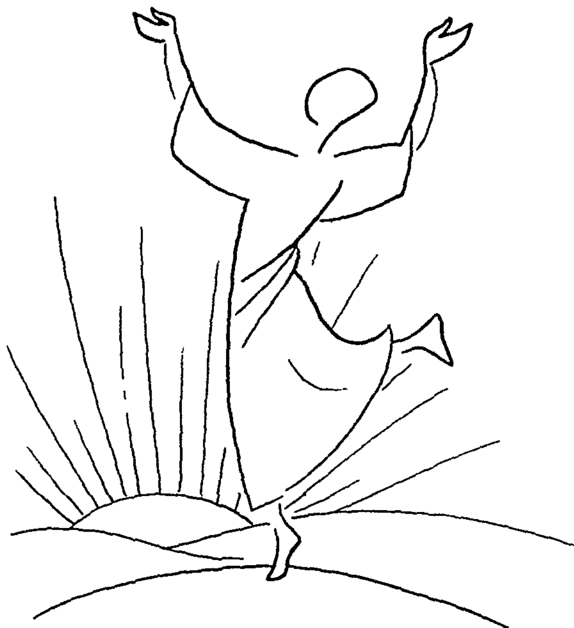
The Payment of Tithes

6 "I am the LORD, and I do not change



I am the Lord, and I do not change (3 6)

And so you, the descendants of Jacob, are not yet completely lost 7 You, like your ancestors before you, have turned away from my laws and have not kept them Turn back to me, and I will turn to you But you ask, 'What must we do to turn back to you?' 8 I ask you, is it right for a person to cheat God? Of course not, yet you are cheating me 'How?' you ask In the matter of tithes and offerings 9 A curse is on all of you because the whole nation is cheating me 10 Bring the full amount of your tithes to the Temple, so that there will be plenty of food there Put me to the test and you will see that I will open the windows of heaven and pour out on you in abundance all kinds of good things 11 I will not let insects destroy your crops, and your grapevines will be loaded with grapes 12 Then the people of all nations will call you happy, because your land will be a good place to live in

God's Promise of Mercy

13 "You have said terrible things about me," says the LORD "But you ask, 'What have we said about you?' 14 You have said, 'It's useless to serve God What's the use of doing what he says or of trying to show the LORD Almighty that we are sorry for what we have done? 15 As we see it, proud people are the ones who are happy Evil men not only prosper, but they test God's patience with their evil deeds and get away with it'"

16 Then the people who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD listened and heard what they said In his presence, there was written down in a book a record of those who feared the LORD and respected him 17 "They will be my people," says the LORD Almighty "On the day when I act, they will be my very own I will be merciful to them, as a father is merciful to the son who serves him 18 Once again my people will see the difference between what happens to the righteous and to the wicked, to the person who serves me and the one who does not"

The Day of the LORD Is Coming

4 The LORD Almighty says, "The day is coming when all proud and evil people will burn like straw On that day they will burn up, and there will be nothing left of them 2 But for you who obey me, my saving power will rise on you like the sun and bring healing like the sun's rays You will be as free and happy as calves let out of a stall 3 On the day when I act, you will overcome the wicked, and they will be like dust under your feet

4 "Remember the teachings of my servant Moses, the laws and commands which I gave him at Mount Sinai for all the people of Israel to obey 5 "But before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes, I will send you the prophet Elijah 6 He will bring fathers and children together again, otherwise I would have to come and destroy your country"

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

MATTHEW

INTRODUCTION

The Gospel of Matthew tells the good news that Jesus is the promised Saviour, the one through whom God fulfilled the promises he made to his people in the Old Testament This good news is not only for the Jewish people, among whom Jesus was born and lived, but for the whole world

Matthew is carefully arranged It begins with the birth of Jesus, describes his baptism and temptation, and then takes up his ministry of preaching, teaching, and healing in Galilee After this the Gospel records Jesus' journey from Galilee to Jerusalem and the events of Jesus' last week, culminating in his crucifixion and resurrection

This Gospel presents Jesus as the great Teacher, who has the authority to interpret the Law of God, and who teaches about God's kingdom Much of his teaching is gathered by subject matter into five collections (1) the Sermon on the Mount, which concerns the character, duties, privileges, and destiny of the citizens of the Kingdom of heaven (chapters 5-7), (2) instructions to the twelve disciples for their mission (chapter 10), (3) parables about the Kingdom of heaven (chapter 13), (4) teaching on the meaning of discipleship (chapter 18); and (5) teaching about the end of the present age and the coming of the Kingdom of heaven (chapters 24-25)

The Ancestors of Jesus Christ
(Luke 3 23-38)

1 This is the list of the ancestors of Jesus Christ, a descendant of David, who was a descendant of Abraham 2-6a From Abraham to King David, the following ancestors are listed Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Judah and his brothers, then Perez and Zerah (their mother was Tamar), Hezron, Ram, Amminadab, Nahshon, Salmon, Boaz (his mother was Rahab), Obed, Jesse, and King David 6b-11 From David to the time when the people of Israel were taken into exile in Babylon, the following ancestors are listed David, Solomon (his mother was the woman who had been Uriah's wife), Rehoboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat,

1 11 2 Kgs 24 14-15, 2 Chr 36 10, Jer 27 20

Jehoram, Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, Manasseh, Amon, Josiah, and Jehoiachin and his brothers 12–16 From the time after the exile in Babylon to the birth of Jesus, the following ancestors are listed Jehoiachin, Shealtiel, Zerubbabel, Abiud, Eliakim, Azor, Zadok, Achim, Eliud, Eleazar, Matthan, Jacob, and Joseph, who married Mary, the mother of Jesus, who was called the Messiah 17 So then, there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, and fourteen from David to the exile in Babylon, and fourteen from then to the birth of the Messiah

The Birth of Jesus Christ
(Luke 2 1-7)

18 This was how the birth of Jesus Christ took place His mother Mary was engaged to Joseph, but before they were married, she found out that she was going to have a baby by the Holy Spirit 19 Joseph was a man who always did what was right, but he did not want to disgrace Mary publicly; so he made plans to break the engagement privately 20 While he was thinking about this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary to be your wife For it is by the Holy Spirit that she has conceived 21 She will have a son, and you will name him Jesus—because he will save his people from their sins " 22 Now all this happened in order to make what the Lord had said through the prophet come true, 23 "A virgin will become pregnant and have a son, and he will be called Immanuel" (which means,
"God is with us")
24 So when Joseph woke up, he married Mary, as the angel of the Lord had told him to do 25 But he had no sexual relations with her before she gave birth to her son.
And Joseph named him Jesus.

Visitors from the East

2 Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in Judaea, during the time when Herod was king Soon afterwards, some men who studied the stars came from the east to Jerusalem 2 and asked, "Where is the baby born to be the king of the Jews? We saw his star when it came up in the east, and we have come to worship him." 3 When King Herod heard about this, he was very upset, and so was everyone else in Jerusalem. 4 He called together all the chief priests and the teachers of the Law and asked them, "Where will the Messiah be born?"
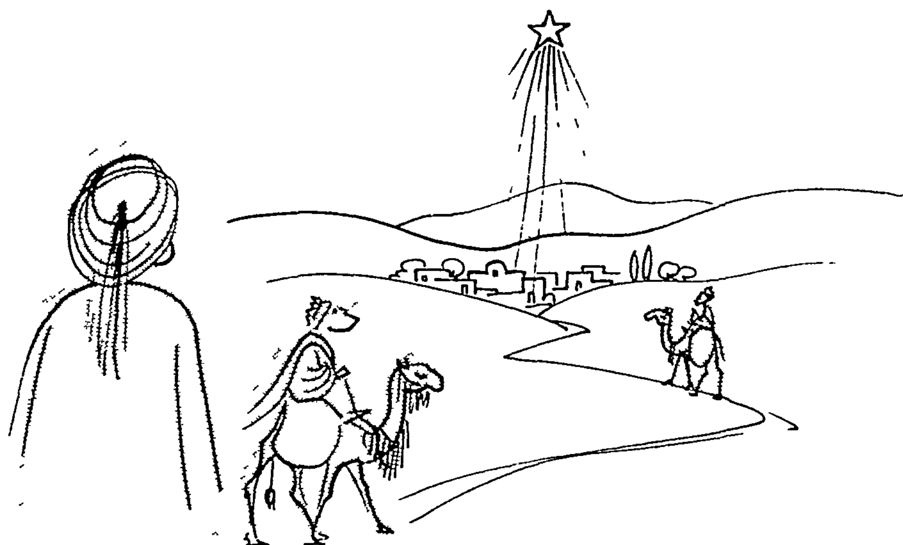
5 "In the town of Bethlehem in Judaea," they answered "For this is what the prophet wrote· 6 'Bethlehem in the land of Judah, you are by no means the least of the leading cities of Judah, for from you will come a leader who will guide my people Israel.' " 7 So Herod called the visitors from the east to a secret meeting and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared 8 Then he sent them to Bethlehem with these instructions: "Go and make a careful search for the child, and when you find him, let me know, so that I too may go and worship him." 9–10 And so they left, and on their way they saw the same star they had seen in the east When they saw it, how happy they were, what joy was theirs! It went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. 11 They went into the house, and when they saw the child with his mother Mary, they knelt down and worshipped him. They brought out their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh, and presented them to him 12 Then they returned to their country by another road, since God had warned them in a dream not to go back to Herod.



The Escape to Egypt

13 After they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph and said, "Herod will be looking for the child in order to kill him So get up, take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you to leave." 14 Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and left during the night for Egypt, 15 where he stayed until Herod died.
This was done to make what the Lord had said through the prophet come true, "I called my Son out of Egypt."

The Killing of the Children

16 When Herod realized that the visitors from the east had tricked him, he was furious He gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its neighbourhood who were two years old and younger—this was done in accordance with what he had learned from the 8 Lk 1.27 1.21: Lk 1.31 1.23: Is 7.14 1.25: Lk 2.21 2.6. Mic 5.2 2.15: Hos 11 1

The same star went ahead of them (2 9–10) visitors about the time when the star had appeared 17 In this way what the prophet Jeremiah had said came true 18 "A sound is heard in Ramah,

the sound of bitter weeping Rachel is crying for her children, she refuses to be comforted, for they are dead "

The Return from Egypt

19 After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt 20 and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go back to the land of Israel, because those who tried to kill the child are dead " 21 So Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went back to Israel 22 But when Joseph heard that Ar-chelaus had succeeded his father Herod as king of Judaea, he was afraid to go there He was given more instructions in a dream, so he went to the province of Galilee 23 and made his home in a town named Nazareth And so what the prophets had said came true "He will be called a Nazarene "

The Preaching of John the Baptist
(Mark 1 1–8, Luke 3 1–18, John 1 19–28)

3 At that time John the Baptist came to the desert of Judaea and started preaching 2 "Turn away from your sins," he said, "because the Kingdom of heaven is near!" 3 John was the man the prophet Isaiah was talking about when he said,
"Someone is shouting in the desert,
'Prepare a road for the Lord, make a straight path for him to travel!'"
4 John's clothes were made of camel's hair, he wore a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey 5 People came to him from Jerusalem, from the whole province of Judaea, and from all the country near the River Jordan 6 They confessed their sins, and he baptized them in the Jordan 7 When John saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to him to be baptized, he said to them, "You snakes—who told you that you could escape from the punishment God is about to send? 8 Do those things that will show that you have turned from your sins 9 And don't think you can escape punishment by saying that Abraham is your ancestor I tell you that God can take these stones and make descendants for Abraham! 10 The axe is ready to cut down the trees at the roots, every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown in the fire 11 I baptize you with water to show that you have repented, but the one who will come after me will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire He is much greater than I am, and I am not good enough even to carry his sandals 12 He has his winnowing shovel with him to thresh out all the grain He will gather his wheat into his barn, but he will burn the chaff in a fire that never goes out"

The Baptism of Jesus
(Mark 1 9–11, Luke 3 21–22)

13 At that time Jesus arrived from Galilee and came to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him 14 But John tried to make him change his mind "I ought to be baptized by you," John said, "and yet you have come to me!" 15 But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so for now For in this way we shall do all that God requires" So John agreed.
16 As soon as Jesus was baptized, he came up out of the water Then heaven was opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove and alighting on him 17 Then a voice said from heaven, "This is my own dear Son, with whom I am pleased"

The Temptation of Jesus
(Mark 1 12–13, Luke 4 1–13)

4 Then the Spirit led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the Devil 2 After spending forty days and nights without food, Jesus was hungry 3 Then the Devil came to him and said, "If you are God's Son, order these stones to turn into bread" 4 But Jesus answered, "The scripture says, 'Man cannot live on bread alone, but needs every word that God speaks'" 5 Then the Devil took Jesus to Jerusalem, the Holy City, set him on the highest point of the Temple, 6 and said to him, "If you are God's Son, throw yourself down, for the scripture says, 'God will give orders to his angels about
you,
they will hold you up with their hands, so that not even your feet will be hurt on the stones.'" 7 Jesus answered, "But the scripture also says, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test'" 8 Then the Devil took Jesus to a very came and helped him

Jesus Begins His Work in Galilee
(Mark 1 14–15, Luke 4 14–15)

12 When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he went away to Galilee 13 He did not stay in Nazareth, but went to live in Capernaum, a town by Lake Galilee, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali 14 This was done to make what the prophet Isaiah had said come true,

15 "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, on the road to the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Galilee, land of the Gentiles!
16 The people who live in darkness will see a great light On those who live in the dark land of death
the light will shine"

17 From that time Jesus began to preach his message "Turn away from your sins, because the Kingdom of heaven is near!"

Jesus Calls Four Fishermen
(Mark 1 16–20, Luke 5 1–11)

18 As Jesus walked along the shore of Lake Galilee, he saw two brothers who were fishermen, Simon (called Peter) and his brother Andrew, catching fish in the lake with a net 19 Jesus said to them,
"Come with me, and I will teach you to catch men" 20 At once they left their nets and went with him 21 He went on and saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee They were in their boat with their father Zebedee, getting their nets ready Jesus called them, 22 and at once they left the boat and their father, and went with him

Jesus Teaches, Preaches, and Heals
(Luke 6 17–19)

23 Jesus went all over Galilee, teaching in the synagogues, preaching the Good News about the Kingdom, and healing people who had all kinds of disease and sickness 24 The news about him spread through the whole country of Syria, so that people brought to him all those who were sick, suffering from all kinds of diseases and disorders people with demons, and epileptics, and paralytics—and Jesus healed them all 25 Large crowds followed him from Galilee and the Ten Towns, from Jerusalem, Judaea, and the land on the other side of the Jordan

The Sermon on the Mount

5 Jesus saw the crowds and went up a hill, where he sat down His disciples gathered round him, 2 and he began to teach them

True Happiness
(Luke 6 20–23)

3 "Happy are those who know they are spiritually poor, the Kingdom of heaven belongs to
them!
4 "Happy are those who mourn, God will comfort them!
5 "Happy are those who are humble, they will receive what God has promised!
6 "Happy are those whose greatest desire is to do what God requires, God will satisfy them fully!
7 "Happy are those who are merciful to others,
God will be merciful to them!
8 "Happy are the pure in heart, they will see God!
9 "Happy are those who work for peace, God will call them his children!
10 "Happy are those who are persecuted because they do what God requires,
the Kingdom of heaven belongs to
them!

11 "Happy are you when people insult you and persecute you and tell all kinds of evil lies against you because you are my followers 12 Be happy and glad, for a great reward is kept for you in heaven This is how the prophets who lived before you were persecuted

Salt and Light
(Mark 9 50, Luke 14 34–35)

13 "You are like salt for all mankind But if salt loses its saltiness, there is no way to make it salty again It has become worthless, so it is thrown out and people trample on it 14 "You are like light for the whole world A city built on a hill cannot be hidden 15 No one lights a lamp and puts it under a bowl, instead he puts it on the lampstand, where it gives light for everyone in the house 16 In the same way your light must shine before people, so that they will see the good things you do and praise your Father in heaven

Teaching about the Law

17 "Do not think that I have come to do away with the Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets I have not come to do away with them, but to make their teachings come true 18 Remember that as long as heaven and earth last, not the least point nor the smallest detail of the Law will be done away with—not until the end of all things [a] 19 So then, whoever disobeys even the least important of the commandments and teaches others to do the same, will be least in the Kingdom of heaven On the other hand, whoever obeys the Law and teaches others to do the same, will be great in the Kingdom of heaven 20 I tell you, then, that you will be able to enter the Kingdom of heaven only if you are more faithful than the teachers of the Law and the Pharisees in doing what God requires Teaching about Anger

21 "You have heard that people were told in the past, 'Do not commit murder; anyone who does will be brought to trial' 22 But now I tell you whoever is angry [b] with his brother will be brought to trial, whoever calls his brother 'You good-for-nothing!' will be brought before the Council, and whoever calls his brother a worthless fool will be in danger of going to the fire of hell 23 So if you are about to offer your gift to God at the altar and there you remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there in front of the altar, go at once and make peace with your brother, and then come back and offer your gift to
God
25 "If someone brings a lawsuit against you and takes you to court, settle the dispute with him while there is time, before you get to court Once you are there, he will hand you over to the judge, who will hand you over to the police, and you will be put in jail 26 There you will stay, I tell you, until you pay the last penny of your fine

Teaching about Adultery

27 "You have heard that it was said,
'Do not commit adultery' 28 But now I tell you anyone who looks at a woman and wants to possess her is guilty of committing adultery with her in his heart 29 So if your right eye causes you to sin, take it out and throw it away! It is much better for you to lose a part of your body than to have your whole body thrown into hell 30 If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away! It is much better for you to lose one of your limbs than for your whole body to go to hell

Teaching about Divorce
(Matt 19 9, Mark 10 11–12, Luke 16 18)

31 "It was also said, 'Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a written notice of divorce' 32 But now I tell you if a man divorces his wife, even though she has not been unfaithful, then he is guilty of making her commit adultery if she marries again, and the man who marries her commits adultery also Teaching about Vows

33 "You have also heard that people were told in the past, 'Do not break your promise, but do what you have vowed to the Lord to do' 34 But now I tell you do not use any vow when you make a promise Do not swear by heaven, because it is God's throne, 35 nor by earth, because it is the resting place for his feet, not by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King 36 Do not even swear by single hair white or black 37 Just say ‘Yes’ or ‘No’—anything else you say comes from the Evil One

Teaching about Revenge
(Luke 6 29-30)

‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth’ 39 But now I tell you do not take revenge on someone who wrongs you If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, let him slap your left cheek too 40 And if someone takes you to court to sue you for your shirt, let him have your coat as well 41 And if one of the occupation troops forces you to carry his pack one kilometre, carry it two kilometres 42 When someone asks you for something, give it to him, when someone wants to borrow something, lend it to him

Love for Enemies

‘Love your friends, hate your enemies’ 44 But now I tell you love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may become the sons of your Father in heaven For he makes his sun to shine on bad and good people alike, and gives rain to those who do good and to those who do evil 46 Why should God reward you if you love only the people who love you? Even the tax collectors do that! 47 And if you speak only to your friends, have you done anything out of the ordinary? Even the pagans do that!
48 You must be perfect—just as your Father in heaven is perfect!

Teaching about Charity

6 “Make certain you do not perform your religious duties in public so that people will see what you do If you do these things publicly, you will not have any reward from your Father in heaven 2 “So when you give something to a needy person, do not make a big show of it, as the hypocrites do in the houses of worship and on the streets They do it so that people will praise them I assure you, they have already been paid in full 3 But when you help a needy person, do it in such a way that even your closest friend will not know about it 4 Then it will be a private matter And your Father,

Do not make a big show of it (6 2) who sees what you do in private, will reward you

Teaching about Prayer
(Luke 11 2-4)

5 “When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites! They love to stand up and pray in the houses of worship and on the street corners, so that everyone will see them I assure you, they have already been paid in full 6 But when you pray, go to your room, close the door, and pray to your Father, who is unseen And your Father, who sees what you do in private, will reward you 7 “When you pray, do not use a lot of meaningless words, as the pagans do, who think that God will hear them because their prayers are long 8 Do not be like them Your Father already knows what you need before you ask him 9 This, then, is how you should pray

‘Our Father in heaven
May your holy name be honoured, 10 may your Kingdom come, may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven 11 Give us today the food we need [c] 12 Forgive us the wrongs we have done, as we forgive the wrongs that others have done to us 13 Do not bring us to hard testing,

[c] we need, or for today, or for tomorrow 5 38 Ex 21 24, Lev 24 20, Deut 19 21   5 43 Lev 19 18   5 48 Lev 19 2, Deut 18 13 but keep us safe from the Evil One.' 14 "If you forgive others the wrongs they have done to you, your Father in heaven will also forgive you. 15 But if you do not forgive others, then your Father will not forgive the wrongs you have done.

Teaching about Fasting

16 "And when you fast, do not put on a sad face as the hypocrites do. They neglect their appearance so that everyone will see that they are fasting. I assure you, they have already been paid in full.
17 When you go without food, wash your face and comb your hair, 18 so that others cannot know that you are fasting—only your Father, who is unseen, will know.
And your Father, who sees what you do in private, will reward you.

Riches in Heaven
(Luke 12.33-34)

19 "Do not store up riches for yourselves here on earth, where moths and rust destroy, and robbers break in and steal. 20 Instead, store up riches for yourselves in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and robbers cannot break in and steal. 21 For your heart will always be where your riches are.

The Light of the Body
(Luke 11.34-36)

22 "The eyes are like a lamp for the body. If your eyes are sound, your whole body will be full of light; 23 but if your eyes are no good, your body will be in darkness. So if the light in you is darkness, how terribly dark it will be!

God and Possessions
(Luke 16.13; 12.22-31)

24 "No one can be a slave of two masters; he will hate one and love the other; he will be loyal to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.
25 "This is why I tell you not to be worried about the food and drink you need in order to stay alive, or about clothes for your body. After all, isn't life worth more than food? And isn't the body worth more than clothes? 26 Look at the birds flying around: they do not sow seeds, gather a harvest and put it in barns; yet your Father in heaven takes care of them!
Aren't you worth much more than birds?
27 Can any of you live a bit longer[d] by worrying about it?
28 "And why worry about clothes?
Look how the wild flowers grow: they do not work or make clothes for themselves.
29 But I tell you that not even King Solomon with all his wealth had clothes as beautiful as one of these flowers. 30 It is God who clothes the wild grass—grass that is here today and gone tomorrow, burnt up in the oven. Won't he be all the more sure to clothe you? How little faith you have!
31 "So do not start worrying: 'Where will my food come from? or my drink? or my clothes?' 32 (These are the things the pagans are always concerned about.) Your Father in heaven knows that you need all these things. 33 Instead, be concerned above everything else with the Kingdom of God and with what he requires of you, and he will provide you with all these other things. 34 So do not worry about tomorrow; it will have enough worries of its own. There is no need to add to the troubles each day brings.

Judging Others
(Luke 6.37-38, 41-42)

7 "Do not judge others, so that God will not judge you, 2 for God will judge you in the same way as you judge others, and he will apply to you the same rules you apply to others. 3 Why, then, do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, and pay no attention to the log in your own eye? 4 How dare you say to your brother, 'Please, let me take that speck out of your eye,' when you have a log in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite! First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will be able to see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.
6 "Do not give what is holy to dogs—they will only turn and attack you. Do not throw your pearls in front of pigs—they will only trample them underfoot.

Ask, Seek, Knock
(Luke 11.9-13)

7 "Ask, and you will receive; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks will receive, and anyone who seeks will find, and the door will be opened to him who knocks. 9 Would any of you who are fathers give your son a stone when he [d] live a bit longer; or grow a bit taller.

asks for bread? 10 Or would you give him a snake when he asks for a fish? 11 Bad as you are, you know how to give good things to your children How much more, then, will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

12 "Do for others what you want them to do for you this is the meaning of the Law of Moses and of the teachings of the prophets

The Narrow Gate
(Luke 13 24)

13 "Go in through the narrow gate, because the gate to hell is wide and the road that leads to it is easy, and there are many who travel it 14 But the gate to life is narrow and the way that leads to it is hard, and there are few people who find it

A Tree and Its Fruit
(Luke 6 43–44)

15 "Be on your guard against false prophets, they come to you looking like sheep on the outside, but on the inside they are really like wild wolves 16 You will know them by what they do Thorn bushes do not bear grapes, and briars do not bear figs 17 A healthy tree bears good fruit, but a poor tree bears bad fruit 18 A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a poor tree cannot bear good fruit 19 And any tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown in the fire 20 So then, you will know the false prophets by what they do

I Never Knew You
(Luke 13 25–27)

21 "Not everyone who calls me 'Lord, Lord' will enter the Kingdom of heaven, but only those who do what my Father in heaven wants them to do 22 When Judgement Day comes, many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord! In your name we spoke God's message, by your name we drove out many demons and performed many miracles!' 23 Then I will say to them, 'I never knew you Get away from me, you wicked people!'

The Two House Builders
(Luke 6 47-49)

24 "So then, anyone who hears these words of mine and obeys them is like a wise man who built his house on rock 25 The rain poured down, the rivers overflowed, and the wind blew hard against that house But it did not fall, because it was built on rock 26 "But anyone who hears these words of mine and does not obey them is like a foolish man who built his house on sand 27 The rain poured down, the rivers overflowed, the wind blew hard against that house, and it fell And what a terrible fall that was!"

The Authority of Jesus

28 When Jesus finished saying these things, the crowd was amazed at the way he taught 29 He wasn't like the teachers of the Law, instead, he taught with authority

Jesus Heals a Man
(Mark 1 40-45, Luke 5 12-16)

8 When Jesus came down from the hill, large crowds followed him 2 Then a man suffering from a dreaded skin-disease came to him, knelt down before him, and said, "Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean"[e] 3 Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him "I do want to," he answered
"Be clean!" At once the man was healed of his disease 4 Then Jesus said to him, "Listen! Don't tell anyone, but go straight to the priest and let him examine you, then in order to prove to everyone that you are cured, offer the sacrifice that Moses ordered"

Jesus Heals a Roman Officer's Servant
(Luke 7 1-10)

5 When Jesus entered Capernaum, a Roman officer met him and begged for help 6 "Sir, my servant is sick in bed at home, unable to move and suffering terribly" 7 "I will go and make him well," Jesus said 8 "Oh no, sir," answered the officer "I do not deserve to have you come into my house Just give the order, and my servant will get well 9 I, too, am a man under the authority of superior officers, and I have soldiers under me I order this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and I order that one, 'Come!' and he comes, and I order my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it" 10 When Jesus heard this, he was surprised and said to the people following him, "I tell you, I have never found anyone in Israel with faith like this 11 I assure you that many will come from the east and the west and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob at the feast in the Kingdom of heaven 12 But those who should be in the Kingdom will be thrown out into the darkness, where they will cry and grind their teeth" 13 Then Jesus said to the officer, "Go home, and what you believe will be done for you" And the officer's servant was healed that very moment

Jesus Heals Many People
(Mark 1 29-34 Luke 4 38-41)

14 Jesus went to Peter's home, and there he saw Peter's mother-in-law sick in bed with a fever 15 He touched her hand, the fever left her, and she got up and began to wait on him 16 When evening came, people brought to Jesus many who had demons in them Jesus drove out the evil spirits with a word and healed all who were sick 17 He did this to make what the prophet Isaiah had said come true, "He himself took our sickness and carried away our diseases"

The Would-be Followers of Jesus
(Luke 9 57-62)

18 When Jesus noticed the crowd round him, he ordered his disciples to go to the other side of the lake 19 A teacher of the Law came to him "Teacher," he said, "I am ready to go with you wherever you go" 20 Jesus answered him, "Foxes have holes, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lie down and rest" 21 Another man, who was a disciple, said, "Sir, first let me go back and bury my father" 22 "Follow me," Jesus answered, "and let the dead bury their own dead"

Jesus Calms a Storm
(Mark 4 35-41, Luke 8 22-25)

23 Jesus got into a boat, and his disciples went with him 24 Suddenly a fierce storm hit the lake, and the boat was in danger of sinking But Jesus was asleep 25 The disciples went to him and woke him up "Save us, Lord!" they said

"We are about to die!"
26 "Why are you so frightened?" Jesus answered "How little faith you have!"
Then he got up and ordered the winds and the waves to stop, and there was a great calm 27 Everyone was amazed "What kind of man is this?" they said "Even the winds and the waves obey him!"

Jesus Heals Two Men with Demons
(Mark 5 1–20, Luke 8 26–39)

28 When Jesus came to the territory of Gadara on the other side of the lake, he was met by two men who came out of the burial caves there These men had demons in them and were so fierce that no one dared travel on that road 29 At once they screamed, "What do you want with us, you Son of God? Have you come to punish us before the right time?" 30 Not far away there was a large herd of pigs feeding 31 So the demons begged Jesus, "If you are going to drive us out, send us into that herd of pigs" 32 "Go," Jesus told them, so they left and went off into the pigs The whole herd rushed down the side of the cliff into the lake and was drowned 33 The men who had been taking care of the pigs ran away and went into the town, where they told the whole story and what had happened to the men with the demons 34 So everyone from the town went out to meet Jesus, and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their territory

Jesus Heals a Paralysed Man
(Mark 2 1–12, Luke 5 17–26)

9 Jesus got into the boat and went back across the lake to his own town,[f] 2 where some people brought to him a paralysed man, lying on a bed When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the paralysed man, "Courage, my son! Your sins are forgiven" 3 Then some teachers of the Law said to themselves, "This man is speaking blasphemy!"
4 Jesus perceived what they were thinking, so he said, "Why are you thinking such evil things? 5 Is it easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say,
'Get up and walk'? 6 I will prove to you, then, that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" So he said to the paralysed man, "Get up, pick up your bed, and go home!" 7 The man got up and went home 8 When the people saw it, they were afraid, and praised God for giving such authority to men

Jesus Calls Matthew
(Mark 2 13–17, Luke 5 27–32)

9 Jesus left that place, and as he walked along, he saw a tax collector, named Matthew, sitting in his office He said to him, "Follow me" Matthew got up and followed him 10 While Jesus was having a meal in Matthew's house,[g] many tax collectors and other outcasts came and joined Jesus and his disciples at the table 11 Some Pharisees saw this and asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with such
people?"
12 Jesus heard them and answered,
"People who are well do not need a doctor, but only those who are sick 13 Go and find out what is meant by the scripture that says 'It is kindness that I want, not animal sacrifices' I have not come to call respectable people, but outcasts"

The Question about Fasting
(Mark 2 18–22, Luke 5 33–39)

14 Then the followers of John the Baptist came to Jesus, asking, "Why is it that we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don't fast at all?" 15 Jesus answered, "Do you expect the guests at a wedding party to be sad as long as the bridegroom is with them? Of course not! But the day will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast 16 "No one patches up an old coat with a piece of new cloth, for the new patch will shrink and make an even bigger hole in the coat 17 Nor does anyone pour new wine into used wineskins, for the skins will burst, the wine will pour out, and the skins will be ruined Instead, new wine is poured into fresh wineskins, and both will keep in good condition"

The Official's Daughter and the Woman Who Touched Jesus' Cloak
(Mark 5 21–43, Luke 8 40–56)

18 While Jesus was saying this, a Jewish official came to him, knelt down

[f] HIS OWN TOWN Capernaum (see 4 13) [g] in Matthew's house, or in his (that is, Jesus') house 9 10–11 Lk 15 1–2 9 13 Mt 12 7, Hos 6 6 before him, and said, "My daughter has just died, but come and place your hands on her, and she will live " 19 So Jesus got up and followed him, and his disciples went along with him 20 A woman who had suffered from severe bleeding for twelve years came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his cloak 21 She said to herself, "If I only

If I only touch his cloak (9 21) touch his cloak, I will get well " 22 Jesus turned round and saw her, and said, "Courage, my daughter! Your faith has made you well " At that very moment the woman became well 23 Then Jesus went into the official's house When he saw the musicians for the funeral and the people all stirred up, 24 he said, "Get out, everybody! The little girl is not dead—she is only sleeping!" Then they all laughed at him 25 But as soon as the people had been put out, Jesus went into the girl's room and took hold of her hand, and she got up 26 The news about this spread all over that part of the country

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

27 Jesus left that place, and as he walked along, two blind men started following him "Take pity on us, Son of David!" they shouted 28 When Jesus had gone indoors, the two blind men came to him, and he asked them, "Do you believe that I can heal
you?"
"Yes, sir!" they answered 29 Then Jesus touched their eyes and said, "Let it happen, then, just as you believe!"—30 and their sight was restored Jesus spoke sternly to them, "Don't tell this to anyone!" 31 But they left and spread the news about Jesus all over that part of the country

Jesus Heals a Dumb Man

32 As the men were leaving, some people brought to Jesus a man who could not talk because he had a demon 33 But as soon as the demon was driven out, the man started talking, and everyone was amazed "We have never seen anything like this in Israel!" they exclaimed 34 But the Pharisees said, "It is the chief of the demons who gives him the power to drive out demons "

Jesus Has Pity for the People

35 Jesus went round visiting all the towns and villages He taught in the synagogues, preached the Good News about the Kingdom, and healed people with every kind of disease and sickness 36 As he saw the crowds, his heart was filled with pity for them, because they were worried and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd 37 So he said to his disciples, "The harvest is large, but there are few workers to gather it in 38 Pray to the owner of the harvest that he will send out workers to gather in his harvest "

The Twelve Apostles
(Mark 3 13-19, Luke 6 12-16)

10 Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to drive out evil spirits and to heal every disease and every sickness 2 These are the names of the twelve apostles first, Simon (called Peter) and his brother Andrew, James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee, 3 Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew, the tax collector, James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, 4 Simon the Patriot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus

The Mission of the Twelve
(Mark 6 7-13, Luke 9 1-6)

5 These twelve men were sent out by Jesus with the following instructions "Do not go to any Gentile territory or any Samaritan towns 6 Instead, you are to go to those lost sheep, the people of Israel 7 Go and preach, 'The Kingdom of heaven is near!' 8 Heal the sick, bring the dead back to life, heal those who suffer from dreaded skin-diseases, and drive out demons You have received without paying, so give without being paid 9 Do not carry any gold, silver, or copper money in your pockets, 10 do not carry a beggar's bag for the journey or an extra shirt or shoes or a stick A worker should be given what he needs 11 "When you come to a town or village, go in and look for someone who is willing to welcome you, and stay with him until you leave that place 12 When you go into a house, say, 'Peace be with you' 13 If the people in that house welcome you, let your greeting of peace remain, but if they do not welcome you, then take back your greeting 14 And if some home or town will not welcome you or listen to you, then leave that place and shake the dust off your feet 15 I assure you that on the Judgement Day God will show more mercy to the people of Sodom and Gomorrah than to the people of that town!

Coming Persecutions
(Mark 13 9–13, Luke 21 12–17)

16 "Listen! I am sending you out just like sheep to a pack of wolves You must be as cautious as snakes and as gentle as doves 17 Watch out, for there will be men who will arrest you and take you to court, and they will whip you in the synagogues 18 For my sake you will be brought to trial before rulers and kings, to tell the Good News to them and to the Gentiles 19 When they bring you to trial, do not worry about what you are going to say or how you will say it, when the time comes, you will be given what you will say 20 For the words you will speak will not be yours, they will come from the Spirit of your Father speaking through you 21 "Men will hand over their own brothers to be put to death, and fathers will do the same to their children, children will turn against their parents and have them put to death 22 Everyone will hate you because of me But whoever holds out to the end will be saved 23 When they persecute you in one town, run away to another one I assure you that you will not finish your work in all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes 24 "No pupil is greater than his teacher, no slave is greater than his master 25 So a pupil should be satisfied to become like his teacher, and a slave like his master If the head of the family is called Beelzebul, the members of the family will be called even worse names!

Whom to Fear
(Luke 12 2–7)

26 "So do not be afraid of people Whatever is now covered up will be uncovered, and every secret will be made known 27 What I am telling you in the dark you must repeat in broad daylight, and what you have heard in private you must announce from the housetops 28 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul, rather be afraid of God, who can destroy both body and soul in hell 29 For only a penny you can buy two sparrows, yet not one sparrow falls to the ground without your Father's consent 30 As for you, even the hairs of your head have all been counted 31 So do not be afraid, you are worth much more than many sparrows!

Confessing and Rejecting Christ
(Luke 12 8–9)

32 "If anyone declares publicly that he belongs to me, I will do the same for him before my Father in heaven 33 But if anyone rejects me publicly, I will reject him before my Father in heaven

Not Peace, but a Sword
(Luke 12 51–53, 14 26–27)

34 "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the world No, I did not come to bring peace, but a sword 35 I came to set sons against their fathers, daughters against their mothers, daughters-in-law against their mothers-in-law, 36 a man's worst enemies will be the members of his own family 37 "Whoever loves his father or mother more than me is not fit to be my disciple, than me is not fit to be my disciple follow in my steps is not fit to be my disciple 39 Whoever tries to gain his own life for my sake will gain it

Rewards
(Mark 9 41)

40 "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me [41]Whoever welcomes God's messenger because he is God's messenger, will share in his reward And whoever welcomes a good man because he is good, will share in his reward [42]You can be sure that whoever gives even a drink of cold water to one of the least of these my followers because he is my follower, will certainly receive a reward"

The Messengers from John the Baptist
(Luke 7 18-35)

11 When Jesus finished giving these instructions to his twelve disciples, he left that place and went off to teach and preach in the towns near there

2 When John the Baptist heard in prison about the things that Christ was doing, he sent some of his disciples to him [3]"Tell us," they asked Jesus, "are you the one John said was going to come, or should we expect someone else?"

4 Jesus answered, "Go back and tell John what you are hearing and seeing [5]the blind can see, the lame can walk, those who suffer from dreaded skin-diseases are made clean,[h] the deaf hear, the dead are brought back to life, and the Good News is preached to the poor [6]How happy are those who have no doubts about me!"

7 While John's disciples were leaving, Jesus spoke about him to the crowds
"When you went out to John in the desert, what did you expect to see? A blade of grass bending in the wind? [8]What did you go out to see? A man dressed up in fancy clothes? People who dress like that live in palaces! [9]Tell me, what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes indeed, but you saw much more than a prophet [10]For John is the one of whom the scripture says 'God said, I will send my messenger ahead of you to open the way for you' [11]I assure you that John the Baptist is greater than any man who has ever lived But he who is least in the Kingdom of heaven is greater than John [12]From the time John preached his message until this very day the Kingdom of heaven has suffered violent attacks,[i] and violent men try to seize it [13]Until the time of John all the prophets and the Law of Moses spoke about the Kingdom, [14]and if you are willing to believe their message, John is Elijah, whose coming was predicted [15]Listen, then, if you have ears!

16 "Now, to what can I compare the people of this day? They are like children sitting in the market-place One group shouts to the other, [17]'We played wedding music for you, but you wouldn't dance!
We sang funeral songs, but you wouldn't cry!' [18]When John came, he fasted and drank no wine, and everyone said, 'He has a demon in him!' [19]When the Son of Man came, he ate and drank, and everyone said, 'Look at this man! He is a glutton and a drinker, a friend of tax collectors and other outcasts!' God's wisdom, however, is shown to be true by its results"

The Unbelieving Towns
(Luke 10 13-15)

20 The people in the towns where Jesus had performed most of his miracles did not turn from their sins, so he reproached those towns [21]"How terrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How terrible for you too, Bethsaida! If the miracles which were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, the people there would long ago have put on sackcloth and sprinkled ashes on themselves, to show that they had turned from their sins! [22]I assure you that on the Judgement Day God will show more mercy to the people of Tyre and Sidon than to you! [23]And as for you, Capernaum! Did you want to lift yourself up to heaven? You will be thrown down to hell! If the miracles which were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would still be in existence today! [24]You can be sure that on the Judgement Day God will show more mercy to Sodom than to you!"

Come to Me and Rest
(Luke 10 21-22)

25 At that time Jesus said, "Father, learned 26 Yes, Father, this was how you wanted it to happen

27 "My Father has given me all things No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him

28 "Come to me, all of you who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest 29 Take my yoke and put it on you, and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble in spirit, and you will find rest 30 For the yoke I will give you is easy, and the load I will put on you is light "

The Question about the Sabbath
(Mark 2 23–28, Luke 6 1–5)

12 Not long afterwards Jesus was walking through some cornfields on the Sabbath His disciples were hungry, so they began to pick ears of corn and eat the grain 2 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to Jesus, "Look, it is against our Law for your disciples to do this on the Sabbath!"

3 Jesus answered, "Have you never read what David did that time when he and his men were hungry? 4 He went into the house of God, and he and his men ate the bread offered to God, even though it was against the Law for them to eat it—only the priests were allowed to eat that bread 5 Or have you not read in the Law of Moses that every Sabbath the priests in the Temple actually break the Sabbath law, yet they are not guilty? 6 I tell you that there is something here greater than the Temple 7 The scripture says, 'It is kindness that I want, not animal sacrifices' If you really knew what this means, you would not condemn people who are not guilty, 8 for the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath "

The Man with a Paralysed Hand
(Mark 3 1–6, Luke 6 6–11)

9 Jesus left that place and went to a synagogue, 10 where there was a man who had a paralysed hand Some people were there who wanted to accuse Jesus of doing wrong, so they asked him, "Is it against our Law to heal on the Sabbath?"

11 Jesus answered, "What if one of you has a sheep and it falls into a deep hole on the Sabbath? Will he not take hold of it and lift it out? 12 And a man is worth much more than a sheep! So then, our Law does allow us to help someone on the Sabbath " 13 Then he said to the man with the paralysed hand, "Stretch out your hand "

He stretched it out, and it became well again, just like the other one 14 Then the Pharisees left and made plans to kill Jesus

God's Chosen Servant

15 When Jesus heard about the plot against him, he went away from that place, and large crowds followed him He healed all those who were ill 16 and gave them orders not to tell others about him 17 He did this so as to make what God

11 27 Jn 3 35, 1 18, 10 15 11 29 Jer 6 16 12 1 Deut 23 25 12 3–4 1 Sam 21 1–6 had said through the prophet Isaiah come true 18 "Here is my servant, whom I have chosen,

the one I love, and with whom I am pleased
I will send my Spirit upon him, and he will announce my judgement
to the nations 19 He will not argue or shout, or make loud speeches in the streets 20 He will be gentle to those who are
weak,
and kind to those who are helpless He will persist until he causes justice to triumph, 21 and on him all peoples will put their hope"

Jesus and Beelzebul
(Mark 3 20-30, Luke 11 14-23)

22 Then some people brought to Jesus a man who was blind and could not talk because he had a demon Jesus healed the man, so that he was able to talk and see 23 The crowds were all amazed at what Jesus had done "Could he be the Son of David?" they asked 24 When the Pharisees heard this, they replied, "He drives out demons only because their ruler Beelzebul gives him power to do so" 25 Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he said to them, "Any country that divides itself into groups which fight each other will not last very long And any town or family that divides itself into groups which fight each other will fall apart 26 So if one group is fighting another in Satan's kingdom, this means that it is already divided into groups and will soon fall apart! 27 You say that I drive out demons because Beelzebul gives me the power to do so Well, then, who gives your followers the power to drive them out? What your own followers do proves that you are wrong! 28 No, it is not Beelzebul, but God's Spirit, who gives me the power to drive out demons, which proves that the Kingdom of God has already come upon you 29 "No one can break into a strong man's house and take away his belongings unless he first ties up the strong man, then he can plunder his house 30 "Anyone who is not for me is really against me, anyone who does not help me gather is really scattering 31 And so I tell you that people can be forgiven any sin and any evil thing they say,[j] but whoever says evil things against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven 32 Anyone who says something against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but whoever says something against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven—now or ever

A Tree and Its Fruit
(Luke 6 43-45)

33 "To have good fruit you must have a healthy tree, if you have a poor tree, you will have bad fruit A tree is known by the kind of fruit it bears 34 You snakes—how can you say good things when you are evil? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of 35 A good person brings good things out of his treasure of good things, a bad person brings bad things out of his treasure of bad things 36 "You can be sure that on Judgement Day everyone will have to give account of every useless word he has ever spoken 37 Your words will be used to judge you—to declare you either innocent or guilty"

The Demand for a Miracle
(Mark 8 11-12, Luke 11 29-32)

38 Then some teachers of the Law and some Pharisees spoke up "Teacher," they said, "we want to see you perform a miracle" 39 "How evil and godless are the people of this day!" Jesus exclaimed "You ask me for a miracle? No! The only miracle you will be given is the miracle of the prophet Jonah 40 In the same way that Jonah spent three days and nights in the big fish, so will the Son of Man spend three days and nights in the depths of the earth 41 On Judgement Day the people of Nineveh will stand up and accuse you, because they turned from their sins when they heard Jonah preach, and I tell you that there is something here greater than Jonah! 42 On Judgement Day the Queen of Sheba will stand up and accuse you, because she travelled all the way from her country to listen to King Solomon's wise teaching, and I assure you that there is something here greater than Solomon!

The Return of the Evil Spirit
(Luke 11 24-26)

43 "When an evil spirit goes out of a person, it travels over dry country looking for a place to rest If it can't find one, 44 it says to itself, 'I will go back to my house ' So it goes back and finds the house empty, clean, and all tidy 45 Then it goes out and brings along seven other spirits even worse than itself, and they come and live there So when it is all over, that person is in a worse state than he was at the beginning This is what will happen to the evil people of this day "

Jesus' Mother and Brothers
(Mark 3 31-35, Luke 8 19-21)

46 Jesus was still talking to the people when his mother and brothers arrived They stood outside, asking to speak with him 47 So one of the people there said to him, "Look, your mother and brothers are standing outside, and they want to speak with you "[k] 48 Jesus answered, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" 49 Then he pointed to his disciples and said, "Look! Here are my mother and my brothers! 50 Whoever does what my Father in heaven wants him to do is my brother, my sister, and my mother "

The Parable of the Sower
(Mark 4 1-9, Luke 8 4-8)

13 That same day Jesus left the house and went to the lake-side, where he sat down to teach 2 The crowd that gathered round him was so large that he got into a boat and sat in it, while the crowd stood on the shore 3 He used parables to tell them many things "Once there was a man who went out to sow corn 4 As he scattered the seed in the field, some of it fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up 5 Some of it fell on rocky ground, where there was little soil The seeds soon sprouted, because the soil wasn't deep 6 But when the sun came up, it burnt the young plants, and because the roots had not grown deep enough, the plants soon dried up 7 Some of the seed fell among thorn bushes, which grew up and choked the plants 8 But some seeds fell in good soil, and the plants produced corn, some produced a hundred grains, others sixty, and others thirty " 9 And Jesus concluded, "Listen, then, if you have ears!"

The Purpose of the Parables
(Mark 4 10-12, Luke 8 9-10)

10 Then the disciples came to Jesus and asked him, "Why do you use parables when you talk to the people?" 11 Jesus answered, "The knowledge about the secrets of the Kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them 12 For the person who has something will be given more, so that he will have more than enough, but the person who has nothing will have taken away from him even the little he has 13 The reason I use parables in talking to them is that they look, but do not see, and they listen, but do not hear or understand 14 So the prophecy of Isaiah applies to them

'This people will listen and listen, but not understand, they will look and look, but not see, 15 because their minds are dull, and they have stopped up their ears and have closed their eyes Otherwise, their eyes would see, their ears would hear,
their minds would understand,
and they would turn to me, says God,
and I would heal them '

16 "As for you, how fortunate you are!
Your eyes see and your ears hear 17 I assure you that many prophets and many of God's people wanted very much to see what you see, but they could not, and to hear what you hear, but they did not

Jesus Explains the Parable of the Sower
(Mark 4 13-20, Luke 8 11-15)

18 "Listen, then, and learn what the parable of the sower means 19 Those who hear the message about the Kingdom but do not understand it are like the seeds that fell along the path The Evil One comes and snatches away what was sown in them 20 The seeds that fell on rocky ground stand for those who receive the message gladly as soon as they hear it 21 But it does not sink deep into them, and they don't last long So when trouble or persecution comes because of the message, they give up at once 22 The seeds that fell among thorn bushes stand for those who hear the message, but the worries about this life and the love for riches choke the message, and they don't bear fruit [23]And the seeds sown in the good soil stand for those who hear the message and understand it they bear fruit, some as much as a hundred, others sixty, and others thirty "

The Parable of the Weeds

24 Jesus told them another parable
"The Kingdom of heaven is like this A man sowed good seed in his field [25]One night, when everyone was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away [26]When the plants grew and the ears of corn began to form, then the weeds showed up [27]The man's servants came to him and said, 'Sir, it was good seed you sowed in your field, where did the weeds come from?' [28]'It was some enemy who did this,' he answered 'Do you want us to go and pull up the weeds?' they asked him [29]'No,' he answered, 'because as you gather the weeds you might pull up some of the wheat along with them [30]Let the wheat and the weeds both grow together until harvest Then I will tell the harvest workers to pull up the weeds first, tie them in bundles and burn them, and then to gather in the wheat and put it in my barn '"

The Parable of the Mustard Seed
(Mark 4 30–32, Luke 13 18–19)

31 Jesus told them another parable
"The Kingdom of heaven is like this A man takes a mustard seed and sows it in his field [32]It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it grows up, it is the biggest of all plants It becomes a tree, so that birds come and make their nests in its branches "

The Parable of the Yeast
(Luke 13 20–21)

33 Jesus told them still another parable
"The Kingdom of heaven is like this A woman takes some yeast and mixes it with forty litres of flour until the whole batch of dough rises "

Jesus' Use of Parables
(Mark 4 33–34)

34 Jesus used parables to tell all these things to the crowds, he would not say a thing to them without using a parable [35]He did this to make what the prophet had said come true,

"I will use parables when I speak to
them,
I will tell them things unknown since the creation of the world "

Jesus Explains the Parable of the Weeds

36 When Jesus had left the crowd and gone indoors, his disciples came to him and said, "Tell us what the parable about the weeds in the field means " 37 Jesus answered, "The man who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man, [38]the field is the world, the good seed is the people who belong to the Kingdom, the weeds are the people who belong to the Evil One, [39]and the enemy who sowed the weeds is the Devil The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvest workers are angels [40]Just as the weeds are gathered up and burnt in the fire, so the same thing will happen at the end of the age [41]the Son of Man will send out his angels to gather up out of his Kingdom all those who cause people to sin and all others who do evil things, [42]and they will throw them into the fiery furnace, where they will cry and grind their teeth [43]Then God's people will shine like the sun in their Father's Kingdom Listen, then, if you have ears!

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

44 "The Kingdom of heaven is like this A man happens to find a treasure hidden in a field He covers it up again, and is so happy that he goes and sells everything he has, and then goes back and buys that field

The Parable of the Pearl

45 "Also, the Kingdom of heaven is like this A man is looking for fine pearls, [46]and when he finds one that is unusually fine, he goes and sells everything he has, and buys that pearl

The Parable of the Net

47 "Also, the Kingdom of heaven is like this Some fishermen throw their net out in the lake and catch all kinds of fish [48]When the net is full, they pull it to shore and sit down to divide the fish the good ones go into their buckets, the worthless ones are thrown away [49]It will be like this at the end of the age the angels will go out and gather up the evil people from among the good [50]and will throw

them into the fiery furnace, where they will cry and grind their teeth.

New Truths and Old

51 "Do you understand these things?" Jesus asked them.
"Yes," they answered.
52 So he replied, "This means, then, that every teacher of the Law who becomes a disciple in the Kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who takes new and old things out of his storeroom."

Jesus is Rejected at Nazareth
(Mark 6.1–6; Luke 4.16–30)

53 When Jesus finished telling these parables, he left that place 54 and went back to his home town. He taught in the synagogue, and those who heard him were amazed. "Where did he get such wisdom?" they asked. "And what about his miracles? 55 Isn't he the carpenter's son?
Isn't Mary his mother, and aren't James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas his brothers?
56 Aren't all his sisters living here? Where did he get all this?" 57 And so they rejected
him.
Jesus said to them, "A prophet is respected everywhere except in his home town and by his own family." 58 Because they did not have faith, he did not perform many miracles there.

The Death of John the Baptist
(Mark 6.14–29; Luke 9.7–9)

14 At that time Herod, the ruler of Galilee, heard about Jesus. 2 "He is really John the Baptist, who has come back to life," he told his officials. "That is why he has this power to perform miracles."
3 For Herod had earlier ordered John's arrest, and he had him chained and put in prison. He had done this because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. 4 For some time John the Baptist had told Herod, "It isn't right for you to be married to Herodias!" 5 Herod wanted to kill him, but he was afraid of the Jewish people, because they considered John to be a prophet.
6 On Herod's birthday the daughter of Herodias danced in front of the whole group. Herod was so pleased 7 that he promised her, "I swear that I will give you anything you ask for!" 8 At her mother's suggestion she asked him, "Give me here and now the head of John the Baptist on a dish!" 9 The king was sad, but because of the promise he had made in front of all his guests he gave orders that her wish be granted. 10 So he had John beheaded in prison. 11 The head was brought in on a dish and given to the girl, who took it to her mother. 12 John's disciples came, carried away his body, and buried it; then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand Men
(Mark 6.30–44; Luke 9.10–17; John 6.1–14)

13 When Jesus heard the news about John, he left there in a boat and went to a lonely place by himself. The people heard about it, so they left their towns and followed him by land. 14 Jesus got out of the boat, and when he saw the large crowd, his heart was filled with pity for them, and he healed those who were ill.
15 That evening his disciples came to him and said, "It is already very late, and this is a lonely place. Send the people away and let them go to the villages to buy food for themselves." 16 "They don't have to leave," answered Jesus. "You yourselves give them something to eat!"
17 "All we have here are five loaves and two fish," they replied.
18 "Then bring them here to me," Jesus said. 19 He ordered the people to sit down on the grass; then he took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, and gave thanks to God. He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.
20 Everyone ate and had enough. Then the disciples took up twelve baskets full of what was left over. 21 The number of men who ate was about five thousand, not counting the women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water
(Mark 6.45–52; John 6.15–21)

22 Then Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side of the lake, while he sent the people away. 23 After sending the people away, he went up a hill by himself to pray. When evening came, Jesus was there alone; 24 and by this time the boat was far out in the lake, tossed about by the waves, because the wind was blowing against it.
25 Between three and six o'clock in the morning Jesus came to the disciples, walking on the water. 26 When they saw 13.57 Jn 4.44   14.3–4 Lk 3.19–20   14.4 Lev 18.16; 20.21 them walking on the water, they were terrified. "It's a ghost!" they said, and screamed with fear.

27 Jesus spoke to them at once.
"Courage!" he said. "It is I. Don't be afraid!" 28 Then Peter spoke up. "Lord, if it is really you, order me to come out on the water to you." 29 "Come!" answered Jesus. So Peter got out of the boat and started walking on the water to Jesus. 30 But when he noticed the strong wind, he was afraid and started to sink down in the water.
"Save me, Lord!" he cried.
31 At once Jesus reached out and grabbed hold of him and said, "How little faith you have! Why did you doubt?" 32 They both got into the boat, and the wind died down. 33 Then the disciples in the boat worshipped Jesus. "Truly you are the Son of God!" they exclaimed.

Jesus Heals the Sick in Gennesaret
(Mark 6.53-56)

34 They crossed the lake and came to land at Gennesaret, 35 where the people recognized Jesus. So they sent for the sick people in all the surrounding country and brought them to Jesus. 36 They begged him to let those who were ill at least touch the edge of his cloak; and all who touched it were made well.

The Teaching of the Ancestors
(Mark 7.1-13)

15 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the Law came from Jerusalem to Jesus and asked him, 2 "Why is it that your disciples disobey the teaching handed down by our ancestors? They don't wash their hands in the proper way before they eat!" 3 Jesus answered, "And why do you disobey God's command and follow your own teaching? 4 For God said, 'Respect your father and your mother,' and 'Whoever curses his father or his mother is to be put to death.' 5 But you teach that if a person has something he could use to help his father or mother, but says, 'This belongs to God,' 6 he does not need to honour his father.[a] In this way you disregard God's command, in order to follow your own teaching. 7 You hypocrites! How right Isaiah was when he prophesied about you!
8 'These people, says God, honour me with their words, but their heart is really far away from
me.
9 It is no use for them to worship me, because they teach man-made rules as though they were my laws!' "

The Things That Make a Person Unclean
(Mark 7.14-23)

10 Then Jesus called the crowd to him and said to them, "Listen and understand!
11 It is not what goes into a person's mouth that makes him ritually unclean; rather, what comes out of it makes him unclean." 12 Then the disciples came to him and said, "Do you know that the Pharisees had their feelings hurt by what you said?" 13 "Every plant which my Father in heaven did not plant will be pulled up," answered Jesus. 14 "Don't worry about

They are blind leaders of the blind (15.14) them! They are blind leaders of the blind; and when one blind man leads another, both fall into a ditch." 15 Peter spoke up, "Explain this saying to us." 16 Jesus said to them, "You are still no more intelligent than the others.

17 Don't you understand? Anything that goes into a person's mouth goes into his stomach and then on out of his body.
18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these are the things that make a person ritually unclean 19 For from his heart come the evil ideas which lead him to kill, commit adultery, and do other immoral things, to rob, lie, and slander others 20 These are the things that make a person unclean But to eat without washing your hands as they say you should—this doesn't make a person unclean "

A Woman's Faith
(Mark 7 24–30)

21 Jesus left that place and went off to the territory near the cities of Tyre and Sidon 22 A Canaanite woman who lived in that region came to him "Son of David!" she cried out "Have mercy on me! My daughter has a demon and is in a terrible condition " 23 But Jesus did not say a word to her His disciples came to him and begged him, "Send her away! She is following us and making all this noise!" 24 Then Jesus replied, "I have been sent only to those lost sheep, the people of Israel "
25 At this the woman came and fell at his feet "Help me, sir!" she said 26 Jesus answered, "It isn't right to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs " 27 "That's true, sir," she answered, "but even the dogs eat the leftovers that fall from their masters' table " 28 So Jesus answered her, "You are a woman of great faith! What you want will be done for you" And at that very moment her daughter was healed

29 Jesus left there and went along by Lake Galilee He climbed a hill and sat down 30 Large crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the dumb, and many other sick people, whom they placed at Jesus' feet, and he healed them 31 The people were amazed as they saw the dumb speaking, the crippled made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they praised the God of Israel

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand Men
(Mark 8 1–10)

32 Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I feel sorry for these people, because they have been with me for three days and now have nothing to eat I don't want to send them away without feeding them, for they might faint on their way home " 33 The disciples asked him, "Where will we find enough food in this desert to feed this crowd?"
34 "How much bread have you?" Jesus asked
"Seven loaves," they answered, "and a few small fish " 35 So Jesus ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground 36 Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks to God, broke them, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people 37 They all ate and had enough Then the disciples took up seven baskets full of pieces left over 38 The number of men who ate was four thousand, not counting the women and
39 Then Jesus sent the people away, got into a boat, and went to the territory of Magadan

The Demand for a Miracle
(Mark 8 11–13, Luke 12 54–56)

16 Some Pharisees and Sadducees who came to Jesus wanted to trap him, so they asked him to perform a miracle for them, to show that God approved of him 2 But Jesus answered, "When the sun is setting, you say, 'We are going to have fine weather, because the sky is red' 3 And early in the morning you say, 'It is going to rain, because the sky is red and dark' You can predict the weather by looking at the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs concerning these times![m] 4 How evil and godless are the people of this day! You ask me for a miracle? No! The only miracle you will be given is the miracle of Jonah " So he left them and went away

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees
(Mark 8 14–21)

5 When the disciples crossed over to the other side of the lake, they forgot to take any bread 6 Jesus said to them, "Take care, be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees " 7 They started discussing among themselves, "He says this because we didn't bring any bread " 8 Jesus knew what they were saying, so he asked them, "Why are you discussing among yourselves about not

[m] Some manuscripts do not have the words of Jesus in verses 2 and 3 having any bread? How little faith you have! 9 Don't you understand yet? Don't you remember when I broke the five loaves for the five thousand men? How many baskets did you fill? 10 And what about the seven loaves for the four thousand men? How many baskets did you fill? 11 How is it that you don't understand that I was not talking to you about bread? Guard yourselves from the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!" 12 Then the disciples understood that he was not warning them to guard themselves from the yeast used in bread but from the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees

Peter's Declaration about Jesus
(Mark 8 27-30, Luke 9 18-21)

13 Jesus went to the territory near the town of Caesarea Philippi, where he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"
14 "Some say John the Baptist," they answered "Others say Elijah, while others say Jeremiah or some other prophet"
15 "What about you?" he asked them
"Who do you say I am?" 16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God" 17 "Good for you, Simon son of John!" answered Jesus "For this truth did not come to you from any human being, but it was given to you directly by my Father in heaven 18 And so I tell you, Peter you are a rock, and on this rock foundation I will build my church, and not even death will ever be able to overcome it 19 I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of heaven, what you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven, and what you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven"
20 Then Jesus ordered his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah

Jesus Speaks about His Suffering and Death
(Mark 8 31-9 1, Luke 9 22-27)

21 From that time on Jesus began to say plainly to his disciples, "I must go to Jerusalem and suffer much from the elders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law I will be put to death, but three days later I will be raised to life" 22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him "God forbid it, Lord!" he said "That must never happen to you!" 23 Jesus turned around and said to Peter, "Get away from me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my way, because these thoughts of yours don't come from God, but from man" 24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to come with me, he must forget self, carry his cross, and follow me 25 For whoever wants to save his own life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it 26 Will a person gain anything if he wins the whole world but loses his life? Of course not! There is nothing he can give to regain his life 27 For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will repay everyone according to his deeds 28 I assure you that there are some here who will not die until they have seen the Son of Man come as King"

The Transfiguration

17 Six days later Jesus took with him Peter and the brothers James and John and led them up a high mountain where they were alone 2 As they looked on, a change came over Jesus his face was shining like the sun, and his clothes were dazzling white 3 Then the three disciples saw Moses and Elijah talking with Jesus 4 So Peter spoke up and said to Jesus, "Lord, how good it is that we are here! If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" 5 While he was talking, a shining cloud came over them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my own dear Son, with whom I am pleased—listen to him!" 6 When the disciples heard the voice, they were so terrified that they threw themselves face downwards on the ground 7 Jesus came to them and touched them "Get up," he said "Don't be afraid!" 8 So they looked up and saw no one there but Jesus 9 As they came down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Don't tell anyone about this vision you have seen until the Son of Man has been raised from death"

10 Then the disciples asked Jesus,
"Why do the teachers of the Law say that Elijah has to come first?" 11 "Elijah is indeed coming first," answered Jesus, "and he will get everything ready [12]But I tell you that Elijah has already come and people did not recognize him, but treated him just as they pleased In the same way they will also ill-treat the Son of Man" 13 Then the disciples understood that he was talking to them about John the Baptist

Jesus Heals a Boy with a Demon (Mark 9 14–29, Luke 9 37–43a)

14 When they returned to the crowd, a man came to Jesus, knelt before him, [15]and said, "Sir, have mercy on my son!
He is an epileptic and has such terrible fits that he often falls in the fire or into water [16]I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal him" 17 Jesus answered, "How unbelieving and wrong you people are! How long must I stay with you? How long do I have to put up with you? Bring the boy here to me!" [18]Jesus gave a command to the demon, and it went out of the boy, and at that very moment he was healed 19 Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and asked him, "Why couldn't we drive the demon out?" 20 "It was because you haven't enough faith," answered Jesus "I assure you that if you have faith as big as a mustard seed, you can say to this hill, 'Go from here to there!' and it will go You could do anything!"[n]

Jesus Speaks Again about His Death (Mark 9 30–32, Luke 9 43b–45)

22 When the disciples all came together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be handed over to men [23]who will kill him, but three days later he will be raised to life"
The disciples became very sad

Payment of the Temple-Tax

24 When Jesus and his disciples came to Capernaum, the collectors of the temple-tax came to Peter and asked, "Does your teacher pay the temple-tax?" 25 "Of course," Peter answered When Peter went into the house, Jesus spoke up first, "Simon, what is your opinion? Who pays duties or taxes to the kings of this world? The citizens of the country or the foreigners?" 26 "The foreigners," answered Peter "Well, then," replied Jesus, "that means that the citizens don't have to pay [27]But we don't want to offend these people So go to the lake and drop in a line Pull up the first fish you hook, and in its mouth you will find a coin worth enough for my temple-tax and yours Take it and pay them our taxes"

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, asking, "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of heaven?" 2 So Jesus called a child, made him stand in front of them, [3]and said, "I assure you that unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the Kingdom of heaven [4]The greatest in the Kingdom of heaven is the one who humbles himself and becomes like this child [5]And whoever welcomes in my name one such child as this, welcomes me

Temptations to Sin
(Mark 9 42–48, Luke 17 1–2)

6 "If anyone should cause one of these little ones to lose his faith in me, it would be better for that person to have a large millstone tied round his neck and be drowned in the deep sea [7]How terrible for the world that there are things that make people lose their faith! Such things will always happen—but how terrible for the one who causes them!
8 "If your hand or your foot makes you lose your faith, cut it off and throw it away! It is better for you to enter life without a hand or a foot than to keep both hands and both feet and be thrown into the eternal fire [9]And if your eye makes you lose your faith, take it out and throw it away! It is better for you to enter life with only one eye than to keep both eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell

The Parable of the Lost Sheep
(Luke 15 3-7)

10 "See that you don't despise any of these little ones Their angels in heaven, I tell you, are always in the presence of my Father in heaven [o] 12 "What do you think a man does who has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost? He will leave the other ninety-nine grazing on the hillside and go and look for the lost sheep 13 When he finds it, I tell you, he feels far happier over this one sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not get lost 14 In just the same way your[p] Father in heaven does not want any of these little ones to be lost

A Brother Who Sins

15 "If your brother sins against you,[q] go to him and show him his fault But do it privately, just between yourselves If he listens to you, you have won your brother back 16 But if he will not listen to you, take one or two other persons with you, so that 'every accusation may be upheld by the testimony of two or more witnesses,' as the scripture says 17 And if he will not listen to them, then tell the whole thing to the church Finally, if he will not listen to the church, treat him as though he were a pagan or a tax collector

Prohibiting and Permitting

18 "And so I tell all of you· what you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven, and what you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven 19 "And I tell you more whenever two of you on earth agree about anything you pray for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven 20 For where two or three come together in my name, I am there with them "

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

21 Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, if my brother keeps on sinning against me, how many times do I have to forgive him? Seven times?" 22 "No, not seven times," answered Jesus, "but seventy times seven,[r] 23 because the Kingdom of heaven is like this Once there was a king who decided to check on his servants' accounts 24 He had just begun to do so when one of them was brought in who owed him millions of pounds 25 The servant did not have enough to pay his debt, so the king ordered him to be sold as a slave, with his wife and his children and all that he had, in order to pay the debt 26 The servant fell on his knees before the king 'Be patient with me,' he begged, 'and I will pay you everything!' 27 The king felt sorry for him, so he forgave him the debt and let him go

28 "Then the man went out and met one of his fellow-servants who owed him a few pounds He grabbed him and started choking him 'Pay back what you owe me!' he said 29 His fellow-servant fell down and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back!' 30 But he refused, instead, he had him thrown into jail until he should pay the debt 31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were very upset and went to the king and told him everything 32 So he called the servant in 'You worthless slave!' he said 'I forgave you the whole amount you owed me, just because you asked me to 33 You should have had mercy on your fellow-servant, just as I had mercy on you' 34 The king was very angry, and he sent the servant to jail to 35 And Jesus concluded, "That is how my Father in heaven will treat every one of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart "

Jesus Teaches About Divorce
(Mark 10 1-12)

19 When Jesus finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went to the territory of Judaea on the other side of the River Jordan 2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there 3 Some Pharisees came to him and tried to trap him by asking, "Does our Law allow a man to divorce his wife for whatever reason he wishes?" 4 Jesus answered, "Haven't you read the scripture that says that in the beginning the Creator made people male and female? 5 And God said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and unite with his wife, and the two will become one ' 6 So they are no longer two, but one Man must not separate, then, what God has joined together " 7 The Pharisees asked him, "Why, then, did Moses give the law for a man to hand his wife a divorce notice and send her away?" 8 Jesus answered, "Moses gave you permission to divorce your wives because you are so hard to teach But it was not like that at the time of creation 9 I tell you, then, that any man who divorces his wife, even though she has not been unfaithful, commits adultery if he marries some other woman " 10 His disciples said to him, "If this is how it is between a man and his wife, it is better not to marry " 11 Jesus answered, "This teaching does not apply to everyone, but only to those to whom God has given it 12 For there are different reasons why men cannot marry some, because they were born that way, others, because men made them that way, and others do not marry for the sake of the Kingdom of heaven Let him who can accept this teaching do so "

Jesus Blesses Little Children
(Mark 10 13-16, Luke 18 15-17)

13 Some people brought children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and to pray for them, but the disciples scolded the people 14 Jesus said, "Let the children come to me and do not stop them, because the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these " 15 He placed his hands on them and then went away

The Rich Young Man
(Mark 10 17-31, Luke 18 18-30)

16 Once a man came to Jesus "Teacher," he asked, "what good thing must I do to receive eternal life?" 17 "Why do you ask me concerning what is good?" answered Jesus "There is only One who is good Keep the commandments if you want to enter life " 18 "What commandments?" he asked Jesus answered, "Do not commit murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not accuse anyone falsely, 19 respect your father and your mother, and love your neighbour as you love yourself " 20 "I have obeyed all these commandments," the young man replied "What else do I need to do?" 21 Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go and sell all you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven, then come and follow me " 22 When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he was very rich 23 Jesus then said to his disciples, "I assure you, it will be very hard for rich people to enter the Kingdom of heaven.
24 I repeat it is much harder for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God than for a camel to go through the eye of a needle " 25 When the disciples heard this, they were completely amazed "Who, then, can be saved?" they asked 26 Jesus looked straight at them and answered, "This is impossible for man, but for God everything is possible " 27 Then Peter spoke up "Look," he said, "we have left everything and followed you What will we have?" 28 Jesus said to them, "You can be sure that when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne in the New Age, then you twelve followers of mine will also sit on thrones, to rule the twelve tribes of Israel

The Workers in the Vineyard

20 "The Kingdom of heaven is like this Once there was a man who went out early in the morning to hire some men to work in his vineyard 2 He agreed to pay them the regular wage, a silver coin a day, and sent them to work in his vineyard 3 He went out again to the market place at nine o'clock and saw some men standing there doing nothing, 4 so he told them, 'You also go and work in the vineyard, and I will pay you a fair wage' 5 So they went Then at twelve o'clock and again at three o'clock he did the same thing 6 It was nearly five o'clock when he went to the market place and saw some other men still standing there 'Why are you wasting the whole day here doing nothing?' he asked them 7 'No one hired us,' they answered 'Well, then, you also go and work in the vineyard,' he told
8 "When evening came, the owner told his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with those who were hired last and ending with those who were hired first' 9 The men who had begun to work at five o'clock were paid a silver coin each 10 So when the men who were the first to be hired came to be paid, they thought they would get more, but they too were given a silver coin each 11 They took their money and started grumbling against the employer 12 'These men who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said, 'while we put up with a whole day's work in the hot sun—yet you paid them the same as you paid us!' 13 'Listen, friend,' the owner answered one of them, 'I have not cheated you After all, you agreed to do a day's work for one silver coin 14 Now take your pay and go home I want to give this man who was hired last as much as I have given you 15 Don't I have the right to do as I wish with my own money? Or are you jealous because I am generous?'" 16 And Jesus concluded, "So those who are last will be first, and those who are first will be last"

Jesus Speaks a Third Time about His Death

(Mark 10 32-34, Luke 18 31-34)

17 As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside and spoke to them privately, as they walked along 18 "Listen," he told them, "we are going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the teachers of the Law They will condemn him to death 19 and then hand him over to the Gentiles, who will mock him, whip him, and crucify him, but three days later he will be raised to life"

A Mother's Request

(Mark 10 35-45)

20 Then the wife of Zebedee came to Jesus with her two sons, bowed before him, and asked him a favour 21 "What do you want?" Jesus asked her
She answered, "Promise me that these two sons of mine will sit at your right and your left when you are King" 22 "You don't know what you are asking for," Jesus answered the sons "Can you drink the cup of suffering that I am about to drink?"
"We can," they answered 23 "You will indeed drink from my cup," Jesus told them, "but I do not have the right to choose who will sit at my right and my left These places belong to those for whom my Father has prepared them" 24 When the other ten disciples heard about this, they became angry with the two brothers 25 So Jesus called them all together and said, "You know that the rulers of the heathen have power over them, and the leaders have complete authority 26 This, however, is not the way it shall be among you If one of you wants to be great, he must be the servant of the rest, 27 and if one of you wants to be first, he must be your slave—28 like the Son of Man, who did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life to redeem many people"

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

(Mark 10 46-52, Luke 18 35-43)

29 As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd was following 30 Two blind men who were 19 30 Mt 20 16 Lk 13 30 20 8 Lev 19 13 Deut 24 15 20 16 Mt 19 30, Mk 10 31, Lk 13 30

God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord! (21 9) sitting by the road heard that Jesus was passing by, so they began to shout, "Son of David! Take pity on us!" 31 The crowd scolded them and told them to be quiet But they shouted even more loudly, "Son of David! Take pity on us!"

32 Jesus stopped and called them "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked them 33 "Sir," they answered, "we want you to give us our sight!" 34 Jesus had pity on them and touched their eyes, at once they were able to see, and they followed him

The Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem
John 12 12-19)

21 As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to Bethphage at the Mount of Olives There Jesus sent two of the disciples on ahead 2with these instructions "Go to the village there ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied up with her colt beside her Untie them and bring them to me 3And if anyone says anything, tell him, 'The Master[s] needs them', and then he will let them go at once" 4 This happened in order to make what the prophet had said come true 5 "Tell the city of Zion,
Look, your king is coming to you!
He is humble and rides on a donkey and on a colt, the foal of a donkey" 6 So the disciples went and did what Jesus had told them to do 7they brought the donkey and the colt, threw their cloaks over them, and Jesus got on 8A large crowd of people spread their cloaks on the road while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road 9The crowds walking in front of Jesus and those walking behind began to shout, "Praise to David's Son! God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord!
Praise God!" 10 When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was thrown into an uproar "Who is he?" the people asked 11 "This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee," the crowds answered

Jesus Goes to the Temple
John 2 13-22)

12 Jesus went into the Temple and drove out all those who were buying and selling there He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the stools of those who sold pigeons, 13and said to them, "It is written in the Scriptures that God said, 'My Temple will be called a house of prayer' But you are making it a hideout for thieves!" 14 The blind and the crippled came to him in the Temple, and he healed them 15The chief priests and the teachers of the Law became angry when they saw the wonderful things he was doing and the children shouting in the Temple, "Praise to David's Son!" 16So they asked Jesus, "Do you hear what they are saying?"
"Indeed I do," answered Jesus
"Haven't you ever read this scripture?
'You have trained children and babies to offer perfect praise'" 17 Jesus left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night

Jesus Curses the Fig-Tree
(Mark 11 12-14, 20-24)

18 On his way back to the city early next morning, Jesus was hungry 19He saw a fig-tree by the side of the road and went to it, but found nothing on it except leaves So he said to the tree, "You will never again bear fruit!" At once the fig-tree dried up 20 The disciples saw this and were astounded "How did the fig-tree dry up so quickly?" they asked 21 Jesus answered, "I assure you that if you believe and do not doubt, you will be able to do what I have done to this fig-tree And not only this, but you will even be able to say to this hill, 'Get up and throw yourself in the sea,' and it will 22If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer"

The Question about Jesus' Authority
(Mark 11 27-33, Luke 20 1-8)

23 Jesus came back to the Temple, and as he taught, the chief priests and the elders came to him and asked, "What right have you to do these things? Who gave you this right?"

[s]The Master; or Their owner 21 5 Zech 9 9 21 9 Ps 118 25,26 21 13 Is 56 7, Jer 7 11 21.16 Ps 8 2 21.21 Mt 17 20, 1 Cor 13.2

24 Jesus answered them, "I will ask you just one question, and if you give me an answer, I will tell you what right I have to do these things 25 Where did John's right to baptize come from was it from God or from man?"
They started to argue among themselves, "What shall we say? If we answer,
'From God,' he will say to us, 'Why, then, did you not believe John?' 26 But if we say, 'From man,' we are afraid of what the people might do, because they are all convinced that John was a prophet " 27 So they answered Jesus, "We don't know " And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you, then, by what right I do these things

The Parable of the Two Sons

28 "Now, what do you think? There was once a man who had two sons He went to the elder one and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today ' 29 'I don't want to,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went 30 Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing 'Yes, sir,' he answered, but he did not go 31 Which one of the two did what his father wanted?"
"The elder one," they answered So Jesus said to them, "I tell you the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the Kingdom of God ahead of you 32 For John the Baptist came to you showing you the right path to take, and you would not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him Even when you saw this, you did not later change your minds and believe
him

The Parable of the Tenants in the Vineyard
(Mark 12 1–12, Luke 20 9–19)

33 "Listen to another parable," Jesus said "There was once a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a hole for the winepress, and built a watch-tower Then he let out the vineyard to tenants and went on a journey 34 When the time came to gather the grapes, he sent his slaves to the tenants to receive his share of the harvest 35 The tenants seized his slaves, beat one, killed another, and stoned another 36 Again the man sent other slaves, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them the same way 36 Last of all he sent his son to them 'Surely they will respect my son,' he said 38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the owner's son Come on, let's kill him, and we will get his property!' 39 So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him 40 "Now, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" Jesus asked 41 "He will certainly kill those evil men," they answered, "and let the vineyard out to other tenants, who will give him his share of the harvest at the right time " 42 Jesus said to them, "Haven't you ever read what the Scriptures say?

'The stone which the builders rejected as worthless
turned out to be the most important of all
This was done by the Lord, what a wonderful sight it is!'

43 "And so I tell you," added Jesus, "the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce the proper fruits "[t] 45 The chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus' parables and knew that he was talking about them, 46 so they tried to arrest him But they were afraid of the crowds, who considered Jesus to be a prophet

The Parable of the Wedding Feast
(Luke 14 15–24)

22 Jesus again used parables in talking to the people 2 "The Kingdom of heaven is like this Once there was a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son 3 He sent his servants to tell the invited guests to come to the feast, but they did not want to come 4 So he sent other servants with this message for the guests 'My feast is ready now, my bullocks and prize calves have been butchered, and everything is ready Come to the wedding feast!' 5 But the invited guests paid no attention and went about their business one went to his farm, another to his shop, 6 while others grabbed the servants, beat them, and killed them 7 The king was very angry, so he sent his soldiers, who killed those murderers and burnt down their city 8 Then he called his servants and said to them, 'My wedding feast is ready, but the people

[t] Some manuscripts add verse 44 Whoever falls on this stone will be cut to pieces, and if the stone falls on someone, it will crush him to dust (see Lk 20 18)

I invited did not deserve it 9 Now go to the main streets and invite to the feast as many people as you find' 10 So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, good and bad alike, and the wedding hall was filled with people 11 "The king went in to look at the guests and saw a man who was not wearing wedding clothes 12 'Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' the king asked him But the man said nothing 13 Then the king told the servants, 'Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him outside in the dark There he will cry and grind his teeth'" 14 And Jesus concluded, "Many are invited, but few are chosen"

The Question about Paying Taxes
(Mark 12 13–17, Luke 20 20–26)

15 The Pharisees went off and made a plan to trap Jesus with questions 16 Then they sent to him some of their disciples and some members of Herod's party "Teacher," they said, "we know that you tell the truth You teach the truth about God's will for man, without worrying about what people think, because you pay no attention to a man's status 17 Tell us, then, what do you think? Is it against our Law to pay taxes to the Roman Emperor, or not?"
18 Jesus, however, was aware of their evil plan, and so he said, "You hypocrites!
Why are you trying to trap me? 19 Show me the coin for paying the tax!" They brought him the coin, 20 and he asked them, "Whose face and name are these?"
21 "The Emperor's," they answered So Jesus said to them, "Well, then, pay the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor, and pay God what belongs to God" 22 When they heard this, they were amazed, and they left him and went away

The Question about Rising from Death
(Mark 12 18–27, Luke 20.27–40)

23 That same day some Sadducees came to Jesus and claimed that people will not rise from death 24 "Teacher," they said, "Moses said that if a man who has no children dies, his brother must marry the widow so that they can have children who will be considered the dead man's children 25 Now, there were seven brothers who used to live here The eldest got married and died without having children, so he left his widow to his brother 26 The same thing happened to the second brother, to the third, and finally to all seven 27 Last of all, the woman died 28 Now, on the day when the dead rise to life, whose wife will she be?
All of them had married her." 29 Jesus answered them, "How wrong you are! It is because you don't know the Scriptures or God's power 30 For when the dead rise to life, they will be like the angels in heaven and will not marry 31 Now, as for the dead rising to life, haven't you ever read what God has told you? He said, 32 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob' He is the God of the living, not of the dead" 33 When the crowds heard this, they were amazed at his teaching

The Great Commandment
(Mark 12.28–34, Luke 10.25–28)

34 When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they came together, 35 and one of them, a teacher of the Law, tried to trap him with a question 36 "Teacher," he asked, "which is the greatest commandment in the
37 Jesus answered, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind' 38 This is the greatest and the most important commandment. 39 The second most important commandment is like it: 'Love your neighbour as you love yourself' 40 The whole Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets depend on these two commandments"

The Question about the Messiah
(Mark 12 35–37, Luke 20 41–44)

41 When some Pharisees gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose descendant is he?"
"He is David's descendant," they answered 43 "Why, then," Jesus asked, "did the Spirit inspire David to call him 'Lord'?
David said,
44 'The Lord said to my Lord: Sit here on my right
until I put your enemies under your feet'
45 If, then, David called him 'Lord,' how can the Messiah be David's descendant?" 46 No one was able to give Jesus any answer, and from that day on no one dared to ask him any more questions

Jesus Warns against the Teachers of the Law and the Pharisees
(Mark 12 38-39, Luke 11 43, 46, 20 45-46)

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples 2 "The teachers of the Law and the Pharisees are the authorized interpreters of Moses' Law 3 So you must obey and follow everything they tell you to do, do not, however, imitate their actions, because they don't practise what they preach 4 They tie on

They aren't willing to help them (23 4) to people's backs loads that are heavy and hard to carry, yet they aren't willing even to lift a finger to help them carry those loads 5 They do everything so that people will see them Look at the straps with scripture verses on them which they wear on their foreheads and arms, and notice how large they are! Notice also how long are the tassels on their cloaks! u 6 They love the best places at feasts and the reserved seats in the synagogues, 7 they love to be greeted with respect in the market-places and to be called 'Teacher' 8 You must not be called 'Teacher', because you are all brothers of one another and have only one Teacher 9 And you must not call anyone here on earth 'Father', because you have only the one Father in heaven 10 Nor should you be called 'Leader', because your one and only leader is the Messiah 11 The greatest one among you must be your servant 12 Whoever makes himself great will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be made great

Jesus Condemns Their Hypocrisy
(Mark 12 40, Luke 11 39-42, 44, 52, 20 47)

13 "How terrible for you, teachers of the Law and Pharisees! You hypocrites!
You lock the door to the Kingdom of heaven in people's faces, and you yourselves don't go in, nor do you allow in those who are trying to enter! v 15 "How terrible for you, teachers of the Law and Pharisees! You hypocrites!
You sail the seas and cross whole countries to win one convert, and when you succeed, you make him twice as deserving of going to hell as you yourselves are!
16 "How terrible for you, blind guides!

How terrible for you, blind guides! (23 16)

You teach, 'If someone swears by the Temple, he isn't bound by his vow, but if he swears by the gold in the Temple, he is bound' 17 Blind fools! Which is more important, the gold or the Temple which makes the gold holy? 18 You also teach, 'If someone swears by the altar, he isn't bound by his vow, but if he swears by the gift on the altar, he is bound.' 19 How blind you are! Which is the more important, the gift or the altar which makes the gift holy? 20 So then, when a person swears by the altar, he is swearing by it and by all the gifts on it, 21 and when he swears by the Temple, he is swearing by it and by God, who lives there, 22 and when someone swears by heaven, he is swearing by God's throne and by him who sits on it.

the Law and Pharisees! You hypocrites!
You give to God a tenth even of the cumin, but you neglect to obey the really important teachings of the Law, such as justice and mercy and honesty. These you should practice, without neglecting the others. 24 Blind guides! You strain a fly clean too!

the Law and Pharisees! You hypocrites!
You are like whitewashed tombs, which look fine on the outside but are full of bones and decaying corpses on the inside.

are full of hypocrisy and sins.

Jesus Predicts Their Punishment
(Luke 11.47-51)

29 "How terrible for you, teachers of the Law and Pharisees! You hypocrites!
You make fine tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of those who lived good lives, 30 and you claim that if you had lived during the time of your ancestors, you would not have done what they did and killed the prophets. 31 So you actually admit that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets!
32 Go on, then, and finish what your ancestors started! 33 You snakes and sons of snakes! How do you expect to escape from being condemned to hell? 34 And so I tell you that I will send you prophets and wise men and teachers, you will kill some of them, crucify others, and whip others in the synagogues and chase them from town to town. 35 As a result, the punishment for the murder of all innocent men will fall on you, from the murder of innocent Abel to the murder of Zachariah son of Berachiah, whom you murdered between the Temple and the altar. 36 I tell you indeed: the punishment for all these murders will fall on the people of this day!

Jesus' Love for Jerusalem
(Luke 13.34-35)

37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You kill the prophets and stone the messengers God has sent you! How many times have I wanted to put my arms round all your people, just as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not let me! 38 And so your Temple will be abandoned and empty. 39 From now on, I tell you, you will never see me again until you say, 'God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Jesus Speaks of the Destruction of the Temple
(Mark 13.1-2; Luke 21.5-6)

24 Jesus left and was going away from the Temple when his disciples came to him to call his attention to its buildings. 2 "Yes," he said, "you may well look at all these. I tell you this: not a single stone here will be left in its place; every one of them will be thrown down."

Troubles and Persecutions
(Mark 13.3-13; Luke 21.7-19)

3 As Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him in private. "Tell us when all this will be," they asked, "and what will happen to show that it is the time for your coming and the end of the age."

4 Jesus answered, "Be on your guard, and do not let anyone deceive you. 5 Many men, claiming to speak for me, will come and say, 'I am the Messiah!' and they will deceive many people. 6 You are going to hear the noise of battles close by and the news of battles far away; but do not be troubled. Such things must happen, but they do not mean that the end has come.
7 Countries will fight each other; kingdoms will attack one another. There will be famines and earthquakes everywhere.

prophets will appear and deceive many people 12 Such will be the spread of evil that many people's love will grow cold the Kingdom will be preached through all

The Awful Horror
(Mark 13 14-23, Luke 21 20-24)

15 "You will see 'The Awful Horror' of which the prophet Daniel spoke It will be standing in the holy place" (Note to the reader understand what this means!) 16 "Then those who are in Judaea must run away to the hills 17 A man who is on the roof of his house must not take the time to go down and get his belongings from the house 18 A man who is in the field must not go back to get his cloak 19 How terrible it will be in those days for women who are pregnant and for mothers with little babies! 20 Pray to God that you will not have to run away during the winter or on a Sabbath! 21 For the trouble at that time will be far more terrible than any there has ever been, from the beginning of the world to this very day Nor will there ever be anything like it again 22 But God has already reduced the number of days, had he not done so, nobody would survive For the sake of his chosen people, however, God will reduce the days 23 "Then, if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!' or 'There he is!'—do not believe him 24 For false Messiahs and false prophets will appear, they will perform great miracles and wonders in order to deceive even God's chosen people, if possible 25 Listen! I have told you this before the time comes 26 "Or, if people should tell you, 'Look, he is out in the desert!'—don't go there, or if they say, 'Look, he is hiding here!'— don't believe it 27 For the Son of Man will come like the lightning which flashes across the whole sky from the east to the west

The Coming of the Son of Man
(Mark 13 24-27, Luke 21 25-28)

29 "Soon after the trouble of those days, the sun will grow dark, the moon will no longer shine, the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers in space will be driven from their courses 30 Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the peoples of earth will weep as they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory 31 The great trumpet will sound, and he will send out his angels to the four corners of the earth, and they will gather his chosen people from one end of the world to the other

The Lesson of the Fig-Tree
(Mark 13 28-31, Luke 21 29-33)

32 "Let the fig-tree teach you a lesson When its branches become green and tender and it starts putting out leaves, you know that summer is near 33 In the same way, when you see all these things, you will know that the time is near, ready things will happen before the people now living have all died 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never

No One Knows the Day and Hour
(Mark 13 32-37, Luke 17.26-30, 34-36)

36 "No one knows, however, when that day and hour will come—neither the angels in heaven nor the Son,[x] the Father alone knows 37 The coming of the Son of Man will be like what happened in the time of Noah 38 In the days before the flood people ate and drank, men and women married, up to the very day Noah went into the boat, 39 yet they did not realize what was happening until the flood came and swept them all away That is how it will be when the Son of Man comes 40 At that time two men will be working in a field one will be taken away, the other will be left behind 41 Two women will be at a mill grinding meal one will hour when you are not expecting him

The Faithful or the Unfaithful Servant
(Luke 12 41–48)

45 "Who, then, is a faithful and wise servant? He is the one that his master has placed in charge of the other servants to give them their food at the proper time 46 How happy that servant is if his master finds him doing this when he comes home! 47 Indeed, I tell you, the master will put that servant in charge of all his property 48 But if he is a bad servant, he will tell himself that his master will not come back for a long time, 49 and he will begin to beat his fellow-servants and to eat and drink with drunkards 50 Then that servant's master will come back one day when the servant does not expect him and at a time he does not know 51 The master will cut him in pieces[y] and make him share the fate of the hypocrites There he will cry and grind his teeth

The Parable of the Ten Girls

25 "At that time the Kingdom of heaven will be like this Once there were ten girls who took their oil lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom 2 Five of them were foolish, and the other five were wise 3 The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any extra oil with them, 4 while the wise ones took containers full of oil for their lamps 5 The bridegroom was late in coming, so the girls began to nod and fall asleep 6 "It was already midnight when the cry rang out, 'Here is the bridegroom!
Come and meet him!' 7 The ten girls woke up and trimmed their lamps 8 Then the foolish ones said to the wise ones, 'Let us have some of your oil, because our lamps are going out' 9 'No, indeed,' the wise ones answered, 'there is not enough for you and for us Go to the shop and buy some for yourselves' 10 So the foolish girls went off to buy some oil, and while they were gone, the bridegroom arrived The five girls who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was closed 11 "Later the other girls arrived 'Sir, sir! Let us in!' they cried out 12 'Certainly not! I don't know you,' the bridegroom answered" 13 And Jesus concluded, "Be on your guard, then, because you do not know the day or the hour

The Parable of the Three Servants
(Luke 19 11–27)

14 "At that time the Kingdom of heaven will be like this Once there was a man who was about to go on a journey; he called his servants and put them in charge of his property 15 He gave to each one according to his ability to one he gave five thousand silver coins, to another he gave two thousand, and to another he gave one thousand Then he left on his journey 16 The servant who had received five thousand coins went at once and invested his money and earned another five thousand 17 In the same way the servant who had received two thousand coins earned another two thousand 18 But the servant who had received one thousand coins went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money 19 "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them 20 The servant who had received five thousand coins came in and handed over the other five thousand 'You gave me five thousand coins, sir,' he said 'Look! Here are another five thousand that I have earned' 21 'Well done, you good and faithful servant!' said his master 'You have been faithful in managing small amounts, so I will put you in charge of large amounts Come on in and share my happiness!' 22 Then the servant who had been given two thousand coins came in and said, 'You gave me two thousand coins, sir Look!
Here are another two thousand that I have earned' 23 'Well done, you good and faithful servant!' said his master 'You have been faithful in managing small amounts, so I will put you in charge of large amounts Come on in and share my happiness!' 24 Then the servant who had received one thousand coins came in and said, 'Sir, I know you are a hard man, you reap harvests where you did not sow, and you 24 43–44 Lk 12 39–40 25 1: Lk 12 35 25 11–12 Lk 13 25 25 14–30 Lk 19 11–27 gather crops where you did not scatter seed 25 I was afraid, so I went off and hid your money in the ground Look! Here is what belongs to you' 26 'You bad and lazy servant!' his master said 'You knew, did you, that I reap harvests where I did not sow, and gather crops where I did not scatter seed?

27 Well, then, you should have deposited my money in the bank, and I would have received it all back with interest when I returned 28 Now, take the money away from him and give it back to the one who has ten thousand coins 29 For to every person who has something, even more will be given, and he will have more than enough, but the person who has nothing, even the little that he has will be taken away from him 30 As for this useless servant—throw him outside in the darkness, there he will cry and grind his teeth'

The Final Judgement

31 "When the Son of Man comes as King and all the angels with him, he will sit on his royal throne, 32 and the people of all the nations will be gathered before him Then he will divide them into two groups, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats 33 He will put the righteous people on his right and the others on his left 34 Then the King will say to the people on his right, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father! Come and possess the kingdom which has been prepared for you ever since the creation of the world 35 I was hungry and you fed me, thirsty and you gave me a drink, I was a stranger and you received me in your homes, 36 naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you took care of me, in prison and you visited me' 37 The righteous will then answer him, 'When, Lord, did we ever see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? 38 When did we ever see you a stranger and welcome you in our homes, or naked and clothe you? 39 When did we ever see you sick or in prison, and visit you?' 40 The King will reply, 'I tell you, whenever you did this for one of the least important of these brothers of mine, you did it for me!' 41 "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Away from me, you that are under God's curse! Away to the eternal fire which has been prepared for the Devil and his angels! 42 I was hungry but you would not feed me, thirsty but you would not give me a drink, 43 I was a stranger but you would not welcome me in your homes, naked but you would not clothe me, I was sick and in prison but you would not take care of me' 44 Then they will answer him, 'When, Lord, did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and would not help you?' 45 The King will reply, 'I tell you, whenever you refused to help one of these least important ones, you refused to help me' 46 These, then, will be sent off to eternal punishment, but the righteous will go to eternal life"

The Plot against Jesus
(Mark 14 1-2, Luke 22 1-2, John 11 45-53)

26 When Jesus had finished teaching all these things, he said to his disciples, 2 "In two days, as you know, it will be the Passover Festival, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified" 3 Then the chief priests and the elders met together in the palace of Caiaphas, the High Priest, 4 and made plans to arrest Jesus secretly and put him to death 5 "We must not do it during the festival," they said, "or the people will riot"

Jesus Is Anointed at Bethany
(Mark 14 3-9; John 12 1-8)

6 Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon, a man who had suffered from a dreaded skin-disease 7 While Jesus was eating, a woman came to him with an alabaster jar filled with an expensive perfume, which she poured on his head 8 The disciples saw this and became angry "Why all this waste?" they asked 9 "This perfume could have been sold for a large amount and the money given to the poor!" 10 Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? It is a fine and beautiful thing that she has done for me 11 You will always have poor people with you, but you will not always have me 12 What she did was to pour this perfume on my body to get me ready for burial 13 Now, I assure you that wherever this gospel is preached all over the world, what she has done will be told in memory of her"

(Mark 14 10–11, Luke 22 3–6)

14 Then one of the twelve disciples—the one named Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests [15]and asked, "What will you give me if I betray Jesus to you?" They counted out thirty silver coins and gave them to him [16]From then on Judas was looking for a good chance to hand Jesus over to them

Jesus Eats the Passover Meal with His Disciples
(Mark 14 12–21, Luke 22 7–14, 21–23; John 13.21–30)

17 On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked him, "Where do you want us to get the Passover meal ready for
you?"
18 "Go to a certain man in the city," he said to them, "and tell him 'The Teacher says, My hour has come, my disciples and I will celebrate the Passover at your house'" 19 The disciples did as Jesus had told them and prepared the Passover meal 20 When it was evening, Jesus and the twelve disciples sat down to eat [21]During the meal Jesus said, "I tell you, one of you will betray me" 22 The disciples were very upset and began to ask him, one after the other, "Surely, Lord, you don't mean me?" 23 Jesus answered, "One who dips his bread in the dish with me will betray me [24]The Son of Man will die as the Scriptures say he will, but how terrible for that man who betrays the Son of Man!
It would have been better for that man if he had never been born!" 25 Judas, the traitor, spoke up "Surely, Teacher, you don't mean me?" he asked Jesus answered, "So you say."

The Lord's Supper
(Mark 14 22–26, Luke 22 14–20, 1 Cor 11 23–25)

26 While they were eating, Jesus took a piece of bread, gave a prayer of thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples "Take and eat it," he said, "this is my body" 27 Then he took a cup, gave thanks to God, and gave it to them "Drink it, all of you," he said, [28]"this is my blood, which seals God's covenant, my blood poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins [29]I tell you, I will never again drink this wine until the day I drink the new wine with you in my Father's Kingdom"
30 Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial
(Mark 14 27–31, Luke 22 31–34, John 13 36–38)

31 Then Jesus said to them, "This very night all of you will run away and leave me, for the scripture says, 'God will kill the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered' [32]But after I am raised to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you" 33 Peter spoke up and said to Jesus, "I will never leave you, even though all the rest do!" 34 Jesus said to Peter, "I tell you that before the cock crows tonight, you will say three times that you do not know
me" 35 Peter answered, "I will never say that, even if I have to die with you!"
And all the other disciples said the same thing

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane
(Mark 14 32–42, Luke 22 39–46)

36 Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray" [37]He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee Grief and anguish came over him, [38]and he said to them, "The sorrow in my heart is so great that it almost crushes me Stay here and keep watch with me"

Take this cup of suffering from me! (26.39)

39 He went a little farther on, threw himself face downwards on the ground, and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, take this cup of suffering from me! Yet not what I want, but what you want." 40 Then he returned to the three disciples and found them asleep, and he said to Peter, "How is it that you three were not able to keep watch with me even for one hour?
41 Keep watch and pray that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." 42 Once more Jesus went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cup of suffering cannot be taken away unless I drink it, your will be done." 43 He returned once more and found the disciples asleep; they could not keep their eyes open.
44 Again Jesus left them, went away, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then he returned to the disciples and said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look! The hour has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to the power of sinful men.
46 Get up, let us go. Look, here is the man who is betraying
me!"

The Arrest of Jesus

John 18.3–12)

47 Jesus was still speaking when Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs and sent by the chief priests and the elders.
48 The traitor had given the crowd a signal: "The man I kiss is the one you want. Arrest him!" 49 Judas went straight to Jesus and said, "Peace be with you, Teacher," and kissed him.
50 Jesus answered, "Be quick about it, friend!"[z]
Then they came up, arrested Jesus, and held him tight.
51 One of those who were with Jesus drew his sword and struck at the High Priest's slave, cutting off his ear.
52 "Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him. "All who take the sword will die by the sword.
53 Don't you know that I could call on my Father for help, and at once he would send me more than twelve armies of angels?
54 But in that case, how could the Scriptures come true which say that this is what must happen?" 55 Then Jesus spoke to the crowd, "Did you have to come with swords and clubs to capture me, as though I were an outlaw? Every day I sat down and taught in the Temple, and you did not arrest me.
56 But all this has happened in order to make what the prophets wrote in the Scriptures come true."
Then all the disciples left him and ran away.

Jesus Before the Council

John 18.13–14, 19–24)

57 Those who had arrested Jesus took him to the house of Caiaphas, the High Priest, where the teachers of the Law and the elders had gathered together.
58 Peter followed from a distance, as far as the courtyard of the High Priest's house He went into the courtyard and sat down with the guards to see how it would all come out 59 The chief priests and the whole Council tried to find some false evidence against Jesus to put him to death, 60 but they could not find any, even though many people came forward and told lies about him Finally two men stepped up 61 and said, "This man said, 'I am able to tear down God's Temple and three days later build it up again'" 62 The High Priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Have you no answer to give to this accusation against you?" 63 But Jesus kept quiet Again the High Priest spoke to him, "In the name of the living God I now put you on oath tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God" 64 Jesus answered him, "So you say But I tell all of you from this time on you will see the Son of Man sitting on the right of the Almighty and coming on the clouds of heaven!" 65 At this the High Priest tore his clothes and said, "Blasphemy! We don't need any more witnesses! You have just heard his blasphemy! 66 What do you think?"

They answered, "He is guilty and must die" 67 Then they spat in his face and beat him, and those who slapped him 68 said, "Prophesy for us, Messiah! Guess who hit you!"

Peter Denies Jesus
(Mark 14 66–72, Luke 22 56–62,
John 18 15–18, 25–27)

69 Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard when one of the High Priest's servant-girls came to him and said, "You, too, were with Jesus of Galilee" 70 But he denied it in front of them all "I don't know what you are talking about," he answered, 71 and went on out to the entrance of the courtyard Another servant-girl saw him and said to the men there, "He was with Jesus of Nazareth" 72 Again Peter denied it and answered, "I swear that I don't know that man!" 73 After a little while the men standing there came to Peter "Of course you are one of them," they said "After all, the way you speak gives you away!" 74 Then Peter said, "I swear that I am telling the truth! May God punish me if I am not! I do not know that man!" Just then a cock crowed, 75 and Peter remembered what Jesus had told him "Before the cock crows, you will say three times that you do not know me" He went out and wept bitterly

Jesus Is Taken to Pilate
(Mark 15 1, Luke 23 1–2, John 18 28–32)

27 Early in the morning all the chief priests and the elders made their plans against Jesus to put him to death 2 They put him in chains, led him off, and handed him over to Pilate, the Roman governor

The Death of Judas
(Acts 1 18–19)

3 When Judas, the traitor, learnt that Jesus had been condemned, he repented and took back the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders 4 "I have sinned by betraying an innocent man to death!" he said
"What do we care about that?" they answered "That is your business!" 5 Judas threw the coins down in the Temple and left, then he went off and hanged himself 6 The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "This is blood money, and it is against our Law to put it in the temple treasury" 7 After reaching an agreement about it, they used the money to buy Potter's Field, as a cemetery for foreigners 8 That is why that field is called "Field of Blood" to this very day 9 Then what the prophet Jeremiah had said came true "They took the thirty silver coins, the amount the people of Israel had agreed to pay for him, 10 and used the money to buy the potter's field, as the Lord had commanded me"

Pilate Questions Jesus
(Mark 15 2–5, Luke 23 3–5, John 18 33–38)

11 Jesus stood before the Roman governor, who questioned him "Are you the king of the Jews?" he asked "So you say," answered Jesus 12 But he said nothing in response to the accusations of the chief priests and elders 13 So Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear all these things they accuse you of?" 14 But Jesus refused to answer a single word, with the result that the Governor was greatly surprised

Jesus Is Sentenced to Death
John 18 39-19 16)

15 At every Passover Festival the Roman governor was in the habit of setting free any one prisoner the crowd asked for 16 At that time there was a well-known prisoner named Jesus Barabbas 17 So when the crowd gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to set free for you? Jesus Barabbas or Jesus called the Messiah?" 18 He knew very well that the Jewish authorities had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous 19 While Pilate was sitting in the judgement hall, his wife sent him a message "Have nothing to do with that innocent man, because in a dream last night I suffered much on account of him" 20 The chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask Pilate to set Barabbas free and have Jesus put to death 21 But Pilate asked the crowd, "Which one of these two do you want me to set free for you?"
"Barabbas!" they answered 22 "What, then, shall I do with Jesus called the Messiah?" Pilate asked them "Crucify him!" they all answered 23 But Pilate asked, "What crime has he committed?"
Then they started shouting at the top of their voices "Crucify him!" 24 When Pilate saw that it was no use to go on, but that a riot might break out, he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said, "I am not responsible for the death of this man!
This is your doing!" 25 The whole crowd answered, "Let the punishment for his death fall on us and our children!" 26 Then Pilate set Barabbas free for them, and after he had Jesus whipped, he handed him over to be crucified

The Soldiers Mock Jesus
(Mark 15 16-20, John 19 2-3)

27 Then Pilate's soldiers took Jesus into the governor's palace, and the whole company gathered round him 28 They stripped off his clothes and put a scarlet robe on him 29 Then they made a crown out of thorny branches and placed it on his head, and put a stick in his right hand, then they knelt before him and mocked him "Long live the King of the Jews!" they said 30 They spat on him, and took the stick and hit him over the head 31 When they had finished mocking him, they took the robe off and put his own clothes back on him Then they led him out to crucify him

Jesus Is Crucified
John 19 17-27)

32 As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene named Simon, and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross 33 They came to a place called Golgotha, which means, "The Place of the Skull" 34 There they offered Jesus wine mixed with a bitter substance, but after tasting it, he would not drink it 35 They crucified him and then divided his clothes among them by throwing dice 36 After that they sat there and watched him 37 Above his head they put the written notice of the accusation against him "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews" 38 Then they crucified two bandits with Jesus, one on his right and the other on his left 39 People passing by shook their heads and hurled insults at Jesus 40 "You were going to tear down the Temple and build it up again in three days! Save yourself if you are God's Son! Come on down from the cross!"
41 In the same way the chief priests and the teachers of the Law and the elders jeered at him 42 "He saved others, but he cannot save himself! Isn't he the king of Israel? If he comes down off the cross now, we will believe in him! 43 He trusts in God and claims to be God's Son Well, then, let us see if God wants to save him
now!" 44 Even the bandits who had been crucified with him insulted him in the same way

The Death of Jesus
John 19 28-30)

45 At noon the whole country was covered with darkness, which lasted for three hours 46 At about three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud shout, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means,
"My God, my God, why did you abandon
me?"
47 Some of the people standing there 27 24 Deut 21 6-9 27 34 Ps 69 21 27 35 Ps 22 18 27.39 Ps 22 7, 109 25 heard him and said, "He is calling for Elijah!" 48 One of them ran up at once, took a sponge, soaked it in cheap wine, put it on the end of a stick, and tried to make him drink it 49 But the others said, "Wait, let us see if Elijah is coming to save him!" 50 Jesus again gave a loud cry and breathed his last 51 Then the curtain hanging in the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom The earth shook, the rocks split apart, 52 the graves broke open, and many of God's people who had died were raised to life 53 They left the graves, and after Jesus rose from death, they went into the Holy City, where many people saw them 54 When the army officer and the soldiers with him who were watching Jesus saw the earthquake and everything else that happened, they were terrified and said, "He really was the Son of God!" 55 There were many women there, looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee and helped him 56 Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the wife of Zebedee

The Burial of Jesus

John 19 38–42)

57 When it was evening, a rich man from Arimathea arrived, his name was Joseph, and he also was a disciple of Jesus 58 He went into the presence of Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus Pilate gave orders for the body to be given to Joseph 59 So Joseph took it, wrapped it in a new linen sheet, 60 and placed it in his own tomb, which he had just recently dug out of solid rock Then he rolled a large stone across the entrance to the tomb and went away 61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there, facing the tomb

The Guard at the Tomb

62 The next day, which was a Sabbath, the chief priests and the Pharisees met with Pilate 63 and said, "Sir, we remember that while that liar was still alive he said, 'I will be raised to life three days later' 64 Give orders, then, for his tomb to be carefully guarded until the third day, so that his disciples will not be able to go and steal the body, and then tell the people that he was raised from death This last lie would be even worse than the first one" 65 "Take a guard," Pilate told them, "go and make the tomb as secure as you can" 66 So they left and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and leaving the guard on watch

The Resurrection

(Mark 16 1–10, Luke 24 1–12, John 20 1–10)

28 After the Sabbath, as Sunday morning was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb 2 Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled the stone away, and sat on it 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow 4 The guards were so afraid that they trembled and became like dead men 5 The angel spoke to the women "You must not be afraid," he said "I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified 6 He is not here, he has been raised, just as he said Come here and see the place where he was lying 7 Go quickly, now, and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from death, and now he is going to Galilee ahead of you, there you will see him!' Remember what I have told you" 8 So they left the tomb in a hurry, afraid and yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples 9 Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Peace be with you" They came up to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him 10 "Do not be afraid," Jesus said to them "Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me"

The Report of the Guard

11 While the women went on their way, some of the soldiers guarding the tomb went back to the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened 12 The chief priests met with the elders and made their plan, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers 13 and said, "You are to say that his disciples came during the night and stole his body while you were asleep 14 And if the Governor should hear of this, we will convince him that you are innocent, and that you will have nothing to worry about" 15 The guards took the money and did what they were told to do And so that

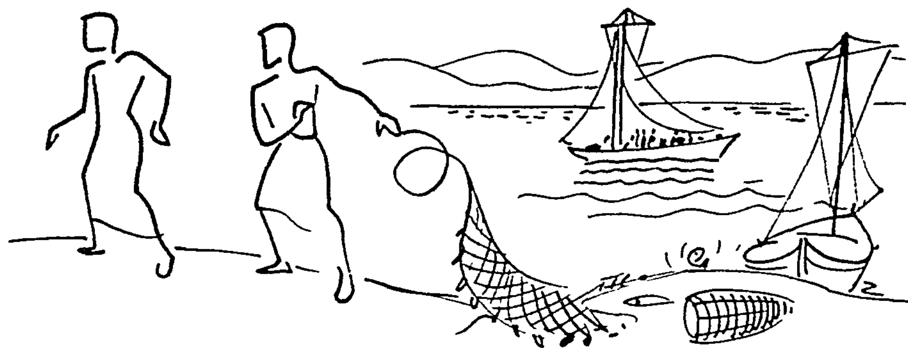
MARK



INTRODUCTION

The Gospel of Mark begıns wıth the statement that ıt ıs "the Good News about Jesus Chrıst, the Son of God" Jesus ıs pıctured as a man of actıon and authorıty Hıs authorıty ıs seen ın hıs teachıng, ın hıs power over demons, and ın forgıvıng people's sıns Jesus speaks of hımself as the Son of Man, who came to gıve hıs lıfe to set people free from sın

Mark presents the story of Jesus ın a straıghtforward, vıgorous way, wıth emphasıs on what Jesus dıd, rather than on hıs words and teachıngs After a brıef prologue about John the Baptıst and the baptısm and temptation of Jesus, the wrıter ımmedıately takes up Jesus' mınıstry of healıng and teachıng As tıme goes on, the followers of Jesus come to understand hım better, but Jesus' opponents become more hostıle The closıng chapters report the events of Jesus' last week of earthly lıfe, especıally hıs crucıfıxıon and resurrectıon

The two endıngs to the Gospel, whıch are enclosed ın brackets, are generally regarded as wrıtten by someone other than the author of Mark

(Matt 3 1-12, Luke 3 1-18, John 1 19-28)

1 This is the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God [a] 2 It began as the prophet Isaiah had written "God said, 'I will send my messenger ahead of you to clear the way for you ' 3 Someone is shouting in the desert,
'Get the road ready for the Lord,
travel!' "
4 So John appeared in the desert, baptizing and preaching [b] "Turn away from your sins and be baptized," he told the people, "and God will forgive your sins " 5 Many people from the province of Judaea and the city of Jerusalem went out to hear John They confessed their sins, and he baptized them in the River Jordan
6 John wore clothes made of camel's hair, with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey 7 He announced to the people, "The man who will come after me is much greater than I am I am not good enough even to bend down and untie his sandals 8 I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit "

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus
(Matt. 3 13-4 11, Luke 3 21-22, 4 1-13)

9 Not long afterwards Jesus came from Nazareth in the province of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan 10 As soon as Jesus came up out of the water, he saw heaven opening and the Spirit coming down on him like a dove 11 And a voice came from heaven, "You are my own dear Son I am pleased with you " 12 At once the Spirit made him go into the desert, 13 where he stayed forty days, being tempted by Satan Wild animals were there also, but angels came and helped him

Jesus Calls Four Fishermen
(Matt 4 12-22, Luke 4 14-15, 5 1-11)

14 After John had been put in prison, Jesus went to Galilee and preached the Good News from God 15 "The right time has come," he said, "and the Kingdom of God is near! Turn away from your sins and believe the Good News!" 16 As Jesus walked along the shore of Lake Galilee, he saw two fishermen, Simon and his brother Andrew, catching fish with a net 17 Jesus said to them,
"Come with me, and I will teach you to catch men " 18 At once they left their nets
and went with him 19 He went a little farther on and saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee They were in their boat getting their nets ready 20 As soon as Jesus saw them, he called them, they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and went with Jesus town of Capernaum, and on the next Sabbath Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach 22 The people who heard him were amazed at the way he taught, for he wasn't like the teachers of the Law, instead, he taught with authority 23 Just then a man with an evil spirit in him came into the synagogue and screamed, 24 "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Are you here to destroy us? I know who you are—you are God's holy messenger!" 25 Jesus ordered the spirit, "Be quiet, and come out of the man!" 26 The evil spirit shook the man hard, gave a loud scream, and came out of him 27 The people were all so amazed that they started saying to one another, "What is this? Is it some kind of new teaching?

This man has authority to give orders to the evil spirits, and they obey him!" 28 And so the news about Jesus spread quickly everywhere in the province of Galilee

(Matt 8 14-17, Luke 4 38-41)

29 Jesus and his disciples, including James and John, left the synagogue and went straight to the home of Simon and Andrew 30 Simon's mother-in-law was sick in bed with a fever, and as soon as Jesus arrived, he was told about her 31 He went to her, took her by the hand, and helped her up The fever left her, and she began to wait on them

32 After the sun had set and evening had come, people brought to Jesus all the sick and those who had demons 33 All the people of the town gathered in front of the house 34 Jesus healed many who were sick with all kinds of diseases and drove out many demons He would not let the demons say anything, because they knew who he was

Jesus Preaches in Galilee
(Luke 4 42-44)

35 Very early the next morning, long before daylight, Jesus got up and left the house He went out of the town to a lonely place, where he prayed 36 But Simon and his companions went out searching for him, 37 and when they found him, they said, "Everyone is looking for you" 38 But Jesus answered, "We must go on to the other villages round here I have to preach in them also, because that is why I came" 39 So he travelled all over Galilee, preaching in the synagogues and driving out demons

Jesus Heals a Man
(Matt 8 1-4, Luke 5 12-16)

40 A man suffering from a dreaded skin-disease came to Jesus, knelt down, and begged him for help "If you want to," he said, "you can make me clean"[c] 41 Jesus was filled with pity,[d] and stretched out his hand and touched him "I do want to," he answered "Be clean!"

[c] MAKE ME CLEAN This disease was considered to make a person ritually unclean [d] pity, some manuscripts have anger 1 22 Mt 7 28-29 1 39 Mt 4 23, 9 35

42 At once the disease left the man, and he was clean 43 Then Jesus spoke sternly to him and sent him away at once, 44 after saying to him, "Listen, don't tell anyone about this But go straight to the priest and let him examine you, then in order to prove to everyone that you are cured, offer the sacrifice that Moses ordered" 45 But the man went away and began to spread the news everywhere Indeed, he talked so much that Jesus could not go into a town publicly Instead, he stayed out in lonely places, and people came to him from everywhere

(Matt. 9 1-8, Luke 5 17-26)

2 A few days later Jesus went back to Capernaum, and the news spread that he was at home 2 So many people came together that there was no room left, not even out in front of the door Jesus was preaching the message to them 3 when four men arrived, carrying a paralysed man to Jesus 4 Because of the crowd, however, they could not get the man to him So they made a hole in the roof right above the place where Jesus was When they had made an opening, they let the man down, lying on his mat 5 Seeing how much faith they had, Jesus said to the paralysed man, "My son, your sins are forgiven" 6 Some teachers of the Law who were sitting there thought to themselves, 7 "How does he dare to talk like this?
This is blasphemy! God is the only one who can forgive sins!" 8 At once Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he said to them, "Why do you think such things? 9 Is it easier to say to this paralysed man, 'Your sins are forgiven', or to say, 'Get up, pick up your mat, and walk'? 10 I will prove to you, then, that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" So he said to the paralysed man, 11 "I tell you, get up, pick up your mat, and go home!" 12 While they all watched, the man got up, picked up his mat, and hurried away They were all completely amazed and praised God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

Jesus Calls Levi
(Matt 9 9-13, Luke 5 27-32)

13 Jesus went back again to the shore of Lake Galilee A crowd came to him, and he started teaching them 14 As he walked along, he saw a tax collector, Levi son of Alphaeus, sitting in his office Jesus said to him, "Follow me" Levi got up and followed him 15 Later on Jesus was having a meal in Levi's house [e] A large number of tax collectors and other outcasts was following Jesus, and many of them joined him and his disciples at the table 16 Some teachers of the Law, who were Pharisees, saw that Jesus was eating with these outcasts and tax collectors, so they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with such
people?"
17 Jesus heard them and answered,
"People who are well do not need a doctor, but only those who are sick I have not come to call respectable people, but outcasts"

The Question about Fasting
(Matt 9 14-17, Luke 5 33-39)

18 On one occasion the followers of John the Baptist and the Pharisees were fasting Some people came to Jesus and asked him, "Why is it that the disciples of John the Baptist and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but yours do not?"
19 Jesus answered, "Do you expect the guests at a wedding party to go without food? Of course not! As long as the bridegroom is with them, they will not do that 20 But the day will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from
21 "No one uses a piece of new cloth to patch up an old coat, because the new patch will shrink and tear off some of the old cloth, making an even bigger hole 22 Nor does anyone pour new wine into used wineskins, because the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be ruined Instead, new wine must be poured into fresh wineskins"

The Question about the Sabbath
(Matt 12 1-8, Luke 6 1-5)

23 Jesus was walking through some cornfields on the Sabbath As his disciples walked along with him, they began to pick the ears of corn 24 So the Pharisees said to Jesus, "Look, it is against our Law for your disciples to do that on the Sabbath!" 25 Jesus answered, "Have you never
needed something to eat? He and his men [e] in Levi's house, or in his (that is Jesus') house 1 44 Lev 14 1-32   2 23 Deut 23 25   2 25-26 1 Sam 21 1-6

The crowd was so large (3 9) were hungry, 26 so he went into the house of God and ate the bread offered to God This happened when Abiathar was the High Priest According to our Law only the priests may eat this bread—but David ate it and even gave it to his men " 27 And Jesus concluded, "The Sabbath was made for the good of man, man was not made for the Sabbath 28 So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath "

The Man with a Paralysed Hand
(Matt 12 9-14, Luke 6 6-11)

3 Then Jesus went back to the synagogue, where there was a man who had a paralysed hand 2 Some people were
wrong, so they watched him closely to see whether he would heal the man on the Sabbath 3 Jesus said to the man, "Come up here to the front " 4 Then he asked the people, "What does our Law allow us to do on the Sabbath? To help or to harm? To save a man's life or to destroy it?"
But they did not say a thing 5 Jesus was angry as he looked round at them, but at the same time he felt sorry for them, because they were so stubborn and wrong Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand " He stretched it out, and it became well again 6 So the Pharisees left the synagogue and met at once with some members of Herod's party, and they made plans to kill Jesus

A Crowd by the Lake

7 Jesus and his disciples went away to Lake Galilee, and a large crowd followed him They had come from Galilee, from Judaea, 8 from Jerusalem, from the territory of Idumea, from the territory on the east side of the Jordan, and from the region round the cities of Tyre and Sidon All these people came to Jesus because they had heard of the things he was doing 9 The crowd was so large that Jesus told his disciples to get a boat ready for him, so that the people would not crush him 10 He had healed many people, and all those who were ill kept pushing their way to him in order to touch him 11 And whenever the people who had evil spirits in them saw him, they would fall down before him and scream, "You are the Son of God!"
12 Jesus sternly ordered the evil spirits not to tell anyone who he was

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles
(Matt 10 1-4, Luke 6 12-16)

13 Then Jesus went up a hill and called to himself the men he wanted They came to him, 14 and he chose twelve, whom he named apostles "I have chosen you to be with me," he told them "I will also send you out to preach, 15 and you will have authority to drive out demons " 16 These are the twelve he chose Simon (Jesus gave him the name Peter), 17 James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee (Jesus gave them the name Boanerges, which means "Men of Thunder"), 18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Patriot, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus

Jesus and Beelzebul
(Matt 12 22-32, Luke 11 14-23, 12 10)

20 Then Jesus went home Again such a large crowd gathered that Jesus and his disciples had no time to eat 21 When his family heard about it, they set out to take charge of him, because people were saying, "He's gone mad!" 22 Some teachers of the Law who had come from Jerusalem were saying, "He has Beelzebul in him! It is the chief of the demons who gives him the power to drive them out " 23 So Jesus called them to him and spoke to them in parables "How can Satan drive out Satan? 24 If a country
other, that country will fall apart 25 If a family divides itself into groups which fight each other, that family will fall apart 26 So if Satan's kingdom divides into groups, it cannot last, but will fall apart and come to an end 27 "No one can break into a strong
man's house and take away his belongings
unless he first ties up the strong man,
then he can plunder his house 28 "I assure you that people can be forgiven all their sins and all the evil things they may say [f] 29 But whoever says evil things against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, because he has committed an eternal sin " (30 Jesus said this because some people were saying, "He has an evil spirit in him ")

Jesus' Mother and Brothers
(Matt 12 46-50, Luke 8 19-21)

31 Then Jesus' mother and brothers arrived They stood outside the house and sent in a message, asking for him 32 A crowd was sitting round Jesus, and they said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, and they want you "
33 Jesus answered, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" 34 He looked at the people sitting round him and said, "Look! Here are my mother and my brothers! 35 Whoever does what God wants him to do is my brother, my sister, my mother "

The Parable of the Sower
(Matt 13 1-9, Luke 8 4-8)

4 Again Jesus began to teach beside Lake Galilee The crowd that gathered round him was so large that he got into a boat and sat in it The boat was out in the water, and the crowd stood on the shore at the water's edge 2 He used parables to teach them many things, saying to them 3 "Listen! Once there was a man who went out to sow corn 4 As he scattered the seed in the field, some of it fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up 5 Some of it fell on rocky ground, where there was little soil The seeds soon sprouted, because the soil wasn't deep 6 Then, when the sun came up, it burnt the young plants, and because the roots had not grown deep enough, the plants soon dried up 7 Some of the seed fell among thorn bushes, which grew up and choked the plants, and they didn't produce any corn 8 But some seeds fell in good soil, and the plants sprouted, grew, and produced corn some had thirty grains, others sixty, and others a hundred " 9 And Jesus concluded, "Listen, then,
if you have ears!"

The Purpose of the Parables
(Matt 13 10-17, Luke 8 9-10)

10 When Jesus was alone, some of those who had heard him came to him with the twelve disciples and asked him to explain the parables 11 "You have been given the secret of the Kingdom of God," Jesus answered "But the others, who are on the outside, hear all things by means of parables, 12 so that,

[f] evil things they may say, or evil things they may say against God 3.22 Mt 9 34, 10 25   3.29 Lk 12 10   4 1 Lk 5 1-3   4 12 Is 6 9-10

'They may look and look, yet not see;
they may listen and listen, yet not understand.
For if they did, they would turn to God, and he would forgive them.'"

Jesus Explains the Parable of the Sower
(Matt 13.18-23; Luke 8.11-15)

13 Then Jesus asked them, "Don't you understand this parable? How, then, will you ever understand any parable? 14 The sower sows God's message. 15 Some people are like the seeds that fall along the path; as soon as they hear the message, Satan comes and takes it away.
16 Other people are like the seeds that fall on rocky ground. As soon as they hear the message, they receive it gladly. 17 But it does not sink deep into them, and they don't last long. So when trouble or persecution comes because of the message, they give up at once. 18 Other people are like the seeds sown among the thorn bushes. These are the ones who hear the message, 19 but the worries about this life, the love for riches, and all other kinds of desires crowd in and choke the message, and they don't bear fruit. 20 But other people are like the seeds sown in good soil. They hear the message, accept it, and bear fruit: some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred."

A Lamp under a Bowl
(Luke 8.16-18)

21 Jesus continued, "Does anyone ever bring in a lamp and put it under a bowl or under the bed? Doesn't he put it on the lampstand? 22 Whatever is hidden away will be brought out into the open, and whatever is covered up will be uncovered. 23 Listen, then, if you have ears!"

24 He also said to them, "Pay attention to what you hear! The same rules you use to judge others will be used by God to judge you—but with even greater severity. 25 The person who has something will be given more, and the person who has nothing will have taken away from him even the little he has."

The Parable of the Growing Seed

26 Jesus went on to say, "The Kingdom of God is like this. A man scatters seed in his field. 27 He sleeps at night, is up and about during the day, and all the while the seeds are sprouting and growing. Yet he does not know how it happens. 28 The soil itself makes the plants grow and bear fruit; first the tender stalk appears, then the ear, and finally the ear full of corn.
29 When the corn is ripe, the man starts cutting it with his sickle, because harvest time has come.

(Matt 13.31-32, 34; Luke 13.18-19)

30 "What shall we say the Kingdom of God is like?" asked Jesus. "What parable shall we use to explain it? 31 It is like this. A man takes a mustard seed, the smallest seed in the world, and plants it in the ground. 32 After a while it grows up and becomes the biggest of all plants. It puts out such large branches that the birds come and make their nests in its shade."

33 Jesus preached his message to the people, using many other parables like these; he told them as much as they could understand. 34 He would not speak to them without using parables, but when he was alone with his disciples, he would explain everything to them.

(Matt 8.23-27; Luke 8.22-25)

35 On the evening of that same day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." 36 So they left the crowd; the disciples got into the boat in which Jesus was already sitting, and they took him with them.
Other boats were there too. 37 Suddenly a strong wind blew up, and the waves began to spill over into the boat, so that it was about to fill with water. 38 Jesus was in the back of the boat, sleeping with his head on a pillow. The disciples woke him up and said, "Teacher, don't you care that we are about to die?"

39 Jesus stood up and commanded the wind, "Be quiet!" and he said to the waves, "Be still!" The wind died down, and there was a great calm. 40 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Why are you frightened? Have you still no faith?"

41 But they were terribly afraid and said to one another, "Who is this man? Even the wind and the waves obey him!"

Jesus Heals a Man with Evil Spirits
(Matt 8.28-34; Luke 8.26-39)

5 Jesus and his disciples arrived on the other side of Lake Galilee, in the territory of Gerasa 2As soon as Jesus got out of the boat, he was met by a man who came out of the burial caves there This man had an evil spirit in him 3and lived among the tombs Nobody could keep him chained up any more, 4many times his feet and hands had been chained, but every time he broke the chains and smashed the irons on his feet He was too strong for anyone to control him 5Day and night he wandered among the tombs and through the hills, screaming and cutting himself with stones 6 He was some distance away when he saw Jesus, so he ran, fell on his knees before him, 7and screamed in a loud voice, "Jesus, Son of the Most High God! What do you want with me? For God's sake, I beg you, don't punish me!" (8He said this because Jesus was saying, "Evil spirit, come out of this man!") 9 So Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

The man answered, "My name is 'Mob'—there are so many of us!" 10And he kept begging Jesus not to send the evil spirits out of that region 11 There was a large herd of pigs near by, feeding on a hillside 12So the spirits begged Jesus, "Send us to the pigs, and let us go into them" 13He let them go, and the evil spirits went out of the man and entered the pigs The whole herd—about two thousand pigs in all—rushed down the side of the cliff into the lake and was drowned
14 The men who had been taking care of the pigs ran away and spread the news in the town and among the farms People went out to see what had happened, 15and when they came to Jesus, they saw the man who used to have the mob of demons in him. He was sitting there, clothed and in his right mind; and they were all afraid.

16 Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the man with the demons, and about the pigs.

17 So they asked Jesus to leave their territory.

18 As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had had the demons begged him, "Let me go with you!"

19 But Jesus would not let him. Instead, he told him, "Go back home to your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for you and how kind he has been
to you."

20 So the man left and went all through the Ten Towns, telling what Jesus had done for him. And all who heard it were amazed.

Jairus' Daughter and the Woman Who Touched Jesus' Cloak
(Matt. 9.18-26; Luke 8.40-56)

21 Jesus went back across to the other side of the lake. There at the lakeside a large crowd gathered round him.
22 Jairus, an official of the local synagogue, arrived, and when he saw Jesus, he threw himself down at his feet 23 and begged him earnestly, "My little daughter is very ill.
Please come and place your hands on her, so that she will get well and live!"

24 Then Jesus started off with him. So many people were going along with Jesus that they were crowding him from every side.

25 There was a woman who had suffered terribly from severe bleeding for twelve years, 26 even though she had been treated by many doctors. She had spent all her money, but instead of getting better she got worse all the time. 27 She had heard about Jesus, so she came in the crowd behind him, 28 saying to herself, "If I just touch his clothes, I will get well."

29 She touched his cloak, and her bleeding stopped at once; and she had the feeling inside herself that she was healed of her trouble. 30 At once Jesus knew that power had gone out of him, so he turned round in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

31 His disciples answered, "You see how the people are crowding you; why do you ask who touched you?"

32 But Jesus kept looking round to see who had done it. 33 The woman realized what had happened to her, so she came, trembling with fear, knelt at his feet, and told him the whole truth. 34 Jesus said to her, "My daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your trouble."

35 While Jesus was saying this, some messengers came from Jairus' house and told him, "Your daughter has died. Why bother the Teacher any longer?"

36 Jesus paid no attention to[k] what they said, but told him, "Don't be afraid, only believe." 37 Then he did not let anyone else go on with him except Peter and James and his brother John. 38 They arrived at Jairus' house, where Jesus saw the confusion and heard all the loud crying and wailing. 39 He went in and said to them, "Why all this confusion? Why are you crying? The child is not dead—she is only sleeping!"

40 They laughed at him, so he put them all out, took the child's father and mother and his three disciples, and went into the room where the child was lying. 41 He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha, koum," which means, "Little girl, I tell you to get up!"

42 She got up at once and started walking around. (She was twelve years old.) When this happened, they were completely amazed. 43 But Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell anyone, and he said, "Give her something to eat."

(Matt. 13.53-58; Luke 4.16-30)

6 Jesus left that place and went back to his home town, followed by his disciples. 2 On the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue. Many people were there; and when they heard him, they were all amazed. "Where did he get all this?" they asked. "What wisdom is this that has been given him? How does he perform miracles? 3 Isn't he the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon? Aren't his sisters living here?" And so they rejected
him.

4 Jesus said to them, "A prophet is respected everywhere except in his own home town and by his relatives and his family."

5 He was not able to perform any miracles there, except that he placed his hands on a few sick people and healed them. 6 He was greatly surprised, because the people did not have faith.

Jesus Sends out the Twelve Disciples

Then Jesus went to the villages round there, teaching the people 7 He called the twelve disciples together and sent them out two by two He gave them authority over the evil spirits 8 and ordered them, "Don't take anything with you on your journey except a stick—no bread, no beggar's bag, no money in your pockets 9 Wear sandals, but don't carry an extra shirt" 10 He also said, "Wherever you are welcomed, stay in the same house until you leave that place 11 If you come to a town where people do not welcome you or will not listen to you, leave it and shake the dust off your feet That will be a warning to them!"

12 So they went out and preached that people should turn away from their sins 13 They drove out many demons, and rubbed olive-oil on many sick people and healed them

(Matt 14 1-12, Luke 9 7-9)

14 Now King Herod[h] heard about all this, because Jesus' reputation had spread everywhere Some people were saying, "John the Baptist has come back to life! That is why he has this power to perform miracles"

15 Others, however, said, "He is Elijah" Others said, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of long ago"

16 When Herod heard it, he said, "He is John the Baptist! I had his head cut off, but he has come back to life!" 17 Herod himself had ordered John's arrest, and he had him chained and put in prison Herod did this because of Herodias, whom he had married, even though she was the wife of his brother Philip 18 John the Baptist kept telling Herod, "It isn't right for you to be married to your brother's wife!"

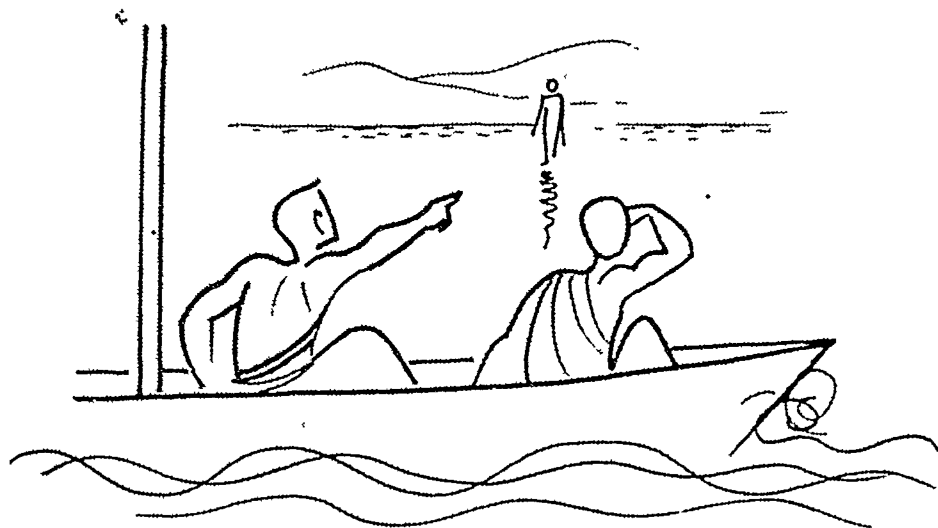
19 So Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she could not because of Herod 20 Herod was afraid of John because he knew that John was a good and holy man, and so he kept him safe He liked to listen to him, even though he became greatly disturbed every time he heard him

21 Finally Herodias got her chance It was on Herod's birthday, when he gave a feast for all the chief government officials, the military commanders, and the leading citizens of Galilee 22 The daughter of Herodias[i] came in and danced, and pleased Herod and his guests So the king said to the girl, "What would you like to have? I will give you anything you want" 23 With many vows he said to her, "I swear that I will give you anything you ask for, even as much as half my kingdom!"

24 So the girl went out and asked her mother, "What shall I ask for?"

"The head of John the Baptist," she answered

25 The girl hurried back at once to the king and demanded, "I want you to give me here and now the head of John the Baptist on a dish!"



26 This made the king very sad, but he could not refuse her because of the vows he had made in front of all his guests 27 So he sent off a guard at once with orders to bring John's head The guard left, went to the prison, and cut John's head off, 28 then he brought it on a dish and gave it to the girl, who gave it to her mother 29 When John's disciples heard about this, they came and took away his body, and buried it

30 The apostles returned and met with Jesus, and told him all they had done and taught 31 There were so many people coming and going that Jesus and his disciples didn't even have time to eat So he said to them, "Let us go off by ourselves to some place where we will be alone and you can rest for a while" 32 So they started out in a boat by themselves for a lonely place

33 Many people, however, saw them leave and knew at once who they were, so they went from all the towns and ran ahead by land and arrived at the place ahead of Jesus and his disciples 34 When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw this large crowd, and his heart was filled with pity for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd So he began to teach them many things 35 When it was getting late, his disciples came to him and said, "It is already very late, and this is a lonely place. 36 Send the people away, and let them go to the nearby farms and villages in order to buy themselves

something to eat." 37 "You yourselves give them something to eat," Jesus answered.
They asked, "Do you want us to go and spend two hundred silver coins[j] on bread in order to feed them?" 38 So Jesus asked them, "How much bread have you got? Go and see."
When they found out, they told him, "Five loaves and also two fish." 39 Jesus then told his disciples to make all the people divide into groups and sit down on the green grass. 40 So the people sat down in rows, in groups of a hundred and groups of fifty. 41 Then Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, and gave thanks to God. He broke the loaves and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the people. He also divided the two fish among them all.
42 Everyone ate and had enough. 43 Then the disciples took up twelve baskets full of what was left of the bread and the fish.
44 The number of men who were fed was five thousand.

(Matt. 14.22-33; John 6.15-21)

45 At once Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to Bethsaida, on the other side of the lake, while he sent the crowd away. 46 After saying good-bye to the people he went away to a hill to pray. 47 When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the lake, while Jesus was alone on land. 48 He saw that his disciples were straining at the oars, because they were rowing against the wind; so some time between three and six o'clock in the morning he came to them, walking on the water. He was going to pass them by,[k] 49 but they saw him walking on the water. "It's a ghost!" they thought, and screamed.
50 They were all terrified when they saw
him.
Jesus spoke to them at once,
afraid!" 51 Then he got into the boat with them, and the wind died down. The disciples were completely amazed, 52 because they had not understood the real meaning of the feeding of the five thousand; their minds could not grasp it.

Jesus Heals the Sick in Gennesaret
(Matt 14 34-36)

53 They crossed the lake and came to land at Gennesaret, where they tied up the boat 54 As they left the boat, people recognized Jesus at once 55 So they ran throughout the whole region, and wherever they heard he was, they brought to him sick people lying on their mats 56 And everywhere Jesus went, to villages, towns, or farms, people would take those who were ill to the market places and beg him to let them at least touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were made well

(Matt 15 1-9)

7 Some Pharisees and teachers of the Law who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus 2 They noticed that some of his disciples were eating their food with hands that were ritually unclean—that is, they had not washed them in the way the Pharisees said people should

(3 For the Pharisees, as well as the rest of the Jews, follow the teaching they received from their ancestors they do not eat unless they wash their hands in the proper way, 4 nor do they eat anything that comes from the market unless they wash it first [l] And they follow many other rules which they have received, such as the proper way to wash cups, pots, copper bowls, and beds [m])

5 So the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law asked Jesus, "Why is it that your disciples do not follow the teaching handed down by our ancestors, but instead eat with ritually unclean hands?"

6 Jesus answered them, "How right Isaiah was when he prophesied about you! You are hypocrites, just as he wrote

'These people, says God, honour me
with their words,
but their heart is really far away from
me
7 It is no use for them to worship me, because they teach man-made rules as though they were God's laws!' 8 "You put aside God's command and obey the teachings of men"

9 And Jesus continued, "You have a clever way of rejecting God's law in order to uphold your own teaching 10 For Moses commanded, 'Respect your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever curses his father or his mother is to be put to death' 11 But you teach that if a person has something he could use to help his father or mother, but says, 'This is Corban' (which means, it belongs to God), 12 he is excused from helping his father or mother 13 In this way the teaching you pass on to others cancels out the word of God And there are many other things like this that you do"

The Things that Make a Person Unclean
(Matt 15 10-20)

14 Then Jesus called the crowd to him once more and said to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand 15 There is nothing that goes into a person from the outside which can make him ritually unclean Rather, it is what comes out of a person that makes him unclean" [n]

17 When he left the crowd and went into the house, his disciples asked him to explain this saying 18 "You are no more intelligent than the others," Jesus said to them "Don't you understand? Nothing that goes into a person from the outside can really make him unclean, 19 because it does not go into his heart but into his stomach and then goes on out of the body" (In saying this, Jesus declared that all foods are fit to be eaten) 20 And he went on to say, "It is what comes out of a person that makes him unclean 21 For from the inside, from a person's heart, come the evil ideas which lead him to do immoral things, to rob, kill, 22 commit adultery, be greedy, and do all sorts of evil things, deceit, indecency, jealousy, slander, pride, and folly—23 all these evil things come from inside a person and make him unclean"

A Woman's Faith
(Matt 15 21-28)

24 Then Jesus left and went away to the territory near the city of Tyre He went into a house and did not want anyone to know he was there, but he could not stay hidden 25 A woman, whose daughter had an evil spirit in her, heard about Jesus and came to him at once and [l] anything that comes from the market unless they wash it first, or anything after they come from the market unless they wash themselves first fell at his feet 26 The woman was a Gentile, born in the region of Phoenicia in Syria She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter 27 But Jesus answered, "Let us first feed the children It isn't right to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs " 28 "Sir," she answered, "even the dogs under the table eat the children's leftovers!" 29 So Jesus said to her, "Because of that answer, go back home, where you will find that the demon has gone out of your daughter!" 30 She went home and found her child lying on the bed, the demon had indeed gone out of her

Jesus Heals a Deaf-Mute

31 Jesus then left the neighbourhood of Tyre and went on through Sidon to Lake Galilee, going by way of the territory of the Ten Towns 32 Some people brought him a man who was deaf and could hardly speak, and they begged Jesus to place his hands on him 33 So Jesus took him off alone, away from the crowd, put his fingers in the man's ears, spat, and touched the man's tongue 34 Then Jesus looked up to heaven, gave a deep groan, and said to the man, "Ephphatha," which means, "Open up!" 35 At once the man was able to hear, his speech impediment was removed, and he began to talk without any trouble 36 Then Jesus ordered the people not to speak of it to anyone, but the more he ordered them not to, the more they spoke 37 And all who heard were completely amazed "How well he does everything!" they exclaimed "He even causes the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak!"

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand People
(Matt 15 32-39)

8 Not long afterwards another large crowd came together When the people had nothing left to eat, Jesus called the disciples to him and said, 2 "I feel sorry for these people, because they have been with me for three days and now have nothing to eat 3 If I send them home without feeding them, they will faint as they go, because some of them have come a long way " 4 His disciples asked him, "Where in this desert can anyone find enough food to feed all these people?" 5 "How much bread have you got?"
Jesus asked
"Seven loaves," they answered 6 He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground Then he took the seven loaves, gave thanks to God, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the crowd, and the disciples did so 7 They also had a few small fish Jesus gave thanks for these and told the disciples to distribute them too 8-9 Everybody ate and had enough—there were about four thousand people Then the disciples took up seven baskets full of pieces left over Jesus sent the people away 10 and at once got into a boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha

The Pharisees Ask for a Miracle
(Matt 16 1-4)

11 Some Pharisees came to Jesus and started to argue with him They wanted to trap him, so they asked him to perform a miracle to show that God approved of him 12 But Jesus gave a deep groan and said, "Why do the people of this day ask for a miracle? No, I tell you! No such proof will be given to these people!" 13 He left them, got back into the boat, and started across to the other side of the lake

The Yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod
(Matt. 16 5-12)

14 The disciples had forgotten to bring enough bread and had only one loaf with them in the boat 15 "Take care," Jesus warned them, "and be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod." 16 They started discussing among themselves. "He says this because we haven't any bread "
17 Jesus knew what they were saying,
so he asked them, "Why are you discussing about not having any bread?
Don't you know or understand yet? Are your minds so dull? 18 You have eyes—can't you see? You have ears—can't you hear? Don't you remember 19 when I broke the five loaves for the five thousand people? How many baskets full of leftover pieces did you take up?"
"Twelve," they answered 20 "And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand people," asked Jesus, "how many baskets full of leftover pieces did you take up?"

Jesus Heals a Blind Man at Bethsaida

22 They came to Bethsaida, where some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged him to touch him 23 Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village After spitting on the man's eyes, Jesus placed his hands on him and asked him, "Can you see anything?" 24 The man looked up and said, "Yes, I can see people, but they look like trees walking about " 25 Jesus again placed his hands on the man's eyes This time the man looked intently, his eyesight returned, and he saw everything clearly 26 Jesus then sent him home with the order, "Don't go back into the village "

(Matt 16 13-20, Luke 9 18-21)

27 Then Jesus and his disciples went away to the villages near Caesarea Philippi On the way he asked them "Tell me, who do people say I am?" 28 "Some say that you are John the Baptist," they answered, "others say that you are Elijah, while others say that you are one of the prophets " 29 "What about you?" he asked them
"Who do you say I am?"
Peter answered, "You are the Messiah " 30 Then Jesus ordered them, "Do not tell anyone about me "

Jesus Speaks about His Suffering and Death
(Matt 16 21-28, Luke 9 22-27)

31 Then Jesus began to teach his disciples "The Son of Man must suffer much and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law He will be put to death, but three days later he will rise to life " 32 He made this very clear to them So Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him 33 But Jesus turned round, looked at his disciples, and rebuked Peter "Get away from me, Satan," he said "Your thoughts don't come from God but from man!" 34 Then Jesus called the crowd and his disciples to him "If anyone wants to come with me," he told them, "he must forget self, carry his cross, and follow me 35 For whoever wants to save his own life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it 36 Does a person gain anything if he wins the whole world but loses his life? Of course not! 37 There is nothing he can give to regain his life 38 If a person is ashamed of me and of my teaching in this godless and wicked day, then the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels " 9 And he went on to say, "I tell you, there are some here who will not die until they have seen the Kingdom of God come with power "

The Transfiguration
(Matt 17 1-13, Luke 9 28-36)

2 Six days later Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain, where they were alone As they looked on, a change came over Jesus, 3 and his clothes became shining white—whiter than anyone in the world could wash them 4 Then the three disciples saw Elijah and Moses talking with Jesus 5 Peter spoke up and said to Jesus, "Teacher, how good it is that we are here! We will make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah " 6 He and the others were so frightened that he did not know what to say 7 Then a cloud appeared and covered them with its shadow, and a voice came from the cloud, "This is my own dear Son—listen to him!" 8 They took a quick look round but did not see anyone else, only Jesus was with them 9 As they came down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has risen from death " 10 They obeyed his order, but among themselves they started discussing the matter, "What does this 'rising from death' mean?" 11 And they asked Jesus,
"Why do the teachers of the Law say
that Elijah has to come first?" 12 His answer was, "Elijah is indeed coming first in order to get everything ready Yet why do the Scriptures say that the Son of Man will suffer much and be rejected? 13 I tell you, however, that Elijah has already come and that people treated

Jesus Heals a Boy with an Evil Spirit (Matt 17.14-21; Luke 9.37-43a)

14 When they joined the rest of the disciples, they saw a large crowd round them and some teachers of the Law arguing with them. 15 When the people saw Jesus, they were greatly surprised, and ran to him and greeted him. 16 Jesus asked his disciples, "What are you arguing with them about?" 17 A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, because he has an evil spirit in him and cannot talk. 18 Whenever the spirit attacks him, it throws him to the ground, and he foams at the mouth, grits his teeth, and becomes stiff all over. I asked your disciples to drive the spirit out, but they could not."
19 Jesus said to them, "How unbelieving you people are! How long must I stay with you? How long do I have to put up with you? Bring the boy to me!" 20 They brought him to Jesus.
As soon as the spirit saw Jesus, it threw the boy into a fit, so that he fell on the ground and rolled round, foaming at the mouth. 21 "How long has he been like this?" Jesus asked the father.
"Ever since he was a child," he replied.
22 "Many times the evil spirit has tried to kill him by throwing him in the fire and into water. Have pity on us and help us, if you possibly can!" 23 "Yes," said Jesus, "if you yourself can! Everything is possible for the person who has faith." 24 The father at once cried out, "I do have faith, but not enough. Help me to have more!" 25 Jesus noticed that the crowd was closing in on them, so he gave a command to the evil spirit. "Deaf and dumb spirit," he said, "I order you to come out of the boy and never go into him again!" 26 The spirit screamed, threw the boy into a bad fit, and came out. The boy looked like a corpse, and everyone said, "He is dead!" 27 But Jesus took the boy by the hand and helped him to rise, and he stood up.
28 After Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive the spirit out?" 29 "Only prayer can drive this kind out," answered Jesus; "nothing else can."

(Matt 17.22-23; Luke 9.43b-45)

30 Jesus and his disciples left that place and went on through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where he was, 31 because he was teaching his disciples:
"The Son of Man will be handed over to men who will kill him. Three days later, however, he will rise to life." 32 But they did not understand what this teaching meant, and they were afraid to ask him.

Who Is the Greatest?

33 They came to Capernaum, and after going indoors Jesus asked his disciples, "What were you arguing about on the road?"

34 But they would not answer him, because on the road they had been arguing among themselves about who was the greatest 35 Jesus sat down, called the twelve disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must place himself last of all and be the servant of all" 36 Then he took a child and made him stand in front of them He put his arms round him and said to them, 37 "Whoever welcomes in my name one of these children, welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me, welcomes not only me but also the one who sent me"

Whoever Is Not against Us Is for Us
(Luke 9 49-50)

38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw a man who was driving out demons in your name, and we told him to stop, because he doesn't belong to our group" 39 "Do not try to stop him," Jesus told them, "because no one who performs a miracle in my name will be able soon afterwards to say evil things about me 40 For whoever is not against us is for us 41 I assure you that anyone who gives you a drink of water because you belong to me will certainly receive his reward

(Matt 18 6-9, Luke 17 1-2)

42 "If anyone should cause one of these
millstone tied round his neck and be thrown into the sea 43 So if your hand makes you lose your faith, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life without a hand than to keep both hands and go off to hell, to the fire that never goes out [o] 45 And if your foot makes you lose your faith, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life without a foot than to keep both feet and be thrown into hell [p] 47 And if your eye makes you lose your faith, take it out! It is better for you to enter the Kingdom of God with only one eye than to keep both eyes and be thrown into hell 48 There 'the worms that eat them is never put out' 49 "Everyone will be purified by fire as a sacrifice is purified by salt 50 "Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can you make it salty

again?
"Have the salt of friendship among yourselves, and live in peace with one another"

(Matt 19 1-12, Luke 16 18)

10 Then Jesus left that place, went to the province of Judaea, and crossed the River Jordan Crowds came flocking to him again, and he taught them, as he always did 2 Some Pharisees came to him and tried to trap him "Tell us," they asked, "does our Law allow a man to divorce his wife?"

3 Jesus answered with a question, "What law did Moses give you?" 4 Their answer was, "Moses gave permission for a man to write a divorce notice and send his wife away" 5 Jesus said to them, "Moses wrote this law for you because you are so hard to teach [6]But in the beginning, at the time of creation, 'God made them male and female,' as the scripture says [7]'And for this reason a man will leave his father and mother and unite with his wife,[q] [8]and the two will become one' So they are no longer two, but one [9]Man must not separate, then, what God has joined together"
10 When they went back into the house, the disciples asked Jesus about this matter [11]He said to them, "A man who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against his wife [12]In the same way, a woman who divorces her husband and marries another man commits adultery"

Jesus Blesses Little Children
(Matt 19 13-15, Luke 18 15-17)

13 Some people brought children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, but the disciples scolded the people [14]When Jesus noticed this, he was angry and said to his disciples, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, because the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these [15]I assure you that whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it" [16]Then he took the children in his arms, placed his hands on each of them, and blessed them

The Rich Man
(Matt 19 16-30, Luke 18 18-30)

17 As Jesus was starting on his way again, a man ran up, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to receive eternal life?" 18 "Why do you call me good?" Jesus asked him "No one is good except God alone [19]You know the commandments 'Do not commit murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not accuse anyone falsely, do not cheat, respect your father and your mother'" 20 "Teacher," the man said, "ever since I was young, I have obeyed all these commandments" 21 Jesus looked straight at him with love and said, "You need only one thing Go and sell all you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven then come and follow me' [22]When the man heard this, gloom spread over his face, and he went away sad, because he was very rich 23 Jesus looked round at his disciples and said to them "How hard it will be for rich people to enter the Kingdom of God!" 24 The disciples were shocked at these words, but Jesus went on to say, "My children, how hard it is to enter the Kingdom of God! [25]It is much harder for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God than for a camel to go through the eye of a needle' 26 At this the disciples were completely amazed and asked one another, "Who, then, can be saved?"
27 Jesus looked straight at them and
answered, "This is impossible for man, but not for God, everything is possible for God" 28 Then Peter spoke up, "Look, we have left everything and followed you" 29 "Yes," Jesus said to them, "and I tell you that anyone who leaves home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and for the gospel, [30]will receive much more in this present age He will receive a hundred times more houses brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and persecutions as well, and in the age to come he will receive eternal life [31]But many who now are first will be last, and many who now are last will be first

Jesus Speaks a Third Time about His Death
(Matt 20 17-19, Luke 18 31-34)

32 Jesus and his disciples were now on the road going up to Jerusalem Jesus was going ahead of the disciples who were filled with alarm, the people who followed behind were afraid Once again Jesus took the twelve disciples aside and spoke of the things that were going to happen to him [33]"Listen," he told them, "we are going up to Jerusalem where the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the teachers of the Law They will condemn him to death and then hand

The Request of James and John
(Matt. 20.20-28)

35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus. "Teacher," they said, "there is something we want you to do for us." 36 "What is it?" Jesus asked them.
37 They answered, "When you sit on your throne in your glorious Kingdom, we want you to let us sit with you, one at your right and one at your left." 38 Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking for. Can you drink the cup of suffering that I must drink?
Can you be baptized in the way I must be baptized?"
39 "We can," they answered.
Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink the cup I must drink and be baptized in the way I must be baptized. 40 But I do not have the right to choose who will sit at my right and my left. It is God who will give these places to those for whom he has prepared them." 41 When the other ten disciples heard about it, they became angry with James and John. 42 So Jesus called them all together to him and said, "You know that the men who are considered rulers of the heathen have power over them, and the leaders have complete authority. 43 This, however, is not the way it is among you.
If one of you wants to be great, he must be the servant of the rest; 44 and if one of you wants to be first, he must be the slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served; he came to serve and to give his life to redeem many
people."

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus
(Matt. 20.29-34; Luke 18.35-43)

46 They came to Jericho, and as Jesus was leaving with his disciples and a large crowd, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus son of Timaeus was sitting by the road.
47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, "Jesus! Son of David! Take pity on me!" 48 Many of the people scolded him and told him to be quiet. But he shouted even more loudly, "Son of David, take pity on
me!"
49 Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man. "Cheer up!" they said. "Get up, he is calling you." 50 He threw off his cloak, jumped up, and came to Jesus.
51 "What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him.
"Teacher," the blind man answered, "I want to see again." 52 "Go," Jesus told him, "your faith has made you well."
At once he was able to see and followed Jesus on the road.

(Matt. 21.1-11; Luke 19.28-40; John 12.12-19)

11 As they approached Jerusalem, near the towns of Bethphage and Bethany, they came to the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of his disciples on ahead 2 with these instructions: "Go to the village there ahead of you. As soon as you get there, you will find a colt tied up that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 3 And if someone asks you why you are doing that, tell him that the Master[r] needs it and will send it back at once." 4 So they went and found a colt out in the street, tied to the door of a house.
As they were untying it, 5 some of the bystanders asked them, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" 6 They answered just as Jesus had told them, and the men let them go. 7 They brought the colt to Jesus, threw their cloaks over the animal, and Jesus got on.
8 Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches in the fields and spread them on the road. 9 The people who were in front and those who followed behind began to shout, "Praise God! God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord! 10 God bless the coming kingdom of King David, our father! Praise
God!" 11 Jesus entered Jerusalem, went into the Temple, and looked round at everything. But since it was already late in the day, he went out to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

(Matt. 21.18-19)

12 The next day, as they were coming back from Bethany, Jesus was hungry.
13 He saw in the distance a fig-tree covered [r] the Master; or its owner.

with leaves, so he went to see if he could find any figs on it. But when he came to it, he found only leaves, because it was not the right time for figs. 14 Jesus said to the fig-tree, "No one shall ever eat figs from you again!"
And his disciples heard him.

(Matt 21.12-17; Luke 19.45-48; John 2.13-22)

15 When they arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus went to the Temple and began to drive out all those who were buying and selling. He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the stools of those who sold pigeons, 16 and he would not let anyone carry anything through the temple courtyards. 17 He then taught the people:
"It is written in the Scriptures that God said, 'My Temple will be called a house of prayer for the people of all nations.' But you have turned it into a hideout for thieves!"
18 The chief priests and the teachers of the Law heard of this, so they began looking for some way to kill Jesus. They were afraid of him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.
19 When evening came, Jesus and his disciples left the city.

The Lesson from the Fig-Tree
(Matt 21.20-22)

20 Early next morning, as they walked along the road, they saw the fig-tree. It was dead all the way down to its roots.
21 Peter remembered what had happened and said to Jesus, "Look, Teacher, the fig-tree you cursed has died!" 22 Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. 23 I assure you that whoever tells this hill to get up and throw itself in the sea and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him. 24 For this reason I tell you: When you pray and ask for something, believe that you have received it, and you will be given whatever you ask for. 25 And when you stand and pray, forgive anything you may have against anyone, so that your Father in heaven will forgive the wrongs you have done."[s]

The Question about Jesus' Authority
(Matt 21.23-27; Luke 20.1-8)

27 They arrived once again in Jerusalem. As Jesus was walking in the Temple, the chief priests, the teachers of the Law, and the elders came to him 28 and asked him, "What right have you to do these things? Who gave you this right?"
just one question, and if you give me an
to do these things. 30 Tell me, where did John's right to baptize come from: was it from God or from man?"
31 They started to argue among themselves: "What shall we say? If we answer,
'From God,' he will say, 'Why, then, did you not believe John?' 32 But if we say,
'From man . . .' " (They were afraid of the people, because everyone was convinced that John had been a prophet.) 33 So their answer to Jesus was, "We don't know."
Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you, then, by what right I do these things."

The Parable of the Tenants in the Vineyard
(Matt 21.33-46; Luke 20.9-19)

12 Then Jesus spoke to them in parables: "Once there was a man who planted a vineyard, put a fence round it, dug a hole for the winepress, and built
vineyard to tenants and left home on a journey. 2 When the time came to gather the grapes, he sent a slave to the tenants to receive from them his share of the harvest. 3 The tenants seized the slave, beat him, and sent him back without a thing. 4 Then the owner sent another slave; the tenants beat him over the head and treated him shamefully. 5 The owner sent another slave, and they killed him; and they treated many others the same way, beating some and killing others. 6 The only one left to send was the man's own dear son. Last of all, then, he sent his son to the tenants. 'I am sure they will respect my son,' he said. 7 But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the owner's son. Come on, let's kill him, and his property will be ours!' 8 So they seized the son and killed him and threw his body out of the vineyard.
9 "What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do?" asked Jesus. "He will come and kill those men and hand the vineyard over to other tenants. 10 Surely you have read this scripture?

Jesus, because they knew that he had told this parable against them But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away

The Question about Paying Taxes
(Matt. 22 15-22, Luke 20.20-26)

13 Some Pharisees and some members of Herod's party were sent to Jesus to trap him with questions 14 They came to him and said, "Teacher, we know that you tell the truth, without worrying about what people think You pay no attention to a man's status, but teach the truth about God's will for man Tell us, is it against our Law to pay taxes to the Roman Emperor? Should we pay them or not?"
15 But Jesus saw through their trick and answered, "Why are you trying to trap me? Bring a silver coin, and let me see it" 16 They brought him one, and he asked,
"Whose face and name are these?"
"The Emperor's," they answered 17 So Jesus said, "Well, then, pay the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor,
and pay God what belongs to God"
And they were amazed at Jesus

The Question about Rising from Death
(Matt. 22 23-33, Luke 20 27-40)

18 Then some Sadducees, who say that people will not rise from death, came to Jesus and said, 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote this law for us 'If a man dies and leaves a wife but no children, that man's brother must marry the widow so that they can have children who will be considered the dead man's children' 20 Once there were seven brothers, the eldest got married and died without having children 21 Then the second one married the woman, and he also died without having children The same thing happened to the third brother, 22 and then to the rest all seven brothers married the woman and died without having children Last of all, the woman died 23 Now, when all the dead rise to life on the day of resurrection, whose wife will she be? All seven of them had married her"
24 Jesus answered them, "How wrong you are! And do you know why? It is because you don't know the Scriptures or God's power 25 For when the dead rise to life, they will be like the angels in heaven and will not marry 26 Now, as for the dead being raised haven't you ever read in the Book of Moses the passage about the burning bush? There it is written that God said to Moses, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob' 27 He is the God of the living, not of the dead You are completely wrong!"

(Matt. 22 34-40, Luke 10 25-28)

28 A teacher of the Law was there who heard the discussion He saw that Jesus had given the Sadducees a good answer, so he came to him with a question "Which commandment is the most important of all?" 29 Jesus replied, "The most important one is this, 'Listen, Israel! The Lord our God is the only Lord[t] 30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength' 31 The second most important commandment is this 'Love your neighbour as you love yourself' There is no other commandment more important than these two" 32 The teacher of the Law said to Jesus, "Well done, Teacher! It is true, as you say, that only the Lord is God and that there is no other god but he 33 And man must love God with all his heart and with all his mind and with all his strength, and he must love his neighbour as he loves himself It is more important to obey these two commandments than to offer animals and other sacrifices to God" 34 Jesus noticed how wise his answer was, and so he told him, "You are not far from the Kingdom of God" After this nobody dared to ask Jesus any more questions

(Matt 22 41-46, Luke 20 41-44)

35 As Jesus was teaching in the Temple, he asked the question, "How can the 37 David himself called him 'Lord', so how can the Messiah be David's descendant?"

Jesus Warns against the Teachers of the Law
(Matt 23 1-36 Luke 20 45-47)

A large crowd was listening to Jesus gladly 38 As he taught them, he said, "Watch out for the teachers of the Law, who like to walk around in their long robes and be greeted with respect in the market-place, 39 who choose the reserved seats in the synagogues and the best places at feasts 40 They take advantage of widows and rob them of their homes, and then make a show of saying long prayers Their punishment will be all the worse!"

The Widow's Offering
(Luke 21 1-4)

41 As Jesus sat near the temple treasury, he watched the people as they dropped in their money Many rich men dropped in a lot of money, 42 then a poor widow came along and dropped in two little copper coins, worth about a penny 43 He called his disciples together and said to them, "I tell you that this poor widow put more in the offering box than all the others 44 For the others put in what they had to spare of their riches, but she, poor as she is, put in all she had—she gave all she had to live on "

Jesus Speaks of the Destruction of the Temple
(Matt 24 1-2, Luke 21 5-6)

13 As Jesus was leaving the Temple, one of his disciples said, "Look, Teacher! What wonderful stones and buildings!" 2 Jesus answered, "You see these great buildings? Not a single stone here will be left in its place, every one of them will be thrown down "

(Matt 24 3-14, Luke 21 7-19)

3 Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, across from the Temple, when Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him in private 4 "Tell us when this will be," they said, "and tell us what will happen to show that the time has come for all these things to take place " 5 Jesus said to them, "Be on guard, and don't let anyone deceive you 6 Many men, claiming to speak for me, will come and say, 'I am he!' and they will deceive many people 7 And don't be troubled when you hear the noise of battles close by and news of battles far away Such things must happen, but they do not mean that the end has come 8 Countries will fight each other, kingdoms will attack one another There will be earthquakes everywhere, and there will be famines These things are like the first pains of childbirth 9 "You yourselves must be on guard You will be arrested and taken to court You will be beaten in the synagogues, you will stand before rulers and kings for my sake to tell them the Good News 10 But before the end comes, the gospel must be preached to all peoples 11 And when you are arrested and taken to court, do not worry beforehand about what you are going to say, when the time comes, say whatever is then given to you For the words you speak will not be yours, they will come from the Holy Spirit 12 Men will hand over their own brothers to be put to death, and fathers will do the same to their children Children will turn against their parents and have them put to death 13 Everyone will hate you because of me But whoever holds out to the end will be saved

The Awful Horror
(Matt 24 15-28, Luke 21 20-24)

14 "You will see 'The Awful Horror' standing in the place where he should not be" (Note to the reader be sure to understand what this means!) "Then those who are in Judaea must run away to the hills 15 A man who is on the roof of his house must not lose time by going down into the house to get anything to take with him 16 A man who is in the field must not go back to the house for his cloak 17 How terrible it will be in those days for women who are pregnant and for mothers with little babies! 18 Pray to God that these things will not happen in the winter! 19 For the trouble of those days will be far worse than any the world has ever known from the very beginning when God created the world until the present time Nor will there ever be anything like it again 20 But the Lord has reduced the number of those days, if he had not, nobody would survive For the sake of his chosen people, however, he has reduced those days 21 "Then, if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!' or, 'Look, there he is!'—do not believe him 22 For false Messiahs and false prophets will appear They will perform miracles and wonders in order to deceive even God's chosen people, if possible 23 Be on your guard!
I have told you everything before the time

The Coming of the Son of Man
(Matt 24 29-31, Luke 21 25-28)

24 "In the days after that time of trouble the sun will grow dark, the moon will
heaven, and the powers in space will be driven from their courses 26 Then the Son of Man will appear, coming in the clouds with great power and glory 27 He will send the angels out to the four corners of the earth to gather God's chosen people from one end of the world to the other

The Lesson of the Fig-Tree
(Matt 24 32-35, Luke 21 29-33)

28 "Let the fig-tree teach you a lesson

tender and it starts putting out leaves,
you know that summer is near 29 In the same way, when you see these things happening, you will know that the time all these things will happen before the people now living have all died 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words

No One Knows the Day or Hour
(Matt 24 36-44)

32 "No one knows, however, when that day or hour will come—neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, only the Father knows 33 Be on watch, be alert, for you do not know when the time will come 34 It will be like a man who goes away from home on a journey and leaves his servants in charge, after giving to each one his own work to do and after telling the doorkeeper to keep watch 35 Be on guard, then, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming—it might be in the evening or at midnight or before dawn or at sunrise 36 If he comes suddenly, he must not find you asleep

(Matt 26 1-5, Luke 22 1-2, John 11 45-53)

14 It was now two days before the Festival of Passover and Unleavened Bread The chief priests and the teachers of the Law were looking for a way to arrest Jesus secretly and put him to death 2 "We must not do it during the festival," they said, "or the people might riot "

3 Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon, a man who had suffered from a dreaded skin-disease While Jesus was eating, a woman came in with an alabaster jar full of a very expensive perfume made of pure nard She broke the jar and poured the perfume on Jesus' head 4 Some of the people there became angry and said to one another, "What was the use of wasting the perfume? 5 It could have been sold for more than three hundred silver coins* and the money given to the poor!" And they criticized her harshly

6 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done a fine and beautiful thing for me 7 You will always have poor people with you, and any time you want to, you can help them But you will not always have me 8 She did what she could, she poured perfume on my body to prepare it ahead of time for burial 9 Now, I assure you that wherever the gospel is preached all over the world, what she has done will be told in memory of her "

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went off to the chief priests in order to betray Jesus to them 11 They were pleased to hear what he had to say, and promised to give him money So Judas started looking for a good chance to hand Jesus over to them

12 On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the day the lambs for the Passover meal were killed, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and get the Passover meal ready for you?"

13 Then Jesus sent two of them with these instructions "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you Follow him 14 to the house he enters, and say to the owner of the house 'The Teacher says, Where is the room where my disciples and I will eat the Passover meal? 15 Then he will show you a large upstairs room, prepared and furnished, where you will get everything ready for us "

16 The disciples left, went to the city, and found everything just as Jesus had told them, and they prepared the Passover meal

17 When it was evening, Jesus came with the twelve disciples 18 While they were at the table eating, Jesus said, "I tell you that one of you will betray me—one who is eating with me "

19 The disciples were upset and began to ask him, one after the other, "Surely you don't mean me, do you?"

20 Jesus answered, "It will be one of you twelve, one who dips his bread in the dish with me 21 The Son of Man will die as the Scriptures say he will, but how terrible for that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would have been better for that man if he had never been born!"

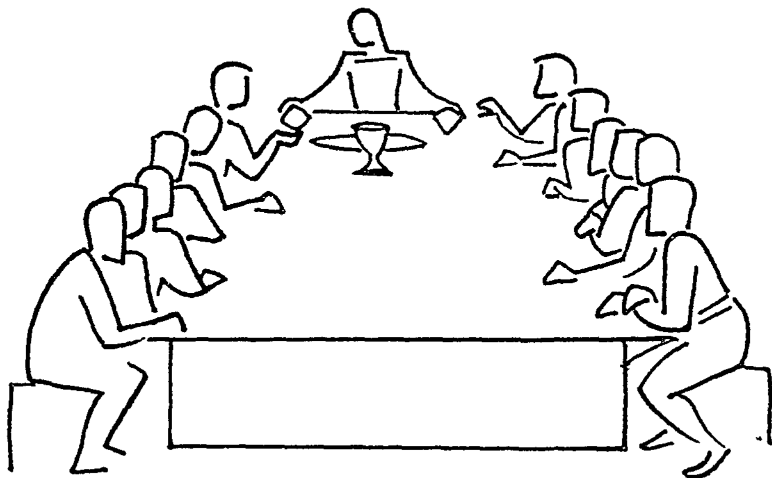
(Matt 26 26-30, Luke 22 14-20, I Cor 11 23-25)

22 While they were eating, Jesus took a piece of bread, gave a prayer of thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples "Take it," he said, "this is my body "

23 Then he took a cup, gave thanks to God, and handed it to them, and they all drank from it 24 Jesus said, "This is my blood which is poured out for many, my blood which seals God's covenant 25 I tell you, I will never again drink this wine until the day I drink the new wine in the Kingdom of God "



26 Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives

thing

(Matt 26 36–46, Luke 22 39–46)

32 They came to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray" 33 He took Peter, James, and John with him Distress and
them, "The sorrow in my heart is so great that it almost crushes me Stay here and keep watch"
35 He went a little farther on, threw himself on the ground, and prayed that, if possible, he might not have to go through that time of suffering 36 "Father," he prayed, "my Father! All things are possible for you Take this cup of suffering away from me Yet not what I want, but what you want" 37 Then he returned and found the three disciples asleep He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Weren't you able to stay awake even for one hour?" 38 And he said to them, "Keep watch, and pray that you will not fall into temptation The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak" 39 He went away once more and prayed, saying the same words 40 Then he came back to the disciples and found them asleep, they could not keep their eyes open And they did not know what to say to him 41 When he came back the third time, he said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come! Look, the Son of Man is now being handed over to the power of sinful men 42 Get up, let us go Look, here is the man who is betraying me!"

(Matt 26 47–56, Luke 22 47–53, John 18 3–12)

43 Jesus was still speaking when Judas,
one of the twelve disciples, arrived With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, and sent by the chief priests, the teachers of the Law, and the elders 44 The traitor had given the crowd a signal "The man I kiss is the one you want Arrest him and take him away under guard" 45 As soon as Judas arrived, he went up to Jesus and said, "Teacher!" and kissed him 46 So they arrested Jesus and held him tight 47 But one of those standing there drew his sword and struck at the High Priest's slave, cutting off his ear 48 Then Jesus spoke up and said to them,
"Did you have to come with swords and clubs to capture me, as though I were an outlaw? [49]Day after day I was with you teaching in the Temple, and you did not arrest me But the Scriptures must come true "

50 Then all the disciples left him and ran away 51 A certain young man, dressed only in a linen cloth, was following Jesus They tried to arrest him, [52]but he ran away naked, leaving the cloth behind

(Matt 26 57-68, Luke 22 54-55 63-71, John 18 13-14, 19-24)

53 Then Jesus was taken to the High Priest's house, where all the chief priests the elders, and the teachers of the Law were gathering. [54]Peter followed from a distance and went into the courtyard of the High Priest's house. There he sat down with the guards, keeping himself warm by the fire. [55]The chief priests and the whole Council tried to find some evidence against Jesus in order to put him to death, but they could not find any [56]Many witnesses told lies against Jesus but their stories did not agree 57 Then some men stood up and told this lie against Jesus [58]"We heard him say, 'I will tear down this Temple which men have made, and after three days I will build one that is not made by men'" [59]Not even they, however, could make their stories agree 60 The High Priest stood up in front of them all and questioned Jesus, "Have you no answer to the accusation they bring against you?" 61 But Jesus kept quiet and would not say a word Again the High Priest questioned him 'Are you the Messiah the Son of the Blessed God?' 62 "I am," answered Jesus, "and you will all see the Son of Man seated on the right of the Almighty and coming with the clouds of heaven!" 63 The High Priest tore his robes and said, "We don't need any more witnesses!
[64]You heard his blasphemy What is your decision?"
They all voted against him he was guilty and should be put to death

Peter Denies Jesus

John 18 15-18, 25-27)

66 Peter was still down in the courtyard when one of the High Priest's servant-girls came by 67 When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him and said, "You, too, were with Jesus of Nazareth" 68 But he denied it "I don't know I don't understand what you are talking about," he answered, and went out into the passage Just then a cock crowed [w] 69 The servant-girl saw him there and began to repeat to the bystanders, "He is one of them!" 70 But Peter denied it
again
A little while later the bystanders accused Peter again, "You can't deny that you are one of them, because you, too, are from Galilee"
71 Then Peter said, "I swear that I am
telling the truth! May God punish me if I am not! I do not know the man you are talking about!" 72 Just then a cock crowed a second

Jesus Is Brought before Pilate

(Matt. 27 1-2, 11-14, Luke 23 1-5, John 18 28-38)

15 Early in the morning the chief priests met hurriedly with the elders, the teachers of the Law, and the whole Council, and made their plans They put Jesus in chains, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate 2 Pilate questioned him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"
Jesus answered, "So you say" 3 The chief priests were accusing Jesus of many things, 4 so Pilate questioned him again, "Aren't you going to answer?
Listen to all their accusations!" 5 Again Jesus refused to say a word, and Pilate was amazed

Jesus Is Sentenced to Death

John 18 39-19 16)

6 At every Passover Festival Pilate was in the habit of setting free any one prisoner the people asked for 7 At that time a man named Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder in the riot 8 When the crowd gathered and began to ask Pilate for the usual favour, 9 he asked them, "Do you want me to set free for you the king of the Jews?" 10 He knew very well that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to ask, instead, for Pilate to set Barabbas free for them 12 Pilate spoke again to the crowd, "What, then, do you want me to do with the one you call the king of the Jews?" 13 They shouted back, "Crucify him!" 14 "But what crime has he committed?" Pilate asked They shouted all the louder, "Crucify
him!"
15 Pilate wanted to please the crowd, so he set Barabbas free for them Then he had Jesus whipped and handed him over to be crucified

(Matt 27 27-31, John 19 2-3)

16 The soldiers took Jesus inside to the courtyard of the governor's palace and called together the rest of the company 17 They put a purple robe on Jesus, made a crown out of thorny branches, and put it on his head 18 Then they began to salute

[w] Some manuscripts do not have Just then a cock crowed him "Long live the King of the Jews!" 19They beat him over the head with a stick, spat on him, fell on their knees, and bowed down to him 20When they had finished mocking him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes back on him Then they led him out to crucify him

(Matt 27 32-44, Luke 23 26-43, John 19 17-27)

21 On the way they met a man named Simon, who was coming into the city from the country, and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross (Simon was from Cyrene and was the father of Alexander and Rufus) 22They took Jesus to a place called Golgotha, which means "The Place of the Skull" 23There they tried to give him wine mixed with a drug called myrrh, but Jesus would not drink it 24Then they crucified him and divided his clothes among themselves, throwing dice to see who would get which piece of clothing 25It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him 26The notice of the accusation against him said "The King of the Jews" 27They also crucified two bandits with Jesus, one on his right and the other on his left [x]

29 People passing by shook their heads and hurled insults at Jesus "Aha! You were going to tear down the Temple and build it up again in three days! 30Now come down from the cross and save yourself!"

31 In the same way the chief priests and the teachers of the Law jeered at Jesus, saying to each other, "He saved others, but he cannot save himself! 32Let us see the Messiah, the king of Israel, come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him!"

And the two who were crucified with Jesus insulted him also

(Matt 27 45-56, Luke 23 44-49, John 19 28-30)

33 At noon the whole country was covered with darkness, which lasted for three hours 34At three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud shout, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why did you abandon me?"

35 Some of the people there heard him and said, "Listen, he is calling for Elijah!" soaked it in cheap wine, and put it on to Jesus' lips and said, "Wait! Let us see if Elijah is coming to bring him down from the cross!"

38 The curtain hanging in the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom 39 The army officer who was standing there in front of the cross saw how Jesus had

God!" he said 40 Some women were there, looking on from a distance Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of the younger James and of Joseph, and Salome 41 They had followed Jesus while he was in Galilee and had helped him Many other women who had come to Jerusalem with him were there also

(Matt 27 57–61, Luke 23 50–56, John 19 38–42)

42–43 It was towards evening when Joseph of Arimathea arrived He was a respected member of the Council, who was waiting for the coming of the Kingdom of God It was Preparation day (that is, the day before the Sabbath), so Joseph went boldly into the presence of Pilate and asked him for the body of Jesus 44 Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead He called the army officer and asked him if Jesus had been dead a long time 45 After hearing the officer's report, Pilate told Joseph he could have the body 46 Joseph bought a linen sheet, took the body down, wrapped it in the sheet, and placed it in a tomb

(Matt. 28 1-8, Luke 24 1-12, John 20 1-10)

Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices to go and anoint the body of Jesus 2 Very early on Sunday morning, at sunrise, they went to the tomb 3-4 On the way they said to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" (It was a very large stone) Then they looked up and saw that the stone had already been rolled back 5 So they entered the tomb, where they saw a young man sitting on the right, wearing a white robe—and they were alarmed 6 "Don't be alarmed," he said "I know you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified He is not here—he has been raised! Look, here is the place where they put him 7 Now go and give this message to his disciples, including

you'"

AN OLD ENDING TO THE GOSPEL[z]

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene
(Matt. 28 9-10, John 20 11-18)

[9 After Jesus rose from death early on Sunday, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had driven out seven demons 10 She went and told his companions They were mourning and crying, 11 and when they heard her say that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe her

Jesus Appears to Two Disciples
(Luke 24 13-35)

12 After this, Jesus appeared in a different manner to two of them while they were on their way to the country 13 They returned and told the others, but they would not believe it

Jesus Appears to the Eleven
(Matt 28 16-20, Luke 24 36-49, John 20 19-23, Acts 1 6-8)

14 Last of all, Jesus appeared to the eleven disciples as they were eating He scolded them, because they did not have faith and because they were too stubborn to believe those who had seen him alive 15 He said to them, "Go throughout the whole world and preach the gospel to all mankind 16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, whoever does not believe will be condemned 17 Believers will be given the power to perform miracles they will drive out demons in my name, they will speak in strange tongues, 18 if they pick up snakes or drink any poison, they will not be harmed, they will place their hands on sick people, who will get well"

Jesus Is Taken up to Heaven
(Luke 24 50-53, Acts 1 9-11)

19 After the Lord Jesus had talked with them, he was taken up to heaven and sat at the right side of God 20 The disciples went and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and proved that their preaching was true by the miracles that were performed]

[z] Some manuscripts and ancient translations do not have this ending to the Gospel (verses 9-20) 16 7 Mt 26 32, Mk 14 28 16.15 Acts 1 8 16 19 Acts 1 9-11

ANOTHER OLD ENDING[a]

[9The women went to Peter and his friends and gave them a brief account of all they had been told 10After this, Jesus himself sent out through his disciples from the east to the west the sacred and ever-living message of eternal salvation]

[a]Some manuscripts and ancient translations have this shorter ending to the Gospel in addition to the longer ending (verses 9-20)

LUKE

INTRODUCTION

The Gospel of Luke presents Jesus as both the promised Saviour of Israel and as the Saviour of all mankind Luke records that Jesus was called by the Spirit of the Lord to "preach the Good News to the poor," and this Gospel is filled with a concern for people with all kinds of need The note of joy is also prominent in Luke, especially in the opening chapters that announce the coming of Jesus, and again at the conclusion, when Jesus ascends to heaven The story of the growth and spread of the Christian faith after the ascension of Jesus is told by the same writer in the book of Acts

Parts 2 and 6 (see the outline below) contain much material that is found only in this Gospel, such as the stories about the song of the angels and the shepherds' visit at the birth of Jesus, Jesus in the Temple as a boy, and the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Lost Son Throughout the Gospel great emphasis is placed on prayer, the Holy Spirit, the role of women in the ministry of Jesus, and God's forgiveness of sins

1 Dear Theophilus
Many people have done their best to write a report of the things that have taken place among us 2They wrote what we have been told by those who saw these things from the beginning and who proclaimed the message 3And so, your Excellency, because I have carefully studied all these matters from their beginning, I thought it would be good to write an orderly account for you 4I do this so that you will know the full truth about everything which you have been taught

The Birth of John the Baptist Is Announced

5 During the time when Herod was king of Judaea,[a] there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah His wife's name was Elizabeth, she also belonged to a priestly family 6 They both lived good lives in God's sight and obeyed fully all the Lord's laws and commands 7 They had no children because Elizabeth could not have any, and she and Zechariah were both very old 8 One day Zechariah was doing his work as a priest in the Temple, taking his turn in the daily service 9 According to the custom followed by the priests, he was chosen by lot to burn incense on the altar So he went into the Temple of the Lord, 10 while the crowd of people outside prayed during the hour when the incense was burnt 11 An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right of the altar where the incense was burnt 12 When Zechariah saw him, he was alarmed and felt afraid 13 But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son You are to name him John 14 How glad and happy you will be, and how happy many others will be when he is born! 15 He will be a great man in the Lord's sight He must not drink any wine or strong drink From his very birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, 16 and he will bring back many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God 17 He will go ahead of the Lord, strong and mighty like the prophet Elijah He will bring fathers and children together again, he will turn disobedient people back to the way of thinking of the righteous, he will get the Lord's people ready for him " 18 Zechariah said to the angel, "How shall I know if this is so? I am an old man, and my wife is old also " 19 "I am Gabriel," the angel answered "I stand in the presence of God, who sent me to speak to you and tell you this good news 20 But you have not believed my message, which will come true at the right time Because you have not believed, you will be unable to speak, you will remain silent until the day my promise to you comes true " 21 In the meantime the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he was spending such a long time in the Temple 22 When he came out, he could not speak to them, and so they knew that he had seen a vision in the Temple Unable to say a word, he made signs to them with his hands 23 When his period of service in the Temple was over, Zechariah went back home 24 Some time later his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and did not leave the house for five months 25 "Now at last the Lord has helped me," she said "He has taken away my public disgrace!"

The Birth of Jesus Is Announced

26 In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy God sent the angel Gabriel to a town in Galilee named Nazareth 27 He had a message for a girl promised in marriage to a man named Joseph, who was a descendant of King David The girl's name was Mary 28 The angel came to her and said, "Peace be with you! The Lord is with you and has greatly blessed you!" 29 Mary was deeply troubled by the angel's message, and she wondered what his words meant 30 The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, God has been gracious to you 31 You will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus 32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High God The Lord God will make him a king, as his ancestor David was, 33 and he will be the king of the descendants of Jacob for ever, his kingdom will never end!" 34 Mary said to the angel, "I am a virgin How, then, can this be?" 35 The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and God's power will rest upon you For this reason the holy child will be called the Son of God 36 Remember your relative Elizabeth It is said that she cannot have children, but she herself is now six months pregnant, even though she is very old 37 For there is nothing that God cannot do " 38 "I am the Lord's servant," said Mary, "may it happen to me as you have said " And the angel left her

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 Soon afterwards Mary got ready and hurried off to a town in the hill-country of Judaea [40]She went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth [41]When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby moved within her Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit [42]and said in a loud voice, "You are the most blessed of all women, and blessed is the child you will bear! [43]Why should this great thing happen to me, that my Lord's mother comes to visit me? [44]For as soon as I heard your greeting, the baby within me jumped with gladness [45]How happy you are to believe that the Lord's message to you will come true!"

Mary's Song of Praise

46 Mary said,
"My heart praises the Lord, 47 my soul is glad because of God my Saviour, 48 for he has remembered me, his lowly servant!
From now on all people will call me happy, 49 because of the great things the Mighty God has done for me His name is holy, 50 from one generation to another he shows mercy to those who honour him 51 He has stretched out his mighty arm and scattered the proud with all their plans 52 He has brought down mighty kings from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly 53 He has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away with empty hands 54 He has kept the promise he made to our ancestors, and has come to the help of his servant Israel 55 He has remembered to show mercy to Abraham and to all his descendants for ever!"

56 Mary stayed about three months with Elizabeth and then went back home

The Birth of John the Baptist

57 The time came for Elizabeth to have her baby, and she gave birth to a son [58]Her neighbours and relatives heard how wonderfully good the Lord had been to going to name him Zechariah, after his father [60]But his mother said, "No! His name is to be John"

61 They said to her, "But you have no relatives with that name!" [62]Then they made signs to his father, asking him what name he would like the boy to have 63 Zechariah asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John" How surprised they all were! [64]At that moment Zechariah was able to speak again, and he started praising God [65]The neighbours were all filled with fear, and the news about these things spread through all the hill-country of Judaea [66]Everyone who heard of it thought about it and asked, "What is this child going to be?" For it was plain that the Lord's power was upon him

Zechariah's Prophecy

67 John's father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he spoke God's message

68 "Let us praise the Lord, the God of Israel!
He has come to the help of his people and has set them free 69 He has provided for us a mighty Saviour, a descendant of his servant David 70 He promised through his holy prophets long ago 71 that he would save us from our enemies, from the power of all those who hate us 72 He said he would show mercy to our ancestors and remember his sacred covenant 73-74 With a solemn oath to our ancestor Abraham he promised to rescue us from our enemies and allow us to serve him without fear, 75 so that we might be holy and righteous before him all the days of our life

76 "You, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High God You will go ahead of the Lord to prepare his road for him,

He will cause the bright dawn of salvation to rise on us 79 and to shine from heaven on all those who live in the dark shadow of death, to guide our steps into the path of
peace"
80 The child grew and developed in body and spirit He lived in the desert until the day when he appeared publicly to the people of Israel

The Birth of Jesus
(Matt 1 18-25)

2 At that time the Emperor Augustus ordered a census to be taken throughout the Roman Empire 2 When this first census took place, Quirinius was the governor of Syria 3 Everyone, then, went to register himself, each to his own town 4 Joseph went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to the town of Bethlehem in Judaea, the birthplace of King David Joseph went there because he was a descendant of David 5 He went to register with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him She was pregnant, 6 and while they were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have her baby 7 She gave birth to her first son, wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger—there was no room for them to stay in the inn

The Shepherds and the Angels

8 There were some shepherds in that part of the country who were spending the night in the fields, taking care of their flocks 9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone over them They were terribly afraid, 10 but the angel said to them, "Don't be afraid!
I am here with good news for you, which will bring great joy to all the people 11 This very day in David's town your Saviour was born—Christ the Lord! 12 And this is what will prove it to you you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger" 13 Suddenly a great army of heaven's angels appeared with the angel, singing praises to God 14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom he is pleased!" 15 When the angels went away from them back into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us" 16 So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph and saw the baby lying in the manger 17 When the shepherds saw him, they told them what the angel had said about the child 18 All who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said 19 Mary remembered all these things and Mary remembered all these things (2 19) thought deeply about them 20 The shepherds went back, singing praises to God for all they had heard and seen, it had been just as the angel had told them

Jesus Is Named

21 A week later, when the time came for the baby to be circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name which the angel had given him before he had been conceived

Jesus Is Presented in the Temple

22 The time came for Joseph and Mary to perform the ceremony of purification, as the Law of Moses commanded So they took the child to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, 23 as it is written in the law of the Lord "Every first-born male is to be dedicated to the Lord" 24 They also went to offer a sacrifice of a pair of doves or two young pigeons, as required by the law of the Lord 25 At that time there was a man named Simeon living in Jerusalem He was a good, devout man and was waiting for Israel to be saved The Holy Spirit was with him 26 and had assured him that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's promised Messiah 27 Led by the Spirit, Simeon went into the Temple When the parents brought the child Jesus into the Temple to do for him what the Law required, 28 Simeon took the child in his arms and gave thanks to God 29 "Now, Lord, you have kept your

promise,
and you may let your servant go in peace 30 With my own eyes I have seen your salvation, 31 which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples 32 A light to reveal your will to the Gentiles and bring glory to your people Israel" 33 The child's father and mother were amazed at the things Simeon said about him 34 Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, "This child is chosen by God for the destruction and the salvation of many in Israel He will be a sign from God which many people will speak against 35 and so reveal their secret thoughts And sorrow, like a sharp sword, will break your own heart" 36-37 There was a very old prophetess, a widow named Anna, daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Asher She had been married for only seven years and was now eighty-four years old [b] She never left the Temple, day and night she worshipped God, fasting and praying 38 That very same hour she arrived and gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were waiting for God to set Jerusalem free

The Return to Nazareth

39 When Joseph and Mary had finished doing all that was required by the law of the Lord, they returned to their home town of Nazareth in Galilee 40 The child grew and became strong, he was full of wisdom, and God's blessings were upon
him

The Boy Jesus in the Temple

41 Every year the parents of Jesus went to Jerusalem for the Passover Festival 42 When Jesus was twelve years old, they went to the festival as usual 43 When the festival was over, they started back home, but the boy Jesus stayed in Jerusalem His parents did not know this, 44 they thought that he was with the group, so they travelled a whole day and then started looking for him among their relatives and friends 45 They did not find him, so they went back to Jerusalem looking for him 46 On the third day they found him in the Temple, sitting with the Jewish teachers, listening to them and asking questions 47 All who heard him were amazed at his intelligent answers 48 His parents were astonished when they

[b] was now eighty four years old, or had been a widow eighty four years saw him and his mother said to him, "My 49 He answered them, "Why did you have to look for me? Didn't you know that I had to be in my Father's house?" 50 But they did not understand his answer.

51 So Jesus went back with them to Nazareth, where he was obedient to them.
His mother treasured all these things in her heart. 52 Jesus grew both in body and in wisdom, gaining favour with God and men.

(Matt 3.1-12; Mark 1.1-8; John 1.19-28)

3 1 It was the fifteenth year of the rule of the Emperor Tiberius; Pontius Pilate was governor of Judaea, Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip was ruler of the territory of Iturea and Trachonitis; Lysanias was ruler of Abilene, 2 and Annas and Caiaphas were high priests. At that time the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the desert. 3 So John went throughout the whole territory of the River Jordan, preaching, "Turn away from your sins and be baptized, and God will forgive your sins." 4 As it is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah:

"Someone is shouting in the desert:
'Get the road ready for the Lord;
make a straight path for him to travel!
5 Every valley must be filled up, every hill and mountain levelled off.
The winding roads must be made straight, and the rough paths made smooth.
6 All mankind will see God's salvation!' "

7 Crowds of people came out to John to be baptized by him. "You snakes!" he said to them. "Who told you that you could escape from the punishment God is about to send? 8 Do those things that will show that you have turned from your sins. And don't start saying among yourselves that Abraham is your ancestor.
I tell you that God can take these stones and make descendants for Abraham!
9 The axe is ready to cut down the trees at the roots; every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown in the fire." 10 The people asked him, "What are we to do, then?" 11 He answered, "Whoever has two shirts must give one to the man who has none, and whoever has food must share
it."
12 Some tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what are we to do?" 13 "Don't collect more than is legal," he told them.
14 Some soldiers also asked him, "What about us? What are we to do?" He said to them, "Don't take money from anyone by force or accuse anyone falsely. Be content with your pay." 15 People's hopes began to rise, and they began to wonder whether John perhaps might be the Messiah. 16 So John said to all of them, "I baptize you with water, but someone is coming who is much greater than I am. I am not good enough even to untie his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.
17 He has his winnowing shovel with him, to thresh out all the grain and gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn the chaff in a fire that never goes out." 18 In many different ways John preached the Good News to the people and urged them to change their ways. 19 But John reprimanded Herod, the governor, because he had married Herodias, his brother's wife, and had done many other evil things. 20 Then Herod did an even worse thing by putting John in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus
(Matt 3.13-17; Mark 1.9-11)

21 After all the people had been baptized, Jesus also was baptized. While he was praying, heaven was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit came down upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my own dear Son.
I am pleased with you."

The Ancestors of Jesus
(Matt 1.1-17)

23 When Jesus began his work, he was about thirty years old. He was the son, so people thought, of Joseph, who was the son of Heli, 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son

(Matt 4 1-11, Mark 1 12-13)

4 Jesus returned from the Jordan full of the Holy Spirit and was led by the Spirit into the desert, 2 where he was tempted by the Devil for forty days In all that time he ate nothing, so that he was hungry when it was over 3 The Devil said to him, "If you are God's Son, order this stone to turn into bread "
4 But Jesus answered, "The scripture
says, 'Man cannot live on bread alone' " 5 Then the Devil took him up and showed him in a second all the kingdoms of the world 6 "I will give you all this power and all this wealth," the Devil told him "It has all been handed over to me, and I can give it to anyone I choose 7 All this will be yours, then, if you worship
me " 8 Jesus answered, "The scripture says, 'Worship the Lord your God and serve only him!' " 9 Then the Devil took him to Jerusalem and set him on the highest point of the Temple, and said to him, "If you are God's Son, throw yourself down from here 10 For the scripture says, 'God will order his angels to take good care of you' 11 It also says, 'They will hold you up with their hands so that not even your feet will be hurt on the stones' " 12 But Jesus answered, "The scripture says, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test' " 13 When the Devil finished tempting Jesus in every way, he left him for a while

Jesus Begins His Work in Galilee
(Matt 4 12-17, Mark 1 14-15)

14 Then Jesus returned to Galilee, and the power of the Holy Spirit was with him The news about him spread throughout all that territory 15 He taught in the synagogues and was praised by everyone

Jesus Is Rejected at Nazareth
(Matt 13 53-58 Mark 6 1-6)

16 Then Jesus went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath he went as usual to the synagogue He stood up to read the Scriptures 17 and was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it is written, 18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has chosen me to bring good news to the poor He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed 19 and announce that the time has come when the Lord will save his people " 20 Jesus rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down All the people in the synagogue had their eyes fixed on him, 21 as he said to them, "This passage of scripture has come true today, as you heard it being read " 22 They were all well impressed with him and marvelled at the eloquent words that he spoke They said, "Isn't he the son of Joseph?" 23 He said to them, "I am sure that you will quote this proverb to me, 'Doctor, heal yourself' You will also tell me to do here in my home town the same things you heard were done in Capernaum 24 I tell you this," Jesus added, "a prophet is never welcomed in his home town 25 "Listen to me it is true that there were many widows in Israel during the time of Elijah, when there was no rain for three and a half years and a severe famine spread throughout the whole land 26 Yet Elijah was not sent to anyone in Israel, but only to a widow living in Zarephath in the territory of Sidon 27 And there were many people suffering from a dreaded skin-disease who lived in Israel during the time of the prophet Elisha, yet not one of them was healed, but only Naaman the Syrian"

28 When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were filled with anger 29 They rose up, dragged Jesus out of the town, and took him to the top of the hill on which their town was built They meant to throw him over the cliff, 30 but he walked through the middle of the crowd and went his way

A Man with an Evil Spirit
(Mark 1 21-28)

31 Then Jesus went to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, where he taught the people on the Sabbath 32 They were all amazed at the way he taught, because he spoke with authority 33 In the synagogue was a man who had the spirit of an evil demon in him, he screamed out in a loud voice, 34 "Ah! What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Are you here to destroy us? I know who you are you are God's holy messenger!" 35 Jesus ordered the spirit, "Be quiet and come out of the man!" The demon threw the man down in front of them and went out of him without doing him any harm 36 The people were all amazed and said to one another, "What kind of words are these? With authority and power this man gives orders to the evil spirits, and they come out!" 37 And the report about Jesus spread everywhere in that region

(Matt 8 14-17, Mark 1 29-34)

38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to Simon's house Simon's mother-in-law was sick with a high fever, and they spoke to Jesus about her 39 He went and stood at her bedside and ordered the fever to leave her The fever left her, and she got up at once and began to wait on them 40 After sunset all who had friends who were sick with various diseases brought them to Jesus, he placed his hands on every one of them and healed them all 41 Demons also went out from many people, screaming, "You are the Son of God!" Jesus gave the demons an order and would not let them speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah

Jesus Preaches in the Synagogues
(Mark 1 35-39)

42 At daybreak Jesus left the town and went off to a lonely place The people started looking for him, and when they found him, they tried to keep him from leaving 43 But he said to them, "I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns also, because that is what God sent me to do" 44 So he preached in the synagogues throughout the country

Jesus Calls the First Disciples
(Matt 4 18-22, Mark 1 16-20)

5 One day Jesus was standing on the shore of Lake Gennesaret while the people pushed their way up to him to listen to the word of God 2 He saw two boats pulled up on the beach, the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets 3 Jesus got into one of the boats—it belonged to Simon—and asked him to push off a little from the shore Jesus sat in the boat and taught the crowd 4 When he finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Push the boat out further to the deep water, and you and your partners let down your nets for a catch" 5 "Master," Simon answered, "we worked hard all night long and caught nothing But if you say so, I will let down the nets" 6 They let them down and caught such a large number of fish that the nets were about to break 7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them They came and filled both boats so full of fish that the boats were about to sink 8 When Simon Peter saw what had happened, he fell on his knees before Jesus and said, "Go away from me, Lord! I am a sinful man!" 9 He and the others with him were all amazed at the large number of fish they had caught 10 The same was true of Simon's partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid, from now on you will be catching men" 11 They pulled the boats up on the

Jesus Heals a Man
(Matt 8 1-4, Mark 1 40-45)

12 Once Jesus was in a town where there was a man who was suffering from a dreaded skin-disease When he saw Jesus, he threw himself down and begged him, "Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean!"[c] 13 Jesus stretched out his hand and
touched him. "I do want to," he answered
"Be clean!" At once the disease left the man 14 Jesus ordered him, "Don't tell anyone, but go straight to the priest and let him examine you, then to prove to everyone that you are cured, offer the sacrifice as Moses ordered" 15 But the news about Jesus spread all the more widely, and crowds of people came to hear him and be healed from their diseases 16 But he would go away to lonely places, where he prayed

(Matt 9 1-8, Mark 2 1-12)

17 One day when Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of the Law were sitting there who had come from every town in Galilee and Judaea and from Jerusalem The power of the Lord was present for Jesus to heal the sick 18 Some men came carrying a paralysed man on a bed, and they tried to take him into the house and put him in front of Jesus 19 Because of the crowd, however, they could find no way to take him in So they carried him up on the roof, made an opening in the tiles, and let him down on his bed into the middle of the group in front of Jesus 20 When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the man, "Your sins are forgiven, my friend" 21 The teachers of the Law and the Pharisees began to say to themselves, "Who is this man who speaks such blasphemy! God is the only one who can forgive sins!" 22 Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Why do you think such things?
23 Is it easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? 24 I will prove to you, then, that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" So he said to the paralysed man, "I tell you, get up, pick up your bed, and go home!" 25 At once the man got up in front of them all, took the bed he had been lying on, and went home, praising God 26 They were all completely amazed! Full of fear, vellous things we have seen today!"

Jesus Calls Levi
(Matt 9 9-13, Mark 2 13-17)

27 After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting in his office Jesus said to him, "Follow me" 28 Levi got up, left everything, and followed him 29 Then Levi had a big feast in his house for Jesus, and among the guests was a large number of tax collectors and other people 30 Some Pharisees and some teachers of the Law who belonged to their group complained to Jesus' disciples "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and other outcasts?" they asked 31 Jesus answered them, "People who are well do not need a doctor, but only those who are sick 32 I have not come to call respectable people to repent, but outcasts"

The Question about Fasting
(Matt 9 14-17, Mark 2 18-22)

33 Some people said to Jesus, "The disciples of John fast frequently and offer prayers, and the disciples of the Pharisees do the same, but your disciples eat and drink" 34 Jesus answered, "Do you think you can make the guests at a wedding party go without food as long as the bridegroom is with them? Of course not! 35 But the day will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast" 36 Jesus also told them this parable "No one tears a piece off a new coat to patch up an old coat If he does, he will have torn the new coat, and the piece of new cloth will not match the old 37 Nor does anyone pour new wine into used wineskins, because the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will pour out, and the skins will be ruined 38 Instead, new wine must be poured into fresh

5 30 Lk 15 1-2

wineskins! 39 And no one wants new wine after drinking old wine 'The old is better,'
he says "

The Question about the Sabbath
(Matt 12 1-8 Mark 2 23-28)

6 Jesus was walking through some cornfields on the Sabbath His disciples began to pick the ears of corn, rub them in their hands, and eat the grain 2 Some Pharisees asked, "Why are you doing what our Law says you cannot do on the Sabbath?"
3 Jesus answered them, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his men were hungry? 4 He went into the house of God, took the bread offered to God, ate it, and gave it also to his men Yet it is against our Law for anyone except the priests to eat that bread " 5 And Jesus concluded, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath "

The Man with a Paralysed Hand
(Matt 12 9-14, Mark 3 1-6)

6 On another Sabbath Jesus went into a synagogue and taught A man was there whose right hand was paralysed 7 Some teachers of the Law and some Pharisees wanted a reason to accuse Jesus of doing wrong, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal on the Sabbath 8 But Jesus knew their thoughts and said to the man, "Stand up and come here to the front " The man got up and stood there 9 Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you What does our Law allow us to do on the Sabbath? To help or to harm? To save a man's life or destroy it?" 10 He looked around at them all, then he said[d] to the man, "Stretch out your hand " He did so, and his hand became well again 11 They were filled with rage and began to discuss among themselves what they could do to Jesus

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles
(Matt 10 1-4, Mark 3 13-19)

12 At that time Jesus went up a hill to pray and spent the whole night there praying to God 13 When day came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he named apostles 14 Simon (whom he named Peter) and his brother Andrew, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon (who was called the Patriot), 16 Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became the traitor

Jesus Teaches and Heals
(Matt 4 23-25)

17 When Jesus had come down from the hill with the apostles, he stood on a level place with a large number of his disciples A large crowd of people was there from all over Judaea and from Jerusalem and from the coastal cities of Tyre and Sidon, 18 they had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases Those who were troubled by evil spirits also came and were healed 19 All the people tried to touch him, for power was going out from him and healing them all Happiness and Sorrow

(Matt 5 1-12)

20 Jesus looked at his disciples and said, "Happy are you poor, the Kingdom of God is yours!
21 "Happy are you who are hungry now, you will be filled!
"Happy are you who weep now, you will laugh!
22 "Happy are you when people hate you, reject you, insult you, and say that you are evil, all because of the Son of Man! 23 Be glad when that happens, and dance for joy, because a great reward is kept for you in heaven For their ancestors did the very same things to the prophets 24 "But how terrible for you who are rich
now,
you have had your easy life!
25 "How terrible for you who are full
now,
you will go hungry!
"How terrible for you who laugh now, you will mourn and weep!
26 "How terrible when all people speak well of you, their ancestors said the very same things about the false prophets

(Matt 5 38-48, 7 12a)

27 "But I tell you who hear me Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, and pray for those who ill-treat you 29 If anyone hits you on one cheek, let him something, and when someone takes what is yours, do not ask for it back. 31 Do for others just what you want them to do for you.

32 "If you love only the people who love you, why should you receive a blessing?
Even sinners love those who love them!
33 And if you do good only to those who do good to you, why should you receive a blessing? Even sinners do that! 34 And if you lend only to those from whom you hope to get it back, why should you receive a blessing? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount!
35 No! Love your enemies and do good to them; lend and expect nothing back.
You will then have a great reward, and you will be sons of the Most High God.
For he is good to the ungrateful and the wicked. 36 Be merciful just as your Father is merciful.

Judging Others
(Matt. 7.1-5)

37 "Do not judge others, and God will not judge you; do not condemn others, and God will not condemn you; forgive others, and God will forgive you. 38 Give to others, and God will give to you. Indeed, you will receive a full measure, a generous helping, poured into your hands—all that you can hold. The measure you use for others is the one that God will use for
you."
39 And Jesus told them this parable:
"One blind man cannot lead another one;
if he does, both will fall into a ditch. 40 No pupil is greater than his teacher; but every pupil, when he has completed his training, will be like his teacher.
41 "Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but pay no attention to the log in your own eye? 42 How can you say to your brother, 'Please, brother, let me take that speck out of your eye,' yet cannot even see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will be able to see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

43 "A healthy tree does not bear bad fruit, nor does a poor tree bear good fruit.
44 Every tree is known by the fruit it bears; you do not pick figs from thorn bushes or gather grapes from bramble bushes.
45 A good person brings good out of the treasure of good things in his heart; a bad person brings bad out of his treasure of bad things. For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of.

The Two House Builders
(Matt. 7.24-27)

46 "Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and yet don't do what I tell you? 47 Anyone who comes to me and listens to my words and obeys them—I will show you what he is like. 48 He is like a man who, in building his house, dug deep and laid the foundation on rock. The river overflowed and hit that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49 But anyone who hears my words and does not obey them is like a man who built his house without laying a foundation; when the flood hit that house it fell at once—and what a terrible crash that was!"

Jesus Heals a Roman Officer's Servant
(Matt. 8.5-13)

7 When Jesus had finished saying all these things to the people, he went to Capernaum. 2 A Roman officer there had a servant who was very dear to him; the man was sick and about to die. 3 When the officer heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to ask him to come and heal his servant. 4 They came to Jesus and begged him earnestly, "This man really deserves your help. 5 He loves our people and he himself built a synagogue for us."
6 So Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the officer sent friends to tell him, "Sir, don't trouble yourself. I do not deserve to have you come into my house, 7 neither do I consider myself worthy to come to you in person. Just give the order, and my
placed under the authority of superior officers, and I have soldiers under me.
I order this one, 'Go!' and he goes; I order that one, 'Come!' and he comes; and I order my slave, 'Do this!' and he does
it."
9 Jesus was surprised when he heard this; he turned round and said to the crowd following him, "I tell you, I have never found faith like this, not even in Israel!"

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

11 Soon afterwards[e] Jesus went to a town called Nain, accompanied by his disciples and a large crowd 12 Just as he arrived at the gate of the town, a funeral procession was coming out The dead man was the only son of a woman who was a widow, and a large crowd from the town was with her 13 When the Lord saw her, his heart was filled with pity for her, and he said to her, "Don't cry" 14 Then he walked over and touched the coffin, and the men carrying it stopped Jesus said, "Young man! Get up, I tell you!" 15 The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother 16 They all were filled with fear and praised God "A great prophet has appeared among us!" they said, "God has come to save his people!" 17 This news about Jesus went out through all the country and the surrounding territory

The Messengers from John the Baptist
(Matt 11.2-19)

18 When John's disciples told him about all these things, he called two of them 19 and sent them to the Lord to ask him, "Are you the one John said was going to come, or should we expect someone else?"
20 When they came to Jesus, they said,
"John the Baptist sent us to ask if you are the one he said was going to come, or should we expect someone else?" 21 At that very time Jesus cured many people of their sicknesses, diseases, and evil spirits, and gave sight to many blind people 22 He answered John's messengers, "Go back and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind can see, the lame can walk, those who suffer from dreaded skin-diseases are made clean,[f] the deaf can hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is preached to the poor 23 How happy are those who have no doubts about me!" 24 After John's messengers had left, Jesus began to speak about him to the crowds "When you went out to John in the desert, what did you expect to see?
A blade of grass bending in the wind?
25 What did you go out to see? A man dressed up in fancy clothes? People who dress like that and live in luxury are found in palaces! 26 Tell me, what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes indeed, but you saw much more than a prophet 27 For John is the one of whom the scripture says 'God said, I will send my messenger ahead of you to open the way for you' 28 I tell you," Jesus added, "John is greater than any man who has ever lived But he who is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than John" 29 All the people heard him, they and especially the tax collectors were the ones who had obeyed God's righteous demands and had been baptized by John 30 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law rejected God's purpose for themselves and refused to be baptized by John 31 Jesus continued, "Now to what can I compare the people of this day? What are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the market-place One group
shouts to the other, 'We played wedding
music for you, but you wouldn't dance!
We sang funeral songs, but you wouldn't cry!' 33 John the Baptist came, and he fasted and drank no wine, and you said, 'He has a demon in him!' 34 The Son of Man came, and he ate and drank, and you said, 'Look at this man! He is a glutton and a drinker, a friend of tax collectors and other outcasts!' 35 God's
wisdom, however, is shown to be true by all who accept it"

Jesus at the Home of Simon the Pharisee

36 A Pharisee invited Jesus to have dinner with him, and Jesus went to his house and sat down to eat 37 In that town was a woman who lived a sinful life She heard that Jesus was eating in the Pharisee's house, so she brought an alabaster jar full of perfume 38 and stood behind Jesus, by his feet, crying and wetting his feet with her tears Then she dried his feet with her hair, kissed them, and poured the perfume on them 39 When the Pharisee saw this, he said to himself, "If this man really were a prophet, he would know who this woman is who is touching him, he would know what kind of sinful life she lives!" 40 Jesus spoke up and said to him,
"Simon, I have something to tell you"
"Yes, Teacher," he said, "tell me" 41 "There were two men who owed money to a moneylender," Jesus began "One owed him five hundred silver coins, and the other one fifty 42 Neither of them could pay him back, so he cancelled the debts of both Which one, then, will love him more?" 43 "I suppose," answered Simon, "that it would be the one who was forgiven more"

"You are right," said Jesus 44 Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your home, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair 45 You did not welcome me with a kiss, but she has not stopped kissing my feet since I came 46 You provided no olive-oil for my head, but she has covered my feet with perfume 47 I tell you, then, the great love she has shown proves that her many sins have been forgiven But whoever has been forgiven little shows only a little love" 48 Then Jesus said to the woman, "Your sins are forgiven"
49 The others sitting at the table began to say to themselves, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?" 50 But Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you, go in peace"

Women Who Accompanied Jesus

8 Some time later Jesus travelled through towns and villages, preaching the Good News about the Kingdom of God The twelve disciples went with him, 2 and so did some women who had been healed of evil spirits and diseases Mary (who was called Magdalene), from whom seven demons had been driven out, 3 Joanna, whose husband Chuza was an officer in Herod's court, and Susanna, and many other women who used their own resources to help Jesus and his disciples

The Parable of the Sower

(Matt 13 1-9, Mark 4 1-9)

4 People kept coming to Jesus from one town after another, and when a great crowd gathered, Jesus told this parable 5 "Once there was a man who went out to sow corn As he scattered the seed in the field, some of it fell along the path, where it was stepped on, and the birds ate it up 6 Some of it fell on rocky ground, and when the plants sprouted, they dried up because the soil had no moisture 7 Some of the seed fell among thorn bushes, which grew up with the plants and choked them 8 And some seeds fell in good soil, the plants grew and produced corn, a hundred grains each" And Jesus concluded, "Listen, then, if you have ears!"

The Purpose of the Parables

(Matt 13 10-17, Mark 4 10-12)

9 His disciples asked Jesus what this parable meant, 10 and he answered, "The knowledge of the secrets of the Kingdom of God has been given to you, but to the rest it comes by means of parables, so that they may look but not see, and listen but not understand

(Matt 13 18-23, Mark 4 13-20)

11 "This is what the parable means the seed is the word of God 12 The seeds that fell along the path stand for those who hear, but the Devil comes and takes the message away from their hearts in order to keep them from believing and being saved 13 The seeds that fell on rocky ground stand for those who hear the message and receive it gladly But it does not sink deep into them, they believe only for a while but when the time of testing comes, they fall away 14 The seeds that fell among thorn bushes stand for those who hear, but the worries and riches and pleasures of this life crowd in and choke them, and their fruit never ripens 15 The seeds that fell in good soil stand for those who hear the message and retain it in a good and obedient heart, and they persist until they bear fruit

(Mark 4 21-25)

16 "No one lights a lamp and covers it with a bowl or puts it under a bed Instead, he puts it on the lampstand, so that people will see the light as they come in 17 "Whatever is hidden away will be brought out into the open, and whatever is covered up will be found and brought to light 18 "Be careful, then, how you listen, because whoever has something will be given more, but whoever has nothing will have taken away from him even the little he thinks he has"

Jesus' Mother and Brothers
(Matt 12 46-50, Mark 3 31-35)

19 Jesus' mother and brothers came to him, but were unable to join him because of the crowd 20 Someone said to Jesus, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside and want to see you "

21 Jesus said to them all, "My mother and brothers are those who hear the word of God and obey it "

22 One day Jesus got into a boat with his disciples and said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake " So they started out 23 As they were sailing, Jesus fell asleep Suddenly a strong wind blew down on the lake, and the boat began to fill with water, so that they were all in great danger 24 The disciples went to Jesus and woke him up, saying, "Master, Master! We are about to die!"

Jesus got up and gave an order to the wind and the stormy water, they died down, and there was a great calm 25 Then he said to the disciples, "Where is your faith?"

But they were amazed and afraid, and said to one another, "Who is this man? He gives orders to the winds and waves, and they obey him!"

Jesus Heals a Man with Demons
(Matt 8 28-34, Mark 5 1-20)

26 Jesus and his disciples sailed on over to the territory of Gerasa,[g] which is across the lake from Galilee 27 As Jesus stepped ashore, he was met by a man from the town who had demons in him For a long time this man had gone without clothes and would not stay at home, but spent his time in the burial caves 28 When he saw Jesus, he gave a loud cry, threw himself down at his feet, and shouted, "Jesus, Son of the Most High God! What do you want with me? I beg you, don't punish me!" 29 He said this because Jesus had ordered the evil spirit to go out of him Many times it had seized him, and even though he was kept a prisoner, his hands and feet fastened with chains, he would break the chains and be driven by the demon out into the desert

30 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

"My name is 'Mob,'" he answered—because many demons had gone into him 31 The demons begged Jesus not to send them into the abyss [h]

32 There was a large herd of pigs near by, feeding on a hillside So the demons begged Jesus to let them go into the pigs, and he let them 33 They went out of the man and into the pigs The whole herd rushed down the side of the cliff into the lake and was drowned

34 The men who had been taking care of the pigs saw what happened, so they ran off and spread the news in the town and among the farms 35 People went out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind, and they were all afraid 36 Those who had seen it told the people how the man had been cured 37 Then all the people from that territory asked Jesus to go away, because they were terribly afraid So Jesus got into the boat and left 38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged Jesus, "Let me go with you "

But Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Go back home and tell what God has done for you "

The man went through the town, telling what Jesus had done for him

Jairus' Daughter and the Woman Who Touched Jesus' Cloak

40 When Jesus returned to the other side of the lake, the people welcomed him, because they had all been waiting for him 41 Then a man named Jairus arrived, he was an official in the local synagogue He threw himself down at Jesus' feet and begged him to go to his home, 42 because his only daughter, who was twelve years old, was dying

As Jesus went along, the people were crowding him from every side 43 Among them was a woman who had suffered from severe bleeding for twelve years, she had spent all she had on doctors,[i] but no one had been able to cure her 44 She came up in the crowd behind Jesus and touched the edge of his cloak, and her bleeding stopped at once 45 Jesus asked, "Who touched me?"

Everyone denied it, and Peter said, "Master, the people are all round you and crowding in on you" 46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I knew it when power went out of me" 47 The woman saw that she had been found out, so she came trembling and threw herself at Jesus' feet There in front of everybody, she told him why she had touched him and how she had been healed at once 48 Jesus said to her, "My daughter, your faith has made you well Go in peace"
49 While Jesus was saying this, a messenger came from the official's house "Your daughter has died," he told Jairus, "don't bother the Teacher any longer" 50 But Jesus heard it and said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid, only believe, and she will be well" 51 When he arrived at the house, he would not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, and James, and the child's father and mother 52 Everyone there was crying and mourning for the child Jesus said, "Don't cry, the child is not dead—she is only sleeping!" 53 They all laughed at him, because they knew that she was dead 54 But Jesus took her by the hand and called out, "Get up, my child!" 55 Her life returned, and she got up at once, and Jesus ordered them to give her something to eat 56 Her parents were astounded, but Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone what had happened

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples
(Matt 10 5–15, Mark 6 7–13)

9 Jesus called the twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases 2 Then he sent them out to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick, 3 after saying to them, "Take nothing with you for the journey no stick, no beggar's bag, no food, no money, not even an extra shirt 4 Wherever you are welcomed, stay in the same house until you leave that town, 5 wherever people don't welcome you, leave that town and shake the dust off your feet as a warning
to them"
6 The disciples left and travelled through all the villages, preaching the Good News and healing people everywhere

Herod's Confusion
(Matt 14 1–12, Mark 6 14–29)

7 When Herod, the ruler of Galilee, heard about all the things that were happening, he was very confused, because some people were saying that John the Baptist had come back to life 8 Others were saying that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life 9 Herod said, "I had John's head cut off, but who is this man I hear these things about?"
And he kept trying to see Jesus

(Matt 14 13–21, Mark 6 30–44, John 6 1–14)

10 The apostles came back and told Jesus everything they had done He took them with him, and they went off by themselves to a town called Bethsaida 11 When the crowds heard about it, they followed him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the Kingdom of God, and healed those who needed it 12 When the sun was beginning to set, the twelve disciples came to him and said, "Send the people away so that they can go to the villages and farms round here and find food and lodging, because this is a lonely place" 13 But Jesus said to them, "You yourselves give them something to eat" They answered, "All we have are five loaves and two fish Do you want us to go and buy food for this whole crowd?" 14 (There were about five thousand men there) Jesus said to his disciples, "Make the people sit down in groups of about fifty each" 15 After the disciples had done so, 16 Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up to heaven, thanked God for them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to distribute to the people 17 They all ate and had enough, and the disciples took up twelve baskets of what was left over

Peter's Declaration about Jesus

alone, the disciples came to him "Who do the crowds say I am?" he asked them you are Elijah, while others say that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life "

20 "What about you?" he asked them
"Who do you say I am?"
Peter answered, "You are God's Messiah "

Jesus Speaks about His Suffering and Death
(Matt 16 20-28, Mark 8 30-9 1)

21 Then Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell this to anyone [22] He also said to them, "The Son of Man must suffer much and be rejected by the elders, the
chief priests, and the teachers of the Law
He will be put to death, but three days
later he will be raised to life " 23 And he said to them all, "If anyone wants to come with me, he must forget self, take up his cross every day, and follow me [24] For whoever wants to save his own life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it [25] Will
a person gain anything if he wins the whole world but is himself lost or defeated? Of course not! [26] If a person is ashamed of me and of my teaching, then the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels [27] I assure you that there are some here who will not die until they have seen the Kingdom of God "

The Transfiguration
(Matt 17 1-8, Mark 9.2-8)

28 About a week after he had said these things, Jesus took Peter, John, and James with him and went up a hill to pray [29] While he was praying, his face changed its appearance, and his clothes became dazzling white [30] Suddenly two men were there talking with him They were Moses and Elijah, [31] who appeared in heavenly glory and talked with Jesus about the way in which he would soon fulfil God's purpose by dying in Jerusalem 32 Peter and his companions were sound asleep, but they woke up and saw Jesus' glory and the two men who were standing with him 33 As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, "Master, how good it is that we are here! We will make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" (He did not really know what he was saying) 34 While he was still speaking, a cloud appeared and covered them with its shadow, and the disciples were afraid as the cloud came over them 35 A voice said from the cloud, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen—listen to him!" 36 When the voice stopped, there was Jesus all alone The disciples kept quiet about all this, and told no one at that time anything they had seen

Jesus Heals a Boy with an Evil Spirit
(Matt 17 14–18, Mark 9 14–27)

37 The next day Jesus and the three disciples went down from the hill, and a large crowd met Jesus 38 A man shouted from the crowd, "Teacher! I beg you, look at my son—my only son! 39 A spirit attacks him with a sudden shout and throws him into a fit, so that he foams at the mouth; it keeps on hurting him and will hardly let him go! 40 I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't" 41 Jesus answered, "How unbelieving
and wrong you people are! How long must I stay with you? How long do I have to put up with you?" Then he said to the man, "Bring your son here" 42 As the boy was coming, the demon knocked him to the ground and threw him into a fit Jesus gave a command to the evil spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father 43 All the people were amazed at the mighty power of God

(Matt. 17 22–23, Mark 9 30–32)

The people were still marvelling at everything Jesus was doing, when he said to his disciples, 44 "Don't forget what I am about to tell you! The Son of Man is going to be handed over to the power of men" 45 But the disciples did not know what this meant. It had been hidden from them so that they could not understand it, and they were afraid to ask him about the matter

Who Is the Greatest?
(Matt 18 1–5, Mark 9 33–37)

46 An argument broke out among the disciples as to which one of them was the greatest 47 Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he took a child, stood him by his side, 48 and said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in my name, welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me, also welcomes the one who sent me For he who is least among you all is the greatest"

Whoever Is Not against You Is for You
(Mark 9 38–40)

49 John spoke up, "Master, we saw a man driving out demons in your name, and we told him to stop, because he doesn't belong to our group" 50 "Do not try to stop him," Jesus said to him and to the other disciples, "because whoever is not against you is for you"

A Samaritan Village Refuses to Receive Jesus

51 As the time drew near when Jesus would be taken up to heaven, he made up his mind and set out on his way to Jerusalem 52 He sent messengers ahead of him, who went into a village in Samaria to get everything ready for him 53 But the people there would not receive him, because it was clear that he was on his way to Jerusalem 54 When the disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?"[j] 55 Jesus turned and rebuked them [k] 56 Then Jesus and his disciples went on to another village

(Matt 8 19–22)

57 As they went on their way, a man said to Jesus, "I will follow you wherever you go" 58 Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lie down and rest" 59 He said to another man, "Follow me" But that man said, "Sir, first let me go back and bury my father" 62 Jesus said to him, "Anyone who starts to plough and then keeps looking back is of no use to the Kingdom of God "

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-two 10 After this the Lord chose another seventy-two[l] men and sent them out two by two, to go ahead of him to every town and place where he himself was about to go 2 He said to them, "There is a large harvest, but few workers to gather it in Pray to the owner of the harvest that he will send out workers to gather in his harvest 3 Go! I am sending you like lambs among wolves 4 Don't take a purse or a beggar's bag or shoes, don't stop to greet anyone on the road 5 Whenever you go into a house, first say, 'Peace be with this house' 6 If a peace-loving man lives there, let your greeting of peace remain on him, if not, take back your greeting of peace 7 Stay in that same house, eating and drinking whatever they offer you, for a worker should be given his pay Don't move round from one house to another 8 Whenever you go into a town and are made welcome, eat what is set before you, 9 heal the sick in that town, and say to the people there, 'The Kingdom of God has come near you' 10 But whenever you go into a town and are not welcomed, go out in the streets and say, 11 'Even the dust from your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you But remember that the Kingdom of God has come near you!' 12 I assure you that on Judgement Day God will show more mercy to Sodom than to that town!

The Unbelieving Towns
(Matt 11 20-24)

13 "How terrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How terrible for you too, Bethsaida! If the miracles which were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, the people there would long ago have sat down, put on sackcloth, and sprinkled ashes on themselves, to show that they had turned from their sins!
14 God will show more mercy on Judgement Day to Tyre and Sidon than to you 15 And as for you, Capernaum! Did you want to lift yourself up to heaven? You will be thrown down to hell!" 16 Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever listens to you listens to me, whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me "

The Return of the Seventy-two 17 The seventy-two[m] men came back in great joy "Lord," they said, "even the demons obeyed us when we gave them a command in your name!" 18 Jesus answered them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven 19 Listen!

I have given you authority, so that you can walk on snakes and scorpions and overcome all the power of the Enemy, and nothing will hurt you 20 But don't be glad because the evil spirits obey you, rather be glad because your names are written in heaven "

Jesus Rejoices
(Matt 11 25-27 13 16-17)

21 At that time Jesus was filled with joy by the Holy Spirit[n] and said, "Father, Lord of heaven and earth! I thank you because you have shown to the unlearned what you have hidden from the wise and learned Yes, Father, this was how you
wanted it to happen
22 "My Father has given me all things No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him " 23 Then Jesus turned to the disciples and said to them privately, "How fortunate you are to see the things you see! 24 I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see, but they could not, and to hear what you hear, but they did not "

tried to trap Jesus "Teacher," he asked,
"what must I do to receive eternal life?" 26 Jesus answered him, "What do the Scriptures say? How do you interpret
them?" 27 The man answered, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind', and 'Love your neighbour as you love yourself' " 28 "You are right," Jesus replied, "do this and you will live " 29 But the teacher of the Law wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbour?" 30 Jesus answered, "There was once a man who was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho when robbers attacked him, stripped him, and beat him up, leaving him half dead 31 It so happened that a priest was going down that road, but when he saw the man, he walked on by, on the other side 32 In the same way a Levite also came along, went over and looked at the man, and then walked on by, on the other side 33 But a Samaritan who was travelling that way came upon the man, and when he saw him, his heart was filled with pity 34 He went over to him, poured oil and wine on his wounds and bandaged them, then he put the man on his own animal and took him to an inn, where he took care of him 35 The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper 'Take care of him,' he told the innkeeper, 'and when I come back this way, I will pay you whatever else you spend on him' " 36 And Jesus concluded, "In your opinion, which one of these three acted like a neighbour towards the man attacked by the robbers?" 37 The teacher of the Law answered, "The one who was kind to him " Jesus replied, "You go, then, and do the same "

Jesus Visits Martha and Mary 38 As Jesus and his disciples went on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha welcomed him in her home 39 She had a sister named Mary, who sat down at the feet of the Lord and listened to his teaching 40 Martha was upset over all the work she had to do, so she came and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her to come and help me!" 41 The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha! You are worried and troubled over so many things, 42 but just one is needed Mary has chosen the right thing, and it will not be taken away from her "

Jesus' Teaching on Prayer
(Matt 6 9-13, 7 7-11)

11 One day Jesus was praying in a certain place When he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples" 2 Jesus said to them, "When you pray, say this
'Father
May your holy name be honoured,
may your Kingdom come 3 Give us day by day the food we need 4 Forgive us our sins, for we forgive everyone who does us wrong
And do not bring us to hard testing'" 5 And Jesus said to his disciples, "Suppose one of you should go to a friend's house at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, let me borrow three loaves of bread [6]A friend of mine who is on a journey has just come to my house, and I haven't got any food for him!' [7]And suppose your friend should answer from inside, 'Don't bother me! The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed I can't get up and give you anything' [8]Well, what then? I tell you that even if he will not get up and give you the bread because you are his friend, yet he will get up and give you everything you need because you are not ashamed to keep on asking 9 "And so I say to you Ask, and you will receive, seek, and you will find, knock, and the door will be opened to you [10]For everyone who asks will receive, and he who seeks will find, and the door will be opened to anyone who knocks [11]Would any of you who are fathers give your son a snake when he asks for fish?
[12]Or would you give him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? [13]Bad as you are, you know how to give good things to your children How much more, then, will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

Jesus and Beelzebul
(Matt 12 22-30, Mark 3 20-27)

14 Jesus was driving out a demon that could not talk, and when the demon went out, the man began to talk The crowds were amazed, [15]but some of the people said, "It is Beelzebul, the chief of the demons, who gives him the power to drive them out" 16 Others wanted to trap Jesus, so they asked him to perform a miracle to show that God approved of him [17]But Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he said to them, "Any country that divides itself into groups which fight each other will not last very long, a family divided against itself falls apart [18]So if Satan's kingdom has groups fighting each other, how can it last? You say that I drive out demons because Beelzebul gives me the power to do so [19]If this is how I drive them out, how do your followers drive them out?
Your own followers prove that you are wrong! [20]No, it is rather by means of God's power that I drive out demons, and this proves that the Kingdom of God has already come to you 21 "When a strong man, with all his weapons ready, guards his own house, all his belongings are safe [22]But when a stronger man attacks him and defeats him, he carries away all the weapons the owner was depending on and divides up what he stole
against me, anyone who does not help me gather is really scattering

(Matt 12 43-45)

person, it travels over dry country looking for a place to rest If it can't find one,
it says to itself, 'I will go back to my house' [25]So it goes back and finds the house clean and tidy [26]Then it goes out and brings seven other spirits even worse than itself, and they come and live there So when it is all over, that person is in a worse state than he was at the beginning"

True Happiness

27 When Jesus had said this, a woman spoke up from the crowd and said to him, "How happy is the woman who bore you and nursed you!" 28 But Jesus answered, "Rather, how happy are those who hear the word of God and obey it!"

(Matt 12 38-42)

29 As the people crowded round Jesus, he went on to say, "How evil are the people of this day! They ask for a miracle, 11 15 Mt 9 34, 10 25 11 16 Mt 12 38, 16 1, Mk 8 11 11 23 Mk 9 40 11 29 Mt 16 4, Mk 8 12 but none will be given them except the miracle of Jonah 30 In the same way that the prophet Jonah was a sign for the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be a sign for the people of this day 31 On Judgement Day the Queen of Sheba will stand up and accuse the people of today, because she travelled all the way from

wise teaching, and I tell you there is something here greater than Solomon 32 On Judgement Day the people of Nineveh will stand up and accuse you, because they turned from their sins when they heard Jonah preach, and I assure you that there is something here greater than Jonah!

(Matt 5 15, 6 22-23)

33 "No one lights a lamp and then hides it or puts it under a bowl,[p] instead, he puts it on the lampstand, so that people may see the light as they come in 34 Your eyes are like a lamp for the body When your eyes are sound, your whole body is full of light, but when your eyes are no good, your whole body will be in darkness 35 Make certain, then, that the light in you is not darkness 36 If your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be bright all over, as when a lamp shines on you with its brightness"

Jesus Accuses the Pharisees and the Teachers of the Law
(Matt 23 1-36, Mark 12 38-40)

37 When Jesus finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him to eat with him, so he went in and sat down to eat 38 The Pharisee was surprised when he noticed that Jesus had not washed before eating 39 So the Lord said to him, "Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of your cup and plate, but inside you are full of violence and evil 40 Fools! Did not God, who made the outside, also make the inside? 41 But give what is in your cups and plates to the poor, and everything will be ritually clean for you 42 "How terrible for you Pharisees!
You give God a tenth of the seasoning herbs, such as mint and rue and all the other herbs, but you neglect justice and love for God These you should practise, without neglecting the others 43 "How terrible for you Pharisees!
You love the reserved seats in the synagogues and to be greeted with respect in the market-places. 44 How terrible for you! You are like unmarked graves which people walk on without knowing it" 45 One of the teachers of the Law said to him, "Teacher, when you say this, you insult us too!" 46 Jesus answered, "How terrible also for you teachers of the Law! You put loads on people's backs which are hard to carry, but you yourselves will not stretch out a finger to help them carry those loads 47 How terrible for you! You make fine tombs for the prophets—the very prophets your ancestors murdered 48 You yourselves admit, then, that you approve of what your ancestors did, they murdered the prophets, and you build their tombs 49 For this reason the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and messengers, they will kill some of them and persecute others' 50 So the people of this time will be punished for the murder of all the prophets killed since the creation of the world, 51 from the murder of Abel to the murder of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the Holy Place Yes, I tell you, the people of this time will be punished for them all!
52 "How terrible for you teachers of the Law! You have kept the key that opens the door to the house of knowledge, you yourselves will not go in, and you stop those who are trying to go in!" 53 When Jesus left that place, the teachers of the Law and the Pharisees began to criticize him bitterly and ask him questions about many things, 54 trying to lay traps for him and catch him saying something wrong

A Warning against Hypocrisy
(Matt 10 26-27)

12 As thousands of people crowded together, so that they were stepping on each other, Jesus said first to his disciples, "Be on guard against the yeast of the Pharisees—I mean their hypocrisy 2 Whatever is covered up will be uncovered, and every secret will be made known 3 So then, whatever you be shouted from the housetops

(Matt 10 28-31)

4 "I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot afterwards do anything worse 5 I will show you whom to fear: fear God, who, after killing, has the authority to throw into hell Believe me, he is the one you must fear!
6 "Aren't five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one sparrow is forgotten by God 7 Even the hairs of your head have all been counted So do not be afraid, you are worth much more than many sparrows!

Confessing and Rejecting Christ

8 "I assure you that whoever declares publicly that he belongs to me, the Son of Man will do the same for him before the angels of God 9 But whoever rejects me publicly, the Son of Man will also reject him before the angels of God 10 "Anyone who says a word against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but whoever says evil things against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven 11 "When they bring you to be tried in the synagogues or before governors or rulers, do not be worried about how you will defend yourself or what you will say 12 For the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say"

The Parable of the Rich Fool

13 A man in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide with me the property our father left us" 14 Jesus answered him, "My friend, who gave me the right to judge or to divide the property between you two?" 15 And he went on to say to them all, "Watch out and guard yourselves from every kind of greed, because a person's true life is not made up of the things he owns, no matter how rich he may be" 16 Then Jesus told them this parable "There was once a rich man who had land which bore good crops 17 He began to think to himself, 'I haven't anywhere to keep all my crops What can I do?
18 This is what I will do,' he told himself, 'I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, where I will store my corn and all my other goods 19 Then I will say to myself, Lucky man! You have all the good things you need for many years Take life easy, eat, drink, and enjoy yourself!' 20 But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night you will have to give up your life, then who will get all these things you have kept for yourself?'" 21 And Jesus concluded, "This is how it is with those who pile up riches for themselves but are not rich in God's sight"

Trust in God
(Matt 6 25-34)

22 Then Jesus said to the disciples,

And so I tell you not to worry (12 22)

"And so I tell you not to worry about the food you need to stay alive or about the clothes you need for your body. 23 Life is much more important than food, and the body much more important than clothes 24 Look at the crows they don't sow seeds or gather a harvest, they don't have store-rooms or barns, God feeds them! You are worth so much more than birds! 25 Can any of you live a bit longer[q] by worrying about it? 26 If you can't manage even such a small thing, why worry about the other things? 27 Look how the wild flowers grow they don't work or make clothes for themselves But I tell you that not even King Solomon with all his wealth had clothes as beautiful as one of these flowers 28 It is God who clothes the wild grass—grass that is here today and gone tomorrow, burnt up in the oven Won't he be all the more sure to clothe you? How little faith you have!
29 "So don't be all upset, always concerned about what you will eat and drink 30 (For the pagans of this world are always concerned about all these things) Your Father knows that you need these things 31 Instead, be concerned with his Kingdom, and he will provide you with these things

(Matt 6 19-21)

32 "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom 33 Sell all your belongings and give the money to the poor Provide for yourselves purses that don't wear out, and save your riches in heaven, where they will never decrease, because no thief can get to them, and no moth can destroy them 34 For your heart will always be where your riches are

Watchful Servants

35 "Be ready for whatever comes, dressed for action and with your lamps lit, 36 like servants who are waiting for their master to come back from a wedding feast When he comes and knocks, they will open the door for him at once 37 How happy are those servants whose master finds them awake and ready when he returns! I tell you, he will take off his coat, ask them to sit down, and will wait on them 38 How happy they are if he finds them ready, even if he should come at midnight or even later! 39 And you can be sure that if the owner of a house knew the time when the thief would come, he would not let the thief break into his house 40 And you, too, must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you are not expecting him "

(Matt 24 45-51)

41 Peter said, "Lord does this parable apply to us, or do you mean it for everyone?" 42 The Lord answered, "Who, then, is the faithful and wise servant? He is the one that his master will put in charge, to run the household and give the other servants their share of the food at the proper time 43 How happy that servant is if his master finds him doing this when he comes home! 44 Indeed, I tell you, the master will put that servant in charge of all his property 45 But if that servant says to himself that his master is taking a long time to come back and if he begins to beat the other servants, both the men and the women, and eats and drinks and gets drunk, 46 then the master will come back one day when the servant does not expect him and at a time he does not know The master will cut him in pieces[r] and make him share the fate of the disobedient 47 "The servant who knows what his master wants him to do, but does not get himself ready and do it, will be punished with a heavy whipping 48 But the servant who does not know what his master wants, and yet does something for which he deserves a whipping, will be punished with a light whipping Much is required from the person to whom much is given, much more is required from the person to whom much more is given

Jesus the Cause of Division
(Matt 10 34-36)

49 "I came to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already kindled! 50 I have a baptism to receive, and how distressed I am until it is over! 51 Do you suppose that I came to bring peace to the world? No, not peace, but division 52 From now on a family of five will be divided, three against two and two against three 53 Fathers will be against their sons, and sons against their fathers, mothers will be against their daughters, and daughters against their mothers, mothers-in-law will be against their daughters-in-law, and daughters-in-law against their mothers-in-law "

Understanding the Time
(Matt 16 2-3)

54 Jesus said also to the people, "When you see a cloud coming up in the west, at once you say that it is going to rain—and it does 55 And when you feel the south wind blowing, you say that it is going to get hot—and it does 56 Hypocrites! You can look at the earth and the sky and predict the weather, why, then, don't you know the meaning of this present time?

Settle with Your Opponent
(Matt 5 25-26)

57 "Why do you not judge for yourselves the right thing to do? 58 If someone brings a lawsuit against you and takes you to court, do your best to settle the dispute with him before you get to court If you don't, he will drag you before the you will stay, I tell you, until you pay the last penny of your fine"

Turn from Your Sins or Die

13 At that time some people were there who told Jesus about the Galileans whom Pilate had killed while they were offering sacrifices to God 2 Jesus answered them, "Because those Galileans were killed in that way, do you think it proves that they were worse sinners than all the other Galileans? 3 No, indeed! And I tell you that if you do not turn from your sins, you will all die as they did 4 What about those eighteen people in Siloam who were killed when the tower fell on them? Do you suppose this proves that they were worse than all the other people living in Jerusalem?
5 No indeed! And I tell you that if you do not turn from your sins, you will all die as they did"

The Parable of the Unfruitful Fig-Tree

6 Then Jesus told them this parable:
"There was once a man who had a fig-tree growing in his vineyard He went looking for figs on it but found none 7 So he said to his gardener, 'Look, for three years I have been coming here looking for figs on this fig-tree, and I haven't found any Cut it down! Why should it go on using up the soil?' 8 But the gardener answered, 'Leave it alone, sir, just one more year, I will dig round it and put in some manure 9 Then if the tree bears figs next year, so much the better, if not, then you can have it cut down'"

Jesus Heals a Crippled Woman on the Sabbath

10 One Sabbath Jesus was teaching in a synagogue 11 A woman there had an evil spirit that had made her ill for eighteen years, she was bent over and could not straighten up at all 12 When Jesus saw her, he called out to her,
"Woman, you are free from your illness!" 13 He placed his hands on her, and at once she straightened herself up and praised
God 14 The official of the synagogue was angry that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, so he spoke up and said to the people, "There are six days in which we should work, so come during those days and be healed, but not on the Sabbath!" 15 The Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Any one of you would untie his ox or his donkey from the stall and take it out to give it water on the Sabbath 16 Now here is this descendant of Abraham whom Satan has kept bound up for eighteen years, should she not be released on the Sabbath?" 17 His answer made his enemies ashamed of themselves, while the people rejoiced over all the wonderful things that he did

(Matt 13 31-32, Mark 4 30-32)

18 Jesus asked, "What is the Kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it with? 19 It is like this A man takes a mustard seed and sows it in his field The plant grows and becomes a tree, and the birds make their nests in its branches"

(Matt 13.33)

20 Again Jesus asked, "What shall I compare the Kingdom of God with? 21 It is like this A woman takes some yeast and mixes it with forty litres of flour until the whole batch of dough rises"

The Narrow Door
(Matt 7 13-14, 21-23)

22 Jesus went through towns and villages, teaching the people and making his way towards Jerusalem 23 Someone asked him, "Sir, will just a few people be saved?"
Jesus answered them, 24 "Do your best to go in through the narrow door, because many people will surely try to go in but will not be able 25 The master of the house will get up and close the door, then when you stand outside and begin to knock on the door and say, 'Open the door for us, sir!' he will answer you, 'I don't know where you come from!' 26 Then you will answer, 'We ate and drank with you, you taught in our town!' 27 But he will say again, 'I don't know where you come from Get away from me, all you wicked people!' 28 How you will cry and grind your teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, while you are thrown out! 29 People will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down at the feast in the Kingdom of God 30 Then those who are now last will be first, and those who are now first

(Matt 23 37-39)

31 At that same time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to him, "You must get out of here and go somewhere else, because Herod wants to kill you " 32 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell that fox 'I am driving out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I shall finish my work ' 33 Yet I must be on my way today, tomorrow, and the next day, it is not right for a prophet to be killed anywhere except in Jerusalem
34 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You kill the prophets, you stone the messengers God has sent you! How many times have I
abandoned I assure you that you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord ' "

Jesus Heals a Sick Man

14 One Sabbath Jesus went to eat a meal at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and people were watching Jesus closely 2 A man whose legs and arms were swollen came to Jesus, 3 and Jesus asked the teachers of the Law and the Pharisees, "Does our Law allow healing on the Sabbath or not?" 4 But they would not say anything Jesus took the man, healed him, and sent him away 5 Then he said to them, "If any one of you had a son or an ox that happened to fall in a well on a Sabbath, would you not pull him out at once on the Sabbath itself?" 6 But they were not able to answer him about this

Humility and Hospitality

7 Jesus noticed how some of the guests were choosing the best places, so he told this parable to all of them 8 "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place It could happen that someone more important than you has been invited, 9 and your host, who invited both of you, would have to come and say to you, 'Let him have this place ' Then you would be embarrassed and have to sit in the lowest place 10 Instead, when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that your host will come to you and say, 'Come on up, my friend, to a better place ' This will bring you honour in the presence of all the other guests 11 For everyone who makes himself great will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be made great " 12 Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your rich neighbours—for they will invite you back, and in this way you will be paid for what you did 13 When you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind, 14 and you will be blessed, because they are not able to pay you back God will repay you on the day the good people rise from death "

The Parable of the Great Feast
(Matt 22 1-10)

15 When one of the men sitting at table heard this, he said to Jesus, "How happy are those who will sit down at the feast in the Kingdom of God!" 16 Jesus said to him, "There was once a man who was giving a great feast to which he invited many people 17 When it was time for the feast, he sent his servant to tell his guests, 'Come, everything is ready!' 18 But they all began, one after another, to make excuses The first one told the servant, 'I have bought a field and must go and look at it, please accept my apologies ' 19 Another one said, 'I have bought five pairs of oxen and am on my way to try them out, please accept my apologies ' 20 Another one said, 'I have just got married, and for that reason I cannot come ' 21 The servant went back and told all this to his master The master was furious and said to his servant, 'Hurry out to the streets and alleys of the town, and bring back the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame ' 22 Soon the servant said, 'Your order has been carried out, sir, but there is room for more ' 23 So the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the country roads and lanes and make people come in, so that my house will be full 24 I tell you all that none of those men who were invited will taste my dinner!' "

The Cost of Being a Disciple
(Matt 10 37-38)

25 Once when large crowds of people were going along with Jesus, he turned and said to them, 26 "Whoever comes to me cannot be my disciple unless he loves me more than he loves his father and his mother, his wife and his children, his brothers and his sisters, and himself as well 27 Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple 28 If one of you is planning to build a tower, he sits down first and works out what it will cost, to see if he has enough money to finish the job 29 If he doesn't, he will not be able to finish the tower after laying the foundation, and all who see what happened will laugh at him 30 'This man began to build but can't finish the job!' they will say 31 If a king goes out with ten thousand men to fight another king who comes against him with twenty thousand men, he will sit down first and decide if he is strong enough to face that other king 32 If he isn't, he will send messengers to meet the other king, to ask for terms of peace while he is still a long way off 33 In the same way," concluded Jesus, "none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up everything he has

Worthless Salt
(Matt 5 13, Mark 9 50)

34 "Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, there is no way to make it salty again 35 It is no good for the soil or for the manure heap, it is thrown away Listen, then, if you have ears!"

The Lost Sheep
(Matt 18 12-14)

15 One day when many tax collectors and other outcasts came to listen to Jesus, 2 the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law started grumbling, "This man welcomes outcasts and even eats with them!" 3 So Jesus told them this parable 4 "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them—what does he do? He leaves the other ninety-nine sheep in the pasture and goes looking for the one that got lost until he finds it 5 When he finds it, he is so happy that he puts it on his shoulders 6 and carries it back home Then he calls his friends and neighbours together and says to them, 'I am so happy I found my lost sheep Let us celebrate!' 7 In the same way, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine respectable people who do not need to repent

The Lost Coin

8 "Or suppose a woman who has ten silver coins loses one of them—what does she do? She lights a lamp, sweeps her house, and looks carefully everywhere until she finds it 9 When she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together, and says to them, 'I am so happy I found the coin I lost Let us celebrate!' 10 In the same way, I tell you, the angels of God rejoice over one sinner who repents"

The Lost Son

11 Jesus went on to say, "There was once a man who had two sons 12 The younger one said to him, 'Father, give me my share of the property now' So the man divided his property between his two sons 13 After a few days the younger son sold his part of the property and left home with the money He went to a country far away, where he wasted his money in reckless living 14 He spent everything he had Then a severe famine spread over that country, and he was left without a thing 15 So he went to work for one of the citizens of that country, who sent him out to his farm to take care of the pigs 16 He wished he could fill himself with the bean pods the pigs ate, but no one gave him anything to eat 17 At last he came to his senses and said, 'All my father's hired workers have more than they can eat, and here I am about to starve! 18 I will get up and go to my father and say, Father, I have sinned against God and against you 19 I am no longer fit to be called your son, treat me as one of your hired workers' 20 So he got up and started back to his father
"He was still a long way from home when his father saw him, his heart was filled with pity, and he ran, threw his arms round his son, and kissed him 21 'Father,' the son said, 'I have sinned against God and against you I am no longer fit to be called your son' 22 But the father called his servants 'Hurry!' he said 'Bring the best robe and put it on him Put a ring on his finger and shoes on his feet 23 Then go and get the prize calf and kill it, and let us celebrate with a feast! 24 For this son

Here I am about to starve! (15 17) of mine was dead, but now he is alive, he was lost, but now he has been found'

And so the feasting began 25 "In the meantime the elder son was out in the field On his way back, when he came close to the house, he heard the music and dancing [26] So he called one of the servants and asked him, 'What's going on?' [27] 'Your brother has come back home,' the servant answered, 'and your father has killed the prize calf, because he got him back safe and sound' 28 The elder brother was so angry that he would not go into the house, so his father came out and begged him to come in [29] But he answered his father, 'Look, all these years I have worked for you like a slave, and I have never disobeyed your orders What have you given me? Not even a goat for me to have a feast with my friends! [30] But this son of yours wasted all your property on prostitutes, and when he comes back home, you kill the prize calf for him!' [31] 'My son,' the father answered, 'you are always here with me, and everything I have is yours [32] But we had to celebrate and be happy, because your brother was dead, but now he is alive, he was lost, but now he has been found'"

The Shrewd Manager

16 Jesus said to his disciples, "There was once a rich man who had a servant who managed his property The rich man was told that the manager was wasting his master's money, [2] so he called him in and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Hand in a complete account of your handling of my property, because you cannot be my manager any longer' [3] The servant said to himself, 'My Master is going to dismiss me from my job What shall I do? I am not strong enough to dig ditches, and I am ashamed to beg, [4] Now I know what I will do! Then when my job is gone, I shall have friends who will welcome me in their homes' 5 So he called in all the people who were in debt to his master He asked the first one, 'How much do you owe my master?' [6] 'One hundred barrels of olive-oil,' he answered 'Here is your account,' the manager told him, 'sit down and write fifty' [7] Then he asked another one, 'And you—how much do you owe?' 'A

But now he is alive (15 32) thousand sacks of wheat,' he answered.

'Here is your account,' the manager told him, 'write eight hundred.' 8 As a result the master of this dishonest manager praised him for doing such a shrewd thing; because the people of this world are much more shrewd in handling their affairs than the people who belong to the light." 9 And Jesus went on to say, "And so I tell you: make friends for yourselves with worldly wealth, so that when it gives out, you will be welcomed in the eternal home. 10 Whoever is faithful in small matters will be faithful in large ones; whoever is dishonest in small matters will be dishonest in large ones. 11 If, then, you have not been faithful in handling worldly wealth, how can you be trusted with true wealth? 12 And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what belongs to
you?
13 "No servant can be the slave of two masters; he will hate one and love the
money."

Some Sayings of Jesus

(Matt. 11.12-13; 5.31-32; Mark 10.11-12)

14 When the Pharisees heard all this, they sneered at Jesus, because they loved money. 15 Jesus said to them, "You are the ones who make yourselves look right in other people's sight, but God knows your hearts. For the things that are considered of great value by man are worth nothing in God's sight.
16 "The Law of Moses and the writings of the prophets were in effect up to the time of John the Baptist; since then the Good News about the Kingdom of God is being told, and everyone forces his way in. 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest detail of the Law to be done away with.
18 "Any man who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery; and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19 "There was once a rich man who dressed in the most expensive clothes and lived in great luxury every day. 20 There was also a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who used to be brought to the rich man's door, 21 hoping to eat the bits of food that fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs would come and lick his sores.
22 The poor man died and was carried by the angels to sit beside Abraham at the feast in heaven. The rich man died and was buried, 23 and in Hades,[s] where he was in great pain, he looked up and saw Abraham, far away, with Lazarus at his side. 24 So he called out, 'Father Abraham! Take pity on me, and send Lazarus to dip his finger in some water and cool my tongue, because I am in great pain in this fire!' 25 But Abraham said, 'Remember, my son, that in your lifetime you were given all the good things, while Lazarus got all the bad things. But now he is enjoying himself here, while you are in pain.
26 Besides all that, there is a deep pit lying between us, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot do so, nor can anyone cross over to us from where you are.' 27 The rich man said, 'Then I beg you, father Abraham, send Lazarus to my father's house, 28 where I have five brothers. Let him go and warn them so that they, at least, will not come to this place of pain.' 29 Abraham said, 'Your brothers have Moses and the prophets to warn them; your brothers should listen to what they say.' 30 The rich man answered, 'That is not enough, father Abraham! But if someone were to rise from death and go to them, then they would turn from their sins.' 31 But Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone were to rise from death.'"

Sin

(Matt. 18.6-7, 21-22; Mark 9.42)

17 Jesus said to his disciples, "Things that make people fall into sin are bound to happen, but how terrible for the one who makes them happen! 2 It would be better for him if a large millstone were tied round his neck and he were thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to sin. 3 So watch what you do!
"If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him. 4 If he sins against you seven times in one day, and each time he comes to you saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him "

Faith

5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Make our faith greater " 6 The Lord answered, "If you had faith as big as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Pull yourself up by the roots and plant yourself in the sea!' and it would obey you

A Servant's Duty

7 "Suppose one of you has a servant who is ploughing or looking after the sheep When he comes in from the field, do you tell him to hurry and eat his meal?
8 Of course not! Instead, you say to him, 'Get my supper ready, then put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink, after that you may have your meal ' 9 The servant does not deserve thanks for obeying orders, does he? 10 It is the same with you, when you have done all you have been told to do, say, 'We are ordinary servants, we have only done our duty ' "

Jesus Heals Ten Men

11 As Jesus made his way to Jerusalem, he went along the border between Samaria and Galilee 12 He was going into a village when he was met by ten men suffering from a dreaded skin-disease They stood at a distance 13 and shouted, "Jesus! Master! Take pity on us!" 14 Jesus saw them and said to them, "Go and let the priests examine you " On the way they were made clean [t] 15 When one of them saw that he was healed, he came back, praising God in a loud voice 16 He threw himself to the ground at Jesus' feet and thanked him The man was a Samaritan 17 Jesus said, "There were ten men who were healed, where are the other nine? 18 Why is this foreigner the only one who came back to give thanks to God?" 19 And Jesus said to him, "Get up and go, your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom
(Matt. 24.23-28, 37-41)

20 Some Pharisees asked Jesus when the Kingdom of God would come His answer was, "The Kingdom of God does not come in such a way as to be seen 21 No one will say, 'Look, here it is!' or, 'There it is!', because the Kingdom of God is within you " [u] 22 Then he said to the disciples, "The time will come when you will wish you could see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it 23 There will be those who will say to you, 'Look, over there!' or, 'Look, over here!' But don't go out looking for it 24 As the lightning flashes across the sky and lights it up from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day 25 But first he must suffer much and be rejected by the people of this day 26 As it was in the time of Noah so shall it be in the days of the Son of Man 27 Everybody kept on eating and drinking, and men and women married, up to the very day Noah went into the boat and the flood came and killed them all 28 It will be as it was in the time of Lot Everybody kept on eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building 29 On the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulphur rained down from heaven and killed them all 30 That is how it will be on the day the Son of Man is revealed 31 "On that day the man who is on the roof of his house must not go down into the house to get his belongings, in the same way the man who is out in the field must not go back to the house 32 Remember Lot's wife! 33 Whoever tries to save his own life will lose it, whoever loses his life will save it. 34 On that night, I tell you, there will be two people sleeping in the same bed: one will be taken away, the other will be left behind 35 Two women will be grinding corn together. one will be taken away, the other will be left behind " [v] 37 The disciples asked him, "Where,
Lord?" Jesus answered, "Wherever there is a dead body, the vultures will gather "

The Parable of the Widow and the Judge

18 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to teach them that they should always pray and never become discouraged 2 "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man 3 And there was a widow in that same town who kept coming to him and pleading for her rights, saying, 'Help me against my opponent!' [4]For a long time the judge refused to act, but at last he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or respect man, [5]yet because of all the trouble this widow is giving me, I will see to it that she gets her rights If I don't, she will keep on coming and finally wear me out!'" 6 And the Lord continued, "Listen to what that corrupt judge said [7]Now, will God not judge in favour of his own people who cry to him day and night for help?

Will he be slow to help them? [8]I tell you, he will judge in their favour and do it quickly But will the Son of Man find faith on earth when he comes?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 Jesus also told this parable to people who were sure of their own goodness and despised everybody else [10]"Once there were two men who went up to the Temple to pray one was a Pharisee, the other a tax collector 11 The Pharisee stood apart by himself and prayed,[w] 'I thank you, God, that I am not greedy, dishonest, or an adulterer, like everybody else I thank you that I am not like that tax collector over there [12]I fast two days a week, and I give you a tenth of all my income ' 13 But the tax collector stood at a distance and would not even raise his face to heaven, but beat on his breast and said, 'God, have pity on me, a sinner!' [14]I tell you," said Jesus, "the tax collector, and not the Pharisee, was in the right with God when he went home For everyone who makes himself great will be humbled, [w] stood apart by himself and prayed, some manuscripts have stood up and prayed to himself and everyone who humbles himself will be made great."

Jesus Blesses Little Children
(Matt. 19.13-15; Mark 10.13-16)

15 Some people brought their babies to Jesus for him to place his hands on them.
The disciples saw them and scolded them for doing so, 16 but Jesus called the children to him and said, "Let the children come to me and do not stop them, because the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 17 Remember this! Whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it."

(Matt. 19.16-30; Mark 10.17-31)

18 A Jewish leader asked Jesus, "Good Teacher, what must I do to receive eternal life?"
19 "Why do you call me good?" Jesus asked him. "No one is good except God
alone. 20 You know the commandments:
'Do not commit adultery; do not commit murder; do not steal; do not accuse anyone falsely; respect your father and your mother.'" 21 The man replied, "Ever since I was young, I have obeyed all these commandments." 22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "There is still one more thing you need to do. Sell all you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven; then come and follow me." 23 But when the man heard this, he became very sad, because he was very rich.
24 Jesus saw that he was sad and said, "How hard it is for rich people to enter the Kingdom of God! 25 It is much harder for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God than for a camel to go through the eye of a needle." 26 The people who heard him asked, "Who, then, can be saved?" 27 Jesus answered, "What is impossible for man is possible for God." 28 Then Peter said, "Look! We have left our homes to follow you."
assure you that anyone who leaves home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the Kingdom of God 30 will receive much more in this present age and eternal life in the age to come."

18.20 Ex 20.12-16; Deut 5.16-20

Jesus Speaks a Third Time about His Death
(Matt. 20.17-19; Mark 10.32-34)

31 Jesus took the twelve disciples aside and said to them, "Listen! We are going to Jerusalem where everything the prophets wrote about the Son of Man will come true. 32 He will be handed over to the Gentiles, who will mock him, insult him, and spit on him. 33 They will whip him and kill him, but three days later he will rise to life." 34 But the disciples did not understand any of these things; the meaning of the words was hidden from them, and they did not know what Jesus was talking about.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar
(Matt. 20.29-34; Mark 10.46-52)

35 As Jesus was coming near Jericho, there was a blind man sitting by the road, begging. 36 When he heard the crowd passing by, he asked, "What is this?" 37 "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by," they told him.
38 He cried out, "Jesus! Son of David!
Take pity on me!" 39 The people in front scolded him and
on me!" 40 So Jesus stopped and ordered the blind man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, 41 "What do you want me to do for you?"
"Sir," he answered, "I want to see
again." 42 Jesus said to him, "Then see! Your faith has made you well." 43 At once he was able to see, and he followed Jesus, giving thanks to God.
When the crowd saw it, they all praised
God.

Jesus and Zacchaeus

19 Jesus went on into Jericho and was passing through. 2 There was a chief tax collector there named Zacchaeus, who was rich. 3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, but he was a little man and could not see Jesus because of the crowd. 4 So he ran ahead of the crowd and climbed a sycomore tree to see Jesus, who was going to pass that way. 5 When Jesus came to that place, he looked up and said to Zacchaeus, "Hurry down,

He could not see Jesus because of the crowd (19 3) Zacchaeus, because I must stay in your house today " 6 Zacchaeus hurried down and welcomed him with great joy 7 All the people who saw it started grumbling, "This man has gone as a guest to the home of a sinner!" 8 Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Listen, sir! I will give half my belongings to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone, I will pay him back four times as much " 9 Jesus said to him, "Salvation has come to this house today, for this man, also, is a descendant of Abraham 10 The Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost "

The Parable of the Gold Coins
(Matt. 25 14-30)

11 While the people were listening to this, Jesus continued and told them a parable He was now almost at Jerusalem, and they supposed that the Kingdom of God was just about to appear 12 So he said, "There was once a man of high rank who was going to a country far away to be made king, after which he planned to come back home 13 Before he left, he called his ten servants and gave them each a gold coin and told them, 'See what you can earn with this while I am gone' 14 Now, his countrymen hated him, and so they sent messengers after him to say, 'We don't want this man to be our king' 15 "The man was made king and came back At once he ordered his servants to appear before him, in order to find out how much they had earned 16 The first one came and said, 'Sir, I have earned ten gold coins with the one you gave me' 17 'Well done,' he said, 'you are a good servant! Since you were faithful in small matters, I will put you in charge of ten cities' 18 The second servant came and said, 'Sir, I have earned five gold coins with the one you gave me' 19 To this one

19 10 Mt 18 11 19 11-27 Mt 25 14-30 he said, 'You will be in charge of five cities.'

20 Another servant came and said, 'Sir, here is your gold coin; I kept it hidden in a handkerchief. [21]I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take what is not yours and reap what you did not sow.' [22]He said to him, 'You bad servant! I will use your own words to condemn you! You know that I am a hard man, taking what is not mine and reaping what I have not sown. [23]Well, then, why didn't you put my money in the bank?
Then I would have received it back with interest when I returned.' 24 Then he said to those who were standing there, 'Take the gold coin away from him and give it to the servant who has ten coins.' [25]But they said to him, 'Sir, he already has ten coins!' [26]'I tell you,' he replied, 'that to every person who has something, even more will be given; but the person who has nothing, even the little that he has will be taken away from him. [27]Now, as for those enemies of mine who did not want me to be their king, bring them here and kill them in my presence!'"

The Triumphant Approach to Jerusalem
(Matt. 21.1-11; Mark 11.1-11; John 12.12-19)

28 Jesus said this and then went on to Jerusalem ahead of them. [29]As he came near Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, he sent two disciples ahead [30]with these instructions: "Go to the village there ahead of you; as you go in, you will find a colt tied up that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here.
[31]If someone asks you why you are untying it, tell him that the Master[v] needs
it."
32 They went on their way and found everything just as Jesus had told them.
[33]As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying it?" 34 "The Master needs it," they answered, [35]and they took the colt to Jesus.
Then they threw their cloaks over the animal and helped Jesus get on. [36]As he rode on, people spread their cloaks on the road.
37 When he came near Jerusalem, at the place where the road went down the Mount of Olives, the large crowd of his disciples began to thank God and praise him in loud voices for all the great things that they had seen: [38]"God bless the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory to God!" 39 Then some of the Pharisees in the crowd spoke to Jesus. "Teacher," they said, "command your disciples to be quiet!" 40 Jesus answered, "I tell you that if they keep quiet, the stones themselves will start shouting."

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

41 He came closer to the city, and when he saw it, he wept over it, [42]saying, "If you only knew today what is needed for peace! But now you cannot see it! [43]The time will come when your enemies will surround you with barricades, blockade you, and close in on you from every side.
[44]They will completely destroy you and the people within your walls; not a single stone will they leave in its place, because you did not recognize the time when God came to save you!"

(Matt. 21.12-17; Mark 11.15-19; John 2.13-22)

45 Then Jesus went into the Temple and began to drive out the merchants, [46]saying to them, "It is written in the Scriptures that God said, 'My Temple will be called a house of prayer.' But you have turned it into a hideout for thieves!" 47 Every day Jesus taught in the Temple. The chief priests, the teachers of the Law, and the leaders of the people wanted to kill him, [48]but they could not find a way to do it, because all the people kept listening to him, not wanting to miss a single word.

The Question about Jesus' Authority
(Matt. 21.23-27; Mark 11.27-33)

20 One day when Jesus was in the Temple teaching the people and preaching the Good News, the chief priests and the teachers of the Law, together with the elders, came [2]and said to him, "Tell us, what right have you to do these things? Who gave you this right?"
3 Jesus answered them, "Now let me ask you a question. Tell me, [4]did John's right to baptize come from God or from
man?"

[v]the Master; or its owner.
19.26 Mt 13.12; Mk 4.25; Lk 8.18 19.38 Ps 118.26 19.46 Is 56.7; Jer 7.11
19.47 Lk 21.37

5 They started to argue among themselves, "What shall we say? If we say,
'From God,' he will say, 'Why, then, did you not believe John?' 6 But if we say
'From man,' this whole crowd here will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet" 7 So they answered, "We don't know where it came from" 8 And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you, then, by what right I do these things"

The Parable of the Tenants in the Vineyard
(Matt 21 33-46, Mark 12 1-12)

9 Then Jesus told the people this parable "There was once a man who planted a vineyard, let it out to tenants, and then left home for a long time 10 When the time came to gather the grapes, he sent a slave to the tenants to receive from them his share of the harvest But the tenants beat the slave and sent him back without a thing 11 So he sent another slave, but the tenants beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him back without a thing 12 Then he sent a third slave, the tenants wounded him, too, and threw him out 13 Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my own dear son, surely they will respect him!' 14 But when the tenants saw him, they said to one another, 'This is the owner's son Let's kill him, and his property will be ours!' 15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him
"What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to the tenants?" Jesus asked 16 "He will come and kill those men, and hand the vineyard over to other tenants" When the people heard this, they said, "Surely not!"
17 Jesus looked at them and asked,
"What, then, does this scripture mean?

as worthless
of all'

18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be cut to pieces, and if that stone falls on someone, it will crush him to dust"

The Question about Paying Taxes
(Matt 22 15-22, Mark 12 13-17)

19 The teachers of the Law and the chief priests tried to arrest Jesus on the spot, because they knew that he had told this parable against them, but they were afraid of the people 20 So they looked for an opportunity They bribed some men to pretend they were sincere, and they sent them to trap Jesus with questions, so that they could hand him over to the authority and power of the Roman Governor 21 These spies said to Jesus, "Teacher, we know that what you say and teach is right We know that you pay no attention to a man's status, but teach the truth about God's will for man 22 Tell us, is it against our Law for us to pay taxes to the Roman Emperor, or not?"
23 But Jesus saw through their trick and said to them, 24 "Show me a silver coin Whose face and name are these on
it?"
"The Emperor's," they answered 25 So Jesus said, "Well, then, pay the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor,
and pay God what belongs to God" 26 There before the people they could not catch him out in anything, so they kept quiet, amazed at his answer

The Question about Rising from Death
(Matt 22 23-33, Mark 12 18-27)

27 Then some Sadducees, who say that
people will not rise from death, came to Jesus and said, 28 "Teacher, Moses wrote
this law for us 'If a man dies and leaves
died without having children 30 Then the second one married the woman, 31 and then the third The same thing happened to all seven—they died without having children 32 Last of all, the woman died 33 Now, on the day when the dead rise to life, whose wife will she be? All seven of them had married her" 34 Jesus answered them, "The men and women of this age marry, 35 but the men and women who are worthy to rise from death and live in the age to come will not then marry 36 They will be like angels and cannot die They are the sons of God, because they have risen from death 37 And Moses clearly proves that the dead are raised to life In the passage about the burning bush he speaks of the Lord as 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob' 38 He is the God of the living, not of the dead, for to him all are alive" 39 Some of the teachers of the Law

20 9 Is 5 1 20.17 Ps 118 22 20 27 Acts 23 8 20 28 Deut 25 5 20 37 Ex 3 6 spoke up, "A good answer, Teacher!" 40 For they did not dare ask him any more questions

The Question about the Messiah
(Matt 22 41-46, Mark 12 35-37)

41 Jesus asked them, "How can it be said that the Messiah will be the descendant of David? 42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord
Sit here on my right 43 until I put your enemies as a footstool under your feet ' 44 David called him 'Lord', how, then, can the Messiah be David's descendant?"

Jesus Warns against the Teachers of the Law
(Matt 23 1-36, Mark 12 38-40)

45 As all the people listened to him, Jesus said to his disciples, 46 "Be on your guard against the teachers of the Law, who like to walk about in their long robes and love to be greeted with respect in the market-place, who choose the reserved seats in the synagogues and the best places at feasts, 47 who take advantage of widows and rob them of their homes, and then make a show of saying long prayers! Their punishment will be all the worse!"

(Mark 12 41-44)

21 Jesus looked round and saw rich men dropping their gifts in the temple treasury, 2 and he also saw a very poor widow dropping in two little copper coins 3 He said, "I tell you that this poor widow put in more than all the others 4 For the others offered their gifts from what they had to spare of their riches, but she, poor as she is, gave all she had to live on "

Jesus Speaks of the Destruction of the Temple
(Matt 24 1-2, Mark 13 1-2)

5 Some of the disciples were talking about the Temple, how beautiful it looked with its fine stones and the gifts offered to God Jesus said, 6 "All this you see—the time will come when not a single stone here will be left in its place, every one will be thrown down "

(Matt 24 3-14, Mark 13 3-13)

7 "Teacher," they asked, "when will this be? And what will happen in order to show that the time has come for it to take place?" 8 Jesus said, "Be on guard, don't be deceived Many men, claiming to speak for me, will come and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time has come!' But don't follow them 9 Don't be afraid when you hear of wars and revolutions, such things must happen first, but they do not mean that the end is near " 10 He went on to say, "Countries will fight each other, kingdoms will attack one another 11 There will be terrible earthquakes, famines, and plagues everywhere, there will be strange and terrifying things coming from the sky 12 Before all these things take place, however, you will be arrested and persecuted, you will be handed over to be tried in synagogues and be put in prison, you will be brought before kings and rulers for my sake 13 This will be your chance to tell the Good News 14 Make up your minds beforehand not to worry about how you will defend yourselves, 15 because I will give you such words and wisdom that none of your enemies will be able to refute or contradict what you say 16 You will be handed over by your parents, your brothers, your relatives, and your friends, and some of you will be put to death 17 Everyone will hate you because of me 18 But not a single hair from your heads will be lost 19 Stand firm, and you will save yourselves

Jesus Speaks of the Destruction of Jerusalem
(Matt 24 15-21, Mark 13 14-19)

20 "When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you will know that she will soon be destroyed 21 Then those who are in Judaea must run away to the hills, those who are in the city must leave, and those who are out in the country must not go into the city 22 For those will be 'The Days of Punishment,' to make all that the Scriptures say come true 23 How terrible it will be in those days for women who are pregnant and for mothers with little babies! Terrible distress will come upon this land, and God's punishment will fall on this people 24 Some will be killed by the sword, and others will be taken as prisoners to all 20 42-43 Ps 110 1 21 14-15 Lk 12 11-12 21 22 Hos 9 7 countries, and the heathen will trample over Jerusalem until their time is up

(Matt 24 29-31, Mark 13 24-27)

25 "There will be strange things happening to the sun, the moon, and the stars On earth whole countries will be in despair, afraid of the roar of the sea and the raging tides 26 People will faint from fear as they wait for what is coming over the whole earth, for the powers in space will be driven from their courses 27 Then the Son of Man will appear, coming in a cloud with great power and glory 28 When these things begin to happen, stand up and raise your heads, because your salvation is near "

The Lesson of the Fig-Tree
(Matt 24 32-35, Mark 13 28-31)

29 Then Jesus told them this parable
"Think of the fig-tree and all the other trees 30 When you see their leaves beginning to appear, you know that summer is near 31 In the same way, when you see these things happening, you will know that the Kingdom of God is about to come

32 "Remember that all these things will take place before the people now living have all died 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away

The Need to Watch

34 "Be on your guard! Don't let yourselves become occupied with too much feasting and drinking and with the worries of this life, or that Day may suddenly catch you 35 like a trap For it will come upon all people everywhere on earth 36 Be on the alert and pray always that you will have the strength to go safely through all those things that will happen and to stand before the Son of Man " 37 Jesus spent those days teaching in the Temple, and when evening came, he would go out and spend the night on the Mount of Olives 38 Early each morning all the people went to the Temple to listen

to him

(Matt 26 1-5, Mark 14 1-2, John 11 45-53)

22 The time was near for the Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover 2 The chief priests and the teachers of the Law were afraid of the people, and so they were trying to find a way of putting Jesus to death secretly

(Matt 26 14-16, Mark 14 10-11)

3 Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve disciples 4 So Judas went off and spoke with the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard about how he could betray Jesus to them 5 They were pleased and offered to pay him money 6 Judas agreed to it and started looking for a good chance to hand Jesus over to them without the people knowing about it

Jesus Prepares to Eat the Passover Meal
(Matt 26 17-25, Mark 14 12-21, John 13 21-30)

7 The day came during the Festival of Unleavened Bread when the lambs for the Passover meal were to be killed 8 Jesus sent off Peter and John with these instructions "Go and get the Passover meal ready for us to eat " 9 "Where do you want us to get it ready?" they asked him

10 He answered, "As you go into the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you Follow him into the house that he enters, 11 and say to the owner of the house 'The Teacher says to you, Where is the room where my disciples and I will eat the Passover meal?' 12 He will show you a large furnished room upstairs, where you will get everything ready "

13 They went off and found everything just as Jesus had told them, and they prepared the Passover meal

The Lord's Supper
(Matt 26 26-30, Mark 14 22-26, 1 Cor 11 23-25)

14 When the hour came, Jesus took his place at the table with the apostles 15 He said to them, "I have wanted so much to eat this Passover meal with you before I suffer! 16 For I tell you, I will never eat it until it is given its full meaning in the Kingdom of God "

17 Then Jesus took a cup, gave thanks to God, and said, "Take this and share it among yourselves 18 I tell you that from 21 25 Is 13 10, Ezek 32 7, Joel 2 31, Rev 6 12-13 21 27 Dan 7 13, Rev 1 7 21 37 Lk 19 47 now on I will not drink this wine until the Kingdom of God comes " 19 Then he took a piece of bread, gave thanks to God, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you Do this in memory of me" 20 In the same way, he gave them the cup after the supper, saying, "This cup is God's new covenant sealed with my blood, which is poured out for you [y] 21 "But, look! The one who betrays me is here at the table with me! 22 The Son of Man will die as God has decided, but how terrible for that man who betrays

him!" 23 Then they began to ask among themselves which one of them it could be who was going to do this

The Argument about Greatness

disciples as to which one of them should be thought of as the greatest 25 Jesus said to them, "The kings of the pagans have power over their people, and the rulers are called 'Friends of the People' 26 But this is not the way it is with you, rather, the greatest one among you must be like the youngest, and the leader must be like the servant 27 Who is greater, the one who sits down to eat or the one who serves him? The one who sits down, of course But I am among you as one who serves 28 "You have stayed with me all through my trials, 29 and just as my Father has given me the right to rule, so I will give you the same right 30 You will eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom, and you will sit on thrones to rule over the twelve tribes of Israel

(Matt 26 31–35, Mark 14 27–31, John 13 36–38)

31 "Simon, Simon! Listen! Satan has received permission to test all of you, to separate the good from the bad, as a farmer separates the wheat from the chaff 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail And when you turn back to me, you must strengthen your brothers" 33 Peter answered, "Lord, I am ready to go to prison with you and to die with
you!" 34 "I tell you, Peter," Jesus said, "the cock will not crow tonight until you have said three times that you do not know
me"

Purse, Bag, and Sword

35 Then Jesus asked his disciples, "When I sent you out that time without purse, bag, or shoes, did you lack anything?"
"Not a thing," they answered 36 "But now," Jesus said, "whoever has a purse or a bag must take it, and whoever has no sword must sell his coat and buy one 37 For I tell you that the scripture which says, 'He shared the fate of criminals,' must come true about me, because what was written about me is coming true" 38 The disciples said, "Look! Here are two swords, Lord!"
"That is enough!" [z] he replied

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

(Matt 26 36–46, Mark 14 32–42)

39 Jesus left the city and went, as he usually did, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples went with him 40 When he arrived at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you will not fall into temptation" 41 Then he went off from them about the distance of a stone's throw and knelt down and prayed 42 "Father," he said, "if you will, take this cup of suffering away from me Not my will, however, but your will be done" 43 An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him 44 In great anguish he prayed even more fervently, his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground [a] 45 Rising from his prayer, he went back to the disciples and found them asleep, worn out by their grief 46 He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you will not fall into temptation"

(Matt 26 47–56, Mark 14 43–50, John 18 3–11)

47 Jesus was still speaking when a crowd arrived, led by Judas, one of the twelve disciples He came up to Jesus to kiss him 48 But Jesus said, "Judas, is it with a kiss that you betray the Son of Man?" 49 When the disciples who were with Jesus saw what was going to happen, they asked, "Shall we use our swords, Lord?" 50 And one of them struck the High Priest's slave and cut off his right ear.

51 But Jesus said, "Enough of this!"
He touched the man's ear and healed him.
52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard and the elders who had come there to get him,
"Did you have to come with swords and clubs, as though I were an outlaw? 53 I was with you in the Temple every day, and you did not try to arrest me. But this is your hour to act, when the power of darkness rules."

54 They arrested Jesus and took him away into the house of the High Priest; and Peter followed at a distance. 55 A fire had been lit in the centre of the courtyard, and Peter joined those who were sitting round it. 56 When one of the servant girls saw him sitting there at the fire, she looked straight at him and said, "This man too was with Jesus!" 57 But Peter denied it. "Woman, I don't even know him!"
58 After a little while a man noticed Peter and said, "You are one of them, too!"
But Peter answered, "Man, I am not!" 59 And about an hour later another man insisted strongly, "There isn't any doubt that this man was with Jesus, because he also is a Galilean!" 60 But Peter answered, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!"
At once, while he was still speaking, a cock crowed. 61 The Lord turned round and looked straight at Peter, and Peter remembered that the Lord had said to him, "Before the cock crows tonight, you will say three times that you do not know me." 62 Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Is Mocked and Beaten

(Matt 26.67-68; Mark 14.65)

63 The men who were guarding Jesus mocked him and beat him. 64 They blindfolded him and asked him, "Who hit you? Guess!" 65 And they said many other insulting things to him.

Jesus Is Brought Before the Council

66 When day came, the elders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law met together, and Jesus was brought before the Council. 67 "Tell us," they said, "are you the Messiah?" He answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me, 68 and if I ask you a question, you will not answer. 69 But from now on the Son of Man will be seated on the right of Almighty God." 70 They all said, "Are you, then, the Son of God?"

He answered them, "You say that I am." 71 And they said, "We don't need any witnesses! We ourselves have heard what he said!"

Jesus Is Brought Before Pilate
(Matt. 27.1-2, 11-14; Mark 15.1-5;
John 18.28-38)

23 The whole group rose up and took Jesus before Pilate, 2 where they began to accuse him: "We caught this man misleading our people, telling them not to pay taxes to the Emperor and claiming that he himself is the Messiah, a king."
3 Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"
"So you say," answered Jesus.
4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no reason to condemn this man." 5 But they insisted even more strongly, "With his teaching he is starting a riot among the people all through Judaea. He began in Galilee and now has come here."

Jesus Is Sent to Herod

6 When Pilate heard this, he asked, "Is this man a Galilean?" 7 When he learnt that Jesus was from the region ruled by Herod, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. 8 Herod was very pleased when he saw Jesus, because he had heard about him and had been wanting to see him for a long time.
He was hoping to see Jesus perform some miracle. 9 So Herod asked Jesus many questions, but Jesus made no answer.
10 The chief priests and the teachers of the Law stepped forward and made strong accusations against Jesus. 11 Herod and his soldiers mocked Jesus and treated him with contempt; then they put a fine robe on him and sent him back to Pilate. 12 On that very day Herod and Pilate became friends; before this they had been enemies.

Jesus Is Sentenced to Death
John 18.39-19.16)

13 Pilate called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, 14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me and said that he was misleading the people. Now, I have examined him here in your presence, and I have not found him guilty of any of the crimes you accuse him of. 15 Nor did Herod find him guilty, for he sent him back to us. There is nothing this man has done to deserve death. 16 So I will have him whipped and let him go."[b] 18 The whole crowd cried out, "Kill him! Set Barabbas free for us!" (19 Bar-abbas had been put in prison for a riot that had taken place in the city, and for murder.) 20 Pilate wanted to set Jesus free, so he appealed to the crowd again. 21 But they shouted back, "Crucify him! Crucify
him!"
22 Pilate said to them the third time, "But what crime has he committed? I cannot find he has done anything to deserve death! I will have him whipped and set him free." 23 But they kept on shouting at the top of their voices that Jesus should be crucified, and finally their shouting succeeded. 24 So Pilate passed the sentence on Jesus that they were asking for.
25 He set free the man they wanted, the one who had been put in prison for riot and murder, and he handed Jesus over for them to do as they wished.

(Matt. 27.32-44; Mark 15.21-32; John 19.17-27)

26 The soldiers led Jesus away, and as they were going, they met a man from Cyrene named Simon who was coming into the city from the country. They seized him, put the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus.
27 A large crowd of people followed him; among them were some women who were weeping and wailing for him. 28 Jesus turned to them and said, "Women of Jerusalem! Don't cry for me, but for yourselves and your children. 29 For the days are coming when people will say, 'How lucky are the women who never had children, who never bore babies, who [b] Some manuscripts add verse 17: At every Passover Festival Pilate had to set free one prisoner for them (see Mk 15.6).

They put the cross on him, and made him carry it (23 26) never nursed them!' 30 That will be the time when people will say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Hide us!' 31 For if such things as these are done when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?" 32 Two other men, both of them criminals, were also led out to be put to death with Jesus 33 When they came to the place called "The Skull," they crucified Jesus there, and the two criminals, one on his right and the other on his left 34 Jesus said, "Forgive them, Father! They don't know what they are doing "[c]

They divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice 35 The people stood there watching while the Jewish leaders jeered at him "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the Messiah whom God has chosen!" 36 The soldiers also mocked him they came up to him and offered him cheap wine, 37 and said, "Save yourself if you are the king of the Jews!" 38 Above him were written these words "This is the King of the Jews " 39 One of the criminals hanging there hurled insults at him "Aren't you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" 40 The other one, however, rebuked him, saying "Don't you fear God? You received the same sentence he did 41 Ours, however, is only right, because we are getting what we deserve for what we did, but he has done no wrong " 42 And he said to Jesus, "Remember me, Jesus, when you come as King!" 43 Jesus said to him, "I promise you that today you will be in Paradise with
me "

(Matt 27 45-56, Mark 15 33-41, John 19 28-30)

44 It was about twelve o'clock when the sun stopped shining and darkness covered the whole country until three o'clock, 45 and the curtain hanging in the Temple was torn in two 46 Jesus cried out

Father! In your hands I place my spirit! (23 46) in a loud voice, "Father! In your hands I place my spirit!" He said this and died 47 The army officer saw what had happened, and he praised God, saying, 48 When the people who had gathered there to watch the spectacle saw what happened, they all went back home, beating their breasts in sorrow 49 All those who knew Jesus personally, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance to watch

(Matt 27 57–61, Mark 15 42–47, John 10 38–42)

50–51 There was a man named Joseph from Arimathea, a town in Judaea He was a good and honourable man, who was waiting for the coming of the Kingdom of God Although he was a member of the Council, he had not agreed with their decision and action 52 He went into the presence of Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus 53 Then he took the body down, wrapped it in a linen sheet, and placed it in a tomb which had been dug out of solid rock and which had never been used 54 It was Friday, and the Sabbath was about to begin 55 The women who had followed Jesus from Galilee went with Joseph and saw the tomb and how Jesus' body was placed in it 56 Then they went back home and prepared the spices and perfumes for the body
On the Sabbath they rested, as the Law commanded

(Matt. 28 1–10, Mark 16 1–8, John 20 1–10)

24 Very early on Sunday morning the women went to the tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared 2 They found the stone rolled away from the entrance to the tomb, 3 so they went in, but they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus 4 They stood there puzzled about this, when suddenly two men in bright shining clothes stood by them 5 Full of fear, the women bowed down to the ground, as the men said to them, "Why are you looking among the dead for one who is alive? 6 He is not here, he has been raised Remember what he said to you while he was in Galilee 7 'The Son of Man must be handed over to sinful men, be crucified, and three days later rise to life'" 8 Then the women remembered his words, 9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven disciples and all the rest 10 The women were Mary of James, they and the other women with them told these things to the apostles 11 But the apostles thought that what the women said was nonsense, and they did not believe them 12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb, he bent down and saw the linen wrappings but nothing else Then he went back home amazed at what had happened [d]

The Walk to Emmaus
(Mark 16 12–13)

13 On that same day two of Jesus' followers were going to a village named Emmaus, about eleven kilometres from Jerusalem, 14 and they were talking to each other about all the things that had happened 15 As they talked and discussed, Jesus himself drew near and walked along with them, 16 they saw him, but somehow did not recognize him 17 Jesus said to them, "What are you talking about to each other, as you walk along?" They stood still, with sad faces 18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only visitor in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things that have been happening there these last few days?" 19 "What things?" he asked "The things that happened to Jesus of Nazareth," they answered "This man was a prophet and was considered by God and by all the people to be powerful in everything he said and did 20 Our chief priests and rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and he was crucified

As he was blessing them (24 51)

[21]And we had hoped that he would be the one who was going to set Israel free!
Besides all that, this is now the third day since it happened [22]Some of the women of our group surprised us, they went at dawn to the tomb, [23]but could not find his body They came back saying they had seen a vision of angels who told them that he is alive [24]Some of our group went to the tomb and found it exactly as the women had said, but they did not see
him" 25 Then Jesus said to them, "How foolish you are, how slow you are to believe everything the prophets said!
[26]Was it not necessary for the Messiah to suffer these things and then to enter his glory?" [27]And Jesus explained to them what was said about himself in all the Scriptures, beginning with the books of Moses and the writings of all the prophets 28 As they came near the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther, [29]but they held him back, saying, "Stay with us, the day is almost over and it is getting dark" So he went in to stay with them [30]He sat down to eat with them, took the bread, and said the blessing, then he broke the bread and gave it to them [31]Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he disappeared from their sight [32]They said to each other, "Wasn't it like a fire burning in us when he talked to us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?"
33 They got up at once and went back to Jerusalem, where they found the eleven disciples gathered together with the others [34]and saying, "The Lord is risen indeed! He has appeared to Simon!" 35 The two then explained to them what had happened on the road, and how they had recognized the Lord when he broke the bread

(Matt 28 16-20, Mark 16 14-18, John 20 19-23, Acts 1 6-8)

36 While the two were telling them this, suddenly the Lord himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you"[e] 37 They were terrified, thinking that they were seeing a ghost [38]But he said to them, "Why are you alarmed? Why are these doubts coming up in your minds? 39 Look at my hands and my feet, and see that it is I myself Feel me, and you will know, for a ghost doesn't have flesh and bones, as you can see I have " 40 He said this and showed them his hands and his feet [f] 41 They still could not believe, they were so full of joy and wonder, so he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" 42 They gave him a piece of cooked fish, 43 which he took and ate in their presence 44 Then he said to them, "These are the very things I told you about while I was still with you everything written about me in the Law of Moses, the writings of the prophets, and the Psalms had to come true " 45 Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, 46 and said to them, "This is what is written the Messiah must suffer and must rise from death three days later, 47 and in his name the message about repentance and the forgiveness of sins must be preached to all nations, beginning in Jerusalem 48 You are witnesses of these things 49 And I myself will send upon you what my Father has promised But you must wait in the city until the power from above comes down upon you "

(Mark 16 19-20, Acts 1 9-11)

50 Then he led them out of the city as far as Bethany, where he raised his hands and blessed them 51 As he was blessing them, he departed from them and was taken up into heaven [g] 52 They worshipped him and went back into Jerusalem, filled with great joy, 53 and spent all their time in the Temple giving thanks to God

JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The Gospel of John presents Jesus as the eternal Word of God, who "became a human being and lived among us" As the book itself says, this Gospel was written so that its readers might believe that Jesus is the promised Saviour, the Son of God, and that through their faith in him they might have life (20 31)

After an introduction that identifies the eternal Word of God with Jesus, the first part of the Gospel presents various miracles which show that Jesus is the promised Saviour, the Son of God These are followed by discourses that explain what is revealed by the miracles This part of the book tells how some people believed in Jesus and became his followers, while others opposed him and refused to believe Chapters 13–17 record at length the close fellowship of Jesus with his disciples on the night of his arrest, and his words of preparation and encouragement to them on the eve of his crucifixion The closing chapters tell of Jesus' arrest and trial, his crucifixion and resurrection, and his appearances to his disciples after the resurrection

The story of the woman caught in adultery (8 1–11) is placed in brackets because many manuscripts and early translations omit it, while others include it in other places

John emphasizes the gift of eternal life through Christ, a gift which begins now and which comes to those who respond to Jesus as the way, the truth, and the life A striking feature of John is the symbolic use of common things from everyday life to point to spiritual realities, such as water, bread, light, the shepherd and his sheep, and the grapevine and its fruit

The Word of Life

1 Before the world was created, the Word already existed, he was with God, and he was the same as God [2]From the very beginning the Word was with God [3]Through him God made all things, not one thing in all creation was made without him [4]The Word was the source of life,[a] and this life brought light to mankind [5]The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never put it
6 God sent his messenger, a man named John, [7]who came to tell people about the light, so that all should hear the message and believe [8]He himself was not the light, he came to tell about the light [9]This was the real light—the light that comes into the world and shines on all mankind 10 The Word was in the world, and though God made the world through him, yet the world did not recognize him [11]He came to his own country, but his own people did not receive him [12]Some, however, did receive him and believed in him, so he gave them the right to become God's children [13]They did not become God's children by natural means, that is, by being born as the children of a human father, God himself was their Father 14 The Word became a human being and, full of grace and truth, lived among us We saw his glory, the glory which he received as the Father's only Son 15 John spoke about him He cried out,
"This is the one I was talking about when I said, 'He comes after me, but he is greater than I am, because he existed before I was born' " 16 Out of the fullness of his grace he has blessed us all, giving us one blessing after another [17]God gave the Law through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. [18]No one has ever seen God The only Son, who is the same as God and is at the Father's side, he has made him known

John the Baptist's Message

(Matt 3 1-12, Mark 1 1-8, Luke 3 1-18)

19 The Jewish authorities in Jerusalem sent some priests and Levites to John, to ask him, "Who are you?" 20 John did not refuse to answer, but spoke out openly and clearly, saying "I am not the Messiah" 21 "Who are you, then?" they asked "Are you Elijah?"
"No, I am not," John answered
"Are you the Prophet?"[b] they asked
"No," he replied 22 "Then tell us who you are," they said "We have to take an answer back to those who sent us What do you say about yourself?" 23 John answered by quoting the prophet Isaiah
" 'I am the voice of someone shouting
in the desert
Make a straight path for the Lord to travel!' "
24 The messengers, who had been sent

[a]The Word was the source of life, or What was made had life in union with the Word [b]THE PROPHET The one who was expected to appear and announce the coming of the Messiah by the Pharisees, 25 then[c] asked John, "If you are not the Messiah nor Elijah nor the Prophet, why do you baptize?" 26 John answered, "I baptize with water, but among you stands the one you do not know 27 He is coming after me, but I am not good enough even to untie his sandals " 28 All this happened in Bethany on the east side of the River Jordan, where John was baptizing

The Lamb of God

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "There is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!
30 This is the one I was talking about when I said, 'A man is coming after me, but he is greater than I am, because he existed before I was born ' 31 I did not know who he would be, but I came baptizing with water in order to make him known to the people of Israel " 32 And John gave this testimony "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and stay on him 33 I still did not know that he was the one, but God, who sent me to baptize with water, had said to me, 'You will see the Spirit come down and stay on a man, he is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit ' 34 I have seen it," said John, "and I tell you that he is the Son of God"

The First Disciples of Jesus

35 The next day John was standing there again with two of his disciples, 36 when he saw Jesus walking by "There is the Lamb of God!" he said 37 The two disciples heard him say this and went with Jesus 38 Jesus turned, saw them following him, and asked, "What are you looking for?"
They answered, "Where do you live, Rabbi?" (This word means "Teacher ") 39 "Come and see," he answered (It was then about four o'clock in the afternoon) So they went with him and saw where he lived, and spent the rest of that day with him 40 One of them was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother 41 At once he found his brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah " (This word means "Christ ") 42 Then he took Simon to Jesus Jesus looked at him and said, "Your name is Simon son of John, but you will

I saw the Spirit come down like a dove (1 32) be called Cephas " (This is the same as Peter and means "a rock ")

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

43 The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee He found Philip and said to him, "Come with me!" (44 Philip was from Bethsaida, the town where Andrew and Peter lived) 45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one whom Moses wrote about in the book of the Law and whom the prophets also wrote about He is Jesus son of Joseph, from Nazareth " 46 "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" Nathanael asked "Come and see," answered Philip 47 When Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, he said about him, "Here is a real Israelite, there is nothing false in
him!"

[c] The messengers, who had been sent by the Pharisees then, or Those who had been sent were Pharisees, they 48 Nathanael asked him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you when you were under the fig-tree before Philip called

you "
49 "Teacher," answered Nathanael, "you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" 50 Jesus said, "Do you believe just because I told you I saw you when you were under the fig-tree? You will see much greater things than this!" [51]And he said to them, "I am telling you the truth you will see heaven open and God's angels going up and coming down on the Son of Man "

The Wedding in Cana

2 Two days later there was a wedding in the town of Cana in Galilee Jesus' mother was there, [2]and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding [3]When the wine had given out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no wine left " 4 "You must not tell me what to do," Jesus replied "My time has not yet come " 5 Jesus' mother then told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you " 6 The Jews have rules about ritual washing, and for this purpose six stone water jars were there, each one large enough to hold about a hundred litres [7]Jesus said to the servants, "Fill these jars with water " They filled them to the brim, [8]and then he told them, "Now draw some water out and take it to the man in charge of the feast " They took him the water, [9]which now had turned into wine, and he tasted it He did not know where this wine had come from (but, of course, the servants who had drawn out the water knew), so he called the bridegroom [10]and said to him, "Everyone else serves the best wine first, and after the guests have had plenty to drink, he serves the ordinary wine But you have kept the best wine until now!" 11 Jesus performed this first miracle in Cana in Galilee, there he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him 12 After this, Jesus and his mother, brothers, and disciples went to Caper-naum and stayed there a few days

(Matt 21 12-13, Mark 11 15-17, Luke 19 45-46)

13 It was almost time for the Passover Festival, so Jesus went to Jerusalem [14]There in the Temple he found men selling cattle, sheep, and pigeons, and also the money-changers sitting at their tables

1 6 Gen 28 12 2 12 Mt 4 13 2 13 Ex 12 1-27 15 So he made a whip from cords and drove all the animals out of the Temple, both the sheep and the cattle, he overturned the tables of the money-changers and scattered their coins, 16 and he ordered the men who sold the pigeons, "Take them out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!" 17 His disciples remembered that the scripture says, "My devotion to your house, O God, burns in me like a fire" 18 The Jewish authorities replied with a question, "What miracle can you perform to show us that you have the right to do this?" 19 Jesus answered, "Tear down this Temple, and in three days I will build it

again" 20 "Are you going to build it again in three days?" they asked him "It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple!"
21 But the temple Jesus was speaking about was his body 22 So when he was raised from death, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and what Jesus had said

Jesus' Knowledge of Human Nature

23 While Jesus was in Jerusalem during the Passover Festival, many believed in him as they saw the miracles he performed 24 But Jesus did not trust himself to them, because he knew them all 25 There was no need for anyone to tell him about them, because he himself knew what was in their hearts

Jesus and Nicodemus

3 There was a Jewish leader named Nicodemus, who belonged to the party of the Pharisees 2 One night he went to Jesus and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher sent by God No one could perform the miracles you are doing unless God were with him" 3 Jesus answered, "I am telling you the truth no one can see the Kingdom of God unless he is born again"[d] 4 "How can a grown man be born again?" Nicodemus asked "He certainly cannot enter his mother's womb and be born a second time!"
5 "I am telling you the truth," replied Jesus "No one can enter the Kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit 6 A person is born physically of human parents, but he is born spiritually of the Spirit 7 Do not be surprised because I tell you that you must all be born again[e] 8 The wind blows wherever it wishes, you hear the sound it makes, but you do not know where it comes from or where it is going It is like that with everyone who is born of the Spirit" 9 "How can this be?" asked Nicodemus 10 Jesus answered, "You are a great teacher in Israel, and you don't know this? 11 I am telling you the truth we speak of what we know and report what we have seen, yet none of you is willing to accept our message 12 You do not believe me when I tell you about the things of this world, how will you ever believe me, then, when I tell you about the things of heaven? 13 And no one has ever gone up to heaven except the Son of Man, who came down from heaven" 14 As Moses lifted up the bronze snake on a pole in the desert, in the same way the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15 so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life 16 For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not die but have eternal life 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to be its judge, but to be its saviour 18 Whoever believes in the Son is not judged, but whoever does not believe has already been judged, because he has not believed in God's only Son 19 This is how the judgement works the light has come into the world, but people love the darkness rather than the light, because their deeds are evil 20 Anyone who does evil things hates the light and will not come to the light, because he does not want his evil deeds to be shown up 21 But whoever does what is true comes to the light in order that the light may show that what he did was in obedience to God

Jesus and John

22 After this, Jesus and his disciples went to the province of Judaea, where he spent some time with them and baptized 23 John also was baptizing in Aenon, not far from Salim, because there was plenty of water in that place People were going to him, and he was baptizing them (24 This was before John had been put in prison) 25 Some of John's disciples began arguing with a Jew[f] about the matter of ritual washing 26 So they went to John and said, "Teacher, you remember the man who was with you on the east side of the Jordan, the one you spoke about?

Well, he is baptizing now, and everyone is going to him!" 27 John answered, "No one can have anything unless God gives it to him 28 You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, 'I am not the Messiah, but I have been sent ahead of him ' 29 The bridegroom is the one to whom the bride belongs, but the bridegroom's friend, who stands by and listens, is glad when he hears the bridegroom's voice This is how my own happiness is made complete 30 He must become more important while I become less important "

He Who Comes from Heaven

31 He who comes from above is greater than all He who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly matters, but he who comes from heaven is above all 32 He tells what he has seen and heard, yet no one accepts his message 33 But whoever accepts his message confirms by this that God is truthful 34 The one whom God has sent speaks God's words, because God gives him the fullness of his Spirit 35 The Father loves his Son and has put everything in his power 36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, whoever disobeys the Son will not have life, but will remain under God's punishment

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

4 The Pharisees heard that Jesus was winning and baptizing more disciples than John (2 Actually, Jesus himself did not baptize anyone, only his disciples did) 3 So when Jesus heard what was being said, he left Judaea and went back to Galilee, 4 on his way there he had to go through Samaria 5 In Samaria he came to a town named Sychar, which was not far from the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph 6 Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by the journey, sat down by the well It was about noon 7 A Samaritan woman came to draw some water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink of water " (8 His disciples had gone into town to buy food) 9 The woman answered, "You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan—so how can you ask me for a drink?" (Jews will not use the same cups and bowls that Samaritans use)[g]

[f] a Jew, some manuscripts have some Jews [g] Jews will not use the same cups and bowls that Samaritans use, or Jews will have nothing to do with Samaritans

3 24 Mt 14 3, Mk 6 17, Lk 3 19–20 3 28 Jn 1 20 3 35 Mt 11 27, Lk 10 22 4 5 Gen 33 19, Josh 24 32 4 9 Ezra 4 1–5, Neh 4 1–2

10 Jesus answered, "If only you knew what God gives and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would ask him, and he would give you life-giving water " 11 "Sir," the woman said, "you haven't got a bucket, and the well is deep Where would you get that life-giving water? 12 It was our ancestor Jacob who gave us this well, he and his sons and his flocks all drank from it You don't claim to be greater than Jacob, do you?" 13 Jesus answered, "Whoever drinks this water will be thirsty again, 14 but whoever drinks the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again The water that I will give him will become in him a spring which will provide him with life-giving water and give him eternal life " 15 "Sir," the woman said, "give me that water! Then I will never be thirsty again, nor will I have to come here to draw water " 16 "Go and call your husband," Jesus told her, "and come back " 17 "I haven't got a husband," she answered
Jesus replied, "You are right when you say you haven't got a husband 18 You have been married to five men, and the man you live with now is not really your husband You have told me the truth " 19 "I see you are a prophet, sir," the woman said 20 "My Samaritan ancestors worshipped God on this mountain, but you Jews say that Jerusalem is the place where we should worship God " 21 Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the time will come when people will not worship the Father either on this mountain or in Jerusalem 22 You Samaritans do not really know whom you worship, but we Jews know whom we worship, because it is from the Jews that salvation comes 23 But the time is coming and is already here, when by the power of God's Spirit people will worship the Father as he really is, offering him the true worship that he wants 24 God is Spirit, and only by the power of his Spirit can people worship him as he really is " 25 The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah will come, and when he comes, he will tell us everything " 26 Jesus answered, "I am he, I who am talking with you " 27 At that moment Jesus' disciples returned, and they were greatly surprised to find him talking with a woman But none of them said to her, "What do you want?" or asked him, "Why are you talking with her?" 28 Then the woman left her water jar, went back to the town, and said to the people there, 29 "Come and see the man who told me everything I have ever done Could he be the Messiah?" 30 So they left the town and went to Jesus 31 In the meantime the disciples were begging Jesus, "Teacher, have something to eat!"
32 But he answered, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about " 33 So the disciples started asking among themselves, "Could somebody have brought him food?" 34 "My food," Jesus said to them, "is to obey the will of the one who sent me and to finish the work he gave me to do 35 You have a saying, 'Four more months and then the harvest ' But I tell you, take a good look at the fields, the crops are now ripe and ready to be harvested! 36 The man who reaps the harvest is being paid and gathers the crops for eternal life, so the man who sows and the man who reaps will be glad together 37 The saying is true, 'One man sows, another man reaps ' 38 I have sent you to reap a harvest in a field where you did not work, others worked there, and you profit from their work " 39 Many of the Samaritans in that town believed in Jesus because the woman had said, "He told me everything I have ever done " 40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them, and Jesus stayed there two days 41 Many more believed because of his message, 42 and they said to the woman, "We believe now, not because of what you said, but because we ourselves have heard him, and we know that he really is the Saviour of the world "

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

43 After spending two days there, Jesus left and went to Galilee 44 For he himself had said, "A prophet is not respected in his own country " 45 When he arrived in Galilee, the people there welcomed him, because they had gone to the Passover Festival in Jerusalem and had seen everything that he had done during the festival 46 Then Jesus went back to Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine A government official was there whose son was ill in Capernaum 47 When 4 44 Mt 13 57, Mk 6 4, Lk 4 24 4 45 Jn 2 23 4 46 Jn 2 1-11 he heard that Jesus had come from Judaea to Galilee, he went to him and asked him to go to Capernaum and heal his son who was about to die 48 Jesus said to him, "None of you will ever believe unless you see miracles and wonders" 49 "Sir," replied the official, "come with me before my child dies" 50 Jesus said to him, "Go, your son will live!"

The man believed Jesus' words and went 51 On his way home his servants met him with the news "Your boy is going to live!" 52 He asked them what time it was when his son got better, and they answered, "It was one o'clock yesterday afternoon when the fever left him" 53 Then the father remembered that it was at that very hour when Jesus had told him, "Your son will live" So he and all his family believed 54 This was the second miracle that Jesus performed after coming from Judaea to Galilee

The Healing at the Pool

5 After this, Jesus went to Jerusalem for a religious festival 2 Near the Sheep Gate in Jerusalem there is a pool[h] with five porches, in Hebrew it is called Bethzatha[i] 3 A large crowd of sick people were lying in the porches—the blind, the lame, and the paralysed[j] 5 A man was there who had been ill for thirty eight years 6 Jesus saw him lying there, and he knew that the man had been ill for such a long time, so he asked him "Do you want to get well?" 7 The sick man answered "Sir, I have no one here to put me in the pool when the water is stirred up, while I am trying to get in, somebody else gets there first" 8 Jesus said to him, "Get up pick up your mat, and walk" 9 Immediately the man got well, he picked up his mat and started walking
The day this happened was a Sabbath, 10 so the Jewish authorities told the man who had been healed, "This is a Sabbath, and it is against our Law for you to carry your mat" 11 He answered, "The man who made me well told me to pick up my mat and walk" 12 They asked him, "Who is the man who told you to do this?" 13 But the man who had been healed did not know who Jesus was, for there was a crowd in that place, and Jesus had slipped away 14 Afterwards Jesus found him in the Temple and said, "Listen, you are well now; so stop sinning or something worse may happen to you" 15 Then the man left and told the Jewish authorities that it was Jesus who had healed him 16 So they began to persecute Jesus because he had done this healing on a Sabbath 17 Jesus answered them, "My Father is always working, and I too must work" 18 This saying made the Jewish authorities all the more determined to kill him, not only had he broken the Sabbath law, but he had said that God was his own Father and in this way had made himself equal with God

The Authority of the Son

19 So Jesus answered them, "I am telling you the truth the Son can do nothing on his own, he does only what he sees his Father doing What the Father does, the Son also does 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing He will show him even greater things to do than this, and you will all be amazed 21 Just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life in the same way the Son gives life to those he wants to 22 Nor does the Father himself judge anyone He has given his Son the full right to judge, 23 so that all will honour the Son in the same way as they honour the Father Whoever does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent
him 24 "I am telling you the truth whoever hears my words and believes in him who sent me has eternal life He will not be judged, but has already passed from death to life 25 I am telling you the truth the time is coming—the time has already come—when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear it will come to life 26 Just as the Father is himself the source of life, in the same way he has made his Son to be the source of life 27 And he has given the Son the right to judge, because he is the Son of Man 28 Do not be surprised at this, the time is coming when all the dead will hear his voice 29 and come out of their graves those who have done good will rise and live, and those who have done evil will rise and be condemned

Witnesses to Jesus

30 "I can do nothing on my own authority, I judge only as God tells me, so my judgement is right, because I am not trying to do what I want, but only what he who sent me wants 31 "If I testify on my own behalf, what I say is not to be accepted as real proof 32 But there is someone else who testifies on my behalf, and I know that what he says about me is true 33 John is the one to whom you sent your messengers, and he spoke on behalf of the truth 34 It is not that I must have a man's witness, I say this only in order that you may be saved 35 John was like a lamp, burning and shining, and you were willing for a while to enjoy his light 36 But I have a witness on my behalf which is even greater than the witness that John gave what I do, that is, the deeds my Father gave me to do, these speak on my behalf and show that the Father has sent me 37 And the Father, who sent me, also testifies on my behalf You have never heard his voice or seen his face, 38 and you do not keep his message in your hearts, for you do not believe in the one whom he sent 39 You study the Scriptures, because you think that in them you will find eternal life And these very Scriptures speak about me! 40 Yet you are not willing to come to me in order to have life 41 "I am not looking for human praise 42 But I know what kind of people you are, and I know that you have no love for God in your hearts 43 I have come with my Father's authority, but you have not received me, when, however, someone comes with his own authority, you will receive him 44 You like to receive praise from one another, but you do not try to win praise from the one who alone is God, how, then, can you believe me?
45 Do not think, however, that I am the one who will accuse you to my Father Moses, in whom you have put your hope, is the very one who will accuse you 46 If you had really believed Moses, you would have believed me, because he wrote about me 47 But since you do not believe what he wrote, how can you believe what I say?"

(Matt 14 13-21, Mark 6 30-44, Luke 9 10-17)

6 After this, Jesus went across Lake Galilee (or, Lake Tiberias, as it is also called) 2 A large crowd followed him, because they had seen his miracles of healing those who were ill 3 Jesus went up a hill and sat down with his disciples 4 The time for the Passover Festival was near 5 Jesus looked round and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, so he asked Philip, "Where can we buy enough food to feed all these people?" (6 He said this to test Philip, actually he already knew what he would do) 7 Philip answered, "For everyone to have even a little, it would take more than two hundred silver coins[k] to buy enough bread " 8 Another of his disciples, Andrew, who was Simon Peter's brother, said, 9 "There is a boy here who has five loaves of barley bread and two fish But they will certainly not be enough for all these people " 10 "Make the people sit down," Jesus told them (There was a lot of grass there) So all the people sat down, there were about five thousand men 11 Jesus took the bread, gave thanks to God, and distributed it to the people who were sitting there He did the same with the fish, and they all had as much as they wanted 12 When they were all full, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces left over, let us not waste any " 13 So they gathered them all up and filled twelve baskets with the pieces left over from the five barley loaves which the people had eaten 14 Seeing this miracle that Jesus had performed, the people there said, "Surely this is the Prophet[l] who was to come into the world!" 15 Jesus knew that they were about to come and seize him in order to make him king by force, so he went off again to the hills by himself

(Matt 14 22-33, Mark 6 45-52)

16 When evening came, Jesus' disciples went down to the lake, 17 got into a boat, and went back across the lake towards Capernaum Night came on, and Jesus still had not come to them 18 By then a strong wind was blowing and stirring up the water 19 The disciples had rowed about five or six kilometres when they saw Jesus walking on the water, coming near the boat, and they were terrified 20 "Don't be afraid," Jesus told them, "It is I!" 21 Then they willingly took him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached land at the place they were heading for

The People Seek Jesus

22 Next day the crowd which had stayed on the other side of the lake realized that there had been only one boat there They knew that Jesus had not gone in it with his disciples, but that they had left without him 23 Other boats, which were from Tiberias, came to shore near the place where the crowd had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks 24 When the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they got into those boats and went to Capernaum, looking for him

Jesus the Bread of Life

25 When the people found Jesus on the other side of the lake, they said to him, "Teacher, when did you get here?" 26 Jesus answered, "I am telling you the truth you are looking for me because you ate the bread and had all you wanted, not because you understood my miracles 27 Do not work for food that goes bad, instead, work for the food that lasts for eternal life This is the food which the Son of Man will give you, because God, the Father, has put his mark of approval
on him " 28 So they asked him, "What can we do in order to do what God wants us to do?" 29 Jesus answered, "What God wants you to do is to believe in the one he sent " 30 They replied, "What miracle will you perform so that we may see it and believe you? What will you do? 31 Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, just as the scripture says, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat' " 32 "I am telling you the truth," Jesus said "What Moses gave you was not[m] the bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the real bread from heaven 33 For the bread that God gives is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world " 34 "Sir," they asked him, "give us this bread always " 35 "I am the bread of life," Jesus told them "He who comes to me will never be hungry, he who believes in me will never be thirsty 36 Now, I told you that you have seen me but will not believe 37 Everyone whom my Father gives me will come to me I will never turn away anyone who comes to me, 38 because I have come down from heaven to do not my own will but the will of him who sent me 39 And it is the will of him who sent me that I should not lose any of all those he has given me, but that I should raise them all to life on the last day 40 For what my Father wants is that all who see the Son and believe in him should have eternal life And I will raise them to life on the last day " 41 The people started grumbling about him, because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven " 42 So they said, "This man is Jesus son of Joseph, isn't he? We know his father and mother How, then, does he now say he came down from heaven?"
43 Jesus answered, "Stop grumbling among yourselves 44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him to me, and I will raise him to life on the last day 45 The prophets wrote, 'Everyone will be taught by God' Anyone who hears the Father and learns from him comes to me 46 This does not mean that anyone has seen the Father, he who is from God is the only one who has seen the Father 47 I am telling you the truth he who believes has eternal life 48 I am the bread of life 49 Your ancestors ate manna in the desert, but they died 50 But the bread that comes down from heaven is of such a kind that whoever eats it will not die 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven If anyone eats this bread, he will live for ever The bread that I will give him is my flesh, which I give so that the world may live " 52 This started an angry argument among them "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" they asked 53 Jesus said to them, "I am telling you the truth if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in yourselves 54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him to life on the last day 55 For my flesh is the real food, my blood is the real drink 56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I live in him 57 The living Father sent me, and because of him I live also In the same way whoever eats me will live because of me 58 This, then, is the bread that came down from heaven, it is not like the bread that your ancestors ate, but then later died The one who eats this bread will live for ever" 59 Jesus said this as he taught in the synagogue in Capernaum

The Words of Eternal Life

60 Many of his followers heard this and said, "This teaching is too hard Who can listen to it?" 61 Without being told, Jesus knew that they were grumbling about this, so he said to them, "Does this make you want to give up? 62 Suppose, then, that you should see the Son of Man go back up to the place where he was before? 63 What gives life is God's Spirit, man's power is of no use at all The words I have spoken to you bring God's life-giving Spirit 64 Yet some of you do not believe" (Jesus knew from the very beginning who were the ones that would not believe and which one would betray him) 65 And he added, "This is the very reason I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father makes it possible for him to do so" 66 Because of this, many of Jesus' followers turned back and would not go with him any more 67 So he asked the twelve disciples, "And you—would you also like to leave?" 68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words that give eternal life 69 And now we believe and know that you are the Holy One who has come from God" 70 Jesus replied, "I chose the twelve of you, didn't I? Yet one of you is a devil!" 71 He was talking about Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot For Judas, even though he was one of the twelve disciples, was going to betray him

Jesus and His Brothers

7 After this, Jesus travelled in Galilee, he did not want to travel in Judaea, because the Jewish authorities there were wanting to kill him 2 The time for the Festival of Shelters was near, 3 so Jesus' brothers said to him, "Leave this place and go to Judaea, so that your followers will see the things that you are doing 4 No one hides what he is doing if he wants to be well known Since you are doing these things, let the whole world know about you!" (5 Not even his brothers believed in him) 6 Jesus said to them, "The right time for me has not yet come Any time is right for you 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I keep telling it that its ways are bad 8 You go on to the festival I am not going[n] to this festival, because the right time has not come for me" 9 He said this, and then stayed on in Galilee

Jesus at the Festival of Shelters

10 After his brothers had gone to the festival, Jesus also went, however, he did not go openly, but secretly 11 The Jewish authorities were looking for him at the festival "Where is he?" they asked 12 There was much whispering about him in the crowd "He is a good man," some people said "No," others said, "he is misleading the people" 13 But no one talked about him openly, because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities 14 The festival was nearly half over when Jesus went to the Temple and began teaching 15 The Jewish authorities were greatly surprised and said, "How does this man know so much when he has never had any training?" 16 Jesus answered, "What I teach is not my own teaching, but it comes from God, who sent me 17 Whoever is willing to do what God wants will know whether what I teach comes from God or whether I speak on my own authority 18 A person who speaks on his own authority is trying to gain glory for himself But he who wants glory for the one who sent him is honest, and there is nothing false in him 19 Moses gave you the Law, didn't he? But not one of you obeys the Law Why are you trying to kill me?" 20 "You have a demon in you!" the crowd answered "Who is trying to kill
you?" 21 Jesus answered, "I performed one miracle, and you were all surprised 22 Moses ordered you to circumcise your sons (although it was not Moses but your ancestors who started it), and so you circumcise a boy on the Sabbath 23 If a boy is circumcised on the Sabbath so that Moses' Law is not broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely well on the Sabbath? 24 Stop judging by external standards, and judge by true standards."

Is He the Messiah?

25 Some of the people of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this the man the authorities are trying to kill? 26 Look! He is talking in public, and they say nothing against him! Can it be that they really know that he is the Messiah? 27 But when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from. And we all know where this man comes from."
28 As Jesus taught in the Temple, he said in a loud voice, "Do you really know me and know where I am from? I have not come on my own authority. He who sent me, however, is truthful. You do not know him, 29 but I know him, because I come from him and he sent me." 30 Then they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. 31 But many in the crowd believed in him and said, "When the Messiah comes, will he perform more miracles than this man has?"

Guards Are Sent to Arrest Jesus

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering these things about Jesus, so they and the chief priests sent some guards to arrest him. 33 Jesus said, "I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I shall go away to him who sent me. 34 You will look for me, but you will not find me, because you cannot go where I will be." 35 The Jewish authorities said among themselves, "Where is he about to go so that we shall not find him? Will he go to the Greek cities where our people live, and teach the Greeks? 36 He says that we will look for him but will not find him, and that we cannot go where he will be.
What does he mean?"

Streams of Life-Giving Water

37 On the last and most important day of the festival Jesus stood up and said in a loud voice, "Whoever is thirsty should come to me and drink. 38 As the scripture says, 'Whoever believes in me, streams of life-giving water will pour out from his heart.'"[o] 39 Jesus said this about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were going to receive. At that time the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not been raised to glory.

Division among the People

40 Some of the people in the crowd heard him say this and said, "This man is really the Prophet!"[p] 41 Others said, "He is the Messiah!" But others said, "The Messiah will not come from Galilee! 42 The scripture says that the Messiah will be a descendant of King David and will be born in Bethlehem, the town where David lived." 43 So there was a division in the crowd because of Jesus. 44 Some wanted to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.

The Unbelief of the Jewish Authorities

45 When the guards went back, the chief priests and Pharisees asked them, "Why did you not bring him?" 46 The guards answered, "Nobody has ever talked like this man!" 47 "Did he fool you, too?" the Pharisees asked them. 48 "Have you ever known one of the authorities or one Pharisee to believe in him? 49 This crowd does not know the Law of Moses, so they are under God's curse!" 50 One of the Pharisees there was Nicodemus, the man who had gone to see Jesus before. He said to the others, 51 "According to our Law we cannot condemn a man before hearing him and finding out what he has done." 52 "Well," they answered, "are you also from Galilee? Study the Scriptures and you will learn that no prophet ever comes[q] from Galilee."

The Woman Caught in Adultery

8 [Then everyone went home, but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 Early the next morning he went back to the Temple. All the people gathered round him, and he sat down and began to teach them. 3 The teachers of the Law and the Pharisees brought in a woman who had been caught committing adultery, and they made her stand before them all.
4 "Teacher," they said to Jesus, "this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery 5 In our Law Moses commanded that such a woman must be stoned to death Now, what do you say?" 6 They said this to trap Jesus, so that they could accuse him But he bent over and wrote on the ground with his finger 7 As they stood there asking him questions, he straightened himself up and said to them, "Whichever one of you has committed no sin may throw the first stone at her" 8 Then he bent over again and wrote on the ground 9 When they heard this, they all left, one by one, the older ones first Jesus was left alone, with the woman still standing there 10 He straightened himself up and said to her, "Where are they? Is there no one left to condemn you?" 11 "No one, sir," she answered "Well, then," Jesus said, "I do not condemn you either Go, but do not sin again"][r]

Jesus the Light of the World

12 Jesus spoke to the Pharisees again
"I am the light of the world," he said "Whoever follows me will have the light of life and will never walk in darkness" 13 The Pharisees said to him, "Now you are testifying on your own behalf, what you say proves nothing" 14 "No," Jesus answered, "even though I do testify on my own behalf, what I say is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going You do not know where I came from or where I am going 15 You make judgements in a purely human way, I pass judgement on no one 16 But if I were to do so, my judgement would be true, because I am not alone in this, the Father who sent me is with me 17 It is written in your Law that when two witnesses agree, what they say is true 18 I testify on my own behalf, and the Father who sent me also testifies on my behalf" 19 "Where is your father?" they asked
him
"You know neither me nor my Father," Jesus answered "If you knew me, you would know my Father also" 20 Jesus said all this as he taught in the Temple, in the room where the offering boxes were placed And no one arrested him, because his hour had not come

You Cannot Go Where I Am Going

21 Again Jesus said to them, "I will go away, you will look for me, but you will die in your sins You cannot go where I am going" 22 So the Jewish authorities said, "He says that we cannot go where he is going Does this mean that he will kill himself?" 23 Jesus answered, "You belong to this world here below, but I come from above You are from this world, but I am not from this world 24 That is why I told you that you will die in your sins And you will die in your sins if you do not believe that 'I Am Who I Am'" 25 "Who are you?" they asked him Jesus answered, "What I have told you from the very beginning [s] 26 I have much to say about you, much to condemn you for The one who sent me, however, is truthful, and I tell the world only what I have heard from him" 27 They did not understand that Jesus was talking to them about the Father 28 So he said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, you will know that 'I Am Who I Am', then you will know that I do nothing on my own authority, but I say only what the Father has instructed me to say 29 And he who sent me is with me, he has not left me alone, because I always do what pleases him" 30 Many who heard Jesus say these things believed in him

Free Men and Slaves

31 So Jesus said to those who believed in him, "If you obey my teaching, you are really my disciples, 32 you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" 33 "We are the descendants of Abraham," they answered, "and we have never been anybody's slaves What do you mean, then, by saying, 'You will be free'?" 34 Jesus said to them, "I am telling you the truth everyone who sins is a slave of sin 35 A slave does not belong to a family permanently, but a son belongs there for ever 36 If the Son sets you free, then you will be really free 37 I know you are Abraham's descendants Yet you are trying to kill me, because you will not same things that he did 40 All I have ever done is to tell you the truth I heard from God, yet you are trying to kill me Abraham did nothing like this! 41 You are doing what your father did " "God himself is the only Father we have," they answered, "and we are his true sons " 42 Jesus said to them, "If God really were your Father, you would love me, because I came from God and now I am truth in him When he tells a lie, he is only doing what is natural to him, because he is a liar and the father of all lies 45 But I tell the truth, and that is why you do not believe me 46 Which one of you can prove that I am guilty of sin? If I tell the truth, then why do you not believe me? 47 He who comes from God listens to God's words You, however, are not from God, and that is why you will not listen "

Jesus and Abraham

48 They asked Jesus, "Were we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon in you?" 49 "I have no demon," Jesus answered "I honour my Father, but you dishonour me 50 I am not seeking honour for myself But there is one who is seeking it and who judges in my favour 51 I am telling you the truth whoever obeys my teaching will never die " 52 They said to him, "Now we are certain that you have a demon! Abraham died, and the prophets died, yet you say that whoever obeys your teaching will never die 53 Our father Abraham died, you do not claim to be greater than Abraham, do you? And the prophets also died Who do you think you are?" 54 Jesus answered, "If I were to honour myself, that honour would be worth nothing The one who honours me is my Father—the very one you say is your God 55 You have never known him, but I know him If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you But I do know him, and I obey his word 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced that he was to see the time of my coming, he saw it and was glad " 57 They said to him, "You are not even fifty years old—and you have seen Abraham?"[u]
58 "I am telling you the truth," Jesus replied "Before Abraham was born, 'I Am' " 59 Then they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and left the

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been born blind 2 His disciples asked him, "Teacher, whose sin caused him to be born blind? Was it his own or his parents' sin?" 3 Jesus answered, "His blindness has nothing to do with his sins or his parents' sins He is blind so that God's power might be seen at work in him 4 As long as it is day, we must keep on doing the work of him who sent me, night is coming when no one can work 5 While I am in the world, I am the light for the world " 6 After he said this, Jesus spat on the ground and made some mud with the spittle, he rubbed the mud on the man's eyes 7 and said, "Go and wash your face in the Pool of Siloam " (This name means "Sent ") So the man went, washed his face, and came back seeing 8 His neighbours, then, and the people who had seen him begging before this, asked, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?"
9 Some said, "He is the one," but others said, "No he isn't, he just looks like him " So the man himself said, "I am the man " 10 "How is it that you can now see?" they asked him 11 He answered, "The man called Jesus made some mud, rubbed it on my eyes, and told me to go to Siloam and wash

[t]If you really were you would do, some manuscripts have If you are do my face So I went, and as soon as I washed, I could see " 12 "Where is he?" they asked

"I don't know," he answered

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

13 Then they took to the Pharisees the man who had been blind 14 The day that Jesus made the mud and cured him of his blindness was a Sabbath 15 The Pharisees, then, asked the man again how he had received his sight He told them,
"He put some mud on my eyes, I washed my face, and now I can see " 16 Some of the Pharisees said, "The man who did this cannot be from God, for he does not obey the Sabbath law " Others, however, said, "How could a man who is a sinner perform such miracles as these?" And there was a division among them 17 So the Pharisees asked the man once more, "You say he cured you of your blindness—well, what do you say about
him?"
"He is a prophet," the man answered 18 The Jewish authorities, however, were not willing to believe that he had been blind and could now see, until they called his parents 19 and asked them, "Is this your son? You say that he was born blind, how is it, then, that he can now see?" 20 His parents answered, "We know that he is our son, and we know that he was born blind 21 But we do not know how it is that he is now able to see, nor do we know who cured him of his blindness Ask him, he is old enough, and he can answer for himself!" 22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities, who had already agreed that anyone who said he believed that Jesus was the Messiah would be expelled from the synagogue 23 That is why his parents said, "He is old enough, ask him!" 24 A second time they called back the man who had been born blind, and said to him, "Promise before God that you will tell the truth! We know that this man who cured you is a sinner " 25 "I do not know if he is a sinner or not," the man replied "One thing I do know I was blind, and now I see " 26 "What did he do to you?" they asked "How did he cure you of your blindness?" 27 "I have already told you," he answered, "and you would not listen Why do you want to hear it again? Maybe you, too, would like to be his disciples?" 28 They cursed him and said, "You are that fellow's disciple; but we are Moses' disciples 29 We know that God spoke to Moses, as for that fellow, however, we do not even know where he comes from!" 30 The man answered, "What a strange thing that is! You do not know where he comes from, but he cured me of my blindness! 31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, he does listen to people who respect him and do what he wants them to do 32 Since the beginning of the world nobody has ever heard of anyone giving sight to a blind person 33 Unless this man came from God, he would not be able to do a thing " 34 They answered, "You were born and brought up in sin—and you are trying to teach us?" And they expelled him from the synagogue

Spiritual Blindness

35 When Jesus heard what had happened, he found the man and asked him, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" 36 The man answered, "Tell me who he is, sir, so that I can believe in him!" 37 Jesus said to him, "You have already seen him, and he is the one who is talking with you now " 38 "I believe, Lord!" the man said, and knelt down before Jesus 39 Jesus said, "I came to this world to judge, so that the blind should see and those who see should become blind " 40 Some Pharisees who were there with him heard him say this and asked him, "Surely you don't mean that we are blind,
too?" 41 Jesus answered, "If you were blind, then you would not be guilty, but since you claim that you can see, this means that you are still guilty "

The Parable of the Shepherd

10 Jesus said, "I am telling you the truth the man who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber 2 The man who goes in through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep 3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, the sheep hear his voice as he calls his own sheep by name, and he leads them out 4 When he has brought them out, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice 5 They will not follow someone else, instead, they will run away from such a person, because they do not know his voice " 6 Jesus told them this parable, but they did not understand what he meant

Jesus the Good Shepherd

7 So Jesus said again, "I am telling you the truth I am the gate for the sheep 8 All others who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them 9 I am the gate Whoever comes in by me will be saved, he will come in and go out and find pasture 10 The thief comes only in order to steal, kill, and destroy I have come in order that you might have life—life in all its fullness 11 "I am the good shepherd, who is willing to die for the sheep 12 When the hired man, who is not a shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees a wolf coming, he leaves the sheep and runs away, so the wolf snatches the sheep and scatters them 13 The hired man runs away because he is only a hired man and does not care about the sheep 14–15 I am the good shepherd As the Father knows me and I know the Father, in the same way I know my sheep and they know me And I am willing to die for them 16 There are other sheep which belong to me that are not in this sheepfold I must bring them, too, they will listen to my voice, and they will become[v] one flock with one shepherd 17 "The Father loves me because I am willing to give up my life, in order that I may receive it back again 18 No one takes my life away from me I give it up of my own free will I have the right to give it up, and I have the right to take it back This is what my Father has commanded me to do " 19 Again there was a division among the people because of these words 20 Many of them were saying, "He has a demon! He is mad! Why do you listen to him?" 21 But others were saying, "A man with a demon could not talk like this! How could a demon give sight to blind people?"

Jesus Is Rejected

22 It was winter, and the Festival of the Dedication of the Temple was being celebrated in Jerusalem 23 Jesus was walking in Solomon's Porch in the Temple, 24 when the people gathered round him and asked, "How long are you going to keep us in suspense? Tell us the plain truth are you the Messiah?" 25 Jesus answered, "I have already told you, but you would not believe me The things I do by my Father's authority speak on my behalf, 26 but you will not believe, for you are not my sheep 27 My sheep listen to my voice, I know them, and they follow me 28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never die No one can snatch them away from me 29 What my Father has given me is greater[w] than everything, and no one can snatch them away from the Father's care 30 The Father and I are one " 31 Then the people again picked up stones to throw at him 32 Jesus said to them, "I have done many good deeds in your presence which the Father gave me to do, for which one of these do you want to stone me?" 33 They replied, "We do not want to stone you because of any good deeds, but because of your blasphemy! You are only a man, but you are trying to make yourself
34 Jesus answered, "It is written in your own Law that God said, 'You are gods' 35 We know that what the scripture says is true for ever, and God called those people gods, the people to whom his message was given 36 As for me, the Father chose me and sent me into the world How, then, can you say that I blaspheme because I said that I am the Son of God? 37 Do not believe me, then, if I am not doing the things my Father wants me to do 38 But if I do them, even though you do not believe me, you should at least believe my deeds, in order that you may know once and for all that the Father is in me and that I am in the Father "
39 Once more they tried to seize Jesus, but he slipped out of their hands 40 Jesus then went back again across the River Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing, and he stayed there 41 Many people came to him "John performed no miracles," they said, "but everything he said about this man was [v] they will become, some manuscripts have there will be true" 42 And many people there believed in him

The Death of Lazarus

11 1 A man named Lazarus, who lived in Bethany, was ill Bethany was the town where Mary and her sister Martha lived (2 This Mary was the one who poured the perfume on the Lord's feet and wiped them with her hair, it was her brother Lazarus who was ill) 3 The sisters sent Jesus a message "Lord, your dear friend is ill " 4 When Jesus heard it, he said, "The final result of this illness will not be the death of Lazarus, this has happened in order to bring glory to God, and it will be the means by which the Son of God will receive glory " 5 Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus 6 Yet when he received the news that Lazarus was ill, he stayed where he was for two more days 7 Then he said to the disciples, "Let us go back to Judaea " 8 "Teacher," the disciples answered, "just a short time ago the people there wanted to stone you, and are you planning to go back?" 9 Jesus said, "A day has twelve hours, hasn't it? So whoever walks in broad daylight does not stumble, for he sees the light of this world 10 But if he walks during the night he stumbles, because he has no light." 11 Jesus said this and then added, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I will go and wake him up " 12 The disciples answered, "If he is asleep, Lord, he will get well " 13 Jesus meant that Lazarus had died, but they thought he meant natural sleep 14 So Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, 15 but for your sake I am glad that I was not with him, so that you will believe Let us go to him " 16 Thomas (called the Twin) said to his fellow-disciples, "Let us all go with the Teacher, so that we may die with him!"

Jesus the Resurrection and the Life

17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had been buried four days before 18 Bethany was less than three kilometres from Jerusalem, 19 and many Judaeans had come to see Martha and Mary to comfort them over their brother's death 20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed in the house 21 Martha said to Jesus, "If you had been here, Lord, my brother would not have died! 22 But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask him for " 23 "Your brother will rise to life," Jesus told her 24 "I know," she replied, "that he will rise to life on the last day " 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies, 26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die Do you believe this?" 27 "Yes, Lord!" she answered "I do believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who was to come into the world "

Jesus Weeps

28 After Martha said this, she went back and called her sister Mary privately "The Teacher is here," she told her, "and is asking for you " 29 When Mary heard this, she got up and hurried out to meet him (30 Jesus had not yet arrived in the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him) 31 The people who were in the house with Mary, comforting her, followed her when they saw her get up and hurry out They thought that she was going to the grave to weep there 32 Mary arrived where Jesus was, and as soon as she saw him, she fell at his feet "Lord," she said, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died!" 33 Jesus saw her weeping, and he saw how the people who were with her were weeping also, his heart was touched, and he was deeply moved 34 "Where have you buried him?" he asked them "Come and see, Lord," they answered 35 Jesus wept 36 "See how much he loved him!" the people said 37 But some of them said, "He gave sight to the blind man, didn't he? Could he not have kept Lazarus from dying?"

Lazarus Is Brought to Life

38 Deeply moved once more, Jesus went to the tomb, which was a cave with a stone placed at the entrance 39 "Take the stone away!" Jesus ordered Martha, the dead man's sister, answered, "There will be a bad smell, Lord He has been buried four days!" 40 Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that you would see God's glory if you believed?" 41 They took the stone away Jesus looked up and said, "I thank you, Father, that you listen to me 42 I know

11 1 Lk 10 38-39 11 2 Jn 12 3

Lazarus, come out! (11 43) that you always listen to me, but I say this for the sake of the people here, so that they will believe that you sent me" 43 After he had said this, he called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" 44 He came out, his hands and feet wrapped in grave clothes, and with a cloth round his face "Untie him," Jesus told them, "and let him go"

(Matt 26 1-5, Mark 14 1-2, Luke 22 1-2)

45 Many of the people who had come to visit Mary saw what Jesus did, and they believed in him 46 But some of them returned to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done 47 So the Pharisees and the chief priests met with the Council and said, "What shall we do? Look at all the miracles this man is performing!
48 If we let him go on in this way, everyone will believe in him, and the Roman authorities will take action and destroy our Temple and our nation!" 49 One of them, named Caiaphas, who was High Priest that year, said, "What fools you are! 50 Don't you realize that it is better for you to let one man die for the people, instead of having the whole nation destroyed?" 51 Actually, he did not say this of his own accord, rather, as he was High Priest that year, he was prophesying that Jesus was going to die for the Jewish people, 52 and not only for them, but also to bring together into one body all the scattered people of God 53 From that day on the Jewish authorities made plans to kill Jesus 54 So Jesus did not travel openly in Judaea, but left and went to a place near the desert, to a town named Ephraim, where he stayed with the disciples 55 The time for the Passover Festival was near, and many people went up from the country to Jerusalem to perform the ritual of purification before the festival 56 They were looking for Jesus, and as they gathered in the Temple, they asked one another, "What do you think? Surely he will not come to the festival, will he?" 57 The chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where Jesus was, he must report it, so that they could arrest him

(Matt 26 6-13, Mark 14 3-9)

12 Six days before the Passover, Jesus went to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, the man he had raised from death 2 They prepared a dinner for him there, which Martha helped to serve, Lazarus was one of those who were sitting at the table with Jesus 3 Then Mary took half a litre of a very expensive perfume made of pure nard, poured it on Jesus'

feet, and wiped them with her hair The sweet smell of the perfume filled the whole house 4 One of Jesus' disciples, Judas Iscariot—the one who was going to betray him—said, 5 "Why wasn't this perfume sold for three hundred silver coins[x] and the money given to the poor?" 6 He said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief He carried the money bag and would help himself from it 7 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone! Let her keep what she has for the day of my burial 8 You will always have poor people with you, but you will not always have me"

The Plot against Lazarus

9 A large number of people heard that Jesus was in Bethany, so they went there, not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom Jesus had raised from death 10 So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus too, 11 because on his account many Jews were rejecting them and believing in Jesus

(Matt 21 1-11, Mark 11 1-11, Luke 19 28-40)

12 The next day the large crowd that had come to the Passover Festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem 13 So they took branches of palm-trees and went out to meet him, shouting, "Praise God! God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord! God bless the King of Israel!"
14 Jesus found a donkey and rode on it, just as the scripture says, 15 "Do not be afraid, city of Zion!
Here comes your king, riding on a young donkey" 16 His disciples did not understand this at the time, but when Jesus had been raised to glory, they remembered that the scripture said this about him and that they had done this for him 17 The people who had been with Jesus when he called Lazarus out of the grave and raised him from death had reported what had happened 18 That was why the crowd met him—because they heard that he had performed this miracle 19 The Pharisees then said to one another, "You see, we are not succeeding at all! Look, the whole world is following him!"

Some Greeks Seek Jesus

20 Some Greeks were among those who had gone to Jerusalem to worship during the festival 21 They went to Philip (he was from Bethsaida in Galilee) and said, "Sir, we want to see Jesus" 22 Philip went and told Andrew, and the two of them went and told Jesus 23 Jesus answered them, "The hour has now come for the Son of Man to receive great glory 24 I am telling you the truth a grain of wheat remains no more than a single grain unless it is dropped into the ground and dies If it does die, then it produces many grains 25 Whoever loves his own life will lose it, whoever hates his own life in this world will keep it for life eternal 26 Whoever wants to serve me must follow me, so that my servant will be with me where I am And my Father will honour anyone who serves me

Jesus Speaks about His Death

27 "Now my heart is troubled—and what shall I say? Shall I say, 'Father, do not let this hour come upon me'? But that is why I came—so that I might go through this hour of suffering 28 Father, bring glory to your name!" Then a voice spoke from heaven, "I have brought glory to it, and I will do so again" 29 The crowd standing there heard the voice, and some of them said it was thunder, while others said, "An angel spoke to him!" 30 But Jesus said to them, "It was not for my sake that this voice spoke, but for yours 31 Now is the time for this world to be judged, now the ruler of this world will be overthrown 32 When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to me" (33 In saying this he indicated the kind of death he was going to suffer) 34 The crowd answered, "Our Law tells us that the Messiah will live for ever How, then, can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?" 35 Jesus answered, "The light will be among you a little longer Continue on your way while you have the light, so that the darkness will not come upon you, for the one who walks in the dark does not know where he is going 36 Believe in the light, then, while you have it, so that you will be the people of the light"

The Unbelief of the People

After Jesus said this, he went off and hid himself from them 37 Even though he had performed all these miracles in their presence, they did not believe in him, 38 so that what the prophet Isaiah had said might come true

"Lord, who believed the message we told?
To whom did the Lord reveal his
power?"

39 And so they were not able to believe, because Isaiah also said, 40 "God has blinded their eyes and closed their minds, so that their eyes would not see, and their minds would not understand, and they would not turn to me, says

God,
for me to heal them"

41 Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus' glory and spoke about him 42 Even then, many of the Jewish authorities believed in Jesus, but because of the Pharisees they did not talk about it openly, so as not to be expelled from the synagogue 43 They loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God

Judgement by Jesus' Words

44 Jesus said in a loud voice, "Whoever believes in me believes not only in me but also in him who sent me 45 Whoever sees me sees also him who sent me 46 I have come into the world as light, so that everyone who believes in me should not remain in the darkness 47 If anyone hears my message and does not obey it, I will not judge him I came, not to judge the world, but to save it 48 Whoever rejects me and does not accept my message has one who will judge him The words I have spoken will be his judge on the last day!
49 This is true, because I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has commanded me what I must say and speak 50 And I know that his command brings eternal life What I say, then, is what the Father has told me to say"

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

13 It was now the day before the Passover Festival Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father He had always loved those in the world who were his own, and he loved them to the very end 2 Jesus and his disciples were at supper The Devil had already put the thought of betraying Jesus into the heart of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot [y] 3 Jesus knew that the Father had given him complete power, he knew that he had come from God and was going to God 4 So he rose from the table, took off his outer garment, and tied a towel round his waist 5 Then he poured some water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel round his waist 6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him,
"Are you going to wash my feet, Lord?" 7 Jesus answered him, "You do not understand now what I am doing, but you will understand later" 8 Peter declared, "Never at any time will you wash my feet!"
"If I do not wash your feet," Jesus answered, "you will no longer be my disciple" 9 Simon Peter answered, "Lord, do not wash only my feet, then! Wash my hands and head, too!" 10 Jesus said, "Anyone who has had a bath is completely clean and does not have to wash himself, except for his feet [z] All of you are clean—all except one" (11 Jesus already knew who was going to betray him, that is why he said, "All of you, except one, are clean") 12 After Jesus had washed their feet, he put his outer garment back on and returned to his place at the table "Do you understand what I have just done to you?" he asked 13 "You call me Teacher and Lord, and it is right that you do so, because that is what I am 14 I, your Lord and Teacher, have just washed your feet You, then, should wash one another's feet. 15 I have set an example for you, so that you will do just what I have done for you 16 I am telling you the truth no slave is greater than his master, and no messenger is greater than the one who sent him 17 Now that you know this truth, how happy you will be if you put it into practice!

18 "I am not talking about all of you, I know those I have chosen But the scripture must come true that says, 'The man who shared my food turned against me' 19 I tell you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen, you will believe that 'I Am Who I Am' 20 I am telling you the truth whoever receives anyone I send receives me also, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me"

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal
(Matt 26 20-25, Mark 14 17-21, Luke 22 21-23)

21 After Jesus had said this, he was deeply troubled and declared openly, "I am telling you the truth one of you is going to betray me" 22 The disciples looked at one another, completely puzzled about whom he meant 23 One of the disciples, the one whom Jesus loved, was sitting next to Jesus 24 Simon Peter motioned to him and said, "Ask him whom he is talking about" 25 So that disciple moved closer to Jesus' side and asked, "Who is it, Lord?" 26 Jesus answered, "I will dip some bread in the sauce and give it to him, he is the man" So he took a piece of bread, dipped it, and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot 27 As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered him Jesus said to him, "Be quick about what you are doing!" 28 None of the others at the table understood why Jesus said this to him 29 Since Judas was in charge of the money bag, some of the disciples thought that Jesus had told him to go and buy what they needed for the festival, or to give something to the poor

The New Commandment

30 Judas accepted the bread and went out at once It was night 31 After Judas had left, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man's glory is revealed, now God's glory is revealed through him 32 And if God's glory is revealed through him, then God will reveal the glory of the Son of Man in himself, and he will do so at once 33 My children, I shall not be with you very much longer You will look for me, but I tell you now what I told the Jewish authorities, 'You cannot go where I am going' 34 And now I give you a new commandment love one another As I have loved you, so you must love one another 35 If you have love for one another, then everyone will know that you are my disciples"

(Matt 26 31-35, Mark 14 27-31, Luke 22 31-34)

36 "Where are you going, Lord?" Simon Peter asked him
"You cannot follow me now where I am going," answered Jesus, "but later you will follow me" 37 "Lord, why can't I follow you now?" asked Peter "I am ready to die for you!" 38 Jesus answered, "Are you really ready to die for me? I am telling you the truth before the cock crows you will say three times that you do not know
me

Jesus the Way to the Father

14 "Do not be worried and upset," Jesus told them "Believe[a] in God and believe also in me 2 There are many rooms in my Father's house, and I am going to prepare a place for you I would not tell you this if it were not so [b] 3 And after I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to myself, so that you will be where I am 4 You know the way that leads to the place where I am going"

[a] Believe, or You believe [b] There are were not so, or There are many rooms in my Father's house, if it were not so, would I tell you that I am going to prepare a place for you?
13 18 Ps 41 9 13 20 Mt 10 40, Mk 9 37, Lk 9 48, 10 16 13 33 Jn 7 34

5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way to get there?" 6 Jesus answered him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life, no one goes to the Father except by me 7 Now that you have known me," he said to them, "you will know[c] my Father also, and from now on you do know him and you have seen
him" 8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, that is all we need" 9 Jesus answered, "For a long time I have been with you all, yet you do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father Why, then, do you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10 Do you not believe, Philip, that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I have spoken to you," Jesus said to his disciples, "do not come from me The Father, who remains in me, does his own work 11 Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me If not, believe because of the things I do 12 I am telling you the truth whoever believes in me will do what I do—yes, he will do even greater things, because I am going to the Father 13 And I will do whatever you ask for in my name, so that the Father's glory will be shown through the Son 14 If you ask me[d] for anything in my name, I will do it

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

15 "If you love me, you will obey my commandments 16 I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, who will stay with you for ever 17 He is the Spirit who reveals the truth about God The world cannot receive him, because it cannot see him or know him But you know him, because he remains with you and is[e] in you 18 "When I go, you will not be left all alone, I will come back to you 19 In a little while the world will see me no more, but you will see me, and because I live, you also will live 20 When that day comes, you will know that I am in my Father and that you are in me, just as I am in
you 21 "Whoever accepts my commandments and obeys them is the one who loves me My Father will love whoever loves me, I too will love him and reveal myself to him" 22 Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, "Lord, how can it be that you will reveal yourself to us and not to the world?" 23 Jesus answered him, "Whoever loves me will obey my teaching My Father will love him, and my Father and I will come to him and live with him 24 Whoever does not love me does not obey my teaching And the teaching you have heard is not mine, but comes from the Father, who sent me 25 "I have told you this while I am still with you 26 The Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and make you remember all that I have told you 27 "Peace is what I leave with you, it is my own peace that I give you I do not give it as the world does Do not be worried and upset, do not be afraid 28 You heard me say to you, 'I am leaving, but I will come back to you' If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for he is greater than I 29 I have told you this now before it all happens, so that when it does happen, you will believe 30 I cannot talk with you much longer, because the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me, 31 but the world must know that I love the Father, that is why I do everything as he commands me "Come, let us go from this place

Jesus the Real Vine

15 "I am the real vine, and my Father is the gardener 2 He breaks off every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and he prunes every branch that does bear fruit, so that it will be clean and bear more fruit 3 You have been made clean already by the teaching I have given you 4 Remain united to me, and I will remain united to you A branch cannot bear fruit by itself, it can do so only if it remains in the vine In the same way you cannot bear fruit unless you remain in me 5 "I am the vine, and you are the branches Whoever remains in me, and I in him, will bear much fruit, for you can do nothing without me 6 Whoever does not remain in me is thrown out like a branch and dries up, such branches are gathered up and thrown into the fire, where they are burnt 7 If you remain in me and my words remain in you, then

[c] Now that you have known me you will know, some manuscripts have If you had known me you would know [d] Some manuscripts do not have me [e] is, some manuscripts have will be you will ask for anything you wish, and you shall have it 8 My Father's glory is shown by your bearing much fruit, and in this way you become my disciples 9 I love you just as the Father loves me, remain in my love 10 If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love 11 "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete 12 My commandment is this love one another, just as I love you 13 The greatest love a person can have for his friends is to give his life for them 14 And you are my friends if you do what I command you 15 I do not call you servants any longer, because a servant does not know what his master is doing Instead, I call you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father 16 You did not choose me, I chose you and appointed you to go and bear much fruit, the kind of fruit that endures And so the Father will give you whatever you ask of him in my name 17 This, then, is what I command you love one another

The World's Hatred

18 "If the world hates you, just remember that it has hated me first 19 If you belonged to the world, then the world would love you as its own But I chose you from this world, and you do not belong to it, that is why the world hates you 20 Remember what I told you 'No slave is greater than his master' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you too, if they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours too 21 But they will do all this to you because you are mine, for they do not know the one who sent me 22 They would not have been guilty of sin if I had not come and spoken to them, as it is, they no longer have any excuse for their sin 23 Whoever hates me hates my Father also 24 They would not have been guilty of sin if I had not done among them the things that no one else ever did, as it is, they have seen what I did, and they hate both me and my Father 25 This, however, was bound to happen so that what is written in their Law may come true 'They hated me for no reason at all'

26 "The Helper will come—the Spirit, who reveals the truth about God and who comes from the Father I will send him to you from the Father, and he will speak about me 27 And you, too, will speak about me, because you have been with me from the very beginning 16 "I have told you this, so that you will not give up your faith 2 You will be expelled from the synagogues, and the time will come when anyone who kills you will think that by doing this he is serving God 3 People will do these things to you because they have not known either the Father or me 4 But I have told you this, so that when the time comes for them to do these things, you will remember that I told you

The Work of the Holy Spirit

"I did not tell you these things at the beginning, for I was with you 5 But now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me where I am going 6 And now that I have told you, your hearts are full of sadness 7 But I am telling you the truth it is better for you that I go away, because if I do not go, the Helper will not come to you But if I do go away, then I will send him to you 8 And when he comes, he will prove to the people of the world that they are wrong about sin and about what is right and about God's judgement 9 They are wrong about sin, because they do not believe in me, 10 they are wrong about what is right, because I am going to the Father and you will not see me any more, 11 and they are wrong about judgement, because the ruler of this world has already been judged 12 "I have much more to tell you, but now it would be too much for you to bear 13 When, however, the Spirit comes, who reveals the truth about God, he will lead you into all the truth He will not speak on his own authority, but he will speak of what he hears, and will tell you of things to come 14 He will give me glory, because he will take what I say and tell it to you 15 All that my Father has is mine, that is why I said that the Spirit will take what I give him and tell it to you

Sadness and Gladness

16 "In a little while you will not see me any more, and then a little while later you will see me"

17 Some of his disciples asked among themselves, "What does this mean? He tells us that in a little while we will not see him, and then a little while later we 15 12 Jn 13 34, 15 17, 1 Jn 3 23, 2 Jn 5 15.20 Mt 10 24, Lk 6 40, Jn 13 16 15.25 Ps 35 19, 69 4

will see him, and he also says, 'It is because I am going to the Father' [18]What does this 'a little while' mean? We don't know what he is talking about!" 19 Jesus knew that they wanted to question him, so he said to them, "I said, 'In a little while you will not see me, and then a little while later you will see me' Is this what you are asking about among yourselves? [20]I am telling you the truth you will cry and weep, but the world will be glad, you will be sad, but your sadness will turn into gladness [21]When a woman is about to give birth, she is sad because her hour of suffering has come, but when the baby is born, she forgets her suffering, because she is happy that a baby has been born into the world [22]That is how it is with you now you are sad, but I will see you again, and your hearts will be filled with gladness, the kind of gladness that no one can take away from you 23 "When that day comes, you will not ask me for anything I am telling you the truth the Father will give you whatever you ask him for in my name[f] [24]Until now you have not asked for anything in my name, ask and you will receive, so that your happiness may be complete

Victory over the World

25 "I have used figures of speech to tell you these things But the time will come when I will not use figures of speech, but will speak to you plainly about the Father [26]When that day comes, you will ask him in my name, and I do not say that I will ask him on your behalf, [27]for the Father himself loves you He loves you because you love me and have believed that I came from God [28]I did come from the Father, and I came into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father" 29 Then his disciples said to him, "Now you are speaking plainly, without using figures of speech [30]We know now that you know everything, you do not need someone to ask you questions This makes us believe that you came from God" 31 Jesus answered them, "Do you believe now? [32]The time is coming, and is already here, when all of you will be scattered, each one to his own home, and I will be left all alone But I am not really alone because the Father is with me [33]I have told you this so that you will have peace by being united to me The world will make you suffer But be brave! I have defeated the world!"

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

17 After Jesus finished saying this, he looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come Give glory to your Son, so that the Son may give glory to you [2]For you gave him authority

Father, the hour has come (17 1) over all mankind, so that he might give eternal life to all those you gave him [3]And eternal life means knowing you, the only true God, and knowing Jesus Christ, whom you sent [4]I have shown your glory on earth, I have finished the work you gave me to do [5]Father! Give me glory in your presence now, the same glory I had with you before the world was made 6 "I have made you known to those you gave me out of the world They belonged to you, and you gave them to me They have obeyed your word, [7]and now they know that everything you gave me comes from you [8]I gave them the message that you gave me, and they received it, they know that it is true that I came from you, and they believe that you sent me 9 "I pray for them I do not pray for the world but for those you gave me, for they belong to you 10 All I have is yours, and all you have is mine, and my glory is shown through them 11 And now I am coming to you, I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world Holy Father! Keep them safe by the power of your name, the name you gave me,[g] so that they may be one just as you and I are one 12 While I was with them, I kept them safe by the power of your name, the name you gave me [h] I protected them, and not one of them was lost, except the man who was bound to be lost—so that the scripture might come true 13 And now I am coming to you, and I say these things in the world so that they might have my joy in their hearts in all its fullness 14 I gave them your message, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world 15 I do not ask you to take them out of the world, but I do ask you to keep them safe from the Evil One 16 Just as I do not belong to the world, they do not belong to the world 17 Dedicate them to yourself by means of the truth, your word is truth 18 I sent them into the world, just as you sent me into the world 19 And for their sake I dedicate myself to you, in order that they, too, may be truly dedicated to you 20 "I pray not only for them, but also for those who believe in me because of their message 21 I pray that they may all be one Father! May they be in us, just as you are in me and I am in you May they be one, so that the world will believe that you sent me 22 I gave them the same glory you gave me, so that they may be one, just as you and I are one 23 I in them and you in me, so that they may be completely one, in order that the world may know that you sent me and that you love them as you love me 24 "Father! You have given them to me, and I want them to be with me where I am, so that they may see my glory, the glory you gave me, for you loved me before the world was made 25 Righteous Father! The world does not know you, but I know you, and these know that you sent me 26 I made you known to them, and I will continue to do so, in order that the love you have for me may be in them, and so that I also may be in them"

18 After Jesus had said this prayer, he left with his disciples and went across the brook called Kidron There was a garden in that place, and Jesus and his disciples went in 2 Judas, the traitor, knew where it was, because many times Jesus had met there with his disciples 3 So Judas went to the garden, taking with him a group of Roman soldiers, and some temple guards sent by the chief priests and the Pharisees, they were armed and carried lanterns and torches 4 Jesus knew everything that was going to happen to him, so he stepped forward and asked them, "Who is it you are looking for?" 5 "Jesus of Nazareth," they answered
"I am he," he said Judas, the traitor, was standing there with them 6 When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they moved back and fell to the ground 7 Again Jesus asked them, "Who is it you are looking for?"
"Jesus of Nazareth," they said 8 "I have already told you that I am he," Jesus said "If, then, you are looking for me, let these others go" (9 He said this so that what he had said might come true "Father, I have not lost even one of those you gave me") 10 Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the High Priest's slave, cutting off his right ear The name of the slave was Malchus 11 Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword back in its place! Do you think that I will not drink the cup of suffering which my Father has given
me?"

Jesus before Annas

12 Then the Roman soldiers with their commanding officer and the Jewish guards arrested Jesus, bound him, 13 and took him first to Annas He was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was High Priest that year 14 It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jewish authorities that it was better that one man should die for all the people

[g] Keep them safe by the power of your name, the name you gave me, some manuscripts have By the power of your name keep safe those you have given me

(Matt 26 69-70, Mark 14 66-68, Luke 22 55-57)

15 Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus That other disciple was well known to the High Priest, so he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the High Priest's house, 16 while Peter stayed outside by the gate Then the other disciple went back out, spoke to the girl at the gate, and brought Peter inside 17 The girl at the gate said to Peter, "Aren't you also one of the disciples of that man?"
"No, I am not," answered Peter 18 It was cold, so the servants and guards had built a charcoal fire and were standing round it, warming themselves So Peter went over and stood with them, warming himself

The High Priest Questions Jesus
(Matt 26 59-66, Mark 14 55-61, Luke 22 66-71)

19 The High Priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching 20 Jesus answered, "I have always spoken publicly to everyone, all my teaching was done in the synagogues and in the Temple, where all the people come together I have never said anything in secret 21 Why, then, do you question me? Question the people who heard me Ask them what I told them—they know what I said" 22 When Jesus said this, one of the guards there slapped him and said, "How dare you talk like that to the High Priest!" 23 Jesus answered him, "If I have said anything wrong, tell everyone here what it was But if I am right in what I have said, why do you hit me?" 24 Then Annas sent him, still bound to Caiaphas the High Priest

Peter Denies Jesus Again
(Matt 26 71-75, Mark 14 69-72 Luke 22.58-62)

25 Peter was still standing there keeping himself warm So the others said to him, "Aren't you also one of the disciples of that man?"
But Peter denied it "No, I am not,"
he said
26 One of the High Priest's slaves, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, spoke up "Didn't I see you with him in the garden?" he asked 27 Again Peter said "No"—and at once a cock crowed

Jesus Before Pilate
(Matt 27 1-2, 11-14, Mark 15 1-5 Luke 23 1-5)

28 Early in the morning Jesus was taken from Caiaphas' house to the governor's palace The Jewish authorities did not go inside the palace, for they wanted to keep themselves ritually clean, in order to be able to eat the Passover meal 29 So Pilate went outside to them and asked, "What do you accuse this man of?" 30 Their answer was, "We would not have brought him to you if he had not committed a crime" 31 Pilate said to them, "Then you yourselves take him and try him according to your own law" They replied, "We are not allowed to put anyone to death" (32 This happened in order to make the words of Jesus come true, the words he used when he indicated the kind of death he would die) 33 Pilate went back into the palace and called Jesus "Are you the King of the Jews?" he asked him 34 Jesus answered, "Does this question come from you or have others told you about me?" 35 Pilate replied, "Do you think I am a Jew? It was your own people and the chief priests who handed you over to me What have you done?" 36 Jesus said, "My kingdom does not belong to this world, if my kingdom belonged to this world, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish authorities No, my kingdom does not belong here!" 37 So Pilate asked him, "Are you a king, then?"
Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king I was born and came into the world for this one purpose, to speak about the truth Whoever belongs to the truth listens to me" 38 "And what is truth?" Pilate asked

(Matt 27 15-31 Mark 15 6-20, Luke 23 13-25)

Then Pilate went back outside to the people and said to them, "I cannot find any reason to condemn him 39 But according to the custom you have, I always set free a prisoner for you during the Passover Do you want me to set free for you the King of the Jews?" 40 They answered him with a shout,

18 32 Jn 3 14 12 32

And what is truth? (18 38)

"No, not him! We want Barabbas!" (Barabbas was a bandit) 19 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him whipped ²The soldiers made a crown out of thorny branches and put it on his head, then they put a purple robe on him ³and came to him and said, "Long live the King of the Jews!" And they went up and slapped him 4 Pilate went out once more and said to the crowd, "Look, I will bring him out here to you to let you see that I cannot find any reason to condemn him " ⁵So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe Pilate said to them, "Look! Here is the man!" 6 When the chief priests and the temple guards saw him, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "You take him, then, and crucify him I find no reason to condemn him " 7 The crowd answered back, "We have a law that says he ought to die, because he claimed to be the Son of God " 8 When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid ⁹He went back into the palace and asked Jesus, "Where do you come from?"
But Jesus did not answer ¹⁰Pilate said to him, "You will not speak to me?
Remember, I have the authority to set you free and also to have you crucified " 11 Jesus answered, "You have authority over me only because it was given to you by God So the man who handed me over to you is guilty of a worse sin " 12 When Pilate heard this, he tried to find a way to set Jesus free But the crowd shouted back, "If you set him free, that means that you are not the Emperor's friend! Anyone who claims to be a king is a rebel against the Emperor!" 13 When Pilate heard these words, he took Jesus outside and sat down on the judge's seat in the place called "The Stone Pavement " (In Hebrew the name is "Gabbatha ") ¹⁴It was then almost noon

No, not him! We want Barabbas! (18 40) of the day before the Passover. Pilate said to the people, "Here is your king!" 15 They shouted back, "Kill him! Kill him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked them, "Do you want me to crucify your king?" The chief priests answered, "The only king we have is the Emperor!" 16 Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

(Matt 27.32-44; Mark 15.21-32; Luke 23.26-43)

So they took charge of Jesus. 17 He went out, carrying his cross, and came to "The Place of the Skull," as it is called. (In Hebrew it is called "Golgotha.") 18 There they crucified him; and they also crucified two other men, one on each side, with Jesus between them. 19 Pilate wrote a notice and had it put on the cross. "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews," is what he wrote. 20 Many people read it, because the place where Jesus was crucified was not far from the city. The notice was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. 21 The chief priests said to Pilate, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'This man said, I am the King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written stays written." 23 After the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one part for each soldier. They also took the robe which was made of one piece of woven cloth without any seams in it. 24 The soldiers said to one another, "Let's not tear it; let's throw dice to see who will get it." This happened in order to make the scripture come true:

"They divided my clothes among themselves
and gambled for my robe."

And this is what the soldiers did.
25 Standing close to Jesus' cross were his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.
26 Jesus saw his mother and the disciple he loved standing there; so he said to his mother, "He is your son." 27 Then he said to the disciple, "She is your mother." From that time the disciple took her to live in his home.

(Matt 27.45-56; Mark 15.33-41; Luke 23.44-49)

28 Jesus knew that by now everything had been completed; and in order to make the scripture come true, he said, "I am thirsty."
29 A bowl was there, full of cheap wine; so a sponge was soaked in the wine, put on a stalk of hyssop, and lifted up to his lips. 30 Jesus drank the wine and said, "It is finished!"
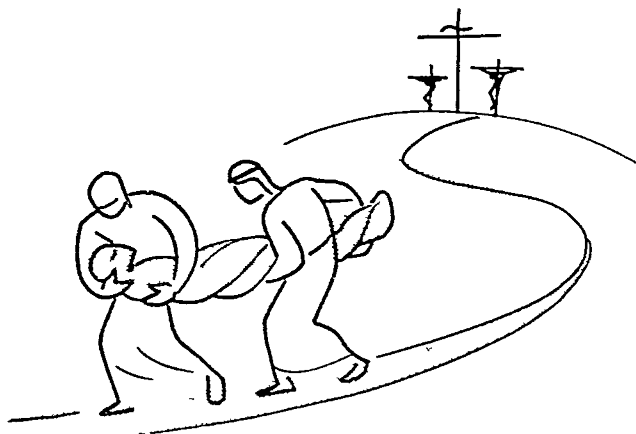
Then he bowed his head and died.



Jesus' Side Is Pierced

31 Then the Jewish authorities asked Pilate to allow them to break the legs of the men who had been crucified, and to take the bodies down from the crosses.
They requested this because it was Friday, and they did not want the bodies to stay on the crosses on the Sabbath, since the coming Sabbath was especially holy. 32 So the soldiers went and broke the legs of the first man and then of the other man who had been crucified with Jesus. 33 But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they did not break his legs. 34 One of the soldiers, however, plunged his spear into Jesus' side, and at once blood and water poured out.
(35 The one who saw this happen has spoken of it, so that you also may believe.[t] What he said is true, and he knows that he speaks the truth.) 36 This was done to make the scripture come true: "Not one of his bones will be broken." 37 And there is another scripture that says, "People will look at him whom they pierced."

(Matt 27.57-61; Mark 15.42-47; Luke 23.50-56)

38 After this, Joseph, who was from the town of Arimathea, asked Pilate if he could take Jesus' body. (Joseph was a follower of Jesus, but in secret, because he was afraid of the Jewish authorities.) Pilate told him he could have the body, so Joseph went and took it away.
39 Nicodemus, who at first had gone to see Jesus at night, went with Joseph, taking with him about thirty kilogrammes of spices, a mixture of myrrh and aloes.
40 The two men took Jesus' body and wrapped it in linen with the spices according to the Jewish custom of preparing a body for burial. 41 There was a garden in the place where Jesus had been put to death, and in it there was a new tomb where no one had ever been buried 42 Since it was the day before the Sabbath and because the tomb was close by, they placed Jesus' body there

The Empty Tomb
(Matt 28 1-8, Mark 16 1-8, Luke 24 1-12)

20 Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been taken away from the entrance 2 She went running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!" 3 Then Peter and the other disciple went to the tomb 4 The two of them were running, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first 5 He bent over and saw the linen wrappings, but he did not go in 6 Behind him came Simon Peter, and he went straight into the tomb He saw the linen wrappings lying there 7 and the cloth which had been round Jesus' head It was not lying with the linen wrappings but was rolled up by itself 8 Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, he saw and believed (9 They still did not understand the scripture which said that he must rise from death) 10 Then the disciples went back home

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene
(Matt 28 9-10, Mark 16 9-11)

11 Mary stood crying outside the tomb While she was still crying, she bent over and looked in the tomb 12 and saw two angels there dressed in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head and the other at the feet 13 "Woman, why are you crying?" they asked her She answered, "They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have put him!" 14 Then she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus 15 "Woman, why are you crying?" Jesus asked her "Who is it that you are looking for?"
She thought he was the gardener, so she said to him, "If you took him away, sir, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and get him " 16 Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned towards him and said in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (This means "Teacher ")
17 "Do not hold on to me," Jesus told her, "because I have not yet gone back up to the Father But go to my brothers and tell them that I am returning to him who is my Father and their Father, my God and their God " 18 So Mary Magdalene went and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord and related to them what he had told her

Look at my hands. Stop your doubting, and believe! (20.27)

Jesus Appears to His Disciples
(Matt 28.16–20; Mark 16.14–18; Luke 24.36–49)

19 It was late that Sunday evening, and the disciples were gathered together behind locked doors, because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities. Then Jesus came and stood among them.
"Peace be with you," he said. 20 After saying this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy at seeing the Lord. 21 Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so I send you." 22 Then he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive people's sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

Jesus and Thomas

24 One of the twelve disciples, Thomas (called the Twin), was not with them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

Thomas said to them, "Unless I see the scars of the nails in his hands and put my finger on those scars and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

26 A week later the disciples were together again indoors, and Thomas was with them. The doors were locked, but Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." 27 Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at my hands; then stretch out your hand and put it in my side. Stop your doubting, and believe!"

28 Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus said to him, "Do you believe because you see me? How happy are those who believe without seeing me!"

The Purpose of This Book

30 In his disciples' presence Jesus performed many other miracles which are not written down in this book. 31 But these have been written in order that you may believe[j] that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through your faith in him you may have life.

Jesus Appears to Seven Disciples

21 After this, Jesus appeared once more to his disciples at Lake Tiberias. This is how it happened. 2 Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael (the one from Cana in Galilee), the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples of Jesus were all together.
3 Simon Peter said to the others, "I am going fishing."

"We will come with you," they told him.
So they went out in a boat, but all that night they did not catch a thing. 4 As the sun was rising, Jesus stood at the water's edge, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5 Then he asked them, "Young men, haven't you caught anything?"

"Not a thing," they answered.

6 He said to them, "Throw your net out on the right side of the boat, and you will catch some." So they threw the net out and could not pull it back in, because they had caught so many fish 7 The disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his outer garment round him (for he had taken his clothes off) and jumped into the water 8 The other disciples came to shore in the boat, pulling the net full of fish They were not very far from land, about a hundred metres away 9 When they stepped ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there with fish on it and some bread 10 Then Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught " 11 Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net ashore full of big fish, a hundred and fifty-three in all, even though there were so many, still the net did not tear 12 Jesus said to them, "Come and eat " None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord 13 So Jesus went over, took the bread, and gave it to them, he did the same with the fish 14 This, then, was the third time Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from death

Jesus and Peter

15 After they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?"
"Yes, Lord," he answered, "you know that I love you " Jesus said to him, "Take care of my lambs " 16 A second time Jesus said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love
me?"
"Yes, Lord," he answered, "you know that I love you "
Jesus said to him, "Take care of my sheep " 17 A third time Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was sad because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" so he said to him, "Lord, you know everything, you know that I love you!" Jesus said to him, "Take care of my sheep 18 I am telling you the truth when you were young, you used to get ready and go anywhere you wanted to, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will bind you and take you where you don't want to go " 19 (In saying this, Jesus was indicating the way in which Peter would die and bring glory to God) Then Jesus said to him,
"Follow me!"

Jesus and the Other Disciple

20 Peter turned round and saw behind him that other disciple, whom Jesus loved—the one who had leaned close to Jesus at the meal and had asked, "Lord, who is going to betray you?" 21 When Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?" 22 Jesus answered him, "If I want him

Follow me!"
23 So a report spread among the followers of Jesus that this disciple would not die But Jesus did not say that he would not die, he said, "If I want him
24 He is the disciple who spoke of these things, the one who also wrote them down, and we know that what he said is true

Conclusion

25 Now, there are many other things that Jesus did If they were all written down one by one, I suppose that the whole world could not hold the books that would be written

THE ACTS

OF THE APOSTLES

INTRODUCTION

The Acts of the Apostles is a continuation of The Gospel of Luke Its chief purpose is to tell how Jesus' early followers, led by the Holy Spirit, spread the Good News about him "in Jerusalem, in all Judaea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (1 8) It is the story of the Christian movement as it began among the Jewish people and went on to become a faith for the whole world The writer was also concerned to reassure his readers that the Christians were not a subversive political threat to the Roman Empire, and that the Christian faith was the fulfilment of the Jewish religion

Acts may be divided into three parts, reflecting the ever widening area in which the Good News about Jesus was proclaimed and the church established (1) the beginning of the Christian movement in Jerusalem following the ascension of Jesus, (2) expansion into other parts of Palestine, and (3) further expansion, into the Mediterranean world as far as Rome

An important feature of Acts is the activity of the Holy Spirit, who comes with power upon the believers in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost and continues to guide and strengthen the church and its leaders throughout the events reported in the book The early Christian message is summarized in a number of sermons, and the events recorded in Acts show the power of this message in the lives of the believers and in the fellowship of the church

In my first book I wrote about all the things that Jesus did and taught from the time he began his work 2 until the day he was taken up to heaven Before he was taken up, he gave instructions by the power of the Holy Spirit to the men he had chosen as his apostles 3 For forty days after his death he appeared to them many times in ways that proved beyond doubt that he was alive They saw him, and he talked with them about the Kingdom of God 4 And when they came together,[a] he gave them this order "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift I told you about, the gift my Father promised 5 John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit "

6 When the apostles met together with Jesus, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time give the Kingdom back to Israel?" 7 Jesus said to them, "The times and occasions are set by my Father's own authority, and it is not for you to know when they will be 8 But when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, you will be filled with power, and you will be witnesses for me in Jerusalem, in all Judaea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth " 9 After saying this, he was taken up to heaven as they watched him, and a cloud hid him from their sight 10 They still had their eyes fixed on the sky as he went away, when two men dressed in white suddenly stood beside them 11 and said, "Galileans, why are you standing there looking up at the sky? This Jesus, who was taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way that you saw him go to heaven "

Judas' Successor

12 Then the apostles went back to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is about a kilometre away from the city 13 They entered the city and went up to the room where they were staying Peter, John, James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Patriot, and Judas son of James 14 They gathered frequently to pray as a group, together with the women and with Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers 15 A few days later there was a meeting of the believers, about a hundred and twenty in all, and Peter stood up to speak 16 "My brothers," he said, "the scripture had to come true in which the Holy Spirit, speaking through David, made a prediction about Judas, who was the guide for those who arrested Jesus 17 Judas was a member of our group, for he had been chosen to have a part in our work " 18 (With the money that Judas got for his evil act he bought a field, where he fell to his death, he burst open and all his bowels spilt out 19 All the people living in Jerusalem heard about it, and so in their own language they call that field Akeldama, which means "Field of Blood ") 20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms,
'May his house become empty, may no one live in it ' It is also written,
'May someone else take his place of service ' 21-22 "So then, someone must join us as a witness to the resurrection of the Fellow-Jews listen to me! (2 14)

Lord Jesus He must be one of the men who were in our group during the whole time that the Lord Jesus travelled about with us, beginning from the time John preached his message of baptism[b] until the day Jesus was taken up from us to heaven"
23 So they proposed two men Joseph, who was called Barsabbas (also known as Justus), and Matthias 24 Then they prayed, "Lord, you know the thoughts of everyone, so show us which of these two you have chosen 25 to serve as an apostle in the place of Judas, who left to go to the place where he belongs" 26 Then they drew lots to choose between the two men, and the one chosen was Matthias, who was added to the group of eleven apostles

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When the day of Pentecost came, all the believers were gathered together in one place 2 Suddenly there was a noise from the sky which sounded like a strong wind blowing, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting 3 Then they saw what looked like tongues of fire which spread out and touched each person there 4 They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to talk in other

5 There were Jews living religious men who had com this noise, a large crowd gathered They were all excited, because each one of them heard the believers speaking in his own language 7 In amazement and wonder they exclaimed, "These people who are talking like this are Galileans! 8 How is it, then, that all of us hear them speaking in our own native languages? 9 We are from Parthia, Media, and Elam, from Mesopotamia, Judaea, and Cappadocia, from Pontus and Asia, 10 from Phrygia and Pamphylia, from Egypt and the regions of Libya near Cyrene Some of us are from Rome, 11 both Jews and Gentiles converted to Judaism, and some of us are from Crete and Arabia—yet all of us hear them speaking in our own languages about the great things that God has done!" 12 Amazed and confused, they kept asking each other, "What does this mean?" 13 But others made fun of the believers, saying, "These people are drunk!"

Peter's Message

14 Then Peter stood up with the other eleven apostles and in a loud voice began to speak to the crowd. "Fellow-Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, listen to me and let me tell you

him

17 ‘This is what I will do in the last days, God says
I will pour out my Spirit on everyone Your sons and daughters will proclaim
my message,
your young men will see visions, and your old men will have dreams 18 Yes, even on my servants, both men and women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will proclaim my message 19 I will perform miracles in the sky above and wonders on the earth below There will be blood, fire, and thick smoke, 20 the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will turn red as blood, before the great and glorious Day of the Lord comes 21 And then, whoever calls out to the Lord for help will be saved’

22 “Listen to these words, fellow-Israelites! Jesus of Nazareth was a man whose divine authority was clearly proven to you by all the miracles and wonders which God performed through him You yourselves know this, for it happened here among you 23 In accordance with his own plan God had already decided that Jesus would be handed over to you, and you killed him by letting sinful men crucify him 24 But God raised him from death, setting him free from its power, because it was impossible that death should hold him prisoner 25 For David said about him, ‘I saw the Lord before me at all times, he is near me, and I will not be troubled 26 And so I am filled with gladness, and my words are full of joy And I, mortal though I am, will rest assured in hope, 27 because you will not abandon me in the world of the dead,[c] you will not allow your faithful servant to rot in the grave 28 You have shown me the paths that lead to life, and your presence will fill me with joy’

29 “My brothers, I must speak to you plainly about our famous ancestor King David He died and was buried, and his grave is here with us to this very day 30 He was a prophet, and he knew what God had promised him God had made a vow that he would make one of David’s descendants a king, just as David was 31 David saw what God was going to do in the future, and so he spoke about the resurrection of the Messiah when he said, ‘He was not abandoned in the world of the dead, his body did not rot in the grave’ 32 God has raised this very Jesus from death, and we are all witnesses to this fact 33 He has been raised to the right-hand side of God, his Father, and has received from him the Holy Spirit, as he had promised What you now see and hear is his gift that he has poured out on us 34 For it was not David who went up into heaven, rather he said, ‘The Lord said to my Lord
Sit here at my right
35 until I put your enemies as a footstool
under your feet’

36 “All the people of Israel, then, are to know for sure that this Jesus, whom you crucified, is the one that God has made Lord and Messiah!”

37 When the people heard this, they were deeply troubled and said to Peter and the other apostles, “What shall we do, brothers?”

38 Peter said to them, “Each one of you must turn away from his sins and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, so that your sins will be forgiven, and you will receive God’s gift, the Holy Spirit 39 For God’s promise was made to you and your children, and to all who are far away—all whom the Lord our God calls to himself”

40 Peter made his appeal to them and with many other words he urged them, saying, “Save yourselves from the punishment coming on this wicked people!” 41 Many of them believed his message and were baptized, and about three thousand people were added to the group that day 42 They spent their time in learning from the apostles, taking part in the fellowship, and sharing in the fellowship meals and the prayers

Life among the Believers being done through the apostles, and everyone was filled with awe 44 All the believers continued together in close fellowship and shared their belongings with one another 45 They would sell their property and possessions, and distribute the money among all, according to what each one needed 46 Day after day they met as a group in the Temple, and they had their meals together in their homes, eating with glad and humble hearts, 47 praising God, and enjoying the good will of all the people And every day the Lord added to their group those who were being

A Lame Man Is Healed

3 One day Peter and John went to the Temple at three o'clock in the afternoon, the hour for prayer 2 There at the Beautiful Gate, as it was called, was a man who had been lame all his life Every day he was carried to the gate to beg for money from the people who were going into the Temple 3 When he saw Peter and John going in, he begged them to give him something 4 They looked straight at him, and Peter said, "Look at us!" 5 So he looked at them, expecting to get something from them 6 But Peter said to him, "I have no money at all, but I give you what I have in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth I order you to get up and walk!" 7 Then he took him by his right hand and helped him up At once the man's feet and ankles became strong, 8 he jumped up, stood on his feet, and started walking around Then he went into the Temple with them, walking and jumping and praising God 9 The people there saw him walking and praising God, 10 and when they recognized him as the beggar who had sat at the Beautiful Gate, they were all surprised and amazed at what had happened to him

Peter's Message in the Temple

11 As the man held on to Peter and John in Solomon's Porch, as it was called, the people were amazed and ran to them 12 When Peter saw the people, he said to them, "Fellow-Israelites, why are you surprised at this, and why do you stare at us? Do you think that it was by means of our own power or godliness that we made this man walk? 13 The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, has given divine glory to his Servant Jesus But you handed him over to the authorities, and you rejected him in Pilate's presence, even after Pilate had decided to set him free 14 He was holy and good, but you rejected him, and instead you asked Pilate to do you the favour of turning loose a murderer 15 You killed the one who leads to life, but God raised him from death—and we are witnesses to this 16 It was the power of his name that gave strength to this lame man What you see and know was done by faith in his name, it was faith in Jesus that has made him well, as you can all see 17 "And now, my brothers, I know that what you and your leaders did to Jesus was due to your ignorance 18 God announced long ago through all the prophets

3 13 Ex 3 15 3 14 Mt 27 15-23, Mk 15 6-14, Lk 23 13-23, Jn 19 12-15 that his Messiah had to suffer, and he made it come true in this way 19 Repent, then, and turn to God, so that he will forgive your sins If you do, 20 times of spiritual strength will come from the Lord, and he will send Jesus, who is the Messiah he has already chosen for you 21 He must remain in heaven until the time comes for all things to be made new, as God announced through his holy prophets who lived long ago 22 For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will send you a prophet, just as he sent me,[d] and he will be one of your own people You are to obey everything that he tells you to do 23 Anyone who does not obey that prophet shall be separated from God's people and destroyed' 24 And all the prophets who had a message, including Samuel and those who came after him, also announced what has been happening these days 25 The promises of God through his prophets are for you, and you share in the covenant which God made with your ancestors As he said to Abraham, 'Through your descendants I will bless all the people on earth' 26 And so God chose his Servant and sent him first to you, to bless you by making every one of you turn away from his wicked ways"

Peter and John before the Council

4 Peter and John were still speaking to the people when some priests,[e] the officer in charge of the temple guards, and some Sadducees arrived 2 They were annoyed because the two apostles were teaching the people that Jesus had risen from death, which proved that the dead will rise to life 3 So they arrested them and put them in jail until the next day, since it was already late 4 But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand

5 The next day the Jewish leaders, the elders, and the teachers of the Law gathered in Jerusalem 6 They met with the High Priest Annas and with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and the others who belonged to the High Priest's family 7 They made the apostles stand before them and asked them, "How did you do this? What power have you got or whose name did you use?"

8 Peter, full of the Holy Spirit, answered them, "Leaders of the people and elders 9 if we are being questioned today about the good deed done to the lame man and how he was healed, 10 then you should all know, and all the people of Israel should know, that this man stands here before you completely well through the power of the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth—whom you crucified and whom God raised from death 11 Jesus is the one of whom the scripture says,

'The stone that you the builders despised turned out to be the most important
of all'

12 Salvation is to be found through him alone, in all the world there is no one else whom God has given who can save
us"

13 The members of the Council were amazed to see how bold Peter and John were and to learn that they were ordinary men of no education They realized then that they had been companions of Jesus 14 But there was nothing that they could say, because they saw the man who had been healed standing there with Peter and John 15 So they told them to leave the Council room, and then they started discussing among themselves 16 "What shall we do with these men?" they asked "Everyone in Jerusalem knows that this extraordinary miracle has been performed by them, and we cannot deny it 17 But to keep this matter from spreading any further among the people, let us warn these men never again to speak to anyone in the name of Jesus"

18 So they called them back in and told them that on no condition were they to speak or to teach in the name of Jesus 19 But Peter and John answered them, "You yourselves judge which is right in God's sight—to obey you or to obey God 20 For we cannot stop speaking of what we ourselves have seen and heard" 21 So the Council warned them even more strongly and then set them free They saw that it was impossible to punish them, because the people were all praising God for what had happened 22 The man on whom this miracle of healing had been performed was over forty years old

The Believers Pray for Boldness

23 As soon as Peter and John were set free, they returned to their group and told them what the chief priests and the elders had said 24 When the believers heard it, [d] just as he sent me, or like me [e] priests, some manuscripts have chief priests 3 22 Deut 18 15,18 3 23 Deut 18 19 3 25 Gen 22 18 4 11. Ps 118.22 4 24 Ex 20 11, Neh 9 6, Ps 146 6 they all joined together in prayer to God "Master and Creator of heaven, earth, and sea, and all that is in them! 25 By means of the Holy Spirit you spoke through our ancestor David, your servant, when he said,

'Why were the Gentiles furious, why did people make their useless plots?
26 The kings of the earth prepared themselves,
and the rulers met together against the Lord and his Messiah' 27 For indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together in this city with the Gentiles and the people of Israel against Jesus, your holy Servant, whom you made Messiah 28 They gathered to do everything that you by your power and will had already decided would happen 29 And now, Lord, take notice of the threats they have made, and allow us, your servants, to speak your message with all boldness 30 Stretch out your hand to heal, and grant that wonders and miracles may be performed through the name of your holy Servant Jesus" 31 When they finished praying, the place where they were meeting was shaken They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to proclaim God's message with boldness

The Believers Share Their Possessions

32 The group of believers was one in mind and heart No one said that any of his belongings was his own, but they all shared with one another everything they had 33 With great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and God poured rich blessings on them all 34 There was no one in the group who was in need Those who owned fields or houses would sell them, bring the money received from the sale, 35 and hand it over to the apostles, and the money was distributed to each one according to his need 36 And so it was that Joseph, a Levite born in Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means "One who Encourages"), 37 sold a field he owned, brought the money, and handed it over to the apostles

Ananias and Sapphira

5 But there was a man named Ananias, who with his wife Sapphira sold some property that belonged to them 2 But with his wife's agreement he kept part of the money for himself and handed the rest over to the apostles 3 Peter said to him, "Ananias, why did you let Satan take control of you and make you lie to the Holy Spirit by keeping part of the money you received for the property? 4 Before you sold the property, it belonged to you, and after you sold it, the money was yours Why, then, did you decide to do such a thing? You have not lied to men—you have lied to God!" 5 As soon as Ananias heard this, he fell down dead, and all who heard about it were terrified 6 The young men came in, wrapped up his body, carried him out, and buried him 7 About three hours later his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in 8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, was this the full amount you and your husband received for your property?"
"Yes," she answered, "the full amount" 9 So Peter said to her, "Why did you and your husband decide to put the Lord's Spirit to the test? The men who buried your husband are now at the door, and they will carry you out too!" 10 At once she fell down at his feet and died The young men came in and saw that she was dead, so they carried her out and buried her beside her husband 11 The whole church and all the others who heard of this were terrified

Miracles and Wonders

12 Many miracles and wonders were being performed among the people by the apostles All the believers met together in Solomon's Porch 13 Nobody outside the group dared to join them, even though the people spoke highly of them 14 But more and more people were added to the group—a crowd of men and women who believed in the Lord 15 As a result of what the apostles were doing, sick people were carried out into the streets and placed on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by 16 And crowds of people came in from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing those who were ill or who had evil spirits in them, and they were all healed

The Apostles Are Persecuted

17 Then the High Priest and all his companions, members of the local party of the Sadducees, became extremely jealous of the apostles, so they decided to take action 18 They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail 19 But that night an angel of the Lord opened the prison gates, led the apostles out, and said to them, 20 "Go and stand in the Temple, and tell the people all about this new life" 21 The apostles obeyed, and at dawn they entered the Temple and started teaching

The High Priest and his companions called together all the Jewish elders for a full meeting of the Council, then they sent orders to the prison to have the apostles brought before them 22 But when the officials arrived, they did not find the apostles in prison, so they returned to the Council and reported, 23 "When we arrived at the jail, we found it locked up tight and all the guards on watch at the gates, but when we opened the gates, we found no one inside!" 24 When the chief priests and the officer in charge of the temple guards heard this, they wondered what had happened to the apostles 25 Then a man came in and said to them, "Listen! The men you put in prison are in the Temple teaching the people!" 26 So the officer went off with his men and brought the apostles back They did not use force, however, because they were afraid that the people might stone them 27 They brought the apostles in, made them stand before the Council, and the High Priest questioned them 28 "We gave you strict orders not to teach in the name of this man," he said, "but see what you have done! You have spread your teaching all over Jerusalem, and you want to make us responsible for his death!"

5 28 Mt 27 25

29 Peter and the other apostles replied, "We must obey God, not men. 30 The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from death, after you had killed him by nailing him to a cross. 31 God raised him to his right-hand side as Leader and Saviour, to give the people of Israel the opportunity to repent and have their sins forgiven. 32 We are witnesses to these things—we and the Holy Spirit, who is God's gift to those who obey him."

33 When the members of the Council heard this, they were so furious that they wanted to have the apostles put to death. 34 But one of them, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, who was a teacher of the Law and was highly respected by all the people, stood up in the Council. He ordered the apostles to be taken out, 35 and then he said to the Council, "Fellow-Israelites, be careful what you do to these men. 36 You remember that Theudas appeared some time ago, claiming to be somebody great, and about four hundred men joined him. But he was killed, all his followers were scattered, and his movement died out. 37 After that, Judas the Galilean appeared during the time of the census; he drew a crowd after him, but he also was killed, and all his followers were scattered. 38 And so in this case, I tell you, do not take any action against these men. Leave them alone! If what they have planned and done is of human origin, it will disappear, 39 but if it comes from God, you cannot possibly defeat them. You could find yourselves fighting against God!"

The Council followed Gamaliel's advice. 40 They called the apostles in, had them whipped, and ordered them never again to speak in the name of Jesus; and then they set them free. 41 As the apostles left the Council, they were happy, because God had considered them worthy to suffer disgrace for the sake of Jesus. 42 And every day in the Temple and in people's homes they continued to teach and preach the Good News about Jesus the Messiah.

The Seven Helpers

6 Some time later, as the number of disciples kept growing, there was a quarrel between the Greek-speaking Jews and the native Jews. The Greek-speaking Jews claimed that their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of funds. 2 So the twelve apostles called the whole group of believers together and said, "It is not right for us to neglect the preaching of God's word in order to handle finances. 3 So then, brothers, choose seven men among you who are known to be full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, and we will put them in charge of this matter. 4 We ourselves, then, will give our full time to prayer and the work of preaching."

5 The whole group was pleased with the apostles' proposal, so they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a Gentile from Antioch who had earlier been converted to Judaism. 6 The group presented them to the apostles, who prayed and placed their hands on them.

7 And so the word of God continued to spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem grew larger and larger, and a great number of priests accepted the faith.

The Arrest of Stephen

8 Stephen, a man richly blessed by God and full of power, performed great miracles and wonders among the people. 9 But he was opposed by some men who were members of the synagogue of the Freedmen[f] (as it was called), which included Jews from Cyrene and Alexandria. They and other Jews from the provinces of Cilicia and Asia started arguing with Stephen. 10 But the Spirit gave Stephen such wisdom that when he spoke, they could not refute him. 11 So they bribed some men to say, "We heard him speaking against Moses and against God!" 12 In this way they stirred up the people, the elders, and the teachers of the Law. They seized Stephen and took him before the Council. 13 Then they brought in some men to tell lies about him. "This man," they said, "is always talking against our sacred Temple and the Law of Moses. 14 We heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will tear down the Temple and change all the customs which have come down to us from Moses!" 15 All those sitting in the Council fixed their eyes on Stephen and saw that his face looked like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech

7 The High Priest asked Stephen, "Is this true?"

2 Stephen answered, "Brothers and [f]FREEDMEN: These were Jews who had been slaves, but had bought or been given their freedom.

7.2-3 Gen 12.1

fathers, listen to me! Before our ancestor Abraham had gone to live in Haran, the God of glory appeared to him in Mesopotamia [3]and said to him, 'Leave your family and country and go to the land that I will show you' [4]And so he left his country and went to live in Haran After Abraham's father died, God made him move to this land where you now live [5]God did not then give Abraham any part of it as his own, not even a square metre of ground, but God promised to give it to him, and that it would belong to him and to his descendants At the time God made this promise, Abraham had no children [6]This is what God said to him 'Your descendants will live in a foreign country, where they will be slaves and will be badly treated for four hundred years [7]But I will pass judgement on the people that they will serve, and afterwards they will come out of that country and will worship me in this place' [8]Then God gave Abraham the ceremony of circumcision as a sign of the covenant So Abraham circumcised Isaac a week after he was born, Isaac circumcised his son Jacob, and Jacob circumcised his twelve sons, the famous ancestors of our race

9 "Jacob's sons became jealous of their brother Joseph and sold him to be a slave in Egypt But God was with him [10]and brought him safely through all his troubles When Joseph appeared before the king of Egypt, God gave him a pleasing manner and wisdom, and the king made Joseph governor over the country and the royal household [11]Then there was a famine all over Egypt and Canaan, which caused much suffering Our ancestors could not find any food, [12]and when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent his sons, our ancestors, on their first visit there [13]On the second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and the king of Egypt came to know about Joseph's family [14]So Joseph sent a message to his father Jacob, telling him and the whole family, seventy-five people in all, to come to Egypt [15]Then Jacob went to Egypt, where he and his sons died [16]Their bodies were taken to Shechem, where they were buried in the grave which Abraham had bought from the clan of Hamor for a sum of money 17 "When the time drew near for God to keep the promise he had made to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt had grown much larger [18]At last a king who did not know about Joseph began to rule in Egypt [19]He tricked our ancestors and was cruel to them, forcing them to put their babies out of their homes, so that they would die [20]It was at this time that Moses was born, a very beautiful child He was cared for at home for three months, [21]and when he was put out of his home, the king's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son [22]He was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians and became a great man in words and deeds

23 "When Moses was forty years old, he decided to find out how his fellow-Israelites were being treated [24]He saw one of them being ill-treated by an Egyptian, so he went to his help and took revenge on the Egyptian by killing him [25](He thought that his own people would understand that God was going to use him to set them free, but they did not understand) [26]The next day he saw two Israelites fighting, and he tried to make peace between them 'Listen, men,' he said, 'you are fellow-Israelites, why are you fighting like this?' [27]But the one who was ill-treating the other pushed Moses aside 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?' he asked [28]'Do you want to kill me, just as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?' [29]When Moses heard this, he fled from Egypt and went to live in the land of Midian There he had two sons.

30 "After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai [31]Moses was amazed by what he saw, and went near the bush to get a better look But he heard the Lord's voice [32]'I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob' Moses trembled with fear and dared not look [33]The Lord said to him, 'Take your sandals off, for the place where you are standing is holy ground [34]I have seen the cruel suffering of my people in Egypt I have heard their groans, and I have come down to set them free Come now, I will send you to Egypt' 35 "Moses is the one who was rejected by the people of Israel 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?' they asked He is the one whom God sent to rule the people and set them free with the help of the angel who appeared to him in the burning bush 36 He led the people out of Egypt, performing miracles and wonders in Egypt and at the Red Sea and for forty years in the desert 37 Moses is the one who said to the people of Israel, 'God will send you a prophet, just as he sent me,[g] and he will be one of your own people' 38 He is the one who was with the people of Israel assembled in the desert, he was there with our ancestors and with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and he received God's living messages to pass on to us 39 "But our ancestors refused to obey him, they pushed him aside and wished that they could go back to Egypt 40 So they said to Aaron, 'Make us some gods who will lead us We do not know what has happened to that man Moses, who brought us out of Egypt' 41 It was then that they made an idol in the shape of a bull, offered sacrifice to it, and had a feast in honour of what they themselves had made 42 So God turned away from them and gave them over to worship the stars of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets

'People of Israel! It was not to me that you slaughtered and sacrificed animals
for forty years in the desert 43 It was the tent of the god Molech that you carried, and the image of Rephan, your star
god,
they were idols that you had made to worship
And so I will send you into exile beyond Babylon'

44 "Our ancestors had the Tent of God's presence with them in the desert It had been made as God had told Moses to make it, according to the pattern that Moses had been shown 45 Later on, our ancestors who received the tent from their fathers carried it with them when they went with Joshua and took over the land from the nations that God drove out as they advanced And it stayed there until the time of David 46 He won God's favour and asked God to allow him to provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob[h] 47 But it was Solomon who built him a house 48 "But the Most High God does not live in houses built by men, as the prophet
says,

49 'Heaven is my throne, says the Lord, and the earth is my footstool What kind of house would you build for me?
Where is the place for me to live in?
50 Did not I myself make all these things?'

51 "How stubborn you are!" Stephen went on to say "How heathen your hearts, how deaf you are to God's message! You are just like your ancestors you too have always resisted the Holy Spirit! 52 Was there any prophet that your ancestors did not persecute? They killed God's messengers, who long ago announced the coming of his righteous Servant And now you have betrayed and murdered him 53 You are the ones who received God's law, that was handed down by angels—yet you have not obeyed it!"

The Stoning of Stephen

54 As the members of the Council listened to Stephen, they became furious and ground their teeth at him in anger 55 But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw God's glory and Jesus standing at the right-hand side of God 56 "Look!" he said "I see heaven opened and the Son of Man standing at the right-hand side of God!" 57 With a loud cry the members of the Council covered their ears with their hands Then they all rushed at him at once, 58 threw him out of the city, and stoned him The witnesses left their cloaks in the care of a young man named Saul 59 They kept on stoning Stephen as he called out to the Lord, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" 60 He knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord! Do not remember this sin against them!" He said this and died

Saul Persecutes the Church

That very day the church in Jerusalem began to suffer cruel persecution All the believers, except the apostles, were scattered throughout the provinces of Judaea and Samaria 2 Some devout men buried Stephen, mourning for him with loud cries 3 But Saul tried to destroy the church, going from house to house, he dragged out the believers, both men and women, and threw them into jail

The Gospel Is Preached in Samaria

4 The believers who were scattered went everywhere, preaching the message 5 Philip went to the principal city[i] in Samaria and preached the Messiah to the people there 6 The crowds paid close attention to what Philip said, as they listened to him and saw the miracles that he performed 7 Evil spirits came out from many people with a loud cry, and many paralysed and lame people were healed 8 So there was great joy in that city 9 A man named Simon lived there, who for some time had astounded the Samaritans with his magic He claimed that he was someone great, 10 and everyone in the city, from all classes of society, paid close attention to him "He is that power of God known as 'The Great Power'," they said 11 They paid this attention to him because for such a long time he had astonished them with his magic 12 But when they believed Philip's message about the good news of the Kingdom of God and about Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women 13 Simon himself also believed, and after being baptized, he stayed close to Philip and was astounded when he saw the great wonders and miracles that were being performed 14 The apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had received the word of God, so they sent Peter and John to them 15 When they arrived, they prayed for the believers that they might receive the Holy Spirit 16 For the Holy Spirit had not yet come down on any of them, they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus 17 Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit 18 Simon saw that the Spirit had been given to the believers when the apostles placed their hands on them So he offered money to Peter and John, 19 and said, "Give this power to me too, so that anyone I place my hands on will receive the Holy Spirit" 20 But Peter answered him, "May you and your money go to hell, for thinking that you can buy God's gift with money!
21 You have no part or share in our work, because your heart is not right in God's sight 22 Repent, then, of this evil plan of yours, and pray to the Lord that he will 24 Simon said to Peter and John, "Please pray to the Lord for me, so that none of these things you spoke of will happen to me " 25 After they had given their testimony and proclaimed the Lord's message, Peter and John went back to Jerusalem On their way they preached the Good News in many villages of Samaria

Philip and the Ethiopian Official 26 An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get ready and go south[j] to the road that goes from Jerusalem to Gaza " (This road is not used nowadays)[k] 27-28 So Philip got ready and went Now an Ethiopian eunuch, who was an important official in charge of the treasury of the queen of Ethiopia, was on his way home He had been to Jerusalem to worship God and was going back home in his carriage As he rode along, he was reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah 29 The Holy Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to that carriage and stay close to it " 30 Philip ran over and heard him reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah He asked him, "Do you understand what you are reading?" 31 The official replied, "How can I understand unless someone explains it to me?" And he invited Philip to climb up and sit in the carriage with him 32 The passage of scripture which he was reading was this

"Like a sheep that is taken to be slaughtered, like a lamb that makes no sound when its wool is cut off, he did not say a word 33 He was humiliated, and justice was denied him
No one will be able to tell about his descendants,
because his life on earth has come to an end "

34 The official asked Philip, "Tell me, of whom is the prophet saying this? Of himself or of someone else?" 35 Then Philip began to speak, starting from this passage of scripture, he told him the Good News about Jesus 36 As they travelled down the road, they came to a place where there was some water, and the official said, "Here is some water What is to keep me from being baptized?"[l] 38 The official ordered the carriage to stop, and both Philip and the official went down into the water, and Philip baptized him 39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away The official did not see him again, but continued on his way, full of joy 40 Philip found himself in Ashdod, he went on to Caesarea, and on the way he preached the Good News in every town

The Conversion of Saul
(Acts 22 6-16, 26 12-18)

9 In the meantime Saul kept up his violent threats of murder against the followers of the Lord He went to the High Priest 2 and asked for letters of introduction to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he should find there any followers of the Way of the Lord, he would be able to arrest them, both men and women, and bring them back to Jerusalem 3 As Saul was coming near the city of Damascus, suddenly a light from the sky flashed round him 4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul! Why do you persecute me?" 5 "Who are you, Lord?" he asked "I am Jesus, whom you persecute," the voice said 6 "But get up and go into the city, where you will be told what you must do "
7 The men who were travelling with Saul had stopped, not saying a word, they heard the voice but could not see anyone 8 Saul got up from the ground and opened his eyes, but could not see a thing So they took him by the hand and led him into Damascus 9 For three days he was not able to see, and during that time he did not eat or drink anything 10 There was a Christian in Damascus named Ananias He had a vision, in which the Lord said to him, "Ananias!"
"Here I am, Lord," he answered 11 The Lord said to him, "Get ready and go to Straight Street, and at the house of Judas ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul He is praying, 12 and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come in and place his hands on him so that he might see again " 13 Ananias answered, "Lord, many people have told me about this man and about all the terrible things he has done to your people in Jerusalem 14 And he has come to Damascus with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who worship you " 15 The Lord said to him, "Go, because I have chosen him to serve me, to make my name known to Gentiles and kings and to the people of Israel 16 And I myself will show him all that he must suffer for my sake " 17 So Ananias went, entered the house where Saul was, and placed his hands on him "Brother Saul," he said, "the Lord has sent me—Jesus himself, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here He sent me so that you might see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit " 18 At once something like fish scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he was able to see again He stood up and was baptized, 19 and after he had eaten, his strength came back

Saul Preaches in Damascus

Saul stayed for a few days with the believers in Damascus 20 He went straight to the synagogues and began to preach that Jesus was the Son of God 21 All who heard him were amazed and asked, "Isn't he the one who in Jerusalem was killing those who worship that man Jesus? And didn't he come here for the very purpose of arresting those people and taking them back to the chief priests?" 22 But Saul's preaching became even more powerful, and his proofs that Jesus was the Messiah were so convincing that the Jews who lived in Damascus could not answer him 23 After many days had gone by, the Jews met together and made plans to kill Saul, 24 but he was told of their plan Day and night they watched the city gates in order to kill him 25 But one night Saul's followers took him and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket

Saul in Jerusalem

26 Saul went to Jerusalem and tried to join the disciples But they would not believe that he was a disciple, and they were all afraid of him 27 Then Barnabas came to his help and took him to the apostles He explained to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and that the Lord had spoken to him He also told them how boldly Saul had preached in the name of Jesus in Damascus 28 And so Saul stayed with them and went all over Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord 29 He also talked and disputed with the Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to kill him 30 When the believers found out about this, they took Saul to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus 31 And so it was that the church

9.23–25 2 Cor 11 32–33

throughout Judaea, Galilee, and Samaria had a time of peace. Through the help of the Holy Spirit it was strengthened and grew in numbers, as it lived in reverence for the Lord.

Peter in Lydda and Joppa

32 Peter travelled everywhere, and on one occasion he went to visit God's people who lived in Lydda. 33 There he met a man named Aeneas, who was paralysed and had not been able to get out of bed for eight years. 34 "Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ makes you well. Get up and make your bed." At once Aeneas got up.
35 All the people living in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.
36 In Joppa there was a woman named Tabitha, who was a believer. (Her name in Greek is Dorcas, meaning "a deer".) She spent all her time doing good and helping the poor. 37 At that time she became ill and died. Her body was washed and laid in a room upstairs. 38 Joppa was not very far from Lydda, and when the believers in Joppa heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him with the message, "Please hurry and come to us." 39 So Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, he was taken to the room upstairs, where all the widows crowded round him, crying and showing him all the shirts and coats that Dorcas had made while she was alive. 40 Peter put them all out of the room, and knelt down and prayed; then he turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 Peter reached over and helped her get up. Then he called all the believers, including the widows, and presented her alive to them. 42 The news about this spread all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord. 43 Peter stayed on in Joppa for many days with a leather-worker named Simon.

Peter and Cornelius

10 There was a man in Caesarea named Cornelius, who was a captain in the Roman regiment called "The Italian Regiment." 2 He was a religious man; he and his whole family worshipped God. He also did much to help the Jewish poor people and was constantly praying to God. 3 It was about three o'clock one afternoon when he had a vision, in which he clearly saw an angel of God come in and say to him, "Cornelius!" 4 He stared at the angel in fear and said, "What is it, sir?" The angel answered, "God is pleased with your prayers and works of charity, and is ready to answer you. 5 And now send some men to Joppa for a certain man whose full name is Simon Peter. 6 He is a guest in the home of a leather-worker named Simon, who lives by the sea." 7 Then the angel went away, and Cornelius called two of his house servants and a soldier, a religious man who was one of his personal attendants. 8 He told them what had happened and sent them off to Joppa.
9 The next day, as they were on their way and coming near Joppa, Peter went up on the roof of the house about noon in order to pray. 10 He became hungry and wanted something to eat; while the food was being prepared, he had a vision. 11 He saw heaven opened and something coming down that looked like a large sheet being lowered by its four corners to the earth. 12 In it were all kinds of animals, reptiles, and wild birds. 13 A voice said to him, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat!" 14 But Peter said, "Certainly not, Lord!
I have never eaten anything ritually unclean or defiled." 15 The voice spoke to him again, "Do not consider anything unclean that God has declared clean." 16 This happened three times, and then the thing was taken back up into heaven.
17 While Peter was wondering about the meaning of this vision, the men sent by Cornelius had learnt where Simon's house was, and they were now standing in front of the gate. 18 They called out and asked, "Is there a guest here by the name of Simon Peter?" 19 Peter was still trying to understand what the vision meant, when the Spirit said, "Listen! Three[m] men are here looking for you. 20 So get ready and go down, and do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them." 21 So Peter went down and said to the men, "I am the man you are looking for. Why have you come?"
22 "Captain Cornelius sent us," they answered. "He is a good man who worships God and is highly respected by all the Jewish people. An angel of God told him to invite you to his house, so that he could hear what you have to say."

[m] Three; some manuscripts have Some; one manuscript has Two.

23Peter invited the men in and persuaded them to spend the night there The next day he got ready and went with them, and some of the believers from Joppa went along with him 24The following day he arrived in Caesarea, where Cornelius was waiting for him, together with relatives and close friends that he had invited 25As Peter was about to go in, Cornelius met him, fell at his feet, and bowed down before him 26But Peter made him rise "Stand up," he said, "I myself am only a man" 27Peter kept on talking to Cornelius as he went into the house, where he found many people gathered 28He said to them, "You yourselves know very well that a Jew is not allowed by his religion to visit or associate with Gentiles But God has shown me that I must not consider any person ritually unclean or defiled 29And so when you sent for me, I came without any objection I ask you, then, why did you send for
me?" 30 Cornelius said, "It was about this time three days ago that I was praying[n] in my house at three o'clock in the afternoon Suddenly a man dressed in shining clothes stood in front of me 31and said 'Cornelius! God has heard your prayer and has taken notice of your works of charity 32Send someone to Joppa for a man whose full name is Simon Peter He is a guest in the home of Simon the leather-worker, who lives by the sea' 33And so I sent for you at once, and you have been good enough to come Now we are all here in the presence of God, waiting to hear anything that the Lord has instructed you to say"

Peter's Speech

34 Peter began to speak "I now realize that it is true that God treats everyone on the same basis 35Whoever worships him and does what is right is acceptable to him, no matter what race he belongs to 36You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all 37You know of the great event that took place throughout the land of Israel, beginning in Galilee after John preached his message of baptism 38You know about Jesus of Nazareth and how God poured out on him the Holy Spirit and power He went everywhere, doing good and healing all who were under the power of the Devil, for God was with him 39We are witnesses of everything that he did in the land of Israel and in Jerusalem Then they put him to death by nailing him to a cross 40But God raised him from death three days later and caused him to appear, 41not to everyone, but only to the witnesses that God had already chosen, that is, to us who ate and drank with him after he rose from death 42And he commanded us to preach the gospel to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God has appointed judge of the living and the dead 43All the prophets spoke about him, saying that everyone who believes in him will have his sins forgiven through the power of his name"

The Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

44 While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came down on all those who were listening to his message 45The Jewish believers who had come from Joppa with Peter were amazed that God had poured out his gift of the Holy Spirit on the Gentiles also 46For they heard them speaking in strange tongues and praising God's greatness Peter spoke up 47"These people have received the Holy Spirit, just as we also did Can anyone, then, stop them from being baptized with water?" 48So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ Then they asked him to stay with them for a few days

Peter's Report to the Church at Jerusalem

11 The apostles and the other believers throughout Judaea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God 2When Peter went to Jerusalem, those who were in favour of circumcising Gentiles criticized him, saying, 3"You were a guest in the home of uncircumcised Gentiles, and you even ate with them!" 4So Peter gave them a complete account of what had happened from the very beginning 5 "While I was praying in the city of Joppa, I had a vision I saw something coming down that looked like a large sheet being lowered by its four corners from heaven, and it stopped next to me 6I looked closely inside and saw domesticated and wild animals, reptiles, and wild birds 7Then I heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter, kill and eat!' 8But

[n]praying some manuscripts have praying and fasting

I said, 'Certainly not, Lord! No ritually unclean or defiled food has ever entered my mouth' 9 The voice spoke again from heaven, 'Do not consider anything unclean that God has declared clean' 10 This happened three times, and finally the whole thing was drawn back up into heaven 11 At that very moment three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea arrived at the house where I was[o] staying 12 The Spirit told me to go with them without hesitation These six fellow-believers from Joppa accompanied me to Caesarea, and we all went into the house of Cornelius 13 He told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send someone to Joppa for a man whose full name is Simon Peter 14 He will speak words to you by which you and all your family will be saved' 15 And when I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came down on them just as on us at the beginning 16 Then I remembered what the Lord had said 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit' 17 It is clear that God gave those Gentiles the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, then, to try to stop God!"

18 When they heard this, they stopped their criticism and praised God, saying, "Then God has given to the Gentiles also the opportunity to repent and live!"

The Church at Antioch

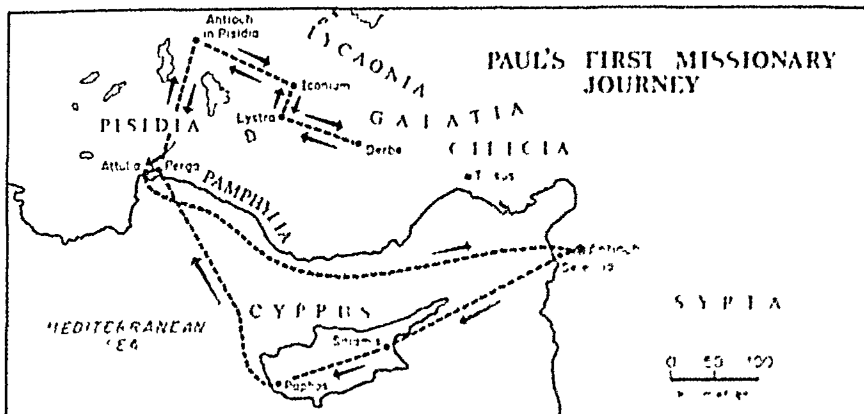
19 Some of the believers who were scattered by the persecution which took place when Stephen was killed went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, telling the message to Jews only 20 But other believers, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and proclaimed the message to Gentiles[p] also, telling them the Good News about the Lord Jesus 21 The Lord's power was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord

22 The news about this reached the church in Jerusalem, so they sent Barnabas to Antioch 23 When he arrived and saw how God had blessed the people, he was glad and urged them all to be faithful and true to the Lord with all their hearts 24 Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and many people were brought to the Lord

25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul 26 When he found him, he took him to Antioch, and for a whole year the two met with the people of the church and taught a large group It was at Antioch that the believers were first called Christians

27 About that time some prophets went from Jerusalem to Antioch 28 One of them, named Agabus, stood up and by the power of the Spirit predicted that a severe famine was about to come over all the earth (It came when Claudius was emperor) 29 The disciples decided that each of them would send as much as he could to help their fellow-believers who lived in Judaea 30 They did this, then, and sent the money to the church elders by Barnabas and Saul

More Persecution



12 About this time King Herod[q] began to persecute some members of the church 2 He had James, the brother of John, put to death by the sword 3 When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he went on to arrest Peter (This happened during the time of the Festival of Unleavened Bread) 4 After his arrest Peter was put in jail, where he was handed over to be guarded by four groups of four soldiers each Herod planned to put him on trial in public after Passover 5 So Peter was kept in jail, but the people of the church were praying earnestly to God for him

Peter Is Set Free from Prison

6 The night before Herod was going to bring him out to the people, Peter was sleeping between two guards He was tied with two chains, and there were guards on duty at the prison gate 7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord stood there, and a light shone in the cell The angel shook Peter by the shoulder, woke him up, and said, "Hurry! Get up!" At once the chains fell off Peter's hands 8 Then the angel said, "Fasten your belt and put on your sandals" Peter did so, and the angel said, "Put your cloak round you and come with me" 9 Peter followed him out of the prison, not knowing, however, if what the angel was doing was real, he thought he was seeing a vision 10 They passed by the first guard post and then the second, and came at last to the iron gate leading into the city. The gate opened for them by itself, and they went out. They walked down a street, and suddenly the angel left Peter.

11 Then Peter realized what had happened to him, and said, "Now I know that it is really true! The Lord sent his angel to rescue me from Herod's power and from everything the Jewish people expected to happen." 12 Aware of his situation, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying. 13 Peter knocked at the outside door, and a servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer it. 14 She recognized Peter's voice and was so happy that she ran back in without opening the door, and announced that Peter was standing outside. 15 "You are mad!" they told her.
But she insisted that it was true. So they answered, "It is his angel." 16 Meanwhile Peter kept on knocking.
At last they opened the door, and when they saw him, they were amazed. 17 He motioned with his hand for them to be quiet, and he explained to them how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Tell this to James and the rest of the believers," he said; then he left and went somewhere else.
18 When morning came, there was a tremendous confusion among the guards—what had happened to Peter?
19 Herod gave orders to search for him, but they could not find him. So he had the guards questioned and ordered them to be put to death.
After this, Herod left Judaea and spent some time in Caesarea.

The Death of Herod

20 Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; so they went in a group to see him. First they convinced Blastus, the man in charge of the palace, that he should help them. Then they went to Herod and asked him for peace, because their country got its food supplies from the king's country.
21 On a chosen day Herod put on his royal robes, sat on his throne, and made a speech to the people. 22 "It isn't a man speaking, but a god!" they shouted. 23 At once the angel of the Lord struck Herod down, because he did not give honour to God. He was eaten by worms and died.
24 Meanwhile the word of God continued to spread and grow.
25 Barnabas and Saul finished their mission and returned from[r] Jerusalem, taking John Mark with them.

Barnabas and Saul Are Chosen and Sent

13 In the church at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon (called the Black), Lucius (from Cyrene), Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod[s] the governor), and Saul. 2 While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said to them, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul, to do the work to which I have called

them" 3 They fasted and prayed, placed their hands on them, and sent them off

In Cyprus

4 Having been sent by the Holy Spirit, Barnabas and Saul went to Seleucia and sailed from there to the island of Cyprus 5 When they arrived at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues They had John Mark with them to help in the work 6 They went all the way across the island to Paphos, where they met a certain magician named Bar-Jesus, a Jew who claimed to be a prophet 7 He was a friend of the governor of the island, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man The governor called Barnabas and Saul before him because he wanted to hear the word of God 8 But they were opposed by the magician Elymas (that is his name in Greek), who tried to turn the governor away from the faith 9 Then Saul—also known as Paul—was filled with the Holy Spirit, he looked straight at the magician 10 and said, "You son of the Devil! You are the enemy of everything that is good You are full of all kinds of evil tricks, and you always keep trying to turn the Lord's truths into lies! 11 The Lord's hand will come down on you now, you will be blind and will not see the light of day for a time"
At once Elymas felt a dark mist cover his eyes, and he walked about trying to find someone to lead him by the hand 12 When the governor saw what had happened, he believed, for he was greatly amazed at the teaching about the Lord

In Antioch in Pisidia

13 Paul and his companions sailed from Paphos and came to Perga, a city in Pamphylia, where John Mark left them and went back to Jerusalem 14 They went on from Perga and arrived in Antioch in Pisidia, and on the Sabbath they went into the synagogue and sat down 15 After the reading from the Law of Moses and from the writings of the prophets, the officials of the synagogue sent them a message "Brothers, we want you to speak to the people if you have a message of encouragement for them" 16 Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and began to speak
"Fellow-Israelites and all Gentiles here who worship God hear me! 17 The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors and made the people a great nation during the time they lived as foreigners in Egypt God brought them out of Egypt by his great power, 18 and for forty years he endured[t] them in the desert 19 He destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan and made his people the owners of the land 20 All this took about four hundred and fifty years
"After this[u] he gave them judges until the time of the prophet Samuel 21 And when they asked for a king, God gave them Saul son of Kish from the tribe of Benjamin, to be their king for forty years 22 After removing him, God made David their king This is what God said about him 'I have found that David son of Jesse is the kind of man I like, a man who will do all I want him to do' 23 It was Jesus, a descendant of David, whom God made the Saviour of the people of Israel, as he had promised 24 Before Jesus began his work, John preached to all the people of Israel that they should turn from their sins and be baptized 25 And as John was about to finish his mission, he said to the people, 'Who do you think I am? I am not the one you are waiting for But listen! He is coming after me, and I am not good enough to take his sandals off his feet' 26 "My fellow-Israelites, descendants of Abraham, and all Gentiles here who worship God it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent! 27 For the people who live in Jerusalem and their leaders did not know that he is the Saviour, nor did they understand the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath Yet they made the prophets' words come true by condemning Jesus 28 And even though they could find no reason to pass the death sentence on him, they asked Pilate to have him put to death him from death, never to rot away in the grave

'I will give you the sacred and sure blessings that I promised to David'

35 As indeed he says in another passage,

'You will not allow your devoted servant to rot in the grave'

36 For David served God's purposes in his own time, and then he died was buried with his ancestors, and his body rotted in the grave 37 But this did not happen to the one whom God raised from death 38-39 We want you to know, my fellow-Israelites, that it is through Jesus that the message about forgiveness of sins is preached to you, and that everyone who believes in him is set free from all the sins from which the Law of Moses could not set you free 40 Take care then, so that what the prophets said may not happen to you [1] 41 'Look, you scoffers! Be astonished and die!
For what I am doing today is something that you will not believe, even when someone explains it to
you!'"

42 As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to come back the next Sabbath and tell them more about these things 43 After the people had left the meeting, Paul and Barnabas were followed by many Jews and by many Gentiles who had been converted to Judaism The apostles spoke to them and encouraged them to keep on living in the grace of God

44 The next Sabbath nearly everyone in the town came to hear the word of the Lord 45 When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, they disputed what Paul was saying and insulted him 46 But Paul and Barnabas spoke out even more boldly "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you But since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we will leave you and go to the Gentiles 47 For this is the commandment that the Lord has given us

'I have made you a light for the Gentiles, so that all the world may be saved'"

48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and praised the Lord's message; and those who had been chosen for eternal life became believers

49 The word of the Lord spread everywhere in that region 50 But the Jews stirred up the leading men of the city and the Gentile women of high social standing who worshipped God They started a persecution against Paul and Barnabas and threw them out of their region 51 The apostles shook the dust off their feet in protest against them and went on to Iconium 52 The believers in Antioch were full of joy and the Holy Spirit

In Iconium

14 The same thing happened in Iconium Paul and Barnabas went to the synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of Jews and Gentiles became believers 2 But the Jews who would not believe stirred up the Gentiles and turned them against the believers 3 The apostles stayed there for a long time, speaking boldly about the Lord, who proved that their message about his grace was true by giving them the power to perform miracles and wonders 4 The people of the city were divided some were for the Jews, others for the apostles

5 Then some Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, decided to ill-treat the apostles and stone them 6 When the apostles learnt about it they fled to the cities of Lystra and Derbe in Lycaonia and to the surrounding territory 7 There they preached the Good News

In Lystra and Derbe

8 In Lystra there was a man who had been lame from birth and had never been able to walk 9 He sat there and listened to Paul's words Paul saw that he believed

[1] Some manuscripts do not have to you and could be healed, so he looked straight at him 10 and said in a loud voice, "Stand up straight on your feet!" The man jumped up and started walking around 11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they started shouting in their own Lycaonian language, "The gods have become like men and have come down to us!" 12 They gave Barnabas the name Zeus, and Paul the name Hermes, because he was the chief speaker 13 The priest of the god Zeus, whose temple stood just outside the town, brought bulls and flowers to the gate, for he and the crowds wanted to offer sacrifice to the apostles

14 When Barnabas and Paul heard what they were about to do, they tore their clothes and ran into the middle of the crowd, shouting, 15 "Why are you doing this? We ourselves are only human beings like you! We are here to announce the Good News, to turn you away from these worthless things to the living God, who made heaven, earth, sea, and all that is in them 16 In the past he allowed all people to go their own way 17 But he has always given evidence of his existence by the good things he does he gives you rain from heaven and crops at the right times he gives you food and fills your hearts with happiness " 18 Even with these words the apostles could hardly keep the crowd from offering a sacrifice to them 19 Some Jews came from Antioch in Pisidia and from Iconium, they won the crowd over to their side, stoned Paul and dragged him out of the town, thinking that he was dead 20 But when the believers gathered round him, he got up and went back into the town The next day he and Barnabas went to Derbe

The Return to Antioch in Syria

21 Paul and Barnabas preached the Good News in Derbe and won many disciples Then they went back to Lystra, to Iconium, and on to Antioch in Pisidia 22 They strengthened the believers and encouraged them to remain true to the faith "We must pass through many troubles to enter the Kingdom of God," they taught 23 In each church they appointed elders, and with prayers and fasting they commended them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust 24 After going through the territory of Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia 25 There they prea[illegible] age in Perga and then [illegible] and from there they sailed back to Antioch, the place where they had been commended to the care of God's grace for the work they had now completed

27 When they arrived in Antioch, they gathered the people of the church together and told them about all that God had done with them and how he had opened the way for the Gentiles to believe 28 And they stayed a long time there with the believers

The Meeting at Jerusalem

15 Some men came from Judaea to Antioch and started teaching the believers, "You cannot be saved unless you are circumcised as the Law of Moses requires " 2 Paul and Barnabas got into a fierce argument with them about this, so it was decided that Paul and Barnabas and some of the others in Antioch should go to Jerusalem and see the apostles and elders about this matter

3 They were sent on their way by the church, and as they went through Phoenicia and Samaria, they reported how the Gentiles had turned to God, this news brought great joy to all the believers 4 When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, the apostles, and the elders, to whom they told all that God had done through them 5 But some of the believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and told to obey the Law of Moses "

6 The apostles and the elders met together to consider this question 7 After a long debate Peter stood up and said, "My brothers, you know that a long time ago God chose me from among you to preach the Good News to the Gentiles, so that they could hear and believe 8 And God, who knows the thoughts of everyone, showed his approval of the Gentiles by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as he had to us 9 He made no difference between us and them, he forgave their sins because they believed 10 So then, why do you now want to put God to the test by laying a load on the backs of the believers which neither our ancestors nor we ourselves were able to carry? 11 No!
We believe and are saved by the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are "

12 The whole group was silent as they heard Barnabas and Paul report all the miracles and wonders that [illegible] ad

James spoke up "Listen to me, my brothers! 14 Simon has just explained how God first showed his care for the Gentiles by taking from among them a people to belong to him 15 The words of the prophets agree completely with this As the scripture says,

16 'After this I will return, says the Lord, and restore the kingdom of David I will rebuild its ruins and make it strong again 17 And so all the rest of mankind will come to me, all the Gentiles whom I have called to be my own 18 So says the Lord, who made this known long ago'

19 "It is my opinion," James went on,
"that we should not trouble the Gentiles who are turning to God 20 Instead, we should write a letter telling them not to eat any food that is ritually unclean because it has been offered to idols, to keep themselves from sexual immorality, and not to eat any animal that has been strangled, or any blood 21 For the Law of Moses has been read for a very long time in the synagogues every Sabbath, and his words are preached in every town"

The Letter to the Gentile Believers

22 Then the apostles and the elders, together with the whole church, decided to choose some men from the group and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas They chose two men who were highly respected by the believers, Judas, called Barsabbas, and Silas, 23 and they sent the following letter by them

"We, the apostles and the elders, your brothers, send greetings to all our brothers of Gentile birth who live in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia 24 We have heard that some men who went from our group have troubled and upset you by what they said, they had not, however, received any instruction from us 25 And so we have met together and have all agreed to choose some messengers and send them to you They will go with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul, 26 who have risked their lives in the service of our Lord Jesus Christ 27 We send you, then, Judas and Silas, who will tell you in person the same things we are writing 28 The Holy Spirit and we have agreed not to put any other burden on you besides these necessary rules 29 eat no food that has been offered to idols, eat no blood, eat no animal that has been strangled, and keep yourselves from sexual immorality. You will do well if you take care not to do these things With our best wishes"

30 The messengers were sent off and went to Antioch, where they gathered the whole group of believers and gave them the letter 31 When the people read it, they were filled with joy by the message of encouragement 32 Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, spoke a long time with them, giving them courage and strength 33 After spending some time there, they were sent off in peace by the believers and went back to those who had sent them [u]

35 Paul and Barnabas spent some time in Antioch, and together with many others they taught and preached the word of the Lord

Paul and Barnabas Separate

36 Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit our brothers in every town where we preached the word of the Lord, and let us find out how they are getting on" 37 Barnabas wanted to take John Mark with them, 38 but Paul did not think it was right to take him, because he had not stayed with them to the end of their mission, but had turned back and left them in Pamphylia 39 There was a sharp argument, and they separated Barnabas took Mark and sailed off for Cyprus, 40 while Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the believers to the care of the Lord's grace 41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches

Timothy Goes with Paul and Silas

16 Paul travelled on to Derbe and Lystra, where a Christian named Timothy lived His mother, who was also a Christian, was Jewish, but his father was a Greek 2 All the believers in Lystra and Iconium spoke well of Timothy 3 Paul wanted to take Timothy along with him, so he circumcised him He did so because all the Jews who lived in those places knew that Timothy's father was Greek 4 As they went through the towns, they delivered to the believers the rules decided [u] Some manuscripts add verse 34 But Silas decided to stay there upon by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem, and told them to obey those rules 5 So the churches were made stronger in the faith and grew in numbers every day

In Troas: Paul's Vision

6 They travelled through the region of Phrygia and Galatia because the Holy Spirit did not let them preach the message in the province of Asia 7 When they reached the border of Mysia, they tried to go into the province of Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them 8 So they travelled right on through[v] Mysia and went to Troas 9 That night Paul had a vision in which he saw a Macedonian standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!" 10 As soon as Paul had this vision, we got ready to leave for Macedonia, because we decided that God had called us to preach the Good News to the people there

In Philippi: the Conversion of Lydia

11 We left by ship from Troas and sailed straight across to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis 12 From there we went inland to Philippi, a city of the first district of Macedonia,[x] it is also a Roman colony We spent several days there 13 On the Sabbath we went out of the city to the river-side, where we thought there would be a place where Jews gathered for prayer We sat down and talked to the women who gathered there 14 One of those who heard us was Lydia from Thyatira, who was a dealer in purple cloth She was a woman who worshipped God, and the Lord opened her mind to pay attention to what Paul was saying 15 After she and the people of her house had been baptized, she invited us, "Come and stay in my house if you have decided that I am a true believer in the Lord" And she persuaded us to go

In Prison at Philippi

16 One day as we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave-girl who had an evil spirit that enabled her to predict the future She earned a lot of money for her owners by telling fortunes 17 She followed Paul and us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God! They announce to you how you can be saved!" 18 She did this for many days, until Paul became so upset that he turned round and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I order you to come out of her!" The spirit went out of her that very moment

19 When her owners realized that their chance of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them to the authorities in the public square 20 They brought them before the Roman officials and said, "These men are Jews, and they are causing trouble in our city 21 They are teaching customs that are against our law, we are Roman citizens, and we cannot accept these customs or practise them" 22 And the crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas

Then the officials tore the clothes off Paul and Silas and ordered them to be whipped 23 After a severe beating, they were thrown into jail, and the jailer was ordered to lock them up tight 24 Upon receiving this order, the jailer threw them into the inner cell and fastened their feet between heavy blocks of wood 25 About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them 26 Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, which shook the prison to its foundations At once all the doors opened, and the chains fell off all the prisoners 27 The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he thought that the prisoners had escaped, so he pulled out his sword and was about to kill himself 28 But Paul shouted at the top of his voice, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!"

29 The jailer called for a light rushed in, and fell trembling at the feet of Paul and Silas 30 Then he led them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31 They answered, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your family" 32 Then they preached the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house 33 At that very hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds, and he and all his family were baptized at once 34 Then he took Paul and Silas up into his house and gave them some food to eat He and his family were filled with joy, because they now believed in God

35 The next morning the Roman authorities sent police officers with the order, "Let those men go." 36 So the jailer told Paul, "The officials have sent an order for you and Silas to be released. You may leave, then, and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to the police officers,
"We were not found guilty of any crime, yet they whipped us in public—and we are Roman citizens! Then they threw us in prison. And now they want to send us away secretly. Not likely! The Roman officials themselves must come here and let us out." 38 The police officers reported these words to the Roman officials, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid. 39 So they went and apologized to them; then they led them out of the prison and asked them to leave the city. 40 Paul and Silas left the prison and went to Lydia's house.
There they met the believers, spoke words of encouragement to them, and left.

In Thessalonica

17 Paul and Silas travelled on through Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue. 2 According to his usual habit Paul went to the synagogue. There during three Sabbaths he held discussions with the people, quoting 3 and explaining the Scriptures and proving from them that the Messiah had to suffer and rise from death. "This Jesus whom I announce to you," Paul said, "is the Messiah." 4 Some of them were convinced and joined Paul and Silas; so did many of the leading women and a large group of Greeks who worshipped God.
5 But the Jews were jealous and gathered some of the worthless loafers from the streets and formed a mob. They set the whole city in an uproar and attacked the home of a man called Jason, in an attempt to find Paul and Silas and bring them out to the people. 6 But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some other believers before the city authorities and shouted, "These men have caused trouble everywhere! Now they have come to our city, 7 and Jason has kept them in his house. They are all breaking the laws of the Emperor, saying that there is another king, whose name is Jesus." 8 With these words they threw the crowd and the city authorities into an uproar. 9 The authorities made Jason and the others pay the required amount of money to be released, and then let them go.

In Berea

10 As soon as night came, the believers sent Paul and Silas to Berea When they arrived, they went to the synagogue 11 The people there were more open-minded than the people in Thessalonica They listened to the message with great eagerness, and every day they studied the Scriptures to see if what Paul said was really true 12 Many of them believed, and many Greek women of high social standing and many Greek men also believed 13 But when the Jews in Thessalonica heard that Paul had preached the word of God in Berea also, they came there and started exciting and stirring up the mob 14 At once the believers sent Paul away to the coast, but both Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea 15 The men who were taking Paul went with him as far as Athens and then returned to Berea with instructions from Paul that Silas and Timothy should join him as soon as possible

In Athens

16 While Paul was waiting in Athens for Silas and Timothy, he was greatly upset when he noticed how full of idols the city was 17 So he held discussions in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentiles who worshipped God, and also in the public square every day with the people who happened to pass by 18 Certain Epicurean and Stoic teachers also debated with him Some of them asked, "What is this ignorant show-off trying to say?"

Others answered, "He seems to be talking about foreign gods" They said this because Paul was preaching about Jesus and the resurrection[z] 19 So they took Paul, brought him before the city council, the Areopagus, and said, "We would like to know what this new teaching is that you are talking about 20 Some of the things we hear you say sound strange to us, and we would like to know what they mean" 21 (For all the citizens of Athens and the foreigners who lived there liked to spend all their time telling and hearing the latest new thing)

22 Paul stood up in front of the city council and said, "I see that in every way you Athenians are very religious 23 For as I walked through your city and looked at the places where you worship, I found an altar on which is written, 'To an Unknown God' That which you worship, then, even though you do not know it, is what I now proclaim to you 24 God, who made the world and everything in it, is Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in man-made temples 25 Nor does he need anything that we can supply by working for him, since it is he himself who gives life and breath and everything else to everyone 26 From one man he created all races of mankind and made them live throughout the whole earth He himself fixed beforehand the exact times and the limits of the places where they would live 27 He did this so that they would look for him, and perhaps find him as they felt about for him Yet God is actually not far from any one of us, 28 as someone has said,

'In him we live and move and exist' It is as some of your poets have said,
'We too are his children'

29 Since we are God's children, we should not suppose that his nature is anything like an image of gold or silver or stone, shaped by the art and skill of man 30 God has overlooked the times when people did not know him, but now he commands all of them everywhere to turn away from their evil ways 31 For he has fixed a day in which he will judge the whole world with justice by means of a man he has chosen He has given proof of this to everyone by raising that man from death!"

32 When they heard Paul speak about a raising from death, some of them made fun of him, but others said, "We want to hear you speak about this again" 33 And so Paul left the meeting 34 Some men joined him and believed, among whom was Dionysius, a member of the council, there was also a woman named Damaris, and some other people

In Corinth

18 After this, Paul left Athens and went on to Corinth 2 There he met a Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, for the Emperor Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome Paul went to see them, 3 and stayed and worked with them, because he earned his living by making tents, just as they did 4 He held discussions in the synagogue every Sabbath, trying to convince both Jews and Greeks

5 When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul gave his whole time to preaching the message, testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Messiah 6 When they opposed him and said evil things about him, he protested by shaking the dust from his clothes and saying to them, "If you are lost, you yourselves must take the blame for it! I am not responsible From now on I will go to the Gentiles" 7 So he left them and went to live in the house of a Gentile named Titius Justus, who worshipped God, his house was next to the synagogue 8 Crispus, who was the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, together with all his family, and many other people in Corinth heard the message, believed, and were baptized 9 One night Paul had a vision in which the Lord said to him, "Do not be afraid, but keep on speaking and do not give up, 10 for I am with you No one will be able to harm you, for many in this city are my people" 11 So Paul stayed there for a year and a half, teaching the people the word of God 12 When Gallio was made the Roman governor of Achaia, the Jews got together, seized Paul, and took him into court 13 "This man," they said, "is trying to persuade people to worship God in a way that is against the law!" 14 Paul was about to speak when Gallio said to the Jews, "If this were a matter of some evil crime or wrong that has been committed, it would be reasonable for me to be patient with you Jews 15 But since it is an argument about words and names and your own law, you yourselves must settle it I will not be the judge of such things!" 16 And he drove them out of the court 17 They all seized Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the court But that did not bother Gallio a bit

The Return to Antioch

18 Paul stayed on with the believers in Corinth for many days, then left them and sailed off with Priscilla and Aquila for Syria Before sailing from Cenchreae he had his head shaved because of a vow he had taken [a] 19 They arrived in Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He went into the synagogue and held discussions with the Jews 20 The people asked him to stay longer, but he would not consent 21 Instead, he told them as he left, "If it is the will of God, I will come back to you" And so he sailed from Ephesus 22 When he arrived at Caesarea, he went to Jerusalem and greeted the church, and then went to Antioch 23 After spending some time there, he left and went through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the believers

Apollos in Ephesus and Corinth

24 At that time a Jew named Apollos, who had been born in Alexandria, came to Ephesus He was an eloquent speaker and had a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures 25 He had been instructed in the Way of the Lord, and with great enthusiasm he proclaimed and taught correctly the facts about Jesus However, he knew only the baptism of John 26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him home with them and explained to him more correctly the Way of God 27 Apollos then decided to go to Achaia, so the believers in Ephesus helped him by writing to the believers in Achaia, urging them to welcome him When he arrived, he was a great help to those who through God's grace had become believers 28 For with his strong arguments he defeated the Jews in public debates by proving from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah

Paul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul travelled through the interior of the province and arrived in Ephesus There he found some disciples 2 and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?"
"We have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit," they answered 3 "Well, then, what kind of baptism did you receive?" Paul asked "The baptism of John," they answered 4 Paul said, "The baptism of John was for those who turned from their sins, and he told the people of Israel to believe in the one who was coming after him—that is, in Jesus"
baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus

[a] A VOW HE HAD TAKEN This refers to the Jewish custom of shaving the head as a sign that a vow has been kept

18 18 Num 6 18 19 4 Mt 3 11, Mk 1 4,7–8, Lk 3 4,16, Jn 1 26–27

6 Paul placed his hands on them, and the Holy Spirit came upon them, they spoke in strange tongues and also proclaimed God's message 7 They were about twelve men in all 8 Paul went into the synagogue and during three months spoke boldly with the people, holding discussions with them and trying to convince them about the Kingdom of God 9 But some of them were stubborn and would not believe, and before the whole group they said evil things about the Way of the Lord So Paul left them and took the believers with him, and every day[b] he held discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus 10 This went on for two years, so that all the people who lived in the province of Asia, both Jews and Gentiles, heard the word of the Lord

The Sons of Sceva

11 God was performing unusual miracles through Paul 12 Even handkerchiefs and aprons he had used were taken to those who were ill, and their diseases were driven away, and the evil spirits would go out of them 13 Some Jews who travelled round and drove out evil spirits also tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to do this They said to the evil spirits, "I command you in the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches" 14 Seven brothers, who were the sons of a Jewish High Priest named Sceva, were doing this 15 But the evil spirit said to them, "I know Jesus, and I know about Paul, but you—who are you?" 16 The man who had the evil spirit in him attacked them with such violence that he overpowered them all They ran away from his house, wounded and with their clothes torn off 17 All the Jews and Gentiles who lived in Ephesus heard about this, they were all filled with fear, and the name of the Lord Jesus was given greater honour 18 Many of the believers came, publicly admitting and revealing what they had done 19 Many of those who had practised magic brought their books together and burnt them in public They added up the price of the books, and the total came to fifty thousand silver coins[c] 20 In this powerful way the word of the Lord[d] kept spreading and growing stronger

The Riot in Ephesus

21 After these things had happened, Paul made up his mind[e] to travel through Macedonia and Achaia and go on to Jerusalem "After I go there," he said, "I must also see Rome" 22 So he sent Timothy and Erastus, two of his helpers, to Macedonia, while he spent more time in the province of Asia 23 It was at this time that there was serious trouble in Ephesus because of the Way of the Lord 24 A certain silversmith named Demetrius made silver models of the temple of the goddess Artemis, and his business brought a great deal of profit to the workers 25 So he called them all together with others whose work was like theirs and said to them, "Men, you know that our prosperity comes from this work 26 Now, you can see and hear for yourselves what this fellow Paul is doing He says that man-made gods are not gods at all, and he has succeeded in convincing many people, both here in Ephesus and in nearly the whole province of Asia 27 There is the danger, then, that this business of ours will get a bad name Not only that, but there is also the danger that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will come to mean nothing and that her greatness will be destroyed—the goddess worshipped by everyone in Asia and in all the world!"
28 As the crowd heard these words, they became furious and started shouting, "Great is Artemis of Ephesus!" 29 The uproar spread throughout the whole city The mob seized Gaius and Aristarchus, two Macedonians who were travelling with Paul, and rushed with them to the theatre 30 Paul himself wanted to go before the crowd but the believers would not let him 31 Some of the provincial authorities, who were his friends, also sent him a message begging him not to show himself in the theatre 32 Meanwhile the whole meeting was in an uproar, some people were shouting one thing, others were shouting something else, because most of them did not even know why they had come together 33 Some of the people concluded that Alexander was responsible, since the Jews made him go up to the front. Then Alexander motioned with his hand for the people to be silent, [d] In this Lord, or And so by the power of the Lord the message [e] Paul made up his mind, or Paul, led by the Spirit, decided and he tried to make a speech of defence 34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they all shouted together the same thing for two hours "Great is Artemis of Ephesus!" 35 At last the town clerk was able to calm the crowd "Fellow-Ephesians!" he said "Everyone knows that the city of Ephesus is the keeper of the temple of the great Artemis and of the sacred stone that fell down from heaven 36 Nobody can deny these things So then, you must calm down and not do anything reckless 37 You have brought these men here even though they have not robbed temples or said evil things about our goddess 38 If Demetrius and his workers have an accusation against anyone, we have the authorities and the regular days for court, charges can be made there 39 But if there is something more that you want, it will have to be settled in a legal meeting of citizens 40 For after what has happened today, there is the danger that we will be accused of a riot There is no excuse for all this uproar, and we would not be able to give a good reason for it" 41 After saying this, he dismissed the meeting

To Macedonia and Achaia

20 After the uproar died down, Paul called together the believers and with words of encouragement said goodbye to them Then he left and went on to Macedonia 2 He went through those regions and encouraged the people with many messages Then he came to Achaia, 3 where he stayed three months He was getting ready to go to Syria when he discovered that the Jews were plotting against him, so he decided to go back through Macedonia 4 Sopater son of Pyrrhus, from Berea, went with him, so did Aristarchus and Secundus, from Thessalonica, Gaius, from Derbe, Tychicus and Trophimus, from the province of Asia, and Timothy 5 They went ahead and waited for us in Troas 6 We sailed from Philippi after the Festival of Unleavened Bread, and five days later we joined them in Troas, where we spent a week

Paul's Last Visit to Troas

7 On Saturday[f] evening we gathered together for the fellowship meal Paul spoke to the people and kept on speaking until midnight, since he was going to leave the next day 8 Many lamps were burning in the upstairs room where we were meeting 9 A young man named Eutychus was sitting in the window, and as Paul kept on talking, Eutychus got sleepier and sleepier, until he finally went sound asleep and fell from the third storey to the ground When they picked him up, he was dead 10 But Paul went down and threw himself on him and hugged him "Don't worry," he said, "he is still alive!" 11 Then he went back upstairs, broke bread, and ate After talking with them for a long time, even until sunrise, Paul left 12 They took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted

From Troas to Miletus

13 We went on ahead to the ship and sailed off to Assos, where we were going to take Paul aboard He had told us to do this, because he was going there by land 14 When he met us in Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene 15 We sailed from there and arrived off Chios the next day A day later we came to Samos, and the following day we reached Miletus 16 Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus, so as not to lose any time in the province of Asia He was in a hurry to arrive in Jerusalem by the day of Pentecost, if at all possible

Paul's Farewell Speech to the Elders of Ephesus

17 From Miletus Paul sent a message to Ephesus, asking the elders of the church to meet him 18 When they arrived, he said to them, "You know how I spent the whole time I was with you, from the first day I arrived in the province of Asia 19 With all humility and many tears I did my work as the Lord's servant during the hard times that came to me because of the plots of the Jews 20 You know that I did not hold back anything that would be of help to you as I preached and taught in public and in your homes 21 To Jews and Gentiles alike I gave solemn warning that they should turn from their sins to God and believe in our Lord Jesus 22 And now, in obedience to the Holy Spirit I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there 23 I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit has warned me that prison and troubles wait for me 24 But I reckon my own life to be worth nothing to me, I only want to complete my mission and finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me to do, which is to declare the Good News about the grace of God.

25 "I have gone about among all of you, preaching the Kingdom of God. And now I know that none of you will ever see me again. 26 So I solemnly declare to you this very day: if any of you should be lost, I am not responsible. 27 For I have not held back from announcing to you the whole purpose of God. 28 So keep watch over yourselves and over all the flock which the Holy Spirit has placed in your care. Be shepherds of the church of God,[g] which he made his own through the death of his Son.[h] 29 I know that after I leave, fierce wolves will come among you, and they will not spare the flock.
30 The time will come when some men from your own group will tell lies to lead the believers away after them. 31 Watch, then, and remember that with many tears, day and night, I taught every one of you for three years.
32 "And now I commend you to the care of God and to the message of his grace, which is able to build you up and give you the blessings God has for all his people. 33 I have not wanted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. 34 You yourselves know that I have worked with these hands of mine to provide everything that my companions and I have needed. 35 I have shown you in all things that by working hard in this way we must help the weak, remembering the words that the Lord Jesus himself said, 'There is more happiness in giving than in receiving.'" 36 When Paul finished, he knelt down with them and prayed. 37 They were all crying as they hugged him and kissed him good-bye. 38 They were especially sad because he had said that they would never see him again. And so they went with him to the ship.

Paul Goes to Jerusalem

21 We said good-bye to them and left.
After sailing straight across, we came to Cos; the next day we reached Rhodes, and from there we went on to Patara. 2 There we found a ship that was going to Phoenicia, so we went aboard and sailed away. 3 We came to where we could see Cyprus, and then sailed south of it on to Syria. We went ashore at Tyre, where the ship was going to unload its cargo. 4 There we found some believers and stayed with them a week. By the power of the Spirit they told Paul not to go to Jerusalem. 5 But when our time with them was over, we left and went on our way. All of them, together with their wives and children, went with us out of the city to the beach, where we all knelt and prayed. 6 Then we said goodbye to one another, and we went on board the ship while they went back home.
7 We continued our voyage, sailing from Tyre to Ptolemais, where we greeted the believers and stayed with them for a day. 8 On the following day we left and arrived in Caesarea. There we stayed at the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven men who had been chosen as helpers in Jerusalem. 9 He had four unmarried daughters who proclaimed God's message. 10 We had been there for several days when a prophet named Agabus arrived from Judaea. 11 He came to us, took Paul's belt, tied up his own feet and hands with it, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: The owner of this belt will be tied up in this way by the Jews in Jerusalem and they will hand him over to the Gentiles." 12 When we heard this, we and the others there begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem. 13 But he answered, "What are you doing, crying like this and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be tied up in Jerusalem but even to die there for the sake of the Lord Jesus." 14 We could not convince him, so we gave up and said, "May the Lord's will be done." 15 After spending some time there, we got our things ready and left for Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us and took us to the house of the man we were going to stay with[i]—Mnason, from Cyprus, who had been a believer since the early days.

Paul Visits James

17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the believers welcomed us warmly. 18 The next day Paul went with us to see James, and all the church elders were present.
19 Paul greeted them and gave a complete report of everything that God had done among the Gentiles through his work [20]After hearing him, they all praised God Then they said, "Brother Paul, you can see how many thousands of Jews have become believers, and how devoted they all are to the Law [21]They have been told that you have been teaching all the Jews who live in Gentile countries to abandon the Law of Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or follow the Jewish customs [22]They are sure to hear that you have arrived What should be done, then? [23]This is what we want you to do There are four men here who have taken a vow [24]Go along with them and join them in the ceremony of purification and pay their expenses, then they will be able to shave their heads [j] In this way everyone will know that there is no truth in any of the things that they have been told about you, but that you yourself live in accordance with the Law of Moses [25]But as for the Gentiles who have become believers, we have sent them a letter telling them we decided that they must not eat any food that has been offered to idols, or any blood, or any animal that has been strangled, and that they must keep themselves from sexual immorality" 26 So Paul took the men and the next day performed the ceremony of purification with them Then he went into the Temple and gave notice of how many days it would be until the end of the period of purification, when a sacrifice would be offered for each one of them

Paul Is Arrested in the Temple

27 But just when the seven days were about to come to an end, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the Temple They stirred up the whole crowd and seized Paul [28]"Men of Israel!" they shouted "Help! This is the man who goes everywhere teaching everyone against the people of Israel, the Law of Moses, and this Temple And now he has even brought some Gentiles into the Temple and defiled this holy place!" [29](They said this because they had seen Trophimus from Ephesus with Paul in the city, and they thought that Paul had taken him into the Temple) 30 Confusion spread through the whole city, and the people all ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the Temple At once the Temple doors were closed [31]The mob was trying to kill Paul, when a report was sent up to the commander of the Roman troops that all Jerusalem was rioting [32]At once the commander took some officers and soldiers and rushed down to the crowd When the people saw him with the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul [33]The commander went over to Paul, arrested him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains Then he asked, "Who is this man, and what has he done?" [34]Some in the crowd shouted one thing, others something else There was such confusion that the commander could not find out exactly what had happened, so he ordered his men to take Paul up into the fort [35]They got as far as the steps with him, and then the soldiers had to carry him because the mob was so wild [36]They were all coming after him and screaming, "Kill him!"

Paul Defends Himself

37 As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the fort, he spoke to the commander "May I say something to
you?"
"You speak Greek, do you?" the commander asked [38]"Then you are not that Egyptian fellow who some time ago started a revolution and led four thousand armed terrorists out into the desert?" 39 Paul answered, "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of an important city Please let me speak to the people" 40 The commander gave him permission, so Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand for the people to be silent When they were quiet, Paul spoke to them in Hebrew 22 "Brothers and fathers, listen to me as I make my defence before you!" [2]When they heard him speaking to them in Hebrew, they became even quieter, and Paul went on 3 "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up here in Jerusalem as a student of Gamaliel I received strict instruction in the Law of our ancestors and was just as dedicated to God as are all of you who are here today [4]I persecuted to the death the people who followed this Way I arrested men and women and threw them into prison [5]The High Priest and the whole Council can prove that I am telling the truth I received these people and bring them back in chains to Jerusalem to be punished.

Paul Tells of His Conversion
(Acts 9.1-19; 26.12-18)

6 "As I was travelling and coming near Damascus, about midday a bright light from the sky flashed suddenly round me.
7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 8 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked. 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute,' he said to me. 9 The men with me saw the light, but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me. 10 I asked, 'What shall I do, Lord?' and the Lord said to me, 'Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything that God has determined for you to do.' 11 I was blind because of the bright light, and so my companions took me by the hand and led me into Damascus.

12 "In that city was a man named Ananias, a religious man who obeyed our Law and was highly respected by all the Jews living there. 13 He came to me, stood by me, and said, 'Brother Saul, see again!' At that very moment I saw again and looked at him. 14 He said, 'The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see his righteous Servant, and to hear him speaking with his own voice.
15 For you will be a witness for him to tell everyone what you have seen and heard. 16 And now, why wait any longer?
Get up and be baptized and have your sins washed away by praying to him.'

Paul's Call to Preach to the Gentiles

17 "I went back to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the Temple, I had a vision, 18 in which I saw the Lord, as he said to me, 'Hurry and leave Jerusalem quickly, because the people here will not accept your witness about me.' 19 'Lord,' I answered, 'they know very well that I went to the synagogues and arrested and beat those who believe in you. 20 And when your witness Stephen was put to death, I myself was there, approving of his murder and taking care of the cloaks of his murderers.' 21 'Go,' the Lord said to me, 'for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

22 The people listened to Paul until he said this, but then they started shouting at the top of their voices, "Away with him! Kill him! He's not fit to live!" 23 They were screaming, waving their clothes, and throwing dust up in the air. 24 The Roman commander ordered his men to take Paul into the fort, and he told them to whip him in order to find out why the Jews were screaming like this against him.
25 But when they had tied him up to be whipped, Paul said to the officer standing there, "Is it lawful for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn't even been tried for any crime?"

26 When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and asked him, "What are you doing? That man is a Roman citizen!"

27 So the commander went to Paul and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"

"Yes," answered Paul.

28 The commander said, "I became one by paying a large amount of money."

"But I am one by birth," Paul answered.

29 At once the men who were going to question Paul drew back from him, and the commander was frightened when he realized that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had put him in chains.

Paul before the Council

30 The commander wanted to find out for certain what the Jews were accusing Paul of, so the next day he had Paul's chains taken off and ordered the chief priests and the whole Council to meet.
Then he took Paul and made him stand before them.

23 Paul looked straight at the Council and said, "My fellow-Israelites!
My conscience is perfectly clear about the way in which I have lived before God to this very day." 2 The High Priest Ananias ordered those who were standing close to Paul to strike him on the mouth.
3 Paul said to him, "God will certainly strike you—you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the Law, yet you break the Law by ordering them to strike me!"

4 The men close to Paul said to him, "You are insulting God's High Priest!"

5 Paul answered, "My fellow-Israelites, I did not know that he was the High Priest.
The scripture says, 'You must not speak evil of the ruler of your people.'"

6 When Paul saw that some of the group were Sadducees and the others were Pharisees, he called out in the Council,

22.20 Acts 7.58 23.3 Mt 23.27-28 23.5 Ex 22.28 23.6 Acts 26.5; Phil 3.5

"Fellow-Israelites! I am a Pharisee, the son of Pharisees I am on trial here because of the hope I have that the dead will rise to life!"
7 As soon as he said this, the Pharisees and Sadducees started to quarrel, and the group was divided 8(For the Sadducees say that people will not rise from death and that there are no angels or spirits, but the Pharisees believe in all three) 9The shouting became louder, and some of the teachers of the Law who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and protested strongly. "We cannot find anything wrong with this man! Perhaps a spirit or an angel really did speak to
him!"
10 The argument became so violent that the commander was afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces So he ordered his soldiers to go down into the group, get Paul away from them, and take him into the fort 11 That night the Lord stood by Paul and said, "Don't be afraid! You have given your witness for me here in Jerusalem, and you must also do the same in Rome"

The Plot against Paul's Life

12 The next morning some Jews met together and made a plan They took a vow that they would not eat or drink anything until they had killed Paul 13There were more than forty who planned this together. 14Then they went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have taken a solemn vow together not to eat a thing until we have killed Paul 15Now then, you and the Council send word to the Roman commander to bring Paul down to you, pretending that you want to get more accurate information about him But we will be ready to kill him before he ever gets here" 16 But the son of Paul's sister heard about the plot, so he went to the fort and told Paul 17Then Paul called one of the officers and said to him, "Take this young man to the commander, he has something to tell him" 18The officer took him, led him to the commander, and said, "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to say to you" 19 The commander took him by the hand, led him off by himself, and asked him, "What have you got to tell me?" 20 He said, "The Jewish authorities have agreed to ask you tomorrow to take Paul down to the Council, pretending that the Council wants to get more accurate information about him 21But don't listen to them, because there are more than forty men who will be hiding and waiting for him They have taken a vow not to eat or drink until they have killed him They are now ready to do it and are waiting for your decision" 22 The commander said, "Don't tell anyone that you have reported this to me" And he sent the young man away

Paul Is Sent to Governor Felix

23 Then the commander called two of his officers and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready to go to Caesarea, together with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, and be ready to leave by nine o'clock tonight 24Provide some horses for Paul to ride and get him safely through to the governor Felix" 25Then the commander wrote a letter that went like this > 26"Claudius Lysias to His Ex> cellency, the governor Felix Greet> ings 27The Jews seized this man and > were about to kill him I learnt that he > was a Roman citizen, so I went with > my soldiers and rescued him 28I > wanted to know what they were > accusing him of, so I took him down to > their Council 29I found out that he > had not done anything for which he > deserved to die or be put in prison, > the accusation against him had to do > with questions about their own law > 30And when I was informed that there > was a plot against him, at once I > decided to send him to you I have > told his accusers to make their > charges against him before you"

31 The soldiers carried out their orders They got Paul and took him that night as far as Antipatris 32The next day the foot-soldiers returned to the fort and left the horsemen to go on with him 33They took him to Caesarea, delivered the letter to the governor, and handed Paul over to him 34The governor read the letter and asked Paul what province he was from When he found out that he was from Cilicia, 35he said, "I will hear you when your accusers arrive" Then he gave orders for Paul to be kept under guard in the governor's headquarters

23 8 Mt 22 23, Mk 12 18, Lk 20.27

Paul Is Accused by the Jews

24 Five days later the High Priest Ananias went to Caesarea with some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus They appeared before Felix and made their charges against Paul 2 Then Paul was called in, and Tertullus began to make his accusation, as follows

"Your Excellency! Your wise leadership has brought us a long period of peace, and many necessary reforms are being made for the good of our country 3 We welcome this everywhere and at all times, and we are deeply grateful to you 4 I do not want to take up too much of your time, however, so I beg you to be kind and listen to our brief account 5 We found this man to be a dangerous nuisance, he starts riots among the Jews all over the world and is a leader of the party of the Nazarenes 6 He also tried to defile the Temple, and we arrested him [h] 8 If you question this man, you yourself will be able to learn from him all the things that we are accusing him of " 9 The Jews joined in the accusation and said that all this was true

Paul's Defence before Felix

10 The governor then motioned to Paul to speak, and Paul said,

"I know that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, and so I am happy to defend myself before you 11 As you can find out for yourself, it was no more than twelve days ago that I went to Jerusalem to worship 12 The Jews did not find me arguing with anyone in the Temple, nor did they find me stirring up the people, either in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city 13 Nor can they give you proof of the accusations they now bring against me 14 I do admit this to you I worship the God of our ancestors by following that Way which they say is false But I also believe in everything written in the Law of Moses and the books of the prophets 15 I have the same hope in God that these themselves have, namely, that all people, both the good and the bad, will rise from death 16 And so I do my best always to have a clear conscience before God and man

17 "After being away from Jerusalem for several years, I went there to take some money to my own people and to offer sacrifices 18 It was while I was doing this that they found me in the Temple after I had completed the ceremony of purification There was no crowd with me and no disorder 19 But some Jews from the province of Asia were there, they themselves ought to come before you and make their accusations if they have anything against me 20 Or let these men here tell what crime they found me guilty of when I stood before the Council—21 except for the one thing I called out when I stood before them: 'I am being tried by you today for believing that the dead will rise to life'"

22 Then Felix, who was well informed about the Way, brought the hearing to a close "When Lysias the commander arrives," he told them, "I will decide your case" 23 He ordered the officer in charge of Paul to keep him under guard, but to give him some freedom and allow his friends to provide for his needs

Paul before Felix and Drusilla

24 After some days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish He sent for Paul and listened to him as he talked about faith in Christ Jesus 25 But as Paul went on discussing about goodness, self-control, and the coming Day of Judgement, Felix was afraid and said, "You may leave now I will call you again when I get the chance" 26 At the same time he was hoping that Paul would give him some money, and for this reason he would often send for him and talk with him

27 After two years had passed, Porcius Festus succeeded Felix as governor Felix wanted to gain favour with the Jews so he left Paul in prison

Paul Appeals to the Emperor

25 Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went from Caesarea to Jerusalem, 2 where the chief priests and the Jewish leaders brought their charges against Paul They begged Festus 3 to do them the favour of bringing Paul to Jerusalem, for they had made a plot to kill him on the way 4 Festus answered, "Paul is being kept a prisoner in Caesarea, and I myself will be going back there soon 5 Let your leaders go to Caesarea with me and accuse the man

[h] Some manuscripts add verses 6b-8a We planned to judge him according to our own Law 7 but Lysias the commander came, and with great violence took him from us 8 Then Lysias gave orders that his accusers should come before you if he has done anything wrong." 6 Festus spent another eight or ten days with them and then went to Caesarea.

On the next day he sat down in the court of judgement and ordered Paul to be brought in. 7 When Paul arrived, the Jews who had come from Jerusalem stood round him and started making many serious charges against him, which they were not able to prove. 8 But Paul defended himself: "I have done nothing wrong against the Law of the Jews or against the Temple or against the Roman Emperor." 9 But Festus wanted to gain favour with the Jews, so he asked Paul, "Would you be willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried on these charges before me there?" 10 Paul said, "I am standing before the Emperor's own court of judgement, where I should be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you yourself well know.
11 If I have broken the law and done something for which I deserve the death penalty, I do not ask to escape it. But if there is no truth in the charges they bring against me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to the Emperor." 12 Then Festus, after conferring with his advisers, answered, "You have appealed to the Emperor, so to the Emperor you will go."

Paul before Agrippa and Bernice 13 Some time later King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to pay a visit of welcome to Festus. 14 After they had been there several days, Festus explained Paul's situation to the king: "There is a man here who was left a prisoner by Felix, 15 and when I went to Jerusalem, the Jewish chief priests and elders brought charges against him and asked me to condemn him. 16 But I told them that we Romans are not in the habit of handing over any man accused of a crime before he has met his accusers face to face and has had the chance of defending himself against the accusation. 17 When they came here, then, I lost no time, but on the very next day I sat in the court and ordered the man to be brought in. 18 His opponents stood up, but they did not accuse him of any of the evil crimes that I thought they would. 19 All they had were some arguments with him about their own religion and about a man named Jesus, who has died, but Paul claims that he is alive. 20 I was undecided about how I could get information on these matters, so I asked Paul if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges. 21 But Paul appealed; he asked to be kept under guard and to let the Emperor decide his case. So I gave orders for him to be kept under guard until I could send him to the Emperor." 22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself."

"You will hear him tomorrow," Festus answered.
23 The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and ceremony and entered the audience hall with the military chiefs and the leading men of the city.
Festus gave the order, and Paul was brought in. 24 Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are here with us: You see this man against whom all the Jewish people, both here and in Jerusalem, have brought complaints to me. They scream that he should not live any longer. 25 But I could not find that he had done anything for which he deserved the death sentence.
And since he himself made an appeal to the Emperor, I have decided to send him.
26 But I have nothing definite about him to write to the Emperor. So I have brought him here before you—and especially before you, King Agrippa!—so that, after investigating his case, I may have something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner without clearly indicating the charges against
him."

Paul Defends Himself before Agrippa

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak on your own behalf." Paul stretched out his hand and defended himself as follows: 2 "King Agrippa! I consider myself fortunate that today I am to defend myself before you from all the things the Jews accuse me of, 3 particularly since you know so well all the Jewish customs and disputes. I ask you, then, to listen to me with patience.
4 "All the Jews know how I have lived ever since I was young. They know how I have spent my whole life, at first in my own country and then in Jerusalem.
5 They have always known, if they are willing to testify, that from the very first I have lived as a member of the strictest party of our religion, the Pharisees. 6 And now I stand here to be tried because of the hope I have in the promise that God made to our ancestors—7 the very thing that the twelve tribes of our people hope to receive, as they worship God day and night. And it is because of this hope, Your Majesty, that I am being accused by the Jews! 8 Why do you who are here find it impossible to believe that God raises the dead?

9 "I myself thought that I should do everything I could against the cause of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 That is what I did in Jerusalem. I received authority from the chief priests and put many of God's people in prison, and when they were sentenced to death, I also voted against them. 11 Many times I had them punished in the synagogues and tried to make them deny their faith. I was so furious with them that I even went to foreign cities to persecute them.

(Acts 9.1-19; 22.6-16)

12 "It was for this purpose that I went to Damascus with authority and orders from the chief priests. 13 It was on the road at midday, Your Majesty, that I saw a light much brighter than the sun, coming from the sky and shining round me and the men travelling with me. 14 All of us fell to the ground, and I heard a voice say to me in Hebrew, 'Saul, Saul! Why are you persecuting me? You are hurting yourself by hitting back, like an ox kicking against its owner's stick.' 15 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked. And the Lord answered, 'I am Jesus, whom you persecute. 16 But get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you to appoint you as my servant. You are to tell others what you have seen of me[l] today and what I will show you in the future. 17 I will rescue you from the people of Israel and from the Gentiles to whom I will send you.
18 You are to open their eyes and turn them from the darkness to the light and from the power of Satan to God, so that through their faith in me they will have their sins forgiven and receive their place among God's chosen people.'

Paul Tells of His Work

19 "And so, King Agrippa, I did not disobey the vision I had from heaven.
20 First in Damascus and in Jerusalem and then in all Judaea and among the Gentiles, I preached that they must repent of their sins and turn to God and do the things that would show they had repented. 21 It was for this reason that the Jews seized me while I was in the Temple, and they tried to kill me. 22 But to this very day I have been helped by God, and so I stand here giving my witness to all, to small and great alike. What I say is the very same thing which the prophets and Moses said was going to happen: 23 that the Messiah must suffer and be the first one to rise from death, to announce the light of salvation to the Jews and to the Gentiles." 24 As Paul defended himself in this way, Festus shouted at him, "You are mad, Paul! Your great learning is driving you mad!" 25 Paul answered, "I am not mad, Your Excellency! I am speaking the sober truth.
26 King Agrippa! I can speak to you with all boldness, because you know about these things. I am sure that you have taken notice of every one of them, for this thing has not happened hidden away in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do!" 28 Agrippa said to Paul, "In this short time do you think you will make me a Christian?" 29 "Whether a short time or a long time," Paul answered, "my prayer to God is that you and all the rest of you who are listening to me today might become what I am—except, of course, for these chains!" 30 Then the king, the governor, Bernice, and all the others got up, 31 and after leaving they said to each other, "This man has not done anything for which he should die or be put in prison." 32 And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to the Emperor."

Paul Sails for Rome

27 When it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to Julius, an officer in the Roman regiment called "The Emperor's Regiment." 2 We went aboard a ship from Adramyttium, which was ready to leave for the seaports of the province of Asia, and we sailed away. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us. 3 The next day we arrived at Sidon. Julius was kind to Paul and allowed him to go and see his friends, to be given what he needed. 4 We went on from there, and because the winds were blowing against us, we sailed on the sheltered side of the island of Cyprus 5 We crossed over the sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia and came to Myra in Lycia 6 There the officer found a ship from Alexandria that was going to sail for Italy, so he put us aboard 7 We sailed slowly for several days and with great difficulty finally arrived off the town of Cnidus The wind would not let us go any further in that direction, so we sailed down the sheltered side of the island of Crete, passing by Cape Salmone 8 We kept close to the coast and with great difficulty came to a place called Safe Harbours, not far from the town of Lasea 9 We spent a long time there, until it became dangerous to continue the voyage, for by now the Day of Atonement[m] was already past So Paul gave them this advice 10 "Men, I see that our voyage from here on will be dangerous, there will be great damage to the cargo and to the ship, and loss of life as well" 11 But the army officer was convinced by what the captain and the owner of the ship said, and not by what Paul said 12 The harbour was not a good one to spend the winter in, so most of the men were in favour of putting out to sea and trying to reach Phoenix, if possible, in order to spend the winter there Phoenix is a harbour in Crete that faces south-west and north-west [n]

The Storm at Sea

13 A soft wind from the south began to blow, and the men thought that they could carry out their plan, so they pulled up the anchor and sailed as close as possible along the coast of Crete 14 But soon a very strong wind—the one called "North-easter"—blew down from the island 15 It hit the ship, and since it was impossible to keep the ship headed into the wind, we gave up trying and let it be carried along by the wind 16 We got some shelter when we passed to the south of the little island of Cauda There, with some difficulty, we managed to make the ship's boat secure 17 They pulled it aboard and then fastened some ropes tight round the ship They were afraid that they might run into the sandbanks off the coast of Libya, so they lowered the sail and let the ship be carried by the wind 18 The violent storm continued, so on the next day they began to throw some of the ship's cargo overboard, 19 and on the following day they threw part of the ship's equipment overboard 20 For many days we could not see the sun or the stars, and the wind kept on blowing very hard We finally gave up all hope of being saved 21 After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood before them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not have sailed from Crete, then we would have avoided all this damage and loss 22 But now I beg you, take heart!
Not one of you will lose his life, only the ship will be lost 23 For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship came to me 24 and said, 'Don't be afraid, Paul! You must stand before the Emperor And God in his goodness to you has spared the lives of all those who are sailing with you' 25 So take heart, men! For I trust in God that it will be just as I was told 26 But we will be driven ashore on some island" 27 It was the fourteenth night, and we were being driven about in the Mediterranean by the storm About midnight the sailors suspected that we were getting close to land 28 So they dropped a line with a weight tied to it and found that the water was forty metres deep, a little later they did the same and found that it was thirty metres deep 29 They were afraid that the ship would go on the rocks, so they lowered four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for daylight 30 Then the sailors tried to escape from the ship, they lowered the boat into the water and pretended that they were going to put out some anchors from the front of the ship 31 But Paul said to the army officer and soldiers, "If the sailors don't stay on board, you have no hope of being saved" 32 So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the boat and let it go 33 Just before dawn, Paul begged them all to eat some food "You have been waiting for fourteen days now, and all this time you have not eaten anything 34 I beg you, then, eat some food, you need it in order to survive Not even a hair of your heads will be lost" 35 After saying this, Paul took some bread, gave thanks to God before them all, broke it, and began to eat 36 They took heart, and

[m] DAY OF ATONEMENT This was celebrated towards the end of September or beginning of October, at which time bad weather made sailing dangerous

[n] south west and north west, or north east and south east

But the ship hit a sandbank (27 41) every one of them also ate some food 37 There was a total of 276[p] of us on board 38 After everyone had eaten enough, they lightened the ship by throwing all the wheat into the sea

The Shipwreck

39 When day came, the sailors did not recognize the coast, but they noticed a bay with a beach and decided that, if possible, they would run the ship aground there 40 So they cut off the anchors and let them sink in the sea, and at the same time they untied the ropes that held the steering oars Then they raised the sail at the front of the ship so that the wind would blow the ship forward, and we headed for shore 41 But the ship hit a sandbank and went aground, the front part of the ship got stuck and could not move, while the back part was being broken to pieces by the violence of the waves 42 The soldiers made a plan to kill all the prisoners, in order to keep them from swimming ashore and escaping 43 But the army officer wanted to save Paul, so he stopped them from doing this Instead, he ordered all the men who could swim to jump overboard first and swim ashore, 44 the rest were to follow, holding on to the planks or to some broken pieces of the ship And this was how we all got safely ashore

In Malta

28 When we were safely ashore, we learnt that the island was called Malta 2 The natives there were very friendly to us It had started to rain and was cold, so they lit a fire and made us all welcome 3 Paul gathered up a bundle of sticks and was putting them on the fire when a snake came out on account of the heat and fastened itself to his hand 4 The natives saw the snake hanging on Paul's hand and said to one another, "This man must be a murderer, but Fate will not let him live, even though he escaped from the sea " 5 But Paul shook the snake off into the fire without being harmed at all 6 They were waiting for him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead But after waiting for a long time and not seeing anything unusual happening to him, they changed their minds and said, "He is a
god!" 7 Not far from that place were some fields that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island He welcomed us kindly and for three days we were his guests 8 Publius' father was in bed, sick [p] 276, some manuscripts have 275, others have about 76 with fever and dysentery. Paul went into his room, prayed, placed his hands on him and healed him. 9 When this happened, all the other sick people on the island came and were healed. 10 They gave us many gifts, and when we sailed, they put on board what we needed for the voyage.

From Malta to Rome

11 After three months we sailed away on a ship from Alexandria, called "The Twin Gods," which had spent the winter in the island. 12 We arrived in the city of Syracuse and stayed there for three days. 13 From there we sailed on and arrived in the city of Rhegium. The next day a wind began to blow from the south, and in two days we came to the town of Puteoli. 14 We found some believers there who asked us to stay with them a week. And so we came to Rome. 15 The believers in Rome heard about us and came as far as the towns of Market of Appius and Three Inns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and was greatly encouraged.

In Rome

16 When we arrived in Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself with a soldier guarding him.
17 After three days Paul called the local Jewish leaders to a meeting. When they had gathered, he said to them, "My fellow Israelites, even though I did nothing against our people or the customs that we received from our ancestors, I was made a prisoner in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. 18 After questioning me, the Romans wanted to release me, because they found that I had done nothing for which I deserved to die. 19 But when the Jews opposed this, I was forced to appeal to the Emperor, even though I had no accusation to make against my own people. 20 That is why I asked to see you and talk with you. As a matter of fact, I am bound in chains like this for the sake of him for whom the people of Israel hope." 21 They said to him, "We have not received any letters from Judaea about you, nor have any of our people come from there with any news or anything bad to say about you. 22 But we would like to hear your ideas, because we know that everywhere people speak against this party to which you belong." 23 So they fixed a date with Paul, and a large number of them came that day to the place where Paul was staying. From morning till night he explained to them his message about the Kingdom of God, and he tried to convince them about Jesus by quoting from the Law of Moses and the writings of the prophets. 24 Some of them were convinced by his words, but others would not believe. 25 So they left, disagreeing among themselves, after Paul had said this one thing: "How well the Holy Spirit spoke through the prophet Isaiah to your ancestors! 26 For he said,
'Go and say to this people:
You will listen and listen, but not understand;
you will look and look, but not see, 27 because this people's minds are dull,
and they have stopped up their ears and closed their eyes.
Otherwise, their eyes would see,
their ears would hear,
their minds would understand,
and they would turn to me, says God,
and I would heal them.'" 28 And Paul concluded: "You are to know, then, that God's message of salvation has been sent to the Gentiles. They will listen!"[q] 30 For two years Paul lived in a place he rented for himself, and there he welcomed all who came to see him. 31 He preached about the Kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ, speaking with all boldness and freedom.

[q] Some manuscripts add verse 29: After Paul said this, the Jews left, arguing violently among themselves.

ROMANS

INTRODUCTION

Paul's Letter to the Romans was written to prepare the way for a visit Paul planned to make to the church at Rome His plan was to work among the Christians there for a while and then, with their support, to go on to Spain He wrote to explain his understanding of the Christian faith and its practical implications for the lives of Christians The book contains Paul's most complete statement of his message

After greeting the people of the church at Rome and telling them of his prayers for them, Paul states the theme of the letter "The gospel reveals how God puts people right with himself it is through faith, from beginning to end" (1 17)

Paul then develops this theme All mankind, both Jews and Gentiles, needs to be put right with God, for all alike are under the power of sin People are put right with God through faith in Jesus Christ Next Paul describes the new life in union with Christ that results from this new relation with God The believer has peace with God and is set free by God's Spirit from the power of sin and death In chapters 5—8 Paul also discusses the purpose of the Law of God and the power of God's Spirit in the believer's life Then the apostle wrestles with the question of how Jews and Gentiles fit into the plan of God for mankind He concludes that the Jewish rejection of Jesus is part of God's plan for bringing all mankind within the reach of God's grace in Jesus Christ, and he believes that the Jews will not always reject Jesus Finally Paul writes about how the Christian life should be lived, especially about the way of love in relations with others He takes up such themes as service to God, the duty of Christians to the state and to one another, and questions of conscience He ends the letter with personal messages and with words of praise to God

1 From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus and an apostle chosen and called by God to preach his Good News 2 The Good News was promised long ago by God through his prophets, as written in the Holy Scriptures 3 It is about his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ as to his humanity, he was born a descendant of David; 4 as to his divine holiness, he was shown with great power to be the Son of God by being raised from death 5 Through him God gave me the privilege of being an apostle for the sake of Christ, in order to lead people of all nations to believe and obey 6 This also includes you who are in Rome, whom God has called to belong to Jesus Christ 7 And so I write to all of you in Rome whom God loves and has called to be his own people.
May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace

Prayer of Thanksgiving

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because the whole world is hearing about your faith 9 God is my witness that what I say is true—the God whom I serve with all my heart by preaching the Good News about his Son God knows that I remember you 10 every time I pray I ask that God in his good will may at last make it possible for me to visit you now 11 For I want very much to see you, in order to share a spiritual blessing with you to make you strong 12 What I mean is that both you and I will be helped at the same time, you by my faith and I by yours 13 You must remember, my brothers, that many times I have planned to visit you, but something has always kept me from doing so I want to win converts among you also, as I have among other Gentiles 14 For I have an obligation to all peoples, to the civilized and to the savage, to the educated and to the ignorant 15 So then, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who live in Rome

The Power of the Gospel

16 I have complete confidence in the gospel, it is God's power to save all who believe, first the Jews and also the Gentiles 17 For the gospel reveals how God puts people right with himself it is through faith from beginning to end As the scripture says, "The person who is put right with God through faith shall live "[a]

The Guilt of Mankind

18 God's anger is revealed from heaven against all the sin and evil of the people whose evil ways prevent the truth from being known 19 God punishes them, because what can be known about God is plain to them, for God himself made it plain 20 Ever since God created the world, his invisible qualities, both his eternal power and his divine nature, have been clearly seen, they are perceived in the things that God has made So those people have no excuse at all! 21 They know God, but they do not give him the honour that belongs to him, nor do they thank him Instead, their thoughts have become complete nonsense, and their empty minds are filled with darkness 22 They say they are wise, but they are fools, 23 instead of worshipping the immortal God, they worship images made to look like mortal man or birds or animals or reptiles 24 And so God has given those people over to do the filthy things their hearts desire, and they do shameful things with each other 25 They exchange the truth about God for a lie, they worship and serve what God has created instead of the Creator himself, who is to be praised for ever! Amen 26 Because they do this, God has given them over to shameful passions Even the women pervert the natural use of their sex by unnatural acts 27 In the same way the men give up natural sexual relations with women and burn with passion for each other Men do shameful things with each other, and as a result they bring upon themselves the punishment they deserve for their wrongdoing 28 Because those people refuse to keep in mind the true knowledge about God, he has given them over to corrupted minds, so that they do the things that they should not do 29 They are filled with all kinds of wickedness, evil, greed, and vice, they are full of jealousy, murder, fighting, deceit, and malice They gossip 30 and speak evil of one another, they are hateful to God, insolent,[b] proud, and boastful, they think of more ways to do evil, they disobey their parents, 31 they have no conscience, they do not keep their

[a] put right with God through faith shall live, or put right with God shall live through faith [b] are hateful to God, insolent, or hate God, and are insolent

1 13 Acts 19 21   1 16 Mk 8 38   1 17 Hab 2 4   1 21 Eph 4 17–18   1 23 Deut 4 16–18 promises, and they show no kindness or pity for others 32 They know that God's law says that people who live in this way deserve death Yet, not only do they continue to do these very things, but they even approve of others who do them

God's Judgement

2 Do you, my friend, pass judgement on others? You have no excuse at all, whoever you are For when you judge others and then do the same things which they do, you condemn yourself 2 We know that God is right when he judges the people who do such things as these 3 But you, my friend, do those very things for which you pass judgement on others! Do you think you will escape God's judgement? 4 Or perhaps you despise his great kindness, tolerance, and patience Surely you know that God is kind, because he is trying to lead you to repent 5 But you have a hard and stubborn heart, and so you are making your own punishment even greater on the Day when God's anger and righteous judgements will be revealed 6 For God will reward every person according to what he has done 7 Some people keep on doing good, and seek glory, honour, and immortal life, to them God will give eternal life 8 Other people are selfish and reject what is right, in order to follow what is wrong, on them God will pour out his anger and fury 9 There will be suffering and pain for all those who do what is evil, for the Jews first and also for the Gentiles 10 But God will give glory, honour, and peace to all who do what is good, to the Jews first and also to the Gentiles 11 For God judges everyone by the same standard 12 The Gentiles do not have the Law of Moses, they sin and are lost apart from the Law The Jews have the Law, they sin and are judged by the Law 13 For it is not by hearing the Law that people are put right with God, but by doing what the Law commands 14 The Gentiles do not have the Law, but whenever they do by instinct what the Law commands, they are their own law, even though they do not have the Law 15 Their conduct shows that what the Law commands is written in their hearts Their consciences also show that this is true, since their thoughts sometimes accuse them and sometimes defend them 16 And so, according to the Good News I preach, this is how it will be on that Day when God through Jesus Christ will judge the secret thoughts of all

The Jews and the Law

17 What about you? You call yourself a Jew, you depend on the Law and boast about God, 18 you know what God wants you to do, and you have learnt from the Law to choose what is right, 19 you are sure that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in darkness, 20 an instructor for the foolish, and a teacher for the ignorant You are certain that in the Law you have the full content of knowledge and of truth 21 You teach

2 1 Mt 7 1, Lk 6 37 2 6 Ps 62 12, Prov 24 12 2 11 Deut 10 17 others—why don't you teach yourself? You preach, "Do not steal"—but do you yourself steal? 22 You say, "Do not commit adultery"—but do you commit adultery? You detest idols—but do you rob temples? 23 You boast about having God's law—but do you bring shame on God by breaking his law? 24 The scripture says, "Because of you Jews, the Gentiles speak evil of God."

25 If you obey the Law, your circumcision is of value; but if you disobey the Law, you might as well never have been circumcised. 26 If the Gentile, who is not circumcised, obeys the commands of the Law, will God not regard him as though he were circumcised? 27 And so you Jews will be condemned by the Gentiles because you break the Law, even though you have it written down and are circumcised; but they obey the Law, even though they are not physically circumcised. 28 After all, who is a real Jew, truly circumcised? It is not the man who is a Jew on the outside, whose circumcision is a physical thing. 29 Rather, the real Jew is the person who is a Jew on the inside, that is, whose heart has been circumcised, and this is the work of God's Spirit, not of the written Law. Such a person receives his praise from God, not from man.

3 Have the Jews then any advantage over the Gentiles? Or is there any value in being circumcised? 2 Much, indeed, in every way! In the first place, God trusted his message to the Jews. 3 But what if some of them were not faithful? Does this mean that God will not be faithful? 4 Certainly not! God must be true, even though every man is a liar. As the scripture says,

"You must be shown to be right when
you speak;
you must win your case when you are being tried."

5 But what if our doing wrong serves to show up more clearly God's doing right? Can we say that God does wrong when he punishes us? (This would be the natural question to ask.) 6 By no means! If God is not just, how can he judge the world?

7 But what if my untruth serves God's glory by making his truth stand out more clearly? Why should I still be condemned as a sinner? 8 Why not say, then, "Let us do evil so that good may come"? Some people, indeed, have insulted me by accusing me of saying this very thing! They will be condemned, as they should be.

No One Is Righteous

9 Well then, are we Jews in any better condition than the Gentiles? Not at all![c] I have already shown that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under the power of sin. 10 As the Scriptures say:

"There is no one who is righteous, 11 no one who is wise or who worships God.
12 All have turned away from God; they have all gone wrong; no one does what is right, not even one.
13 Their words are full of deadly deceit; wicked lies roll off their tongues, and dangerous threats, like snake's poison, from their lips; 14 their speech is filled with bitter curses.
15 They are quick to hurt and kill; 16 they leave ruin and destruction wherever they go.
17 They have not known the path of
peace,
18 nor have they learnt to fear God."

19 Now we know that everything in the Law applies to those who live under the Law, in order to stop all human excuses and bring the whole world under God's judgement. 20 For no one is put right in God's sight by doing what the Law requires; what the Law does is to make man know that he has sinned.

How God Puts Us Right with Him

21 But now God's way of putting people right with himself has been revealed. It has nothing to do with law, even though the Law of Moses and the prophets gave their witness to it. 22 God puts people right through their faith in Jesus Christ. God does this to all who believe in Christ, because there is no difference at all: 23 everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. 24 But by the free gift of God's grace all are put right with him through Christ Jesus, who sets them free. 25-26 God offered him, so that

[c] any better condition than the Gentiles? Not at all!; or any worse condition than the Gentiles? Not altogether.

by his death he should become the means by which people's sins are forgiven through their faith in him God did this in order to demonstrate that he is righteous In the past he was patient and overlooked people's sins, but in the present time he deals with their sins, in order to demonstrate his righteousness In this way God shows that he himself is righteous and that he puts right everyone who believes in Jesus 27 What, then, can we boast about?
Nothing! And what is the reason for this?
Is it that we obey the Law? No, but that we believe 28 For we conclude that a person is put right with God only through faith, and not by doing what the Law commands 29 Or is God the God of the Jews only? Is he not the God of the Gentiles also? Of course he is 30 God is one, and he will put the Jews right with himself on the basis of their faith, and will put the Gentiles right through their faith 31 Does this mean that by this faith we do away with the Law? No, not at all, instead, we uphold the Law

The Example of Abraham

4 What shall we say, then, of Abraham, the father of our race? What was his experience? 2 If he was put right with God by the things he did, he would have something to boast about—but not in God's sight 3 The scripture says, "Abraham believed God, and because of his faith God accepted him as righteous" 4 A person who works is paid his wages, but they are not regarded as a gift, they are something that he has earned 5 But the person who depends on his faith, not on his deeds, and who believes in the God who declares the guilty to be innocent, it is his faith that God takes into account in order to put him right with himself 6 This is what David meant when he spoke of the happiness of the person whom God accepts as righteous, apart from anything that person does

7 "Happy are those whose wrongs are forgiven, whose sins are pardoned!
8 Happy is the person whose sins the Lord will not keep account of!"

9 Does this happiness that David spoke of belong only to those who are circumcised? No indeed! It belongs also to those who are not circumcised For we have quoted the scripture, "Abraham believed God, and because of his faith God accepted him as righteous" 10 When did this take place? Was it before or after Abraham was circumcised? It was before, not after 11 He was circumcised later, and his circumcision was a sign to show that because of his faith God had accepted him as righteous before he had been circumcised And so Abraham is the spiritual father of all who believe in God and are accepted as righteous by him, even though they are not circumcised 12 He is also the father of those who are circumcised, that is, of those who, in addition to being circumcised, also live the same life of faith that our father Abraham lived before he was circumcised

God's Promise Is Received through Faith

13 When God promised Abraham and his descendants that the world would belong to him, he did so, not because Abraham obeyed the Law, but because he believed and was accepted as righteous by God 14 For if what God promises is to be given to those who obey the Law, then man's faith means nothing and God's promise is worthless 15 The Law brings down God's anger, but where there is no law, there is no disobeying of the law 16 And so the promise was based on faith, in order that the promise should be guaranteed as God's free gift to all of Abraham's descendants—not just to those who obey the Law, but also to those who believe as Abraham did For Abraham is the spiritual father of us all, 17 as the scripture says, "I have made you father of many nations" So the promise is good in the sight of God, in whom Abraham believed—the God who brings the dead to life and whose command brings into being what did not exist.
18 Abraham believed and hoped, even when there was no reason for hoping, and so became "the father of many nations" Just as the scripture says, "Your descendants will be as many as the stars" 19 He was then almost one hundred years old, but his faith did not weaken when he thought of his body, which was already practically dead, or of the fact that Sarah could not have children 20 His faith did not leave him, and he did not doubt God's promise, his faith filled him with power, and he gave praise to God 21 He was 3 30 Deut 6 4, Gal 3 20 4 3 Gen 15 6, Gal 3 6 4 7-8 Ps 32 1-2 4 11. Gen 17 10 4 13 Gen 17 4-6, 22 17-18, Gal 3 29 4 14 Gal 3 18 4 16 Gal 3 7 4 17 Gen 17 5 4 18 Gen 15 5 4 19 Gen 17 17 absolutely sure that God would be able to do what he had promised 22 That is why Abraham, through faith, "was accepted as righteous by God" 23 The words "he was accepted as righteous" were not written for him alone 24 They were written also for us who are to be accepted as righteous, who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from death 25 Because of our sins he was handed over to die, and he was raised to life in order to put us right with God

Right with God

5 Now that we have been put right with God through faith, we have[d] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ 2 He has brought us by faith into this experience of God's grace, in which we now live. And so we boast[e] of the hope we have of sharing God's glory! 3 We also boast[f] of our troubles, because we know that trouble produces endurance, 4 endurance brings God's approval, and his approval creates hope 5 This hope does not disappoint us, for God has poured out his love into our hearts by means of the Holy Spirit, who is God's gift to us 6 For when we were still helpless, Christ died for the wicked at the time that God chose 7 It is a difficult thing for someone to die for a righteous person It may even be that someone might dare to die for a good person 8 But God has shown us how much he loves us—it was while we were still sinners that Christ died for us! 9 By his death we are now put right with God, how much more, then, will we be saved by him from God's anger! 10 We were God's enemies, but he made us his friends through the death of his Son Now that we are God's friends, how much more will we be saved by Christ's life! 11 But that is not all, we rejoice because of what God has done through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has now made us God's friends

Adam and Christ

12 Sin came into the world through one man, and his sin brought death with it As a result, death has spread to the whole human race because everyone has sinned 13 There was sin in the world before the Law was given, but where there is no law, no account is kept of sins 14 But from the time of Adam to the time of Moses death ruled over all mankind, even over those who did not sin in the same way that Adam did when he disobeyed God's command Adam was a figure of the one who was to come 15 But the two are not the same, because God's free gift is not like Adam's sin It is true that many people died because of the sin of that one man But God's grace is much greater, and so is his free gift to so many people through the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ 16 And there is a difference between God's gift and the sin of one man After the one sin, came the judgement of "Guilty", but after so many sins, comes the undeserved gift of "Not guilty!" 17 It is true that through the sin of one man death began to rule because of that one man But how much greater is the result of what was done by the one man, Jesus Christ! All who receive God's abundant grace and are freely put right with him will rule in life through Christ 18 So then, as the one sin condemned all mankind, in the same way the one righteous act sets all mankind free and gives them life 19 And just as all people were made sinners as the result of the disobedience of one man, in the same way they will all be put right with God as the result of the obedience of the one man 20 Law was introduced in order to increase wrongdoing, but where sin increased, God's grace increased much more 21 So then, just as sin ruled by means of death, so also God's grace rules by means of righteousness, leading us to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord

Dead to Sin but Alive in Union with Christ

6 What shall we say, then? Should we continue to live in sin so that God's grace will increase? 2 Certainly not! We have died to sin—how then can we go on living in it? 3 For surely you know that when we were baptized into union with Christ Jesus, we were baptized into union with his death 4 By our baptism, then, we were buried with him and shared his death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from death by the glorious power of the Father, so also we might live a new life 5 For since we have become one with him in dying as he did, in the same way [d] we have some manuscripts have let us have [f] We also boast, or Let us also boast 4 25 Is 53 4-5 5 12 Gen 3 6 6 4 Col 2 12

[e] we boast or let us boast

So that we should no longer be the slaves of sin (6 6) we shall be one with him by being raised to life as he was 6 And we know that our old being has been put to death with Christ on his cross, in order that the power of the sinful self might be destroyed, so that we should no longer be the slaves of sin 7 For when a person dies, he is set free from the power of sin 8 Since we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him 9 For we know that Christ has been raised from death and will never die again—death will no longer rule over him 10 And so, because he died, sin has no power over him, and now he lives his life in fellowship with God 11 In the same way you are to think of yourselves as dead, so far as sin is concerned, but living in fellowship with God through Christ Jesus 12 Sin must no longer rule in your mortal bodies, so that you obey the desires of your natural self. 13 Nor must you surrender any part of yourselves to sin to be used for wicked purposes Instead, give yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life, and surrender your whole being to him to be used for righteous purposes 14 Sin must not be your master, for you do not live under law but under God's grace

Slaves of Righteousness

15 What, then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law but under God's grace? By no means! 16 Surely you know that when you surrender yourselves as slaves to obey someone, you are in fact the slaves of the master you obey—either of sin, which results in death, or of obedience, which results in being put right with God 17 But thanks be to God! For though at one time you were slaves to sin, you have obeyed with all your heart the truths found in the teaching you received 18 You were set free from sin and became the slaves of righteousness 19 (I use everyday language because of the weakness of your natural selves) At one time you surrendered yourselves entirely as slaves to impurity and wickedness for wicked purposes In the same way you must now surrender yourselves entirely as slaves of righteousness for holy purposes 20 When you were the slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness 21 What did you gain from doing the things that you are now ashamed of? The result of those things is death! 22 But now you have been set free from sin and are the slaves of God Your gain is a life fully dedicated to him, and the result is eternal life 23 For sin pays its wage—death, but God's free gift is eternal life in union with Christ Jesus our Lord

An Illustration from Marriage

7 Certainly you will understand what I am about to say, my brothers, because all of you know about law The law rules over people only as long as they live 2 A married woman, for example, is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives, but if he dies, then she is free from the law that bound her to him 3 So then, if she lives with another man while her husband is alive, she will be called an adulteress, but if her husband dies, she is legally a free woman and does not commit adultery if she marries another man 4 That is how it is with you, my brothers As far as the Law is concerned, you also have died because you are part of the body of Christ, and now you belong to him who was raised from death in order that we might be useful in the service of God 5 For when we lived according to our human nature, the sinful desires stirred up by the Law were at work in our bodies, and we were useful in the service of death 6 Now, however, we are free from the Law, because we died to that which once held us prisoners No longer do we serve in the old way of a written law, but in the new way of the Spirit

Law and Sin

7 Shall we say, then, that the Law itself is sinful? Of course not! But it was the Law that made me know what sin is If the Law had not said, "Do not desire what belongs to someone else," I would not have known such a desire 8 But by means of that commandment sin found its chance to stir up all kinds of selfish desires in me Apart from law, sin is a dead thing 9 I myself was once alive apart from law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life, 10 and I died And the commandment which was meant to bring life, in my case brought death 11 Sin found its chance, and by means of the commandment it deceived me and killed me 12 So then, the Law itself is holy, and the commandment is holy, right, and good 13 But does this mean that what is good caused my death? By no means!
It was sin that did it, by using what is good, sin brought death to me, in order that its true nature as sin might be revealed And so, by means of the commandment sin is shown to be even more terribly sinful

The Conflict in Man

14 We know that the Law is spiritual, but I am a mortal man, sold as a slave to sin 15 I do not understand what I do, for I don't do what I would like to do, but instead I do what I hate 16 Since what I do is what I don't want to do, this shows that I agree that the Law is right. 17 So I am not really the one who does this thing, rather it is the sin that lives in me 18 I know that good does not live in me—that is, in my human nature For even though the desire to do good is in me, I am not able to do it 19 I don't do the good I want to do, instead, I do the evil that I do not want to do 20 If I do what I don't want to do, this means that I am no longer the one who does it, instead, it is the sin that lives in me 21 So I find that this law is at work when I want to do what is good, what is evil is the only choice I have 22 My inner being delights in the law of God 23 But I see a different law at work in my body—a law that fights against the law which my mind approves of It makes me a prisoner to the law of sin which is at work in my body 24 What an unhappy man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is taking me to death? 25 Thanks be to God, who does this through our Lord Jesus Christ!
This, then, is my condition on my own I can serve God's law only with my mind, while my human nature serves the law of sin

Life in the Spirit

8 There is no condemnation now for those who live in union with Christ Jesus 2 For the law of the Spirit, which brings us life in union with Christ Jesus, has set me[g] free from the law of sin and death 3 What the Law could not do, because human nature was weak, God did He condemned sin in human nature by sending his own Son, who came with a nature like man's sinful nature, to do away with sin 4 God did this so that the righteous demands of the Law might be fully satisfied in us who live according to the Spirit, and not according to human nature 5 Those who live as their human nature tells them to, have their minds controlled by what human nature wants Those who live as the Spirit tells them to, have their minds controlled by what the Spirit wants 6 To be controlled by human nature results in death, to be controlled by the Spirit results in life and peace 7 And so a person becomes an enemy of God when he is controlled by his human nature, for he does not obey God's law, and in fact he cannot obey it 8 Those who obey their human nature cannot please God 9 But you do not live as your human

[g] me, some manuscripts have you others have us 7 7 Ex 20 17, Deut 5.21 7 11 Gen 3 13 7 15 Gal 5 17 nature tells you to; instead, you live as the Spirit tells you to—if, in fact, God's Spirit lives in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. [10] But if Christ lives in you, the Spirit is life for you[h] because you have been put right with God, even though your bodies are going to die because of sin. [11] If the Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from death, lives in you, then he who raised Christ from death will also give life to your mortal bodies by the presence of his Spirit in you.

12 So then, my brothers, we have an obligation, but it is not to live as our human nature wants us to. [13] For if you live according to your human nature, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death your sinful actions, you will live. [14] Those who are led by God's Spirit are God's sons. [15] For the Spirit that God has given you does not make you slaves and cause you to be afraid; instead, the Spirit makes you God's children, and by the Spirit's power we cry out to God, "Father! my Father!" [16] God's Spirit joins himself to our spirits to declare that we are God's children. [17] Since we are his children, we will possess the blessings he keeps for his people, and we will also possess with Christ what God has kept for him; for if we share Christ's suffering, we will also share his glory.

The Future Glory

18 I consider that what we suffer at this present time cannot be compared at all with the glory that is going to be revealed to us. [19] All of creation waits with eager longing for God to reveal his sons. [20] For creation was condemned to lose its purpose, not of its own will, but because God willed it to be so. Yet there was the hope [21] that creation itself would one day be set free from its slavery to decay and would share the glorious freedom of the children of God. [22] For we know that up to the present time all of creation groans with pain, like the pain of childbirth. [23] But it is not just creation alone which groans; we who have the Spirit as the first of God's gifts also groan within ourselves, as we wait for God to make us his sons and[i] set our whole being free. [24] For it was by hope that we were saved; but if we see what we hope for, then it is not really hope. For who hopes for something he sees? [25] But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

26 In the same way the Spirit also comes to help us, weak as we are. For we do not know how we ought to pray; the Spirit himself pleads with God for us in groans that words cannot express. [27] And God, who sees into our hearts, knows what the thought of the Spirit is; because the Spirit pleads with God on behalf of his people and in accordance with his will.

28 We know that in all things God works for good with those who love him,[j] those whom he has called according to his purpose. [29] Those whom God had already chosen he also set apart to become like his Son, so that the Son would be the first among many brothers. [30] And so those whom God set apart, he called; and those he called, he put right with himself, and he shared his glory with them.

God's Love in Christ Jesus

31 In view of all this, what can we say? If God is for us, who can be against us? [32] Certainly not God, who did not even keep back his own Son, but offered him for us all! He gave us his Son—will he not also freely give us all things? [33] Who will accuse God's chosen people? God himself declares them not guilty! [34] Who, then, will condemn them? Not Christ Jesus, who died, or rather, who was raised to life and is at the right-hand side of God, pleading with him for us! [35] Who, then, can separate us from the love of Christ? Can trouble do it, or hardship or persecution or hunger or poverty or danger or death? [36] As the scripture says, "For your sake we are in danger of death at all times; we are treated like sheep that are going to be slaughtered."

[37] No, in all these things we have complete victory through him who loved us! [38] For I am certain that nothing can separate us from his love: neither death nor life, neither angels nor other heavenly rulers or powers, neither the present nor the future, [39] neither the world above nor the world below—there is nothing in all creation [h] the Spirit is life for you; or your spirit is alive.

[i] Some manuscripts do not have make us his sons and.

Christ Jesus our Lord.

God and His People

9 I am speaking the truth; I belong to Christ and I do not lie. My conscience, ruled by the Holy Spirit, also assures me that I am not lying 2 when I say how great is my sorrow, how endless the pain in my heart 3 for my people, my own flesh and blood! For their sake I could wish that I myself were under God's curse and separated from Christ. 4 They are God's people; he made them his sons and revealed his glory to them; he made his covenants[k] with them and gave them the Law; they have the true worship; they have received God's promises; 5 they are descended from the famous Hebrew ancestors; and Christ, as a human being, belongs to their race. May God, who rules over all, be praised for ever![l] Amen.
6 I am not saying that the promise of God has failed; for not all the people of Israel are the people of God. 7 Nor are all Abraham's descendants the children of God. God said to Abraham, "It is through Isaac that you will have the descendants I promised you." 8 This means that the children born in the usual way[m] are not the children of God; instead, the children born as a result of God's promise are regarded as the true descendants. 9 For God's promise was made in these words: "At the right time[n] I will come back, and Sarah will have a son." 10 And this is not all. For Rebecca's two sons had the same father, our ancestor Isaac. 11-12 But in order that the choice of one son might be completely the result of God's own purpose, God said to her, "The elder will serve the younger." He said this before they were born, before they had done anything either good or bad; so God's choice was based on his call, and not on anything they had done.
13 As the scripture says, "I loved Jacob, but I hated Esau." 14 Shall we say, then, that God is unjust? Not at all. 15 For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on anyone I wish; I will take pity on anyone I wish." 16 So then, everything depends, not on what man wants or does, but only on God's mercy. 17 For the scripture says to the king of Egypt, "I made you king in order to use you to show my power and to spread my fame over the whole world." 18 So then, God has mercy on anyone he wishes, and he makes stubborn anyone he wishes.

God's Anger and Mercy

19 But one of you will say to me, "If this is so, how can God find fault with anyone? Who can resist God's will?"
20 But who are you, my friend, to answer God back? A clay pot does not ask the man who made it, "Why did you make me like this?" 21 After all, the man who makes the pots has the right to use the clay as he wishes, and to make two pots from the same lump of clay, one for special occasions and the other for ordinary use.
22 And the same is true of what God has done. He wanted to show his anger and to make his power known. But he was very patient in enduring those who were the objects of his anger, who were doomed to destruction. 23 And he also wanted to reveal his abundant glory, which was poured out on us who are the objects of his mercy, those of us whom he has prepared to receive his glory. 24 For we are the people he called, not only from among the Jews but also from among the Gentiles. 25 This is what he says in the book of Hosea:

"The people who were not mine I will call 'My People.'
The nation that I did not love I will call 'My Beloved.' 26 And in the very place where they were told, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called the sons of the living God."

27 And Isaiah exclaims about Israel: "Even if the people of Israel are as many as the grains of sand by the sea, yet only a few of them will be saved; 28 for the Lord will quickly settle his full account with the world." 29 It is as Isaiah had said before, "If the Lord Almighty had not left us some descendants, we would have [k] covenants; some manuscripts have covenant.

[l] May God, who rules over all, be praised for ever!; or And may he, who is God ruling over all, be praised for ever!

become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah"

Paul's Prayer for Israel

30 So we say that the Gentiles, who were not trying to put themselves right with God, were put right with him through faith, 31 while God's people, who were seeking a law that would put them right with God, did not find it 32 And why not?
Because they did not depend on faith but on what they did And so they stumbled over the "stumbling stone" 33 that the scripture speaks of

"Look, I place in Zion a stone that will make people stumble, a rock that will make them fall But whoever believes in him will not be disappointed"

10 My brothers, how I wish with all my heart that my own people might be saved! How I pray to God for them! 2 I can assure you that they are deeply devoted to God, but their devotion is not based on true knowledge 3 They have not known the way in which God puts people right with himself, and instead, they have tried to set up their own way, and so they did not submit themselves to God's way of putting people right 4 For Christ has brought the Law to an end, so that everyone who believes is put right with God

Salvation Is for All

5 Moses wrote this about being put right with God by obeying the Law "Whoever obeys the commands of the Law will live" 6 But what the scripture says about being put right with God through faith is this "You are not to ask yourself, Who will go up into heaven?" (that is, to bring Christ down) 7 "Nor are you to ask, Who will go down into the world below?" (that is, to bring Christ up from death) 8 What it says is this "God's message is near you, on your lips and in your heart"—that is, the message of faith that we preach 9 If you confess that Jesus is Lord and believe that God raised him from death, you will be saved 10 For it is by our faith that we are put right with God, it is by our confession that we are saved 11 The scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed" 12 This includes everyone, because there is no difference between Jews and Gentiles, God is the same Lord of all and richly blesses all who call to him 13 As the scripture says, "Everyone who calls out to the Lord for help will be saved"

14 But how can they call to him for help if they have not believed? And how can they believe if they have not heard the message? And how can they hear if the message is not proclaimed? 15 And how can the message be proclaimed if the messengers are not sent out? As the scripture says, "How wonderful is the coming of messengers who bring good news!" 16 But not all have accepted the Good News Isaiah himself said, "Lord, who believed our message?" 17 So then, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message comes through preaching Christ

18 But I ask Is it true that they did not hear the message? Of course they did—for as the scripture says:

"The sound of their voice went out to all the world,
their words reached the ends of the earth"

19 Again I ask Did the people of Israel not understand? Moses himself is the first one to answer

"I will use a so-called nation to make my people jealous, and by means of a nation of fools I will make my people angry"

20 And Isaiah is even bolder when he says,

"I was found by those who were not looking for me, I appeared to those who were not asking for me"

21 But concerning Israel he says, "All day long I held out my hands to welcome a disobedient and rebellious people"

God's Mercy on Israel

11 I ask, then Did God reject his own people? Certainly not! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin 2 God has not rejected his people, whom he chose from the beginning You know what the scripture says in the passage where Elijah pleads with God against Israel 3 "Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars, I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me" 4 What answer did God give him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand men who 9 33 Is 28 16 10 5 Lev 18 5 10 6-8 Deut 30 12-14 10 11: Is 28 16 10 13 Joel 2 32 have not worshipped the false god Baal." 5 It is the same way now: there is a small number left of those whom God has chosen because of his grace. 6 His choice is based on his grace, not on what they have done. For if God's choice were based on what people do, then his grace would not be real grace.

7 What then? The people of Israel did not find what they were looking for. It was only the small group that God chose who found it; the rest grew deaf to God's call. 8 As the scripture says, "God made their minds and hearts dull; to this very day they cannot see or hear." 9 And David
says,

"May they be caught and trapped at their feasts;
may they fall, may they be punished!
10 May their eyes be blinded so that they cannot see;
and make them bend under their troubles at all times."

11 I ask, then: When the Jews stumbled, did they fall to their ruin? By no means! Because they sinned, salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make the Jews jealous of them. 12 The sin of the Jews brought rich blessings to the world, and their spiritual poverty brought rich blessings to the Gentiles. Then how much greater the blessings will be when the complete number of Jews is included!

The Salvation of the Gentiles

13 I am speaking now to you Gentiles:
As long as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I will take pride in my work. 14 Perhaps I can make the people of my own race jealous, and so be able to save some of them. 15 For when they were rejected, mankind was changed from God's enemies into his friends. What will it be, then, when they are accepted? It will be life for the dead!
16 If the first piece of bread is given to God, then the whole loaf is his also;
and if the roots of a tree are offered to God, the branches are his also. 17 Some of the branches of the cultivated olive tree have been broken off, and a branch of a wild olive tree has been joined to it.
You Gentiles are like that wild olive tree, and now you share the strong spiritual life of the Jews. 18 So then, you must not despise those who were broken off like branches. How can you be proud? You are just a branch; you don't support the roots—the roots support you.
19 But you will say, "Yes, but the branches were broken off to make room for me." 20 That is true. They were broken off because they did not believe, while you remain in place because you do believe. But do not be proud of it; instead, be afraid. 21 God did not spare the Jews, who are like natural branches; do you think he will spare you? 22 Here we see how kind and how severe God is. He is severe towards those who have fallen, but kind to you—if you continue in his kindness. But if you do not, you too will be broken off. 23 And if the Jews abandon their unbelief, they will be put back in the place where they were; for God is able to do that. 24 You Gentiles are like the branch of a wild olive tree that is broken off and then, contrary to nature, is joined to a cultivated olive tree. The Jews are like this cultivated tree, and it will be much easier for God to join these broken-off branches to their own tree
again.

God's Mercy on All

25 There is a secret truth, my brothers, which I want you to know, for it will keep you from thinking how wise you are.
It is that the stubbornness of the people of Israel is not permanent, but will last only until the complete number of Gentiles comes to God. 26 And this is how all Israel will be saved. As the scripture
says,

"The Saviour will come from Zion and remove all wickedness from the descendants of Jacob.
27 I will make this covenant with them when I take away their sins."

28 Because they reject the Good News, the Jews are God's enemies for the sake of you Gentiles. But because of God's choice, they are his friends because of their ancestors. 29 For God does not change his mind about whom he chooses and blesses.
30 As for you Gentiles, you disobeyed God in the past; but now you have received God's mercy because the Jews were disobedient. 31 In the same way, because of the mercy that you have received, the Jews now disobey God, in order that they also may now [o] receive God's mercy. 32 For God has made all people prisoners of [o] Some manuscripts do not have now.

disobedience, so that he might show mercy to them all

Praise to God

33 How great are God's riches! How deep are his wisdom and knowledge! Who can explain his decisions? Who can understand his ways? [34]As the scripture
says,

"Who knows the mind of the Lord?
Who is able to give him advice?
[35]Who has ever given him anything, so that he had to pay it back?"

[36]For all things were created by him, and all things exist through him and for him To God be the glory for ever! Amen.

Life in God's Service

12 So then, my brothers, because of God's great mercy to us I appeal to you Offer yourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to his service and pleasing to him This is the true worship that you should offer [2]Do not conform yourselves to the standards of this world, but let God transform you inwardly by a complete change of your mind Then you will be able to know the will of God—what is good and is pleasing to him and is perfect.

3 And because of God's gracious gift to me I say to every one of you Do not think of yourself more highly than you should Instead, be modest in your thinking, and judge yourself according to the amount of faith that God has given you [4]We have many parts in the one body, and all these parts have different functions [5]In the same way, though we are many, we are one body in union with Christ, and we are all joined to each other as different parts of one body [6]So we are to use our different gifts in accordance with the grace that God has given us If our gift is to speak God's message, we should do it according to the faith that we have, [7]if it is to serve, we should serve, if it is to teach, we should teach; [8]if it is to encourage others, we should do so Whoever shares with others should do it generously, whoever has authority should work hard, whoever shows kindness to others should do it cheerfully

9 Love must be completely sincere Hate what is evil, hold on to what is good [10]Love one another warmly as Christian brothers, and be eager to show respect for one another [11]Work hard and do not be lazy Serve the Lord with a heart full of devotion [12]Let your hope keep you joyful, be patient in your troubles, and pray at all times [13]Share your belongings with your needy fellow-Christians, and open your homes to strangers 14 Ask God to bless those who persecute you—yes, ask him to bless, not to curse [15]Be happy with those who are happy, weep with those who weep [16]Have the same concern for everyone Do not be proud, but accept humble duties [p] Do not think of yourselves as wise

17 If someone has done you wrong, do not repay him with a wrong Try to do what everyone considers to be good [18]Do everything possible on your part to live in peace with everybody [19]Never take revenge, my friends, but instead let God's anger do it For the scripture says, "I will take revenge, I will pay back, says the Lord" [20]Instead, as the scripture says "If your enemy is hungry, feed him, if he is thirsty, give him a drink, for by doing this you will make him burn with shame" [21]Do not let evil defeat you, instead, conquer evil with good

Duties towards the State Authorities

13 Everyone must obey the state authorities, because no authority exists without God's permission, and the existing authorities have been put there by God [2]Whoever opposes the existing authority opposes what God has ordered, and anyone who does so will bring judgement on himself [3]For rulers are not to be feared by those who do good, but by those who do evil Would you like to be unafraid of the man in authority? Then do what is good, and he will praise you, [4]because he is God's servant working for your own good But if you do evil, then be afraid of him, because his power to punish is real He is God's servant and carries out God's punishment on those who do evil [5]For this reason you must obey the authorities—not just because of God's punishment, but also as a matter of conscience

6 That is also why you pay taxes, because the authorities are working for God when they fulfil their duties [7]Pay,

[p] accept humble duties, or make friends with humble people as not to build on a foundation laid by

Paul's Plan to Visit Rome

22 And so I have been prevented many times from coming to you 23 But now that I have finished my work in these regions and since I have been wanting for so many years to come to see you, 24 I hope to do so now I would like to see you on my way to Spain, and be helped by you to go there, after I have enjoyed visiting you for a while 25 Just now, however, I am going to Jerusalem in the service of God's people there 26 For the churches in Macedonia and Achaia have freely decided to give an offering to help the poor among God's people in Jerusalem 27 That decision was their own, but, as a matter of fact, they have an obligation to help them Since the Jews shared their spiritual blessings with the Gentiles, the Gentiles ought to use their material blessings to help the Jews 28 When I have finished this task and have handed over to them all the money that has been raised for them, I shall leave for Spain and visit you on my way there 29 When I come to you, I know that I shall come with a full measure of the blessing of Christ 30 I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love that the Spirit gives join me in praying fervently to God for me 31 Pray that I may be kept safe from the unbelievers in Judaea and that my service in Jerusalem may be acceptable to God's people there 32 And so I will come to you full of joy, if it is God's will, and enjoy a refreshing visit to you 33 May God, our source of peace, be with all of you Amen

Personal Greetings

16 I recommend to you our sister Phoebe, who serves the church at Cenchreae 2 Receive her in the Lord's name, as God's people should, and give her any help she may need from you, for she herself has been a good friend to many people and also to me

3 I send greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow-workers in the service of Christ Jesus, 4 they risked their lives for me I am grateful to them—not only I, but all the Gentile churches as well in their house who was the first man in the province of Asia to believe in Christ 6 Greetings with me, they are well known among the apostles, and they became Christians mother, who has always treated me like a son 14 My greetings to Asyncritus,

Final Instructions

17 I urge you, my brothers: watch out for those who cause divisions and upset people's faith and go against the teaching which you have received Keep away from them! 18 For those who do such things are not serving Christ our Lord, but their own appetites By their fine words and flattering speech they deceive innocent people 19 Everyone has heard of your loyalty to the gospel, and for this reason I am happy about you I want you to Concluding Prayer of Praise

25 Let us give glory to God! He is able to make you stand firm in your faith, according to the Good News I preach about Jesus Christ and according to the revelation of the secret truth which was hidden for long ages in the past 26 Now, however, that truth has been brought out into the open through the writings of the prophets, and by the command of the eternal God it is made known to all nations, so that all may believe and obey 27 To the only God, who alone is all-wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever! Amen [u]

PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS

INTRODUCTION

Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians was written to deal with problems of Christian life and faith that had arisen in the church which Paul had established at Corinth At that time Corinth was a great cosmopolitan Greek city, the capital of the Roman province of Achaia It was noted for its thriving commerce, proud culture, widespread immorality, and variety of religions

The apostle's chief concerns are with problems such as divisions and immorality in the church, and with questions about sex and marriage, matters of conscience, church order, gifts of the Holy Spirit, and the resurrection With deep insight he shows how the Good News speaks to these questions

Chapter 13, which presents love as the best of God's gifts to his people, is probably the most widely known passage in the book

Outline of Contents

1 From Paul, who was called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Sosthenes—2 To the church of God which is in Corinth, to all who are called to be God's holy people, who belong to him in union with Christ Jesus, together with all people everywhere who worship our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:
3 May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Blessings in Christ

4 I always give thanks to my God for you because of the grace he has given you through Christ Jesus. 5 For in union with Christ you have become rich in all things, including all speech and all knowledge. 6 The message about Christ has become so firmly established in you 7 that you have not failed to receive a single blessing, as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed. 8 He will also keep you firm to the end, so that you will be faultless on the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is to be trusted, the God who called you to have fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Divisions in the Church

10 By the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ I appeal to all of you, my brothers, to agree in what you say, so that there will be no divisions among you. Be completely united, with only one thought and one purpose. 11 For some people from Chloe's family have told me quite plainly, my brothers, that there are quarrels among you. 12 Let me put it this way: each one of you says something different. One says, "I follow Paul", another, "I follow Apollos", another, "I follow Peter"; and another, "I follow Christ." 13 Christ has been divided[a] into groups! Was it Paul who died on the cross for you? Were you baptized as Paul's disciples?
14 I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius. 15 No one can say, then, that you were baptized as my disciples. 16 (Oh yes, I also baptized Stephanas and his family, but I can't remember whether I baptized anyone else.) 17 Christ did not send me to baptize.
He sent me to tell the Good News, and to tell it without using the language of human wisdom, in order to make sure that Christ's death on the cross is not robbed of its power.

Christ the Power and the Wisdom of God

18 For the message about Christ's death on the cross is nonsense to those who are being lost; but for us who are being saved it is God's power. 19 The scripture
says,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and set aside the understanding of the scholars."

20 So then, where does that leave the wise? or the scholars? or the skilful debaters of this world? God has shown that this world's wisdom is foolishness!
21 For God in his wisdom made it impossible for people to know him by means of their own wisdom. Instead, by means of the so-called "foolish" message we preach, God decided to save those who believe. 22 Jews want miracles for proof, and Greeks look for wisdom. 23 As for us, we proclaim the crucified Christ, a message that is offensive to the Jews and nonsense to the Gentiles; 24 but for those whom God has called, both Jews and Gentiles, this message is Christ, who is the power of God and the wisdom of God.
25 For what seems to be God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and what seems to be God's weakness is stronger than human strength.
26 Now remember what you were, my brothers, when God called you. From the human point of view few of you were wise or powerful or of high social standing. 27 God purposely chose what the world considers nonsense in order to shame the wise, and he chose what the world considers weak in order to shame the powerful. 28 He chose what the world looks down on and despises, and thinks is nothing, in order to destroy what the world thinks is important. 29 This means that no one can boast in God's presence.
30 But God has brought you into union with Christ Jesus, and God has made Christ to be our wisdom. By him we are put right with God; we become God's holy people and are set free. 31 So then, as the scripture says, "Whoever wants to boast must boast of what the Lord has done."

The Message about the Crucified Christ

2 When I came to you, my brothers, to preach God's secret truth,[b] I did not use big words and great learning 2 For while I was with you, I made up my mind to forget everything except Jesus Christ and especially his death on the cross 3 So when I came to you, I was weak and trembled all over with fear, 4 and my teaching and message were not delivered with skilful words of human wisdom, but with convincing proof of the power of God's Spirit 5 Your faith, then, does not rest on human wisdom but on God's power

God's Wisdom

6 Yet I do proclaim a message of wisdom to those who are spiritually mature But it is not the wisdom that belongs to this world or to the powers that rule this world—powers that are losing their power 7 The wisdom I proclaim is God's secret wisdom, which is hidden from mankind, but which he had already chosen for our glory even before the world was made 8 None of the rulers of this world knew this wisdom If they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory 9 However, as the scripture says,

"What no one ever saw or heard, what no one ever thought could
happen,
is the very thing God prepared for those who love him "

10 But[c] it was to us that God made known his secret by means of his Spirit. The Spirit searches everything, even the hidden depths of God's purposes 11 It is only a person's own spirit within him that knows all about him, in the same way, only God's Spirit knows all about God 12 We have not received this world's spirit, instead, we have received the Spirit sent by God, so that we may know all that God has given us

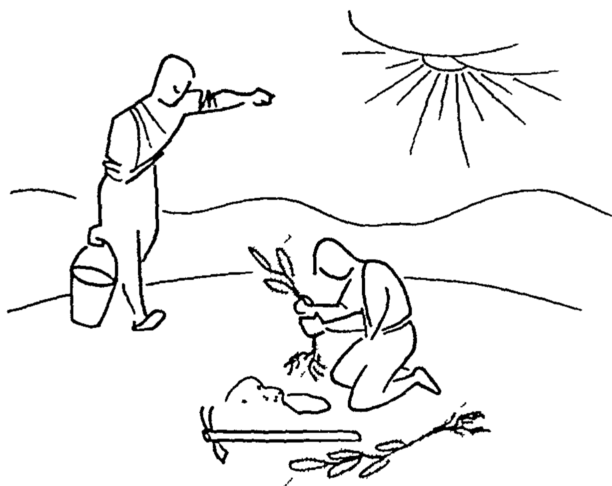
13 So then, we do not speak in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Spirit, as we explain spiritual truths to those who have the Spirit.[d] 14 Whoever does not have the Spirit cannot receive the gifts that come from God's Spirit Such a person really does not understand them, they are nonsense to him, because their value can be judged only on a spiritual basis 15 Whoever has the Spirit, however, is able to judge the value of everything, but no one is able to judge him 16 As the scripture
says,

"Who knows the mind of the Lord?
Who is able to give him advice?"

We, however, have the mind of Christ



Servants of God

3 As a matter of fact, my brothers, I could not talk to you as I talk to people who have the Spirit, I had to talk to you as though you belonged to this world, as children in the Christian faith 2 I had to feed you with milk, not solid food, because you were not ready for it And even now you are not ready for it, 3 because you still live as the people of this world live When there is jealousy among you and you quarrel with one another, doesn't this prove that you belong to this world, living by its standards? 4 When one of you says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos"— aren't you acting like worldly people?

5 After all, who is Apollos? And who is Paul? We are simply God's servants, by whom you were led to believe Each one of us does the work which the Lord gave him to do 6 I sowed the seed, Apollos watered the plant, but it was God who made the plant grow 7 The one who sows and the one who waters really do not matter It is God who matters, because he makes the plant grow 8 There is no difference between the man who sows and the man who waters, God will reward each one according to the work he has done 9 For we are partners working together for God, and you are God's field

You are also God's building 10 Using the gift that God gave me, I did the work of an expert builder and laid the foundation, and another man is building on it But each one must be careful how he builds 11 For God has already placed Jesus Christ as the one and only foundation, and no other foundation can be laid 12 Some will use gold or silver or precious stones in building on the foundation, others will use wood or grass or straw 13 And the quality of each person's work will be seen

[b] God's secret truth some manuscripts have the testimony about God [c] But some manuscripts have For [d] to those who have the Spirit or with words given by the Spirit when the Day of Christ exposes it For on that Day fire will reveal everyone's work, the fire will test it and show its real quality 14 If what was built on the foundation survives the fire, the builder will receive a reward 15 But if anyone's work is burnt up, then he will lose it, but he himself will be saved, as if he had escaped through the fire

16 Surely you know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you!
17 So if anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him For God's temple is holy, and you yourselves are his temple

18 No one should fool himself If anyone among you thinks that he is wise by this world's standards, he should become a fool, in order to be really wise 19 For what this world considers to be wisdom is nonsense in God's sight As the scripture says, "God traps the wise in their cleverness", 20 and another scripture says, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are worthless" 21 No one, then, should boast about what men can do Actually everything belongs to you 22 Paul, Apollos, and Peter, this world, life and death, the present and the future—all these are yours, 23 and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God

Apostles of Christ

4 You should think of us as Christ's servants, who have been put in charge of God's secret truths 2 The one thing required of such a servant is that he be faithful to his master 3 Now, I am not at all concerned about being judged by you or by any human standard, I don't even pass judgement on myself 4 My conscience is clear, but that does not prove that I am really innocent The Lord is the one who passes judgement on me 5 So you should not pass judgement on anyone before the right time comes Final judgement must wait until the Lord comes, he will bring to light the dark secrets and expose the hidden purposes of people's minds And then everyone will receive from God the praise he deserves 6 For your sake, my brothers, I have applied all this to Apollos and me, using the two of us as an example, so that you may learn what the saying means, "Observe the proper rules" None of you should be proud of one person and despise another 7 Who made you superior to others? Didn't God give you everything you have? Well, then, how can you boast, as if what you have were not a gift?

8 Do you already have everything you of his theocra need? Are you already rich? Have you become kings, even though we are not?

Well, I wish you really were kings, so that we could be kings together with you.
9 For it seems to me that God has given the very last place to us apostles, like men condemned to die in public as a spectacle for the whole world of angels and of mankind. 10 For Christ's sake we are fools, but you are wise in union with Christ! We are weak, but you are strong!
We are despised, but you are honoured!
11 To this very moment we go hungry and thirsty, we are clothed in rags, we are beaten, we wander from place to place, 12 we wear ourselves out with hard work.
When we are cursed, we bless, when we are persecuted, we endure, 13 when we are insulted, we answer with kind words.
We are no more than this world's refuse, we are the scum of the earth to this very moment!

14 I write this to you, not because I want to make you feel ashamed, but to instruct you as my own dear children.
15 For even if you have ten thousand guardians in your Christian life, you have only one father. For in your life in union with Christ Jesus I have become your father by bringing the Good News to you.
16 I beg you, then, to follow my example.
17 For this purpose I am sending to you Timothy, who is my own dear and faithful son in the Christian life. He will remind you of the principles which I follow in the new life in union with Christ Jesus and which I teach in all the churches everywhere.

18 Some of you have become proud because you have thought that I would not be coming to visit you. 19 If the Lord is willing, however, I will come to you soon, and then I will find out for myself the power which these proud people have, and not just what they say. 20 For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of words but of power. 21 Which do you prefer?
Shall I come to you with a whip, or in a spirit of love and gentleness?

Immorality in the Church

5 Now, it is actually being said that there is sexual immorality among you so terrible that not even the heathen would be guilty of it. I am told that a man is sleeping with his stepmother!
2 How, then, can you be proud? On the contrary, you should be filled with sadness, and the man who has done such a thing should be expelled from your fellowship. 3–4 And even though I am far away from you in body, still I am there with you in spirit, and as though I were there with you, I have in the name of our Lord Jesus already passed judgement on the man who has done this terrible thing. As you meet together, and I meet with you in my spirit, by the power of our Lord Jesus present with us, 5 you are to hand this man over to Satan for his body to be destroyed, so that his spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord.

6 It is not right for you to be proud!
You know the saying, "A little bit of yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise." 7 You must remove the old yeast of sin so that you will be entirely pure. Then you will be like a new batch of dough without any yeast, as indeed I know you actually are. For our Passover Festival is ready, now that Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. 8 Let us celebrate our Passover, then, not with bread having the old yeast of sin and wickedness, but with the bread that has no yeast, the bread of purity and truth.

9 In the letter that I wrote you I told you not to associate with immoral people.
10 Now I did not mean pagans who are immoral or greedy or are thieves or who worship idols. To avoid them you would have to get out of the world completely.
11 What I meant was that you should not associate with a person who calls himself a brother but is immoral or greedy or worships idols or is a slanderer or a drunkard or a thief. Don't even sit down to eat with such a person.

12–13 After all, it is none of my business to judge outsiders. God will judge them.
But should you not judge the members of your own fellowship? As the scripture says, "Remove the evil man from your group."

Lawsuits against Fellow-Christians

6 If one of you has a dispute with a fellow-Christian, how dare he go before heathen judges instead of letting God's people settle the matter? 2 Don't you know that God's people will judge the world? Well, then, if you are to judge the world, aren't you capable of judging small matters? 3 Do you not know that we shall judge the angels? How much more, then, the things of this life! 4 If such 4.12 Acts 18.3 4.16 1 Cor 11.1; Phil 3.17 5.1 Deut 22.30 5.6 Gal 5.9 5.7 Ex 12.5 5.8 Ex 13.7; Deut 16.3 5.13 Deut 13.5; 17.7 matters come up, are you going to take them to be settled by people who have no standing in the church? 5 Shame on you! Surely there is at least one wise person in your fellowship who can settle a dispute between fellow-Christians 6 Instead, one Christian goes to court against another and lets unbelievers judge the case!

7 The very fact that you have legal disputes among yourselves shows that you have failed completely Would it not be better for you to be wronged? Would it not be better for you to be robbed?
8 Instead, you yourselves wrong one another and rob one another, even your own brothers! 9 Surely you know that the wicked will not possess God's Kingdom Do not fool yourselves, people who are immoral or who worship idols or are adulterers or homosexual perverts 10 or who steal or are greedy or are drunkards or who slander others or are thieves—none of these will possess God's Kingdom 11 Some of you were like that But you have been purified from sin, you have been dedicated to God, you have been put right with God by the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God

Use Your Bodies for God's Glory

12 Someone will say, "I am allowed to do anything" Yes, but not everything is good for you I could say that I am allowed to do anything, but I am not going to let anything make me its slave 13 Someone else will say, "Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food" Yes, but God will put an end to both The body is not to be used for sexual immorality, but to serve the Lord, and the Lord provides for the body 14 God raised the Lord from death, and he will also raise us by his power 15 You know that your bodies are parts of the body of Christ Shall I take a part of Christ's body and make it part of the body of a prostitute? Impossible! 16 Or perhaps you don't know that the man who joins his body to a prostitute becomes physically one with her? The scripture says quite plainly, "The two will become one body" 17 But he who joins himself to the Lord becomes spiritually one with
him 18 Avoid immorality Any other sin a man commits does not affect his body, but the man who is guilty of sexual immorality sins against his own body 19 Don't you know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and who was given to you by God?
You do not belong to yourselves but to God, 20 he bought you for a price So use your bodies for God's glory

Questions about Marriage

7 Now, to deal with the matters you wrote about A man does well not to marry [e] 2 But because there is so much immorality, every man should have his own wife, and every woman should have her own husband 3 A man should fulfil his duty as a husband, and a woman should fulfil her duty as a wife, and each should satisfy the other's needs 4 A wife is not the master of her own body, but her husband is, in the same way a husband is not the master of his own body, but his wife is 5 Do not deny yourselves to each other, unless you first agree to do so for a while in order to spend your time in prayer, but then resume normal marital relations In this way you will be kept from giving in to Satan's temptation because of your lack of self-control 6 I tell you this not as an order, but simply as a concession 7 Actually I would prefer that all of you were as I am, but each one has a special gift from God, one person this gift, another one that gift 8 Now, to the unmarried and to the widows I say that it would be better for you to continue to live alone as I do 9 But if you cannot restrain your desires, go ahead and marry—it is better to marry than to burn with passion 10 For married people I have a command which is not my own but the Lord's a wife must not leave her husband, 11 but if she does, she must remain single or else be reconciled to her husband, and a husband must not divorce his wife 12 To the others I say (I, myself, not the Lord) if a Christian man has a wife who is an unbeliever and she agrees to go on living with him, he must not divorce her 13 And if a Christian woman is married to a man who is an unbeliever and he agrees to go on living with her, she must not divorce him 14 For the unbelieving husband is made acceptable to God by being united to his wife, and the [e] A man does well not to marry, or You say that a man does well not to marry unbelieving wife is made acceptable to God by being united to her Christian husband If this were not so, their children would be like pagan children, but as it is, they are acceptable to God 15 However, if the one who is not a believer wishes to leave the Christian partner, let it be so In such cases the Christian partner, whether husband or wife, is free to act.

God has called you to live in peace 16 How can you be sure, Christian wife, that you will not save[f] your husband? Or how can you be sure, Christian husband, that you will not save[f] your wife?

Live as God Called You

17 Each one should go on living according to the Lord's gift to him, and as he was when God called him This is the rule I teach in all the churches 18 If a circumcised man has accepted God's call, he should not try to remove the marks of circumcision, if an uncircumcised man has accepted God's call, he should not get circumcised 19 For whether or not a man is circumcised means nothing, what matters is to obey God's commandments 20 Everyone should remain as he was when he accepted God's call 21 Were you a slave when God called you? Well, never mind, but if you have a chance to become a free man, use it [g] 22 For a slave who has been called by the Lord is the Lord's free man, in the same way a free man who has been called by Christ is his slave 23 God bought you for a price, so do not become slaves of men 24 My brothers, each one should remain in fellowship with God in the same condition as he was when he was called.

Questions about the Unmarried and the Widows

25 Now, concerning what you wrote about unmarried people I do not have a command from the Lord, but I give my opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is worthy of trust.
26 Considering the present distress, I think it is better for a man to stay as he is 27 Have you got a wife? Then don't try to get rid of her Are you unmarried?
Then don't look for a wife 28 But if you do marry, you haven't committed a sin, and if an unmarried woman marries, she hasn't committed a sin But I would rather spare you the everyday troubles that married people will have 29 What I mean, my brothers, is this there is not much time left, and from now on married men should live as though they were not married, 30 those who weep, as though they were not sad, those who laugh, as though they were not happy, those who buy, as though they did not own what they bought, 31 those who deal in material goods, as though they were not fully occupied with them For this world, as it is now, will not last much longer 32 I would like you to be free from worry An unmarried man concerns himself with the Lord's work, because he is trying to please the Lord 33 But a married man concerns himself with worldly matters, because he wants to please his wife, 34 and so he is pulled in two directions An unmarried woman or a virgin concerns herself with the Lord's work, because she wants to be dedicated both in body and spirit, but a married woman concerns herself with worldly matters, because she wants to please her husband 35 I am saying this because I want to help you I am not trying to put restrictions on you Instead, I want you to do what is right and proper, and to give yourselves completely to the Lord's service without any reservation 36 In the case of an engaged couple who have decided not to marry if the man feels that he is not acting properly towards the girl and if his passions are too strong and he feels that they ought to marry, then they should get married, as he wants to [h] There is no sin in this 37 But if a man, without being forced to do so, has firmly made up his mind not to marry,[i] and if he has his will under complete control and has already decided in his own mind what to do—then he does well not to marry the girl [j] 38 So the man who marries [k] does well, but the one who doesn't marry [l] does even better 39 A married woman is not free as long as her husband lives, but if her husband

[f] How can you be sure that you will not save, or How do you know that you will save

[h] an engaged couple as he wants to, or a man and his unmarried daughter if he feels that he is not acting properly towards her, and if she is at the right age to marry, then he should do as he wishes and let her get married [i] not to marry, or not to let his daughter get married [j] marry the girl, or let her get married [k] marries, or lets his daughter get married [l] doesn't marry, or doesn't let her get married dies, then she is free to be married to any man she wishes, but only if he is a Christian 40 She will be happier, however, if she stays as she is That is my opinion, and I think that I too have God's Spirit

The Question about Food Offered to Idols

8 Now, concerning what you wrote about food offered to idols It is true, of course, that "all of us have knowledge," as they say Such knowledge, however, puffs a person up with pride, but love builds up 2 Whoever thinks he knows something really doesn't know as he ought to know 3 But the person who loves God is known by him 4 So then, about eating the food offered to idols we know that an idol stands for something that does not really exist, we know that there is only the one God 5 Even if there are so-called "gods," whether in heaven or on earth, and even though there are many of these "gods" and "lords," 6 yet there is for us only one God, the Father, who is the Creator of all things and for whom we live, and there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things were created and through whom we live 7 But not everyone knows this truth Some people have been so used to idols that to this day when they eat such food they still think of it as food that belongs to an idol, their conscience is weak, and they feel they are defiled by the food 8 Food, however, will not improve our relations with God, we shall not lose anything if we do not eat, nor shall we gain anything if we do eat 9 Be careful, however, not to let your freedom of action make those who are weak in the faith fall into sin 10 Suppose a person whose conscience is weak in this matter sees you, who have so-called "knowledge," eating in the temple of an idol, will not this encourage him to eat food offered to idols? 11 And so this weak person, your brother for whom Christ died, will perish because of your "knowledge"! 12 And in this way you will be sinning against Christ by sinning against your Christian brothers and wounding their weak conscience 13 So then, if food makes my brother sin, I will never eat meat again, so as not to make my brother fall into sin

Rights and Duties of an Apostle

9 Am I not a free man? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus our Lord? And aren't you the result of my work for the Lord? 2 Even if others do not accept me as an apostle, surely you do! Because of your life in union with the Lord you yourselves are proof of the fact that I am an apostle 3 When people criticize me, this is how I defend myself 4 Haven't I the right to be given food and drink for my work?
5 Haven't I the right to follow the example of the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Peter, by taking a Christian wife with me on my travels? 6 Or are Barnabas and I the only ones who have to work for our living? 7 What soldier ever has to pay his own expenses in the army?
What farmer does not eat the grapes from his own vineyard? What shepherd does not use the milk from his own sheep?
8 I don't have to limit myself to these everyday examples, because the Law says the same thing 9 We read in the Law of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox when you are using it to thresh corn" Now, is God concerned about oxen? 10 Didn't he really mean us when he said that? Of course that was written for us The man who ploughs and the man who reaps should do their work in the hope of getting a share of the crop 11 We have sown spiritual seed among you Is it too much if we reap material benefits from you? 12 If others have the right to expect this from you, haven't we an even greater right?
But we haven't made use of this right Instead, we have endured everything in order not to put any obstacle in the way of the Good News about Christ 13 Surely you know that the men who work in the Temple get their food from the Temple and that those who offer the sacrifices on the altar get a share of the sacrifices 14 In the same way, the Lord has ordered that those who preach the gospel should get their living from it 15 But I haven't made use of any of these rights, nor am I writing this now in order to claim such rights for myself I would rather die first! Nobody is going to turn my rightful boast into empty words! 16 I have no right to boast just because I preach the gospel After all, I am under orders to do so And how terrible it would be for me if I did not preach the gospel! 17 If I did my work

9 9 Deut 25 4 1 Tim 5 18 9 11 Rom 15 27 9 13 Deut 18 1 9 14 Mt 10 10 Lk 10 7 as a matter of free choice, then I could expect to be paid, but I do it as a matter of duty, because God has entrusted me with this task [18]What pay do I get, then? It is the privilege of preaching the Good News without charging for it, without claiming my rights in my work for the gospel 19 I am a free man, nobody's slave, but I make myself everybody's slave in order to win as many people as possible [20]While working with the Jews, I live like a Jew in order to win them, and even though I myself am not subject to the Law of Moses, I live as though I were when working with those who are, in order to win them [21]In the same way, when working with Gentiles, I live like a Gentile, outside the Jewish Law, in order to win Gentiles This does not mean that I don't obey God's law, I am really under Christ's law [22]Among the weak in faith I become weak like one of them, in order to win them So I become all things to all men, that I may save some of them by whatever means are possible 23 All this I do for the gospel's sake, in order to share in its blessings [24]Surely

Only one of them wins the prize (9 24) you know that many runners take part in a race, but only one of them wins the prize Run, then, in such a way as to win the prize [25]Every athlete in training submits to strict discipline, in order to be crowned with a wreath that will not last, but we do it for one that will last for ever [26]That is why I run straight for the finishing-line, that is why I am like a boxer who does not waste his punches [27]I harden my body with blows and bring it under complete control, to keep myself from being disqualified after having called others to the contest

Warnings against Idols

10 I want you to remember, my brothers, what happened to our ancestors who followed Moses They were all under the protection of the cloud, and all passed safely through the Red Sea [2]In the cloud and in the sea they were all baptized as followers of Moses [3]All ate the same spiritual bread [4]and drank the same spiritual drink They drank from the spiritual rock that went with them, and that rock was Christ himself [5]But even then God was not pleased with most of them, and so their dead bodies were scattered over the desert 6 Now, all this is an example for us, to warn us not to desire evil things, as they did, [7]nor to worship idols, as some of them did As the scripture says, "The people sat down to a feast which turned into an orgy of drinking and sex" [8]We must not be guilty of sexual immorality, as some of them were—and in one day twenty-three thousand of them fell dead [9]We must not put the Lord[m] to the test, as some of them did—and they were killed by snakes [10]We must not complain, as some of them did—and they were destroyed by the Angel of Death 11 All these things happened to them as examples for others, and they were written down as a warning for us For we live at a time when the end is about
to come
12 Whoever thinks he is standing firm had better be careful that he does not fall [13]Every test that you have experienced is the kind that normally comes to people But God keeps his promise, and he will not allow you to be tested beyond your power to remain firm, at the time you are put to the test, he will give you the strength to endure it, and so provide you with a way out 14 So then, my dear friends, keep away from the worship of idols [15]I speak to you as sensible people, judge for yourselves what I say [16]The cup we use in the Lord's Supper and for which we give thanks to God when we drink from it, we are sharing in the blood of Christ And

We all share the same loaf (10 17) the bread we break when we eat it, we are sharing in the body of Christ [17]Because there is the one loaf of bread, all of us, though many, are one body, for

we all share the same loaf 18 Consider the people of Israel, those who eat what is offered in sacrifice share in the altar's service to God [19]Do I imply, then, that an idol or the food offered to it really amounts to anything? [20]No!
What I am saying is that what is sacrificed on pagan altars is offered to demons, not to God And I do not want you to be partners with demons [21]You cannot drink from the Lord's cup and also from the cup of demons, you cannot eat at the Lord's table and also at the table of demons [22]Or do we want to make the Lord jealous? Do we think that we are stronger than he?
23 "We are allowed to do anything," so they say That is true, but not everything is good "We are allowed to do anything"—but not everything is helpful [24]No one should be looking to his own interests, but to the interests of others
25 You are free to eat anything sold in the meat-market, without asking any questions because of your conscience [26]For, as the scripture says, "The earth and everything in it belong to the Lord" 27 If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you decide to go, eat what is set before you, without asking any questions because of your conscience [28]But if someone says to you, "This food was offered to idols," then do not eat that food, for the sake of the one who told you and for conscience sake—[29]that is, not your own conscience, but the other person's conscience
"Well, then," someone asks, "why should my freedom to act be limited by another person's conscience? [30]If I thank God for my food, why should anyone criticize me about food for which I give thanks?" 31 Well, whatever you do, whether you eat or drink, do it all for God's glory.
[32]Live in such a way as to cause no trouble either to Jews or Gentiles or to the church of God [33]Just do as I do, I try to please everyone in all that I do, not thinking of my own good, but of the good of all, so that they might be saved 11 Imitate me, then, just as I imitate Christ

Covering the Head in Worship

2 I praise you because you always remember me and follow the teachings that I have handed on to you [3]But I want you to understand that Christ is supreme over every man, the husband is supreme over his wife, and God is supreme over Christ. [4]So a man who prays or proclaims God's message in public worship with his 10 18 Lev 7 6 10 20 Deut 32 17 10 22 Deut 32 21 10.23 1 Cor 6 12 10.26 Ps 24 1 11 1 1 Cor 4 16, Phil 3 17 head covered disgraces Christ 5 And any woman who prays or proclaims God's message in public worship with nothing on her head disgraces her husband, there is no difference between her and a woman whose head has been shaved 6 If the woman does not cover her head, she might as well cut her hair And since it is a shameful thing for a woman to shave her head or cut her hair, she should cover her head 7 A man has no need to cover his head, because he reflects the image and glory of God But woman reflects the glory of man, 8 for man was not created from woman, but woman from man 9 Nor was man created for woman's sake, but woman was created for man's sake 10 On account of the angels, then, a woman should have a covering over her head to show that she is under her husband's authority 11 In our life in the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman 12 For as woman was made from man, in the same way man is born of woman, and it is God who brings everything into existence

13 Judge for yourselves whether it is proper for a woman to pray to God in public worship with nothing on her head 14 Why, nature itself teaches you that long hair on a man is a disgrace, 15 but on a woman it is a thing of beauty Her long hair has been given her to serve as a covering 16 But if anyone wants to argue about it, all I have to say is that neither we nor the churches of God have any other custom in worship

(Matt 26 26-29, Mark 14 22-25, Luke 22 14-20)

17 In the following instructions, however, I do not praise you, because your meetings for worship actually do more harm than good 18 In the first place, I have been told that there are opposing groups in your meetings, and this I believe is partly true 19 (No doubt there must be divisions among you so that the ones who are in the right may be clearly seen) 20 When you meet together as a group, it is not the Lord's Supper that you eat 21 For as you eat, each one goes ahead with his own meal, so that some are hungry while others get drunk 22 Haven't you got your own homes in which to eat and drink? Or would you rather despise the church of God and put to shame the people who are in need? What do you expect me to say to you about this? Shall I praise you? Of course I don't!

23 For I received from the Lord the teaching that I passed on to you. that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took a piece of bread, 24 gave thanks to God, broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you Do this in memory of me" 25 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup and said,
"This cup is God's new covenant, sealed with my blood Whenever you drink it, do so in memory of me"

26 This means that every time you eat this bread and drink from this cup you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes 27 It follows that if anyone eats the Lord's bread or drinks from his cup in a way that dishonours him, he is guilty of sin against the Lord's body and blood 28 So then, everyone should examine himself first, and then eat the bread and drink from the cup 29 For if he does not recognize the meaning of the Lord's body when he eats the bread and drinks from the cup, he brings judgement on himself as he eats and drinks 30 That is why many of you are weak and ill, and several have died 31 If we would examine ourselves first, we would not come under God's judgement 32 But we are judged and punished by the Lord, so that we shall not be condemned together with the world

33 So then, my brothers, when you gather together to eat the Lord's Supper, wait for one another 34 And if anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that you will not come under God's judgement as you meet together As for the other matters, I will settle them when I come Gifts from the Holy Spirit

12 Now, concerning what you wrote about the gifts from the Holy Spirit I want you to know the truth about them, my brothers 2 You know that while you were still heathen, you were led astray in many ways to the worship of lifeless idols 3 I want you to know that no one who is led by God's Spirit can say "A curse on Jesus!" and no one can confess "Jesus is Lord," unless he is guided by the Holy Spirit

4 There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit gives them 5 There are different ways of serving, but the same Lord is served 6 There are 11 7 Gen 1 26-27 11 8-9, Gen 2 18-23 11.25 Ex 24 6-8, Jer 31 31-34 12 4-11, Rom 12 6-8

different abilities to perform service, but the same God gives ability to everyone for their particular service [7]The Spirit's presence is shown in some way in each person for the good of all [8]The Spirit gives one person a message full of wisdom, while to another person the same Spirit gives a message full of knowledge [9]One and the same Spirit gives faith to one person, while to another person he gives the power to heal [10]The Spirit gives one person the power to work miracles, to another, the gift of speaking God's message, and to yet another, the ability to tell the difference between gifts that come from the Spirit and those that do not To one person he gives the ability to speak in strange tongues, and to another he gives the ability to explain what is said [11]But it is one and the same Spirit who does all this, as he wishes, he gives a different gift to each person

One Body with Many Parts

12 Christ is like a single body, which has many parts, it is still one body, even though it is made up of different parts [13]In the same way, all of us, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether slaves or free, have been baptized into the one body by the same Spirit, and we have all been given the one Spirit to drink 14 For the body itself is not made up of only one part, but of many parts [15]If the foot were to say, "Because I am not a hand, I don't belong to the body," that would not keep it from being a part of the body [16]And if the ear were to say, "Because I am not an eye, I don't belong to the body," that would not keep it from being a part of the body [17]If the whole body were just an eye, how could it hear?
And if it were only an ear, how could it smell? [18]As it is, however, God put every different part in the body just as he wanted it to be [19]There would not be a body if it were all only one part!
[20]As it is, there are many parts but one body 21 So then, the eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" Nor can the head say to the feet, "Well, I don't need you!" [22]On the contrary, we cannot do without the parts of the body that seem to be weaker, [23]and those parts that we think aren't worth very much are the ones which we treat with greater care, while the parts of the body which don't look very nice are treated with special modesty, [24]which the more beautiful parts do not need God himself has put the body together in such a way as to give greater honour to those parts that need it [25]And so there is no division in the body, but all its different parts have the same concern for one another [26]If one part of the body suffers, all the other parts suffer with it, if one part is praised, all the other parts share its happiness 27 All of you are Christ's body, and each one is a part of it [28]In the church God has put all in place in the first place apostles, in the second place prophets, and in the third place teachers, then those who perform miracles, followed by those who are given the power to heal or to help others or to direct them or to speak in strange tongues [29]They are not all apostles or prophets or teachers Not everyone has the power to work miracles [30]or to heal diseases or to speak in strange tongues or to explain what is said [31]Set your hearts, then, on the more important gifts
Best of all, however, is the following way

Love

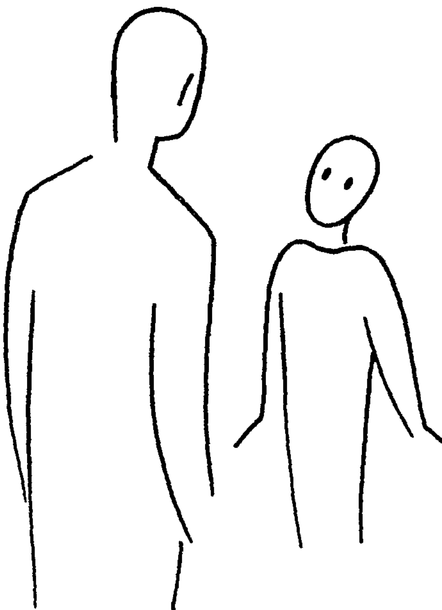
13 I may be able to speak the languages of men and even of angels, but if I have no love, my speech is no more than a noisy gong or a clanging bell [2]I may have the gift of inspired preaching, I may have all knowledge and understand all secrets, I may have all the faith needed to move mountains—but if I have no love, I am nothing [3]I may give away everything I have, and even give up my body to be burnt[n] —but if I have no love, this does me no good 4 Love is patient and kind, it is not jealous or conceited or proud, [5]love is not ill-mannered or selfish or irritable, love does not keep a record of wrongs, [6]love is not happy with evil, but is happy with the truth [7]Love never gives up, and its faith, hope, and patience never fail 8 Love is eternal There are inspired messages, but they are temporary, there are gifts of speaking in strange tongues, but they will cease, there is knowledge, but it will pass [9]For our gifts of knowledge and of inspired messages are only partial, [10]but when what is perfect comes, then what is partial will disappear 11 When I was a child, my speech, [n]to be burnt, some manuscripts have in order to boast 12 12 Rom 12 4-5 12 28 Eph 4 11 13 2 Mt 17 20, 21 21, Mk 11 23



What we see now is like a dim image in a mirror (13 12) feelings, and thinking were all those of a child, now that I am a man, I have no more use for childish ways 12 What we see now is like a dim image in a mirror, then we shall see face to face What I know now is only partial, then it will be complete—as complete as God's knowledge of me 13 Meanwhile these three remain faith, hope, and love, and the greatest of these is love

More about Gifts from the Spirit 14 It is love, then, that you should strive for Set your hearts on spiritual gifts, especially the gift of proclaiming God's message 2 The one who speaks in strange tongues does not speak to others but to God, because no one understands him He is speaking secret truths by the power of the Spirit 3 But the one who proclaims God's message speaks to people and gives them help, encouragement, and comfort 4 The one who speaks in strange tongues helps only himself, but the one who proclaims God's message helps the whole church 5 I would like all of you to speak in strange tongues, but I would rather that you had the gift of proclaiming God's message For the person who proclaims God's message is of greater value than the one who speaks in strange tongues—unless there is someone present who can explain what he says, so that the whole church may be helped 6 So when I come to you, my brothers, what use will I be to you if I speak in strange tongues? Not a bit, unless I bring you some revelation from God or some knowledge or some inspired message, or some teaching 7 Take such lifeless musical instruments as the flute or the harp—how will anyone know the tune that is being played unless the notes are sounded distinctly?

8 And if the man who plays the bugle does not sound a clear call, who will prepare for battle? 9 In the same way, how will anyone understand what you are talking about if your message given in strange tongues is not clear? Your words will vanish in the air! 10 There are many different languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning 11 But if I do not know the language being spoken, the person who uses it will be a foreigner to me and I will be a foreigner to him 12 Since you are eager to have the gifts of the Spirit, you must try above everything else to make greater use of those which help to build up the church

Then we shall see face to face (13 12)

13 The person who speaks in strange tongues, then, must pray for the gift to explain what he says 14 For if I pray in this way, my spirit prays indeed, but my mind has no part in it. 15 What should I do, then? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray also with my mind, I will sing with my spirit, but I will sing also with my mind 16 When you give thanks to God in spirit only, how can an ordinary person taking part in the meeting say
"Amen" to your prayer of thanksgiving?
He has no way of knowing what you are saying 17 Even if your prayer of thanks to God is quite good, the other person is not helped at all

18 I thank God that I speak in strange tongues much more than any of you 19 But in church worship I would rather speak five words that can be understood, in order to teach others, than speak thousands of words in strange tongues 20 Do not be like children in your thinking, my brothers, be children so far as evil is concerned, but be grown-up in your thinking 21 In the Scriptures it is written,

"By means of men speaking strange languages
I will speak to my people, says the
Lord
I will speak through lips of foreigners, but even then my people will not listen to me"

22 So then, the gift of speaking in strange tongues is proof for unbelievers, not for believers, while the gift of proclaiming God's message is proof for believers, not for unbelievers

23 If, then, the whole church meets together and everyone starts speaking in strange tongues—and if some ordinary people or unbelievers come in, won't they say that you are all crazy? 24 But if everyone is proclaiming God's message when some unbeliever or ordinary person comes in, he will be convinced of his sin by what he hears He will be judged by all he hears, 25 his secret thoughts will be brought into the open, and he will bow down and worship God, confessing, "Truly God is here among you!"

Order in the Church

26 This is what I mean, my brothers When you meet for worship, one person has a hymn, another a teaching, another a revelation from God, another a message in strange tongues, and still another the explanation of what is said Everything must be of help to the church 27 If someone is going to speak in strange tongues, two or three at the most should speak, one after the other, and someone else must explain what is being said 28 But if no one is there who can explain, then the one who speaks in strange tongues must be quiet and speak only to himself and to God 29 Two or three who are given God's message should speak, while the others are to judge what they say 30 But if someone sitting in the meeting receives a message from God, the one who is speaking should stop 31 All of you may proclaim God's message, one by one, so that everyone will learn and be encouraged 32 The gift of proclaiming God's message should be under the speaker's control, 33 because God does not want us to be in disorder but in harmony and
peace

As in all the churches of God's people, 34 the women should keep quiet in the meetings They are not allowed to speak, as the Jewish Law says, they must not be in charge 35 If they want to find out about something, they should ask their husbands at home It is a disgraceful thing for a woman to speak in church

36 Or could it be that the word of God came from you? Or are you the only ones to whom it came? 37 If anyone supposes he is God's messenger or has a spiritual gift, he must realize that what I am writing to you is the Lord's command 38 But if he does not pay attention to this, pay no attention to him

39 So then, my brothers, set your heart on proclaiming God's message, but do not forbid the speaking in strange tongues 40 Everything must be done in a proper and orderly way

The Resurrection of Christ 15 And now I want to remind you, my brothers, of the Good News which I preached to you, which you received, and on which your faith stands firm 2 That is the gospel, the message that I preached to you You are saved by the gospel if you hold firmly to it—unless it was for nothing that you believed 3 I passed on to you what I received, which is of the greatest importance that Christ died for our sins, as written in the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried and that 14.21 Is 28 11-12 15.3 Ps 53 5-12 15 4 Ps 16 8-10, Mt 12 40, Acts 2 24-32 he was raised to life three days later, as written in the Scriptures, 5 that he appeared to Peter and then to all twelve apostles 6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred of his followers at once, most of whom are still alive, although some have died 7 Then he appeared to James, and afterwards to all the apostles 8 Last of all he appeared also to me—even though I am like someone whose birth was abnormal [o] 9 For I am the least of all the apostles—I do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted God's church 10 But by God's grace I am what I am, and the grace that he gave me was not without effect On the contrary, I have worked harder than any of the other apostles, although it was not really my own doing, but God's grace working with me 11 So then, whether it came from me or from them, this is what we all preach, and this is what you believe

Those who sleep in death will also be raised (15 20)

Our Resurrection

12 Now, since our message is that Christ has been raised from death, how can some of you say that the dead will not be raised to life? 13 If that is true, it means that Christ was not raised, 14 and if Christ has not been raised from death, then we have nothing to preach and you have nothing to believe 15 More than that, we are shown to be lying about God, because we said that he raised Christ from death—but if it is true that the dead are not raised to life, then he did not raise Christ 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised 17 And if Christ has not been raised, then your faith is a delusion and you are still lost in your sins 18 It would also mean that the believers in Christ who have died are lost 19 If our hope in Christ is good for this life only and no more,[p] then we deserve more pity than anyone else in all the world 20 But the truth is that Christ has been raised from death, as the guarantee that those who sleep in death will also be raised 21 For just as death came by means of a man, in the same way the rising from death comes by means of a man 22 For just as all people die because of their union with Adam, in the same way all will be raised to life because of their union with Christ 23 But each one will be raised in his proper order Christ, first of all, then, at the time of his coming, those who belong to him 24 Then the end will come, Christ will overcome all spiritual rulers, authorities, and powers, and will hand over the Kingdom to God the Father 25 For Christ must rule until God defeats all enemies and puts them under his feet 26 The last enemy to be defeated will be death 27 For the scripture says, "God put all things under his feet" It is clear, of course, that the words "all things" do not include God himself, who puts all things under Christ 28 But when all things have been placed under Christ's rule, then he himself, the Son, will place himself under God, who placed all things under him, and God will rule completely over all 29 Now, what about those people who are baptized for the dead? What do they hope to accomplish? If it is true, as some claim, that the dead are not raised to life, why are those people being baptized for the dead? 30 And as for us—why would we run the risk of danger every hour?
31 My brothers, I face death every day!
The pride I have in you, in our life in union with Christ Jesus our Lord, makes me declare this 32 If I have, as it were, fought "wild beasts" here in Ephesus simply from human motives, what have I gained? But if the dead are not raised to [o] whose birth was abnormal, or who was born at the wrong time [p] If our hope in Christ is good for this life only and no more, or If all we have in this life is our hope in Christ 15 5 Mt 28 16–17, Mk 16 14, Lk 24 34,36, Jn 20 19 15 8 Acts 9 3–6 15 9 Acts 8 3 15 25 Ps 110 1 15 27 Ps 8 6 15 32 Is 22 13 life, then, as the saying goes, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die" 33 Do not be fooled "Bad companions ruin good character" [34]Come back to your right senses and stop your sinful ways I declare to your shame that some of you do not know God

The Resurrection Body

35 Someone will ask, "How can the dead be raised to life? What kind of body will they have?" [36]You fool! When you sow a seed in the ground, it does not sprout to life unless it dies [37]And what you sow is a bare seed, perhaps a grain of wheat or some other grain, not the full-bodied plant that will later grow up [38]God provides that seed with the body he wishes, he gives each seed its own proper body 39 And the flesh of living beings is not all the same kind of flesh, human beings have one kind of flesh, animals another, birds another, and fish another 40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, the beauty that belongs to heavenly bodies is different from the beauty that belongs to earthly bodies [41]The sun has its own beauty, the moon another beauty, and the stars a different beauty, and even among stars there are different kinds of beauty 42 This is how it will be when the dead are raised to life When the body is buried, it is mortal, when raised, it will be immortal [43]When buried, it is ugly and weak, when raised, it will be beautiful and strong [44]When buried, it is a physical body, when raised, it will be a spiritual body There is, of course, a physical body, so there has to be a spiritual body [45]For the scripture says, "The first man, Adam, was created a living being", but the last Adam is the life-giving Spirit [46]It is not the spiritual that comes first, but the physical, and then the spiritual [47]The first Adam, made of earth, came from the earth, the second Adam came from heaven [48]Those who belong to the earth are like the one who was made of earth, those who are of heaven are like the one who came from heaven [49]Just as we wear the likeness of the man made of earth, so we will wear[q] the likeness of the Man from heaven
50 What I mean, brothers, is that what is made of flesh and blood cannot share in God's Kingdom, and what is mortal cannot possess immortality 51-52 Listen to this secret truth we shall not all die, but when the last trumpet sounds, we shall all be changed in an instant, as quickly as the blinking of an eye For when the trumpet sounds, the dead will be raised, never to die again, and we shall all be changed [53]For what is mortal must be changed into what is immortal, what will die must be changed into what cannot die [54]So when this takes place, and the mortal has been changed into the immortal, then the scripture will come true "Death is destroyed, victory is complete!" [55]"Where, Death, is your victory?
Where, Death, is your power to hurt?" [56]Death gets its power to hurt from sin, and sin gets its power from the Law [57]But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!
58 So then, my dear brothers, stand firm and steady Keep busy always in your work for the Lord, since you know that nothing you do in the Lord's service is ever useless

The Offering for Fellow-Believers

about the money to be raised to help God's people in Judaea You must do what I told the churches in Galatia to do [2]Every Sunday each of you must put aside some money, in proportion to what he has earned, and save it up, so that there will be no need to collect money when I come [3]After I come, I shall give letters of introduction to the men you have approved, and send them to take your gift to Jerusalem [4]If it seems worth while for me to go, then they can go along with
me

Paul's Plans

5 I shall come to you after I have gone through Macedonia—for I have to go through Macedonia [6]I shall probably spend some time with you, perhaps the whole winter, and then you can help me to continue my journey, wherever it is I shall go next [7]I want to see you more than just briefly in passing, I hope to spend quite a long time with you, if the Lord allows to make him feel welcome among you, because he is working for the Lord, just with the brothers 12 Now, about brother Apollos I have often encouraged him to visit you with the other brothers, but he is not com-however, he will go

Final Words

13 Be alert, stand firm in the faith, be brave, be strong 14 Do all your work in love 15 You know about Stephanas and his family, they are the first Christian converts in Achaia and have given themselves to the service of God's people I beg you, my brothers, 16 to follow the leadership of such people as these, and of anyone else who works and serves with them 17 I am happy about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, they have made up for your absence 18 and have cheered me up, just as they cheered you up Such men as these deserve notice send you their greetings, Aquila and house send warm Christian greetings

Greet one another with a brotherly kiss

CORINTHIANS

Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians was written during a difficult period in his relations with the church at Corinth Some members of the church had evidently made strong attacks against Paul, but he shows his deep longing for reconciliation and expresses his great joy when this is brought about

In the first part of the letter Paul discusses his relationship with the church at Corinth, explaining why he had responded with severity to insult and opposition in the church and expressing his joy that this severity had resulted in repentance and reconciliation Then he appeals to the church for a generous offering to help the needy Christians in Judaea In the final chapters Paul defends his apostleship against a few people at Corinth who had set themselves up as true apostles, while accusing Paul of being a false one

1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and from our brother Timothy—
To the church of God in Corinth, and to all God's people throughout Achaia 2 May God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ give you grace and peace

Paul Gives Thanks to God

3 Let us give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the merciful Father, the God from whom all help comes! 4 He helps us in all our Help others who have all kinds of troubles (1 4) troubles, so that we are able to help others who have all kinds of troubles, using the same help that we ourselves have received from God 5 Just as we have a share in Christ's many sufferings, so also through Christ we share in God's great help 6 If we suffer, it is for your help and salvation, if we are helped, then you too are helped and given the strength to endure with patience the same sufferings that we also endure 7 So our hope in you is never shaken, we know that just as you share in our sufferings, you also share in the help we receive 8 We want to remind you, brothers, of the trouble we had in the province of Asia The burdens laid upon us were so great and so heavy that we gave up all hope of staying alive 9 We felt that the death sentence had been passed on us But this happened so that we should rely, not on ourselves, but only on God, who raises the dead 10 From such terrible dangers of death[a] he saved us, and will save us, and we have placed our hope in him that he will save us again, 11 as you help us by means of your prayers for us So it will be that the many prayers for us will be answered, and God will bless us, and many will raise their voices to him in thanksgiving for us

The Change in Paul's Plans

12 We are proud that our conscience assures us that our lives in this world, and especially our relations with you, have been ruled by God-given frankness[b] and sincerity, by the power of God's grace, and not by human wisdom 13-14 We write to you only what you can read and understand But even though you now understand us only in part, I hope that you will come to understand us completely, so that in the Day of our Lord Jesus you can be as proud of us as we shall be of you 15 I was so sure of all this that I made plans at first to visit you, in order that you might be blessed twice 16 For I planned to visit you on my way to Macedonia and again on my way back, in order to get help from you for my journey to Judaea 17 In planning this, did I appear fickle? When I make my plans, do I make them from selfish motives, ready to say "Yes, yes" and "No, no" at the same time? 18 As surely as God speaks the truth, my promise to you was not a "Yes" and a "No" 19 For Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who was preached among you by Silas, Timothy, and myself, is not one who is "Yes" and "No" On the contrary, he is God's "Yes", 20 for it is he who is the "Yes" to all God's promises This is why through Jesus Christ our "Amen" is said to the glory of God 21 It is God himself who makes us, together with you, sure of our life in union with Christ, it is God himself who has set us apart, [22]who has placed his mark of ownership upon us, and who has given us the Holy Spirit in our hearts as the guarantee of all that he has in store for us

23 I call God as my witness—he knows my heart! It was in order to spare you that I decided not to go to Corinth [24]We are not trying to dictate to you what you must believe, we know that you stand firm in the faith Instead, we are working with you for your own happiness 2 So I made up my mind not to come to you again to make you sad [2]For if I were to make you sad, who would be left to cheer me up? Only the very persons I had made sad [3]That is why I wrote that letter to you—I did not want to come to you and be made sad by the very people who should make me glad For I am convinced that when I am happy, then all of you are happy too [4]I wrote to you with a greatly troubled and distressed heart and with many tears, my purpose was not to make you sad, but to make you realize how much I love you all

Forgiveness for the Offender

5 Now, if anyone has made somebody sad, he has not done it to me but to all of you—in part at least (I say this because I do not want to be too hard on him) [6]It is enough that this person has been punished in this way by most of you [7]Now, however, you should forgive him and encourage him, in order to keep him from becoming so sad as to give up completely [8]And so I beg you to let him know that you really do love him [9]I wrote you that letter because I wanted to find out how well you had stood the test and whether you are always ready to obey my instructions [10]When you forgive someone for what he has done, I forgive him too For when I forgive—if, indeed, I need to forgive anything—I do it in Christ's presence because of you, [11]in order to keep Satan from getting the upper hand of us, for we know what his plans are

Paul's Anxiety in Troas

12 When I arrived in Troas to preach the Good News about Christ, I found that the Lord had opened the way for the work there [13]But I was deeply worried, because I could not find our brother Titus So I said good-bye to the people there and went on to Macedonia

Victory through Christ

14 But thanks be to God! For in union with Christ we are always led by God as prisoners in Christ's victory procession God uses us to make the knowledge about Christ spread everywhere like a sweet fragrance [15]For we are like a sweet-smelling incense offered by Christ to God, which spreads among those who are being saved and those who are being lost [16]For those who are being lost, it is a deadly stench that kills, but for those who are being saved, it is a fragrance that brings life Who, then, is capable of such a task? [17]We are not like so many others, who handle God's message as if it were cheap merchandise, but because God has sent us, we speak with sincerity in his presence, as servants of Christ

Servants of the New Covenant

3 Does this sound as if we were again boasting about ourselves? Could it be that, like some other people, we need letters of recommendation to you or from you? [2]You yourselves are the letter we have, written on our hearts for everyone to know and read [3]It is clear that Christ himself wrote this letter and sent it by us It is written, not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, and not on stone tablets but on human hearts 4 We say this because we have confidence in God through Christ [5]There is nothing in us that allows us to claim that we are capable of doing this work The capacity we have comes from God, [6]it is he who made us capable of serving the new covenant, which consists not of a written law but of the Spirit The written law brings death, but the Spirit gives life 7 The Law was carved in letters on stone tablets, and God's glory appeared when it was given Even though the brightness on Moses' face was fading, it was so strong that the people of Israel could not keep their eyes fixed on him If the Law, which brings death when it is in force, came with such glory, [8]how much greater is the glory that belongs to the activity of the Spirit! [9]The system which brings condemnation was glorious, how much more glorious is the activity which brings salvation! [10]We may say that because of the far brighter glory now

2 12–13 Acts 20 1 ... 12, Jer 31 33, Ezek 11 19, 36.26 3 6 Jer 31 31

the glory that was so bright in the past is gone. 11 For if there was glory in that which lasted for a while, how much more glory is there in that which lasts for ever!
12 Because we have this hope, we are very bold. 13 We are not like Moses, who had to put a veil over his face so that the people of Israel would not see the brightness fade and disappear. 14 Their minds, indeed, were closed, and to this very day their minds are covered with the same veil as they read the books of the old covenant. The veil is removed only when a person is joined to Christ. 15 Even today, whenever they read the Law of Moses, the veil still covers their minds.
16 But it can be removed, as the scripture says about Moses: "His veil was removed when he turned to the Lord."[c] 17 Now, "the Lord" in this passage is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is present, there is freedom. 18 All of us, then, reflect the glory of the Lord with uncovered faces; and that same glory, coming from the Lord, who is the Spirit, transforms us into his likeness in an ever greater degree of glory.

Spiritual Treasure in Clay Pots

4 God in his mercy has given us this work to do, and so we are not discouraged. 2 We put aside all secret and shameful deeds; we do not act with deceit, nor do we falsify the word of God. In the full light of truth we live in God's sight and try to commend ourselves to everyone's good conscience. 3 For if the gospel we preach is hidden, it is hidden only from those who are being lost. 4 They do not believe, because their minds have been kept in the dark by the evil god of this world. He keeps them from seeing the light shining on them, the light that comes from the Good News about the glory of Christ, who is the exact likeness of God. 5 For it is not ourselves that we preach; we preach Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. 6 The God who said, "Out of darkness the light shall shine!" is the same God who made his light shine in our hearts, to bring us the knowledge of God's glory shining in the face of Christ.
7 Yet we who have this spiritual treasure are like common clay pots, in order to show that the supreme power belongs to God, not to us. 8 We are often troubled, but not crushed; sometimes in doubt, but never in despair; 9 there are many enemies, but we are never without a friend; and though badly hurt at times, we are not destroyed. 10 At all times we carry in our mortal bodies the death of Jesus, so that his life also may be seen in our bodies. 11 Throughout our lives we are always in danger of death for Jesus' sake, in order that his life may be seen in this mortal body of ours. 12 This means that death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.
13 The scripture says, "I spoke because I believed." In the same spirit of faith, we also speak because we believe. 14 We know that God, who raised the Lord Jesus to life, will also raise us up with Jesus and take us, together with you, into his presence. 15 All this is for your sake; and as God's grace reaches more and more people, they will offer to the glory of God more prayers of thanksgiving.

Living by Faith

16 For this reason we never become discouraged. Even though our physical being is gradually decaying, yet our spiritual being is renewed day after day.
17 And this small and temporary trouble we suffer will bring us a tremendous and eternal glory, much greater than the trouble. 18 For we fix our attention, not on things that are seen, but on things that are unseen. What can be seen lasts only for a time, but what cannot be seen lasts for ever.
5 For we know that when this tent we live in—our body here on earth—is torn down, God will have a house in heaven for us to live in, a home he himself has made, which will last for ever. 2 And now we sigh, so great is our desire that our home which comes from heaven should be put on over us; 3 by being clothed with it we shall not be without a body. 4 While we live in this earthly tent, we groan with a feeling of oppression; it is not that we want to get rid of our earthly body, but that we want to have the heavenly one put on over us, so that what is mortal will be transformed by life. 5 God is the one who has prepared us for this change, and he gave us his Spirit as the guarantee of all that he has in store for us.
6 So we are always full of courage. We know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord's [c] Verse 16 may be translated: But the veil is removed whenever someone turns to the Lord.

3.13: Ex 34.33 3.16: Ex 34.34 4.6: Gen 1.3 4.13: Ps 116.10 home 7 For our life is a matter of faith, not of sight 8 We are full of courage and would much prefer to leave our home in the body and be at home with the Lord 9 More than anything else, however, we want to please him, whether in our home here or there 10 For all of us must appear before Christ, to be judged by him Each one will receive what he deserves, according to everything he has done, good or bad, in his bodily life

Friendship with God through Christ

11 We know what it means to fear the Lord, and so we try to persuade others God knows us completely, and I hope that in your hearts you know me as well 12 We are not trying again to recommend ourselves to you, rather, we are trying to give you a good reason to be proud of us, so that you will be able to answer those who boast about a man's appearance and not about his character 13 Are we really insane? It is for God's sake Or are we sane? Then it is for your sake 14 We are ruled by the love of Christ, now that we recognize that one man died for everyone, which means that all share in his death 15 He died for all, so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but only for him who died and was raised to life for their sake 16 No longer, then, do we judge anyone by human standards Even if at one time we judged Christ according to human standards, we no longer do so 17 When anyone is joined to Christ, he is a new being, the old is gone, the new has come 18 All this is done by God, who through Christ changed us from enemies into his friends and gave us the task of making others his friends also 19 Our message is that God was making all mankind his friends through Christ [d] God did not keep an account of their sins, and he has given us the message which tells how he makes them his friends

20 Here we are, then, speaking for Christ, as though God himself were making his appeal through us We plead on Christ's behalf let God change you from enemies into his friends! 21 Christ was without sin, but for our sake God made him share our sin in order that in union with him we might share the righteousness of God

6 In our work together with God, then, we beg you who have received God's grace not to let it be wasted 2 Hear what God says

"When the time came for me to show you favour
I heard you, when the day arrived for me to save
you
I helped you"

Listen! This is the hour to receive God's favour, today is the day to be saved!

3 We do not want anyone to find fault with our work, so we try not to put obstacles in anyone's way 4 Instead, in everything we do we show that we are God's servants by patiently enduring troubles, hardships, and difficulties 5 We have been beaten, imprisoned, and mobbed, we have been overworked and have gone without sleep or food 6 By our purity, knowledge, patience, and kindness we have shown ourselves to be God's servants—by the Holy Spirit, by our true love, 7 by our message of truth, and by the power of God We have righteousness as our weapon, both to attack and to defend ourselves 8 We are honoured and disgraced, we are insulted and praised We are treated as liars, yet we speak the truth, 9 as unknown, yet we are known by all, as though we were dead, but, as you see, we live on Although punished, we are not killed, 10 although saddened, we are always glad, we seem poor, but we make many people rich, we seem to have nothing, yet we really possess everything

11 Dear friends in Corinth! We have spoken frankly to you, we have opened our hearts wide 12 It is not we who have closed our hearts to you, it is you who have closed your hearts to us 13 I speak now as though you were my children show us the same feelings that we have for you Open your hearts wide!

Warning against Pagan Influences

14 Do not try to work together as equals with unbelievers, for it cannot be done How can right and wrong be partners?
How can light and darkness live together?
15 How can Christ and the Devil agree?
What does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? 16 How can God's temple come to terms with pagan idols?

[d] God was making all mankind his friends through Christ, or God was in Christ making all mankind his friends

5 10 Rom 14 10 6 2 Is 49 8 6 5 Acts 16 23 6 16 Lev 26 12, Ezek 37 27, 1 Cor 3 16, 6 19

For we are the temple of the living God!
As God himself has said, "I will make my home with my people and live among them, I will be their God,
and they shall be my people" 17 And so the Lord says, "You must leave them and separate yourselves from them Have nothing to do with what is unclean, and I will accept you 18 I will be your father, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty"

7 All these promises are made to us, my dear friends So then, let us purify ourselves from everything that makes body or soul unclean, and let us be completely holy by living in awe of God

Paul's Joy

2 Make room for us in your hearts We have wronged no one, we have ruined no one, nor tried to take advantage of anyone 3 I do not say this to condemn you, for, as I have said before, you are so dear to us that we are always together, whether we live or die 4 I am so sure of you, I take such pride in you! In all our troubles I am still full of courage, I am running over with joy 5 Even after we arrived in Macedonia, we had no rest There were troubles everywhere, quarrels with others, fears in our hearts 6 But God, who encourages the downhearted, encouraged us with the coming of Titus 7 It was not only his coming that cheered us, but also his report of how you encouraged him. He told us how much you want to see me, how sorry you are, how ready you are to defend me, and so I am even happier now 8 For even if that letter of mine made you sad, I am not sorry I wrote it I could have been sorry when I saw that it made you sad for a while 9 But now I am happy—not because I made you sad, but because your sadness made you change your ways That sadness was used by God, and so we caused you no harm 10 For the sadness that is used by God brings a change of heart that leads to salvation—and there is no regret in that! But sadness that is merely human causes death 11 See what God did with this sadness of yours how earnest it has made you, how eager to prove your innocence! Such indignation, such alarm, such feelings, such devotion, such readiness to punish wrongdoing! You have shown yourselves to be without fault in the whole matter 12 So, even though I wrote that letter, it was not because of the one who did wrong or the one who was wronged Instead, I wrote it to make plain to you, in God's sight, how deep your devotion to us really is 13 That is why we were encouraged Not only were we encouraged, how happy Titus made us with his happiness over the way in which all of you helped to cheer him up! 14 I did boast of you to him, and you have not disappointed me We have always spoken the truth to you, and in the same way the boast we made to Titus has proved true 15 And so his love for you grows stronger, as he remembers how all of you were ready to obey his instructions, how you welcomed him with fear and trembling 16 How happy I am that I can depend on you completely!

Christian Giving

8 Our brothers, we want you to know what God's grace has accomplished in the churches in Macedonia 2 They have been severely tested by the troubles they went through, but their joy was so great that they were extremely generous in their giving, even though they are very poor 3 I can assure you that they gave as much as they could, and even more than they could Of their own free will 4 they begged us and pleaded for the privilege of having a part in helping God's people in Judaea 5 It was more than we could have hoped for! First they gave themselves to the Lord, and then, by God's will they gave themselves to us as well 6 So we urged Titus, who began this work, to continue it and help you complete this special service of love 7 You are so rich in all you have in faith, speech, and knowledge, in your eagerness to help and in your love for us [e] And so we want you to be generous also in this service of love 8 I am not laying down any rules But by showing how eager others are to help, I am trying to find out how real your own love is 9 You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, rich as he was, he made himself poor for your sake, in order to make you rich by means of his poverty

[e] your love for us, some manuscripts have our love for you 6 17 Is 52 11 6 18 2 Sam 7 14, 1 Chr 17 13, Is 43 6, Jer 31 9 7 5 2 Cor 2 13 8 1-4 Rom 15 26

10 My opinion is that it is better for you to finish now what you began last year You were the first, not only to act, but also to be willing to act 11 On with it, then, and finish the job! Be as eager to finish it as you were to plan it, and do it with what you now have 12 If you are eager to give, God will accept your gift on the basis of what you have to give, not on what you haven't 13–14 I am not trying to relieve others by putting a burden on you, but since you have plenty at this time, it is only fair that you should help those who are in need Then, when you are in need and they have plenty, they will help you In this way both are treated equally 15 As the scripture says, "The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little"

Titus and His Companions

16 How we thank God for making Titus as eager as we are to help you! 17 Not only did he welcome our request, he was so eager to help that of his own free will he decided to go to you 18 With him we are sending the brother who is highly respected in all the churches for his work in preaching the gospel 19 And besides that, he has been chosen and appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this service of love for the sake of the Lord's glory, and in order to show that we want to help 20 We are taking care not to stir up any complaints about the way we handle this generous gift 21 Our purpose is to do what is right, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of man 22 So we are sending our brother with them, we have tested him many times and found him always very eager to help And now that he has so much confidence in you, he is all the more eager to help 23 As for Titus, he is my partner and works with me to help you, as for the other brothers who are going with him, they represent the churches and bring glory to Christ 24 Show your love to them, so that all the churches will be sure of it and know that we are right in boasting about you

Help for Fellow-Christians

9 There is really no need for me to write to you about the help being sent to God's people in Judaea 2 I know that you are willing to help, and I have boasted of you to the people in Macedonia "The brothers in Achaia," I said, "have been ready to help since last year" Your eagerness has stirred up most of them 3 Now I am sending these brothers, so that our boasting about you in this matter may not turn out to be empty words But, just as I said, you will be ready with your help 4 However, if the people from Mace- donia should come with me and find out that you are not ready, how ashamed we would be—not to speak of your shame—for feeling so sure of you! 5 So I thought it was necessary to urge these brothers to go to you ahead of me and get ready in advance the gift you promised to make Then it will be ready when I arrive, and it will show that you give because you want to, not because you have to 6 Remember that the person who sows few seeds will have a small crop, the one who sows many seeds will have a large crop 7 Each one should give, then, as he has decided, not with regret or out of a sense of duty, for God loves the one who gives gladly 8 And God is able to give you more than you need, so that you will always have all you need for yourselves and more than enough for every good cause 9 As the scripture says,

"He gives generously to the needy, his kindness lasts for ever"

10 And God, who supplies seed to sow and bread to eat, will also supply you with all the seed you need and will make it grow and produce a rich harvest from your generosity 11 He will always make you rich enough to be generous at all times, so that many will thank God for your gifts which they receive from us 12 For this service you perform not only meets the needs of God's people, but also produces an outpouring of grateful thanks to God 13 And because of the proof which this service of yours brings, many will give glory to God for your loyalty to the gospel of Christ, which you profess, and for your generosity in sharing with them and everyone else 14 And so with deep affection they will pray for you because of the extraordinary grace God has shown you 15 Let us thank God for his priceless gift!

Paul Defends His Ministry

10 I, Paul, make a personal appeal to you—I who am said to be meek and mild when I am with you, but harsh

8 15 Ex 16 18   8 21 Prov 3 4 (LXX)   9 9 Ps 112 9   9 10 Is 55 10 with you when I am away By the gentleness and kindness of Christ I beg you 2 not to force me to be harsh when I come, for I am sure I can deal harshly with those who say that we act from worldly motives 3 It is true that we live in the world, but we do not fight from worldly motives 4 The weapons we use in our fight are not the world's weapons but God's powerful weapons, which we use to destroy strongholds We destroy false arguments, 5 we pull down every proud obstacle that is raised against the knowledge of God, we take every thought captive and make it obey Christ 6 And after you have proved your complete loyalty, we will be ready to punish any act of disloyalty 7 You are looking at the outward appearance of things Is there someone there who reckons himself to belong to Christ? Well, let him think again about himself, because we belong to Christ just as much as he does 8 For I am not ashamed, even if I have boasted somewhat too much about the authority that the Lord has given us—authority to build you up, not to tear you down 9 I do not want it to appear that I am trying to frighten you with my letters 10 Someone will say, "Paul's letters are severe and strong, but when he is with us in person, he is weak, and his words are nothing!" 11 Such a person must understand that there is no difference between what we write in our letters when we are away and what we will do when we are there with you 12 Of course we would not dare to classify ourselves or compare ourselves with those who rate themselves so highly How stupid they are! They make up their own standards to measure themselves by, and they judge themselves by their own standards! 13 As for us, however, our boasting will not go beyond certain limits, it will stay within the limits of the work which God has set for us, and this includes our work among you 14 And since you are within those limits, we were not going beyond them when we came to you, bringing the Good News about Christ 15 So we do not boast about the work that others have done beyond the limits God set for us Instead, we hope that your faith may grow and that we may be able to do a much greater work among you, always within the limits that God has set 16 Then we can preach the Good News in other countries beyond you and shall not have to boast about work already done in another man's field 17 But as the scripture says, "Whoever wants to boast must boast about what the Lord has done" 18 For it is when the Lord thinks well of a person that he is really approved, and not when he thinks well of himself

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I wish you would tolerate me, even when I am a bit foolish Please do!
2 I am jealous for you, just as God is, you are like a pure virgin whom I have promised in marriage to one man only, Christ himself 3 I am afraid that your minds will be corrupted and that you will abandon your full and pure devotion to Christ—in the same way that Eve was deceived by the snake's clever lies 4 For you gladly tolerate anyone who comes to you and preaches a different Jesus, not the one we preached, and you accept a spirit and a gospel completely different from the Spirit and the gospel you received from us!
5 I do not think that I am the least bit inferior to those very special so-called "apostles" of yours! 6 Perhaps I am an amateur in speaking, but certainly not in knowledge, we have made this clear to you at all times and in all conditions 7 I did not charge you a thing when I preached the Good News of God to you, I humbled myself in order to make you important Was that wrong of me? 8 While I was working among you, I was paid by other churches I was robbing them, so to speak, in order to help you 9 And during the time I was with you I did not bother you for help when I needed money, the brothers who came from Macedonia brought me everything I needed As in the past, so in the future I will never be a burden to you! 10 By Christ's truth in me, I promise that this boast of mine will not be silenced anywhere in all Achaia 11 Do I say this because I don't love you? God knows I love you!
12 I will go on doing what I am doing now, in order to keep those other "apostles" from having any reason for boasting and saying that they work in the same way that we do 13 Those men are not true apostles—they are false apostles, who lie about their work and disguise themselves to look like real apostles of Christ 14 Well, no wonder!

10 17 Jer 9 24 11 3 Gen 3 1-5 13 11 9 Phil 4 15-18

Preach the Good News in other countries beyond you (10 16)

Even Satan can disguise himself to look like an angel of light! 15 So it is no great thing if his servants disguise themselves to look like servants of righteousness In the end they will get exactly what their actions deserve

Paul's Sufferings as an Apostle

16 I repeat no one should think that I am a fool But if you do, at least accept me as a fool, so that I will have a little to boast of 17 Of course what I am saying now is not what the Lord would like me to say, in this matter of boasting I am really talking like a fool 18 But since there are so many who boast for merely human reasons, I will do the same 19 You yourselves are so wise, and so you gladly tolerate fools! 20 You tolerate anyone who orders you about or takes advantage of you or traps you or looks down on you or slaps you in the face 21 I am ashamed to admit that we were too timid to do those things!

But if anyone dares to boast about something—I am talking like a fool—I will be just as daring 22 Are they Hebrews?
So am I Are they Israelites? So am I Are they Abraham's descendants? So am I 23 Are they Christ's servants? I sound like a madman—but I am a better servant than they are! I have worked much harder, I have been in prison more times, I have been whipped much more, and I have been near death more often 24 Five times I was given the thirty-nine lashes by the Jews, 25 three times I was whipped by the Romans, and once I was stoned I have been in three shipwrecks, and once I spent twenty-four hours in the water 26 In my many travels I have been in danger from floods and from robbers, in danger from fellow-Jews and from Gentiles, there have been dangers in the cities, dangers in the wilds, dangers on the high seas, and dangers from false friends 27 There has been work and toil, often I have gone without sleep, I have been hungry and thirsty, I have often been without enough food, shelter, or clothing 28 And not to mention other things, every day I am under the pressure of my concern for all the churches 29 When someone is weak, then I feel weak too, when someone is led into sin, I am filled with distress

30 If I must boast, I will boast about things that show how weak I am 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus—blessed be his name for ever!—knows that I am not lying 32 When I was in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas placed guards at the city gates to 11 23 Acts 16 23 11 24 Deut 25 3 11.25 Acts 16 22, 14 19 11 26 Acts 9 23, 14 15

arrest me. 33 But I was let down in a basket through an opening in the wall and escaped from him.

Paul's Visions and Revelations

12 I have to boast, even though it doesn't do any good. But I will now talk about visions and revelations given me by the Lord. 2 I know a certain Christian man who fourteen years ago was snatched up to the highest heaven (I do not know whether this actually happened or whether he had a vision—only God knows). 3-4 I repeat, I know that this man was snatched to Paradise (again, I do not know whether this actually happened or whether it was a vision—only God knows), and there he heard things which cannot be put into words, things that human lips may not speak. 5 So I will boast about this man—but I will not boast about myself, except the things that show how weak I am. 6 If I wanted to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be telling the truth. But I will not boast, because I do not want anyone to have a higher opinion of me than he has as a result of what he has seen me do and heard me say.

7 But to keep me from being puffed up with pride because of the many wonderful things I saw, I was given a painful physical ailment, which acts as Satan's messenger to beat me and keep me from being proud. 8 Three times I prayed to the Lord about this and asked him to take it away. 9 But his answer was: "My grace is all you need, for my power is strongest when you are weak." I am most happy, then, to be proud of my weaknesses, in order to feel the protection of Christ's power over me. 10 I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and difficulties for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians

11 I am acting like a fool—but you have made me do it. You are the ones who ought to show your approval of me. For even if I am nothing, I am in no way inferior to those very special "apostles" of yours. 12 The many miracles and wonders that prove that I am an apostle were performed among you with much patience. 13 How were you treated any worse than the other churches, except that I did not bother you for financial help? Please forgive me for being so unfair!

14 This is now the third time that I am ready to come to visit you—and I will not make any demands on you. It is you I want, not your money. After all, children should not have to provide for their parents, but parents should provide for their children. 15 I will be glad to spend all I have, and myself as well, in order to help you. Will you love me less because I love you so much?

16 You will agree, then, that I was not a burden to you. But someone will say that I was crafty, and trapped you with lies. 17 How? Did I take advantage of you through any of the messengers I sent? 18 I begged Titus to go, and I sent the other Christian brother with him. Would you say that Titus took advantage of you? Do he and I not act from the very same motives and behave in the same way?

19 Perhaps you think that all along we have been trying to defend ourselves before you. No! We speak as Christ would wish us to speak in the presence of God, and everything we do, dear friends, is done to help you. 20 I am afraid that when I get there I will find you different from what I would like you to be and you will find me different from what you would like me to be. I am afraid that I will find quarreling and jealousy, hot tempers and selfishness, insults and gossip, pride and disorder. 21 I am afraid that the next time I come my God will humiliate me in your presence, and I shall weep over many who sinned in the past and have not repented of the immoral things they have done—their lust and their sexual sins.

Final Warnings and Greetings

13 This is now the third time that I am coming to visit you. "Any accusation must be upheld by the evidence of two or more witnesses"—as the scripture says. 2 I want to say to those of you who have sinned in the past, and to all the others, I said it before during my second visit to you, but I will say it again now that I am away: the next time I come nobody will escape punishment. 3 You will have all the proof you want that Christ speaks through me. When he deals with you, he is not weak; instead, he shows his power among you. 4 For even though it was in weakness that he was put to death on the cross, it is by God's power that he lives. In union with him we also 13.1 Deut 17.6, 19.15 are weak, but in our relations with you we shall share God's power in his life 5 Put yourselves to the test and judge yourselves, to find out whether you are living in faith Surely you know that Christ Jesus is in you?—unless you have completely failed 6I trust you will know that we are not failures 7We pray to God that you will do no wrong—not in order to show that we are a success, but so that you may do what is right, even though we may seem to be failures 8For we cannot do a thing against the truth, but only for it 9We are glad when we are weak but you are strong And so we also pray that you will become perfect 10That is why I write this while I am away from you, it is so that when I arrive I will not have to deal harshly with you in using the authority that the Lord has given me—authority to build you up, not to tear you down

11 And now, my brothers, good-bye!
Strive for perfection, listen to my appeals, agree with one another, live in peace And the God of love and peace will be with
you 12 Greet one another with a brotherly kiss All God's people send you their greetings 13 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all

GALATIANS

INTRODUCTION

As the good news about Jesus began to be preached and welcomed among people who were not Jews, the question arose as to whether a person must obey the Law of Moses in order to be a true Christian Paul had argued that this was not necessary—that in fact, the only sound basis for life in Christ was faith, by which all are put right with God But among the churches of Galatia, a Roman province in Asia Minor, there had come people who opposed Paul and claimed that one must also observe the Law of Moses in order to be right with God

Paul's Letter to the Galatians was written in order to bring back to true faith and practice those people who were being misled by this false teaching. Paul begins by defending his right to be called an apostle of Jesus Christ He insists that his call to be an apostle came from God, not from any human authority, and that his mission was especially to the non-Jews Then he develops the argument that it is by faith alone that people are put right with God In the concluding chapters Paul shows that Christian conduct flows naturally from the love that results from faith in Christ

1 From Paul, whose call to be an apostle did not come from man or by means of man, but from Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from death 2 All the brothers who are here join me in sending greetings to the churches of Galatia
3 May God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ give you grace and peace 4 In order to set us free from this present evil age, Christ gave himself for our sins, in obedience to the will of our God and Father 5 To God be the glory for ever and ever! Amen

The One Gospel

6 I am surprised at you! In no time at all you are deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ,[a] and are accepting another gospel 7 Actually, there is no "other gospel," but I say this because there are some people who are upsetting you and trying to change the gospel of Christ 8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel that is different from the one we preached to you, may he be condemned to hell! 9 We have said it before, and now I say it again if anyone preaches to you a gospel that is different from the one you accepted, may he be condemned to hell!
10 Does this sound as if I am trying to win man's approval? No indeed! What I want is God's approval! Am I trying to be popular with men? If I were still trying to do so, I would not be a servant of Christ

How Paul Became an Apostle

11 Let me tell you, my brothers, that the gospel I preach is not of human origin 12 I did not receive it from any man, nor did anyone teach it to me It was Jesus Christ himself who revealed it to me 13 You have been told how I used to live when I was devoted to the Jewish religion, how I persecuted without mercy the church of God and did my best to destroy it 14 I was ahead of most fellow-Jews of my age in my practice of the Jewish religion, and was much more devoted to the traditions of our ancestors 15 But God in his grace chose me even before I was born, and called me to serve him And when he decided 16 to reveal his Son to me, so that I might preach the Good News about him to the Gentiles, I did not go to anyone for advice, 17 nor did I go to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before me Instead, I went at once to Arabia, and then I returned to Damascus 18 It was three years later that I went to Jerusalem to obtain information from Peter, and I stayed with him for two weeks 19 I did not see any other apostle except James,[b] the Lord's brother 20 What I write is true God knows that I am not lying!
21 Afterwards I went to places in Syria and Cilicia 22 At that time the members of the churches in Judaea did not know me personally 23 They knew only what others were saying "The man who used to persecute us is now preaching the faith that he once tried to destroy!" 24 And so they praised God because of me

Paul and the Other Apostles

2 Fourteen years later I went back to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me 2 I went because God revealed to me that I should go In a private meeting with the leaders I explained the gospel message that I preach to the Gentiles I did not want my work in the past or in the present to be a failure 3 My companion Titus, even though he is Greek, was not forced to be circumcised, 4 although some wanted it done Pretending to be fellow-believers, these men slipped into our group as spies, in order to find out about the freedom we have through our union with Christ Jesus They wanted to make slaves of us, 5 but in order to keep the truth of the gospel safe for you, we did not give in to them for a minute 6 But those who seemed to be the leaders—I say this because it makes no difference to me what they were, God does not judge by outward appearances—those leaders, I say, made no new suggestions to me 7 On the contrary, they saw that God had given me the task of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles, just as he had given Peter the task of preaching the gospel to the Jews 8 For by God's power I was made an apostle to the Gentiles, just as Peter was made an apostle to the Jews 9 James, Peter, and John, who seemed to be the leaders,

[a] by the grace of Christ, some manuscripts have by his grace [b] any other apostle except James, or any other apostle the only other person I saw was James
1 18 Acts 9 26-30 2 1 Acts 11 30, 15 2 2 6 Deut 10 17 recognized that God had given me this special task, so they shook hands with Barnabas and me, as a sign that we were all partners We agreed that Barnabas and I would work among the Gentiles and they among the Jews 10 All they asked was that we should remember the needy in their group, which is the very thing I have[c] been eager to do

Paul Rebukes Peter at Antioch

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him in public, because he was clearly wrong 12 Before some men who had been sent by James arrived there, Peter had been eating with the Gentile brothers But after these men arrived, he drew back and would not eat with the Gentiles, because he was afraid of those who were in favour of circumcising them 13 The other Jewish brothers also started acting like cowards along with Peter, and even Barnabas was swept along by their cowardly action 14 When I saw that they were not walking a straight path in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter in front of them all, "You are a Jew, yet you have been living like a Gentile, not like a Jew How, then, can you try to force Gentiles to live like Jews?"

Jews and Gentiles Are Saved by Faith

15 Indeed, we are Jews by birth and not "Gentile sinners," as they are called 16 Yet we know that a person is put right with God only through faith in Jesus Christ, never by doing what the Law requires We, too, have believed in Christ Jesus in order to be put right with God through our faith in Christ, and not by doing what the Law requires For no one is put right with God by doing what the Law requires 17 If, then, as we try to be put right with God by our union with Christ, we are found to be sinners as much as the Gentiles are—does this mean that Christ is serving the cause of sin? By no means! 18 If I start to rebuild the system of Law that I tore down, then I show myself to be someone who breaks the Law 19 So far as the Law is concerned, however, I am dead—killed by the Law itself—in order that I might live for God I have been put to death with Christ on his cross, 20 so that it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me This life that I live now, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave his life for me 21 I refuse to reject the grace of God But if a person is put right with God through the Law, it means that Christ died for nothing!

Law or Faith

3 You foolish Galatians! Who put a spell on you? Before your very eyes you had a clear description of the death of Jesus Christ on the cross! 2 Tell me this one thing did you receive God's Spirit by doing what the Law requires or by hearing the gospel and believing it? 3 How can you be so foolish! You began by God's Spirit, do you now want to finish by your own power? 4 Did all your experience mean nothing at all? Surely it meant something! 5 Does God give you the Spirit and work miracles among you because you do what the Law requires or because you hear the gospel and believe it?

6 Consider the experience of Abraham, as the scripture says, "He believed God, and because of his faith God accepted him as righteous" 7 You should realize then, that the real descendants of Abraham are the people who have faith 8 The scripture predicted that God would put the Gentiles right with himself through faith And so the scripture announced the Good News to Abraham "Through you God will bless all mankind" 9 Abraham believed and was blessed, so all who believe are blessed as he was 10 Those who depend on obeying the Law live under a curse For the scripture says, "Whoever does not always obey everything that is written in the book of the Law is under God's curse!" 11 Now, it is clear that no one is put right with God by means of the Law, because the scripture says, "Only the person who is put right with God through faith shall live"[d] 12 But the Law has nothing to do with faith Instead, as the scripture says, "Whoever does everything the Law requires will live"

13 But by becoming a curse for us Christ has redeemed us from the curse that the Law brings, for the scripture says, "Anyone who is hanged on a tree is under God's curse" 14 Christ did this in order that the blessing which God

[c] have or had [d] put right with God through faith shall live, or put right with God shall live through faith 2 16 Ps 143 2, Rom 3 20,22 3 6 Gen 15 6 Rom 4 3 3 7 Rom 4 16 3 8 Gen 12 3 3 10 Deut 27.26 3 11 Hab 2 4 3 12 Lev 18 5 3 13 Deut 21 23 promised to Abraham might be given to the Gentiles by means of Christ Jesus, so that through faith we might receive the Spirit promised by God

The Law and the Promise

15 My brothers, I am going to use an everyday example when two people agree on a matter and sign an agreement, no one can break it or add anything to it 16 Now, God made his promises to Abraham and to his descendant The scripture does not use the plural "descendants," meaning many people, but the singular "descendant," meaning one person only, namely, Christ 17 What I mean is that God made a covenant with Abraham and promised to keep it The Law, which was given four hundred and thirty years later, cannot break that covenant and cancel God's promise 18 For if God's gift depends on the Law, then it no longer depends on his promise However, it was because of his promise that God gave that gift to Abraham 19 What, then, was the purpose of the Law? It was added in order to show what wrongdoing is, and it was meant to last until the coming of Abraham's descendant, to whom the promise was made The Law was handed down by angels, with a man acting as a go-between 20 But a go between is not needed when only one person is involved, and God is one [e]

The Purpose of the Law

21 Does this mean that the Law is against God's promises? No, not at all!
For if mankind had received a law that could bring life, then everyone could be put right with God by obeying it 22 But the scripture says that the whole world is under the power of sin, and so the gift which is promised on the basis of faith in Jesus Christ is given to those who believe 23 But before the time for faith came, the Law kept us all locked up as prisoners until this coming faith should be revealed 24 And so the Law was in charge of us until Christ came, in order that we might then be put right with God through faith 25 Now that the time for faith is here, the Law is no longer in charge of us 26 It is through faith that all of you are God's sons in union with Christ Jesus 27 You were baptized into union with Christ, and now you are clothed, so to speak, with the life of Christ himself 28 So there is no difference between Jews and Gentiles, between slaves and free men, between men and women, you are all one in union with Christ Jesus 29 If you belong to Christ, then you are the descendants of Abraham and will receive what God has promised

4 But now to continue—the son who will receive his father's property is treated just like a slave while he is young, even though he really owns everything 2 While he is young, there are men who take care of him and manage his affairs until the time set by his father 3 In the same way, we too were slaves of the ruling spirits of the universe before we reached spiritual maturity 4 But when the right time finally came, God sent his own Son He came as the son of a human mother and lived under the Jewish Law, 5 to redeem those who were under the Law, so that we might become God's sons 6 To show that you are[f] his sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who cries out, "Father, my Father" 7 So then, you are no longer a slave but a son And since you are his

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

8 In the past you did not know God, and so you were slaves of beings who are not gods 9 But now that you know God—or, I should say, now that God knows you—how is it that you want to turn back to those weak and pitiful ruling spirits? Why do you want to become their slaves all over again? 10 You pay special attention to certain days, months, seasons, and years 11 I am worried about you! Can it be that all my work for you has been for nothing?
12 I beg you, my brothers, be like me After all, I am like you You have not done me any wrong 13 You remember why I preached the gospel to you the first time, it was because I was ill 14 But even though my physical condition was a great trial to you, you did not despise or reject me Instead, you received me as you would an angel from heaven, you received me as you would Christ Jesus 15 You were so happy! What has happened? I myself can say that you would have taken out your own eyes, if you could, and given them to me 16 Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?
17 Those other people show a deep interest in you, but their intentions are not good All they want is to separate you from me, so that you will have the same interest in them as they have in you 18 Now, it is good to have such a deep interest if the purpose is good—this is true always, and not merely when I am with you 19 My dear children! Once again, just like a mother in childbirth, I feel the same kind of pain for you until Christ's nature is formed in you 20 How I wish I were with you now, so that I could take a different attitude towards you I am so worried about you!

The Example of Hagar and Sarah 21 Let me ask those of you who want to be subject to the Law do you not hear what the Law says? 22 It says that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave-woman, the other by a free woman 23 His son by the slave-woman was born in the usual way, but his son by the free woman was born as a result of God's promise 24 These things can be understood as a figure the two women represent two covenants The one whose children are born in slavery is Hagar, and she represents the covenant made at Mount Sinai 25 Hagar, who stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia, is[g] a figure of the present city of Jerusalem, in slavery with all its people 26 But the heavenly Jerusalem is free, and she is our mother 27 For the scripture says,

"Be happy, you childless woman!
Shout and cry with joy, you who never felt the pains of childbirth!
For the woman who was deserted will have more children than the woman whose husband never left her"

28 Now, you, my brothers, are God's children as a result of his promise, just as Isaac was 29 At that time the son who was born in the usual way persecuted the one who was born because of God's Spirit, and it is the same now 30 But what does the scripture say? It says, "Send the slave-woman and her son away, for the son of the slave-woman will not have a part of the father's property along with the son of the free woman" 31 So then, my brothers, we are not the children of a slave-woman but of a free woman

Preserve Your Freedom

5 Freedom is what we have—Christ has set us free! Stand, then, as free people, and do not allow yourselves to become slaves again 2 Listen! I, Paul, tell you that if you allow yourselves to be circumcised, it means that Christ is of no use to you at all 3 Once more I warn any man who [g] Hagar is, some manuscripts have Sinai is a mountain in Arabia, and it is 4 22 Gen 16 15, 21 2 4 27 Is 54 1 4 29 Gen 21 9 4 30 Gen 21 10 allows himself to be circumcised that he is obliged to obey the whole Law 4 Those of you who try to be put right with God by obeying the Law have cut yourselves off from Christ You are outside God's grace 5 As for us, our hope is that God will put us right with him, and this is what we wait for by the power of God's Spirit working through our faith 6 For when we are in union with Christ Jesus, neither circumcision nor the lack of it makes any difference at all, what matters is faith that works through love 7 You were doing so well! Who made you stop obeying the truth? How did he persuade you? 8 It was not done by God, who calls you 9 "It takes only a little yeast to make the whole batch of dough rise," as they say 10 But I still feel confident about you Our life in union with the Lord makes me confident that you will not take a different view and that the man who is upsetting you, whoever he is, will be punished by God 11 But as for me, my brothers, if I continue to preach that circumcision is necessary, why am I still being persecuted? If that were true, then my preaching about the cross of Christ would cause no trouble 12 I wish that the people who are upsetting you would go all the way, let them go on and castrate themselves!

13 As for you, my brothers, you were called to be free But do not let this freedom become an excuse for letting your physical desires control you Instead, let love make you serve one another 14 For the whole Law is summed up in one commandment "Love your neighbour as you love yourself" 15 But if you act like wild animals, hurting and harming each other, then watch out, or you will completely destroy one another

The Spirit and Human Nature

16 What I say is this let the Spirit direct your lives, and you will not satisfy the desires of the human nature 17 For what our human nature wants is opposed to what the Spirit wants, and what the Spirit wants is opposed to what our human nature wants These two are enemies, and this means that you cannot do what you want to do 18 If the Spirit leads you, then you are not subject to the Law 19 What human nature does is quite plain It shows itself in immoral, filthy, and indecent actions, 20 in worship of idols and witchcraft People become enemies and they fight, they become jealous, angry, and ambitious They separate into parties and groups, 21 they are envious, get drunk, have orgies, and do other things like these I warn you now as I have before those who do these things will not possess the Kingdom of God 22 But the Spirit produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith fulness, 23 humility, and self control There is no law against such things as these 24 And those who belong to Christ Jesus have put to death their human nature with all its passions and desires 25 The Spirit has given us life, he must also control our lives 26 We must not be proud or irritate one another or be jealous of one another

Bear One Another's Burdens

6 My brothers, if someone is caught in any kind of wrongdoing, those of you who are spiritual should set him right, but you must do it in a gentle way And keep an eye on yourselves, so that you will not be tempted, too 2 Help to carry one another's burdens, and in this way you will obey[h] the law of Christ 3 If someone thinks he is somebody when really he is nobody, he is only deceiving himself 4 Each one should judge his own conduct If it is good, then he can be proud of what he himself has done, without having to compare it with what someone else has done 5 For everyone has to carry his own load 6 The man who is being taught the Christian message should share all the good things he has with his teacher 7 Do not deceive yourselves, no one makes a fool of God A person will reap exactly what he sows 8 If he sows in the field of his natural desires, from it he will gather the harvest of death, if he sows in the field of the Spirit, from the Spirit he will gather the harvest of eternal life 9 So let us not become tired of doing good, for if we do not give up, the time will come when we will reap the harvest 10 So then, as often as we have the chance, we should do good to everyone, and especially to those who belong to our family in the faith

Final Warning and Greeting

11 See what big letters I make as I write to you now with my own hand! 12 The people who are trying to force you to be circumcised are the ones who want to show off and boast about external matters They do it, however, only so that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ 13 Even those who practise circumcision do not obey the Law, they want you to be circumcised so that they can boast that you submitted to this physical ceremony 14 As for me, however, I will boast only about the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for by means of his cross the world is dead to me, and I am dead to the world 15 It does not matter at all whether or not one is circumcised, what does matter is being a new creature 16 As for those who follow this rule in their lives, may peace and mercy be with them—with them and with all God's

people!

17 To conclude let no one give me any more trouble, because the scars I have on my body show that I am the slave of Jesus

18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all, my brothers Amen

EPHESIANS

INTRODUCTION

Paul's Letter to the Ephesians is concerned first of all with "God's plan to bring all creation together, everything in heaven and on earth, with Christ as head" (1.10). It is also an appeal to God's people to live out the meaning of this great plan for the unity of mankind through oneness with Jesus Christ.

In the first part of Ephesians the writer develops the theme of unity by speaking of the way in which God the Father has chosen his people, how they are forgiven and set free from their sins through Jesus Christ the Son, and how God's great promise is guaranteed by the Holy Spirit. In the second part he appeals to the readers to live in such a way that their oneness in Christ may become real in their life together.

Several figures of speech are used to show the oneness of God's people in union with Christ: the church is like a body, with Christ as the head, or like a building, with Christ as the cornerstone, or like a wife, with Christ as the husband. This letter rises to great heights of expression as the writer is moved by the thought of God's grace in Christ. Everything is seen in the light of Christ's love, sacrifice, forgiveness, grace, and purity.

1 From Paul, who by God's will is an apostle of Christ Jesus—To God's people in Ephesus,[a] who are faithful in their life in union with Christ Jesus:
2 May God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

3 Let us give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! For in our union with Christ he has blessed us by giving us every spiritual blessing in the heavenly world. 4 Even before the world was made, God had already chosen us to be his through our union with Christ, so that we would be holy and without fault before him.
Because of his love 5 God[b] had already decided that through Jesus Christ he would make us his sons—this was his pleasure and purpose. 6 Let us praise God for his glorious grace, for the free gift he gave us in his dear Son! 7 For by the death of Christ we are set free, that is, our sins are forgiven How great is the grace of God, 8 which he gave to us in such large measure!

In all his wisdom and insight 9 God did what he had purposed, and made known to us the secret plan he had already decided to complete by means of Christ 10 This plan, which God will complete when the time is right, is to bring all creation together, everything in heaven and on earth, with Christ as head 11 All things are done according to God's plan and decision, and God chose us to be his own people in union with Christ because of his own purpose, based on what he had decided from the very beginning 12 Let us, then, who were the first to hope in Christ, praise God's glory!
13 And you also became God's people when you heard the true message, the Good News that brought you salvation You believed in Christ, and God put his stamp of ownership on you by giving you the Holy Spirit he had promised 14 The Spirit is the guarantee that we shall receive what God has promised his people, and this assures us that God will give complete freedom to those who are his Let us praise his glory!

Paul's Prayer

15 For this reason, ever since I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people, 16 I have not stopped giving thanks to God for you I remember you in my prayers 17 and ask the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, to give you the Spirit, who will make you wise and reveal God to you, so that you will know him 18 I ask that your minds may be opened to see his light, so that you will know what is the hope to which he has called you, how rich are the wonderful blessings he promises his people, 19 and how very great is his power at work in us who believe This power working in us is the same as the mighty strength 20 which he used when he raised Christ from death and

seated him at his right side in the heavenly world 21 Christ rules there above all heavenly rulers, authorities, powers, and lords, he has a title superior to all titles of authority in this world and in the next 22 God put all things under Christ's feet and gave him to the church as supreme Lord over all things 23 The church is Christ s body, the completion of him who himself completes all things everywhere [c]

From Death to Life

2 In the past you were spiritually dead because of your disobedience and sins 2 At that time you followed the world's evil way, you obeyed the ruler of the spiritual powers in space, the spirit who now controls the people who disobey God 3 Actually all of us were like them and lived according to our natural desires, doing whatever suited the wishes of our own bodies and minds In our natural condition we, like everyone else, were destined to suffer God's anger 4 But God's mercy is so abundant, and his love for us is so great, 5 that while we were spiritually dead in our disobedience he brought us to life with Christ It is by God's grace that you have been saved 6 In our union with Christ Jesus he raised us up with him to rule with him in the heavenly world 7 He did this to demonstrate for all time to come the extraordinary greatness of his grace in the love he showed us in Christ Jesus 8-9 For it is by God's grace that you have been saved through faith It is not the result of your own efforts, but God's gift, so that no one can boast about it 10 God has made us what we are, and in our union with Christ Jesus he has created us for a life of good deeds, which he has already prepared for us to do

One in Christ

11 You Gentiles by birth—called "the uncircumcised" by the Jews, who call themselves "the circumcised" (which refers to what men do to their bodies)— remember what you were in the past 12 At that time you were apart from Christ You were foreigners and did not belong to God's chosen people You had no part in the covenants, which were based on God's promises to his people, and you lived in this world without hope and without God 13 But now, in union with Christ Jesus, you who used to be far away have been brought near by the death of Christ 14 For Christ himself has brought us peace by making Jews and Gentiles one people With his own body he broke down the wall that separated them and kept them enemies 15 He abolished the Jewish Law with its commandments and rules, in order to create out of the two races one new people in union with himself, in this way making peace 16 By his death on the cross Christ destroyed their enmity, by means of the cross he united both races into one body and brought them back to God 17 So Christ came and preached the Good News of peace to all—to you Gentiles, who were far away from God, and to the Jews, who were near to him 18 It is through Christ that all of us, Jews and Gentiles, are able to come in the one Spirit into the presence of the Father 19 So then, you Gentiles are not foreigners or strangers any longer, you are now fellow-citizens with God's people and members of the family of God 20 You, too, are built upon the foundation laid by the apostles and prophets [d] the cornerstone being Christ Jesus himself 21 He is the one who holds the whole building together and makes it grow into a sacred temple dedicated to the Lord 22 In union with him you too are being built together with all the others into a place where God lives through his Spirit

Paul's Work for the Gentiles

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles, pray to God 2 Surely you have heard that God in his grace has given me this work to do for your good 3 God revealed his secret plan and made it known to me (I have written briefly about this, 4 and if you will read what I have written, you can learn about my understanding of the secret of Christ) 5 In past times mankind was not told this secret, but God has revealed it now by the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets 6 The secret is that by means of the gospel the Gentiles have a part with the Jews in God's blessings, they are members of the same body and share in the promise that God made through Christ Jesus 7 I was made a servant of the gospel by God's special gift, which he gave me through the working of his power 8 I am less than the least of all God's people, yet God gave me this privilege of taking to the Gentiles the Good News about the infinite riches of Christ, 9 and of making all people see how God's secret plan is to be put into effect God, who is the Creator of all things, kept his secret hidden through all the past ages, 10 in order that at the present time, by means of the church, the angelic rulers and powers in the heavenly world might learn of his wisdom in all its different forms 11 God did this according to his eternal purpose, which he achieved through Christ Jesus our Lord 12 In union with Christ and through our faith in him we have the boldness to go into God's presence with all confidence 13 I beg you, then, not to be discouraged because I am suffering for you, it is all for your benefit

The Love of Christ

14 For this reason I fall on my knees before the Father, 15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth receives its true name 16 I ask God from the wealth of his glory to give you power through his Spirit to be strong in your inner selves, 17 and I pray that Christ will make his home in your hearts through faith I pray that you may have your roots and foundation in love, 18 so that you, together with all God's people, may have the power to understand how broad and long, how high and deep, is Christ's love 19 Yes, may you come to know his love—although it can never be fully known—and so be completely filled with the very nature of
20 To him who by means of his power working in us is able to do so much more than we can ever ask for, or even think of 21 to God be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus for all time, for ever and ever[f] Amen

The Unity of the Body

4 I urge you, then—I who am a prisoner because I serve the Lord live a life that measures up to the standard God set when he called you 2 Be always humble, gentle, and patient Show your love by being tolerant with one another 3 Do your best to preserve the unity which the Spirit gives by means of the peace that binds you together 4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as there is one hope to which God has called you 5 There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 there is one God and Father of all mankind, who is Lord of all, works through all, and is in all 7 Each one of us has received a special gift in proportion to what Christ has given 8 As the scripture says,

"When he went up to the very heights, he took many captives with him, he gave gifts to mankind"

9 Now, what does "he went up" mean?
It means that first he came down to the lowest depths of the earth[e] 10 So the one who came down is the same one who went up, above and beyond the heavens, to fill the whole universe with his presence 11 It was he who "gave gifts to mankind", he appointed some to be apostles, others to be prophets, others to be evangelists, others to be pastors and teachers 12 He did this to prepare all God's people for the work of Christian service, in order to build up the body of Christ 13 And so we shall all come together to that oneness in our faith and in our knowledge of the Son of God, we shall become mature people, reaching to the very height of Christ's full stature 14 Then we shall no longer be children, carried by the waves and blown about by every shifting wind of the teaching of deceitful men, who lead others into error by the tricks they invent 15 Instead, by speaking the truth in a spirit of love, we must grow up in every way to Christ, who is the head 16 Under his control all the different parts of the body fit together, and the whole body is held together by every joint with which it is provided So when each separate part works as it should, the whole body grows and builds itself up through love

The New Life in Christ

17 In the Lord's name, then, I warn you do not continue to live like the heathen, whose thoughts are worthless 18 and whose minds are in the dark They have no part in the life that God gives, for they are completely ignorant and stubborn 19 They have lost all feeling of shame, they give themselves over to vice [e] the lowest depths of the earth or the lower depths, the earth itself 4 2 Col 3 12-13 4 8 Ps 68 18 4 16 Col 2 19 and do all sorts of indecent things without restraint 20 That was not what you learnt about Christ! 21 You certainly heard about him, and as his followers you were taught the truth that is in Jesus 22 So get rid of your old self, which made you live as you used to—the old self that was being destroyed by its deceitful desires 23 Your hearts and minds must be made completely new, 24 and you must put on the new self, which is created in God's likeness and reveals itself in the true life that is upright and holy 25 No more lying, then! Everyone must tell the truth to his fellow-believer, because we are all members together in the body of Christ 26 If you become angry,

Do not let your anger lead you into sin (4 26)

do not let your anger lead you into sin, and do not stay angry all day 27 Don't give the Devil a chance 28 The man who used to rob must stop robbing and start working, in order to earn an honest living for himself and to be able to help the poor 29 Do not use harmful words, but only helpful words, the kind that build up and provide what is needed, so that what you say will do good to those who hear you 30 And do not make God's Holy Spirit sad, for the Spirit is God's mark of ownership on you, a guarantee that the Day will come when God will set you free 31 Get rid of all bitterness, passion, and anger No more shouting or insults, no more hateful feelings of any sort 32 Instead, be kind and tender-hearted to one another, and forgive one another, as God has forgiven you through Christ

Living in the Light

5 Since you are God's dear children, you must try to be like him 2 Your life must be controlled by love, just as Christ loved us and gave his life for us as a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice that pleases God 3 Since you are God's people, it is not right that any matters of sexual immorality or indecency or greed should even be mentioned among you 4 Nor is it fitting for you to use language which is obscene, profane, or vulgar Rather you should give thanks to God 5 You may be sure that no one who is immoral, indecent, or greedy (for greed is a form of idolatry) will ever receive a share in the Kingdom of Christ and of God 6 Do not let anyone deceive you with foolish words, it is because of these very things that God's anger will come upon those who do not obey him 7 So have nothing at all to do with such people 8 You yourselves used to be in the darkness, but since you have become the Lord's people, you are in the light So you must live like people who belong to the light, 9 for it is the light[f] that brings a rich harvest of every kind of goodness, righteousness, and truth 10 Try to learn what pleases the Lord 11 Have nothing to do with the worthless things that people do, things that belong to the darkness Instead, bring them out to the light 12 (It is really too shameful even to talk about the things they do in secret) 13 And when all things are brought out to the light, then their true nature is clearly revealed, 14 for anything that is clearly revealed becomes light[g] That is why it is said,

"Wake up, sleeper, and rise from death, and Christ will shine on you "

15 So be careful how you live Don't live like ignorant people, but like wise people 16 Make good use of every opportunity you have, because these are evil days 17 Don't be fools, then, but try to find out what the Lord wants you to do 18 Do not get drunk with wine, which will only ruin you, instead, be filled with the Spirit 19 Speak to one another with the words of psalms, hymns, and sacred songs, sing hymns and psalms to the Lord with praise in your hearts 20 In the name

[f] the light some manuscripts have the Spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ, always give thanks for everything to God the Father

Wives and Husbands

21 Submit yourselves to one another because of your reverence for Christ 22 Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord 23 For a husband has authority over his wife just as Christ has authority over the church, and Christ is himself the Saviour of the church, his body 24 And so wives must submit completely to their husbands just as the church submits itself to Christ 25 Husbands, love your wives just as Christ loved the church and gave his life for it 26 He did this to dedicate the church to God by his word, after making it clean by washing it in water, 27 in order to present the church to himself in all its beauty—pure and faultless, without spot or wrinkle or any other imperfection 28 Men ought to love their wives just as they love their own bodies A man who loves his wife loves himself 29 (No one ever hates his own body Instead, he feeds it and takes care of it, just as Christ does the church, 30 for we are members of his body) 31 As the scripture says, "For this reason a man will leave his father and
two will become one " 32 There is a deep secret truth revealed in this scripture, which I understand as applying to Christ and the church 33 But it also applies to you every husband must love his wife as himself, and every wife must respect her husband

Children and Parents

6 Children, it is your Christian[h] duty to obey your parents, for this is the right thing to do 2 "Respect your father and mother" is the first commandment that has a promise added 3 "so that all may go well with you, and you may live a long time in the land " 4 Parents, do not treat your children in such a way as to make them angry Instead, bring them up with Christian discipline and instruction

Slaves and Masters

5 Slaves, obey your human masters with fear and trembling, and do it with a sincere heart, as though you were serving Christ 6 Do this not only when they are watching you, because you want to gain their approval, but with all your heart do what God wants, as slaves of Christ 7 Do your work as slaves cheerfully, as though you served the Lord, and not merely men 8 Remember that the Lord will reward everyone, whether slave or free, for the good work he does 9 Masters, behave in the same way towards your slaves and stop using threats Remember that you and your slaves belong to the same Master in heaven, who judges everyone by the same standard

The Whole Armour of God

10 Finally, build up your strength in union with the Lord and by means of his mighty power 11 Put on all the armour that God gives you, so that you will be able to stand up against the Devil's evil tricks 12 For we are not fighting against human beings but against the wicked spiritual forces in the heavenly world, the rulers, authorities, and cosmic powers of this dark age 13 So put on God's armour now! Then when the evil day comes, you will be able to resist the enemy's attacks, and after fighting to the end, you will still hold your ground 14 So stand ready, with truth as a belt tight round your waist, with righteousness as your breastplate, 15 and as your shoes the readiness to announce the Good News of peace 16 At all times carry faith as a shield, for with it you will be able to put out all the burning arrows shot by the Evil One 17 And accept salvation as a helmet, and the word of God as the sword which the Spirit gives you 18 Do all this in prayer, asking for God's help Pray on every occasion, as the Spirit leads For this reason keep alert and never give up, pray always for all God's people 19 And pray also for me, that God will give me a message when I am ready to speak, so that I may speak boldly and make known the gospel's secret 20 For the sake of this gospel I am an ambassador, though now I am in prison Pray that I may be bold in speaking about the gospel as I should

PHILIPPIANS

Paul's Letter to the Philippians was written to the first church that Paul established on European soil, in the Roman province of Macedonia It was written while the apostle was in prison, and at a time when he was troubled by the opposition of other Christian workers towards himself and was distressed by false teaching in the church at Philippi Yet this letter breathes a joy and confidence that can be explained only by Paul's deep faith in Jesus Christ

The immediate reason for writing the letter was to thank the Philippian Christians for the gift which they had sent to help him in his time of need He uses this opportunity to reassure them, so that they may have courage and confidence in spite of all his troubles and their own as well He pleads with them to have the humble attitude of Jesus, rather than to be controlled by selfish ambition and pride He reminds them that their life in union with Christ is a gift of God's grace which they have received through faith, not through obedience to the ceremonies of the Jewish Law He writes of the joy and peace that God gives to those who live in union with Christ

This letter is marked by its emphasis on joy, confidence, unity, and perseverance in the Christian faith and life It also reveals the deep affection Paul had for the church at Philippi

1 From Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus—
To all God's people in Philippi who are in union with Christ Jesus, including the church leaders and helpers:
2 May God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul's Prayer for His Readers

3 I thank my God for you every time I think of you; 4 and every time I pray for you all, I pray with joy 5 because of the way in which you have helped me in the work of the gospel from the very first day until now. 6 And so I am sure that God, who began this good work in you, will carry it on until it is finished on the Day of Christ Jesus. 7 You are always in my heart! And so it is only right for me to feel as I do about you.
For you have all shared with me in this privilege that God has given me, both now that I am in prison and also while I was free to defend the gospel and establish it firmly. 8 God is my witness that I am telling the truth when I say that my deep feeling for you all comes from the heart of Christ Jesus himself.
9 I pray that your love will keep on growing more and more, together with true knowledge and perfect judgement, 10 so that you will be able to choose what is best. Then you will be free from all impurity and blame on the Day of Christ.
11 Your lives will be filled with the truly good qualities which only Jesus Christ can produce, for the glory and praise of God.

To Live Is Christ

12 I want you to know, my brothers, that the things that have happened to me have really helped the progress of the gospel. 13 As a result, the whole palace guard and all the others here know that I am in prison because I am a servant of Christ. 14 And my being in prison has given most of the brothers more confidence in the Lord, so that they grow bolder all the time to preach the message[a] fearlessly.
15 Of course some of them preach Christ because they are jealous and quarrelsome, but others from genuine goodwill. 16 These do so from love, because they know that God has given me the work of defending the gospel. 17 The others do not proclaim Christ sincerely, but from a spirit of selfish ambition; they think that they will make more trouble for me while I am in prison.
18 It does not matter! I am happy about it—so long as Christ is preached in every way possible, whether from wrong or right motives. And I will continue to be happy, 19 because I know that by means of your prayers and the help which comes from the Spirit of Jesus Christ I shall be set free. 20 My deep desire and hope is that I shall never fail in my duty, but that at all times, and especially just now, I shall be full of courage, so that with my whole being I shall bring honour to Christ, whether I live or die. 21 For what is life? To me, it is Christ. Death, then, will bring more. 22 But if by continuing to live I can do more worthwhile work, then I am not sure which I should choose. 23 I am pulled in two directions. I want very much to leave this life and be with Christ, which is a far better thing; 24 but for your sake it is much more important that I remain alive. 25 I am sure of this, and so I know that I will stay. I will stay on with you all, to add to your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that when I am with you again, you will have even more reason to be proud of me in your life in union with Christ Jesus.
27 Now, the important thing is that your way of life should be as the gospel of Christ requires, so that, whether or not I am able to go and see you, I will hear that you are standing firm with one common purpose and that with only one desire you are fighting together for the faith of the gospel. 28 Don't be afraid of your enemies; always be courageous, and this will prove to them that they will lose and that you will win, because it is God who gives you the victory. 29 For you have been given the privilege of serving Christ, not only by believing in him, but also by suffering for him. 30 Now you can take part with me in the battle. It is the same battle you saw me fighting in the past, and as you hear, the one I am fighting still.

Christ's Humility and Greatness

2 Your life in Christ makes you strong, and his love comforts you. You have fellowship with the Spirit,[b] and you have [a] the message; some manuscripts have God's message.

[b] You have fellowship with the Spirit; or The Spirit has brought you into fellowship with one another.
1.1: Acts 16.12. 1.13: Acts 28.30. 1.30: Acts 16.19-40.

kindness and compassion for one another 2 I urge you, then, to make me completely happy by having the same thoughts, sharing the same love, and being one in soul and mind 3 Don't do anything from selfish ambition or from a cheap desire to boast, but be humble towards one another, always considering others better than yourselves 4 And look out for one another's interests, not just for your own 5 The attitude you should have is the one that Christ Jesus had 6 He always had the nature of God, but he did not think that by force he should try to become[c] equal with God 7 Instead of this, of his own free will he gave up all he had,

and took the nature of a servant He became like man and appeared in human likeness 8 He was humble and walked the path of obedience all the way to death—his death on the cross 9 For this reason God raised him to the highest place above and gave him the name that is greater than any other name 10 And so, in honour of the name of Jesus all beings in heaven, on earth, and in the world below[d] will fall on their knees, 11 and all will openly proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father

Shining as Lights in the World

12 So then, dear friends, as you always obeyed me when I was with you, it is even more important that you obey me now while I am away from you Keep on working with fear and trembling to complete your salvation, 13 because God is always at work in you to make you willing and able to obey his own purpose 14 Do everything without complaining or arguing, 15 so that you may be innocent and pure as God's perfect children, who live in a world of corrupt and sinful people You must shine among them like stars lighting up the sky, 16 as you offer them the message of life If you do so, I shall have reason to be proud of you on the Day of Christ, because it will show that all my effort and work have not been wasted 17 Perhaps my life's blood is to be poured out like an offering on the sacrifice that your faith offers to God If that is so, I am glad and share my joy with you all 18 In the same way, you too must be glad and share your joy with me

Timothy and Epaphroditus

19 If it is the Lord's will, I hope that I will be able to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may be encouraged by news about you 20 He is the only one who shares my feelings and who really cares about you 21 Everyone else is concerned only with his own affairs, not with the cause of Jesus Christ 22 And you yourselves know how he has proved his worth, how he and I, like a son and his father, have worked together for the sake of the gospel 23 So I hope to send him to you as soon as I know how things are going to turn out for me 24 And I trust in the Lord that I myself will be able to come to you soon 25 I have thought it necessary to send you our brother Epaphroditus, who has worked and fought by my side and who has served as your messenger in helping me 26 He is anxious to see you all and is very upset because you had heard that he was ill 27 Indeed he was ill and almost died But God had pity on him, and not only on him but on me, too, and spared me an even greater sorrow 28 I am all the more eager, then, to send him to you, so that you will be glad again when you see him, and my own sorrow will disappear 29 Receive him, then, with joy, as a brother in the Lord Show respect to all such people as he, 30 because he risked his life and nearly died for the sake of the work of Christ, in order to give me the help that you yourselves could not give

The True Righteousness

3 In conclusion, my brothers, be joyful in your union with the Lord I don't mind repeating what I have written before, and you will be safer if I do so 2 Watch out for those who do evil things, those dogs, those men who insist on cutting the body 3 It is we, not they, who have received the true circumcision, for we worship God by means of his Spirit and rejoice in our life in union with Christ Jesus We do not put any trust in external ceremonies 4 I could, of course put my trust in such things If anyone thinks he can trust in external ceremonies, I have even more reason to feel that way 5 I was circumcised when I was a week old I am an Israelite by birth, of the tribe of Benjamin, a pure-blooded Hebrew As far as keeping the Jewish Law is concerned, I was a Pharisee, 6 and I was so zealous that I persecuted the church As far as a person can be righteous by obeying the commands of the Law, I was without fault 7 But all those things that I might count as profit I now reckon as loss for Christ's sake 8 Not only those things, I reckon everything as complete loss for the sake of what is so much more valuable, the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord For his sake I have thrown everything away, I consider it all as mere refuse, so that I may gain Christ 9 and be completely united with him I no longer have a righteousness of my own, the kind that is gained by obeying the Law I now have the righteousness that is given through faith in Christ, the righteousness that comes from God and is based on faith 10 All I want is to know Christ and to experience the power of his resurrection, to share in his sufferings and become like him in his death, 11 in the hope that I myself will be raised from death to life

Running towards the Goal

12 I do not claim that I have already succeeded or have already become perfect I keep striving to win the prize for which Christ Jesus has already won me to himself 13 Of course, my brothers, I really do not[e] think that I have already won it, the one thing I do, however, is to forget what is behind me and do my best to reach what is ahead 14 So I run straight

I run straight towards the goal (3 14) towards the goal in order to win the prize, which is God's call through Christ Jesus to the life above 15 All of us who are spiritually mature should have this same attitude But if some of you have a different attitude, God will make this clear to you 16 However that may be, let us go forward according to the same rules we have followed until

now
17 Keep on imitating me, my brothers Pay attention to those who follow the right example that we have set for you 18 I have told you this many times before, and now I repeat it with tears there are many whose lives make them enemies of Christ's death on the cross 19 They are

Their god is their bodily desires (3 19) going to end up in hell, because their god is their bodily desires They are proud of what they should be ashamed of, and they think only of things that belong to this world 20 We, however, are citizens of heaven, and we eagerly wait for our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, to come from heaven 21 He will change our weak mortal bodies and make them like his own glorious body, using that power by which he is able to bring all things under his rule

Instructions

4 So then, my brothers, how dear you are to me and how I miss you! How happy you make me, and how proud I am of you! This then, dear brothers, is how you should stand firm in your life in the Lord 2 Euodia and Syntyche, please, I beg you, try to agree as sisters in the Lord 3 And you too, my faithful partner, I want you to help these women, for they have worked hard with me to spread the gospel, together with Clement and all my other fellow-workers, whose names are in God's book of the living 4 May you always be joyful in your union with the Lord I say it again rejoice!
5 Show a gentle attitude towards everyone The Lord is coming soon 6 Don't worry about anything, but in all your prayers ask God for what you need, always asking him with a thankful heart 7 And God's peace, which is far beyond human understanding, will keep your hearts and minds safe in union with Christ Jesus
8 In conclusion, my brothers, fill your minds with those things that are good and that deserve praise things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, and honourable 9 Put into practice what you learnt and received from me, both from my words and from my actions And the God who gives us peace will be with you

Thanks for the Gift

10 In my life in union with the Lord it is a great joy to me that after so long a time you once more had the chance of showing that you care for me I don't mean that you had stopped caring for me—you just had no chance to show it 11 And I am not saying this because I feel neglected, for I have learnt to be satisfied with what I have 12 I know what it is to be in need and what it is to have more than enough I have learnt this secret, so that anywhere, at any time, I am content, whether I am full or hungry, whether I have too much or too little 13 I have the strength to face all conditions by the power that Christ gives me 14 But it was very good of you to help me in my troubles 15 You Philippians know very well that when I left Macedonia in the early days of preaching the Good News, you were the only church to help me, you were the only ones who shared my profits and losses 16 More than once when I needed help in Thessalonica, you sent it to me 17 It is not that I just want to receive gifts, rather, I want to see profit added to your account 18 Here, then, is my receipt for everything you have given me—and it has been more than enough!
I have all I need now that Epaphroditus has brought me all your gifts They are like a sweet-smelling offering to God, a sacrifice which is acceptable and pleasing to him 19 And with all his abundant wealth through Christ Jesus, my God will supply all your needs 20 To our God and Father be the glory for ever and ever! Amen

Final Greetings

21 Greetings to each one of God's people who belong to Christ Jesus The brothers here with me send you their greetings 22 All God's people here send greetings, especially those who belong to the Emperor's palace

COLOSSIANS

INTRODUCTION

Paul's Letter to the Colossians was written to the church at Colossae, a town in Asia Minor east of Ephesus This church had not been established by Paul, but was in an area for which Paul felt responsible, as he sent out workers from Ephesus, the capital of the Roman province of Asia Paul had learnt that there were false teachers in the church at Colossae who insisted that in order to know God and have full salvation one must worship certain "spiritual rulers and authorities" In addition, these teachers said, one must submit to special rites such as circumcision and must observe strict rules about foods and other matters

Paul writes to oppose these teachings with the true Christian message The heart of his reply is that Jesus Christ is able to give full salvation and that these other beliefs and practices actually lead away from him Through Christ, God created the world and through him he is bringing it back to himself Only in union with Christ is there hope of salvation for the world Paul then spells out the implications of this great teaching for the lives of believers

It is noteworthy that Tychicus, who took this letter to Colossae for Paul, was accompanied by Onesimus, the slave on whose behalf Paul wrote Philemon

Outline of Contents

1 From Paul, who by God's will is an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy—2 To God's people in Colossae, who are our faithful brothers in union with Christ: May God our Father give you grace and
peace.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

3 We always give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you. 4 For we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of your love for all God's people. 5 When the true message, the Good News, first came to you, you heard about the hope it offers.
So your faith and love are based on what you hope for, which is kept safe for you in heaven. 6 The gospel keeps bringing blessings and is spreading throughout the world, just as it has among you ever since the day you first heard about the grace of God and came to know it as it really is. 7 You learnt of God's grace from Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is Christ's faithful worker on our[a] behalf.
8 He has told us of the love that the Spirit has given you.
9 For this reason we have always prayed for you, ever since we heard about you. We ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will, with all the wisdom and understanding that his Spirit gives.
10 Then you will be able to live as the Lord wants and will always do what pleases him. Your lives will produce all kinds of good deeds, and you will grow in your knowledge of God. 11-12 May you be made strong with all the strength which comes from his glorious power, so that you may be able to endure everything with patience. And with joy give thanks to[b] the Father, who has made you fit to have your share of what God has reserved for his people in the kingdom of light. 13 He rescued us from the power of darkness and brought us safe into the kingdom of his dear Son, 14 by whom we are set free, that is, our sins are forgiven.

The Person and Work of Christ 15 Christ is the visible likeness of the invisible God. He is the first-born Son, superior to all created things. 16 For through him God created everything in heaven and on earth, the seen and the unseen things, including spiritual powers, lords, rulers, and authorities. God created the whole universe through him and for him. 17 Christ existed before all things, and in union with him all things have their proper place. 18 He is the head of his body, the church; he is the source of the body's life. He is the first-born Son, who was raised from death, in order that he alone might have the first place in all things.

19 For it was by God's own decision that the Son has in himself the full nature of God. 20 Through the Son, then, God decided to bring the whole universe back to himself. God made peace through his Son's death on the cross and so brought back to himself all things, both on earth and in heaven.
21 At one time you were far away from God and were his enemies because of the evil things you did and thought. 22 But now, by means of the physical death of his Son, God has made you his friends, in order to bring you, holy, pure and faultless, into his presence. 23 You must, of course, continue faithful on a firm and sure foundation, and must not allow yourselves to be shaken from the hope you gained when you heard the gospel.
It is of this gospel that I, Paul, became a servant—this gospel which has been preached to everybody in the world.

Paul's Work as a Servant of the Church

24 And now I am happy about my sufferings for you, for by means of my physical sufferings I am helping to complete what still remains of Christ's sufferings on behalf of his body, the church.
25 And I have been made a servant of the church by God, who gave me this task to perform for your good. It is the task of fully proclaiming his message, 26 which is the secret he hid through all past ages from all mankind but has now revealed to his people. 27 God's plan is to make known his secret to his people, this rich and glorious secret which he has for all peoples. And the secret is that Christ is in you, which means that you will share in the glory of God. 28 So we preach Christ to everyone. With all possible wisdom we warn and teach them in order to bring each one into God's presence as a mature individual in union with Christ. 29 To get this done I toil and struggle, using the mighty strength which Christ supplies and which is at work in me.

worked for you and for the people in Laodicea and for all others who do not know me personally 2 I do this in order that they may be filled with courage and may be drawn together in love, and so have the full wealth of assurance which true understanding brings In this way they will know God's secret, which is Christ himself [c] 3 He is the key that opens all the hidden treasures of God's wisdom and knowledge 4 I tell you, then, do not let anyone deceive you with false arguments, no matter how good they seem to be 5 For even though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, and I am glad as I see the resolute firmness with which you stand together in your faith in Christ

Fullness of Life in Christ

6 Since you have accepted Christ Jesus as Lord, live in union with him 7 Keep your roots deep in him, build your lives on him, and become stronger in your faith, as you were taught And be filled with thanksgiving
8 See to it, then, that no one enslaves you by means of the worthless deceit of human wisdom, which comes from the teachings handed down by men and from the ruling spirits of the universe, and not from Christ 9 For the full content of divine nature lives in Christ, in his humanity, 10 and you have been given full life in union with him He is supreme over every spiritual ruler and authority 11 In union with Christ you were circumcised, not with the circumcision that is made by men, but with the circumcision made by Christ, which consists of being freed from the power of this sinful self 12 For when you were baptized, you were buried with Christ, and in baptism you were also raised with Christ through your faith in the active power of God, who raised him from death 13 You were at one time spiritually dead because of your sins and because you were Gentiles without the Law But God has now brought you to life with Christ God forgave us all our sins, 14 he cancelled the unfavourable record of our debts with its binding rules and did away with it completely by nailing it to the cross 15 And on that cross Christ freed himself from the power of the spiritual rulers and authorities,[d] he made a public spectacle of them by leading them as captives in his victory procession 16 So let no one make rules about what you eat or drink or about holy days or the New Moon Festival or the Sabbath 17 All such things are only a shadow of things in the future, the reality is Christ 18 Do not allow yourselves to be condemned by anyone who claims to be superior because of special visions and who insists on false humility and the worship of angels For no reason at all, such a person is all puffed up by his human way of thinking 19 and has stopped holding on to Christ, who is the head of the body Under Christ's control the whole body is nourished and held together by its joints and ligaments, and it grows as God wants it to grow

Dying and Living with Christ

20 You have died with Christ and are set free from the ruling spirits of the universe Why, then, do you live as though you belonged to this world? Why do you obey such rules as 21 "Don't handle this," "Don't taste that," "Don't touch the other"? 22 All these refer to things which become useless once they are used, they are only man-made rules and teachings 23 Of course such rules appear to be based on wisdom in their forced worship of angels, and false humility, and severe treatment of the body, but they have no real value in controlling physical passions 3 You have been raised to life with Christ, so set your hearts on the things that are in heaven, where Christ sits on his throne at the right-hand side of God 2 Keep your minds fixed on things there, not on things here on earth 3 For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God 4 Your real life is Christ and when he appears, then you too will appear with him and share his glory![f]

The Old Life and the New

5 You must put to death, then, the earthly desires at work in you, such as sexual immorality, indecency, lust, evil

[c] God's secret, which is Christ himself some manuscripts have God's secret, others have the secret of God the Father of Christ, others have the secret of the God and Father, and of Christ passions, and greed (for greed is a form of idolatry) 6 Because of such things God's anger will come upon those who do not obey him[e] 7 At one time you yourselves used to live according to such desires, when your life was dominated by them

8 But now you must get rid of all these things anger, passion, and hateful feelings No insults or obscene talk must ever come from your lips 9 Do not lie to one another, for you have taken off the old self with its habits 10 and have put on the new self This is the new being which God, its Creator, is constantly renewing in his own image, in order to bring you to a full knowledge of himself 11 As a result, there is no longer any distinction between Gentiles and Jews, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarians, savages, slaves, and free men, but Christ is all, Christ is in all

12 You are the people of God, he loved you and chose you for his own So then, you must clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience 13 Be tolerant with one another and forgive one another whenever any of you has a complaint against someone else You must forgive one another just as the Lord has forgiven you 14 And to all these qualities add love, which binds all things together in perfect unity 15 The peace that Christ gives is to guide you in the decisions you make, for it is to this peace that God has called you together in the one body And be thankful 16 Christ's message in all its richness must live in your hearts Teach and instruct each other with all wisdom Sing psalms, hymns, and sacred songs, sing to God with thanksgiving in your hearts 17 Everything you do or say, then, should be done in the name of the Lord Jesus, as you give thanks through him to God the Father

Personal Relations in the New Life

18 Wives, submit to your husbands, for that is what you should do as Christians

19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them

20 Children, it is your Christian duty to obey your parents always, for that is what pleases God

21 Parents, do not irritate your children, or they will become discouraged

22 Slaves, obey your human masters in all things, not only when they are watching you because you want to gain their approval, but do it with a sincere heart because of your reverence for the Lord 23 Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as though you were working for the Lord and not for men 24 Remember that the Lord will give you as a reward what he has kept for his people For Christ is the real Master you serve 25 And every wrongdoer will be repaid for the wrong things he does, because God judges everyone by the same standard

4 Masters, be fair and just in the way you treat your slaves Remember that you too have a Master in heaven

2 Be persistent in prayer, and keep alert as you pray, giving thanks to God 3 At the same time pray also for us, so that God will give us a good opportunity to preach his message about the secret of Christ For that is why I am now in prison 4 Pray, then, that I may speak, as I should, in such a way as to make it clear

5 Be wise in the way you act towards those who are not believers, making good use of every opportunity you have 6 Your speech should always be pleasant and interesting, and you should know how to give the right answer to everyone

7 Our dear brother Tychicus, who is a faithful worker and fellow-servant in the Lord's work, will give you all the news about me 8 That is why I am sending him to you, in order to cheer you up by telling you how all of us are getting on 9 With him goes Onesimus that dear and faithful brother, who belongs to your group They will tell you everything that is happening here

10 Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, sends you greetings and so does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (You have already received instructions to welcome Mark if he comes your way) 11 Joshua, also called Justus, sends greetings too These three are the only Jewish converts who work with me for the Kingdom of

PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO THE

THESSALONIANS

INTRODUCTION

Thessalonica was the capital city of the Roman province of Macedonia Paul established a church there after he left Philippi Soon, however, there was opposition from Jews who were jealous of Paul's success in preaching the Christian message among the non-Jews who had become interested in Judaism Paul was forced to leave Thessalonica and go on to Berea Later on, after he reached Corinth, Paul received a personal report from his companion and fellow-worker Timothy about the situation in the church at Thessalonica

Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians was then written to encourage and reassure the Christians there He gives thanks for the news about their faith and love, he reminds them of the kind of life he had lived while he was with them, and then answers questions that had arisen in the church about the return of Christ Could a believer who died before Christ's return still share in the eternal life that his return will bring? And when will Christ come again? Paul takes this occasion to tell them to go on working quietly while waiting in hope for Christ's return

1 From Paul, Silas, and Timothy—To the people of the church in Thessalonica, who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ May grace and peace be yours

The Life and Faith of the Thessalonians

2 We always thank God for you all and always mention you in our prayers 3 For we remember before our God and Father how you put your faith into practice, how your love made you work so hard, and how your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ is firm 4 Our brothers, we know that God loves you and has chosen you to be his own 5 For we brought the Good News to you, not with words only, but also with power and the Holy Spirit, and with complete conviction of its truth You know how we lived when we were with you, it was for your own good 6 You imitated us and the Lord, and even though you suffered much, you received the message with the joy that comes from the Holy Spirit 7 So you became an example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia 8 For not only did the message about the Lord go out from you throughout Macedonia and Achaia, but the news about your faith in God has gone everywhere There is nothing, then, that we need to say 9 All those people speak about how you received us when we visited you, and how you turned away from idols to God, to serve the true and living God 10 and to wait for his Son to come from heaven—his Son Jesus, whom he raised from death and who rescues us from God's anger that is coming

Paul's Work in Thessalonica

2 Our brothers, you yourselves know that our visit to you was not a failure 2 You know how we had already been ill-treated and insulted in Philippi before we came to you in Thessalonica And even though there was much opposition, our God gave us courage to tell you the Good News that comes from him 3 Our appeal to you is not based on error or impure motives, nor do we try to trick anyone 4 Instead, we always speak as God wants us to, because he has judged us worthy to be entrusted with the Good News We do not try to please men, but to please God, who tests our motives 5 You know very well that we did not come to you with flattering talk, nor did we use words to cover up greed—God is our witness!
6 We did not try to get praise from anyone, either from you or from others, 7 even though as apostles of Christ we could have made demands on you But we were gentle when we were with you, like a mother[a] taking care of her children 8 Because of our love for you we were ready to share with you not only the Good News from God but even our own lives You were so dear to us! 9 Surely you remember, our brothers, how we worked and toiled! We worked day and night so that we would not be any trouble to you as we preached to you the Good News from God

10 You are our witnesses, and so is God, that our conduct towards you who believe was pure, right, and without fault 11 You know that we treated each one of you just as a father treats his own children 12 We encouraged you, we comforted you, and we kept urging you to live the kind of life that pleases God, who calls you to share in his own Kingdom and glory 13 And there is another reason why we always give thanks to God When we brought you God's message, you heard it and accepted it, not as man's message but as God's message, which indeed it is For God is at work in you who believe 14 Our brothers, the same things happened to you that happened to the churches of God in Judaea, to the people there who belong to Christ Jesus You suffered the same persecutions from your own countrymen that they suffered from the Jews, 15 who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and persecuted us How displeasing they are to God! How hostile they are to everyone! 16 They even tried to stop us from preaching to the Gentiles the message that would bring them salvation In this way they have completed the full total of the sins they have always committed And now God's anger has at last come down on them!

Paul's Desire to Visit Them Again

17 As for us, brothers, when we were separated from you for a little while—not in our thoughts, of course, but only in body—how we missed you and how hard we tried to see you again! 18 We wanted

[a]we were gentle when we were with you, like a mother, some manuscripts have we were like children when we were with you, we were like a mother

1 1 Acts 17 1 1 6 Acts 17 5-9 2 2 Acts 16 19-24, 17 1-9 2 14 Acts 17 5

to return to you I myself tried to go back more than once, but Satan would not let us 19 After all, it is you—you, no less than others!—who are our hope, our joy, and our reason for boasting of our victory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes 20 Indeed, you are our pride and our joy!

3 Finally, we could not bear it any longer So we decided to stay on alone in Athens 2 while we sent Timothy, our brother who works with us for God in preaching the Good News about Christ We sent him to strengthen you and help your faith, 3 so that none of you should turn back because of these persecutions You yourselves know that such persecutions are part of God's will for us 4 For while we were still with you, we told you beforehand that we were going to be persecuted, and as you well know, that is exactly what happened 5 That is why I had to send Timothy I could not bear it any longer, so I sent him to find out about your faith Surely it could not be that the Devil had tempted you and all our work had been for nothing!

6 Now Timothy has come back, and he has brought us the welcome news about your faith and love He has told us that you always think well of us and that you want to see us just as much as we want to see you 7 So, in all our trouble and suffering we have been encouraged about you, brothers It was your faith that encouraged us, 8 because now we really live if you stand firm in your life in union with the Lord 9 Now we can give thanks to our God for you We thank him for the joy we have in his presence because of you 10 Day and night we ask him with all our heart to let us see you personally and supply what is needed in your faith 11 May our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus prepare the way for us to come to you! 12 May the Lord make your love for one another and for all people grow more and more and become as great as our love for you 13 In this way he will strengthen you, and you will be perfect and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all who belong to him b

A Life that Pleases God

4 Finally, our brothers, you learnt from us how you should live in order to please God This is, of course, how you have been living And now we beg and urge you in the name of the Lord Jesus to do even more 2 For you know the instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus 3 God wants you to be holy and completely free from sexual immorality 4 Each of you men should know how to live with his wife c in a holy and honourable way, 5 not with a lustful desire, like the heathen who do not know God 6 In this matter, then, no man should do wrong to his fellow-Christian or take advantage of him We have told you this before, and we strongly warned you that the Lord will punish those who do that 7 God did not call us to live in immorality, but in holiness 8 So then, whoever rejects this teaching is not rejecting man, but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit

9 There is no need to write to you about love for your fellow-believers You yourselves have been taught by God how you should love one another 10 And you have, in fact, behaved like this towards all the brothers in all Macedonia So we beg you, our brothers, to do even more 11 Make it your aim to live a quiet life, to mind your own business, and to earn your own living, just as we told you before 12 In this way you will win the respect of those who are not believers, and you will not have to depend on anyone for what you need

The Lord's Coming

13 Our brothers, we want you to know the truth about those who have died, so that you will not be sad, as are those who have no hope 14 We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will take back with Jesus those who have died believing in him 15 What we are teaching you now is the Lord's teaching we who are alive on the day the Lord comes will not go ahead of those who have died 16 There will be the shout of command, the archangel's voice, the sound of God's trumpet, and the Lord himself will come down from heaven Those who have died believing in Christ will rise to life first, 17 then we who are living at that time will be gathered up along with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air And so we will always be with the Lord 18 So then, encourage one another with these words b all who belong to him, or all his angels c live with his wife or control his body 3 1 Acts 17 15 3 6 Acts 18 5 4 15–17 1 Cor 15 51–52

Be Ready for the Lord's Coming 5 There is no need to write to you, brothers, about the times and occasions when these things will happen 2 For you yourselves know very well that the Day of the Lord will come as a thief comes at night 3 When people say, "Everything is quiet and safe," then suddenly destruction will hit them! It will come as suddenly as the pains that come upon a woman in labour, and people will not escape 4 But you, brothers, are not in the darkness, and the Day should not take you by surprise like a thief 5 All of you are people who belong to the light, who belong to the day We do not belong to the night or to the darkness 6 So then, we should not be sleeping like the others, we should be awake and sober 7 It is at night that people sleep, it is at night that they get drunk 8 But we belong to the day, and we should be sober We must wear faith and love as a breastplate, and our hope of salvation as a helmet 9 God did not choose us to suffer his anger, but to possess salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us in order that we might live together with him, whether we are alive or dead when he comes 11 And so encourage one another and help one another, just as you are now doing

Final Instructions and Greetings

12 We beg you, our brothers, to pay proper respect to those who work among you, who guide and instruct you in the Christian life 13 Treat them with the greatest respect and love because of the work they do Be at peace among yourselves

14 We urge you, our brothers, to warn the idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone 15 See that no one pays back wrong for wrong, but at all times make it your aim to do good to one another and to all people 16 Be joyful always, 17 pray at all times, 18 be thankful in all circumstances This is what God wants from you in your life in union with Christ Jesus

19 Do not restrain the Holy Spirit, 20 do not despise inspired messages 21 Put all things to the test keep what is good 22 and avoid every kind of evil

23 May the God who gives us peace make you holy in every way and keep your whole being—spirit, soul, and body—free from every fault at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 He who calls you will do it, because he is faithful 25 Pray also for us, brothers

26 Greet all the believers with a brotherly kiss

27 I urge you by the authority of the Lord to read this letter to all the believers 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you

THESSALONIANS

INTRODUCTION

Confusion over the expected return of Christ continued to cause disturbances in the church at Thessalonica Paul's Second Letter to the Thessalonians deals with the belief that the day of the Lord's coming had already arrived Paul corrects this idea, pointing out that before Christ returns, evil and wickedness will reach a climax under the leadership of a mysterious figure called "the Wicked One," who would be opposed to Christ

The apostle emphasizes the need for his readers to remain steady in their faith in spite of trouble and suffering, to work for a living as did Paul and his fellow-workers, and to persevere in doing good

The Judgement at Christ's Coming

3 Our brothers, we must thank God at all times for you It is right for us to do so, because your faith is growing so much and the love each of you has for the others is becoming greater [4]That is why we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God We boast about the way you continue to endure and believe through all the persecutions and sufferings you are experiencing 5 All of this proves that God's judgement is just and as a result you will become worthy of his Kingdom, for which you are suffering [6]God will do what is right he will bring suffering on those who make you suffer, [7]and he will give relief to you who suffer and to us as well He will do this when the Lord Jesus appears from heaven with his mighty angels, [8]with a flaming fire, to punish those who reject God and who do not obey the Good News about our Lord Jesus [9]They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, separated from the presence of the Lord and from his glorious might, [10]when he comes on that Day to receive glory from all his people and honour from all who believe You too will be among them, because you have believed the message that we told you 11 That is why we always pray for you We ask our God to make you worthy of 1 1 Acts 17 1   1 9 Is 2 10

Do not treat him as an enemy (3 15) command these people and warn them to lead orderly lives and work to earn their own living 13 But you, brothers, must not get tired of doing good 14 It may be that someone there will not obey the message we send you in this letter If so, take note of him and have nothing to do with him, so that he will be ashamed 15 But do not treat him as an enemy, instead, warn him as a brother

16 May the Lord Himself, who is our source of peace, give you peace at all times and in every way The Lord be with you all 17 With my own hand I write this Greetings from Paul This is the way I sign every letter, this is how I write

PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO

TIMOTHY

INTRODUCTION

Timothy, a young Christian from Asia Minor, was the son of a Jewish mother and a Greek father He became a companion and assistant to Paul in his missionary work Paul's First Letter to Timothy deals with three main concerns

The letter is first of all a warning against false teaching in the church This teaching, a mixture of Jewish and non-Jewish ideas, was based on the belief that the physical world is evil and that one can attain salvation only by special secret knowledge and by practices such as avoiding certain foods and not marrying The letter also contains instructions about church administration and worship, with a description of the kind of character that church leaders and helpers should have Finally, Timothy is advised how to be a good servant of Jesus Christ and about the responsibilities that he has towards various groups of believers

Christ Jesus our hope—2 To Timothy, my true son in the faith May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace

Warnings against False Teaching

3 I want you to stay in Ephesus, just as I urged you when I was on my way to Macedonia Some people there are teaching false doctrines, and you must order them to stop 4 Tell them to give up those legends and those long lists of ancestors, which only produce arguments, they do not serve God's plan, which is known by faith 5 The purpose of this order is to arouse the love that comes from a pure heart, a clear conscience, and a genuine faith 6 Some people have turned away from these and have lost their way in foolish discussions 7 They want to be teachers of God's law, but they do not understand their own words or the matters about which they speak with so much confidence 8 We know that the Law is good if it is used as it should be used 9 It must be remembered, of course, that laws are made, not for good people, but for lawbreakers and criminals, for the godless and sinful, for those who are not religious or spiritual, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, 10 for the immoral, for sexual perverts, for kidnappers, for those who lie and give false testimony or who do anything else contrary to sound doctrine 11 That teaching is found in the gospel that was entrusted to me to announce, the Good News from the glorious and blessed God

Gratitude for God's Mercy

12 I give thanks to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength for my work I thank him for considering me worthy and appointing me to serve him, 13 even though in the past I spoke evil of him and persecuted and insulted him But God was merciful to me because I did not yet have faith and so did not know what I was doing 14 And our Lord poured out his abundant grace on me and gave me the faith and love which are ours in union with Christ Jesus 15 This is a true

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners (1 15) saying, to be completely accepted and believed Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners I am the worst of them, 16 but God was merciful to me in order that Christ Jesus might show his full patience in dealing with me, the worst of sinners, as an example for all those who would later believe in him and receive eternal life 17 To the eternal King, immortal and invisible, the only God—to him be honour and glory for ever and ever!

Amen
18 Timothy, my child, I entrust to you this command, which is in accordance with the words of prophecy spoken in the past about you Use those words as weapons in order to fight well, 19 and keep your faith and a clear conscience Some men have not listened to their conscience and have made a ruin of their faith 20 Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have punished by handing them over to the power of Satan, this will teach them to stop their blasphemy

Church Worship

2 First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, requests, and thanksgivings be offered to God for all people, 2 for kings and all others who are in authority, that we may live a quiet and peaceful life with all reverence towards God and with proper conduct 3 This is good and it pleases God our Saviour, 4 who wants everyone to be saved and to come to know the truth 5 For there is one God, and there is one who brings God and mankind together, the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself to redeem all mankind That was the proof at the right time that God wants everyone to be saved, 7 and that is why I was sent as an apostle and teacher of the Gentiles, to proclaim the message of faith and truth I am not lying, I am telling the truth!
8 In every church service I want the men to pray, men who are dedicated to God and can lift up their hands in prayer without anger or argument 9 I also want the women to be modest and sensible about their clothes and to dress properly, not with fancy hair styles or with gold ornaments or pearls or expensive dresses, 10 but with good deeds, as is proper for women who claim to be religious 11 Women should learn in silence and all humility 12 I do not allow them to teach or to have authority over men, they must keep quiet 13 For Adam was created first, and then Eve 14 And it was not Adam who was deceived, it was the woman who was deceived and broke God's law 15 But a woman will be saved through having children,[a] if she perseveres[b] in faith and love and holiness, with modesty

Leaders in the Church

3 This is a true saying If a man is eager to be a church leader, he desires an excellent work 2 A church leader must be without fault, he must have only one wife,[c] be sober, self-controlled, and orderly, he must welcome strangers in his home, he must be able to teach, 3 he must not be a drunkard or a violent man, but gentle and peaceful, he must not love money, 4 he must be able to manage his own family well and make his children obey him with all respect 5 For if a man does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of the church of God? 6 He must be mature in the faith, so that he will not swell up with pride and be condemned, as the Devil was 7 He should be a man who is respected by the people outside the church, so that he will not be disgraced and fall into the Devil's trap

Helpers in the Church

8 Church helpers must also have a good character and be sincere, they must not drink too much wine or be greedy for money, 9 they should hold to the revealed truth of the faith with a clear conscience 10 They should be tested first, and then, if they pass the test, they are to serve 11 Their wives[d] also must be of good character and must not gossip, they must be sober and honest in everything 12 A church helper must have only one wife,[e] and be able to manage his children and family well 13 Those helpers who do their work well win for themselves a good standing and are able to speak boldly about their faith in Christ Jesus

The Great Secret

14 As I write this letter to you, I hope to come and see you soon 15 But if I am delayed, this letter will let you know how we should conduct ourselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth. 16 No one can deny how great is the secret of our religion:

He appeared in human form, was shown to be right by the Spirit,[f] and was seen by angels.
He was preached among the nations, was believed in throughout the world, and was taken up to heaven.

False Teachers

4 The Spirit says clearly that some people will abandon the faith in later times; they will obey lying spirits and follow the teachings of demons. 2 Such teachings are spread by deceitful liars, whose consciences are dead, as if burnt with a hot iron. 3 Such people teach that it is wrong to marry and to eat certain foods. But God created those foods to be eaten, after a prayer of thanks, by those who are believers and have come to know the truth. 4 Everything that God has created is good; nothing is to be rejected, but everything is to be received with a prayer of thanks, 5 because the word of God and the prayer make it acceptable to God.

A Good Servant of Christ Jesus

6 If you give these instructions to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, as you feed yourself spiritually on the words of faith and of the true teaching which you have followed. 7 But keep away from those godless legends, which are not worth telling. Keep yourself in training for a godly life. 8 Physical exercise has some value, but spiritual exercise is valuable in every way, because it promises life both for the present and for the future. 9 This is a true saying, to be completely accepted and believed.
10 We struggle[g] and work hard, because we have placed our hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of all and especially of those who believe.
11 Give them these instructions and these teachings. 12 Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but be an example for the believers in your speech, your conduct, your love, faith, and purity. 13 Until I come, give your time and effort to the public reading of the Scriptures and to preaching and teaching. 14 Do not neglect the spiritual gift that is in you, which was given to you when the prophets spoke and the elders laid their hands on you. 15 Practise these things and devote yourself to them, in order that your progress may be seen by all. 16 Watch yourself and watch your teaching. Keep on doing these things, because if you do, you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Responsibilities towards Believers

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but appeal to him as if he were your father. Treat the younger men as your brothers, 2 the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, with all purity.
3 Show respect for widows who really are all alone. 4 But if a widow has children or grandchildren, they should learn first to carry out their religious duties towards their own family and in this way repay their parents and grandparents, because that is what pleases God. 5 A widow who is all alone, with no one to take care of her, has placed her hope in God and continues to pray and ask him for his help night and day. 6 But a widow who gives herself to pleasure has already died, even though she lives. 7 Give them these instructions, so that no one will find fault with them. 8 But if anyone does not take care of his relatives, especially the members of his own family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
9 Do not add any widow to the list of widows unless she is over sixty years of age. In addition, she must have been married only once[h] 10 and have a reputation for good deeds: a woman who brought up her children well, received strangers in her home, performed humble duties for fellow Christians, helped people in trouble, and devoted herself to doing good.
11 But do not include younger widows in the list; because when their desires make them want to marry, they turn away from Christ, 12 and so become guilty of breaking their earlier promise to him.
13 They also learn to waste their time in going round from house to house; but even worse, they learn to be gossips and busybodies, talking of things they should not. 14 So I would prefer that the younger widows get married, have children, and take care of their homes, so as to give our enemies no chance of speaking evil of us. 15 For some widows have already [f] was shown to be right by the Spirit; or and in spiritual form, was shown to be right.

[g] struggle; some manuscripts have are reviled.
[h] married only once; or faithful to her husband.

What did we bring into the world? Nothing! What can we take out of the world? Nothing! (6 7) turned away to follow Satan 16 But if any Christian woman has widows in her family, she must take care of them and not put the burden on the church, so that it may take care of the widows who are all alone 17 The elders who do good work as leaders should be considered worthy of receiving double pay, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching 18 For the scripture says, "Do not muzzle an ox when you are using it to thresh corn" and "A worker should be given his pay" 19 Do not listen to an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or more witnesses 20 Rebuke publicly all those who commit sins, so that the rest may be afraid 21 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of the holy angels I solemnly call upon you to obey these instructions without showing any prejudice or favour to anyone in anything you do 22 Be in no hurry to lay hands on someone to dedicate him to the Lord's service Take no part in the sins of others, keep yourself pure 23 Do not drink water only, but take a little wine to help your digestion, since you are ill so often 24 The sins of some people are plain to see, and their sins go ahead of them to judgement, but the sins of others are seen only later 25 In the same way good deeds are plainly seen, and even those that are not so plain cannot be hidden 6 Those who are slaves must consider their masters worthy of all respect, so that no one will speak evil of the name of God and of our teaching 2 Slaves belonging to Christian masters must not despise them, for they are their brothers Instead, they are to serve them even better, because those who benefit from their work are believers whom they love

False Teaching and True Riches

You must teach and preach these things 3 Whoever teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the true words of our Lord Jesus Christ and with the teaching of our religion 4 is swollen with pride and knows nothing He has an unhealthy desire to argue and quarrel about words, and this brings on jealousy, disputes, insults, evil suspicions, 5 and constant arguments from people whose minds do not function and who no longer have the truth They think that religion is a way to become rich 6 Well, religion does make a person very rich, if he is satisfied with what he has 7 What did we bring into the world?
Nothing! What can we take out of the world? Nothing! 8 So then, if we have food and clothes, that should be enough for us 9 But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and are caught in the trap of many foolish and harmful desires, which pull them down to ruin and destruction 10 For the love of money is a source of all kinds of evil Some have been so eager to have it that they have wandered away from the faith and have broken their hearts with many sorrows

5 18 Deut 25 4, Mt 10 10, Lk 10 7 5 19 Deut 17 6, 19 15

Personal Instructions

11 But you, man of God, avoid all these things Strive for righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness [12] Run your best in the race of faith, and win eternal life for yourself, for it was to this life that God called you when you firmly professed your faith before many witnesses [13] Before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who firmly professed his faith before Pontius Pilate, I command you [14] to obey your orders and keep them faithfully until the Day when our Lord Jesus Christ will appear [15] His appearing will be brought about at the right time by God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and the Lord of lords [16] He alone is immortal, he lives in the light that no one can approach No one has ever seen him, no one can ever see him To him be honour and eternal dominion! Amen 17 Command those who are rich in the things of this life not to be proud, but to place their hope, not in such an uncertain thing as riches, but in God, who generously gives us everything for our enjoyment [18] Command them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share with others [19] In this way they will store up for themselves a treasure which will be a solid foundation for the future And then they will be able to win the life which is true life 20 Timothy, keep safe what has been entrusted to your care Avoid the profane talk and foolish arguments of what some people wrongly call "Knowledge" [21] For some have claimed to possess it, and as a result they have lost the way of faith God's grace be with you all

PAUL'S SECOND LETTER TO

TIMOTHY

INTRODUCTION

Paul's Second Letter to Timothy consists largely of personal advice to Timothy, as a younger colleague and assistant The main theme is endurance Timothy is advised and encouraged to keep on witnessing faithfully to Jesus Christ, to hold to the true teaching of the Good News and the Old Testament, and to do his duty as teacher and evangelist, all in the face of suffering and opposition

Timothy is especially warned about the dangers of becoming involved in "foolish and ignorant arguments" that do no good, but only ruin the people who listen to them

In all this, Timothy is reminded of the example of the writer's own life and purpose—his faith, patience, love, endurance, and suffering in persecution

Outline of Contents

1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, sent to proclaim the promised life which we have in union with Christ Jesus—
2 To Timothy, my dear son May God the Father and Christ Jesus
our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace

Thanksgiving and Encouragement

3 I give thanks to God, whom I serve with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did I thank him as I remember you always in my prayers night and day 4 I remember your tears, and I want to see you very much, so that I may be filled with joy 5 I remember the sincere faith you have, the kind of faith that your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice also had I am sure that you have it also 6 For this reason I remind you to keep alive the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you 7 For the Spirit that God has given us does not make us timid, instead, his Spirit fills us with power, love, and self-control 8 Do not be ashamed, then, of witnessing for our Lord, nor be ashamed of me, a prisoner for Christ's sake Instead, take your part in suffering for the Good News, as God gives you the strength to do it 9 He saved us and called us to be his own people, not because of what we have done, but because of his own purpose and grace He gave us this grace by means of Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, 10 but now it has been revealed to us through the coming of our Saviour, Christ Jesus He has ended the power of death and through the gospel has revealed immortal
11 God has appointed me as an apostle and teacher to proclaim the Good News, 12 and it is for this reason that I suffer these things But I am still full of confidence, because I know whom I have trusted, and I am sure that he is able to keep safe until that Day what he has entrusted to me [a] 13 Hold firmly to the true words that I taught you, as the example for you to follow, and remain in the faith and love that are ours in union with Christ Jesus 14 Through the power of the Holy Spirit, who lives in us, keep the good things that have been entrusted
to you 15 You know that everyone in the province of Asia, including Phygelus and Hermogenes, has deserted me 16 May the Lord show mercy to the family of Onesiphorus, because he cheered me up many times He was not ashamed that I am in prison, 17 but as soon as he arrived in Rome, he started looking for me until he found me 18 May the Lord grant him his mercy on that Day! And you know very well how much he did for me in Ephesus

A Loyal Soldier of Christ Jesus

2 As for you, my son, be strong through the grace that is ours in union with Christ Jesus 2 Take the teachings that you heard me proclaim in the presence of many witnesses, and entrust them to reliable people, who will be able to teach others also 3 Take your part in suffering, as a loyal soldier of Christ Jesus 4 A soldier on active service wants to please his commanding officer and so does not get mixed up in the affairs of civilian life 5 An athlete who runs in a race cannot win the prize unless he obeys the rules 6 The farmer who has done the hard work should have the first share of the harvest 7 Think about what I am saying, because the Lord will enable you to understand it all 8 Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from death, who was a descendant of David, as is taught in the Good News I preach 9 Because I preach the Good News, I suffer and I am even chained like a criminal But the word of God is not in chains, 10 and so I endure everything for the sake of God's chosen people, in order that they too may obtain the salvation that comes through Christ Jesus and brings eternal glory 11 This is a true saying
"If we have died with him, we shall also live with him 12 If we continue to endure, we shall also rule with him If we deny him, he also will deny us 13 If we are not faithful, he remains faithful, because he cannot be false to himself"

An Approved Worker

14 Remind your people of this, and give them a solemn warning in God's presence not to fight over words It does no good, but only ruins the people who listen 15 Do your best to win full approval in God's sight, as a worker who is not ashamed of his work, one who correctly teaches

[a] what he has entrusted to me, or what I have entrusted to him 1 2 Acts 16 1 1 5 Acts 16 1 1 11 1 Tim 2 7 2 12 Mt 10 33, Lk 12 9 the message of God's truth 16 Keep away from profane and foolish discussions, which only drive people further away from God 17 Such teaching is like an open sore that eats away the flesh Two men who have taught such things are Hymenaeus and Philetus 18 They have left the way of truth and are upsetting the faith of some believers by saying that our resurrection has already taken place 19 But the solid foundation that God has laid cannot be shaken, and on it are written these words "The Lord knows those who are his" and "Whoever says that he belongs to the Lord must turn away from wrongdoing" 20 In a large house there are dishes and bowls of all kinds some are made of silver and gold, others of wood and clay, some are for special occasions, others for ordinary use 21 If anyone makes himself clean from all those evil things, he will be used for special purposes, because he is dedicated and useful to his Master, ready to be used for every good deed 22 Avoid the passions of youth, and strive for righteousness, faith, love, and peace, together with those who with a pure heart call out to the Lord for help 23 But keep away from foolish and ignorant arguments, you know that they end up in quarrels 24 The Lord's servant must not quarrel He must be kind towards all, a good and patient teacher, 25 who is gentle as he corrects his opponents, for it may be that God will give them the opportunity to repent and come to know the truth 26 And then they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the Devil, who had caught them and made them obey his will

The Last Days

3 Remember that there will be difficult times in the last days 2 People will be selfish, greedy, boastful, and conceited; they will be insulting, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, and irreligious, 3 they will be unkind, merciless, slanderers, violent, and fierce, they will hate the good, 4 they will be treacherous, reckless, and swollen with pride, they will love pleasure rather than God, 5 they will hold to the outward form of our religion, but reject its real power Keep away from such people 6 Some of them go into people's houses and gain control over weak women who are burdened by the guilt of their sins and driven by all kinds of desires, 7 women who are always trying to learn but who can never come to know the truth 8 As Jannes and Jambres were opposed to Moses, so also these people are opposed to the truth—people whose minds do not function and who are failures in the faith 9 But they will not get very far, because everyone will see how stupid they are That is just what happened to Jannes and Jambres

Last Instructions

10 But you have followed my teaching, my conduct, and my purpose in life, you have observed my faith, my patience, my love, my endurance, 11 my persecutions, and my sufferings You know all that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra, the terrible persecutions I endured! But the Lord rescued me from them all 12 Everyone who wants to live a godly life in union with Christ Jesus will be persecuted, 13 and evil persons and impostors will keep on going from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived themselves 14 But as for you, continue in the truths that you were taught and firmly believe You know who your teachers were, 15 and you remember that ever since you were a child, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus 16 All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful[b] for teaching the truth, rebuking error, correcting faults, and giving instruction for right living, 17 so that the person who serves God may be fully qualified and equipped to do every kind of good deed

4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and because he is coming to rule as King, I solemnly urge you 2 to preach the message, to insist upon proclaiming it (whether the time is right or not), to convince, reproach, and encourage, as you teach with all patience 3 The time will come when people will not listen to sound doctrine, but will follow their own desires and will collect for themselves more and more teachers who will tell them what they are itching to hear 4 They will turn away from listening to the truth and give their attention to legends 5 But you must keep control of yourself in all circumstances, endure

[b] All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful or Every scripture inspired by God is also useful duty as a servant of God 6 As for me, the hour has come for me to be sacrificed, the time is here for me to leave this life 7 I have done my best in the race, I have run the full distance, and I have kept the faith [c] 8 And now there is waiting for me the prize of victory awarded for a righteous life, the prize which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that Day—and not only to me, but to all those who wait with love for him to appear

Personal Words

9 Do your best to come to me soon 10 Demas fell in love with this present world and has deserted me, going off to Thessalonica Crescens went to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia 11 Only Luke is with me Get Mark and bring him with you, because he can help me in the work 12 I sent Tychicus to Ephesus 13 When you come, bring my coat that I left in Troas with Carpus, bring the books too, and especially the ones made of parchment 14 Alexander the metal-worker did me much harm, the Lord will reward him according to what he has done 15 Be on your guard against him yourself, because he was violently opposed to our message 16 No one stood by me the first time I defended myself, all deserted me May God not count it against them! 17 But the Lord stayed with me and gave me strength, so that I was able to proclaim the full message for all the Gentiles to hear, and I was rescued from being sentenced to death 18 And the Lord will rescue me from all evil and take me safely into his heavenly Kingdom To him be the glory for ever and ever! Amen

Final Greetings

PAUL'S LETTER TO

TITUS

INTRODUCTION

Titus was a Gentile convert to Christianity who became a fellow-worker and assistant to Paul in his missionary work Paul's Letter to Titus is addressed to his young helper in Crete, who had been left there to supervise the work of the church The letter expresses three main concerns

First, Titus is reminded of the kind of character that church leaders should have, especially in view of the bad character of many Cretans Next, Titus is advised how to teach the various groups in the church, the older men, the older women (who are, in turn, to teach the younger women), the young men, and the slaves Finally, the writer gives Titus advice regarding Christian conduct, especially the need to be peaceful and friendly, and to avoid hatred, argument, and division in the church

1 From Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ I was chosen and sent to help the faith of God's chosen people and to lead them to the truth taught by our religion, 2 which is based on the hope for eternal life God, who does not lie, promised us this life before the beginning of time, 3 and at the right time he revealed it in his message This was entrusted to me, and I proclaim it by order of God our Saviour 4 I write to Titus, my true son in the faith that we have in common May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour give you grace and peace

Titus' Work in Crete

5 I left you in Crete, so that you could put in order the things that still needed doing and appoint church elders in every town Remember my instructions 6 an elder must be blameless, he must have only one wife,[a] and his children must be believers and not have the reputation of being wild or disobedient 7 For since a church leader is in charge of God's work, he should be blameless He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered, or a drunkard or violent or greedy for money 8 He must be hospitable and love what is good He must be self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined 9 He must hold firmly to the message which can be trusted and which agrees with the doctrine In this way he will be able to encourage others with the true teaching and also to show [a] have only one wife, or be married only once 1 4 2 Cor 8 23, Gal 2 3, 2 Tim 4 10 1 6–9 1 Tim 3 2–7 the error of those who are opposed to

it 10 For there are many, especially converts from Judaism, who rebel and deceive others with their nonsense 11 It is necessary to stop their talk, because they are upsetting whole families by teaching what they should not, and all for the shameful purpose of making money 12-13 It was a Cretan himself, one of their own prophets, who spoke the truth when he said, "Cretans are always liars, wicked beasts, and lazy gluttons" For this reason you must rebuke them sharply, so that they may have a healthy faith 14 and no longer hold on to Jewish legends and to human commandments which come from people who have rejected the truth 15 Everything is pure to those who are themselves pure, but nothing is pure to those who are defiled and unbelieving, for their minds and consciences have been defiled 16 They claim that they know God, but their actions deny it They are hateful and disobedient, not fit to do anything good

Sound Doctrine

2 But you must teach what agrees with sound doctrine 2 Instruct the older men to be sober, sensible, and self-controlled, to be sound in their faith, love, and endurance 3 In the same way instruct the older women to behave as women should who live a holy life They must not be slanderers or slaves to wine They must teach what is good, 4 in order to train the younger women to love their husbands and children, 5 to be self-controlled and pure, and to be good housewives who submit to their husbands, so that no one will speak evil of the message that comes from God 6 In the same way urge the young men to be self-controlled 7 In all things you yourself must be an example of good behaviour Be sincere and serious in your teaching 8 Use sound words that cannot be criticized, so that your enemies may be put to shame by not having anything bad to say about us 9 Slaves are to submit to their masters and please them in all things They must not answer them back 10 or steal from them Instead, they must show that they are always good and faithful, so as to bring credit to the teaching about God our Saviour in all they do 11 For God has revealed his grace for the salvation of all mankind 12 That grace instructs us to give up ungodly living and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in this world, 13 as we wait for the blessed Day we hope for, when the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ[b] will appear 14 He gave himself for us, to rescue us from all wickedness and to make us a pure people who belong to him alone and are eager to do good 15 Teach these things and use your full authority as you encourage and rebuke your hearers Let none of them look down on you

Christian Conduct

3 Remind your people to submit to rulers and authorities, to obey them, and to be ready to do good in every way 2 Tell them not to speak evil of anyone, but to be peaceful and friendly, and always to show a gentle attitude towards everyone 3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, and wrong We were slaves to passions and pleasures of all kinds We spent our lives in malice and envy, others hated us and we hated them 4 But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour was revealed, 5 he saved us It was not because of any good deeds that we ourselves had done, but because of his own mercy that he saved us, through the Holy Spirit, who gives us new birth and new life by washing us 6 God poured out the Holy Spirit abundantly on us through Jesus Christ our Saviour, 7 so that by his grace we might be put right with God and come into possession of the eternal life we hope for 8 This is a true saying I want you to give special emphasis to these matters, so that those who believe in God may be concerned with giving their time to doing good deeds, which are good and useful for everyone 9 But avoid stupid arguments, long lists of ancestors, quarrels, and fights about the Law They are useless and worthless 10 Give at least two warnings to the person who causes divisions, and then have nothing more to do with him 11 You know that such a person is corrupt, and his sins prove that he is wrong

Final Instructions

12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me in Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there. 13 Do your best to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos to get started on their travels, and see to it that they have everything they need. 14 Our people must learn to spend their time doing good, in order to provide for real needs; they should not live useless lives.
15 All who are with me send you greetings. Give our greetings to our friends in the faith.
God's grace be with you all.

PHILEMON

INTRODUCTION

Philemon was a prominent Christian, probably a member of the church at Colossae and the owner of a slave named Onesimus. This slave had run away from his master, and then somehow he had come in contact with Paul, who was then in prison. Through Paul, Onesimus became a Christian. Paul's Letter to Philemon is an appeal to Philemon to be reconciled to his slave, whom Paul is sending back to him, and to welcome him not only as a forgiven slave but as a Christian brother.

1 From Paul, a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy—
To our friend and fellow worker Philemon, 2 and the church that meets in your house, and our sister Apphia, and our fellow-soldier Archippus:
3 May God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Philemon's Love and Faith

4 Brother Philemon, every time I pray, I mention you and give thanks to my God.
5 For I hear of your love for all God's people and the faith you have in the Lord Jesus. 6 My prayer is that our fellowship with you as believers will bring about a deeper understanding of every blessing which we have in our life in union with Christ. 7 Your love, dear brother, has brought me great joy and much encouragement! You have cheered the hearts of all God's people.

A Request for Onesimus

8 For this reason I could be bold enough, as your brother in Christ, to order you to do what should be done. 9 But because I love you, I make a request instead. I do this even though I am Paul, the ambassador of Christ Jesus, and at present also a prisoner for his sake [a] 10 So I make a request to you on behalf of Onesimus, who is my own son in Christ, for while in prison I have become his spiritual father 11 At one time he was of no use to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me

Welcome him back (17)

12 I am sending him back to you now, and with him goes my heart 13 I would like to keep him here with me, while I am in prison for the gospel's sake, so that he could help me in your place 14 However, I do not want to force you to help me, rather, I would like you to do it of your own free will So I will not do anything unless you agree

15 It may be that Onesimus was away from you for a short time so that you might have him back for all time 16 And now he is not just a slave, but much more than a slave he is a dear brother in Christ How much he means to me! And how much more he will mean to you, both as a slave and as a brother in the Lord!

17 So, if you think of me as your partner, welcome him back just as you would welcome me 18 If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to my account 19 Here, I will write this with my own hand I, Paul, will pay you back (I should not have to remind you, of course, that you owe your very self to me) 20 So, my brother, please do me this favour for the Lord's sake, as a brother in Christ, cheer me up!

21 I am sure, as I write this, that you will do what I ask—in fact I know that you will do even more 22 At the same time, get a room ready for me, because I hope that God will answer the prayers of all of you and give me back to you

23 Epaphras, who is in prison with me for the sake of Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings, 24 and so do my fellow-workers Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and
Luke

25 May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all

THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

INTRODUCTION

The Letter to the Hebrews was written to a group of Christians who, faced with increasing opposition, were in danger of abandoning the Christian faith. The writer encourages them in their faith primarily by showing that Jesus Christ is the true and final revelation of God. In doing this he emphasizes three truths: (1) Jesus is the eternal Son of God, who learnt true obedience to the Father through the suffering that he endured. As the Son of God, Jesus is superior to the prophets of the Old Testament, to the angels, and to Moses himself. (2) Jesus has been declared by God to be an eternal priest, superior to the priests of the Old Testament. (3) Through Jesus the believer is saved from sin, fear, and death, and Jesus, as High Priest, provides the true salvation, which was only foreshadowed by the rituals and animal sacrifices of the Hebrew religion.

By citing the example of the faith of some famous persons in Israel's history (chapter 11), the writer appeals to his readers to remain faithful, and in chapter 12 he urges his readers to continue faithful to the end, with eyes fixed on Jesus, and to endure whatever suffering and persecution may come to them. The book closes with words of advice and warning.

God's Word through His Son

1 In the past, God spoke to our ancestors many times and in many ways through the prophets, 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us through his Son. He is the one through whom God created the universe, the one whom God has chosen to possess all things at the end. 3 He reflects the brightness of God's glory and is the exact likeness of God's own being, sustaining the universe with his powerful word. After achieving forgiveness for the sins of mankind, he sat down in heaven at the right-hand side of God, the Supreme Power.

The Greatness of God's Son

4 The Son was made greater than the angels, just as the name that God gave him is greater than theirs 5 For God never said to any of his angels,

"You are my Son,
today I have become your Father"

Nor did God say about any angel,

"I will be his Father, and he will be my Son"

6 But when God was about to send his first-born Son into the world, he said,

"All God's angels must worship him"

7 But about the angels God said, "God makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire"

8 About the Son, however, God said "Your kingdom, O God, will last[a] for ever and ever!

You rule over your[b] people with justice 9 You love what is right and hate what is wrong
That is why God, your God, has chosen
you
and has given you the joy of an honour far greater than he gave to your companions"

10 He also said,

"You, Lord, in the beginning created
the earth,
and with your own hands you made the heavens 11 They will disappear, but you will remain,
they will all wear out like clothes 12 You will fold them up like a coat, and they will be changed like clothes But you are always the same,

13 God never said to any of his angels

"Sit here on my right until I put your enemies as a footstool under your feet" 14 What are the angels, then? They are spirits who serve God and are sent by him to help those who are to receive salvation

The Great Salvation

2 That is why we must hold on all the more firmly to the truths we have heard, so that we will not be carried away 2 The message given to our ancestors by the angels was shown to be true, and anyone who did not follow it or obey it received the punishment he deserved 3 How, then, shall we escape if we pay no attention to such a great salvation?
The Lord himself first announced this salvation, and those who heard him proved to us that it is true. 4 At the same time God added his witness to theirs by performing all kinds of miracles and wonders and by distributing the gifts of the Holy Spirit according to his will

The One Who Leads Us to Salvation

5 God has not placed the angels as rulers over the new world to come—the world of which we speak 6 Instead, as it is said somewhere in the Scriptures "What is man, O God, that you should think of him, mere man, that you should care for

him?
7 You made him for a little while lower than the angels, you crowned him with glory and honour,[c] 8 and made him ruler over all things"

It says that God made man "ruler over all things", this clearly includes everything We do not, however, see man ruling over all things now 9 But we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, so that through God's grace he should die for everyone We see him now crowned with glory and honour because of the death he suffered 10 It was only right that God, who creates and preserves all things, should make Jesus perfect through suffering, in order to bring many sons to share his glory For Jesus is the one who leads them to salvation 11 He purifies people from their sins, and both he and those who are made pure all have the same Father That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call them his brothers 12 He says to God,

"I will tell my brothers what you have
done,
I will praise you in their meeting" 13 He also says, "I will put my trust in God" And he also says, "Here I am with the children that God has given me" 14 Since the children, as he calls them, are people of flesh and blood, Jesus himself became like them and shared their human nature He did this so that through his death he might destroy the Devil, who has the power over death, 15 and in this way set free those who were slaves all

[a] Your kingdom O God, will last, or God is your kingdom [b] Your; some manuscripts have his [c] Many manuscripts add You made him ruler over everything you made (see Ps 8 6) their lives because of their fear of death.

16 For it is clear that it is not the angels that he helps. Instead, as the scripture says, "He helps the descendants of Abraham." 17 This means that he had to become like his brothers in every way, in order to be their faithful and merciful High Priest in his service to God, so that the people's sins would be forgiven. 18 And now he can help those who are tempted, because he himself was tempted and suffered.

Jesus Is Greater than Moses

3 My Christian brothers, who also have been called by God! Think of Jesus, whom God sent to be the High Priest of the faith we profess. 2 He was faithful to God, who chose him to do this work, just as Moses was faithful in his work in God's house. 3 A man who builds a house receives more honour than the house itself. In the same way Jesus is worthy of much greater honour than Moses.
4 Every house, of course, is built by someone—and God is the one who has built all things. 5 Moses was faithful in God's house as a servant, and he spoke of the things that God would say in the future. 6 But Christ is faithful as the Son in charge of God's house. We are his house if we keep up our courage and our confidence in what we hope for.

A Rest for God's People

7 So then, as the Holy Spirit says,
"If you hear God's voice today, 8 do not be stubborn, as your ancestors were when they rebelled against God,
as they were that day in the desert when they put him to the test.
9 There they put me to the test and tried me, says God,
although they had seen what I did
for forty years.
10 And so I was angry with those people and said,
'They are always disloyal and refuse to obey my commands.' 11 I was angry and made a solemn
promise:
'They will never enter the land where I would have given them rest!'" 12 My fellow-believers, be careful that no one among you has a heart so evil and unbelieving that he will turn away from the living God. 13 Instead, in order that none of you be deceived by sin and become stubborn, you must help one another every day, as long as the word "Today" in the scripture applies to us.
14 For we are all partners with Christ if we hold firmly to the end the confidence we had at the beginning.
15 This is what the scripture says:
"If you hear God's voice today, do not be stubborn, as your ancestors were when they rebelled against God." 16 Who were the people who heard God's voice and rebelled against him? All those who were led out of Egypt by Moses.
17 With whom was God angry for forty years? With the people who sinned, who fell down dead in the desert. 18 When God made his solemn promise, "They will never enter the land where I would have given them rest"—of whom was he speaking? Of those who rebelled. 19 We see, then, that they were not able to enter the land, because they did not believe.
4 Now, God has offered us the promise that we may receive that rest he spoke about. Let us take care, then, that none of you will be found to have failed to receive that promised rest. 2 For we have heard the Good News, just as they did. They heard the message, but it did them no good, because when they heard it, they did not accept it with faith. 3 We who believe, then, do receive that rest which God promised. It is just as he said, "I was angry and made a solemn
promise:
'They will never enter the land where
I would have given them rest!'" He said this even though his work had been finished from the time he created the world. 4 For somewhere in the Scriptures this is said about the seventh day:
"God rested on the seventh day from all his work." 5 This same matter is spoken of again: "They will never enter that land where I would have given them rest." 6 Those who first heard the Good News did not receive that rest, because they did not believe. There are, then, others who are allowed to receive it. 7 This is shown by the fact that God sets another day, which is called "Today." Many years later he spoke of it through David in the scripture already quoted:
"If you hear God's voice today, do not be stubborn." 8 If Joshua had given the people the rest that God had promised, God would not have spoken later about another day 9 As it is, however, there still remains for God's people a rest like God's resting on the seventh day 10 For whoever receives that rest which God promised will rest from his own work, just as God rested from his 11 Let us, then, do our best to receive that rest, so that no one of us will fail as they did because of their lack of faith

12 The word of God is alive and active, sharper than any double-edged sword It cuts all the way through, to where soul and spirit meet, to where joints and marrow come together It judges the desires and thoughts of man's heart 13 There is nothing that can be hidden from God, everything in all creation is exposed and lies open before his eyes And it is to him that we must all give an account of ourselves

Jesus the Great High Priest

14 Let us, then, hold firmly to the faith we profess For we have a great High Priest who has gone into the very presence of God—Jesus, the Son of God 15 Our High Priest is not one who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses On the contrary, we have a High Priest who was tempted in every way that we are, but did not sin 16 Let us be brave, then, and approach God's throne, where there is grace There we will receive mercy and find grace to help us just when we need
it

5 Every high priest is chosen from his fellow-men and appointed to serve God on their behalf, to offer sacrifices and offerings for sins 2 Since he himself is weak in many ways, he is able to be gentle with those who are ignorant and make mistakes 3 And because he is himself weak, he must offer sacrifices not only for the sins of the people but also for his own sins 4 No one chooses for himself the honour of being a high priest It is only by God's call that a man is made a high priest—just as Aaron was 5 In the same way, Christ did not take upon himself the honour of being a high priest Instead, God said to him,

"You are my Son,
today I have become your Father"

6 He also said in another place,

"You will be a priest for ever,
in the line of succession to Melchizedek"

7 In his life on earth Jesus made his prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to God, who could save him from death Because he was humble and devoted, God heard him 8 But even though he was God's Son, he learnt through his sufferings to be obedient 9 When he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey him, 10 and God declared him to be high priest, in the line of succession to Melchizedek

Warning against Abandoning the Faith

11 There is much we have to say about this matter, but it is hard to explain to you, because you are so slow to understand 12 There has been enough time for you to be teachers—yet you still need someone to teach you the first lessons of God's message. Instead of eating solid food, you still have to drink milk 13 Anyone who has to drink milk is still a child, without any experience in the matter of right and wrong 14 Solid food, on the other hand, is for adults, who through practice are able to distinguish between good and evil

6 Let us go forward, then, to mature teaching and leave behind us the first lessons of the Christian message We should not lay again the foundation of turning away from useless works and believing in God, 2 of the teaching about baptisms[d] and the laying on of hands, of the resurrection of the dead and the eternal judgement 3 Let us go forward!
And this is what we will do, if God allows 4 For how can those who abandon their faith be brought back to repent again?

They were once in God's light, they tasted heaven's gift and received their share of the Holy Spirit, 5 they knew from experience that God's word is good, and they had felt the powers of the coming age 6 And then they abandoned their faith! It is impossible to bring them back to repent again, because they are again crucifying the Son of God and exposing him to public shame

7 God blesses the soil which drinks in the rain that often falls on it and which grows plants that are useful to those for whom it is cultivated 8 But if it grows thorns and weeds, it is worth nothing, [d]baptisms, or purification ceremonies

4 10 Gen 2 2 5 3 Lev 9 7 5 4 Ex 28 1 5 5 Ps 2 7 5 6 Ps 110 4 it is in danger of being cursed by God and will be destroyed by fire 9 But even if we speak like this, dear friends, we feel sure about you We know that you have the better blessings that belong to your salvation 10 God is not unfair He will not forget the work you did or the love you showed for him in the help you gave and are still giving to your fellow-Christians 11 Our great desire is that each one of you keep up his eagerness to the end, so that the things you hope for will come true 12 We do not want you to become lazy, but to be like those who believe and are patient, and so receive what God has promised

God's Sure Promise

13 When God made his promise to Abraham, he made a vow to do what he had promised Since there was no one greater than himself, he used his own name when he made his vow 14 He said, "I promise you that I will bless you and give you many descendants" 15 Abraham was patient, and so he received what God had promised 16 When a person makes a vow, he uses the name of someone greater than himself, and the vow settles all arguments 17 To those who were to receive what he promised, God wanted to make it very clear that he would never change his purpose, so he added his vow to the promise 18 There are these two things, then, that cannot change and about which God cannot lie So we who have found safety with him are greatly encouraged to hold firmly to the hope placed before us 19 We have this hope as an anchor for our lives It is safe and sure, and goes through the curtain of the heavenly temple into the inner sanctuary 20 On our behalf Jesus has gone in there before us, and has become a high priest for ever, in the line of succession to Melchizedek

The Priest Melchizedek

7 This Melchizedek was king of Salem and a priest of the Most High God As Abraham was coming back from the battle in which he defeated the four kings, Melchizedek met him and blessed him, 2 and Abraham gave him a tenth of all he had taken (The first meaning of Melchizedek's name is "King of Righteousness", and because he was king of Salem, his name also means "King of Peace") 3 There is no record of Melchizedek's father or mother or of any of his ancestors, no record of his birth or of his death He is like the Son of God, he remains a priest for ever 4 You see, then, how great he was Abraham, our famous ancestor, gave him a tenth of all he got in the battle 5 And those descendants of Levi who are priests are commanded by the Law to collect a tenth from the people of Israel, that is, from their own countrymen, even though their countrymen are also descendants of Abraham 6 Melchizedek was not descended from Levi, but he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him, the man who received God's promises 7 There is no doubt that the one who blesses is greater than the one who is blessed 8 In the case of the priests the tenth is collected by men who die, but as for Melchizedek the tenth was collected by one who lives, as the scripture says 9 And, so to speak, when Abraham paid the tenth, Levi (whose descendants collect the tenth) also paid it 10 For Levi had not yet been born, but was, so to speak, in the body of his ancestor Abraham when Melchizedek met him 11 It was on the basis of the levitical priesthood that the Law was given to the people of Israel Now, if the work of the levitical priests had been perfect, there would have been no need for a different kind of priest to appear, one who is the successor of Melchizedek, not of Aaron 12 For when the priesthood is changed, there also has to be a change in the law 13 And our Lord, of whom these things are said, belonged to a different tribe, and no member of his tribe ever served as a priest 14 It is well known that he was born a member of the tribe of Judah, and Moses did not mention this tribe when he spoke of priests

Another Priest, like Melchizedek

15 The matter becomes even plainer, a different priest has appeared, who is like Melchizedek 16 He was made a priest, not by human rules and regulations, but through the power of a life which has no end 17 For the scripture says, "You will be a priest for ever, in the line of succession to Melchizedek" 18 The old rule, then, is set aside, because it was weak and useless 19 For the Law of Moses could not make anything perfect And 7 5 Num 18 21 7 17 Ps 110 4 now a better hope has been provided through which we come near to God 20 In addition, there is also God's vow There was no such vow when the others were made priests 21 But Jesus became a priest by means of a vow when God said to him,

"The Lord has made a vow and will not change his mind

22 This difference, then, also makes Jesus the guarantee of a better covenant 23 There is another difference there were many of those other priests, because they died and could not continue their work. 24 But Jesus lives on for ever, and his work as priest does not pass on to someone else 25 And so he is able, now and always, to save those who come to God through him, because he lives for ever to plead with God for them 26 Jesus, then, is the High Priest that meets our needs He is holy, he has no fault or sin in him, he has been set apart from sinners and raised above the heavens 27 He is not like other high priests; he does not need to offer sacrifices every day for his own sins first and then for the sins of the people He offered one sacrifice, once and for all, when he offered himself 28 The Law of Moses appoints men who are imperfect to be high priests, but God's promise made with the vow, which came later than the Law, appoints the Son, who has been made perfect for ever

Jesus Our High Priest

8 The whole point of what we are saying is that we have such a High Priest, who sits at the right of the throne of the Divine Majesty in heaven 2 He serves as High Priest in the Most Holy Place, that is, in the real tent which was put up by the Lord, not by man 3 Every High Priest is appointed to present offerings and animal sacrifices to God, and so our High Priest must also have something to offer 4 If he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer the gifts required by the Jewish Law 5 The work they do as priests is really only a copy and a shadow of what is in heaven It is the same as it was with Moses When he was about to build the Tent, God said to him, "Be sure to make everything according to the pattern you were shown on the mountain" 6 But now, Jesus has been given priestly work which is superior to theirs, just as the covenant which he arranged between God and his people is a better one, because it is based on promises of better things 7 If there had been nothing wrong with the first covenant, there would have been no need for a second one 8 But God finds fault with his people when he says,

"The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will draw up a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah 9 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt They were not faithful to the covenant I made with them, and so I paid no attention to them 10 Now, this is the covenant that I will make with the people of Israel in the days to come, says the Lord I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts I will be their God,
and they will be my people 11 None of them will have to teach his fellow-citizen or say to his fellow countryman, 'Know the Lord'
For they will all know me, from the least to the greatest 12 I will forgive their sins and will no longer remember their wrongs"

13 By speaking of a new covenant, God has made the first one old, and anything that becomes old and worn out will soon disappear

Earthly and Heavenly Worship

9 The first covenant had rules for worship and a man-made place for worship as well 2 A Tent was put up, the outer one, which was called the Holy Place In it were the lampstand and the table with the bread offered to God 3 Behind the second curtain was the Tent called the Most Holy Place 4 In it were the gold altar for the burning of incense and the Covenant Box all covered with gold and containing the gold jar with the manna in it, Aaron's stick that had sprouted leaves, and the two stone tablets

7 21 Ps 110 4 7.27 Lev 9 7 8 1 Ps 110 1 8 5 Ex 25 40 8 8-12 Jer 31 31-34 9.2 Ex 26 1-30, 25 31-40, 23-30 9 3 Ex 26 31-33 9 4 Ex 30 1-6, 25 10-16, 16 33, Num 17 8-10, Ex 25 16, Deut 10 3-5 with the commandments written on them. 5 Above the Box were the winged creatures representing God's presence, with their wings spread over the place where sins were forgiven. But now is not the time to explain everything in detail.

6 This is how those things have been arranged. The priests go into the outer Tent every day to perform their duties, 7 but only the High Priest goes into the inner Tent, and he does so only once a year. He takes with him blood which he offers to God on behalf of himself and for the sins which the people have committed without knowing they were sinning. 8 The Holy Spirit clearly teaches from all these arrangements that the way into the Most Holy Place has not yet been opened as long as the outer Tent still stands. 9 This is an illustration which points to the present time. It means that the offerings and animal sacrifices presented to God cannot make the worshipper's heart perfect, 10 since they have to do only with food, drink, and various purification ceremonies. These are all outward rules, which apply only until the time when God will establish the new order.

11 But Christ has already come as the High Priest of the good things that are already here.[e] The tent in which he serves is greater and more perfect; it is not a man-made tent, that is, it is not a part of this created world. 12 When Christ went through the tent and entered once and for all into the Most Holy Place, he did not take the blood of goats and bulls to offer as a sacrifice; rather, he took his own blood and obtained eternal salvation for us. 13 The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a burnt calf are sprinkled on the people who are ritually unclean, and this purifies them by taking away their ritual impurity. 14 Since this is true, how much more is accomplished by the blood of Christ! Through the eternal Spirit he offered himself as a perfect sacrifice to God. His blood will purify our consciences from useless rituals, so that we may serve the living God.

15 For this reason Christ is the one who arranges a new covenant, so that those who have been called by God may receive the eternal blessings that God has promised. This can be done because there has been a death which sets people free from the wrongs they did while the first covenant was in force.

16 In the case of a will it is necessary to prove that the person who made it has died, 17 for a will means nothing while the person who made it is alive; it comes into effect only after his death. 18 That is why even the first covenant[f] came into effect only with the use of blood. 19 First, Moses proclaimed to the people all the commandments as set forth in the Law. Then he took the blood of bulls and goats, mixed it with water, and sprinkled it on the book of the Law and all the people, using a sprig of hyssop and some red wool. 20 He said, "This is the blood which seals the covenant that God has commanded you to obey." 21 In the same way Moses also sprinkled the blood on the Tent and over all the things used in worship. 22 Indeed, according to the Law almost everything is purified by blood, and sins are forgiven only if blood is poured out.

Christ's Sacrifice Takes Away Sins

23 Those things, which are copies of the heavenly originals, had to be purified in that way. But the heavenly things themselves require much better sacrifices. 24 For Christ did not go into a man-made Holy Place, which was a copy of the real one. He went into heaven itself, where he now appears on our behalf in the presence of God. 25 The Jewish High Priest goes into the Most Holy Place every year with the blood of an animal. But Christ did not go in to offer himself many times, 26 for then he would have had to suffer many times ever since the creation of the world. Instead, now when all ages of time are nearing the end, he has appeared once and for all, to remove sin through the sacrifice of himself. 27 Everyone must die once, and after that be judged by God. 28 In the same manner Christ also was offered in sacrifice once to take away the sins of many. He will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are waiting for him.

10 The Jewish Law is not a full and faithful model of the real things; it is only a faint outline of the good things to come. The same sacrifices are offered for ever, year after year. How can the Law, then, by means of these sacrifices [e] already here; some manuscripts have coming.

[f] COVENANT: In Greek the same word means "will" and "covenant."

9.5 Ex 25.18–22 9.6 Num 18.2–6 9.7 Lev 16.2–34 9.13 Lev 16.15–16; Num 19.9,17–19 make perfect the people who come to God? [2]If the people worshipping God had really been purified from their sins, they would not feel guilty of sin any more, and all sacrifices would stop [3]As it is, however, the sacrifices serve year after year to remind people of their sins [4]For the blood of bulls and goats can never take away sins 5 For this reason, when Christ was about to come into the world, he said to God·

"You do not want sacrifices and
offerings,
but you have prepared a body for me [6]You are not pleased with animals burnt whole on the altar or with sacrifices to take away sins [7]Then I said, 'Here I am, to do your will, O God, just as it is written of me in the book of the Law'" [8]First he said, "You neither want nor are you pleased with sacrifices and offerings or with animals burnt on the altar and the sacrifices to take away sins" He said this even though all these sacrifices are offered according to the Law [9]Then he said, "Here I am, O God, to do your will" So God does away with all the old sacrifices and puts the sacrifice of Christ in their place [10]Because Jesus Christ did what God wanted him to do, we are all purified from sin by the offering that he made of his own body once and for all 11 Every Jewish priest performs his services every day and offers the same sacrifices many times; but these sacrifices can never take away sins [12]Christ, however, offered one sacrifice for sins, an offering that is effective for ever, and then he sat down at the right-hand side of God [13]There he now waits until God puts his enemies as a footstool under his feet [14]With one sacrifice, then, he has made perfect for ever those who are purified from sin 15 And the Holy Spirit also gives us his witness First he says, [16]"This is the covenant that I will make with them
in the days to come, says the Lord I will put my laws in their hearts and write them on their minds" [17]And then he says, "I will not remember their sins and evil deeds any longer" [18]So when these have been forgiven, an offering to take away sins is no longer needed

Let Us Come Near to God

19 We have, then, my brothers, complete freedom to go into the Most Holy Place by means of the death of Jesus [20]He opened for us a new way, a living way, through the curtain—that is, through his own body [21]We have a great priest in charge of the house of God [22]So let us come near to God with a sincere heart and a sure faith, with hearts that have been purified from a guilty conscience and with bodies washed with clean water [23]Let us hold on firmly to the hope we profess, because we can trust God to keep his promise [24]Let us be concerned for one another, to help one another to show love and to do good [25]Let us not give up the habit of meeting together, as some are doing Instead, let us encourage one another all the more, since you see that the Day of the Lord is coming nearer 26 For there is no longer any sacrifice that will take away sins if we purposely go on sinning after the truth has been made known to us [27]Instead, all that is left is to wait in fear for the coming Judgement and the fierce fire which will destroy those who oppose God! [28]Anyone who disobeys the Law of Moses is put to death without any mercy when judged guilty on the evidence of two or more witnesses [29]What, then, of the person who despises the Son of God? who treats as a cheap thing the blood of God's covenant which purified him from sin? who insults the Spirit of grace? Just think how much worse is the punishment he will deserve! [30]For we know who said, "I will take revenge, I will repay", and who also said, "The Lord will judge his people" [31]It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God!
32 Remember how it was with you in the past In those days, after God's light had shone on you, you suffered many things, yet were not defeated by the struggle [33]You were at times publicly insulted and ill-treated, and at other times you were ready to join those who were being treated in this way [34]You shared the sufferings of prisoners, and when all your belongings were seized, you endured your loss gladly, because you knew that you still possessed something much better, which would last for ever 35 Do not lose your courage, then, because it brings with it a great reward 36 You need to be patient, in order to do the will of God and receive what he promises 37 For, as the scripture says,

"Just a little while longer, and he who is coming will come, he will not delay 38 My righteous people, however, will believe and live, but if any of them turns back, I will not be pleased with him" 39 We are not people who turn back and are lost Instead, we have faith and are saved

11 To have faith is to be sure of the things we hope for, to be certain of the things we cannot see 2 It was by their faith that people of ancient times won God's approval 3 It is by faith that we understand that the universe was created by God's word, so that what can be seen was made out of what cannot be seen 4 It was faith that made Abel offer to God a better sacrifice than Cain's Through his faith he won God's approval as a righteous man, because God himself approved of his gifts By means of his faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead 5 It was faith that kept Enoch from dying Instead, he was taken up to God, and nobody could find him, because God had taken him up The scripture says that before Enoch was taken up, he had pleased God 6 No one can please God without faith, for whoever comes to God must have faith that God exists and rewards those who seek him 7 It was faith that made Noah hear God's warnings about things in the future that he could not see He obeyed God and built a boat in which he and his family were saved As a result, the world was condemned, and Noah received from God the righteousness that comes by faith 8 It was faith that made Abraham obey when God called him to go out to a country which God had promised to give him He left his own country without knowing where he was going 9 By faith he lived as a foreigner in the country that God had promised him He lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who received the same promise from God 10 For Abraham was waiting for the city which God has 10 37-38 Hab 2 3-4 11 3 Gen 1 1 Ps 33 6,9 Jn 1 3 11 4 Gen 4 3-10 11 5 Gen 5 21-24 11 7 Gen 6 13-22 11 8 Gen 12 1-5 11 9 Gen 35 27 designed and built, the city with permanent foundations 11 It was faith that made Abraham able to become a father, even though he was too old and Sarah herself could not have children He[g] trusted God to keep his promise [12]Though Abraham was practically dead, from this one man came as many descendants as there are stars in the sky, as many as the numberless grains of sand on the sea-shore

13 It was in faith that all these persons died They did not receive the things God had promised, but from a long way off they saw them and welcomed them, and admitted openly that they were foreigners and refugees on earth [14]Those who say such things make it clear that they are looking for a country of their own [15]They did not keep thinking about the country they had left, if they had, they would have had the chance to return [16]Instead, it was a better country they longed for, the heavenly country And so God is not ashamed for them to call him their God, because he has prepared a city for them

17 It was faith that made Abraham offer his son Isaac as a sacrifice when God put Abraham to the test Abraham was the one to whom God had made the promise, yet he was ready to offer his only son as a sacrifice [18]God had said to him, "It is through Isaac that you will have the descendants I promised " [19]Abraham reckoned that God was able to raise Isaac from death—and, so to speak, Abraham did receive Isaac back from death

20 It was faith that made Isaac promise blessings for the future to Jacob and Esau 21 It was faith that made Jacob bless each of the sons of Joseph just before he died He leaned on the top of his walking-stick and worshipped God 22 It was faith that made Joseph, when he was about to die, speak of the departure of the Israelites from Egypt, and leave instructions about what should be done with his body

23 It was faith that made the parents of Moses hide him for three months after he was born They saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid to disobey the king's order 24 It was faith that made Moses, when he had grown up, refuse to be called the son of the king's daughter [25]He preferred to suffer with God's people rather than to enjoy sin for a little while [26]He reckoned that to suffer scorn for the Messiah was worth far more than all the treasures of Egypt, for he kept his eyes on the future reward

27 It was faith that made Moses leave Egypt without being afraid of the king's anger As though he saw the invisible God, he refused to turn back [28]It was faith that made him establish the Passover and order the blood to be sprinkled on the doors, so that the Angel of Death would not kill the first-born sons of the Israelites 29 It was faith that made the Israelites able to cross the Red Sea as if on dry land, when the Egyptians tried to do it, the water swallowed them up 30 It was faith that made the walls of Jericho fall down after the Israelites had marched round them for seven days [31]It was faith that kept the prostitute Rahab from being killed with those who disobeyed God, for she gave the Israelite spies a friendly welcome

32 Should I go on? There isn't enough time for me to speak of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets [33]Through faith they fought whole countries and won They did what was right and received what God had promised They shut the mouths of lions, [34]put out fierce fires, escaped being killed by the sword They were weak, but became strong, they were mighty in battle and defeated the armies of foreigners [35]Through faith women received their dead relatives raised back to life

Others, refusing to accept freedom, died under torture in order to be raised to a better life [36]Some were mocked and whipped, and others were put in chains and taken off to prison [37]They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword They went round

[g]It was faith children He, some manuscripts have It was faith that made Sarah herself able to conceive, even though she was too old to have children She clothed in skins of sheep or goats—poor, persecuted, and ill-treated 38 The world was not good enough for them! They wandered like refugees in the deserts and hills, living in caves and holes in the

39 What a record all of these have won by their faith! Yet they did not receive what God had promised, 40 because God had decided on an even better plan for us His purpose was that only in company with us would they be made perfect

God Our Father

12 As for us, we have this large crowd of witnesses round us So then, let us rid ourselves of everything that gets in the way, and of the sin which holds on to us so tightly, and let us run with determination the race that lies before us 2 Let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, on whom our faith depends from beginning to end He did not give up because of the cross! On the contrary, because of the joy that was waiting for him, he thought nothing of the disgrace of dying on the cross, and he is now seated at the right-hand side of God's throne 3 Think of what he went through, how he put up with so much hatred from sinners! So do not let yourselves become discouraged and give up 4 For in your struggle against sin you have not yet had to resist to the point of being killed 5 Have you forgotten the encouraging words which God speaks to you as his sons?

"My son, pay attention when the Lord corrects you, and do not be discouraged when he rebukes you 6 Because the Lord corrects everyone he loves,
and punishes everyone he accepts as a son"

7 Endure what you suffer as being a father's punishment, your suffering shows that God is treating you as his sons Was there ever a son who was not punished by his father? 8 If you are not punished, as all his sons are, it means you are not real sons, but bastards 9 In the case of our human fathers, they punished us and we respected them How much more, then, should we submit to our spiritual Father and live! 10 Our human fathers punished us for a short time, as it seemed right to them, but God does it for our own good, so that we may share his holiness 11 When we are punished, it seems to us at the time something to make us sad, not glad Later, however, those who have been disciplined by such punishment reap the peaceful reward of a righteous life

Instructions and Warnings

12 Lift up your tired hands, then, and strengthen your trembling knees! 13 Keep walking on straight paths, so that the lame foot may not be disabled, but instead be healed
14 Try to be at peace with everyone, and try to live a holy life, because no one will see the Lord without it 15 Guard against turning back from the grace of God Let no one become like a bitter plant that grows up and causes many troubles with its poison 16 Let no one become immoral or unspiritual like Esau, who for a single meal sold his rights as the elder son 17 Afterwards, you know, he wanted to receive his father's blessing, but he was turned away, because he could not find any way to change what he had done, even though in tears he looked for it [h] 18 You have not come, as the people of Israel came, to what you can feel, to Mount Sinai with its blazing fire, the darkness and the gloom, the storm, 19 the blast of a trumpet, and the sound of a voice When the people heard the voice, they begged not to hear another word, 20 because they could not bear the order which said, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death" 21 The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, "I am trembling and afraid!" 22 Instead, you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, with its thousands of angels 23 You have come to the joyful gathering of God's first-born sons, whose names are written in heaven You have come to God, who is the judge of all mankind, and to the spirits of good people made perfect 24 You have come to Jesus, who arranged the new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that promises much better things than does the blood of Abel

25 Be careful, then, and do not refuse to hear him who speaks Those who refused to hear the one who gave the divine message on earth did not escape How much less shall we escape, then, if we turn away from the one who speaks from heaven! 26 His voice shook the earth at that time, but now he has promised, "I will once more shake not only the earth but heaven as well" 27 The words "once more" plainly show that the created things will be shaken and removed, so that the things that cannot be shaken will remain.

28 Let us be thankful, then, because we receive a kingdom that cannot be shaken Let us be grateful and worship God in a way that will please him, with reverence and awe, 29 because our God is indeed a destroying fire

How to Please God

13 Keep on loving one another as Christian brothers 2 Remember to welcome strangers in your homes There were some who did that and welcomed angels without knowing it 3 Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them Remember those who are suffering, as though you were suffering as they are 4 Marriage is to be honoured by all, and husbands and wives must be faithful to each other God will judge those who are immoral and those who commit adultery

5 Keep your lives free from the love

Keep your lives free from the love of money (13 5)

of money, and be satisfied with what you have For God has said, "I will never leave you, I will never abandon you" 6 Let us be bold, then, and say,

"The Lord is my helper, I will not be afraid
What can anyone do to me?"

7 Remember your former leaders, who spoke God's message to you Think back on how they lived and died, and imitate their faith 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and for ever 9 Do not let all kinds of strange teachings lead you from the right way It is good to receive inner strength from God's grace, and not by obeying rules about foods, those who obey these rules have not been helped by them

10 The priests who serve in the Jewish place of worship have no right to eat any of the sacrifice on our altar 11 The Jewish High Priest brings the blood of the animals into the Most Holy Place to offer it as a sacrifice for sins, but the bodies of the animals are burnt outside the camp 12 For this reason Jesus also died outside the city, in order to purify the people from sin with his own blood 13 Let us, then, go to him outside the camp and share his shame 14 For there is no permanent city for us here on earth, we are looking for the city which is to come 15 Let us, then, always offer praise to God as our sacrifice through Jesus, which is the offering presented by lips that confess him as Lord 16 Do not forget to do good and to help one another, because these are the sacrifices that please God 17 Obey your leaders and follow their orders They watch over your souls without resting, since they must give God an account of their service If you obey them, they will do their work gladly, if not, they will do it with sadness, and that would be of no help to you 18 Keep on praying for us We are sure we have a clear conscience, because we want to do the right thing at all times 19 And I beg you even more earnestly to pray that God will send me back to you soon

Closing Prayer

20-21 God has raised from death our Lord Jesus, who is the Great Shepherd of the sheep as the result of his sacrificial death, by which the eternal covenant is sealed May the God of peace provide you with every good thing you need in order to do his will, and may he, through Jesus Christ, do in us what pleases him And to Christ be the glory for ever and ever!
Amen

Final Words

22 I beg you, my brothers, to listen patiently to this message of encouragement, for this letter I have written to you is not very long [23]I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been let out of prison If he comes soon enough, I will have him with me when I see you 24 Give our greetings to all your leaders and to all God's people The brothers from Italy send you their greetings 25 May God's grace be with you all

THE LETTER OF

JAMES

INTRODUCTION

The Letter from James is a collection of practical instructions, written to "all God's people scattered over the whole world" The writer uses many vivid figures of speech to present instructions regarding practical wisdom and guidance for Christian attitudes and conduct From the Christian perspective he deals with a variety of topics such as riches and poverty, temptation, good conduct, prejudice, faith and actions, the use of the tongue, wisdom, quarrelling, pride and humility, judging others, boasting, patience, and prayer

The letter emphasizes the importance of actions along with faith, in the practice of the Christian religion

1 From James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ Greetings to all God's people scattered over the whole world

Faith and Wisdom

2 My brothers, consider yourselves fortunate when all kinds of trials come your way, [3]for you know that when your faith succeeds in facing such trials, the result is the ability to endure [4]Make sure that your endurance carries you all the way without failing, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing [5]But if any

1 1 Mt 13 55, Mk 6 3, Acts 15 13, Gal 1 19 of you lacks wisdom, he should pray to God, who will give it to him, because God gives generously and graciously to all. 6 But when you pray, you must believe and not doubt at all. Whoever doubts is like a wave in the sea that is driven and blown about by the wind. 7-8 A person like that, unable to make up his mind and undecided in all he does, must not think that he will receive anything from

the Lord.

Poverty and Riches

9 The Christian who is poor must be glad when God lifts him up, 10 and the rich Christian must be glad when God brings him down. For the rich will pass away like the flower of a wild plant. 11 The sun rises with its blazing heat and burns the plant; its flower falls off, and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way the rich man will be destroyed while he goes about his business.

Testing and Tempting

12 Happy is the person who remains faithful under trials, because when he succeeds in passing such a test, he will receive as his reward the life which God has promised to those who love him. 13 If a person is tempted by such trials, he must not say, "This temptation comes from God." For God cannot be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.
14 But a person is tempted when he is drawn away and trapped by his own evil desire; 15 Then his evil desire conceives and gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.
16 Do not be deceived, my dear brothers! 17 Every good gift and every perfect present comes from heaven; it comes down from God, the Creator of the heavenly lights, who does not change or cause darkness by turning. 18 By his own will he brought us into being through the word of truth, so that we should have first place among all his creatures.

Hearing and Doing

19 Remember this, my dear brothers!
Everyone must be quick to listen, but slow to speak and slow to become angry.
20 Man's anger does not achieve God's righteous purpose. 21 So get rid of every filthy habit and all wicked conduct.
Submit to God and accept the word that he plants in your hearts, which is able to save you.
22 Do not deceive yourselves by just listening to his word; instead, put it into practice. 23 Whoever listens to the word but does not put it into practice is like a man who looks in a mirror and sees himself as he is. 24 He takes a good look at himself and then goes away and at once forgets what he looks like. 25 But whoever looks closely into the perfect law that sets people free, who keeps on paying attention to it and does not simply listen and then forget it, but puts it into practice—that person will be blessed by God in what he does.
26 Does anyone think he is religious?
If he does not control his tongue, his religion is worthless and he deceives himself. 27 What God the Father considers to be pure and genuine religion is this:
to take care of orphans and widows in their suffering and to keep oneself from being corrupted by the world.

Warning against Prejudice

2 My brothers, as believers in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, you must never treat people in different ways according to their outward appearance.
2 Suppose a rich man wearing a gold ring and fine clothes comes to your meeting, and a poor man in ragged clothes also comes. 3 If you show more respect to the well-dressed man and say to him, "Have this best seat here," but say to the poor man, "Stand over there, or sit here on the floor by my feet," 4 then you are guilty of creating distinctions among yourselves and of making judgements based on evil motives.
5 Listen, my dear brothers! God chose the poor people of this world to be rich in faith and to possess the kingdom which he promised to those who love him. 6 But you dishonour the poor! Who are the ones who oppress you and drag you before the judges? The rich! 7 They are the ones who speak evil of that good name which has been given to you.
8 You will be doing the right thing if you obey the law of the Kingdom, which is found in the scripture, "Love your neighbour as you love yourself." 9 But if you treat people according to their outward appearance, you are guilty of sin, and the Law condemns you as a law-breaker. 10 Whoever breaks one commandment is guilty of breaking them all. 11 For the same one who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not commit

1 10-11 Is 40 6-7 2 8 Lev 19 18 2 11 Ex 20 13,14; Deut 5 17,18 murder" Even if you do not commit adultery, you have become a law-breaker if you commit murder 12 Speak and act as people who will be judged by the law that sets us free 13 For God will not show mercy when he judges the person who has not been merciful, but mercy triumphs over judgement

Faith and Actions

14 My brothers, what good is it for someone to say that he has faith if his actions do not prove it? Can that faith save him? 15 Suppose there are brothers or sisters who need clothes and don't have enough to eat 16 What good is there in your saying to them, "God bless you!
Keep warm and eat well!"—if you don't give them the necessities of life? 17 So it is with faith if it is alone and includes no actions, then it is dead 18 But someone will say, "One person has faith, another has actions" My answer is, "Show me how anyone can have faith without actions I will show you my faith by my actions" 19 Do you believe that there is only one God? Good!
The demons also believe—and tremble with fear 20 You fool! Do you want to be shown that faith without actions is useless?[a] 21 How was our ancestor Abraham put right with God? It was through his actions, when he offered his son Isaac on the altar 22 Can't you see? His faith and his actions worked together, his faith was made perfect through his actions 23 And the scripture came true that said,
"Abraham believed God, and because of his faith God accepted him as righteous"
And so Abraham was called God's friend 24 You see, then, that it is by his actions that a person is put right with God, and not by his faith alone 25 It was the same with the prostitute Rahab She was put right with God through her actions, by welcoming the Israelite spies and helping them to escape by a different road 26 So then, as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without actions is dead

The Tongue

3 My brothers, not many of you should become teachers As you know, we teachers will be judged with greater strictness than others 2 All of us often make mistakes But if a person never makes a mistake in what he says, he is perfect and is also able to control his whole being 3 We put a bit into the mouth of a horse to make it obey us, and we are able to make it go where we want.
4 Or think of a ship big as it is and driven by such strong winds, it can be steered by a very small rudder, and it goes wherever the pilot wants it to go 5 So it is with the tongue small as it is, it can boast about great things Just think how large a forest can be set on fire by a tiny flame! 6 And the tongue is like a fire It is a world of wrong, occupying its place in our bodies and spreading evil through our whole being It sets on fire the entire course of our existence with the fire that comes to it from hell itself 7 Man is able to tame and has tamed all other creatures—wild animals and birds, reptiles and fish 8 But no one has ever been able to tame the tongue It is evil and uncontrollable, full of deadly poison 9 We use it to give thanks to our Lord and Father and also to curse our fellow-man, who is created in the likeness of God 10 Words of thanksgiving and cursing pour out from the same mouth My brothers, this should not happen!
11 No spring of water pours out sweet water and bitter water from the same opening 12 A fig-tree, my brothers, cannot bear olives, a grapevine cannot bear figs, nor can a salty spring produce sweet water

The Wisdom from Above

13 Is there anyone among you who is wise and understanding? He is to prove it by his good life, by his good deeds performed with humility and wisdom 14 But if in your heart you are jealous, bitter, and selfish, don't sin against the truth by boasting of your wisdom 15 Such wisdom does not come down from heaven, it belongs to the world, it is unspiritual and demonic 16 Where there is jealousy and selfishness, there is also disorder and every kind of evil 17 But the wisdom from above is pure first of all, it is also peaceful, gentle, and friendly, it is full of compassion and produces a harvest of good deeds, it is free from prejudice and hypocrisy 18 And goodness is the harvest that is produced from the seeds the peacemakers plant in peace

[a] useless, some manuscripts have dead

Friendship with the World

4 Where do all the fights and quarrels among you come from? They come from your desires for pleasure, which are constantly fighting within you 2 You want things, but you cannot have them, so you are ready to kill, you strongly desire things, but you cannot get them, so you quarrel and fight You do not have what you want because you do not ask God for it 3 And when you ask, you do not receive it, because your motives are bad, you ask for things to use for your own pleasures 4 Unfaithful people! Don't you know that to be the world's friend means to be God's enemy? Whoever wants to be the world's friend makes himself God's enemy 5 Don't think that there is no truth in the scripture that says, "The spirit that God placed in us is filled with fierce desires "[b] 6 But the grace that God gives is even stronger As the scripture says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble " 7 So then, submit to God Resist the Devil, and he will run away from you 8 Come near to God, and he will come near to you Wash your hands, you sinners! Purify your hearts, you hypocrites! 9 Be sorrowful, cry, and weep, change your laughter into crying, your joy into gloom! 10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up

Warning against Judging a Christian Brother

11 Do not criticize one another, my brothers Whoever criticizes a Christian brother or judges him, criticizes the Law and judges it If you judge the Law, then you are no longer one who obeys the Law, but one who judges it 12 God is the only lawgiver and judge He alone can save and destroy Who do you think you are, to judge your fellow-man?

Warning against Boasting 13 Now listen to me, you that say, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to a certain city, where we will stay a year and go into business and make a lot of money " 14 You don't even know what your life tomorrow will be! You are like a puff of smoke, which appears for a moment and then disappears 15 What you should say is this "If the Lord is willing, we will live and do this or that " 16 But now you are proud, and you boast, all such boasting is wrong 17 So then, the person who does not do the good he knows he should do is guilty of sin

Warning to the Rich

5 And now, you rich people, listen to me! Weep and wail over the miseries that are coming upon you! 2 Your riches have rotted away, and your clothes have been eaten by moths 3 Your gold and silver are covered with rust, and this rust will be a witness against you and will eat up your flesh like fire You have piled up riches in these last days 4 You have not paid any wages to the men who work in your fields Listen to their complaints!
The cries of those who gather in your crops have reached the ears of God, the Lord Almighty 5 Your life here on earth has been full of luxury and pleasure You have made yourselves fat for the day of slaughter 6 You have condemned and murdered innocent people, and they do not resist you [c]

Patience and Prayer

7 Be patient, then, my brothers, until the Lord comes See how patient a farmer is as he waits for his land to produce precious crops He waits patiently for the autumn and spring rains 8 You also must be patient Keep your hopes high, for the day of the Lord's coming is near 9 Do not complain against one another, my brothers, so that God will not judge you The Judge is near, ready to appear 10 My brothers, remember the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord Take them as examples of patient endurance under suffering 11 We call them happy because they endured You have heard of Job's patience, and you know how the Lord provided for him in the end For the Lord is full of mercy and compassion 12 Above all, my brothers, do not use an oath when you make a promise Do not swear by heaven or by earth or by anything else Say only "Yes" when you mean yes, and "No" when you mean no, and then you will not come under God's judgement
13 Is anyone among you in trouble? He [b] The spirit fierce desires, or God yearns jealously over the spirit that he placed in us [c] people, and they do not resist you, or people Will God not resist you?

This prayer made in faith will heal the sick person (5 15) should pray Is anyone happy? He should sing praises 14 Is there anyone who is ill?

He should send for the church elders, who will pray for him and rub olive oil on him in the name of the Lord 15 This prayer made in faith will heal the sick person, the Lord will restore him to health, and the sins he has committed will be forgiven 16 So then, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you will be healed The prayer of a good person has a powerful effect 17 Elijah was the same kind of person as we are He prayed earnestly that there would be no rain, and no rain fell on the land for three and a half years 18 Once again he prayed, and the sky poured out its rain and the earth produced its crops 19 My brothers, if one of you wanders away from the truth and another one brings him back again, 20 remember this whoever turns a sinner back from his wrong way will save that sinner's soul[d] from death and bring about the forgiveness of many sins

[d] that sinner's soul, or his own soul

THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

INTRODUCTION

The First Letter from Peter was addressed to Christians, here called "God's chosen people," who were scattered throughout the northern part of Asia Minor The main purpose of the letter is to encourage the readers, who were facing persecution and suffering for their faith The writer does this by reminding his readers of the Good News about Jesus Christ, whose death, resurrection, and promised coming give them hope In the light of this they are to accept and endure their suffering, confident that it is a test of the genuineness of their faith and that they will be rewarded on "the Day when Jesus Christ is revealed"

Along with his encouragement in time of trouble, the writer also urges his readers to live as people who belong to Christ

Outline of Contents

1 From Peter, apostle of Jesus Christ—To God's chosen people who live as refugees scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia 2You were chosen according to the purpose of God the Father and were made a holy people by his Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be purified by his blood

May grace and peace be yours in full measure

A Living Hope

3 Let us give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! Because of his great mercy [illegible] ive us new life by r[illegible] C[illegible] m death This fills us [illegible] 4and so we look [illegible] ıg the rich blessings that God keeps for his people He keeps them for you in heaven, where they cannot decay or spoil or fade away 5They are for you, who through faith are kept safe by God's power for the salvation which is ready to be revealed at the end of time

6 Be glad about this, even though it may now be necessary for you to be sad for a while because of the many kinds of trials you suffer 7Their purpose is to prove that your faith is genuine Even gold, which can be destroyed, is tested by fire, and so your faith, which is much more precious than gold, must also [illegible]ted, so that it may [illegible] ll receive praise [illegible] n the Day w[illegible] d 8You love [illegible] not seen him, and you believe in him, although you do not now see him So you rejoice with a great and glorious joy which words cannot express, 9 because you are receiving the salvation of your souls, which is the purpose of your faith in him 10 It was concerning this salvation that the prophets made careful search and investigation, and they prophesied about this gift which God would give you 11 They tried to find out when the time would be and how it would come [a] This was the time to which Christ's Spirit in them was pointing, in predicting the sufferings that Christ would have to endure and the glory that would follow 12 God revealed to these prophets that their work was not for their own benefit, but for yours, as they spoke about those things which you have now heard from the messengers who announced the Good News by the power of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven These are things which even the angels would like to understand

A Call to Holy Living

13 So then, have your minds ready for action Keep alert and set your hope completely on the blessing which will be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed 14 Be obedient to God, and do not allow your lives to be shaped by those desires you had when you were still ignorant 15 Instead, be holy in all that you do, just as God who called you is holy 16 The scripture says, "Be holy because I am holy"
17 You call him Father, when you pray to God, who judges all people by the same standard, according to what each one has done, so then, spend the rest of your lives here on earth in reverence for him 18 For you know what was paid to set you free from the worthless manner of life handed down by your ancestors It was not something that can be destroyed, such as silver or gold, 19 it was the costly sacrifice of Christ, who was like a lamb without defect or flaw 20 He had been chosen by God before the creation of the world and was revealed in these last days for your sake 21 Through him you believe in God, who raised him from death and gave him glory, and so your faith and hope are fixed on God

22 Now that by your obedience to the truth you have purified yourselves and have come to have a sincere love for your fellow-believers, love one another earnestly with all your heart [b] 23 For through the living and eternal word of God you have been born again as the children of a parent who is immortal, not mortal 24 As
the scripture says,

"All mankind are like grass, and all their glory is like wild flowers The grass withers, and the flowers fall, 25 but the word of the Lord remains
for ever"

This word is the Good News that was proclaimed to you

The Living Stone and the Holy Nation

2 Rid yourselves, then, of all evil, no more lying or hypocrisy or jealousy or insulting language 2 Be like new-born babies, always thirsty for the pure spiritual milk, so that by drinking it you may grow up and be saved 3 As the scripture says, "You have found out for yourselves how kind the Lord is" 4 Come to the Lord, the living stone rejected by man as worthless but chosen by God as valuable 5 Come as living stones, and let yourselves be used in building the spiritual temple, where you will serve as holy priests to offer spiritual and acceptable sacrifices to God through Jesus Christ 6 For the scripture says,

"I chose a valuable stone, which I am placing as the cornerstone in Zion, and whoever believes in him will never be disappointed"

7 This stone is of great value for you that believe, but for those who do not believe

"The stone which the builders rejected
as worthless
of all"

8 And another scripture says,

"This is the stone that will make people stumble,
the rock that will make them fall"

They stumbled because they did not believe in the word, such was God's will
for them
9 But you are the chosen race, the King's priests, the holy nation, God's own people, chosen to proclaim the wonderful

[a] when the time would be and how it would come, or who the person would be and when he would come [b] with all your heart, some manuscripts have with a pure heart

1 16 Lev 11 44-45 19 2   1 24-25 Is 40 6-8   2 3 Ps 34 8   2 6 Is 28 16   2 7 Ps 118 22 acts of God, who called you out of darkness into his own marvellous light.

[10]At one time you were not God's people, but now you are his people, at one time you did not know God's mercy, but now you have received his mercy.

Slaves of God

11 I appeal to you, my friends, as strangers and refugees in this world! Do not give in to bodily passions, which are always at war against the soul [12]Your conduct among the heathen should be so good that when they accuse you of being evildoers, they will have to recognize your good deeds and so praise God on the Day of his coming

13 For the sake of the Lord submit to every human authority to the Emperor, who is the supreme authority, [14]and to the governors, who have been appointed by him to punish the evildoers and to praise those who do good [15]For God wants you to silence the ignorant talk of foolish people by the good things you do [16]Live as free people, do not, however, use your freedom to cover up any evil, but live as God's slaves [17]Respect everyone, love your fellow-believers, fear God, and respect the Emperor

The Example of Christ's Suffering

18 You servants must submit to your masters and show them complete respect, not only to those who are kind and considerate, but also to those who are harsh [19]God will bless you for this, if you endure the pain of undeserved suffering because you are conscious of his will [20]For what credit is there if you endure the beatings you deserve for having done wrong? But if you endure suffering even when you have done right, God will bless you for it [21]It was to this that God called you, for Christ himself suffered for you and left you an example, so that you would follow in his steps [22]He committed no sin, and no one ever heard a lie come from his lips [23]When he was insulted, he did not answer back with an insult, when he suffered, he did not threaten, but placed his hopes in God, the righteous Judge [24]Christ himself carried our sins in his body to the cross, so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness It is by his wounds that you have been healed [25]You were like sheep that had lost their way, but now you have been brought back to follow the Shepherd and Keeper of your souls

3 In the same way you wives must submit to your husbands, so that if any of them do not believe God's word, your conduct will win them over to believe It will not be necessary for you to say a word, [2]because they will see how pure and reverent your conduct is [3]You should not use outward aids to make yourselves beautiful, such as the way you do your hair, or the jewellery you put on, or the dresses you wear [4]Instead, your beauty should consist of your true inner self, the ageless beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of the greatest value in God's sight [5]For the devout women of the past who placed their hope in God used to make themselves beautiful by submitting to their husbands [6]Sarah was like that; she obeyed Abraham and called him her master You are now her daughters if you do good and are not afraid of anything

7 In the same way you husbands must live with your wives with the proper understanding that they are the weaker sex Treat them with respect, because they also will receive, together with you, God's gift of life Do this so that nothing will interfere with your prayers

Suffering for Doing Right

8 To conclude you must all have the same attitude and the same feelings, love one another as brothers, and be kind and humble with one another [9]Do not pay back evil with evil or cursing with cursing, instead, pay back with a blessing, because a blessing is what God promised to give you when he called you [10]As the scripture says,

"Whoever wants to enjoy life and wishes to see good times, must keep from speaking evil and stop telling lies [11] He must turn away from evil and do good;
  he must strive for peace with all his heart [12] For the Lord watches over the righteous and listens to their prayers, but he opposes those who do evil."

13 Who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for doing what is right, how happy you are! Do not be afraid of anyone, and do not worry 15 But have reverence for Christ in your hearts, and honour him as Lord Be ready at all times to answer anyone who asks you to explain the hope you have in you, 16 but do it with gentleness and respect Keep your conscience clear, so that when you are insulted, those who speak evil of your good conduct as followers of Christ will be ashamed of what they say 17 For it is better to suffer for doing good, if this should be God's will, than for doing evil 18 For Christ died[c] for sins once and for all, a good man on behalf of sinners, in order to lead you to God He was put to death physically, but made alive spiritually, 19 and in his spiritual existence he went and preached to the imprisoned spirits 20 These were the spirits of those who had not obeyed God when he waited patiently during the days that Noah was building his boat The few people in the boat—eight in all—were saved by the water, 21 which was a symbol pointing to baptism, which now saves you It is not the washing away of bodily dirt, but the promise made to God from a good conscience It saves you through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who has gone to heaven and is at the right-hand side of God, ruling over all angels and heavenly authorities and powers

Changed Lives

4 Since Christ suffered physically, you too must strengthen yourselves with the same way of thinking that he had, because whoever suffers physically is no longer involved with sin 2 From now on, then, you must live the rest of your earthly lives controlled by God's will and not by human desires 3 You have spent enough time in the past doing what the heathen like to do Your lives were spent in indecency, lust, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and the disgusting worship of idols 4 And now the heathen are surprised when you do not join them in the same wild and reckless living, and so they insult you 5 But they will have to give an account of themselves to God, who is ready to judge the living and the dead 6 That is why the Good News was preached also to the dead, to those who had been judged in their physical existence as everyone is judged; it was preached to them so that in their spiritual existence they may live as God lives

Good Managers of God's Gifts

7 The end of all things is near You must be self-controlled and alert, to be able to pray 8 Above everything, love one another earnestly, because love covers over many sins 9 Open your homes to each other without complaining 10 Each one, as a good manager of God's different gifts, must use for the good of others the special gift he has received from God 11 Whoever preaches must preach God's messages, whoever serves must serve with the strength that God gives him, so that in all things praise may be given to God through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and power for ever and ever Amen

Suffering as a Christian 12 My dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful test you are suffering, as though something unusual were happening to you 13 Rather be glad that you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may be full of joy when his glory is revealed 14 Happy are you if you are insulted because you are Christ's followers, this means that the glorious Spirit, the Spirit of God, is resting on you 15 If any of you suffers, it must not be because he is a murderer or a thief or a criminal or meddles in other people's affairs 16 However, if you suffer because you are a Christian, don't be ashamed of it, but thank God that you bear Christ's

17 The time has come for judgement to begin, and God's own people are the first to be judged If it starts with us how will it end with those who do not believe the Good News from God? 18 As
the scripture says,

"It is difficult for good people to be saved,
what, then, will become of godless sinners?"

19 So then, those who suffer because it is God's will for them, should by their good actions trust themselves completely to their Creator, who always keeps his promise

[c] died, many manuscripts have suffered

3 14–15 Mt 5 10 Is 8 12–13 3 20 Gen 6 1—7 24 4 8 Prov 10 12 4 18 Prov 11 31

The Flock of God

5 I, who am an elder myself, appeal to the church elders among you. I am a witness of Christ's sufferings, and I will share in the glory that will be revealed. I appeal to you 2 to be shepherds of the flock that God gave you and to take care of it willingly, as God wants you to, and not unwillingly. Do your work, not for mere pay, but from a real desire to serve. 3 Do not try to rule over those who have been put in your care, but be examples to the flock. 4 And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the glorious crown which will never lose its brightness.
5 In the same way you younger men must submit to the older men. And all of you must put on the apron of humility, to serve one another, for the scripture says, "God resists the proud, but shows favour to the humble." 6 Humble yourselves, then, under God's mighty hand, so that he will lift you up in his own good time. 7 Leave all your worries with him, because he cares for you.
8 Be alert, be on the watch! Your enemy, the Devil, roams round like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. 9 Be firm in your faith and resist him, because you know that your fellow-believers in all the world are going through the same kind of sufferings. 10 But after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who calls you to share his eternal glory in union with Christ, will himself perfect you and give you firmness, strength, and a sure foundation. 11 To him be the power for ever!
Amen.

12 I write you this brief letter with the help of Silas, whom I regard as a faithful Christian brother. I want to encourage you and give my testimony that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.
13 Your sister church in Babylon,[d] also chosen by God, sends you greetings, and so does my son Mark. 14 Greet one another with the kiss of Christian love.
May peace be with all of you who belong to Christ.

THE SECOND LETTER OF PETER

INTRODUCTION

The Second Letter from Peter is addressed to a wide circle of early Christians. Its main concern is to combat the work of false teachers and the immorality which results from such teaching. The answer to these problems is found in holding to the true knowledge of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, knowledge which has been conveyed by persons who themselves have seen Jesus and have heard him teach. The writer is especially concerned with the teaching of those who claim that Christ will not return again. He says that the apparent delay in Christ's return is due to the fact that God "does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants all to turn away from their sins."

---

1 From Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ—To those who through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ have been given a faith as precious as ours:
2 May grace and peace be yours in full measure through your knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

God's Call and Choice

3 God's divine power has given us everything we need to live a truly religious life through our knowledge of the one who called us to share in his own[a] glory and goodness. 4 In this way he has given us the very great and precious gifts he promised, so that by means of these gifts you may escape from the destructive lust that is in the world, and may come to share the divine nature. 5 For this very reason do your best to add goodness to your faith; to your goodness add knowledge; 6 to your knowledge add self-control; to your self-control add endurance; to your endurance add godliness; 7 to your godliness add brotherly affection; and to your brotherly affection add love. 8 These are the qualities you need, and if you have them in abundance, they will make you active and effective in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But whoever does not have them is so short-sighted that he cannot see and has forgotten that he has been purified from his past sins.
10 So then, my brothers, try even harder to make God's call and his choice of you a permanent experience; if you do so, you will never abandon your faith.[b] 11 In this way you will be given the full [a] to share in his own; some manuscripts have through his.

[b] abandon your faith; or fall into sin.

To make God's call a permanent experience (1 10) right to enter the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ 12 And so I will always remind you of these matters, even though you already know them and are firmly grounded in the truth you have received 13 I think it only right for me to stir up your memory of these matters as long as I am still alive 14 I know that I shall soon put off this mortal body, as our Lord Jesus Christ plainly told me 15 I will do my best, then, to provide a way for you to remember these matters at all times after my death

Eye-Witnesses of Christ's Glory

16 We have not depended on made-up stories in making known to you the mighty coming of our Lord Jesus Christ With our own eyes we saw his greatness 17 We were there when he was given honour and glory by God the Father, when the voice came to him from the Supreme Glory, saying, "This is my own dear Son, with whom I am pleased!" 18 We ourselves heard this voice coming from heaven, when we were with him on the holy mountain 19 So we are even more confident of the message proclaimed by the prophets You will do well to pay attention to it, because it is like a lamp shining in a dark place until the Day dawns and the light of the morning star shines in your hearts 20 Above all else, however, remember that no one can explain by himself a prophecy in the Scriptures 21 For no prophetic message ever came just from the will of man, but men were under the control of the Holy Spirit as they spoke the message that came from God

False Teachers

2 False prophets appeared in the past among the people, and in the same way false teachers will appear among you They will bring in destructive, untrue doctrines, and will deny the Master who redeemed them, and so they will bring upon themselves sudden destruction 2 Even so, many will follow their immoral

ways, and because of what they do, others will speak evil of the Way of truth. 3 In their greed these false teachers will make a profit out of telling you made-up stories.
For a long time now their Judge has been ready, and their Destroyer has been wide awake!
4 God did not spare the angels who sinned, but threw them into hell, where they are kept chained in darkness,[c] waiting for the Day of Judgement. 5 God did not spare the ancient world, but brought the flood on the world of godless people; the only ones he saved were Noah, who preached righteousness, and seven other people. 6 God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, destroying them with fire, and made them an example of what will happen to the godless. 7 He rescued Lot, a good man, who was distressed by the immoral conduct of lawless people. 8 That good man lived among them, and day after day he suffered agony as he saw and heard their evil actions. 9 And so the Lord knows how to rescue godly people from their trials and how to keep the wicked under punishment for the Day of Judgement, 10 especially those who follow their filthy bodily lusts and despise God's authority.
These false teachers are bold and arrogant, and show no respect for the glorious beings above; instead, they insult them. 11 Even the angels, who are so much stronger and mightier than these false teachers, do not accuse them with insults in the presence of the Lord. 12 But these men act by instinct, like wild animals born to be captured and killed; they attack with insults anything they do not understand.
They will be destroyed like wild animals, 13 and they will be paid with suffering for the suffering they have caused. Pleasure for them is to do anything in broad daylight that will satisfy their bodily appetites; they are a shame and a disgrace as they join you in your meals, all the while enjoying their deceitful ways!
14 They want to look at nothing but immoral women; their appetite for sin is never satisfied. They lead weak people into a trap. Their hearts are trained to be greedy. They are under God's curse!
15 They have left the straight path and have lost their way; they have followed the path taken by Balaam son of Beor, who loved the money he would get for doing wrong 16 and was rebuked for his sin. His donkey spoke with a human voice and stopped the prophet's insane action.
17 These men are like dried-up springs, like clouds blown along by a storm; God has reserved a place for them in the deepest darkness. 18 They make proud and stupid statements, and use immoral bodily lusts to trap those who are just beginning to escape from among people who live in error. 19 They promise them freedom while they themselves are slaves of destructive habits—for a person is a slave of anything that has conquered him. 20 If people have escaped from the corrupting forces of the world through their knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and then are again caught and conquered by them, such people are in a worse state at the end than they were at the beginning. 21 It would have been much better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than to know it and then turn away from the sacred command that was given them.
22 What happened to them shows that the proverbs are true: "A dog goes back to what it has vomited" and "A pig that has been washed goes back to roll in the mud."

The Promise of the Lord's Coming

3 My dear friends, this is now the second letter I have written to you.
In both letters I have tried to arouse pure thoughts in your minds by reminding you of these things. 2 I want you to remember the words that were spoken long ago by the holy prophets, and the command from the Lord and Saviour which was given you by your apostles. 3 First of all, you must understand that in these last days some people will appear whose lives are controlled by their own lusts. They will mock you 4 and will ask, "He promised to come, didn't he? Where is he? Our fathers have already died, but everything is still the same as it was since the creation of the world!" 5 They purposely ignore the fact that long ago God gave a command, and the heavens and earth were created. The earth was formed out of water and by water, 6 and it was also by water, the water of the flood, that the old world was destroyed. 7 But the heavens and the earth that now exist are being preserved by the same command [c] chained in darkness; some manuscripts have in dark pits.

2.5 Gen 6.1—7.24 2.6 Gen 19.24 2.7 Gen 19.1-16 2.15-16 Num 22.4-35 2.22 Prov 26.11 3.3 Jude 18 3.5 Gen 1.6-9 3.6 Gen 7.11 of God, in order to be destroyed by fire They are being kept for the day when godless people will be judged and destroyed

8 But do not forget one thing, my dear friends! There is no difference in the Lord's sight between one day and a thousand years, to him the two are the same 9 The Lord is not slow to do what he has promised, as some think Instead, he is patient with you, because he does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants all to turn away from their sins 10 But the Day of the Lord will come like a thief On that Day the heavens will disappear with a shrill noise, the heavenly bodies will burn up and be destroyed, and the earth with everything in it will vanish [d] 11 Since all these things will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people should you be? Your lives should be holy and dedicated to God, 12 as you wait for the Day of God and do your best to make it come soon—the Day when the heavens will burn up and be destroyed, and the heavenly bodies will be melted by the heat 13 But we wait for what God has promised new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness will be at home 14 And so, my friends, as you wait for that Day, do your best to be pure and faultless in God's sight and to be at peace with him 15 Look on our Lord's patience as the opportunity he is giving you to be saved, just as our dear brother Paul wrote to you, using the wisdom that God gave him 16 This is what he says in all his letters when he writes on the subject There are some difficult things in his letters which ignorant and unstable people explain falsely, as they do with other passages of the Scriptures So they bring on their own destruction 17 But you, my friends, already know this Be on your guard, then, so that you will not be led away by the errors of lawless people and fall from your safe position 18 But continue to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ To him be the glory, now and for ever! Amen

JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The First Letter of John has two main purposes to encourage its readers to live in fellowship with God and with his Son, Jesus Christ, and to warn them against following false teaching that would destroy this fellowship This teaching was based on the belief that evil results from contact with the physical world, and so Jesus, the Son of God, could not really have been a human being Those teachers claimed that to be saved was to be set free from concern with life in this world, and they also taught that salvation had nothing to do with matters of morality or of love for one's fellow-man

In opposition to this teaching the writer clearly states that Jesus Christ was a real human being, and he emphasizes that all who believe in Jesus and love God must also love one another

Outline of Contents

1 We write to you about the Word of life, which has existed from the very beginning We have heard it, and we have seen it with our eyes, yes, we have seen it, and our hands have touched it 2 When this life became visible, we saw it, so we speak of it and tell you about the eternal life which was with the Father and was made known to us 3 What we have seen and heard we announce to you also, so that you will join with us in the fellowship that we have with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ 4 We write this in order that our[a] joy may be complete

God Is Light

5 Now the message that we have heard from his Son and announce is this God is light, and there is no darkness at all in him 6 If, then, we say that we have fellowship with him, yet at the same time live in the darkness, we are lying both in our words and in our actions 7 But if we live in the light—just as he is in the light—then we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from every sin 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and there is no truth in us 9 But if we confess our sins to God, he will keep his promise and do what is right he will forgive us our sins and purify us from all our wrongdoing 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make God out to be a liar, and his word is not in us

Christ Our Helper

2 I am writing this to you, my children, so that you will not sin, but if anyone does sin, we have someone who pleads with the Father on our behalf—Jesus Christ, the righteous one 2 And Christ himself is the means by which our sins are forgiven, and not our sins only, but also the sins of everyone.
3 If we obey God's commands, then we are sure that we know him 4 If someone says that he knows him, but does not obey his commands, such a person is a liar and there is no truth in him 5 But whoever obeys his word is the one whose love for God has really been made perfect.
This is how we can be sure that we are in union with God 6 whoever says that he remains in union with God should live just as Jesus Christ did

The New Command

7 My dear friends, this command I am writing to you is not new, it is the old command the one you have had from the very beginning The old command is the message you have already heard 8 However, the command I am now writing to you is new, because its truth is seen in Christ and also in you For the darkness is passing away, and the real light is already shining 9 Whoever says that he is in the light, yet hates his brother, is in the darkness to this very hour 10 Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and so there is nothing in him that will cause someone else[b] to sin 11 But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness, he walks in it and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has made him blind 12 I am writing to you, my children because your sins are forgiven for the sake of Christ 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who has existed from the beginning I am writing to you, young men, because you have defeated the Evil One 14 I am writing to you, my children, because you know the Father I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who has existed from the beginning I am writing to you, young men, because you are strong, the word of God lives

[a]our; some manuscripts have your [b]someone else, or him 1 1 Jn 1 1 1 2 Jn 1 14 2 7 Jn 13 34

Whoever loves his brother whoever hates his brother (2 10-11) in you, and you have defeated the Evil

One
15 Do not love the world or anything that belongs to the world If you love the world, you do not love the Father 16 Everything that belongs to the world—what the sinful self desires, what people see and want, and everything in this world that people are so proud of—none of this comes from the Father, it all comes from the world 17 The world and everything in it that people desire is passing away, but he who does the will of God lives for ever

The Enemy of Christ

18 My children, the end is near! You were told that the Enemy of Christ would come, and now many enemies of Christ have already appeared, and so we know that the end is near 19 These people really did not belong to our fellowship, and that is why they left us, if they had belonged to our fellowship, they would have stayed with us But they left so that it might be clear that none of them really belonged to us 20 But you have had the Holy Spirit poured out on you by Christ, and so all of you know the truth 21 I am writing to you, then, not because you do not know the truth, instead, it is because you do know it, and you also know that no lie ever comes from the truth 22 Who, then, is the liar? It is anyone who says that Jesus is not the Messiah Such a person is the Enemy of Christ—he rejects both the Father and the Son 23 For whoever rejects the Son also rejects the Father, whoever accepts the Son has the Father also 24 Be sure, then, to keep in your hearts the message you heard from the beginning If you keep that message, then you will always live in union with the Son and the Father 25 And this is what Christ himself promised to give us—eternal life 26 I am writing this to you about those who are trying to deceive you 27 But as for you, Christ has poured out his Spirit on you As long as his Spirit remains in you, you do not need anyone to teach you For his Spirit teaches you about everything, and what he teaches is true, not false Obey the Spirit's teaching, then, and remain in union with Christ.
28 Yes, my children, remain in union with him, so that when he appears we may be full of courage and need not hide in shame from him on the Day he comes 29 You know that Christ is righteous, you should know, then, that everyone who does what is right is God's child

Children of God

3 See how much the Father has loved us! His love is so great that we are called God's children—and so, in fact, we are This is why the world does not know us it has not known God 2 My dear friends, we are now God's children, but it is not yet clear what we shall become But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he really is [3]Everyone who has this hope in Christ keeps himself pure, just as Christ is pure 4 Whoever sins is guilty of breaking God's law, because sin is a breaking of the law [5]You know that Christ appeared in order to take away sins,[c] and that there is no sin in him [6]So everyone who lives in union with Christ does not continue to sin, but whoever continues to sin has never seen him or known him 7 Let no one deceive you, my children!

Whoever does what is right is righteous, just as Christ is righteous [8]Whoever continues to sin belongs to the Devil, because the Devil has sinned from the very beginning The Son of God appeared for this very reason, to destroy what the Devil had done 9 Whoever is a child of God does not continue to sin, for God's very nature is in him, and because God is his Father, he cannot continue to sin [10]This is the clear difference between God's children and the Devil's children anyone who does not do what is right or does not love his brother is not God's child

Love One Another

11 The message you heard from the very beginning is this we must love one another [12]We must not be like Cain, he belonged to the Evil One and murdered his own brother Abel Why did Cain murder him? Because the things he himself did were wrong, but the things his brother did were right 13 So do not be surprised, my brothers, if the people of the world hate you [14]We know that we have left death and come over into life, we know it because we love our brothers Whoever does not love is still under the power of death [15]Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that a murderer has not got eternal life in him [16]This is how we know what love is Christ gave his life for us.
We too, then, ought to give our lives for our brothers! [17]If a rich person sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against his brother, how can he claim that he loves God? [18]My children, our love should not be just words and talk, it must be true love, which shows itself in action

Courage before God

19 This, then, is how we will know that we belong to the truth, this is how we will be confident in God's presence [20]If our conscience condemns us, we know that God is greater than our conscience and that he knows everything [21]And so, my dear friends, if our conscience does not condemn us, we have courage in God's presence [22]We receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commands and do what pleases him [23]What he commands is that we believe in his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as Christ commanded us [24]Whoever obeys God's commands lives in union with God and God lives in union with him And because of the Spirit that God has given us we know that God lives in union with us

The True Spirit and the False

4 My dear friends, do not believe all who claim to have the Spirit, but test them to find out if the spirit they have comes from God For many false prophets have gone out everywhere [2]This is how you will be able to know whether it is God's Spirit anyone who acknowledges that Jesus Christ came as a human being has the Spirit who comes from God [3]But anyone who denies this about Jesus does not have the Spirit from God The spirit that he has is from the Enemy of Christ, you heard that it would come, and now it is here in the world already 4 But you belong to God, my children, and have defeated the false prophets, because the Spirit who is in you is more powerful than the spirit in those who belong to the world [5]Those false prophets speak about matters of the world, and the world listens to them because they belong to the world [6]But we belong to God Whoever knows God listens to us, whoever does not belong to God does not listen to us This, then, is how we can tell the difference between the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error

God Is Love

7 Dear friends, let us love one another, because love comes from God Whoever loves is a child of God and knows God [8]Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love [9]And God showed his love for us by sending his only Son

[c]sins, some manuscripts have our sins 3 5 Jn 1 29 3 11 Jn 13 34 3 12 Gen 4 8 3 14 Jn 5 24 3 23 Jn 13 34, 15 12 17

Perfect love drives out all fear (4 18) into the world, so that we might have life through him [10]This is what love is it is not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the means by which our sins are forgiven 11 Dear friends, if this is how God loved us, then we should love one another [12]No one has ever seen God, but if we love one another, God lives in union with us, and his love is made perfect in us 13 We are sure that we live in union with God and that he lives in union with us, because he has given us his Spirit [14]And we have seen and tell others that the Father sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world [15]If anyone declares that Jesus is the Son of God, he lives in union with God and God lives in union with him [16]And we ourselves know and believe the love which God has for us God is love, and whoever lives in love lives in union with God and God lives in union with him [17]Love is made perfect in us in order that we may have courage on Judgement Day, and we will have it because our life in this world is the same as Christ's [18]There is no fear in love, perfect love drives out all fear So then, love has not been made perfect in anyone who is afraid, because fear has to do with punishment 19 We love because God first loved us [20]If someone says he loves God, but hates his brother, he is a liar For he cannot love God, whom he has not seen, if he does not love his brother, whom he has seen [21]The command that Christ has given us is this whoever loves God must love his brother also

Our Victory over the World

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Messiah is a child of God, and whoever loves a father loves his child also [2]This is how we know that we love God's children it is by loving God and obeying his commands [3]For our love for God means that we obey his commands And his commands are not too hard for us, [4]because every child of God is able to defeat the world And we win the victory over the world by means of our faith [5]Who can defeat the world? Only the person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God

The Witness about Jesus Christ

6 Jesus Christ is the one who came with the water of his baptism and the blood of his death He came not only with the water, but with both the water and the blood And the Spirit himself testifies that this is true, because the Spirit is truth [7]There are three witnesses [8]the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and all three give the same testimony [9]We believe man's testimony, but God's testimony is much stronger, and he has given this

4 12 Jn 1 18 5.3 Jn 14 15 testimony about his Son 10 So whoever believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his own heart, but whoever does not believe God, has made him out to be a liar, because he has not believed what God has said about his Son 11 The testimony is this God has given us eternal life, and this life has its source in his Son 12 Whoever has the Son has this life, whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life

Eternal Life

13 I am writing this to you so that you may know that you have eternal life—you that believe in the Son of God 14 We have courage in God's presence, because we are sure that he hears us if we ask him for anything that is according to his will 15 He hears us whenever we ask him, and since we know this is true, we know also that he gives us what we ask from him 16 If you see your brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, you should pray to God, who will give him life This applies to those whose sins do not lead to death But there is sin which leads to death, and I do not say that you should pray to God about that 17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which does not lead to death

18 We know that no child of God keeps on sinning, for the Son of God keeps him safe, and the Evil One cannot harm him 19 We know that we belong to God even though the whole world is under the rule of the Evil One

20 We know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we know the true God We live in union with the true God—in union with his Son Jesus Christ This is the true God, and this is eternal life

21 My children, keep yourselves safe from false gods.

THE SECOND LETTER OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The Second Letter of John was written by "the Elder" to "the dear Lady and to her children," probably meaning a local church and its members The brief message is an appeal to love one another and a warning against false teachers and their teachings

1 From the Elder—
To the dear Lady and to her children,[1] whom I truly love And I am not the only one, but all who know the truth love you, 2 because the truth remains in us and will be with us for ever

3 May God the Father and Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, give us grace, mercy,

[1] LADY AND HER CHILDREN This probably refers to a church and its members (also in verses 4-5) and peace, may they be ours in truth and love

Truth and Love

4 How happy I was to find that some of your children live in the truth, just as the Father commanded us 5 And so I ask you, dear Lady let us all love one another This is no new command I am writing to you, it is the command which we have had from the beginning 6 This love I speak of means that we must live in obedience to God's commands The command, as you have all heard from the beginning, is that you must all live in love 7 Many deceivers have gone out all over the world, people who do not acknowledge that Jesus Christ came as a human being Such a person is a deceiver and the Enemy of Christ 8 Be on your guard, then, so that you will not lose what we[b] have worked for, but will receive your reward in full 9 Anyone who does not stay with the teaching of Christ, but goes beyond it, does not have God Whoever does stay with the teaching has both the Father and the Son 10 So then, if someone comes to you who does not bring this teaching, do not welcome him in your homes, do not even say, "Peace be with you" 11 For anyone who wishes him peace becomes his partner in the evil things he does

12 I have so much to tell you, but I would rather not do it with paper and ink, instead, I hope to visit you and talk with you personally, so that we shall be completely happy 13 The children of your dear Sister[c] send you their greetings

[b] we, some manuscripts have you [c] CHILDREN OF YOUR DEAR SISTER This probably refers to the members of the church to which the writer belonged

THE THIRD LETTER OF
JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The Third Letter of John was written by "the Elder" to a church leader named Gaius The writer praises Gaius because of his help to other Christians, and warns against a man named Diotrephes

Outline of Contents

Introduction 1-4
Gaius is praised 5-8
Diotrephes is condemned 9-10 Demetrius is commended 11-12 Conclusion 13-15

---

1 From the Elder—
To my dear Gaius, whom I truly love 2 My dear friend, I pray that everything may go well with you and that you may be in good health—as I know you are well in spirit 3 I was so happy when some

1 Acts 19.29, Rom 16 23, 1 Cor 1 14

Christian brothers arrived and told me how faithful you are to the truth—just as you always live in the truth 4 Nothing makes me happier than to hear that my children live in the truth

5 My dear friend, you are so faithful in the work you do for your fellow-Christians, even when they are strangers 6 They have spoken to the church here about your love Please help them to continue their journey in a way that will please God 7 For they set out on their journey in the service of Christ without accepting any help from unbelievers 8 We Christians, then, must help these people, so that we may share in their work for the truth

Diotrephes and Demetrius

9 I wrote a short letter to the church, but Diotrephes, who likes to be their leader, will not pay any attention to what I say 10 When I come, then, I will call attention to everything he has done the terrible things he says about us and the lies he tells! But that is not enough for him, he will not receive the Christian brothers when they come, and even stops those who want to receive them and tries to drive them out of the church!
11 My dear friend, do not imitate what is bad, but imitate what is good Whoever does good belongs to God, whoever does what is bad has not seen God 12 Everyone speaks well of Demetrius, truth itself speaks well of him And we add our testimony, and you know that what we say is true

13 I have so much to tell you, but I do not want to do it with pen and ink 14 I hope to see you soon, and then we will talk personally 15 Peace be with you All your friends send greetings Greet all our friends personally

JUDE

INTRODUCTION

The Letter from Jude was written to warn against false teachers who claimed to be believers In this brief letter, which is similar in content to 2 Peter, the writer encourages his readers "to fight on for the faith which once and for all God has given to his people"

Outline of Contents

Introduction 1–2
Character, teaching, and doom of the false teachers 3–16 Admonition to keep the faith 17–23 Benediction 24–25

---

1 From Jude, servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James—
To those who have been called by God, who live in the love of God the Father and the protection of Jesus Christ 2 May mercy, peace, and love be yours in full measure

False Teachers

3 My dear friends, I was doing my best

1 Mt 13 55 1 Mt 6 3

to write to you about the salvation we share in common, when I felt the need of writing at once to encourage you to fight on for the faith which once and for all God has given to his people [4]For some godless people have slipped in unnoticed among us, persons who distort the message about the grace of our God in order to excuse their immoral ways, and who reject Jesus Christ, our only Master and Lord Long ago the Scriptures predicted the condemnation they have received 5 For even though you know all this, I want to remind you of how the Lord[a] once rescued the people of Israel from Egypt, but afterwards destroyed those who did not believe [6]Remember the angels who did not stay within the limits of their proper authority, but abandoned their own dwelling place they are bound with eternal chains in the darkness below, where God is keeping them for that great Day on which they will be condemned [7]Remember Sodom and Gomorrah, and the nearby towns, whose people acted as those angels did and indulged in sexual immorality and perversion they suffer the punishment of eternal fire as a plain warning to all 8 In the same way also, these people have visions which make them sin against their own bodies, they despise God's authority and insult the glorious beings above [9]Not even the chief angel Michael did this In his quarrel with the Devil, when they argued about who would have the body of Moses, Michael did not dare to condemn the Devil with insulting words, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!" [10]But these people attack with insults anything they do not understand, and those things that they know by instinct, like wild animals, are the very things that destroy them [11]How terrible for them!
They have followed the way that Cain took For the sake of money they have given themselves over to the error that Balaam committed They have rebelled as Korah rebelled, and like him they are destroyed [12]With their shameless carous-ing they are like dirty spots in your fellowship meals They take care only of themselves They are like clouds carried along by the wind, but bringing no rain They are like trees that bear no fruit, even in autumn, trees that have been pulled up by the roots and are completely dead [13]They are like wild waves of the sea, with their shameful deeds showing up like foam They are like wandering stars, for whom God has reserved a place for ever in the deepest darkness 14 It was Enoch, the sixth direct descendant from Adam, who long ago prophesied this about them "The Lord will come with many thousands of his holy angels [15]to bring judgement on all, to condemn them all for the godless deeds they have performed and for all the terrible words that godless sinners have spoken against him!" 16 These people are always grumbling and blaming others, they follow their own evil desires, they boast about themselves and flatter others in order to get their own way

Warnings and Instructions

17 But remember, my friends, what you were told in the past by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ [18]They said to you, 'When the last days come, people will appear who will mock you, people who follow their own godless desires" [19]These are the people who cause divisions, who are controlled by their natural desires, who do not have the Spirit [20]But you, my friends, keep on building yourselves up on your most sacred faith Pray in the power of the Holy Spirit, [21]and keep yourselves in the love of God, as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ in his mercy to give you eternal life 22 Show mercy towards those who have doubts, [23]save others by snatching them out of the fire, and to others show mercy mixed with fear, but hate their very clothes, stained by their sinful lusts

Prayer of Praise

24 To him who is able to keep you from falling, and to bring you faultless and joyful before his glorious presence—[25]to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, might, and authority, from all ages past, and now, and for ever and ever! Amen

THE REVELATION

TO JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The Revelation to John was written at a time when Christians were being persecuted because of their faith in Jesus Christ as Lord The writer's main concern is to give his readers hope and encouragement, and to urge them to remain faithful during times of suffering and persecution

For the most part the book consists of several series of revelations and visions presented in symbolic language that would have been understood by Christians of that day, but would have remained a mystery to all others As with the themes of a symphony, the themes of this book are repeated again and again in different ways through the various series of visions Although there are differences of opinion regarding the details of interpretation of the book, the central theme is clear through Christ the Lord, God will finally and totally defeat all his enemies, including Satan, and will reward his faithful people with the blessings of a new heaven and a new earth when this victory is complete

1 This book is the record of the events that Jesus Christ revealed God gave him this revelation in order to show his servants what must happen very soon Christ made these things known to his servant John by sending his angel to him, 2 and John has told all that he has seen This is his report concerning the message from God and the truth revealed by Jesus Christ 3 Happy is the one who reads this book, and happy are those who listen to the words of this prophetic message and obey what is written in this book! For the time is near when all these things will happen

Greetings to the Seven Churches

4 From John to the seven churches in the province of Asia Grace and peace be yours from God, who is, who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits in front of his throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first to be raised from death and who is also the ruler of the kings of the world He loves us, and by his death he has freed us from our sins 6 and made us a kingdom of priests to serve his God and Father To Jesus Christ be the glory and power for ever and ever! Amen 7 Look, he is coming on the clouds!
Everyone will see him, including those who pierced him All peoples on earth will mourn over him So shall it be!
8 "I am the first and the last," says the Lord God Almighty, who is, who was, and who is to come

A Vision of Christ

9 I am John, your brother, and as a follower of Jesus I am your partner in patiently enduring the suffering that comes to those who belong to his Kingdom I was put on the island of Patmos because I had proclaimed God's word and the truth that Jesus revealed 10 On the Lord's day the Spirit took control of me, and I heard a loud voice, that sounded like a trumpet, speaking behind me 11 It said, "Write down what you see, and send the book to the churches in these seven cities Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea" 12 I turned round to see who was talking to me, and I saw seven gold lamp-stands, 13 and among them there was what looked like a human being, wearing a robe that reached to his feet, and a gold belt round his chest 14 His hair was white as wool, or as snow, and his eyes blazed like fire, 15 his feet shone like brass that has been refined and polished, and his voice sounded like a roaring waterfall 16 He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp two-edged sword came out of his mouth His face was as bright as the midday sun 17 When I saw him, I fell down at his feet like a dead man He placed his right hand on me and said, "Don't be afraid! I am the first and the last. 18 I am the living one! I was dead, but now I am alive for ever and ever I have authority over death and the world of the dead [a] 19 Write, then, the things you see, both the things that are now and the things that will happen afterwards 20 This is the secret meaning of the seven stars that you see in my right hand, and of the seven gold lamp-stands the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lamp-stands are the seven churches

The Message to Ephesus

2 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write
"This is the message from the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and who walks among the seven gold lamp-stands 2 I know what you have done, I know how hard you have worked and how patient you have been I know that you cannot tolerate evil men and that you have tested those who say they are apostles but are not, and have found out that they are liars 3 You are patient, you have suffered for my sake, and you have not given up 4 But this is what I have against you you do not love me now as you did at first 5 Think how far you have fallen! Turn from your sins and do what you did at first If you don't turn from your sins, I will come to you and take your lamp-stand from its place 6 But this is what you have in your favour you hate what the Nicolaitans do, as much as I do
7 "If you have ears, then, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches!
"To those who win the victory I will give the right to eat the fruit of the tree of life that grows in the Garden of God

The Message to Smyrna

8 "To the angel of the church in Smyrna write.
"This is the message from the one who is the first and the last who died and lived again 9 I know your troubles, I know that you are poor—but really you are rich! I know the evil things said against you by those who claim to be Jews but are not, they are a group that belongs to Satan! [10]Don't be afraid of anything you are about to suffer Listen! The Devil will put you to the test by having some of you thrown into prison, and your troubles will last ten days Be faithful to me, even if it means death, and I will give you life as your prize of victory 11 "If you have ears, then, listen to what

the Spirit says to the churches!
"Those who win the victory will not be hurt by the second death

The Message to Pergamum

12 "To the angel of the church in Pergamum write
"This is the message from the one who has the sharp two-edged sword [13]I know where you live, there where Satan has his throne You are true to me, and you did not abandon your faith in me even during the time when Antipas, my faithful witness, was killed there where Satan lives [14]But there are a few things I have against you there are some among you who follow the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak how to lead the people of Israel into sin by persuading them to eat food that had been offered to idols and to practise sexual immorality [15]In the same way you have people among you who follow the teaching of the Nicolaitans [16]Now turn from your sins!
If you don't, I will come to you soon and fight against those people with the sword that comes out of my mouth 17 "If you have ears, then, listen to what
the Spirit says to the churches!
give some of the hidden manna I will also give each of them a white stone on which is written a new name that no one knows except the one who receives it

The Message to Thyatira

18 "To the angel of the church in Thyatira write
"This is the message from the Son of God, whose eyes blaze like fire, whose feet shine like polished brass [19]I know what you do I know your love, your faithfulness, your service, and your patience I know that you are doing more now than you did at first [20]But this is what I have against you you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a messenger of God By her teaching she misleads my servants into practising sexual immorality and eating food that has been offered to idols [21]I have given her time to repent of her sins, but she does not want to turn from her immorality [22]And so I will throw her on to a bed where she and those who committed adultery with her will suffer terribly I will do this now unless they repent of the wicked things they did with her [23]I will also kill her followers, and then all the churches will know that I am the one who knows everyone's thoughts and wishes I will repay each one of you according to what he has done 24 "But the rest of you in Thyatira have not followed this evil teaching, you have not learnt what the others call 'the deep secrets of Satan' I say to you that I will not put any other burden on you [25]But until I come, you must hold firmly to what you have [26-28]To those who win the victory, who continue to the end to do what I want, I will give the same authority that I received from my Father I will give them authority over the nations, to rule them with an iron rod and to break them to pieces like clay pots I will also give them the morning star 29 "If you have ears, then, listen to what
the Spirit says to the churches!

The Message to Sardis

3 "To the angel of the church in Sardis
has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars I know what you are doing, I know that you have the reputation of being alive, even though you are dead! [2]So wake up, and strengthen what you still have before it dies completely For I find that what you have done is not yet perfect in the sight of my God [3]Remember, then, what you were taught and what you heard, obey it and turn from your sins If you do not wake up, I will come upon you like a thief, and you will not even know the time when I will come [4]But a few of you there in Sardis have kept me, clothed in white, because you are worthy to do so 5 Those who win the victory will be clothed like this in white, and I will not remove their names from the book of the living In the presence of my Father and of his angels I will declare openly that they belong to me 6 "If you have ears, then, listen to what

the Spirit says to the churches!

The Message to Philadelphia

7 "To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write
"This is the message from the one who is holy and true He has the key that belonged to David, and when he opens a door, no one can close it, and when he closes it, no one can open it 8 I know what you do, I know that you have a little power, you have followed my teaching and have been faithful to me I have opened a door in front of you, which no one can close 9 Listen! As for that group that belongs to Satan, those liars who claim that they are Jews but are not,
I will make them come and bow down at your feet They will all know that I love you 10 Because you have kept my command to endure, I will also keep you safe from the time of trouble which is coming upon the world to test all the people on earth 11 I am coming soon Keep safe what you have, so that no one will rob you of your victory prize 12 I will make him who is victorious a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never leave it I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which will come down out of heaven from my God I will also write on him my new name 13 "If you have ears, then, listen to what

The Message to Laodicea

14 "To the angel of the church in Laodicea write
"This is the message from the Amen, the faithful and true witness, who is the origin[b] of all that God has created 15 I know what you have done, I know that you are neither cold nor hot How I wish you were either one or the other! 16 But because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I am going to spit you out of my mouth! 17 You say, 'I am rich and well off, I have all I need' But you do not know how miserable and pitiful you are!
You are poor, naked, and blind 18 I advise you, then, to buy gold from me, pure gold, in order to be rich Buy also white clothing to dress yourself and cover up your shameful nakedness Buy also some ointment to put on your eyes, so that you may see 19 I rebuke and punish all whom I love Be in earnest, then, and turn from your sins 20 Listen! I stand at the door

If anyone opens the door, I will come into his house (3 20) and knock, if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come into his house and eat with him, and he will eat with me 21 To those who win the victory I will give the right to sit beside me on my throne, just as I have been victorious and now sit by my Father on his throne

the Spirit says to the churches!"

Worship in Heaven

4 At this point I had another vision and saw an open door in heaven And the voice that sounded like a trumpet, which I had heard speaking to me before, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this" 2 At once
